Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid[1], "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The Abortive Counties

This group of counties consists of twelve counties duly created by the legislature but which for various reasons failed to spring to life and perform governmental services. The basic requirement for creation of new counties was outlined in the Constitution of 1835, with some modifications by the Constitution of 1870. It is assumed that each of these counties met the constitutional requirements but that either it was too close to a neighboring courthouse or that its creation diminished a parent county to a size smaller than the legal requirements. Robert McBride believes that "traditional ties of loyalty failed to approve" the creation of another county.[2]

A brief listing of these counties is given on the chart which follows.

Name	Year	Parent Counties	Named for

The Tennessee-Kentucky boundary, intended to be 36°30', was run too far north in 1779-1780 by Virginia surveyors. Kentucky finally accepted this erroneous Walker Line in early 1820, but significant parts of the boundary remained uncertain until a resurvey completed in 1859. Some settlers in the disputed strip were uncertain in which state they lived, though Tennessee exercised jurisdiction over much more of the strip than Kentucky ever did. By contrast, the Tennessee-Kentucky line west of the Tennessee River was surveyed in 1819 essentially on 36°30'.

*NOTES:

The Territory South of the Ohio River, popularly called the Southwest Territory, was created in May 1790.

By direction of the territorial governor, militia captains took a census in July 1791. The county lines were unchanged from 1790.

Tennessee County's name was dropped after its division into Montgomery and Robertson in 1796.

County; shop is one of the rooms of Col. Smith's former tavern and his dwelling house is one door below the Printing Office. (Central Monitor, Murfreesboro, 25 Jan. 1834.)

YARBROUGH, Margarette, wife of S. J. Yarbrough, died in DeKalb County on the 22d; funeral to be held in Nashville; daughter of James B. Parrish. (Nashville Republican Banner, 25 July 1869.)

YARBROUGH, William, first lieutenant of the night police, died on the 4th of congestion of the lungs. (Nashville Dispatch, 5 Aug. 1862.)

YARNELL. Senate Bill 33 for the benefit of Isabel J. and Henry T. Yarnell to consider them legitimate as born in wedlock before the General Assembly on the application of the father; the bill was passed and later rejected. (Nashville Daily Union, 29 April 1865.)

YEADON, R., Jr., killed. Richard Yeadon, editor of the Charleston Courier, writes about the Battle of Chickahominy, "the accursed Yankees have slain my nephew and namesake; he was killed between 3 and 5 o'clock; shot through the head and died instantly; in the Washington Light Artillery." (Nashville Dispatch, 15 June 1862.)

YEATMAN, Mrs. Eliza, formerly of Nashville, died in New York City wife of the late John Yeatman. (Nashville Republican Banner, 27 May 1870.)

YEATMAN, Nellie Fortier, wife of J. W. Yeatman, died October 20 in Canada of consumption. (Nashville Republican Banner, 21 Oct. 1869.)

YELLOW WOLF, aged Kiowa, died on the 4th in Washington and buried in the Congressional Graveyard by the side of a Ponca Indian, who was buried there a few years ago. (Nashville Dispatch, 14 April 1863.)

YOHE, David, of Pigeon Creek, Washington County, went to the battlefield at Fort Donelson and had the body of his son disinterred; son had been wounded and died and buried. The body was taken home and buried. All thought it was his body except one sister. Last week they got a letter from him--alive. He had recovered from his wound and was going to rejoin his outfit. (Nashville Dispatch, 1 June 1862.)

YORK, John, Esquire, old and well known citizen of Edgefield, died yesterday of bilious fever. (Nashville Republican Banner, 19 July 1868.)

YOUNG, Abe, of Rally Hill in Maury County, was found dead in Duck River on May 2 at Hardison's Mill. He was to be a witness for the grand jury against a number of parties, and he was killed to keep him from testifying at the next term of court. (Maury Democrat, 9 May 1889.)

YOUNG, F. G., died near Culleoka; heart disease; buried on the 8th. (Columbia Herald, 19 Aug. 1870.)

YOUNG, George, colored, one of the best waiters at the Maxwell House, died Sunday. (Nashville Union and American, 18 Aug. 1874.)

YOUNG, Joseph, of Company A, 47th Tennessee Regiment, died at St. Louis on the 1st as prisoner of war. (Nashville Dispatch, 11 July 1862.)

YOUNG. Male Thief Caught. - Mr. John T. Sullivan of Humphreys County came to our city last Monday or Tuesday, and told the Sheriff that a man named George Young had borrowed his horse, and ran away with it. On Tuesday morning, Deputy Sheriff Harris concluded he would go down in the direction of Cross Bridges but failed to carry any weapons with him. When he reached Mr. Park's gate, near the Hampshire crossing, he met a man whom he recognized as the mule

INTRODUCTION

In order for the researcher to understand the full value of the records contained in this small volume, I shall give a brief history of the settlement and formation of Davidson County, Tennessee.

Early in the spring of 1779 preparations were made at Watauga to plant a permanent settlement on the Cumberland. The place selected was the bluff near the French Lick (now Nashville). An account of the voyage can be found in Clayton's HISTORY OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, published in 1880; The first settlement is referred to in most any good history of Middle Tennessee. These various publications relate some of the events which were a part of the happenings along their way.

Before reaching their destination the party was split into two companies. Capt. James Robertson taking command of one group while Colonel John Donelson became the leader of the other group.

Colonel Donelson gave a list of those in his company; A list considered most valuable to historians and genealogists

After arriving at the spot we know as Fort Nashborough it was necessary for these settlers to set up some kind of government. The result being "Articles of Agreement or Compact of Government entered into by the Settlers on the Cumberland River." This was 1 May 1780. To this document we find the names of persons who had arrived in the settlement at that time.

In 1784 the North Carolina General Assembly, granted a petition to grant lands to those persons who had rendered services in the settlement. This list again gives us a most valuable piece of information.

We are indebted to Prof. W.W. Clayton, author of HISTORY OF DAVIDSON COUNTY , 1880, for the 1787 tax list showing the number of polls in each family.

This brings us to the names of persons registered in Davidson County, Militia in 1812. So far as I am aware, this list has never been published, and is one of very great value. It contains almost every person in the county who would have gone into the service under General Andrew Jackson and engaged in the War of 1812. It also takes the place of an 1810 census which was destroyed.

It was not until 1820 that we have a census available for the county. In fact Rutherford County, is the only county which was saved of the 1810 enumerations.

The Pension list of 1818 is our next most valuable item. I am including the list for West Tennessee, as Davidson County was at that time considered to be in West Tennessee. There is another reason for this also, many of those who were in Davidson County in 1800 and a few years later, had moved on westward. Some of them had been Revolutionary Soldiers, while others had served in the War of 1812, and some few possibly were in both.

The 1840 Davidson County, Census of Pensioners also is given herein, even though it has been published elsewhere.

It was in 1883 that we find the official pension list containing the names of service men or their widows at that time drawing Federal pensions. Of course, this is a most important list for their pension files in the National Archives contain a gold mine of history and genealogy.

I have included some other bits of information which I think will serve a purpose.

Originally there were three counties created in the Middle District, then called the "Mero" (Miro) District. These three counties were Davidson, Sumner and Tennessee. What is now Tennessee was previous to 1796 a part of North Carolina. Davidson County was created by an act of the Legislature of North Carolina, approved , October 6, 1783. It originally included most of the territory west of the Cumberland Mountains. Sumner County was carved and erected on November 17, 1786 by an Act of the North Carolina Legislature. In 1796 when Tennessee became a State it was necessary for the county of that name to relinquish the name. It was then that Old Tennessee County, was divided into two counties, bearing the names of Montgomery and Robertson.

Sumner County was divided in 1799 when a portion was made into Smith County, and at the same time another part of Sumner became Wilson County.

The Act creating Williamson County, cutting it from Davidson, was passed October 26, 1799.

On October 25, 1803 Davidson County gave up another large portion of her territory to form Rutherford County.

In 1807 Williamson was further divided and Maury County created. In 1803 Dickson County had been cut from Robertson and Montgomery, and in 1807 Hickman County was made from a part of Dickson. In the same year, 1807, Bedford County was formed from a part of Rutherford.

This gives the researcher a little better understanding of the location of the first settlers of the Cumberland Settlement and the location of the pioneers in the very early days, as well as draws a picture of their pushing from the center in all directions.

This publication is especially valuable because of the absence of a census for the first thirty five years of Davidson County. It will suffice the loss of the 1810 census and goes far to bring the names of the pioneers up to 1820 when a complete enumeration of the heads of families of Davidson County, was made.

I have been a genealogist-historian for fifty years; During which period of time I have accumulated a vast collection on the people who came to the "Mero" District, many of whom lie in unmarked graves; and, many others whose graves once marked are no longer to be found on account of the fast growing population and business expansion. There were those who remained only a few years then moved on to other regions westward and southwestward. Some fell by the way side and their families moved on to clear the wilderness and establish homes.

Among the names found in these various lists will be many Revolutionary Soldiers , and Soldiers of the War of 1812, therefore, it will be a contribution to these worthwhile organizations and assist them in futhering their most important work of preservation of American History.

Let's guard our sacred heritage by protecting and preserving our County and State documents. Let us become dedicated to the project of taking pride in our record books and original documents.

These are the pages of the notebook I mentioned when you called. It was written by my great grandmother, Margaret Elizabeth Bell Rains, for my grandmother, Olivia Lorena Rains Walker. I'm sorry she didn't write more about the Yarbroughs, but at least we have a list of the children of Joel and Elizabeth Rushing Yarbrough--and it was written by a woman who knew some of these Yarbrough children. It is obvious that my Grandmother Rains wasn't an educated woman, but I am grateful to her for every misspelled word! You will note that Asa is called Asey and Mary Ann is Marry, but at least we know what she was trying to write. I remember my great grandmother Rains, since I was almost 11 yrs. old when she died. I wish I remembered more of the family talk between her and my grandmother and the stories my grandmother told after I was older! Also wish my mother had paid closer attention to who is who in the relatives, since my mother is still living (a healthy 82 years old).

My great grandmother and grandmother kept in contact with at least some of the Yarbrough family within my memory. Actually the only one my mother and I remember ever seeing was the widow of William Yarbrough, Argen Hill Yarbrough, so she wasn't a blood Yarbrough. As best my mother recalls, Argen married a Mr. Jones after the death of her Yarbrough husband and they lived here in Abilene for a time and later on a farm in Eastland County about 20 miles from Abilene. My mother remembers that William and Argen had a daughter named Bessie, that Bessie worked for the telephone company in Abilene when they lived here, and that Bessie married after she was old enough to be considered an "old maid"--but she doesn't have any idea who Bessie married. She thinks Bessie moved away when she married--and has no idea where. All this took place in the early 1920's (and maybe before) and on into the 1930's. We think Argen died in the 1930's. All we remember about Argen's family is that she had a sister named Rodah who used to come see our family. We just didn't know any more of the Yarbroughs, no matter how "far flung" from the original group of Yarbroughs. Actually we didn't know any of the other branches of the Rains family either. When our Rains branch moved from Shelby County to West Texas in 1890, there was very little visiting with those they left behind or the ones who had scattered to other places. Any letters my great grandmother might have saved were burned with her house in 1924 or 1925--so I have no record of correspondence or pictures she might have had or any of her early momentos.

The other notebook written by Margaret Elizabeth Bell Rains has just this same list of Yarbrough children. Sometimes a sentence is added in the other notebook, but not about the Yarbroughs. She wrote these notebooks in December of 1920.

Celebrations

A REUNION OF THE PADON FAMILY

Reprinted from The Champion, July 14, 1915

The 4th of July was a glorious one with the Padon family; they were altogether for the first time since the older children married away from the home circle. C.E. Padon, wife and three children, from Fort Worth; A.J. Padon, wife and baby, and C.C. Stampes, son-in-law, wife and two children from Dallas; F.E. Padon, wife and baby of Midlothian, all assembled at the home of their parents, J.A. Padon and wife, where they met their sisters, Misses Nora, Alphonsus and Mary Belle – twenty in all.

What a happy gathering where hearts filled with love gave expression in joyous accents. And, not knowing what Fate or Fortune might bring, a photograph of the family group was taken as a lasting memento. After spending Sunday and Monday the children returned to their respective homes with the exception of Mrs. Edith Stampes who will spend the week with her parents.

Mr. J.A. Padon is a brother to Mr. Jesse Padon of Center and will be remembered by many of the citizens of the county. He was the first printer that worked on The Champion. When the office was established he set the type and a brother made the furniture that was needed in the office. He has not lived here for twenty years but still has his kindly feelings for the country of his early life.

UNCLE TOM CARROLL CELEBRATES 86th ANNIVERSARY

Reprinted from The Champion dated January 26, 1916

Uncle Tom Carroll, living below Shelbyville, celebrated the 86th anniversary of his birth Sunday last. In the morning a large number of relatives and friends gathered at his house and a religious service was held, with Rev. J.L. Ross preaching a splendid sermon.

Following the services a sumptuous dinner was served to those present. Uncle Tom Carroll is a pioneer of this county and considering his age he is still an active man. He gets about his home with remarkable ease and bids fair to have many more birthdays.

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION FOR LINA HOLT

Reprinted from The Champion dated April 26, 1916

Monday April 17, 1916 was celebrated in honor of Mrs. Lina Holt's sixty-third birthday, by a large crowd of relatives, children, grandchildren and close friends. The day was spent on Tenaha creek, at the Price crossing, in Campti community. The day was a very pleasant one, and enjoyed by every one.

A large dinner was spread at noon, which was devoured welcomely. The evening was spent by friendly conversation and singing, the men and boys engaged in some pleasant games which they enjoyed very much. Everyone seemed very glad to have the priviledge of meeting with Aunt Lina once more on such an occasion for we know not when we shall all meet her again. We know she is in her years of declination, and can't tread here in this world of sin and woe very many years longer. But we are glad to know that we can meet her again someday in her Heavenly Home which she has been prepared for many years.

Her friends can scatter flowers along her pathway of life by truly saying that she has lived a noble true and christian life. Although it has been filled with trials and hardships all along the way, we can praise her for the continued effort she is making to fight the battle to the end. We can praise her for her noble acts and kind deeds she has scattered on her journey of life. She seems to love every one and to make everyone her friend.

To know her is to love her, and when The Father claims her for his own it will be a Heavenly gain and an earthly loss, we can praise her for doing her duty in the way of raising a family; we can say she has brought up under her guide a family who have made good useful men and women who love their home and their country, and who are taking their mother's life for an example and we hope them a success. Now we wish the remainder of Aunt Lina's life to be filled with pleasure and happiness. Our prayer is that when she leaves her earthly home she will cross the chilly waters and find a happy home awaiting her arrival.

MRS. NARCISIS BURNS CELEBRATES 110th BIRTHDAY

Reprinted from The Champion dated May 30, 1917

Mrs. Narcisis Burns of Waxahachie will celebrate her 110th birthday Sunday. Around that statement, the word-painter, with vision enough to grasp history in the making, could weave a wonderful story of the life of a woman who looks serenely back upon more than a century of the period of greatest change the world has known.

Men have looked with awe upon some inanimate object – a giant tree or a towering peak – that has stood immutable amid the change of years. Mrs. Burns has watched changes as great, and, more, can tell of it. Her memory is fresh, and she tells the story with interest and spirit.

Born before "Old Hickory" whipped the British at New Orleans, and before the Alamo and San Jacinto fields were baptized into immortality by the blood of Texas heroes, Mrs. Burns has passed through five wars on th soil of the United States. She has twice faced all the hardships that are the lot of pioneers who go ahead to soften the wilderness for the tender feet of civilization.

From the time when armies contended with muzzle-loading muskets and wooden frigates sailed the seas, she has watched the science of warfare develop a systematic slaughter by aerial monsters, hurled by the tremendous force of explosives a thousand times more powerful than the gunpowder that prostrated the American Indians with awe at the coming of the first white man. She has lived from time when solid shot was the greatest weapon at the command of armies to the time of the exposive shell which sweeps all things living from vast areas.

She has watched the trails of the wild things through the wilderness metamorphosed into the [illegible] paths of commerce. She has seen the primeval water which formerly only stirred at the thrust of the savage canoe ripple proudly before the bow of the river steamer.

Mrs. Burns has seen much, and it is her only hope that she may live to see society and its foster father, civilization, triumph at last in the realization of universal peace.

Mrs. Burns was born in Madison county, Tennessee, November 26, 1806. Her maiden name was Narcisis Yarborough. Her father Richard Yarborough, moved his family to Texas when Mrs. Burns was a girl of 10 years. The state was then nothing but a wilderness, blazed only infrequently by the rough trails of the pioneers. The vast forests were peopled by Indians, and buffalo herds covered the plains.

The Tennessee pioneer settled on a "headright" of land near what is now known as Center in Shelby county. The place was then called Shelbyville, after a family that is prominent in the Southern States, from which most of the immigrants came.

This was the home of the Yarboroughs throughout the girlhood of Mrs. Burns, and her home after she became the wife of John Washington Burns, a veteran of the bloody field of San Jacinto, a volunteer in the Mexican war, and a wearer of the gray in the great struggle between the states. Mrs. Burns recalls that she was married under the old Mexican laws, which were then in force in the land called Texas, a province which normally owed allegiance to the dictators of Mexico.

John Burns died more than 30 years ago, and since that time Mrs. Burns has made her home with her daughters, who are Mrs. May Thomas, Mrs. Martha Walker and Mrs. Lippa Jane Walker. It is in the home of Mrs. Martha Walker, herself an octogenarian, who resides with her husband on a farm near Waxahachie, that Mrs. Burns will celebrate her 110th anniversary Sunday.

MORE ABOUT MRS. NARCISIS YARBOROUGH BURNS

Reprinted from The Champion dated June 13, 1917

Somewhere in the late 30's and early 40's there came to Shelby county, Texas, a family from Tennessee named Yarborough, settling on a large tract of land and building a double-story house, with outlaying cottages for their slaves on what is now known as the old Wheeler place on the Center and Timpson road. There Miss Narcisis Yarborough met Mr. John Burns, who afterward became her husband.

Later on there came a gallant young Kentuckian of proud mind and lordly bearing into Shelby county and took up the league of land which is now known as Willow Grove. His name was Mr. Tatum. Soon he heard of the beauty and wealth of the Yarborough girls, so went there awooing; so these twain whom God had joined together were the parents of our present honored townswoman, Mrs. Almeda Tatum Gholston, cousin of Mrs. Narcisis Burns, to whose history we must now return.

When the war of '46 was on with Mexico, Mr. Burns, like all loyal citizens fought all through it, leaving his wife in Shelby county.

At that time the village of Houston on Buffalo Bayou was attracting attention, so hither the Burns' moved, and Mrs. Burns now says of the Houston Heights, that at the time when they went there the land could be bought for 25 cents per acre.

Meanwhile the Burns family grew; sons and daughters were born unto them, and then the call to arms came. It was in 1861 and the south was invaded. Mr. Burns shouldered his trusty rife and gave his life for the south.

After the war Mrs. Burns made the trip on horseback from Houston to see her relatives in Shelby county.

Time went on and she with her children moved to Galveston and was there when the September storm of 1900 swept the island. She now says the most happy hour of her life was [illegible] the storm when she had but the one dress, was barefoot, but had all her children. In that storm she lost all her papers so she is not so sure as to the time of her birth.

Readers of the Houston Chronicle will remember of the wonderful woman who at the age of 110 years, journeyed alone from Waxahachie to Houston, got on a street car, made the transfer and got off at the door of her daughter's home. The same paper also gave subsequent notices of church and sunshine society receptions, all for this venerated Mrs. Narcisis Burns, whose first home was in Shelby county, and some of whose loved ones sleep in the cemetery of old Buena Vista, Shelby county.

REUNION OF FIVE BROTHERS

Reprinted from The Champion dated August 22, 1917

Tuesday, August 14, 1917, F.O.B. Richardson, half brother, near Sholar, Texas, J.J. Rushing of Center, R.A. Rushing of San Angelo, and Dr. E.A. and A.G. Rushing of Joaquin, spent the day at the old home place 4 miles southwest of Joaquin, where R.Y. Newton now lives.

All met at the appointed hour and after going through and looking around the old house, and each one reviewing back and calling to memory the old times past, and talking over our boyhood days – things that happened when we were boys – when we were all at home with father and mother, it made us feel sad, yet we were made glad to know that we were all able to meet back at the old home and spend the day.

The house which still stands today, was built 42 years ago by Father E.J. Rushing, now deceased, assisted by the elder brother, Fisher Brien, the sills and plates to the house being hewn out by hand, and they seem to be as sound as a dollar. The old brick chimney still stands almost as good as the day it was put there.

After looking about the old place, we repaired to a favorite spot under the old oak tree. Many years ago in our boyhood days, we would climb up this old tree and cut our names, and sit high up in the tree and peel and eat good old time ribbon cane until we were fully satisfied. There under this same oak tree we spread our lunch, you may know we did our duty, for we had plenty of good things to eat, such as barbecued beef, fried chicken and other things too numerous to mention, besides plenty of fine melon, and to cap it all, some good old hot coffee furnished us by Mr. Newton. Altogether, it made a real picnic dinner. After dinner a picture was made of the five brothers then the next thing on the program was to go over the fields where we used to plow and hoe. So we started out for the journey, going back by the old place, and on arriving we sat down on the steps and again had our pictures made. We went from there to what we called Sallie's Spring, down in the field, and drank water from the old spring, which has been kept up for 40 years. There we had another picture made and from there to the old cotton house we journeyed. Here at this old place father and the older boys and girls would pick cotton as long as they could see and weigh it up by pine torch light after dark. I have heard father speak of this several times.

Thence to the old beech tree, that has since fallen down, where the boys, in boyhood days, would see which could climb the highest, and cut their names on the tree. It was on this old beech log that we had another picture made.

Thence to what was known as the Camy wash hole, where the older boys learned how to swim and it was right in the botton of the creek, in the old wash hole, that we had another picture made, but mind you, the creek is very dry now.

Left: Tennessee Magistrate [See biographical sketch pp.15-6]

James Yarbrough

JAMES YARBROUGH

"JAMES YARBROUGH was born in Warren Co., N.C., May 23, 1804. His father came to Tennessee and settled on White's Creek, in Davidson County, in 1806, when James was scarcely two years of age.

In the month of February, 1823, James was married to Margaret Coffman. Of this union there were born nine children, seven of whom grew to maturity; on this number only two are now living,--Mrs. William D. Robertson, who resides on White's Creek, amid the scenes of her early childhood, and James H. Yarbrough, one of Nashville's worthy citizens. Mr. Yarbrough was a man of indomitable energy, and his necessity caused him to be economical. He was one of the best farmers in the county. He commenced life poor, but when he died, in 1861, he left fifty thousand dollars to his family.

His educational advantages were limited; nevertheless he was a close student,--a student of men and things. He was well informed on the current events of the day,--a man of close observation. He was also a very practical man; his neighbors found him a good counselor, and were greatly pleased by his wise judgment.

In 1852 he was elected magistrate of the Twenty-first District, and served two terms. Under the old militia law of Tennessee, he filled the various offices from corporal to major of his regiment.

In all his public ministrations and trusts, he was efficient and true to the confidence imposed in him.

He was a worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was truly a Christian gentleman.

He was a true and noble citizen, an affectionate husband, a kind and loving father, and an honest man."[2]

Page 213 Will of Henry Burnett, deceased, of Davidson County.
Nov 18, 1817 To my son William Burnett 50 acres of land including his house and farm whereon he now lives. All my property both real and personal be kept together for the benefit of raising my family until my youngest son Richard Burnett arrives to 12(21) years of age unless my executors find it necessary to sell part of my perishable estate together with 200 acres of land lying in said county and joining the late James Hamilton then after my youngest son R.B. arrives at the age of 12 years. The residue of the tract of land whereon I live be equally divided between my three sons, Henry Burnett, Joseph Burnett and Richard Burnett. To each of my daughters, that is, Nancy McCombs, Elizabeth Burnett, Polly Burnett, Sarah Burnett, and Milly Burnett provided they continue on my family and aid and assist or raising my children be allowed $200.00 after my youngest son R. Burnett arrives to 12 years of age or in proportion for the time they stay in my family. It is my will that my children from Henry Burnett down be educated. All the residue of my estate be sold and divided among my children. I appoint Joseph Burnett and Elizabeth Burnett be executors. This 7 May 1817. Wit: Cary Felts, William Burnett and William Freeman. Searching for Indexed Terms[1]

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select "Edit", and then "Find" or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched[2]. First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
