Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid<sup>1</sup>, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarbrough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarbrough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarbrough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. otes from PB Creekmores letters:

The reference to James Quinn Y is from a letter from Bob Blackstone (Yarbrough), a son of arvey Blackstone (Yarbrough) who refers to James Q's sons as cousins." (Note, Harvey B. Y. as apparently in some trouble with the law. He dropped using Y and went by last name of lackstone). 1860 Coosa County Al Census shows son, J. M., 1 year old (son of James Quinn)

An old letter from my mother says William J (Willie) had sons named Charlie, Sam, Commodore nd Tobe. Paula says her records show Willie moved to Bastrop, Texas from Brownwood, Tx.

Another old letter from Moma says that Harvey's sons were named Robert Lee and Hubbard Smith.

Kate Yarbrough, dau of Marion B. Yarbrough, was born 1873, Cherokee Co., Tx, d 11 Jan 1912 n Tyler, Texas. She married 7 Mar 1888 George Radcliff Hill b. 21 Jan 1858, d. 26 May 1923 t Tyler, Texas. George & Kate (Yarbrough) Hill were the grandparents of James Davis ooper-Hill who gave me the information."

aren's note: James Davis Cooper-Hill
2500 West Loop South, Suite 200
Houston, Texas 77077.

e was the son of Margaret Sue (Meadow) and Charles Martin Hill. He married Donna Jane Cooper. hen they married he took his wife's name -- making his last name Cooper-Hill.

ames Cooper Hill says Dicy Ann Martin (wife of Marion B. Y.) was b. 1841 in Georgia and 27 Mar 1890 in Tyler, Texas.

My mother wrote several years ago that Harvey's sons were named Robert Lee after the CSA eneral and Hubbard Smith after a Georgia governor.

Excerpt from a letter from Bob Blackstone (Yarbrough), Galveston, Texas, May 29, 1925:
I met our cousins there (in Houston) children of Uncle James Quinn. Cousin James is a carpenter. Cousin Tobe is guarding convicts and Cousin Ausley is selling papers.

Also in the letter Bob mentions his wife, Frances, son Robert and little "Jem" who is earning to swim.

Attached is a copy of a very yellowed piece of paper I found among the papers of William H. Yarbrough of Tyler, Texas. This William is the son of Charles and Polly and the brother f My James K. Yarbrough who went to Missouri. There is not date on the paper. I believe, owever, it may have been written off for the William H. Y family by the Bob Blackstone entioned above, during his visit to Texas. P. B. thought this was the case as this ob lived in Kansas and he thought that was the Kansas address on this.

LIVING IN HOUSEHOLD OF JOHN J. BOWMAN

s from PB Creekmores letters:

FRANCES LOCKWOOD RECORDS

reference to James Quinn Y is from a letter from Bob Blackstone (Yarbrough), a son of y Blackstone (Yarbrough) who refers to James Q's sons as cousins." (Note, Harvey B. Y.
apparently in some trouble with the law. He dropped using Y and went by last name of stone). 1860 Coosa County Al Census shows son, J. M., 1 year old (son of James Quinn) old letter from my mother says William J (Willie) had sons named Charlie, Sam, Commodore Tobe. Paula says her records show Willie moved to Bastrop, Texas from Brownwood, Tx.

her old letter from Moma says that Harvey's sons were named Robert Lee and Hubbard Smith.

Yarbrough, dau of Marion B. Yarbrough, was born 1873, Cherokee Co., Tx, d 11 Jan 1912 ler, Texas. She married 7 Mar 1888 George Radcliff Hill b. 21 Jan 1858, d. 26 May 1923 ler, Texas. George & Kate (Yarbrough) Hill were the grandparents of James Davis
r-Hill who gave me the information."

's note: James Davis Cooper-Hill
2500 West Loop South, Suite 200
Houston, Texas 77077.

s the son of Margaret Sue (Meadow) and Charles Martin Hill. He married Donna Jane Cooper.
they married he took his wife's name -- making his last name Cooper-Hill.

Cooper Hill says Dicy Ann Martin (wife of Marion B. Y.) was b. 1841 in Georgia and Mar 1890 in Tyler, Texas.

other wrote several years ago that Harvey's sons were named Robert Lee after the CSA al and Hubbard Smith after a Georgia governor.

rpt from a letter from Bob Blackstone (Yarbrough), Galveston, Texas, May 29, 1925:
met our cousins there (in Houston) children of Uncle James Quinn. Cousin James is a carpenter. Cousin Tobe is guarding convicts and Cousin Ausley is selling papers.

Also in the letter Bob mentions his wife, Frances, son Robert and little "Jem" who is ing to swim.

hed is a copy of a very yellowed piece of paper I found among the papers of William H. ough of Tyler, Texas. This William is the son of Charles and Polly and the brother James K. Yarbrough who went to Missouri. There is not date on the paper. I believe, er, it may have been written off for the William H. Y family by the Bob Blackstone oned above, during his visit to Texas. P. B. thought this was the case as this lived in Kansas and he thought that was the Kansas address on this.

Notes were given to P. B. Creekmore by Marcia Stone. I do not have records from her...
 I do not know if the information is completely verified or not. P.B. has sent me notes he received this for me to compare with my files and to add to his groupsheets les. Many researchers send me their groupsheets with just names and dates to compare with other researchers who write to me. My only in keeping some of the is just to send the names and addresses of the researchers to each other hope they may be able to help each other. I make no claim that the information is verified. I send it only as a possible clue.

Stone told P.B.:

Elam T., brother of NBY Jr., had a wife named Rebecca. He had a daughter Useby, or his sister Useby. His will does not mention a daughter Useby who married a House. The Usebia Weldon mentioned could be a married granddaughter.

Elam T. had a brother John Henry Y. (I put the notes referring to him on the back groupsheet - Karen)

The Elam Y who sold his rights in his father James estate 12 Mar 1823, was likely to the Elam Y, son of NBY, Sr. See Will Book 3; Chambers Co. Al, page 575.
 Y mentions lands conveyed to him by his brother, NBY. Lands conveyed 21 Feb 1839.
 dated 10 Aug 1885. (This note doesn't make sense to me, but I have put it down here it appeared in PB's notes - Karen)

James Zachry's will dated Jan 20, 1790 - Daniel Elam was one of the witnesses.
 name Elam in Y family came from this man?

- - - - -

Following notes are from PB's groupsheets and he tells me that all the information is verified. He got some of it from his mother whose notes and written letters and is found to be very accurate when checked against the documents.

Records of Macedonia Prim. Bap. Church say (Chambers Co., Ala): By letter Elam T.
 Rebecca Y joined on Aug 3, 1839. Says Rebecca d Mar 24, 1886. Elam Yarbrough
 Mar 10, 1888 by letter. (PB's note - I think this is the younger Elam)
 Detailed records of this church tell how it was organized by Elder John Blackstone and the first members were NB and Nimrod Y, Sarah P and Jane Yarbrough -about 1835. Afterwards, NB and Sara P, Nimrod and Jane Y were dismissed
 (1844) for disagreeing with the Elders. Sarah P was restored to full fellowship 1868.

Stone located a Tillman Slaughter, 82 years old in 1982, a descendant of Useby Y who son House in Chambers Co Ala in 1835, and who was an indirect descendant of brother Elam Y (through marriage of cousins)."

Now I don't know which Useby is which. Marcia says Elam T's first born was Useby, named after his sister Useby. His will mentions a Usebia Weldon who could be a daughter, but makes no mention of Useby Thornton or her children as such.

note says: Other children & g children of Elam T.: Son: Francis Marion Y; Sarah Shelly; Sarah Myhand, Nicy Weldon; Olive Shoven (?); Elam Hudson, Ophelia Short; 2 dec'd daughters: Angeline Ennis & Calibia Weldon; Usbia Weldon.
 (This may be the 10 Aug 1885 Will mentioned above - Karen)

On Dec. 30, 1874, Daniel David Deerman II m. Caroline Acker, daughter of C. C. and Martha Mills Acker. They lived on a farm south of Craft several years and later lived on a farm east of Craft on what is now FM22.

The Dement Family

Most of the family in Cherokee County descended from John H. and Elizabeth Dement in Limestone Co., Ala., (Jolan ca. 1800-1849, and Elizabeth, part Indian, ca. 1800-1885).

The couple's oldest son, James P., brought his wife, Susan, and children to Texas early in 1860. John Andrew was five and one-half years old and Sarah was one year old. They had a sister, Rebecca, when they came to Texas. There could have been Garners, Holberts, Hendersons, Higgins or Barkers. Benjamin and Rebecca York Dement and Thomas and Rachel Cole Dement were already in Cherokee County in 1850. They must have been fairly closely related.

James P. Dement served in the Civil War and was killed July 31, 1864, south of Fort Smith, Ark. His brother, Stephen, was also in that area but came back to Texas. He m. Susan, the widow, June 19, 1865, in Smith Co., Tex. They lived in Cherokee County where they raised seven children.

These children married the following and raised their families in Cherokee: (1) John Andrew m. Sarah Zackery, then m. Martha Melissa Harris; (2) Sarah m. James Anderson Sides; (3) James William m. Minnie Rebecca Davis; (4) Rhoda Catherine m. Robert Edward Blackwell; (5) Rosa T. m. Alonso M. Yarborough; (6) Susan Rebecca m. William J. Blackwell, then m. George W. Trotter; (7) Stephen Columbus m. Fannie O. Dewberry; (8) Charlotte Alma m. William J. Darden; (9) Lula Bell m. George Darden.

Another son of John H. and Elizabeth Dement came to Texas ca. 1891 with his family. This was William Joshua and Mary Brooks Dement. They settled near Gallatin and raised their family there. Their children: (1) Robert Officer m. Lou Ella Jenkins; (2) Clara Ann m. Charles Sidney Jenkins; (3) Mary Ella m. Dock Stanford; (4) John William m. Julia Henry; (5) Tera May m. W. W. Partlow; (6) Thomas Nance m. Becky Bailey; (7) James Hogg never married; (8) Dora K. m. R. F. Hardy.

A daughter of John H. and Elizabeth m. Andrew J. Henderson and had (1) Harrison S. m. Matilda Victoria Coon; (2) Matilda m. Major Franklin Haws; (3) James Albert m. Nancy E. Dover Strong; (4) Henry S. m. unknown; (5) Joel P. m. Angeline Wills then m. Clara Irwin; (6) Thomas "Doad" m. Anna D. Haden(?); (7) Nancy Verde m. Will H. Emerson; (8) John A. m. Susie Anna Haws.

It is not known what Texas county the Dements came to first, but they were in Cherokee County by the time of the 1880 census. These descendants were cousins to the Dement children above.

Most of the Dements were farmers, church-goers, liked to fish and hunt, and were always ready to help their neighbors if they were sick or in need. Several of their descendants still live in Cherokee County, although not many of them farm any more. Most go to church and do their civic duties as needed. — Flossie Bueckner.

Denison—King—Hillyer Families

Hinda Davis Denison and her identical twin, Helen Gordon Denison, were b. in 1862 in Monroe Co., Miss., to William Varnum Denison and his second wife, Mary Carolina Evans Denison.

The twins had an older sister, Aberdeen Louanna Denison, and four half-siblings b. to their father's first wife, Maria Louisa Burnett Denison. One half-sibling was Mary Elizabeth Denison, who m. Mary Carolina's brother, Edmond C. "Ed" Evans Sr., in 1870 in Brazos Co., Tex.

After the death of William V. Denison, Mary Carolina brought her three young daughters to Cherokee County to join her brother, "Ed" Evans Sr. The three girls were educated at Larissa. In later years, the twins faithfully attended Larissa homecomings dressed in their black "widow's weed" garments and were well-known in that community. Their deceased spouses were Cicero C. King and James Martin.

Not long after arriving in Texas, the widowed Mary Carolina Denison m. George Robbins Hillyer, a family friend from her childhood and 15 years her senior. He was a kind and loving husband and father to her three daughters. This family lived in Precinct 3, the 1880 Cherokee County census shows.

Hillyer, Mary Carolina, her daughter, Hinda D. Denison King; her granddaughter, Helen Frances King; her dear cousin, Miss May G. Denison; Cicero C. King, son-in-law; and his King and Palmer kin, are buried in the same family plot in City Cemetery, Jacksonville, Tex. — Lula Lee Evans Corder.

Leon Devenport Family

Dear Ophelia:

This is just a short note to let you know I received the data. I have not had a chance to go over it as yet, but am putting it aside until then. Thanks a lot.

The enclosed is just a few notes I ran across. I look out for your Josiah. This might be another clue to link with Henry. You might check the 1860 census to get the names of other children. Look for Yarberry, also. One 1850 list, Heads of families only, shows different spellings of Y's, in Blount, Hardeman, Gibson, Lawry, Marshall, Lincoln, Humphreys, Tipton, Henry, Davidson, ~~Heck~~, Giles, Perry, Madison, Williston, Henderson, besides Montgomery. Also Stewart, Washington, Decatur, Shelby, James Yarbrough in Carroll Co, Wayne, Benton, A Wm. Y. in Benton & Bedford cos. I don't know if we have ever checked all these counties ourselves, never knew there were so many Y's in these different counties in Tenn before!! (Heavenly Days!!).

I have a sneaky idea the Theo Y- there in Smith Co in 1860 census from Tenn (born) could be related to George Y-Eliz Norwood; I researched this line and the Norwoods have Smiths in their line, one is Theophilus Smith. One wonders why he went to Smith Co. Tx where my Y's were at that time.

Keep in touch.

Love,

Dorothy Sue

The Creekmore Family

Evert Milo "Tom" Creekmore (b. in Georgia Ridge, Ark., Oct. 21, 1870, d. May 10, 1931) m. Alma Louisa Yarbrough (b. March 8, 1882, Angelina Co., Tex.) Sept. 3, 1902.

Milo Creekmore's first job was driving horse cars across the Arkansas River between Van Buren and Fort Smith, Ark. Later, he became Clerk of the Court in the court of Judge Issac Parker, known as the "Hanging Judge." Later, he became a deputy U. S. Marshal for the same court and was with the posse which shot and killed Ned Christie, the Oklahoma bandit. In 1900 he went to Galveston, Tex., got a job on a ship carrying horses to the British Army. When the ship arrived in Liverpool, Eng., he enlisted in the British Army and served in the Boer War in South Africa under Lord H. H. Kitchner. He received the silver Victoria Medal for his service in that war.

In 1902, he became a locomotive engineer for the Bodan Lumber Co. at Pollok, Tex., and lived in a logging camp near the confluence of Wire Creek and the Neches River in Cherokee County. In 1917 he went to work as a locomotive engineer for the Chronister Lumber Co. at Wildhurst in Cherokee County and worked there until he died.

Alma Louisa Yarbrough's father, Nimrod Pinckney Yarbrough (b. March 24, 1847, d. March 30, 1924) was a Confederate Army soldier in the 63rd Alabama Infantry. He came to Texas in 1869 and received a soldier's grant of 160 acres of land in the northwest corner of Angelina County. He got a job running the ferry at Shook's Bluff in Cherokee County at a crossing on the Neches River on what was called "Smugglers' Road" or the "Contraband Trail." He was the son of Nimrod Billington Yarbrough, who was killed in the Battle of Atlanta in the Civil War. He was a descendant of John Billington of the good ship Mayflower. He named one of his sons Anson Billington, and Nimrod Pinckney named one of his sons Billington Franklin. He, in turn, named one of his sons John Billington.

Nimrod Pinckney Yarbrough has the eleventh oldest family name in recorded English history. It all began when William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066 A. D. He was assisted by Vikings or Norsemen from Denmark and Sweden. Among the Danes was a man named Eustace Yar. When the conquest was finished Eustace Yar was given lands and named Earl of Yarbrough or Earl of Yar's town. Nimrod Pinckney Yarbrough is a direct descendant of that man. Nimrod's mother, Sarah Pinckney, was a descendant of Charles Cottesworth Pinckney. The family has not established a connection with J. Pinckney Henderson, whose statue graces the lawn of the San Augustine, Tex., courthouse. She is buried in Brownwood, Tex., but why or when she went there has not been determined. Her tombstone reads: "Pioneer Woman." The Blackstone family appears in Nimrod's background but comes to a halt in Boston, Mass.

The Creekmore's children: (1) Thomas Vannoy, b. March 17, 1903, Pollok, m. Annella Hooks, b. Oct. 28, 1903, Alto, Tex., on March 1, 1932; (2) Pinckney Brown, b. Aug. 21, 1900, Cherokee

Thomas V. Creekmore chose free-lance engineering as a vocation and retired from the Texas Highway Department after 23 years' service. He served many years in the state militia Co. A, 143rd Infantry, 208 MP Bn. from private to Captain. Pinckney Brown Creekmore retired after many years' service with the Bureau of Indian Affairs on a Hopi Reservation in Arizona. The ceremony was performed in the front yard of the Spivey home as the couple sat in their 1917 Model T Ford with the top down. Many "witnesses" were there, because the Spivey family was having a reunion that day.

Claud Langston finished high school at Mixon, then bought a one-chair barber and tailor shop at Mt. Selman. In 1925 he sold the shop and moved to Jacksonville and worked in the O. K. Barber Shop owned by Sam Pat Thompson. The Depression came and many people could not afford 25-cent shaves and 50-cent haircuts, so Claud Langston entered Jacksonville College and worked part-time in the barber shop.

Claud Langston taught school at Mixon, Mt. Hope, Dialville, and Maydelle and then served four years as Cherokee County Superintendent of Public Instruction. He earned his Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College (now Stephen F. Austin State University). He was a Deacon 40 years in Baptist Churches in Rusk and Alto, was active in Sunday School and Brotherhood, and served both churches as a Sunday School department director. He was a member of the Terrell Masonic Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star in Alto. His hobbies were fishing, quail hunting, and baseball. He was pitcher on a winning baseball team at Mt. Selman in 1924.

Beatrice Wilbourn Langston moved to Cherokee County from Eastland County in 1909. She attended school at Mt. Selman and in Jacksonville.

The weekend pastime for young people then was "Kodaking" and gathering at the Cotton Belt Railroad depot at Mt. Selman to meet the "Jitney" on its daily runs between Tyler and Lufkin: two short blasts of its whistle, it was stopping, and someone was getting on or off the motor car train.

Along with being housewife and mother, Beatrice Wilbourn Langston's hobbies include cooking, sewing, quilt piecing, and crocheting, which she learned at age 10. Her crocheted afghans are her

Moses Langston

Moses Langston (b. Jan., 1848, d. Dec. 19, 1921) m. Mary Elizabeth Wallace (d. Dec. 25, 1933) on July 4, 1874. Moses Langston was the son of Jacob Langston (d. ca. 1851) and Rebecca James (d. ca. Jan. 1848) daughter of Lydia James, early settlers of Robert still bears the name of his grandmother, Lydia James, a widow, who came to Texas in 1835 when it was ruled by Mexico.

Rebecca Langston, apparently knowing that death was eminent, made a list of her separate property a few months prior to the birth of Moses. Part of the list included land inherited from her mother, Lydia James, and other land totaling more than 1,000 acres; 50 head of cattle branded "JL"; 30 head of hogs; and four horses consisting of a sorrel, named "Dick", a blue dun named "Chop", a blue dun mare, and a bay colt.

Rebecca d. soon after Moses was b. Lydia Langston Kenney, Moses' oldest sister, gave birth to a son, George Kenney, near the time that Moses was b. In all likelihood, Lydia nursed George and Moses. Moses also had twin sisters, Mary Ann (d. 1871, m. John W. Sharrock May 7, 1868) and Sarah A. (m. James W. Pharr). The twins were b. in 1843.

When Moses was 10-months-old, his father, Jacob, was m. to Margaret Ann Yarborough by a Methodist minister in Grimes Co., Tex. By the time Moses was two-years-old, he had a half-sister, Frances E. Langston.

When Moses was about three-years-old, ca. 1851, some common tragedy apparently took the lives of Jacob, Margaret, Frances Langston, and George Kenney, Moses' brother-in-law. In 1851 Lydia Langston Kenney, perhaps assisted by Obadiah Blanton, a resident of the Kenney household in 1850, took Moses and the twins, Mary Ann and Sarah A., to their uncles, Isaac Pinckney Langston and Henley V. Langston, who owned adjoining farms near Mt. Selman in Cherokee County. Lydia Langston Kenney m. Riley J. "Dick" Pierce in August, 1851.

Moses resided in several homes while he was growing up, and in 1860 he was living in the household of James W. Pharr, a pioneer teacher in Cherokee County and the husband of Sarah Langston Pharr, Moses's sister.

Sarah's twin sister, Mary Ann Langston, was listed as a seamstress in 1860 and lived in the Isaac Pinckney Langston household. Mary Ann m. John W. Sharrock May 7, 1868. After Mary Ann d. in 1871, John Sharrock m. Mrs. Sarah Rebecca "Sis" Kenney Tyra, a niece of Moses Langston.

Moses entered the Confederate Army in August, 1864, at age 16. He served in Co. G, 22nd Texas Inf. His cousin, John M. Langston, was a Corporal in the same unit. Moses returned to Cherokee County after the Civil War and lived with the John W. Sharrock family.

Moses m. Mary Elizabeth Wallace, daughter of Harvey Wallace and Elizabeth Boyd. Their sons: (1) Joe Willie, b. April, 1875, d. Apr. 28, 1962, m. Pearl Taylor Jan. 8, 1902, three children; (2) Thomas S., b. Sept., 1882, killed in a railroad accident in El Paso Co., Tex., Aug. 31, 1939, m. Allie Hensley, two children.

Children of Joe Willie Langston and Pearl Taylor, daughter of William Taylor and Ophelia McCarter: (1) Vera Beatrice, b. March 6, 1905, m. Leal Bonner Ryan, who after his death m. Johnny Doyle Musick; (2) Lois Virginia, b. June 14, 1911, m. Arthur Looney, and after his death m. Paul Bolton; (3) Leslie Lynn, b. Sept. 27, 1916, m. Ruth Marie Rose. All three children became teachers.

Children of Thomas S. and Allie Hensley Langston: (1) James rad b. 1906; (2) Marion J. "Jack" b. 1908.

Moses Langston is remembered by some elderly residents of the fixon community as a "shouting Methodist." It is a miracle that Moses Langston survived. As a child he was totally dependent on the Christian benevolence of others. He knew that someone cared. It is only fitting that he would have had a close relationship with his od.

Moses and Mary Wallace Langston are buried in the Mixon cemetery. — Robert Pettit.

Albert Latham Family

Albert "Beck" Latham (b. June 10, 1888, Wells, Tex., d. July 20, 1972) m. Pearl Ramsey Aug. 29, 1931, Austonio, Tex., and was the only son of Enoch E. and Virginia Spinks Latham. His mother died when he was two-years-old and he and his sister, Bessie Latham, were cared for by various relatives until their father married again.

He was known affectionally by the name, "Beck," a nick name he how the name was switched to him. He boarded at a "rooming house" in Wells owned by the Cravens family and was employed at the local sawmill several years. "Beck" was inducted into the U. S. Army in World War I on Sept. 21, 1917, and served two years, most of this time on active duty in France. Luckily, he was not wounded. He was a confirmed bachelor for many years before marrying Pearl Ramsey, daughter of Edward and Aline Tobias Ramsey, in his Model T Ford.

Edward and Aline Ramsey came to Texas from Alabama. Pearl was born in Bryan, Tex., but moved to Cherokee County when she was three-years-old. When Pearl was 12-years-old, her mother d. of typhoid fever. Pearl then had to assume the responsibilities of caring for the home, her father and younger sister, and a deaf uncle that lived with them, as well as to help with all the farm work. The main crop was cotton, grown on Larrison Creek bottomland. She was a liberated woman, especially for the times, owning and being able to drive her Model T Ford car. A woman driver was most unusual. Also, she could do most of the repair work on her car.

"Beck" and Pearl made their home in Cherokee County all of their married lives. He worked in the logging industry and she cared for the home and the children.

Children of "Beck" and Pearl Latham: (1) Leonard, police chief at Lufkin, Tex. m. Jennie Chapman, Wells; (2) Carolaine, m. Charles Ray Flowers, Wells; (3) Maxine, m. Kenneth Petty of Wells (deceased), m. A. C. Moninger, Deer Park, Tex.; (4) Charlotte, m. Charles Ruby, Pollok, Tex. There are eight grandchildren. Pearl Latham is living still. — Mrs. Carol Latham Flowers.

Miss Mamie Latham

Miss Mamie Latham (b. June 10, 1891, Alto, d. Oct. 25, 1983, buried in family lot at Harrison-Armstrong Cemetery) lived on the same street in Alto all of her life.

When she was five-years-old, she started to school, rather a young age, but she had an aunt and a cousin who were going to school and she wanted to go along with them. She was a good student, loved books, and read a lot. She studied music with Miss Mary Fisher, who taught music in Alto High School.

Miss Mamie Latham

Miss Latham was valedictorian of the first graduating class of Alto High School in 1908. She taught music for a year or two after graduating, went to Waco and studied music at Baylor University. After returning home, she taught music in the school and had classes at Linwood School on Highway 21. Later she went to Wells and taught at Wells School, either going on the bus or the Cotton Belt "Jitney" to and from school each day. She would alternate the days between Alto, Linwood, and Wells.

Besides her teaching, she cared for her elderly mother. She wrote poetry and short stories, was pianist for Alto Baptist Church, where she was a member for many years. — Zona Latham Boyd.

William Jeff Latham Family

William Jeff Latham Sr. (d. June 9, 1900) came to Texas from Alabama. His ancestors were originally from London, Eng. He settled in Forest, Tex., a small town south of Alto. When he came to Texas, he brought several slaves. He bought land extending as far south as Sweet Union and on to the Neches River.

His wife, Bethany (d. Aug. 13, 1900), was not a well person because of asthma, but she managed her home and looked after her children. They had (1) William Jeff Jr. (d. Feb. 23, 1945), m. Ida Walters (d. Jan. 23, 1961) Oct. 10, 1889; (2) Pat; (3) Enoch; (4) Ed; (5) Sally.

31 Providence Cemetery
 Catalogued: 1-10-11-1971
 By: Mr & Mrs M.J. Crawford

Located about 5 miles south of Jacksonville, Texas, on FM 347. When Mr. Mid Deason died, Mrs Deason wanted him buried on the knoll under the trees. She wanted him buried where each time she walked out on her poarch, she could see his grave. She stood on her poarch, and when the men got to the right place, she waved her bonnet at them and here they dug the grave. This area was soon given as a cemetery. Checked in 1969 by Mrs Geo. Singleton & others

Oldtimer's Recognition Of Early Days in Jacksonville

Sunday, September 10, 1967

Editor's Note:

Mrs. D. L. Harry agreed to share this early account about Jacksonville folks and oldtimers, published in the Jacksonville Daily Progress. The date of the article is not known but thought to be in the early 1920's. The late J. A. Templeton, referred to in this article, will be remembered by oldtimers here, but for the information of others he was the uncle of John Allen Templeton of Arlington, former owner of the journal here.

"Some time ago Mrs. Amanda Hardgrave Frederick, widow of the late W. C. Frederick, was interviewed by Mr. J. A. Templeton, and her recollections of early days in and around Jacksonville were taken down. He says, "They are as she gave them to me several years ago; I will vouch for them."

"We are sure this story will be read with a great deal of interest:

"Mrs. Amanda Hardgraves Frederick, now 83 and a resident of the Jacksonville neighborhood for eighty years, says: 'My father, Frank C. Hardgraves, moved from Washington county, Arkansas, to this neighborhood in 1844, settling about two miles southwest of the present town. He landed there on the first day of October, 1844, and lived in a log house purchased from a man named Ratcliff. The house was said to have been occupied by a Cherokee-Indian before they were driven out of this neighborhood in 1839. Mr. Ratcliff had his home place in another log house out southeast of the town on land now owned by Collins Ross. There were generally some peach trees at these Indian settlements that bore an abundance of good fruit for the early settlers.

"Accompanying my father's family from Arkansas in 1844 were several families, among them Mr. John Odle's family who lived near Cane Hill, Ark. Mr. Odle was so well pleased he stopped in Lamar county and thought of making that his home but in 1846 pulled up stakes and came to Cherokee County, reaching my father's house in March, 1846. He went on down Gum Creek and located a 320 acre tract of land recently owned by L. D. Byrd, where he built a log house and cleared land. Becoming dissatisfied he sold out about 1849 and moved to the town of Jacksonville, which had been laid out into lots by Mr. Jackson Smith in 1847. Mr. Odle went into the mercantile business and remained in that capacity under various firm names until 1858 when he sold out and moved to Bosque county on the Brazos River, at that time a strictly frontier county, where Indians gave much trouble. Mr. Odle's son, A. C. Odle, was a visitor here from Bosque county and greatly enjoyed the Golden Jubilee of Jacksonville in 1922.

"Charles Garrett, my mother's cousin, came from Nacogdoches in 1847, about the time Mr. Jackson Smith laid out the town of Jacksonville, and built a log house at or about the southwest corner of the public square in the old town, in which he kept family groceries and a good supply of powder and lead, as those were very staple articles in the early days. My father assisted Mr. Garrett in hewing the logs and raising his house. Adjoining Mr. Garrett's "store" a man named Henderson had a grocery store where he sold California Beer and ginger cakes. When California Beer proved to be too mild, he had a barrel of whiskey, out of which it was said he could draw any kind of drink requested.

"I often visited Mr. Ratcliff's "store" for various small articles needed at home, and generally he would give me a stick of candy which we considered greatly superior to our old home-made kind.

"The first dry goods store that I can remember was opened about 1850.

"People principally from what we called the Old States began coming into the Jacksonville country in great numbers after the annexation of Texas in 1845.

The family of Nat Yarborough were our nearest neighbors. They owned what is now known as the old Lane home place, which he sold to Rev. Isom Lane, who occupied it with his family in 1849. Mr. Yarborough had a son named George who married my sister, Banner. In 1846 in the month of June the Templeton family located on lands adjoining Mr. Yarborough. Then the Griffin family arrived in 1848 from Tennessee and settled on land joining the Templeton family. Jackson Smith, R. R. Jowell and the Ragsdales all moved in and established homes in 1847. In fact the late forties and early fifties people traveling the public highways were seldom out of sight of "Covered Wagons," principally from States east of the Mississippi River.

"Among very early doctors to locate at the old town was one Dr. Jackson, who was considered a quack, and soon left, after other doctors began to locate.

"Among the early settlers was a family named Tumbleston, that I remember as having lived in a log house near the slaughter - house of the late Virgil P. Monkress. Mr. Tumbleston had a son-in-law named Dean who followed farming. He moved to Athens in 1951 and started in the hotel business and some of his family are said to still be operating a hotel on the site located in 1851.

"My father sold out in 1851 to a man named John C. Kennedy, from Tennessee, who owned considerable slaves. After selling to Mr. Kennedy my father moved to Ellis county and settled on Red Oak Creek. He returned to Cherokee county in 1953 and settled on a place southeast of town, not many years ago occupied by Mr. Frederick and myself. My father died there Nov. 6th, 1867.

"In the early days camp meetings were common. The tenets of the church were much better observed than at the present time.

"We had many long drouhts in the fifties. Wheat grew here abundantly until the Negroes were set free in 1865, but just

The ladies of Alto and vicinity are the best cooks on earth. As proof, just look at the size of A.C. Harrison, Henry Berryman, Jeff Latham, Levi Brewer, Holly Agnew, L.W. Tittle, Mell Noell, John Music-- all are tipping the scales at over 200. And as further proof, just look at the dinner brought to the barbacue. It was good enough for a king's dinner.

The wives of the little men are good cooks, too, but---well, they (the men) didn't believe in expansion. This accounts for it, don't you see?

John Music did a handsome thing when he sent a warm breakfast of beef-steak and coffee to the old soldier's camp. John is a big man any way you take him.

Mart Armstrong and H.W. Berryman know how to arrange for barbecue. They never fail at anything.

Judge Gibson, Rev. S.K. Stovall, Geo. Huston. and a number of others from Rusk went down at the barbecue.

The ladies of the "Ols Maid's Convention" came, saw, sonquered and carried away the cash, which will go toward erecting the Confederate monument.

Over 1,000 people were at the barbecue and ate their stomachs's content, yet there was plenty left, enough to feed 1,000 more.

Bricklaying began on the Slaton new buildings this week, and the buildings will be pushed to completion as early as possible. When these two stores are finished Main street from Rusk to the I. & G.N. depot will be built solidly in brick, with the exception of the old hotel on the corner next to the depot. That building is a regular fire-trap, and stands as a constant menace to all other property in its neighborhood.

The Alexanders will rebuild the factory at once, and expect to be able to take care of their orders, as they saved the main part of their stock, and expect to be running again in a short time.

It is not known how the fire originated. A night watchman was employed, but the alarm was not given until the fire was beyond control. Mr. Alexander tried to save his horse, but the fire was too hot for him to reach the barn. The plant is located so far out that it could not be reached by hose from the nearest hydrant.

The engine, boiler and veneer machines were not destroyed, though badly damaged. They can be worked over and put in service again.

This is a serious loss to one of our principal manufacturing institutions, but the Alexander brothers are not the kind of men who brood over unavoidable misfortunes, and while the fire was still burning they were maturing plans for the work of rebuilding, and when their new factory is ready for operation it will show an improvement over the old one.
