Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid[1], "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

JOHN YARBROUGH
AND HIS WIFE, ELIZABETH (CLEMENT?)

John Yarbrough, b. ___, identifies himself as John Yarbrough, Senior in his February 1816 will (see below). His wife was mentioned in the will, but her name was not given. The children named in his will were: Jesse, Martha, Thomas and Arthur. These were probably the youngest children and older children were not named in the will as they had already received their inheritance.

The Carolan Family Bible[1] gives some additional information:

Sarah Clement, daughter of John Yarbrough and Elizabeth, b. January 19, 1777.

John Yarbrough Sr. died June 20, 1816.

Elizabeth Yarbrough died December 15, 1840.

Arthur Yarbrough Sr. died June 4, 1831.

Arthur Yarbrough Jr. died January 14, 1837

James Furguson died Aug 2, 1839

Note that John Yarbrough's will names his son in law Ferguson as one of the executors of his will. His daughter, Martha, married James Ferguson.

Another known son was John Yarbrough, Jr. John Jr. married Mary Havis (see later). Mary was named in her father's, John Havis, 1807 will. There is a mention of John Yarbrough and wife Mary in a 1785 Deed (see later), so they were apparently married as early as 1785. On December 10, 1829, John Yarborough and his wife Mary were summoned to court (see probate records of Bruce Livingston). So, John Y. Junior was living as late as 1829.

The Bible record of John Glazier[2] gives the information:

Elizabeth Edwards Glazier was born 4 April 1782.
Elizabeth E. Glazier marred -- --- 1804 to Arthur Yarborough.
Elizabeth E. Yarborough died -- --- 1822.

JOHN YARBROUGH, JR.
AND HIS WIFE, MARY HAVIS

John Yarbrough, Jr. married Mary Havis, daughter of John Havis.

Will of John Havis[4], dated 4 Mar 1807, probated 15 Aug 1807. Names wife: Susannah Havis; sons: Jesse; John Jr; Thomas. Daughters: Elizabeth Auston; Lydia Knighton, Mary Yarbery. John Havis directs that one share of his estate be divided into four equal parts between his grandaughters: Charlotte O'Neal; Mary Martin; Susannah Martin; Elizabeth Martin. Executors: Wife Susannah, son Jesse and friend John Woodward. Witnessed by Obed. Kirkland, Robert Willson and Samuel Wiley.

A great deal of confusion exists regarding the children of John Yarbrough, Jr. They have been mixed up with the children of John Yarbrough, Sr., probably because the children were named after the grandfather and his children. One known son was Thomas Yarbrough who married Martha Harris. G. W. Yarbrough says other known children were: Lewis, Patsy, Elisha and Rolin.[5]

Also, was the marriage in 1823 of Silas Yarbrough to Nancy Ray his first marriage, or is this another Silas Yarbrough?

The Silas Yarbrough who married Mary Pritchett was the son of Groves Yarbrough. This Silas Y. was born in 1808 and died at age 29 on 13 July 1838. His wife, Eleanor Gentry, was born in South Carolina in 1801 in the Tyger River Section of Union District. She died in 1881. "William Yarbrough lived the last 17 years of his life with his son, John Thomas Yarbrough. Papa told me that William quit keeping whiskey and drinking when hemoved in, but that he smoked a pipe off and on until he died at the age of 97. Grandmother told me that he never failed to come to the breakfast table and return thanks in 17 years except for the last three days before he died."[18]

SARAH E. YARBROUGH[19]
DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM AND ELEANOR (GENTRY) YARBROUGH

4 Aug 1981 - Telephone conversation between Phyllis Brown and Sharon Beall. The information given by Sharon Beall was from a letter written to her from her mother, Katie Lee Yarbrough, daughter of Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough. Jefferson Jackson was the brother of William Yarbrough and they were the sons of Sarah E. Yarbrough. Katie was 62 years of age in 1981.

Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough married Lizzie Ida Tyree. They had 13 children, one of whom died young. Katie is the youngest and is now 62. one son, John, is still living (he has a son named Bill). Katie now (1981) lives in the Miami, Florida area.

According to Katie Lee Yarbrough, Jeff and William's mother, Sarah E. Yarbrough, was never married. When she carred Jeff, she was "taken advantage of." The father was an organ tuner from Germany named Sankey.

Jeff and William had different fathers. Sarah's family had money, and when she had Jeeff, her father gave her some land and a horse and put her out. There was a married farmer living nearby who was good to Sarah and helped her with the farm and so forth. Eleven years later William was born. (Apparently this married farmer was his father.)

Lizzie Ida, Jeff's wife, said that "Granny" (Sarah E.) was a fine woman, good looking, educated, and did very well with her farm.

Jeff was a county school teacher when he married, then after the children started coming along, he moved and became overseer of a big farm in south Georgia.

End of Sharon's information

My mother, Mary Ethel (Yarbrough) Stone, had told me several years ago that once when she was growing up she found a book in the house with the name William Ely in it. She asked her father about it and he just said that it was his middle name (which no one ever knew him to have a middle name) and that he never liked it and so he never used it.

Because of this, when I was researching census records for Randolph Co., Alabama for the year 1880 (the year and county where William was born) my eye happened to catch the following:

(17/2/114)

Ely, Wm.	white	male	51 years.	Farmer	b. Ga	NC	GA
Mary	white	female	47 years	Wife	b. SC	SC	SC

This would all fit in very well with Katie's story, and I feel it is highly possible that this William Ely was William Yarbrough's father.

JOHN YARBROUGH
AND HIS WIFE, ELIZABETH (CLEMENT?)

John Yarbrough, b. ___, identifies himself as John Yarbrough, Senior in his February 1816 will (see below). His wife was mentioned in the will, but her name was not given. The children named in his will were: Jesse, Martha, Thomas and Arthur. These were probably the youngest children and older children were not named in the will as they had already received their inheritance.

The Carolan Family Bible[1] gives some additional information:

Sarah Clement, daughter of John Yarbrough and Elizabeth, b. January 19, 1777.

John Yarbrough Sr. died June 20, 1816.

Elizabeth Yarbrough died December 15, 1840.

Arthur Yarbrough Sr. died June 4, 1831.

Arthur Yarbrough Jr. died January 14, 1837

James Furguson died Aug 2, 1839

Note that John Yarbrough's will names his son in law Ferguson as one of the executors of his will. His daughter, Martha, married James Ferguson.

Another known son was John Yarbrough, Jr. John Jr. married Mary Havis (see later). Mary was named in her father's, John Havis, 1807 will. There is a mention of John Yarbrough and wife Mary in a 1785 Deed (see later), so they were apparently married as early as 1785. On December 10, 1829, John Yarborough and his wife Mary were summoned to court (see probate records of Bruce Livingston). So, John Y. Junior was living as late as 1829.

The Bible record of John Glazier[2] gives the information:

Elizabeth Edwards Glazier was born 4 April 1782.
Elizabeth E. Glazier marred -- --- 1804 to Arthur Yarborough.
Elizabeth E. Yarborough died -- --- 1822.

JOHN YARBROUGH, JR.
AND HIS WIFE, MARY HAVIS

John Yarbrough, Jr. married Mary Havis, daughter of John Havis.

Will of John Havis[4], dated 4 Mar 1807, probated 15 Aug 1807. Names wife: Susannah Havis; sons: Jesse; John Jr; Thomas. Daughters: Elizabeth Auston; Lydia Knighton, Mary Yarbery. John Havis directs that one share of his estate be divided into four equal parts between his grandaughters: Charlotte O'Neal; Mary Martin; Susannah Martin; Elizabeth Martin. Executors: Wife Susannah, son Jesse and friend John Woodward. Witnessed by Obed. Kirkland, Robert Willson and Samuel Wiley.

A great deal of confusion exists regarding the children of John Yarbrough, Jr. They have been mixed up with the children of John Yarbrough, Sr., probably because the children were named after the grandfather and his children. One known son was Thomas Yarbrough who married Martha Harris. G. W. Yarbrough says other known children were: Lewis, Patsy, Elisha and Rolin.[5]

SARAH E. YARBROUGH[19]
DAUGHTER OF WILLIAM AND ELEANOR (GENTRY) YARBROUGH

4 Aug 1981 - Telephone conversation between Phyllis Brown and Sharon Beall. The information given by Sharon Beall was from a letter written to her from her mother, Katie Lee Yarbrough, daughter of Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough. Jefferson Jackson was the brother of William Yarbrough and they were the sons of Sarah E. Yarbrough. Katie was 62 years of age in 1981.

Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough married Lizzie Ida Tyree. They had 13 children, one of whom died young. Katie is the youngest and is now 62. one son, John, is still living (he has a son named Bill). Katie now (1981) lives in the Miami, Florida area.

According to Katie Lee Yarbrough, Jeff and William's mother, Sarah E. Yarbrough, was never married. When she carred Jeff, she was "taken advantage of." The father was an organ tuner from Germany named Sankey.

Jeff and William had different fathers. Sarah's family had money, and when she had Jeeff, her father gave her some land and a horse and put her out. There was a married farmer living nearby who was good to Sarah and helped her with the farm and so forth. Eleven years later William was born. (Apparently this married farmer was his father.)

Lizzie Ida, Jeff's wife, said that "Granny" (Sarah E.) was a fine woman, good looking, educated, and did very well with her farm.

Jeff was a county school teacher when he married, then after the children started coming along, he moved and became overseer of a big farm in south Georgia.

End of Sharon's information

My mother, Mary Ethel (Yarbrough) Stone, had told me several years ago that once when she was growing up she found a book in the house with the name William Ely in it. She asked her father about it and he just said that it was his middle name (which no one ever knew him to have a middle name) and that he never liked it and so he never used it.

Because of this, when I was researching census records for Randolph Co., Alabama for the year 1880 (the year and county where William was born) my eye happened to catch the following:

(17/2/114)

Ely, Wm.	white	male	51 years.	Farmer	b. Ga	NC	GA
Mary	white	female	47 years	Wife	b. SC	SC	SC

This would all fit in very well with Katie's story, and I feel it is highly possible that this William Ely was William Yarbrough's father.

Ophelia,

This is a draft I ran to check spacing, etc. As it is an article for an upcoming YFQ, please don't make a copy for anyone until after the article is published. You can make a copy for Rea, of course, but please ask her not to copy it for anyone either. Feel free, however, to use the information to help anyone who writes.

I've evened out the columns for the YFQ, but it seemed a shame to just throw this away as the information didn't change - so decided to add it to your collection.

Karen

the project of making the correction at Blandford Church. You should be a part of this project. It is part of your heritage and each of you should take pride in trying to preserve it. Send your contribution, no matter how small it might necessarily be. Mr. R.P. [Bob] Yarbrough has made a special effort to arrange to have the correction made. I think it is tragic that our ancestor, Richard Yarbrough, rests in a grave marked "Richard Scarbrough."

Please help us get this corrected.

Wills

Finally, I have depleted my supply of North Carolina Yarborough wills (some of you are probably saying "thank goodness"). I have a few more ordered from Franklin Co., but they are slow in arriving, so I am now starting on South Carolina.

Early Virginia Records

Some new (to me) records have arrived from Virignia, and I will be giving them in the next several issues. Right now I'm researching the Richard and Joel Yarboroughs in Viriginia and am trying to determine which of them stayed there and which of them migrated to North Carolina.

Yarborough Projects

In the last issue I mentioned Marineal's Yarborough newsclipping collection. I now want to mention that Rev. C. Dan Yarbrough of Pensacola, Florida is researching for publication of a book of all Yarborough census records. As you can imagine, putting this information together is a monumental task, and Dan hasn't even made an estimate as to how long he thinks it will take. If you have various Y. census records which are not in the currently available census indexes and soundex, please send them to Dan, to help speed his research. His address:

Rev. C. Dan Yarbrough

Miscellaneous

In the December issue I told about Paul Y., Jr. having been on "60 Minutes." How about this: A few years ago our famous race car driver, Cale (William Caleb) Yarborough of Timmonsville, S.C. had a race car model named for him. So this extraordinary (and I hope profitable) honor will be recorded in history, I have reproduced portions of the model's carton and intructions sheet on pages 31 and 32.

Best wishes for a prosperous 1981.

This is prepared to inform interested individuals about the family of John Yarborough CA. 1756. Before we consider John, a few things about the Yarborough family need to be brought to the attention of the reader.

The Yarborough family is one of the oldest families of England, dating prior to the Norman Conquest 1066 AD., Eustacius de Yarburgh. They settled in the Yorkshire and Lincolnshire areas of northern England. Yarburgh is pronounced as (Yar-ber). The major spellings as we Know them today (Yarborough, Yarbrough, and Yarberry) began to appear around 1600. While there have been reports of over 35 variations of the spelling in America, only little study of the family is needed to understand that we all relate back to common ancestry.

Though one of the oldest family names in England, it is dying out. In 1885 the last Yarborough to hold the title of Yarburgh died. A blood relative was given a grant to assume the title and name. Two others were persuaded to assume the title after that but were not relatives. The title was abolished in 1935.

St. John The Baptist Church is located in Yarburgh, Lincolnshire England and in this church is found many family relics, including the family crest. The church has been designated by the English Government as a Historical site and only has services on special occasions but can be visited at any time.

Richard Yarbrough 1615 of Lincolnshire was the first Member of the family to arrive and settle in Virginia, arriving the first time in 1635, the same year that he Married Frances Proctor in London England. Evidently he made several trips back and forth to England and did not bring his family to Virginia until after 1652 which was the year Richard II was born. He was a founder of Bristol Parish, St. Paul's Church of England, Petersburg Virginia in 1642. The church is now referred to as the Blandford Church and is a Civil war shrine. Documentation shows that Richard performed many services for the King in dealings with the Indians. Richard died in 1702 and is buried at the church cemetery.

Though there are two main lines to the Yarborough family in America virtually every one traces their origin back to Richard. Ambrose Yarborough 1710 Yorkshire England arrived in Virginia in 1732. Ambrose represents the second line of the family. The Yarborough families in America and England must have maintained close contact. Even though it was over 90 years later Ambrose came straight to the family in Virginia and married Mary Mason Yarborough, Richard's great grand daughter. They then settled in Cullpepper County Virginia.

The Lineage of the family is well documented in England. A book was written about the English family. Several people have copies of this book including Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas and Exa Lavern Yarbrough Cudd, Great Great Great Granddaughter of John Ca. 1756

Any one who can trace their family back to Richard or Ambrose can go back to Eustacius de Yarburgh before 1066 AD. The problem is getting back to one of these two. The time of his arrival and the use of given names has made the Ambrose line more easier to track, even though many of the same problems exist in tracking Ambrose as the Richard line. The pending Revolutionary War coupled with the beginning migration of the Family out of Virginia starting in about 1760 resulted in few records being available. Further more many of the records that were kept were lost or burned in the Revolution and in particular the War of 1812.

There were 29 Yarborough's That are documented to have fought for independence. We also know that a large number was sympathetic to the King. It must be noted also that a Third group of Yarboroughs simply moved out of Virginia and the coastal region to avoid the war. Three distinct groups. Those that moved off the coast are picked up in Louisiana, North central Tennessee, Illinois, and Mississippi. Those loyal to the King are the hardest to track. By the time of the War of 1812 virtually all Yarboroughs were in support of the new nation.

Now it is time to talk about John CA 1756, Who was he? where did he come from? which line of the family? where are the rest of his heirs? From his will and the children named in the will it leaves no doubt that he is our grandfather. In the will he refers to himself as John Yarborough Senior of the state of South Carolina and District of Fairfield. The children named were Jesse (our line) the youngest child, Thomas, Arthur, and Martha. We know that there were other Children not named in the will. Sarah the oldest had long left the home by the time of John's death. However through Sarah's marriages many records for the traceability of our family are provided. John Junior was not named, he could have been dead but this is unlikely. A second male child not named and probably dead was Griggs. The name of Griggs is very important to our line of the family as you are about to see. Our Jesse uses the name of Thomas Griggs for one of his children.

A Thomas Griggs Yarborough was born in Virginia CA. 1715 and died in Fairfield County South Carolina 1799. Like John his will is recorded. By some accounts and tracking records one could believe that this Thomas Griggs was our John's grand father. Records show that Thomas Griggs Yarborough gave consent for a John Yarborough to Marry Bersheba Harris in Goochland County Virginia. Later on in records of South Carolina land transactions It appears that this John (John Sr.), John Jr., other children of Thomas Griggs, Ambrose, and descendents of Ambrose are involved in property exchanges. This would mean that the John Jr. in these transactions was our John Sr.. The problem here is that many of these record dates are off by about 6 years in order to meet the birth dates of our John and his children.

Thomas Griggs Yarborough and Ambrose Yarborough were the same age. Based on the Land transactions instigated by John Sr., it almost appears that they Migrated out of Virginia together after 1770. They all made different moves ending up on different lands at the times of death. Both Thomas Griggs and Ambrose fought on the side of independence in South Carolina but in different Military units. Of the eight Yarborough men to fight for independence from South Carolina there is no John. Both John Sr. and John Jr. were old enough and should have been eligible to fight. Were they back in Virginia or North Carolina fighting?

Many interesting questions and comments can be made of Ambrose. It must have been a hard choice for him to fight for Independence against the country of his birth even though he had been in America 44 years. Some of his children and grand children did not they moved elsewhere away from the fight, yet his older children like himself were heavily involved for independence. His older sons had already migrated to Anson County North Carolina at the time he left Virginia. Why did he follow Thomas Griggs and John Sr. to South Carolina and not his older children? Ambrose died in 1789 Union County South Carolina, His will names a surviving son, John, yet no record of this son has been found. Is this our John? while the time and places fit, our John did not use any of the male given names of the Ambrose line also the Ambrose line of this time had a distinct lack of middle names.

Two possibilities of who Johns father is have been identified, one leads back to Richard through Thomas Griggs Yarborough, the other directly to Ambrose.

Now in order to account for what has been determined by records as to what we Know about John and our family until present we will examine some of the events immediately prior and after his death.

Better information is kept starting in 1820 particularly census information. We know that Arthur, John Jr. (III), Jesse H. and Elizabeth John's wife are still living in Fairfield County South Carolina. Indications are that they did not leave until after 1822 probably moved to Georgia for a short time before Moving to Alabama. They appear in the Morgan County Alabama Census for 1830. Elizabeth, Johns wife, died in 1840 (age 82) her maiden name is thought to be Clement, she should be buried in Lawrence county Alabama. The family of Jesse H. was in Alabama through 1850. Indications are that they left Alabama about 1856. The families of Jesse H. John Hilliard and Jesse W., father family and families of two brothers, appear in 1860 Arkansas Census of Red River Township Sevier County. These Three end up in Booneville Logan County Arkansas. It is believed that Jesse H. is buried here. John Hilliard left and went to Erath Co. Texas Where his first cousin John Glazier Yarbrough, son of Arthur had moved. Note those Moving to Texas of our family changed the spelling of the name to Yarbrough. Jesse W. and his family Moved to Peggs, Indian Territory after the turn of the 20th Century. Jesse W. died 1906 and his wife Rachial Hester Daniel in 1914 They are buried in Peggs New Home Cemetery Oklahoma.

Jesse H. was 27 years old when he left the plantation life in South Carolina and it appears that he was to never rest again for the family seems to be continually on the Move until his death about 1871.

The area around Red River Arkansas seemed to be a gathering point for the Yarborough family members. The 1860 Arkansas census is full of Yarboroughs and related families. Many went to Texas some to Louisiana and other areas of Arkansas. Some are Known to have been in the area prior to the 1850 census. One family noted in the 1860 census was that of William P. Carlan who was the son of Sarah Clement Yarborough Oldest child of John CA. 1756. This means that William Carlan was a nephew of Jesse H. Yarborough. Other possible families in the area with ties back to South Carolina, Virginia and the Yarborough's were the Glazier's Rabb's and Dansby's.

Birth and death records from 1915 to the present are in the office of the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, Columbia, South Carolina 29201. Marriage records from 1 July 1950 to the present are also at that office. Marriages from 1 July 1911 to the present are at the office of the Probate Judge, County Court House in the respective county seats.

Birth records kept at the city of Charleston are available since 1877 at the City Health Department. They also have available death records from 1821 to the present.

South Carolina's Department of Health also houses divorce records for the state since July, 1962. Records of divorce occurring from April, 1949 to the present may be obtained from the Clerk of Court's office in the county where the petition was filed.

Disclosure of information from South Carolina's Department of Health is restricted to authorized parties only. In the case of birth records, issuance is restricted to the registrant, parent or guardian, or their respective legal representatives. Death records are issued only to surviving relatives of the deceased or their respective legal representatives. Copies of marriage and divorce records are issued to the parties married or divorced, their adult children, or their legal representatives.

The Judge of Probates office in Charleston has records of wills and estates back to 1692. They are recorded in chronological volumes, with indexes.

Records of deeds and other estate matters are available from 1719 in Charleston. Those prior to 1719 are in the office of the Historical Commission of South Carolina in Columbia.

What few marriage bonds are available from those early days have been printed in the South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine. Between 1778 and 1911 no marriage bonds or licenses were required in South Carolina, and only for brief intervals were such records kept.

Records of land grants earlier than 1695 are in the office of the Historical Commission of South Carolina in Columbia. The Secretary of State in Columbia has records of land grants from 1695 to the present time, and a plat to land grants from 1688, warrants for entry and surveys made and certified before the corresponding final grants or patents were issued. The plat records and grant records in the Secretary of State's office are in separate books. There are sets of index books for plats and index books for grants.

The Clerk of the Court in the various counties has charge of wills, deeds, and land grants. Dates will vary with the different counties.

War service records are in the custody of Adjutant General in Columbia, South Carolina.

Immigrants continued to come in large streams until by 1730 there were gathered ' the banks of the Santee, the Edisto, and the Combahee Rivers some of the best elements of the ropean nations. The Huguenot, the Scottish Presbyterian, the English dissenter, the loya and High Churchmand, the Irish adventurer, and the Dutch mechanic composed the powerful material out of which soon grew the beauty and renown of the Palmetto State." (Ridpath's History of the United States.)

From 1732 until 1736 a number of families from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Switzerland, and Germany came into the central section of South Carolina. Some of the first settlements in the so-called "Up Country," the western half of the state, were created from 1745 to 1760 by immigrants from the Rhine section of Germany, the northern American colonies, and the Ulster section of Ireland. After the Indian Wars, in about 1761, the Scotch Irish immigrants came.

In 1790 the capital of the state was moved from Charleston to Columbia. From 1845 to 1850 many Irish settled in the state because of the potato famine in their own country. The political struggle in Germany in 1848 brought thousands of the expatriates to the United States, many of them coming to South Carolina.

South Carolina entered the Union in 1788 as the eighth state. More than a hundred years before, in 1683, the first three counties, Berkeley, Colleton, and Craven, were established. All were discontinued and the present Berkeley county is not the original.

By an act ratified in 1769 the province of South Carolina was divided into seven judicial districts: Charleston, Georgetown, Beaufort, Orangeburg, Ninety-Six, Camden and Cheraws. The first six of these were given the names of the principal towns within their borders and thos towns were made the seats of their respective districts. Cheraws District derived its name from the fact that the Cheraw Indians had formerly occupied a considerable portion of t and within its borders. After they had gone elsewhere and white settlers moved in, the section was at first called "the Cheraws' lands", soon simplified into "The Cheraws".

In 1795 Pinckney and Washington Districts were established. Pinckney embraced the present counties of Union and York and a part of Cherokee. Washington embraced the present counties of Greenville, Pickens, Oconee and Anderson.

In 1798 the nine districts then existing were divided up into twenty-four. From Ninety-Six District, (in 1795) Abbeville, Edgefield, Newberry, Laurens, and Spartanburg Districts were formed. From Washington District, Pendleton and Greenville Districts were formed. From Pinckney District, Union and York Districts were formed. From Camden District, Chester, Lancaster, Fairfield, Kershaw and Sumter Districts were formed. From Cheraws District, Chesterfield, Darlington and Marlborough Districts were formed. Ninety-Six, Washington, Pinckney, Camden and Cheraw were discarded as district names. Georgetown District was divided into Georgetown and Marion Districts; Charleston into Charleston and Colleton; and Orangeburg into Orangeburg and Barnwell.

In 1799 Richland District was formed from Kershaw. In 1802 Horry and Willamsburg Districts were formed from parts of Georgetown. In 1804 Lexington was formed from Orangeburg. In 1826 Pendleton District was formed into Pickens and Anderson Districts and the name Pendleton was discarded as a district name. In 1855 Clarendon District was formed from a part of Sumter.

South Carolina Districts were formed as follows: Abbeville, 1795; Anderson, 1826; Barnwell, 1798; Beaufort, 1769; Berkeley, 1683; Camden, 1769; Cartaret, 1683; Charleston, 1769; Cheraw 1769; Chester, 1798; Chesterfield, 1798; Clarendon, 1785; Colleton, 1798; Darlington, 1798; Dorchester, 1785; Edgefield, 1795; Fairfield, 1798; Georgetown, 1769; Granville, 1700; Greenville, 1798; Horry, 1802; Kershaw, 1798; Lancaster, 1798; Laurens, 1798; Lexington, 1804; Marion, 1798; Marlboro, 1798; Newberry, 1795; Ninety-Six, 1795; Orangeburg, 1769; Pendleton, 1798; Pickens, 1826; Pinckney, 1795; Richland, 1799; Spartanburg, 1798; Sumter, 1798; Union, 1798; Washington, 1795; Williamsburg, 1802; and York, 1798.

Dear Cousin Charles --

Herewith a little money for expenses.

That study of Richard the Emigrant by Karen Mazok was worth two times the price of our (I had started to say your!) magazine. Ask her if the children and grandchildren of Richard can be determined closely enough to detect a (possibly) missing generation. According to my uncle G. W. Yarbrough my line goes back John Thomas Y; John Tomas (Thomas) Y; William Y 1800 - 1896 Union District S.C.; Thomas Y b N.C. about 1768, d Henry Co Ga early 1840; Thomas married Martha Harris in Union District S C 17(17)97. She was b Anson Co N C 1770, d Henry Co Ga 1857.
John Yarbrough Jr d Fairfield District S C between Feb 25 and Jun 22 1816;
John Yarbrough;
Thomas Yarbrough;

John Yarbrough;

Richard the emigrant.

I suspect someone between Richard and John. Could it be Richard Y Jr? As I recall, when Uncle G. related this (most of it) to me in 1967, he indicated a little bit of uncertainty between Richard and John. I was writing like mad between the lines of the will of John Y Jr, above, and couldn't get everything down.

Sorry I can't attend the YF's NYC. Hope ya'll have a good time.

Your cousin Rupert

I dont beleive it has been proved who the Father of John Yarbrough/m/Elizabeth Clements is. He was born ca 1755 and died 1816 (Will) in Fairfield Co., S.C. On a list of his Children we have a Thomas b. 1781 that could be your Thomas. We do not have a wife listed. Do you know for sure this is your thomas. If so I would like to fill in the blank spaces.

JOEL YARBROUGH

Family histories have come to include "physio" and "psycho" history. Likenesses are evident, such as red hair, certain facial features, and, longevity. A number of Yarbrough's seem to have achieved long life.

Joel Yarbrough is buried in "Scotch" Cemetery located on U.S. Highway #1, 15 miles north of Camden, South Carolina. The cemetery is on the west side of Highway #1, five miles south of Bethune near the community of Cassett. (1)

His tombstone reads:

Joel Yarbrough born 15 Mar 1801 - died 16 Feb 1901

The cemetery has been named Scotch Cemetery because of the McCaskills, McKinnons, McPhersons, McLeods, and McLaurens buried there. There were two Fraser's and this one lone Yarbrough. It is interesting to speculate how he came to be buried here. Perhaps he outlived all his family members?

Born in 1801, Joel Yarbrough was too young for the War of 1812, and probably too old to have served in the Civil War, but it is possible that he may have seen service in the Indian Wars in Florida.

Dear Frances,

I have studied the material you sent me over and over. Like you I find it somewhat unclear but extremely interesting. Every little bit of information you get on family lines is always intriguing.

We are descended through the Arthur mentioned in John Yarbrough's will. If you do not have information on his descendants and are interested please let me know and I will send you all that I have.

One piece of information that I have come across is that one Clement Yarbrough was hung along with several other men during the Reb. war for participating in Torie activities. I found this in Early Settlers of Alabama by James Edmonds Saunders. This book is over 80 years old but we have a copy of it in the library here. I did find the combination of names interesting even though a person might prefer not to find a family connection in a case like this!!

I also found it strange that Sarah Clement never refered to herself by any last name until she married Mr. Jaggars. Perhaps she was an adopted daughter? Also seems strange that she never says that her two older sons were sons of anyone but herself. Seems a little odd at least.

I am interested in the Yarbrough Family Magazine and will be sending for it. I have written Nelda Eastman who I know has been in touch with Exa Cudd and who is also working on this same line about YFM.

Please keep in touch as your research goes forth and I will do the same. Thanks so much for what you sent to me.

Yours truly
Linda

> Following is from obit of Samuel T. Carolan (he wrote it shortly before his death) - W.P. & Hannah (Seeley) Carolan came from Chester District, S.C. to Alabama. W. P. was sheriff of Morgan County, Ala in 1842. Moved to Richmond, Sevier County, Arkansas in 1864. Moved to Cauthron Twnshp. Scott County, Arkansas, May 1, 1867."

Sarah Clement Yarbrough, dau of John & Elizabeth (Clement) Yarbrough, was born Jan 19, 1777. Her son, William P. Carolan b. Mar 28, 1800 Her second child, Jonathon W. Dansby born Nov 8, 1802. I have not been able as yet to find any record of Sarah Clement Yarbrough's marriage to either a Mr. Carolan or a Mr. Dansby.

Sarah Clement (Yarbrough) Dansby married July 20, 1821, Jno. Jaggars. He was born Oct 25, 1777. John had probably been married first to Elizabeth; she died Oct 24, 1819. John and Elizabeth Jaggars had a daughter Sarah Jaggars, who married Jonathon W. Dansby, son of Sarah Clement (Yarbrough) Dansby. (Thus the Sarah J.D. Dansby)in the death record) Jonathon and Sarah (Jaggars) Dansby had a son, Thomas Dansby born Oct 27, 1822. Jonathon Dansby and Sarah (Jaggars) Dansby were (apparently) step-brother and step-sister.

A John Moody Yarbrough born July 9, 1835; died Nov 15, 1927, is buried in Oak Lawn Cemetery, Booneville, Ark. Also, Louise Caledonia Yarbrough, born Aug 27, 1857; died Nov 26, 1933. Lyd Lyon y.

T. H. Dansby, born 1822 is buried beside William P. Carolan in Long Ridge Cemetery, Carolan, Ark. (5 miles SW of Booneville, Ark) This is no doubt Thomas Dansby, son of Jonathon W. Dansby; half-brother of William P. Carolan. T. H. Dansby had a son, Ben Dansby, who may still be living.

I have many of the descendants of William P. and Hannah (Seely) Carolan and would like to exchange data. Would also like information of parents of Hannah A. Seeley, born 5 April 1807, and her brother John Wesley Seeley, who "went to Texas." The parents are supposed to have been large slave owners and probably lived in South Carolina.

(Here ends Mr. Springer's Bible record and comments)

Though long and confusing, with no reference to relationships, there are a few names and dates which are of interest to YARBROUGH researchers. However, the above material also brings up some questions such as, was John Yarbrough married twice? or was his wife's name Mary Elizabeth? Or, were there two John Yarbrough's and two different lineages?

CAROLAN FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS

The following data has been copied from a two page record which had been produced on a spirit duplicator machine. Such a process results in a printed page which fades after a few years, thus will not reproduce a clear xerox copy.

Every effort has been made to copy the material faithfully. However, after having been passed around from one researcher to another, notes and questions have been scribbled on the margins, these notes are not included in this typescript. The original was compiled by Paul L. Springer, 1122 NW 97th St., Oklahoma City OK and sent to Katie McMurrey, 4409 Paul Avenue, or 14409 Paul Ave, Tampa, Florida 33611. She later found a copy in the L.D.S. Library at Tampa, which indicates he may have published this record at one time.

The record: "This Bible is in possession of children of W. Emmett Carolan, Booneville, Ark. Following are the records as I copied them. I am a great-grandson of William P. and Hannah (Seely) Carolan." (Paul L. Springer)

Dear Mrs. Lockwood

I found your name and address in the Alabama Lineage Charts. I am writing to you in hopes that your Yarbrough family line and mine may be the same.

There is a similarity in the places that they lived in at various times. My information starts with one John Yarbrough. He died in 1816. His wife was Elizabeth. They had at least two sons: Jesse Wesley and Arthur M. Arthur was born in 1779 in Virginia, married Elizabeth Edwards Glazier in 1800 in South Carolina. He died in 1831 in Alabama His children were: Elizabeth, Martha, Rebecca, Thomas, Joseph Glazier, William. All born in South Carolina.

Joseph (or John) Glazier Yarbrough was born c/a 1810. He married 3 times. Sarah, his first wife, and he married in Alabama. They immigrated to Texas about 1850.

This is just a brief run down of what I have on this family. If you can see any connection and would be interested please let me know and I will send you copies of what I have.

I will look forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly

Dear Linda,

Enclosed is a copy of Carolan Bible record plus my comments. This is the only record in my files which mentions Elizabeth as the wife of John Yarbrough, Sr. This Bible record is a long list of names and dates, can be confusing, but perhaps you can read something in it that I cannot see.

I have collected bales of material on Yarbrough trying to document my first known ancestor who apparently came from Fairfield Co, S.C. According to family researchers we ALL descend from one of two lines; Richard Yarbrough who died in Virginia in 1702, or from Ambrose, who died 1788 in Union Co, S.C.

A Yarborough Family Magazine is being published. If you want to get on the mailing list just send nine self-addressed-stamped envelopes to: Charles D. Yarborough, YFM Editor, 1001 Bedford Road, Bedford, TX 76021. We voluntarily send contributions of money to help him with printing costs, it's only fair.

A copy of this material and letter is being mailed to Exa Cudd, her address is below. She is looking for the same family you are. Exa, we missed you at the Yarbrough Family Conference in Petersburg, Va last August. I brought all my material to share with you!

The Mrs. M. L. Talbert I mentioned had a file card on Yarbrough, so I presume she is looking for data on this same line. I found the list of inquiries at McMurray Library in Abilene, Texas; all were listed under South Plains Genealogical Society, Lubbock, Texas. If the address is still current it was: S.P.G.S. c/o Mrs. J.F. Chapman, 1503 47th St., Lubbock, TX 79412. Perhaps you can contact Mrs. Talbert through the society.

I visited Sevier Co, Ark last fall and checked records at the courthouse. In marriage records from the early days I found yet another Yarbrough-Carolan marriage. Mellissa Ann Yarbrough, age 16, and William B. Carolan age 32, both of Sevier County were married on 11 Nov 1857. (Bk 2, pg. 105) I know the family descendants of John Hilliard Yarbrough say that his wife was "Wealthy" but I looked twice at the courthouse record for their marriage and this is how it was written: Hilliard Yarbrough and Miss Wesley Louisiana Leopard were married November 9, 1859. (Bk 2, pg. 193, Sevier Co, Ark)

If I can be of further help, please write.

My Dear Son

I saw the letter you sent your father and was truly glad to hear from you that you was well and had met with some Old acquaintances who was glad to see you. perhaps you have seen your uncle William by this time. I want you to write me all about him and about your aunt Walls family all of them. When you was in Arkinsaw was you at Mr. Harrisons. You said nothing about your cousin Temperances death. I want you to write to me how you get on in a strange Land. Can you get business to do? We have had a cold winter this fare. Mrs. Roper is a widow again. Her second husband died in Three monthe after she married him. Maryann McCane is married to a Mr. Wilkerson. My son try to improve in writing. I praise you for what you do but I wish you could spell better. I mean no harm. I take great intrust in your wellfare. You have my warmest affections and I hope you will do well where ever you go. Live in peace with all men. Never keep bad company. Let me hear from you how you get on and how you like Mississippi. I have said nothing about your fathers family. I suppose he has written to you himself. Thomas Yarbroughs health is bad. They have lost Wodson. I now conclude by Saying I love you truly. Your grandmother Dorothy Herring.

WILL OF THOMAS YARBOROUGH[12]

I Thomas Yarborough of Fairfield District SOUTH CAROLINA: being far advanced in years, and labouring under a threatening bodily indisposition; and antisipating the near approach of death the common lot of man, but of sound and disposing mind and memory: do make this my last will and Testament. FIRST my soul I commit into the hands of the Almighty praying that He may receive it and make it a shearer of his felicity: And as to the earthly Estate which God has graciously bestowed upon me, I wish it disposed of in the following manner, viz- I wish enough of my property be sold at public sale, by my Executors hereinafter to be named, as will pay all lawful demands against my Estate including funeral expenses &c; and the balance of property I wish to remain on the plantation for the use of the family whom I wish and direct to remain on the plantation together, until my youngest child Mary Ann Yarborough shall arive at the age of twenty one years or marry; at which time my will is and I so direct that all my property of every discription both real Estate, and personal property be sold to the highest bidder and the money arising from this sale I wish equally divided amongst the following named persons. (viz) Jane Yarborough my beloved wife- my daughter Jane Yarborough- Alman Yarborough, my son, and my Three youngest children (viz) Nancy, Margaret, and Mary Ann Yarborough--- The above named six persons I wish to remain on the place peacibly together until my youngest child shall arive at the age above described and join in assisting to raise these three children in a suitable and Godly manner, giving unto each of them an Education suitable to my Estate; their schooling to be paid out of the crop raised on the plantation the bills of Tuishian thus paid are to be kept by my Executor and after the sale of my property shall have taken place: these bills are to be paid out of the general fund, and this money is to be given to my son Alman Yarborough: It is my will and I so direct, that my son Alman Yarborough shall manage the plantation to best advantage, hireing if he thinks best, and after providing the nessary comforts for the family such as sugar coffee and salt &c. and paying the expenses of each year, the balance is his and at his disposal: But should my son Alman Yarborough, or my beloved wife Jane Yarborough or my Daughter Jane Yarborough, marry in that case my will is and I so direct, that, he or she as the case may be shall no longer remain on the plantation: but shall leave it to the others who remain single: However this provision is not intended to deprive him or her of an equal share of the money arising from the sale of my property but shall receive an equal share of the money. In the last place I constitute and appoint my trusty friend Daniel B. Kirkland the whole and sole Executor of this my last will and Testament, revoking and setting aside all former ones: in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused my seal to be affixed this 11th day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty and in the sixty fifth year of the independence of the United States of America

WILL OF MARY YARBOROUGH[6,7]
Kirkland

In The Name of God Amen

I Mary Yarborough of the State of South Carolina, Fairfield District, being brought very low by affliciction, and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, wish to dispose of the little earthly substance with which I have been blest, in the following manner:

FIRST. I wish all my just and lawful debts be paid by my Executors whom I will name below, as soon after my death and burial as convenient.

Second. WILL OF THOMAS YARBOROUGH[12]

I Thomas Yarborough of Fairfield District SOUTH CAROLINA: being far advanced in years, and labouring under a threatening bodily indisposition; and antisipating the near approach of death the common lot of man, but of sound and disposing mind and memory: do make this my last will and Testament. FIRST my soul I commit into the hands of the Almighty praying that He may receive it and make it a shearer of his felicity: And as, to the earthly Estate which God has graciously bestowed upon me, I wish it disposed of in the following manner, viz- I wish enough of my property be sold at public sale, by my Executors hereinafter to be named, as will pay all lawful demands against my Estate including funeral expenses &c; and the balance of property I wish to remain on the plantation for the use of the family whom I wish and direct to remain on the plantation together, until my youngest child Mary Ann Yarborough shall arive at the age of twenty one years or marry; at which time my will is and I so direct that all my property of every discription both real Estate, and personal property be sold to the highest bidder and the money arising from this sale I wish equally divided amongst the following named persons. (viz) Jane Yarborough my beloved wife- my daughter Jane Yarborough- Alman Yarborough, my son, and my Three youngest children (viz) Nancy, Margaret, and Mary Ann Yarborough--- The above named six persons I wish to remain on the place peacibly together until my youngest child shall arive at the age above described and join in assisting to raise these three children in a suitable and Godly manner, giving unto each of them an Education suitable to my Estate; their schooling to be paid out of the crop raised on the plantation the bills of Tuishian thus paid are to be kept by my Executor and after the sale of my property shall have taken place: these bills are to be paid out of the general fund, and this money is to be given to my son Alman Yarborough: It is my will and I so direct, that my son Alman Yarborough shall manage the plantation to best advantage, hireing if he thinks best, and after providing the nessary comforts for the family such as sugar coffee and salt &c. and paying the expenses of each year, the balance is his and at his disposal: But should my son Alman Yarborough, or my beloved wife Jane Yarborough or my Daughter Jane Yarborough, marry in that case my will is and I so direct, that, he or she as the case may be shall no longer remain on the plantation: but shall leave it to the others who remain single: However this provision is not intended to deprive him or her of an equal share of the money arising from the sale of my property but shall receive an equal share of the money. In the last place I constitute and appoint my trusty friend Daniel B. Kirkland the whole and sole Executor of this my last will and Testament, revoking and setting aside all former ones: in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused my seal to be affixed this 11th day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty and in the sixty fifth year of the independence of the United States of America

BETHEL CEMETERY

Located about six miles north of Stephenville on Hwy. 108. Turn right at large mail box of Robert Smith's. Go almost four miles on dirt road until you come to a sharp bend in the road. Cemetery is about 200 yards from this bend. Copied May 2, 1972 by Mrs. T.B. Cawyer and Weldon Hudson. This cemetery is fenced and is very well maintained.

H.F. Jones and Teurah Copeland were married July 17, 1904. After living in Dardenelle, Arkansas a year, they returned to Texas. In 1905 the "H.F. Jones General Mercantile" store opened in Huckabay, (1905-1925). By 1900 there were several stores, a blacksmith shop a gin in Huckabay.

John Copeland and Margaret Paulina (Jones) Copeland were among the first families to settle in the community which was later named Huckabay after its first postmaster. They left Corinth, Arkansas and came to Texas in 1875. Their homestead consisted of 160 acres with the Bosque Creek running through the land. In time the farm was fenced in with a rail fence. Out of this land they gave 30 acres to the community for civic purposes. It became Public School grounds, a cemetery, a community meeting place (a brush arbor which was replaced with a Tabernacle) and building site for the Church of Christ. John Copeland taught the first public school in Huckabay. The school building was a log cabin with benches. The "Old Blue Back Speller" must have been used!

Wilson C. Jones and his wife Mary Jane (Darby) were the parents of five children, Ferdinand C., Herschel Franklin, Laverier, Mary and Harriet. The oldest son, Ferdinand, was the great grandfather of T.V. comedienne Carol Burnett.

John Copeland (Dec. 12, 1841-May 24, 1886) was survived by his wife and eight children. Teurah Copeland was one of their seven daughters. Teurah and Herschel Jones were the parents of five daughters, three of whom did not live to be adults. The oldest, Thelma Darby was born Sept. 14, 1905. She was a primary teacher for forty-three years. She married Cecil Lofland of Lubbock, Texas.

Agnes Pauline Jones was born Dec. 10, 7. She taught thirty years in Texas Public Schools. One of her fondest memories is playing the organ or piano for "Sunday afternoon singing". She married Milton Greer of Lubbock, Texas. He is also a public school teacher.

Pauline and Milton Greer are the parents of three sons. Horace Franklin Greer and wife Virginia, of Boulder, Colorado are employed at the Atomic Energy Commission, Rocky Flats, Colorado. They have three children, Sherilyn, Don, and Paula.

James Reagan Greer and wife Connie are teachers in Pepperdine University, Malibu, California. They have three children, David, Laura, and Rachel.

John Darby Greer (CPA) attended Lubbock public schools. He received his BA degree from Texas Tech University majoring in accounting.

Thelma (Jones) Lofland and Pauline (Jones) Greer are the surviving members of their immediate family. Thelma Lofland

GLENN HOBSON KAY AND RUBY LORENA (EADES) KAY

Glenn H. Kay's grandfather, Hensley T. Kay who was a Civil War veteran, with wife Martha Frances (Bell) Kay, came from Georgia to Texas in 1895. With them came one of their sons, Hensley David Kay and his wife, Lenora Estelle (Wyly) Kay, and their baby son Oliver Hensley. These were Glenn H. Kay's parents and both were born in Georgia. Both his parents and grandparents settled in the Selden community in Erath County where they farmed. Hensley T. Kay died in 1914, and Martha Frances Kay died in 1927, both in Selden, and are buried in Aycock Cemetery.

To Hensley David Kay and Lenora Estelle Kay were born nine more children: Roy, Glenn, Marshall, Eva, Ralph (died in infancy), Bernice, Lucille, Cleo, and H.D. Jr. Hense and Nora Kay (as they were better known) share-cropped for awhile then in 1900 bought 221 acres, known as the Hamp Hatchett place in Selden, and later bought more land. They lived the remainder of their lives on this place, growing cotton, corn, oats and livestock.

For several years Hense Kay was partners with Ewing Riggs in grain threshing. His son Glenn joined the threshing crew each summer, driving a "bundle-wagon" pulled by mules, and followed the big threshing machine powered by the huge steam engine, from farm to farm harvesting the grain, mostly oats. Glenn's sons, Rayford and Victor, later also drove a "bundle-wagon", making three generations of Kays to work with the threshing crew.

All of Hense and Nora Kay's children as they grew up moved away from Selden except Glenn. He married Ruby Lorena Eades, November 17, 1923, and they continued to live in the Selden community. After his father retired Glenn bought the Kay "Home Place" and he and Ruby still live there, very near the place where Glenn was born. Through the years they grew cotton, corn, oats and maize, but these crops gave way to cattle and hay raising as the years went by. They are active members of the Selden Baptist Church, where Mrs. Ruby Kay is serving her 35th year as church clerk. During the drought of the fifties Mrs. Kay started work as saleslady in furniture stores in Stephenville, and continued in this work until retirement in 1973.

The Glenn Kays have two sons, both graduates of Texas A&M University: Rayford, born February 5, 1925, County Extension Agent, Harris County, Houston, married Patsy Crow September 5, 1953, have one son Kelly and one daughter Corinn, both students at T.U. in Austin. Victor born November 23, 1928, with U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Glenn's father, Hensley David Kay, born October 11, 1872-died July 12, 1961.

Glenn's mother, Lenora Estelle Kay, born July 4, 1875-died February 28, 1958 married November 5, 1892, Middle River, Georgia, buried Selden Cemetery.

Ruby's father, Oscar N. Eades, born August 4, 1883 in Mississippi-died June 15, 1973.

Ruby's mother, Jessie (Ramsay) Eades, born Erath County September 28, 1885-died July 2, 1970 married May 17, 1903, Erath County, Texas. Both buried East Memorial Cemetery Stephenville. Ruby Eades Kay

HENSLEY DAVID KAY

In 1895 with infant son Oliver Henley, Hensley David and Nora Wyly Kay came by train to Erath County, Texas, from their former home in Franklin County, Georgia. Working at first for her brothers William Sevier Wyly and Robert Augustine Wyly, H.D. eventually bought his own farm in the Seldon community and was baptized in the Selden Baptist Church, to which his wife had brought her letter from Franklin's Indian Creek Baptist Church. All their children grew up at Selden and both are buried in Selden Baptist Cemetery. Sons Glenn and Marshall Kay remain members of Selden community.

Hensley David (known also as Henson) Kay, one of ten children of Henley T. Kay and his wife Martha Frances Bell Kay, was born October 11, 1872, in Franklin County, Georgia, and grew to manhood in this scenic red clay hill country. There at Middle River he married Lenora Estelle Wyly, the daughter of his employer Oliver Cromwell Wyly, on November 5, 1892. After O.C. Wyly's death in 1893, the young couple, as well as her mother, Martha Catherine Mitchell Wyly, decided to join other Wyly family members already in Texas.

Lenora Estelle (called Nora) Wyly was born July 4, 1875, in Franklin Co., where her father had been born in 1808. She was great-grandaughter of four American Revolutionary veterans who pioneered this Tugaloo River area: James Wyly, William Clark, William W. Mitchell, and William Eddins. Two Revolutionary leaders of the Kings Mountain battle were her great, great grandparents: Col. John Sevier, later first governor of Tennessee, and Col. Benjamin Cleveland, later Pendleton, S.C. judge and owner of several Tugaloo plantations. "Traveler's Rest," unusual home and stagecoach inn on the Tugaloo (near Toccoa) was built in 1816 by Nora Wyly's grandfather James Rutherford Wyly, commissioner of steamboat travel on the Savannah and Tugaloo, supervisor of the Unicoi turnpike from Toccoa to Maryville, Tenn., a founder of Clarksville, Georgia, and 1812 veteran. He also built homes and stagecoach inns near Clarksville and in Hiawassee, each a stage journey apart. A boyhood home of

One of the McElyea's sons, James Byron McElyea, later married Ettie Leah McClung, whose mother was Fannie Carmack McClung and whose father was Cunningham McClung. Starting their life together in 1899 in Stephenville, the couple made their living in stock farming.

Fourth of eight children, Gertrude Leah McElyea was born September 4, 1897. She graduated from Lingleville High School and attended North Texas State Teachers College. She later taught school at Salem near Desdemona.

Although Gertrude was asked to teach the following year at Salem, she declined and pressed on to greener pastures at Lockney and at Plainview.

After teaching in Plainview, Gertrude decided to attend Tyler Commercial College, where she graduated, majoring in business. She then worked at the Cisco Daily News, which she immensely enjoyed, until she was offered a teaching position at Cisco Junior College.

Gertrude McElyea, Stephenville.

She accepted the position, but was shortly after injured in an automobile accident which drastically changed her life in many different ways for many years.

In later years Gertrude once more taught school, but eventually returned to Stephenville in order to assist a brother who was wounded in World War I and who had two small sons.

During this time she received her real estate and broker's license. She has been involved in real estate since.

Her interests include beautification, historical preservation, conservation, art and music. She is very civic-minded as her many years of active service in the Stephenville Garden Club attest. She is a member of the Eastern Star and the First United Methodist Church.

McGRIFF

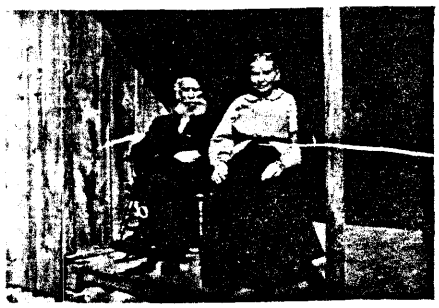
The McGriff family moved from Illinois to Stuler County, California. William McGriff was born in Ohio April 22, 1830 and died January 22, 1896 in Woodland, California. His brother Morton Linley McGriff, was born October 14, 1838 in Illinois. M.L. came from California to Erath County, Texas and married Elizabeth Brewster at Lingleville.

Elizabeth (Bruster) Brewster was born in Holland September 5, 1843 and came to the United States with her parents, John A. and Mary Hardway Brewster. At the death of John Brewster, M.L. and Elizabeth took her inheritance and traveled to and from California on several occasions.

During their odyssey, four children were born.

I. Sherman McGriff — born in California and never came to Texas.

II. Mattie McGriff — born July 8, 1865, California, and came to Texas as a girl. She married Valley Goodson, born May 6, 1866, Texas. A. Watt married Georgia Fincanon. B. Wirt married (1) Willie Miler (2) Myrtle Young; C. Ute married Dettie Eoff; D. Pet married Walter Sitton; E. Amanda married Dait Gilder; F. Dewey married Beatrice Gallaway; G. Ruby married Loyd Kirkland.



Morton Linley & Elizabeth McGriff — Lipan.

Mattie died September 18, 1949, and Valley died December 6, 1955; both are buried at Beth Haven Cemetery.

III. Richard Morton McGriff — born March 5, 1868, California, and came to Texas as a young man. He married Martha Ophelia Allen on December 26, 1889 Howell Springs, Erath County. Martha was born August 11, 1873, Alabama. A. Maudie Elizabeth; B. Una Pearl; C. James Henry married Bertha McAlpine; D. Charles Eugene married Lilly Winn; E. Ella Bernice married (1) George Hood (2) V.M. Armstrong; F. Cecil Franklin married Jewell Kyle; G. Morton Dixon married Willie Griffin Hill.

Martha McGriff died November 21, 1944, Dublin, and R.M. McGriff died April 12, 1959, Lipan. They are buried in West End Cemetery.

IV. Claude McGriff — born July 27, 1877, California and came to Erath County, Texas as a young man. He married Jennie Dover; they were the parents of two children: A. Buck; B. Claudie Bell. At the death of Jennie, he married Carrie Eoff, they were the parents of one son, C. Donald.

Claude McGriff died January 17, 1951 and is buried in Dublin.

Linley Morton McGriff died in the Highland community on April 29, 1919. Elizabeth McGriff died three weeks later on May 20. They are buried in Beth Haven Cemetery. Elizabeth's mother, Mary, died in one of the western states several months later. She was in her nineties.

R.M. and Martha McGriff remembered the times when wild hogs ran on the streets of Stephenville, and Negro Jim furnished the town with water that he hauled on a two-wheeled cart.

The Indians had been driven from Erath County only a short time before they came to the area. They could vividly recall an Indian camp on Alarm Creek where a great pile of human bones was discovered; evidently this was where Indians had burned the white people.

Having come from Illinois, Morton L. McGriff was a dedicated Republican. He was proud of the patches on the knees of his trousers, indicative of the fact that Republicans worked for a living. Democrats didn't wear patches; therefore, they didn't work for a living! Tim Sears

The following was taken from a "Memorial to Frank (Happy) McKeown" by J. Louis Evans.

Frank McKeoun.

If one attempted to eulogize the deeds of Frank McKeown, I believe he would find the English language lacking in words that could describe the wonderful life of this devoted man.

Happy was not an ordinary man. His so-called handicap was actually his greatest asset. From the age of 13 until he entered the hospital for the last time his every thought, his every ac-

JOHN GLAZIER (1812 SC-1907 Tx) JESSE C. (1839 Al-1928 Tx)

The first documented ancestor of this family is John Yarborough a resident of Fairfield District, South Carolina. He signed his Will on 25 February 1816; he died 20 June 1816 (cb); the Will was proved 22 June 1816, and recorded in Bk 7, pg. 84, Apt 36, File 586 on 20 March 1817 in Fairfield District, S.C. 1860 Census - Carolan's, Yarbrough's and Jaggars' are in Sevier County, Ark (ec)

Jno. Hilliard Yarbrough m. Welthy Louisiana Lippard in Sevier County, Arkansas. Exa Cudd gives marriage date as 02 Oct 1859. Marriage Bk 2, pg 193 of Sevier Co, Ar lists the marriage: Hilliard Yarbrough and Miss Wesley Louisiana Leopard, recorded 09 Nov 1859. Book 2 also lists marriage of Melissa Ann Yarbrough age 16 to William B. Carolan, age 32 on 11 Nov 1857, and both were from Sevier County.

John Hilliard Yarbrough left the others in Arkansas and moved with his family to Erath County, Texas where he was enumerated in the 1880 census. (ec)
Karen Mamock has given you John Glazier Yarbrough"s record from 1850 census of Rusk County, Texas, and that of Jesse C. Yarbrough. It is apparent that she has matched these as father and son. I have attempted to identify the Yarbrough cousins in Erath County, Texas.

Now, to John and son Jesse. I tried to determine where they were in Texas after they left Rusk County, Tx. I think I have found them, the names are right as a family group, however John G. is listed as John H. and as we have seen, they seem to be very casual as to their exact age. This seems to be the cause in many states and counties if you trace each ten year period.

You will note that the family seems to have been on the "move" in the middle 1840's. They seem always to know where the other is, it's remarkable how they kept in touch. Perhaps Jesse H. died in the mid 1840's? I have not checked the census to see if he landed in Sevier Co, Arkansas or did he come to Mississippi with family members, or even to Texas? More on this in my report. I have not had time to research Mississippi census rolls, nor have I tried the Arkansas census. I chose not to do Arkansas because Carolan Bible does not contain the date of death for Jesse H. Yarbrough, so they may have lost contact.

There happened to be a J.W. Yarbrough age 31 b. Ky. He a brickmason. Also a J. H. Yarbrough age 33 b. Ky, he too a brickmason - but they did not match up with anyone I was looking for.. From the births of their children these two brothers migration pattern was Ky-Ten-to Tx by 1856-57.

I did not look at the 1870 census but will at a later date if I am ever going to complete this report.

Texas gave grants of land to those who would settle and perform the duties of a citizen. Called the empresario system, one such recruiter wasa 66 yr old man named Mercer who made a deal with Sam Houston to bring emigrant families to Texas. The contract was long " they would build a school house, not trespass on the half-section of land adjoining them, nor furnish spiritous liquors nor gunpowder, lead or firearms or warlike weapons to Indians; to build or occupy a suitable cabin or house for his own family, that each male member of the age of 17 years and upwards is supplied with a good rifle or musket and a sufficient supply of prime ammunition" Among the names on this contract:
#15 - 1st Feb 1845 George x Sterrett and Jesse x Yarborough. Witnessed by P. J. PILLIAM that "we have received of Wm. Fenton Mercer and his Associates a certificate in accordance with a contract with Mercer's Texas Assoc'n and the Republic of Texas to introduce and settle emigrant families"... Mercer's Colony did not prosper and W. F. Mercer lost money; he ran into inept bureaucrats, politicians and lawyers. The State of Texas finally honored the land certificates by assigning the holders any vacant land that was available.

Texas State Land Office Files list the following Yarbrough's in two counties yet they have the same certificate numbers:

#677 Jesse Yarber, 640 acres in Hunt County, town of Greenvile. 6 May 1850
#678 Green B. Yarber, 640 acres " " " "

I cannot find Jesse in census records of Texas. Of course, it is very possible that he is listed under "J." and if so, it would take a lot of research on microfilm. The above were shown to be located in Hunt or Kaufman counties and yet when I searched census records they proved to be in Van Zandt County! Maybe Jesse died?

The above Erath County, Texas records will help match u members. There may be other early records which could documentation of the different people given in census, the marks and brands records.

If Jesse C. Yarbrough served in C.S.A. he did not however, this does NOT mean he wasn't a soldier. Many their financial condition, and many only got a pension peoperty except the clothes on their back.

If Jesse C. Yarbro/Yarbrough served with the Front Civil War and afterwards until the Indian scare died do on the muster roll of Capt. Waller's Company of Erath Co may be found in Texas State Archives.

The Texas CSA Pension Application list was search the veterans home was examined including wives and wido rejected applications did not reveal a J.C., Jesse, or Erath County. I photocopied the material and brought

1. Eustacious de Yarburgh
   - Lord of the manor of Yarburgh or Yarborough, county of Lincoln, AD 1066 (listed in the Doomsday book)

2. Robert de Yarburgh (son of Eustacious)

3. Lambert de Yarburgh (son of Robert)

4. Sir John de Yarburgh (son of Lambert)

5. Ralph de Yarburgh (son of John)
   - lived during the reign of King Stephen (1135-1154 AD)

6. Robert de Yarburgh (son of Ralph)

7. William de Yarburgh (son of Robert)

8. Richard de Yarburgh (son of Williams)
   - did well for himself during the reign of Richard II (1377-1400 AD)

9. Robert de Yarburgh (son of Richard)

10. William de Yarburgh (son of Robert)

11. Richard de Yarburgh (son of William)

12. William de Yarburgh (son of Richard)

13. Richard de Yarburgh (son of William)

14. Charles Yarburgh (son of Richard)

15. Richard Yarburgh (son of Charles)

16. Charles Yarburgh (son of Richard)
   - seems to have been in somewhat reduced circumstances, but married an heiress around 1562 and things began to look up!

17. Edmund Yarburgh (son of Charles by his second, even-richer-than-the-first wife) - buried in the cathedral of Lincoln, 1590 AD, with a fancy monument-

18. Francis Yarburgh (second son of Edmund)
   - esquire of Northhampton, sergeant-at-law to Elizabeth I in the 37th year of her reign, said to be very learned-

19. Edmund Yarburgh (son of Francis and his second wife)
   - esquire of Balne Hall in Yorkshire - married two rich wives, 1. Sarah and 2. Thomasine - died May 6, 1631

20. Sir Nicholas Yarburgh (son of Edmund and Thomasine)
   - knight of Snaith Hall, Yorkshire - in the commission of array for Charles I (I bet he was a cavalier) - died August 1655

21. Sir Thomas Yarburgh (son of Nicholas)
- knight of Blane Hall and Snaith, aged 27 in 1666, high sheriff for Yorkshire in 1676 and M.P. for Postefract

Here's where it gets interesting- Old Sir Thomas was a busy man and had ten children: James, Thomas, Blague, Richard, Charles, Henrietta-Marie, Margreat, Faith, Rosamund and Alice- All of the girls, except Alice, married very wealthy, important men- Henrietta-Marie was maid-of-honor to both Queen Catherine of Braganza (Charles II's wife) and Queen Mary (of "William and Mary")- James went on to inherit (and, of course, marry a great heiress- These fellas did real well in the heiress line) and the English line of the family then proceeds on down to the present-day James Yarborough, Baron Deramore of York- Its' son No. 4 that we're interested in : Richard- I would guess that the pickings were pretty slim, so Richard apparantly packed up and headed for the promised land, his church records cease in England at the end of the 1600's then he shows up in the Quit Rent Roll of King Williams County, Va. in 1704, occupying 300 acres- The records are unclear on how many children he had, but one (listed alternately as Edward or Edmund, they seem to have used this name interchangably on the records) looks to be the daddy of our John, ca 1755! So it would go:

22. Richard (fourth son of Sir Thomas)

23. Edmund or Edward (son of Richard)

24. John (c. 1755 Va. - 1816 SC)

25. Arthur (1799 SC - 1831 Al)

26. John Glazier (1812 SC - 1907 Tx)

27. Jesse C. (1839 Al - 1928 Tx)

28. Joseph (Big Daddy)

29. Evan Barney (Pop)

30. Weldon R.

31. Stephen L.

32. Daniel I.

Dear Mrs. Talbert:

I have made a copy of the marriage certificate as best I could make out the names in the record book. It was recorded in writing and the script back then is hard to read. I tried to make Welthy out of the lady's name but it looks like Wesley. I hope this is sufficient.

In the deed records I find that J. W. and J. H. Yarbrough sold to Thos. P. Carolan the NW SW of Section 5, Twp. 13 South, Range 30 West, containing 40 acres on November 6, 1861. Jesse W. Yarbrough sold to Jonathan M. Carolan the NE SW & SE NW of Section 5, Twp. 13 South, Range 30 West containing 80 acres on January 12, 1863. This land is about 2 miles from Richmond. Richmond is in what is now Little River County and Little River County is about 25 miles south of Sevier County and was made from land that was formerly Sevier County.

Very truly yours,

Lawrence Hill

In Loving Memory

God hath not promised skies
always blue,
Flowers strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun
without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace
without pain.
But God hath promised strength for the day.
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help
from above,
Unfailing sympathy Undying
love...

some of them moved on to Erath. Issac Cox's mother, Mary Jane Cox, had a brother and 3 sisters who moved to Erath County from Ala along with her mother. They all located in the Center Grove area. Later Newt Cox moved to the Valley Grove area South of Stephenville. He was well known for his ability to make sorghum molasses with many of the neighbors bringing their cane to his place. In later years they moved to Stephenville and he opened an apple store every fall on the town square — shipping in N. Mex. apples.

There were 10 children in this family — 9 boys and the youngest was a girl.

1. T. Aubrey 1880-1938 married Cora Smart 1888-1964, had a grocery store in Stephenville. They had 4 daughters — Vera, Faye, Mae and Pauline.

2. John Glazier 1883-196 — married Emma Dellinger and they lived in Portales, N. Mex. They had one son, Vincent.

3. Thomas Lee 1885-1973 married Myrtle Davis and they lived in Ky. and Dallas. Two children — Nelda and Malcolm.

THE WILLIAM O. (BILL) CROFT FAMILY

Bill and Berneice Croft were born and raised in Erath County and lived most of their 49 years of marriage here. Bill was the youngest child of R.M. and Mary Morton Croft, who lived in the Center Grove community. They reared five children: Irene, Lewin, Floyd, Vera and Bill. The family later moved to the Indian Creek community, and the house built in 1922 is now the home of Irene's grandson Randy and his family.

Bill Croft, Former County Clerk, Displays an Old Ballot Box

Berneice was the daughter of J.H. and Rose Emma Boyd of the Indian Creek community. These two families grew up together and had many good times. The Boyd's had five children: Clarence, who was killed in WW I in France, Hatve, Bess, Rudean and Berneice. In later years two of the Croft brothers married two of the Boyd sisters, those being Bill and Lewin marrying Berneice and Bess.

After their marriage in 1922, Bill and Berneice continued to live in Stephenville where Bill owned a small cafe. They had an infant daughter born in 1925 who did not live. In 1927, they moved to Brownwood where Bill was employed by a bus company. While in Brownwood, their daughter Beth was born. Beth is married to Wes Adams and they have three children, Wesley, Bethann and David. Bethann is married to Ronnie Wilson and David is married to Val Tuttle.

In 1938, they lived in Stephenville when their daughter Rose Ann was born. She is married to Ed Strickland and they have two children Suzanne and Christopher.

Bill entered county politics and served about 15 years as Tax Collector and County Clerk. He also worked as bookkeeper for Kimbell Grocers a number of years.

Mother and Daddy loved people and that is one reason Daddy loved each year he was a county official. As children Beth and I spent many hours handing out cards soliciting votes for him, as well as attending numerous pie suppers, school closings and community singings. They were also life long members of the Methodist Church where Daddy served on the administrative board and Mother took an active part in the WSCS.

The Croft family was a very close, fun-loving family with a lot of traditions. Mother was an excellent cook and her turkey and dressing was a tradition each holiday when we all came home. Family get-togethers were another tradition. Whether they were held in the country at Aunt Mary and Uncle Harve's or "on the branch" at Rudean and Elmore's, dominoes, good food and a lot of fun were a strong tradition that left many fond memories never to be forgotten.

I don't think Erath County ever had two more loyal supporters than our mother and dad. Daddy loved to go places and see new things but he didn't like to stay long. He would always be ready to get back to "God's country" which he called home and Erath County. Submitted by: Rose Ann Strickland, Beth Adams.

W.T. (DUB) CRUMLEY FAMILY

We are now living in Graham, Texas (Young County), but I grew up in Erath County. My mother and father are J.B. and Nell McConnell of Rt. 3, Stephenville, Texas.

I started my schooling in Dublin, then went to Eastland schools when we moved there. My father was with the Lincoln-Mercury Car Agency in Eastland. We moved back to Erath County in the fall of 1954. We bought a farm on the Bosque river ten miles south of Stephenville. Back then we had a "hand-move" irrigation system and I helped move irrigation pipe when not in school.

I graduated from Stephenville High School in 1960. I attended Tarleton State University three years and then went to Terrell's School of Medical Technology in Fort Worth. After taking my test I became a Registered Medical Technologist.

It was at Tarleton that I met Dub Crumley from Copperas Cove, Texas. We married June 22, 1963. Dub's mother, Elna Crumley, lives near Copperas Cove; his father, A.J. Crumley, passed away in 1972.

Dub attended Tarleton State University and Sam Houston University at Huntsville, Texas, finishing with a Master's Degree in Agricultural Education. We moved from Huntsville to Gustine in Comanche County where Dub was Vocational Agricultural teacher for seven years. Our son, William Heath, was born August 28, 19[illegible]. Our daughter, Melanie Dee, was born September 7, 1971. From 1969 until we moved to Graham in 1975 I was a Medical Technologist at the Dublin Hospital.

Dub & Bonnie Crumly Family, 1978

Dub is now a field representative with the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. His work covers about twenty-six counties in north Texas. In the fall of 1977 I entered Tarleton State University again, driving from Graham to Stephenville three to five days a week. This was during one of the worst winters we have had. In spite of all the snow and ice I received my degree in May 1978. I am now teaching seventh grade science in Graham Junior High School.

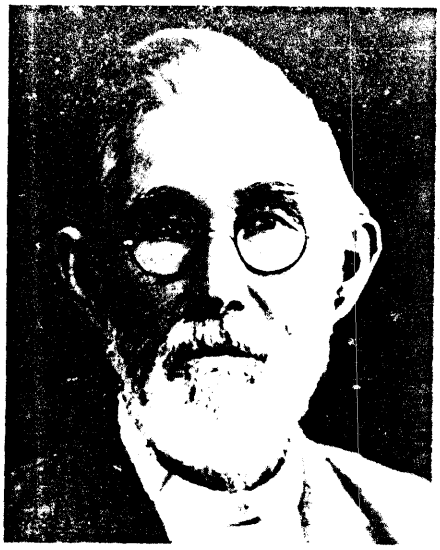
We are members of the Graham First Baptist Church. We are active in church and school activities, 4-H, and other youth, church, and school oriented groups. Bonnie Dee Crumley.

REBECCA CULP

Nancy Rebecca (Nail) Culp, born 25 January 1833 in Alabama, was a resident of Erath County as early as 1878. Her husband, John F. Culp, had been a blacksmith in the Confederate army and had died before their last child was born. At the time that Rebecca decided to leave Arkansas, she and most of her children were living in Ouachita County. When she came to Texas, her four youngest children came with her.

Relience Culp

A brief mention will be made of all eight of the children.



W. R. Woolverton

Josie married Ben Croft in 1885 and lived in and around Stephenville. They had four children: Tam, Ray, Inez (all deceased) and Juanita (Deaver) who is a resident of Sunset Nursing Home in Stephenville.

Mollie was married to Bailey Pool in 1896. They had four children: Joe Bailey, Verna, Ruth, and Crawford. Ruth lives in the Houston area and Crawford in the Lincoln, Neb. area.

Gilmer married Nettia Mims in 1900. They had no children.

Gilmer and Mollie were born deaf mutes and Gilmer's wife Nettie was also a deaf mute, having lost her hearing as an infant.

John Bird married Viola Norris in 1898. They had five children: Birdie (Chamlee) now residing in Gatesville, Nellie (Ward), Leola (James) and Doris (Terry) both residents of Ft. Worth, and Ruby (Mrs Elton Latham) of Stephenville.

Jessie Claud married Dora Barham in 1900. They had one child, Jewel Lorraine, who is married to T.V. Montgomery and now lives in Houston. Dora died of typhoid fever in 1903. In 1910, Claud married Alberta Wood and they had 11 children. Mr. Woolverton

CAGE WYLIE

In 1868 my father moved to Erath County from Thorp Springs. He owned land at Wylieville, now X-Ray. Eventually there were eleven boys and two girls, in that order. I was born in 1910. We made our own baseball team; I recall seven boys living at home at once.

I began school at Simms Valley — but all I can remember is breaking my leg. Later I came to Stephenville and attended the high school. We made our own recreation: to take thirteen kids on vacation was unheard of. Later I've taken my son Kenneth to Big Bend and around in West Texas, as well as to Colorado, Missouri, and Tennessee. I've had many jobs — on my folk's ranch, at sales barns, for the city, and for Lone Star Gas.

We had a 1920 Model T which my father drove with his spurs on; he was a cowboy. My first car was a 1927 Model A. (One at a recent auto show was $12,000; mine cost $135.) Now I prefer the General Motors Chevrolet.

I knew Violet Mauldin a long time but first took her out on a blind date. She was Drew Mauldin's niece; her parents had died when she was very young. A County clerk named Richardson married us July 14, 1932 — and I was 21. Money was very scarce!

My favorite sport is quail-hunting, and I always have a good pointer. We loved the country but enjoyed the city: the brick streets always meant town to us; I hope they can be preserved. Any holiday was an occasion in those days, and it was a treat to skip work, since the hours were sunup to sundown. Baling hay was done — always in hottest summer — on shares. Teamwork was very important, and you had to keep up. I worked on WPA — 15 days a month at $1.25 daily. It was hard, but welcome. We built bridges, did stone work, and fenced rights-of-way; it wasn't bad. Our boss John Dean Dabney, Sr. was reasonable.

Our family ran a ranch of 1100 acres, 300 in cultivation. All the Wylies were land connected. There was some branching out: one relative even bought a circus, but almost gave it away later because he didn't know anything about it. Aunt Pearl Wylie Cage did some banking, several did railroading — the line was sold to the Cotton-Belt company. Some in the family speculated on Desdamona oil property and did well. At X-Ray, some of the ranchers in the area got a good deal of oil money in the 1920's.

Young people needing advice might well consider that it' not what you make: it's what you save. That's what's important.

CANTY LEE YARBROUGH - MARY KATHRYN PETTY

In todays transient society, an individual who has spent his entire life on the land where he was born is indeed a rarity. Canty Lee Yarbrough is just such a man. The son of William Lee Yarbrough and Dora E. Pearcy, he was born on Feb. 2, 1907, between the forks of North and South Paluxy River near Bluff Dale. In 1918 after a fire destroyed their barn, the family moved to the north side of the Paluxy and built the house where he resides today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Yarbrough

The youngest of six children and the only son, Canty attended public schools near Bluff Dale, then Tarleton State College and North Texas State Teachers College as did his sisters. The five daughters, all still living, are Louilla Wallace of Portland, Oregon; Lois Corwell, El Paso; Alma Lawson Richardson, Opal Brown, Ft. Worth; and Willie Yarbrough, El Paso.

In 1934, Canty Lee Yarbrough married Mary Kathryn Petty of Lipan, the daughter of Ella and Edgar Petty. The couple have been active in community affairs in Bluff Dale for nearly 45 years. These activities include the Bluff Dale Methodist Church, the PTA, the Study and Garden Club and the Bluff Dale Masonic Lodge, No. 724, where Canty served as past master. He is also past district deputy, Grand Lodge of Texas; past commander of Stephenville Commander, No. 100 and a member of the Mi[illegible] Temple of Ft. Worth.

They have two daughters, both who attended Stephenville High School and Tarleton State University. Cathey Louise graduated from North Texas State University in 1963, then worked as an airline hostess for Braniff International in Dallas where she lives today with her husband John Merriett Sims, Jr. and daughter Candice Anne.

The second daughter, Mary Anne, began her newspaper career while in Stephenville High School where she worked part-time for the Empire-Tribune. She was also editor of the J-TAC while at Tarleton. Since graduating from Southwest Texas State University in 1974, she has served as the Sports Editor of the Athens Review, a news reporter for Station KEBE, Jacksonville, Texas and is currently the Sports Editor for the Mexia Daily News, Mexia, Texas. Kathy Yarbrough Sims

In Memory Of Blanche Pittman

"Miss Blanche" as I first knew her, was one of the most unforgetable persons I ever met. She was an educator having taught in Erath County school for several years. At the time I met her, she was principal of Dublin Elementary School. She was elected Erath County School Superintendent in 1926 and served two terms. She served as a counselor in Boles Children's Home at Quinlan, Texas, for a number of years. Her devotion to her mother and family was unexcelled.

Memorial to Ralph Glenn

The measure of a man is by the deeds he has done and the friends he leaves as he departs from this world. At the memorial service for Ralph Glenn his former pastor, Bro. Coleman Campbell read from II Samuel 3:38, "What, know ye not that a great man has fallen?" Bro. Campbell knew from experience since Ralph had aided him in the early years of his ministry in the material ways that were known only to the young pastor and Ralph. During the years of service in the Masonic Lodge Ralph spent countless hours teaching the secret work to young members. His years of carrying the mail were accompanied by considerations still recounted to his family by the recipients who appreciated his kind deeds, even naming their children after him. His family and host of friends agree Ralph truly was a great man, loved by many, missed by all.

Written by his daughter Marion Pruitt

William Lee Yarbrough — Dora E. Pearcy

Although central Arkansas was the birthplace of both these Erath County pioneers in 1862 and 1970 respectively, they met and married in Bluff Dale on Sept. 17, 1896. Both families had migrated to Texas from the South following the War Between the States and were prominent in the settlement of early Bluff Dale.

W. L. Yarbrough was a land-owner, rancher, a director of the Bluff Dale State Bank and the couple were early members of the Bluff Dale Methodist Church.

Besides the seven children they brought to the union from previous marriages, they were blessed with six more children, five daughters and one son, all of whom are living today. They are Louilla Wallace, Portland, Oregon; Alma Lawson, Richardson, Texas; Lois Crowell, El Paso; Opal Brown, Ft. Worth; Willie Yarbrough, El Paso and Canty Lee Yarbrough who still resides on the family farm northwest of Bluff Dale.

Dora preceded her husband in death on Oct. 4, 1929. William Lee was laid to rest near her in the Wesley Chapel Cemetary on April 1, 1944.

IN MEMORY OF READ F. WARNOCK

SEPT 13, 1891 to MAY 22, 1977

Read was admired, respected and loved by most the people who knew him. We his family loved him as he did each of us.

His working for that which benefited the most people has influenced all near him.

His patience to accomplish a task or deal with an unruly child was unlimited. The challenge to repair the unrepairable was a delight for him. The joy of a task well done was shared with many.

Being a strong advocate of exercising one's right to vote he instilled in us the responsibility to vote our convictions.

He realized the value of our natural resources. In this area he used the "waste not, want not" theory. For over fifty years he told us "The American people can and will exhaust all our natural resources."

Like his father, whose last request was "... Read F. step in exactly when and where I step out," he dealt with everyone honestly and expected the same of his fellow man, oft times being disappointed. When Nina Maud borrowed a phrase from Burns, "An honest man is the noblest of God's work" we wonder if she was thinking of her father or brother. We are trying to live as they did, "a man's word is his bond."

He left so much of himself with us, a huge storehouse of wisdom, philosophy, religion, forgiveness, endurance and compassion for mankind. Not just his high morals but in the physical realm also. As our dear cousin, Harold Meeker, said "I see his hands all around us."

A few minutes after Read passed on, John Read wrote "If he were a good man you will not cry."

DANNY MARTIN YOUNG AND NEVA NATRELLE HEDRICK YOUNG

We became Erath County residents because of Tarleton State University. Dan first came to Stephenville to enroll in TSU in September 1961, after graduation from Arlington Heights High School in Fort Worth; I came in June 1962 from Walnut Springs (Bosque County). We met soon after I arrived and were married on May 31, 1964. I received my B.A. (English/French) from TSU in May 1965; Dan's B.A. (history/government) from Sul Ross State University followed in August , 1966; my M.A. (English) was completed at Sul Ross in August 1967; Dan finished his M.A. (history/English) at Sul Ross in August 1970; we have completed Ph.D. course work at North Texas State University. Except for two years and several summers studying at Alpine and Denton, we have lived in Stephenville.

Dan was born on November 3, 1942, in Atlanta, Georgia. His mother Roberta moved to San Francisco, but Dan grew up in Fort Worth with his father, Milton Carl Young. The earliest trace of Dan's ancestors places them along the Buffalo Bayou near Houston prior to the Civil War.

I was born September 7, 1944 in Walnut Springs — the third child of Barney Bryant Hedrick and Minnie Lee Cook Hedrick. My father's parents, George Washington Hedrick and Ida Caroline Offield Hedrick, were native to Bosque County. My maternal grandparents, John Hubbard Cook and Julia Blanche Bailey Cook, were early farmers and shopkeepers in the Eustace-Athens-Kerens area of East Texas before moving to Walnut Springs in 1924.

My maternal grandmother, born near Stephenville in 1872, acquainted me with some early Erath County history by telling many stories about her childhood days in Hannibal, Ex-ray, and Stephenville. Her father, William Augustus Bailey, died very young, leaving Sarah Elizabeth Slaughter Bailey to raise their five children. Sarah Elizabeth was helped by her family, the Slaughters (early Erath settlers from the Mississippi Valley). One of her brothers was William B. Slaughter, sheriff of Erath County from 1880-1882; my grandmother told of staying with him often in the jail. This great-great uncle was elected vice-president in 1881 of the first Erath County cattle association. He is buried in the Hannibal Cemetery. Both the Slaughters and Baileys were prominent figures in post-Civil War Stephenville, the Baileys were local businessmen.

My grandmother attended the Marshall McIlhaney Academy, a forerunner of John Tarleton College, in the 1880's. I now teach at Tarleton State University and live within two blocks of the site of the Academy.

Baptist Church and later helped organize the county government, serving as a commissioner.

At nine years of age living in a half-dugout and cabin, Charlie's job was to take the gun and ride the horse every morning and after school around their farm to make sure no cowboys had cut their fences. A rancher's cattle could ruin a whole years crop, easily.

In 1936 because of drought conditions, Charles Cowan was forced to seek water and grass for his cattle. He returned to Stephenville where he bought land. In 1952, he retired from cotton farming in Hockley Co. and came to live in Erath Co. until his death.

Mr. Charles Cowan married Bessie (Longley) Cowan on July 4, 1920. They were the proud parents of ten children (7 living), 26 grandchildren, and 6 great grandchildren. Their children include: Mrs. Julius Blair of Ralls, Tx.; Mrs. L.M. Williams of Meadow, Tx.; Mr. Frank Lee Cowan of Stephenville; Mr. Cecil W. Cowan of Brownfield; Mrs. R.D. Russell of Andrews; Mrs. Doyle Pruitt of Mineral Wells; and Mr. John A. Cowan of Ropesville, Tx.

Mr. Cowan was a deacon of the Cedar Point Baptist Church. He has served as Sunday School Supt., teacher, and songleader. Mrs. Cowan is also very active in the church.

Mr. Charles Cowan was a true pioneer from a pioneer family. Mrs. Charlene Pruitt

THE WADE AND BESSIE COWAN FAMILY

On December 4, 1904, two pioneer Texas families were united by the marriage of Samuel Wade Cowan of Alexander and Bessie Rita Stephens of Baggett. The wedding ceremony, performed by Rev. G.L. Gilbreath, was held in the church in the Mexico community, located a few miles south of Dublin. Fred Martin was best man and Lena Palmer was bridesmaid.

Mr. Samuel Wade Cowan

Wade, or "Little Wade" as he was commonly called, was the son of Samuel Wade or "Big Wade" Cowan and Elvira Alverson Cowan. He was born at Alexander October 15, 1880. Bessie was the daughter of John and Ann Stephens. She was born at Hazeldell August 15, 1879.

To this union was born Rich Wade, Anabel, James Samuel, William Lewis, and Mary Evelyn, who died as an infant.

Mr. Cowan's grandfather, James Cowan, and grandmother, Louisa Blasingame Cowan, obtained in the early 1860's the tract of land on which the village of Alexander was built. Mrs. Cowan was the granddaughter of Rev. William "Choctaw Bill" Robinson, pioneer Erath County preacher, who organized many Central Texas churches, including the First Baptist Churches at Stephenville and Dublin. Her father's mother, Christina Hoback Stephens, was a Cherokee Indian.

The couple operated a small farm and ranch at Alexander where Mr. Cowan bought and sold livestock. He shipped his cattle to Fort Worth, and, occasionally, to Kansas City. Later they ran a cafe and market in Alexander, which at that time was a thriving little town.

In 1912 the couple moved to a farm near Ardmore, Oklahoma where they lived for two years. In 1914 they moved to a farm south of Tahoka in Lynn County, and in 1923 moved to Tahoka where they operated a laundry and a cafe. In 1925 they moved to Colorado City where Mr. Cowan ran a service station and grocery. In 1926 they moved to Abilene where Mr. Cowan operated a service station. In 1927 the couple moved to a farm near Comyn. In 1931 Mr. Cowan managed a dairy and ranch near Brownfield before moving back to Comyn. Then in 1934 the couple moved to Dublin where both worked in a family operated electrical appliance sales and repair shop. Mr. and Mrs. Cowan were both active in church work. Mr. Cowan was a deacon in the Baptist Church, and Mrs. Cowan was a Sunday School teacher for many years.

Mr. Cowan died May 21, 1938. Mrs. Cowan passed away May 16, 1967. Both are buried in the New Dublin Cemetery.

OLD TIMER 1762 THE COX FAMILY

My Grandfather, John Henry Cox, was born in Habershane, Georgia, in 1839. From the family Bible and family records we know his grandfather, William Cox, was born in 1762 in Virginia and fought in the Revolutionary War from 1776 to 1778 and later married Katherine McKinney. They had seven children.

Eli Cox, my grandfather's father, was a child of this union. He married Eliza Higgins in 1831 and they had eleven children. The Cox family joined an ox-wagon Caravan which left Rock Spring, Georgia, in 1856 and arrived in Fort Worth in 1857. The trip consumed six months and the distance of 917 miles.

John Henry Cox, my grandfather, married Mary Frances Davenport in 1868 and had fourteen children. As dedicated Christians, the Bible was read with daily prayers in their home. Their favorite scripture, I believe, was Job's "With God are wisdom and might: he has counsel and understanding."

Grandparents' first home was the old Cox homestead near Millsap. Later they moved to their ranch located on Jim Ned Creek between Brownwood and Coleman near old Camp Colorado which was a Confederate camp during the Civil War. In 1871 they moved to Stephenville where grandfather managed a drygoods store which he and his brother James had established earlier. At this time, they also owned stores at Eastland and Pecos, Texas.

Grandfather's home was located on a sandy lane now named Tarleton Avenue. My mother, Leila Cox, was born in this house. (Years later, "Mothershed Cottage was there. The present house was built by Roger Giddeon). My grandparents lived there until 1881 when their store, located on the east side of the square, was consumed by fire which destroyed that entire block. (Thirty-five years later, Charles O'Connor Blakeney, my sons' grandfather, established a store on the lot where my grandfather's store was located.) After the fire, the family moved to Eastland where grandfather managed their store for fourteen years. Then they moved to Carbon where he established another store which he managed for sixteen years.

Mary Frances Davenport who married John Henry Cox, 1868

Upon retirement, grandfather bought land on Seminary Hill, Fort Worth, where he lived until his death in 1920. Four years later, grandmother Cox moved to Stephenville to live with her daughter, Ethel Cox Cage for twenty years. She was living with my parents, Thomas Joel and Leila Cox Hunt when she died in 1943.

The Hunt and Blakeney families were united when Ruth Hunt and John O'Connor Blakeney were married in 1917. "Connor" was fifty years of age when he died in 1946.

With Divine guidance and assistance, Connor and I reared two fine sons: Colonel Thomas O'Connor Blakeney USA Ret. and Lt. Colonel Charles Mack Blakeney USAF Ret. Tommy and Girlie gave us five grandsons and one granddaughter. Now there are three great-granddaughters and two more "grands" on the way. In June a baby Morrison will arrive. In October baby Blakeney is due. However this is another story.

Louis Armstrong King and I were married in 1954. Lew died in 1973. I shall be 83 years of age in September, 1978. Ruth Hunt Blakeney King

ISSAC NEWTON COX FAMILY

Christmas Day, 1879 was the wedding day for Issac Newton Cox and Martha Isabel Yarborough. She was born in Hill County, 1863 and moved to Erath with her father when she was about 7 years old. THE FRED YARBROUGHS

At top are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough and the cake she baked for their golden wedding anniversary reception Sunday, April 11. Below is the entire family. Standing from left are James Conaway, who lived with them for many years, and Mrs. Conaway of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bush of Tulia and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Lasater of Duncan, Okla. Seated are Michele Lasater, Mrs. Yarbrough, John Bush and Mr. Yarbrough. Kneeling at front are Frederick Bush and Kevin Lasater.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough Honored on 50th Anniversary

More than 400 friends joined Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yarbrough as they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, April 11, in Bura Handley Community Center.

Reception hosts were their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bush of Tulia and sons, Frederick and John of Tulia, and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Lasater, Kevin and Michele. Joining them, were Mr. and Mrs. James Conaway of Los Angeles, Calif. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough many years.

This group also received the guests after they were registered by Michelle Lasater and Mrs. J.B. Downs.

Because of the large number of guests who came from other towns, and who formerly had lived in this area, many remained for most of the reception hours to visit, after viewing the gifts which filled a long table.

The reception table was covered with a white net wedding cloth over satin, appliqued with felt motifs, which Mrs. Yarbrough had made. The centerpiece was of gold and bronze chrysanthemums and candles, arranged in a footed silver bowl. Punch and coffee were served from a large silver bowl and coffee service.

Mrs. Bob Downs and Mrs. Eddie Orr served the cake, while Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Kent Pence and Mrs. Forrest Overton poured.

Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Leslie Moore, Mrs. Harold Moore, Mrs. Gracie Chambers, Mrs. V.K. Orr, Jr., Miss Beverly Orr and Miss Susan Kimbro. Others in the house party were Mrs. Bill Hill and Mrs. Hiram Cudd.

Background music was by Mrs. Truman Estes and vocal numbers by the Lighthouse Quartet.

Mrs. Yarbrough, the former Myrtle Downs, was born in a half dugout just across the state line in the Indian Territory--before Oklahoma statehood. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John R. Downs.

She attended school at Union Grove and Carl, and later at Vinson, then Southwestern State College at Weatherford.

She recalls she helped her father farm with teams of mules. Later her father bought the Madge Store, and Mrs. Yarbrough helped him until she and Mr. Yarbrough were married in 1926.

Mr. Yarbrough was born in Liberty, Erath County, near Stephenville, in a log cabin. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yarbrough.

At the age of 16, he came to Collingsworth county to help his uncle, the late J.P. Yarbrough, with ranching and farming. He and his brother, Earl Yarbrough, batched on the ranch in the Shinnery community.

After Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough married, they lived east of Salt Fork, still on the Yarbrough Ranch, but after the death of J.P. Yarbrough, they moved in 1940 to the farm where they now live, near Shinnery School.

Mr. Yarbrough engaged in farming, ranching and cattle trading for more than 37 years, buying cattle at all the sales in this area--Hollis, Wellington, Mangum, Vernon, Quanah and Snyder, then trucking them to the Oklahoma City Stock Yards.

Mrs. Yarbrough has worked along side of him, even to trucking the cattle. She is one of the few women of this area who has a commercial trucking license which will enable here to drive these trucks.

But she is a most feminine woman, and when she wasn't needed elsewhere, she became an accomplished seamstress, and sewed for many women of the area. Wedding gowns were her specialty. Finely decorated cakes were next to draw her attention, and again, wedding and anniversary cakes were those she enjoyed making most.

Mrs. Yarbrough has been a member of the Home Demonstration Clubs for over 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough are members of the Church of the Nazarene in Wellington and she has held most of the offices of the church. She is now secretary-treasurer.

She is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Lillie and Vinson Home Demonstration Clubs.

Mr. Yarbrough continues to do his own farming on more than 500 acres and care for 150 head of mother cows, even at the age of 76. He sold his cattle truck only a few months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough remark there are only two families now living in Shinnery community.

Dear Ophelia:

We received your letter, then also your box of Christmas decorations and we sincerely thank you for both. We really thought the tree decorations were a cleaver gift. Now a Christmas will never go by that we don't think of you.

I also want to thank you and Rea for the pictures of the Morgan Mill cemetery, letting Guin and I copy the book on Thomas Griggs Yarborough, and all the other things that you two did for us at the convention this past year.

The weather is starting to get cooler, and it is getting darker earlier, soon it will be cold weather and I will start having time to work on the family records. I hope to get a lot accomplished this year. Some nights I get started looking at records or the books and cannot put it down, and I will set up all night and do not accomplish any thing. I am usually given out the next day, with nothing to show for it, but receive a lot of entertainment doing it.

I talked to Exa Cudd of Wellington, Texas last night. She is from my line, and I hope to get the computer information as correct as I can on our line then start corresponding with as many of our line as I can. I am hoping she can come to the convention this year in Atlanta. I just have a feeling that this convention is going to be a big one and some important things will happen.

As I told you, If you want to send me the information on your family line I will be more than happy to enter the information on computer and provide you with print outs. I will also update your records from time to time as you get new information or data. I think I gave you copies of a descendents chart and a Pedigree chart but will enclose them on my family so you can see again what can be done once the information is entered on the computer.

Thanks again for everything, and please plan to stop, eat, and spend the night anytime you can. We would be most pleased to have you. You and Rea are always welcome.

Love, Len and Pam

From Wagon Wheels a quarterly published by Logan County Historical Society:

Golden City, Arkansas had a post office until 1932. In the 1880's the postmistress was Mrs. Thomas (Frances Blue) Greene who also operated the telephone office. Later, her son Charles Green was appointed postmaster. When LABE YARBROUGH was appointed postmaster the postoffice was moved into his store and remained there until it was discontinued. Dear Mrs. Packwood,
I got your letter, sent by way of Cranett, but have just neglected answering.
My father, John Moody Yarbrough was my Grandfather. He is buried at Booneville, & my father, Olivey, & my Uncle Omer & are buried in the same lot with my mother, Nella Burkholder & her sister Jessa - Brothers marying sisters. I have a brother, Lyle, and 2 double-cousins, Dale & Doyle. Lyle & Doyle live at Booneville, and Dale lives in Ft. Smith, Arkansas. My Great Grandfather was Jesse Yarbrough Lyle has our family tree, traceable for 3 or 4 generations, but on my mother's side he has some of the Burkholder family.
Just co-incidence, I guess, but on the St Paul basketball team from Chicago there was Burkholder. He runs in so, race that we just noticed it. Also, I noticed that the U. of Arkansas has a new player coming in, Wayne Yarbrough from the Houston area. We have wondered if Cole Yarbrough, the race, is any relation.
Thanks for writing - Hope may not help, but we thank anyone for you - was possibly Rena ... relation of the Cardinals. They are quite a few Cardinals around Bonneville — in fact, a small community of Bonnevilles.

Kind Cordially,

Wish I could help more —

P.S. I coached at Crossett 7 yrs & am now retired — I had Barry Switzer in my P.E. classes from the 8th thru 12 grades but never coached him — oh, yes, he is now coach of OU University — LV

It looks like when John Yarborough the father of Jesse H,Thomas, Aurthur John,Griggs,Sarah,Martha , passed away the boys started to move west in about 1816 to Morgan County Alabama.where Jesse H Yarborough started and raised part if not all of his famiky then latter they moved to Lawernce County Alabama. he had seven childen Eliza Jane, Martha Amanda,Nancy Noris ,Jesse Wessley,John Hillard, Thomas Griggs, William Aurthur, Ihavent yet found out what happend to the rest of them but Jesse H. Jesse Wesley and John Hillard shows up on the 1860 census of Ark. that part of them left together from Alabama according to a family bible in the posesion of Lyle Yarborough

They started to move west in 1857 and arrived in 1958 in ark. it would seem to me they moved straight west maybe a little north to about where Texarkana where they headed north in the bible it says we crosed the red river into Sevier County Ark. where Jesse H. ,Jesse Wesley.John H all show up on the 1960 census of Ark Sevier County was a large one so they split it up into several small ones they lived in was latter named Little River where Jesse H Jesse W and John H All show as onwing land in Red River Township near Richmond Ark John the Confedrate Army

The two Jesses stayed there awhile then moved alittle east and a little north into Scott County Ark. into the town of Booneville where Jesse H. later passed away where Jesse Wesley had the rest of his 12 children. the last census that He and his familty show up is 1900 in Ark census.

IN about 1900 they moved from ARK. to OKLA. I.T. two of my aunts was born in I.T. and one uncle was borned in peggs OKLA OKLAHOMA become a state in 1907. Jesse W and all of his family moved to PEGGS OKLA about the same time but John Moody he stayed in ARK and was latter was buried in Booneville Ark. Bunk Joe H.,Jesse Augusts, and Jeff all lived there for awhile Jeff moved on to Idaho Joe H. stayed and went into business

The girls all married local men Ellen married John Anderson Loruisa Married Bill Littlefield, Fannie married Jim Cabe , Alice married Tom Irvin, . Jesse Wessley died in 1906 his wife died in 1918 both are burried in Peggs Okla at New Home Cementary. His children stayed and raised there children in and around Peggs until around 1920 when a cyclone blew through and just about wiped it out it was asmall place farming was the only way of making a living it had 3 or 4 merchantile stores ablack smith shop,a grits a sawmill a cotton gin 2 or 3 churches and a small 2 man jail t never completely rebiult part stayed and rebuilt the rest moved way

Ellen latter married John WillYard For as the story was told oward her first husband sit her upon a stack of stove wood and sed her target practice riding around it on his horse latter he as found dead by the side of the road nobody ever knew who shot im .

The town what of it that was left now sits on highway 82 9 miles outh Locust Grove be carful when you get near it for if you sneeze ou have just driven through it

additional information welcomed.

From the earliest information I get, by word of mouth, four Yarborough brothers came to America from England back in colonial times, landing probably in Virginia. They scattered, and our branch of the family seems to have moved to Alabama. As stated elsewhere (page 1 my grandfather John Moody Y. (Pa) told me he was born in Alabama and moved to Mississippi County, Arkansas, immediately after the Civil War, when he was about 11 years old; that would be about 1865—67, as he was born in 1855. However, one of the old Bibles said

"We moved from Alabama 8/3/57; started on the 25 of November, 1857; arrived here June 1, 1858," at what is probably Sevier County, Arkansas, as Mama remembers that mentioning Sevier County, and records show John Hilliard Y. married there in 1859; the Bible just said "Sevier". It is uncertain as to who "we" were, but we decided it was Pa's grandfather, Jesse W. Senior, and not his father, Jesse W. (Junior), as I think he came some 5 or 10 years later. Jesse, Jr. would have been 27 in 1857, and his father 62.

In case anyone tries to get additional information about the family (it's your time now), here are a few leads found in an old, faded Bible:

"We moved from Morgan County (probably to Alabama) to Lawrence (or , parts are badly faded and worn) on 1/15/1848, to Foxes Creek.

"We moved from Foxes Creek on the 5th of January, 1854 to 5 miles of Moulton . (probably in Alabama)

"We moved from Red River to Scott the 23 of March, 1868, got ther on the 4th of April." Could this be in Arkansas?

John Moody Yarborough moved to Booneville sometime in the 1870's; his father, Jesse Yarborough, also lived near there at one time; he was buried at Pegue, 12/5/1906.

In the front of one old Bible it says:" To Jesse Wesley Yarborough, 1830: May the Lord have mercy on him is my wish and pray for him. Amen.

Correction on previous information I gave you: Lynn Yarborough was born in Chant, Indian Territory, no longer in existence, listed as McCurtain, Ok. Olivey Yarborough died 5/21/1960, not 5/11/1960. John Moody Y. was born 7/9/1855, instead of the one given. Mama copied this from Pa's old Bible, and I have sent copies to various others, and have a copy myself.

Those marked out are okay — disregard

Dear Ms. Kessler:

A correspondent on mutual lines in VA gave me your address as a YARBROUGH EXPERT! I am hoping you may be able to help me as this name seems to be connected to several of my lines. I do not want to take away from your own research, though, so do not let this be a problem.

I descend from John OLIVER of the Pamunkey Neck area of VA, late 1600s. A number of other lines are also there including LIPSCOMB, McGEHEE, McALLISTER. John OLIVER was married to an Eleanor when he died. Some of the Oliver descendants married into the YARBROUGH family in VA...later married Beasley then were in GA.

Richard Yarbrough of the Pamunkey area seems to appear on every record I find for some of my interests there or connected families, involved with my COOK, HESTER, WASH and the above LIPSCOMB, McGEHEE lines. I am wondering if he has been in your research...and if so, have you found his children? The name Richard was in the family of John OLIVER.

Then in my ZACHARY line it appears that two daughters of James ZACHARY who died in 1790, Richmond Co., GA, may have married YARBROUGHS...one daughter deceased when the will was written, I believe married William YARBROUGH while her sister, name unknown married Littleton YARBROUGH. It is the only way I can make sense of the will for Littleton was married to Elizabeth Beall by 1790. I believe the daughter who married William YARBROUGH was named Martha. A son of Littleton married a Zachry.

The ZACHARYS also originated in the Essex, Caroline area of VA...late 1600s.

I realize this is really nothing concrete but am grasping at straws to try to connect the OLIVER family maternally while the ZACARY problem has been with me for ages. I have hesitated about writing but decided to give it a try. I will enjoy knowing if any of this is familiar to you.

Almost forgot, YARBROUGH was also connected to my DURRETT family. DURRETT OLIVER was my ancestor. I do not have a separate YARBROUGH file so am relying mostly on memory as to where they were involved. Will appreciate anything you may be able to tell me or suggest for further research for the areas mentioned.

Thank you very much for "listening".

Sincerely,

Dorothy H. Ward

I wonder what happened to this couple.

Charles YEARBURY/YARBERRY/YARBROUGH/YARBOURGH and Susan

Wm. Yarbrough You say born in NC? If this is correct since this ate 2 Wm's in Gibson Co.

In 1850 there is a Wm. and Martha YARBERRY in the census. He is 40 years old, born in (Virginia) and Martha was born in North Carolina. As the County Clerk changed you see a change in the spelling, from YARBERRY, YARBROUGH or any of the various spellings. Neither one of the YARBERRYS died in Lake. Thomas Hendrix YARBERRY and his descendants in Arkansas did not change the name. The evolution of the spelling is in 1840.

Benjamin married Mary J. MCALLILA on the 5th of March 1845 with George B. YARBROUGH bondsman. In 1850 they are in the 2nd District, page 406 and #1084. He is 5ym old in the 1850 census in the 2nd District, yet they probably did not know. Benjamin was bondsman for Richard MC ALLILA in 1850.

Jess Sr. and Doris Fredrickson Caldwell

Jess , born 14 July 1934 at Richmountian, Polk Co. Ak. married Doris Jean Fredrickson, 4 Aug. 1956. Doris born 8 May 1940 at Perry, Dallas Co. Iowa is the daughter of Russell Peter Fredrickson and Myrtle Irene Jorgensen both of Iowa. Two sons born to this union, Jess Jr. and Lester Eugene both born in Oklahoma City. Jess born 29 Aug. 1959 married Ramona Kay Gracey, born 8 Feb. 1966 in Ok. City to Bill and Peggy Gracey. They married 10 June 1986. Lester born 6 Dec. 1960 married Tara Lynn Dye born 24 July 1968 in L.A. Calif., married 10 March 1986. Tara is the daughter of Joe Harrison Dye and Francis Gibson. To their union is one son: Lester Caseygene Caldwell born 25 Oct. 1986 in Ok. City Ok. So the year 1986 was a very big year for the Jess Caldwell family.

Jess Sr. was raised in the mountians of his birthplace. He spent two years in the Army, 21 months in Germany and mechaniced at a Ok. City cement Co. for 15 years and is now driving truck, putting up and taking down for a heavy hauler trucking firm at the City, working all over Ok. and surrounding states. Building America is their slogan.

I have truly enjoyed doing Jess' family history. I have found past 15 generations counting our grandson "Casey". Josephs wife Mary J. Hopson was the 7th gen. that of James Neville born 1612 in England was one of the foudersof Maryland in 1634. James came over on the "Ark and the Dove" exped. Many were frontiers men and women to settle the wild West. Many were killed by Indians and some later married Indians.

The story of the panthers, bears and snakes that were passed down through the years was really something that really scared this City girl when she married her mountian raised husband. But the mountians are a second home when we now visit them.
