Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid<sup>1</sup>, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

Since the first printing the writer found proof that the Yarbrough brothers, JONATHAN and Humphrey, married the daughters of Robert Lee. JONATHAN to AMELIA (Millie) Lee and Humphrey to Mary Lee. Humphrey's gr.gr.gr.gr. grandson, Richard C. Fremon of Hackettstown, New Jersey, gave the writer copies of a letter written by Humphrey's grandson Williamson Franklin Boyakin; also copies of Williamson Boyakin's obituary published in the Marysville Kansas Advocate. These papers prove that Robert Lee's daughters, MILLIE and Mary married the brothers, JONATHAN and Humphrey. Williamson Boyakin stated in his letter that the Lee sisters were kinswomen of the brothers Francis Lightfoot Lee and Richard Henry Lee. These men were members of the Virginia House of Burgesses, signers of the Declaration of Independence and relatives of the Confederate General Robert E. Lee.

About the year 1800 a young man named Wiley Boyakin came from the old Camden district of South Carolina and settled in Anson County, North Carolina and settled near the Yarbroughs. Wiley Boyakin married Millie Yarbrough daughter of Humphrey and Mary Lee Yarbrough. In 1807 Wiley and Millie's son, Williamson Franklin Boyakin was born. In 1808 a large wagon train was formed in Anson County and according to Williamson Boyakin's obituary the caravan was composed of more than a hundred two wheel carts pulled by oxen. The train was joined by the Boyakin family, several Yarbrough families and numerous allied families. They crossed the Blue Ridge by way of the old Indian trail thru Swannanoa Gap. Swannanoa is a corruption of 'Suwali-Nunna', the Cherokee word for 'trail of the Suwali tribe'. The voyagers went to central Tennessee and settled in Stewart, Giles and Maury counties. A few years later the Boyakin family along with two or three Yarbrough families continued northward into the Illinois Territory and settled in Fayette and St. Clair County.

◁ JONATHAN and AMELIA YARBROUGH'S son William married Sarah Allen, daughter of Darling Allen, Sr. Darling Allen came to Anson County from Virginia and settled on Cribb's Creek near the Yarbroughs. William's and Sarah's children were: Elizabeth, Robert, Joseph, William, James, Lucy, Frankey, Frances and Judie. The entire family moved to Mississippi about 1839. (The Allens of Cribbs Creek in Burnsville Township, Anson County, North Carolina and Related Families. By, Reva Nance Carpenter and Virginia Nance McKee)

Amon Yarbrough married Elizabeth Allen daughter of Darling Allen, Sr. in Anson County. Amon and Elizabeth's children were: Sally, James, Nicey and Lucy. This family went to Alabama about 1830. Elizabeth's father, Darling Allen was killed by his slave. The manner of his death was in this wise: The slave, Mose, fearing his master was going to sell him procured his master's gun and shot him down. (History and Genealogy of the Nances. By, D. Nance)

seventeenth-century parishes were described as

1. New Poquoson, from Back River to Poquoson River
2. York, from Poquoson River to Morgan's Creek
3. Chiskiack, from Morgan's Creek to Queen's Creek
4. Marston, from Queen's Creek to Scimino Creek
5. Middle Plantation, comprising the settlement of that name between Queen's Creek and Archer's Hope Creek (now College Creek)

New Poquoson's name was changed in 1692 to Charles Parish.

York Parish—there is no record establishing a parish, but it had an inducted minister in 1638.

Chiskiack Parish was established in 1640 and its name was changed to Hampton Parish in 1643.

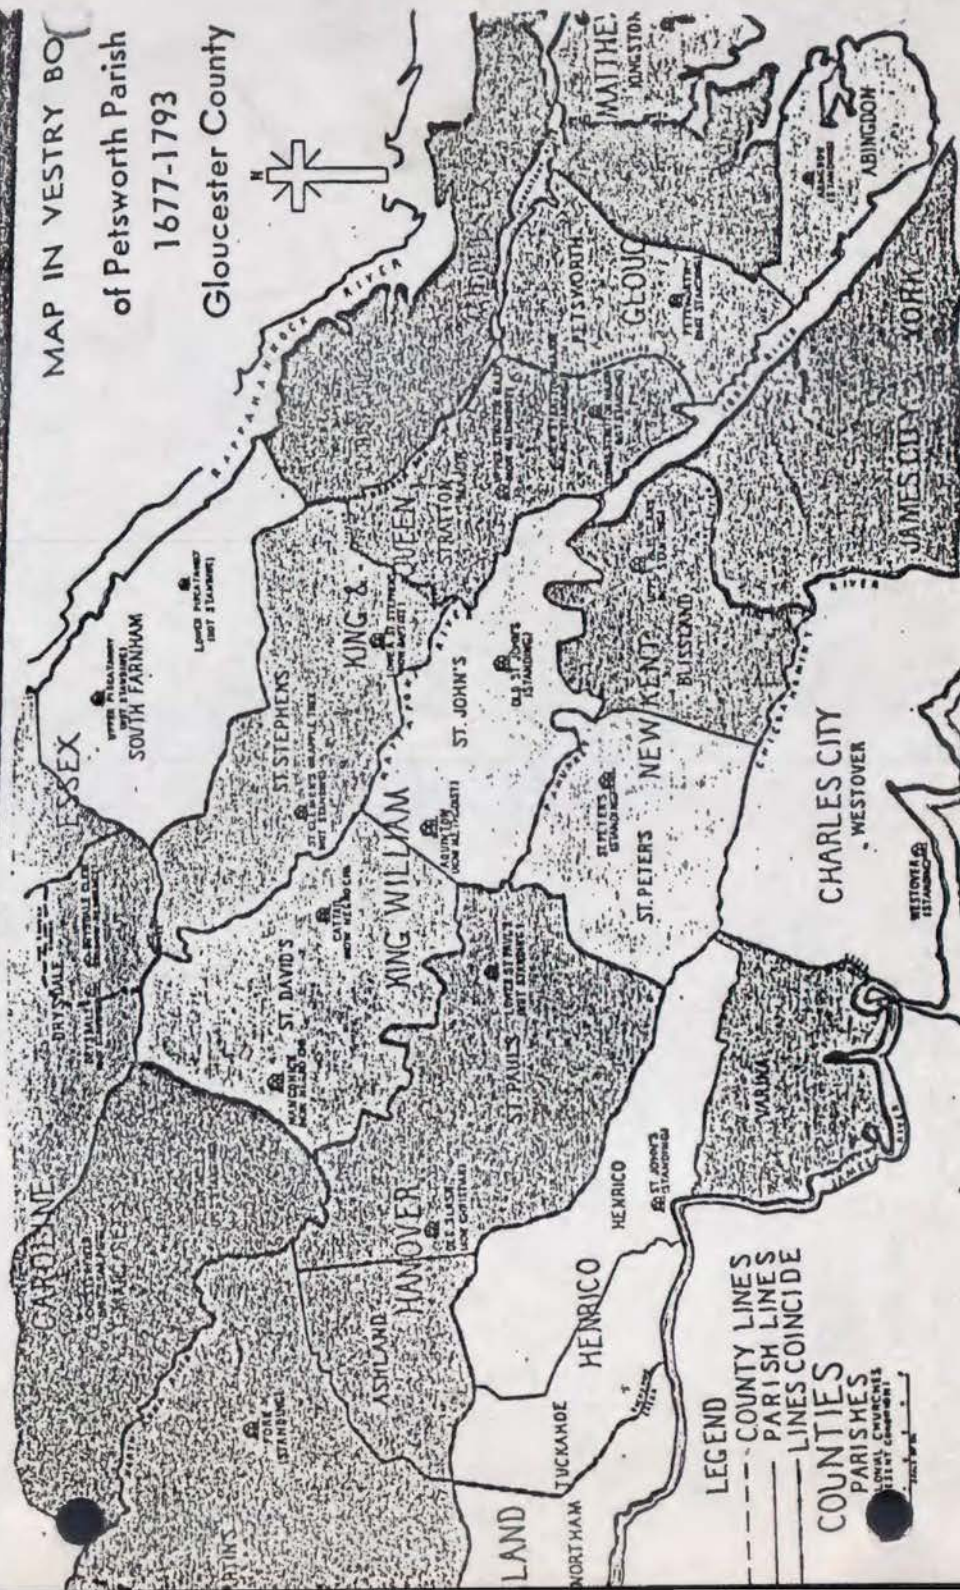

Marston Parish, including the upper part of York County, was created a parish in 1654.

Middle Plantation combined with Harrop Parish in James City County to form Middletown Parish. In 1674 Middletown and Marston Parishes were united to form the present Bruton Parish. In 1706 York and Hampton Parishes were combined into Yorkhampton Parish, with which Martin's Hundred Parish, in James City County, was united in 1712.

The Colony was growing and the population was pressing northward and northwestward, and settlements were being established on the north side of the York River. From York County came first Gloucester County in 1651, in which county we find Abingdon, Petsworth, Ware, and Kingston Parishes. The latter parish was to become the parish in Mathews County in 1791.

In the same year the northern part of York County was taken to form the southern portion of Lancaster County along the south side of the Rappahannock River.

Since that portion of Lancaster County lying south of the Rappahannock River was taken from York County in 1651, we will first follow the creation of the parishes along the southern Give this to Charles, tell him I can write out more fully if he wants me to.

give this part of N S is a fine country land is high but it is better. So - but at 10. & 20. & 50. & 100. & so on for 200 miles North West of here a man can take up land ~~and~~ people is taking it up much fast for the last twelve months people is taking it up on the count of a railroad is going to ~~through the~~ ~~in a~~ ~~way~~ and I think the land will be as easy as ever if I had the money
I would go right out & take up some land but I will try to make a couple before I can do that it will be let to take up land after while - try now we had one sheet and one new sheet it didn't last but a few days we had a sheet of rain but we need. This country is very dry so we had good water & good wood. if that wood had a good crop out her last year it would be very trouble

I had plenty of work to do clearing and so on but it rained so I can't do much at it
I had too much to put up it crops are Well Jim I am in Ark. and you are at the Monroe place. I think if you was out here the Monroe place might go for you. It is settled so--but out 10 and 20 and 50 and 100 ($7). So on for 200 miles North west of here a man can take up land. People is taking it up mighty fast for the last twelve months people is taking it up on the account of a railroad a going to run through there in a year or so and these lands will be as high as anywhere else if I had the money I would go right out and take up some land. But I will have to make a crop before I can do that. It will be too late to take up land after awhile. x xxxxxxxx but a few days we have a heap of rain but no mud. This country is ( ). We have good water and good wood. If they (?) wood had a good crop out here last year it wouldn't be any trouble. I HAVE plenty of work to do & so on BUT IT RAINED SO CANT DO MUCH AT IT.

Well Jim I would love to see you out here. I know if you could get out here with money enough to (run) you (one year) you can do better ~~than~~ you can back there but but if you don't have that you had better stay in Tenn. This is a beaten(?) (country if he (one year) ahead). if you were here you could get plenty of work to do till crop time. You can't do that back there. I have been offered two dollars a day down on the (railroad). The reason I don't go is I ~~keep~~ have regular work to do in the Shop. If nothing happens I will work in the Shop next year, I don't think I will (farm) In Ark. Bud and Biley has rented. They live together. Bud and ( ) as ever are ( ). They will make a heap of cotton but when they pay the rent and hire (d) and divide they won't have a great else left. ( ) and Biley ~~caned~~ (d) down two loads of cotton to the Railroad and brought back two loads of (gravel) for a man. We made 6 dollars ~~and~~ piece. Gone two days. I got half. I drove Bud and wagons. Me and Biley got some persons(?) the trees <sup>down at the</sup> slaves of other black lands (???) I don't like the black (lands) It sticks like tar. (There) <sup>are</sup> red lands and (sandy) lands and black lands and (there) are. Rocky lands and gravel ~~lands~~. The black lands there are no water that is fitten for a hog to drink. When me and Biley went down on the Railroad I liked to starved for a drink. If you ever come to Ark. don't stop between here and Hope. I think I will take a trip to James Yarbrough's before long. He lives 40 mi. ~~off~~ Hope and it is 30 miles to Hope. That would make 70 miles. Today is a ( ) day. Today is Sunday. I haven't been to church since last Spring.

This has been a (hard year) (////). I live in one end of a Mr. Jones house. ~~My~~ Our room leaks. We have a (sturdy) chair ( ) and plenty of dry pine for stove and pine that is ( ) pine. L. William Anderson Simpson; David Wilburn Simpson on R. Both born at Redland, Leon Co.

earned vacation. Then they got to Mexia they stopped outside of town and Will and Anderson rolled the tarp on top all the way up s children could see the town and their street car. Things were going very well until they got to the Trinity River where they had to cross the river on a hand poled ge. But, the river was too swift and they to wait two days for the river to go down. After they got across the river it wasn't very far to Uncle Joe's house. Before they got there both wagons stopped and Claud and Gertie opened up their trunks. The children were old to pull off the clothes they had been washing out at night for ten days and to put on these clean clothes and they had better stay clean until they left Uncle Joe's. One of the main attractions at Uncle Joe's house was the barn, made of lumber, "air tight," they thought, and one of the boys had a motorcycle.

It didn't take quite as long to go back, the river was down, and everything went well. When they got back to Robbins three weeks had elapsed, and they had gone 220 miles. Everyone had a wonderful time, so much so, is still talked about 72 years later.

David Wilburn "Will" and William Anderson lived most of their lives around Robbins. Both worked hard and so did their wives and children. They were a credit to their community. Both are buried at Concord Cemetery in Leon County, Texas.

William Therian Simpson (1895-1942), the son of David William Simpson and Costella Harbrough, married Mary Lee Porter (1900-1984), (the daughter of Henry Porter and Claud Lee), on July 1, 1917. Both were born in Leon County and lived most of their lives here. Both are buried in Concord Cemetery. Therian was a farmer; he and Mary Lee purchased a farm about two miles south of Robbins where they reared three boys and two girls. 1) Walter (1918-), married Texas in 1922. Ray married Nelgene Cromwell. Roy (1922-), married 1st Perlene Williams, married 2nd Mrs. Joy Payne Smith. They live in Leon County where Joy works for Centerville Bank, and Roy works for Leon County Gas. 5) Jimmie Miriam (1924-), married James D. Blauert. They currently live in Houston, Texas, after retiring from the U.S. Army as a Col.

Walter William Simpson

Walter William Simpson, the son of William Therian Simpson and Mary Lee Porter, married Texas Ernestine Clark, the daughter of David R. Clark and Perolee Walters. They were married in Houston, Texas on May 28, 1938. They had two children: 1) David Walter Simpson (1939-), married 1st Louise Little, their children are Laurie Lynn and David William. Married 2nd Ruth E. Iley, their children are Stacie Renee and Katherine Beth. 2) Sharon Ruth (1940-), m. 1st J.R. George, their children were Ricky Allen, Angela Kay and Sheryl Lynn. Married 2nd James W. Faust.

Walter and Texas Simpson also have five great-grandchildren-Gabriel Ramos, Julian Ramos, Brandy George, Justin George and Ashley George.

Walter and Texas have lived in Houston since 1937. Walter is a retired railroad engineer, after working for Missouri Pacific for 42 years. Most of their vacations and a great deal of effort for the past 45 years has been devoted to researching records in many courthouses in many states in their genealogical pursuits to trace their ancestors for future generations. This has also included a trip to Ireland, and Scotland in 1984, where the information regarding the Simpsons in Ireland was obtained and of which he wrote as a part of this book. For all of this I'm certain future generations will be grateful.

Simpson home, built 1737, County Tyrone, N. Ireland. Walter Simpson and Mr. Robinson in foreground; Sharon Simpson Faust and Mrs. Robinson near door.

Joseph Simpson (son of Hugh Simpson), died December 20, 1827, in Perry County, Alabama. His plantation was divided up among his wife, Rebecca, and their five Alabama, January 24, 1832, (son of Joseph Evans and Amelia Hawkins); Thomas (1822-1848); Hugh M. (1820-1862); William David (1824-1907); and Mary Ann (1826-?).

Hugh M. Simpson married Amanda Yarbrough, daughter of William Yarbrough in Sumpter County, Alabama in 1842. Hugh and Amanda moved to Arkansas in 1842, settled about three miles north of El Dorado, where they had six children, Anne, Albina, Missouri, Sarah K., W.P., and Jessie G. Hugh had acquired a considerable amount of land and slaves around El Dorado. He raised cotton, and owned his own gin. Hugh and Amanda helped organize the First Baptist Church in El Dorado, Arkansas, in 1845.

Hugh M. Simpson was killed on his own plantation during the Civil War, April 25, 1862.

There is a well known story in El Dorado about two of Hugh and Amanda's children. Sarah K. (age 13) and Jesse G. (age 8), the youngest son and daughter, were murdered about three miles north of El Dorado by one of their kitchen slaves, Jerry Atkins.

Jerry Atkins was captured in Ashley County, Arkansas within the course of a few days by another slave, Ed. Tatum. Ed brought him to El Dorado where Atkins confessed and stated that he committed the deed out of anger for Mrs. Simpson.

The citizens thought it would be a useless expense to place such a case as this on the courts. They decided to chain him to a tree and burn him. This was done on November 21, 1865, and all the people in the vicinity, both white and colored, assisted in his execution. All of this was witnessed by a small squad of United States Troops.

William David Simpson and his brother, Thomas (sons of Joseph Simpson), this was witnessed by a small squad of United States Troops.

William David Simpson and his brother, Thomas (sons of Joseph Simpson), moved from Perry County, Alabama to El Dorado, Arkansas in 1845. This is where Thomas met and married Elizabeth Banks on October 25, 1846. Thomas Simpson died December 16, 1848, in Union County, Arkansas.

When Joseph Evans moved his family from Perry County, Alabama to Texas, William David Simpson (son of Joseph Simpson), joined his sister, Isabella, in the wagon train; Isabella had married Edward Evans (son of Joseph Evans), in Perry County, Alabama, January 24, 1832. They proceeded on to Texas, arriving in Alto, Cherokee Co., 1849. They remained there for awhile. That is where William David met Sarah (Sallie) Selman. But he moved on with his sister, Isabella, and Edward Evans to Leon County, Texas in 1849. He lived with his sister, Isabella, and Edward Evans on Redland until July, 1850. At that time he went back to Alto and married Sarah (Sallie) Selman, the daughter of Willis Selman and Anna Embry, August 1, 1850. He brought her back to Leon County. They purchased a tract of land about six miles west of Centerville, and built a double log house on the bank of Spring Creek, which was later called Simpson Springs. There they reared a family of seven boys and one girl: Joseph, Benjamin, James Edward, David Wilburn, Mozane, John Calvin "Cabb," William Anderson, and Albert Newton Simpson.
