Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. JOSEPH RANDOLPH YARBROUGH

Joseph Randolph Yarbrough, son of John Swanson Yarbrough, Sr. (1-31-1817 to 3-26-1867) married on Mar. 3, 1840 Phoebe Clementine Crawford (6-27-1823 to Jan. 1907). They were parents of eleven children, who were the subject of an article published in the Dallas Morning News Sept. 20, 1935, bearing dateline "Grapeland, Houston Co., Texas Sept. 19" and headline "Longevity Record is Boasted by Eight in Family, 73 to 93". The article carried a picture of Scott Yarbrough, Joseph S. Yarbrough, Miss Helen K. Yarbrough, Mrs. Melissa Herod, Mrs. Belle Owens, and Mrs. George Whitley with the notation that Mrs. Mary Norris and Sam Houston Yarbrough were not present when the picture was taken. Quoting in part: "The eight surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Randolph Yarbrough, ranging from 73 to 93, form a record of longevity perhaps unequalled in this section of Texas. Yarbrough, son of the operator of the first hotel at Crockett and one of the earliest settlers of the State, enlisted in the Texas forces when he was 18 & fought in the Battle of San Jacinto. He was one of the guard that took General Santa Anna to General Sam Houston after his capture.

"He married Mrs. Phoebe Clementine Yarbrough in 1840 and they lived in Anderson and Cherokee Counties, moved to Louisiana, then to Houston County, settling near Crockett. During the Civil War, the husband died at the age of 50, leaving a wife and 11 children. The eight survivors of 91, Mrs. Mary ... Joseph S. Yarbrough 87, Mrs. Bell Owens 81, Scott Yarbrough 79, Mrs. Helen K. Yarbrough 76, Sam Houston Yarbrough 73. Mrs. Narcissa Yarbrough Burns, a cousin, was 112 at her death. John Swanson Yarbrough, grandfather of the brothers and sisters, died in Nueces Co. when he was 87." The 11 children of Joseph Randolph and Phoebe Clementine Yarbrough:

1. Georgiana Elizabeth (1-31-1842 -8-9-1939) m. George Whitley and had 5 children: Mrs. S. M. Hodges, Mrs. L.H. DeBolt, Mrs. W.D. DuMont, W.M. Whitley, and Dr. J.C. Whitley.
2. Melissa Ann m. James Thomas Herod and had 6 children, whose record is told in another story.
3. Mary M. Yarbrough (1-18-1846 to 1940) married W. Rufus Morris. No other information.
4. Joseph S. Yarbrough (3-4-1948 to 1937) married Mollie Hollingsworth and had a son, John Morris who had children: Swanson Morris, Feagan Morris, and George Morris.
5. Isabella Yarbrough (7-21-1854 to 1-3-1936) married R.L. Owens. Their children: John R. Owens (6-5-1893 to 3-16-1978) m. Lillian and had children; James, John, Margie, and Anita Owens.
6. Scott Yarbrough (3-29-1856 to January 1957) had daughters: Mrs. J.J. Carpenter, Mrs. C.U. Watkins, Mrs. C.M. Spence, and Mrs. J.B. Hancock.
7. Helen Kansas Yarbrough (4-22-1859 to 5-6-1950).
8. Sam Houston Yarbrough, born 4-28-1862. No other information.
9. John R. Yarbrough born 5-11-18 married Mollie Smith and had a daughter Laura Belle Yarbrough (born 11-13-1883 died 1897).
10. Lucinda Yarbrough married Lee Whitescarver and had 3 sons and 2 daughters, names unknown to compilers.
11. James D. Yarbrough was born 5-23-1857 and died about age 10 years.

Because most of this research has been done by descendants of two of John Swanson Yarbrough's children, Joseph Randolph and Amanda Armida, those families are more in detail, and are treated in separate stories.

JOHN SWANSON YARBROUGH

Many years of research have been devoted to John Swanson Yarbrough and his descendants. Land grants for early arrival in Texas and donation certificates for having served in the Army of the Republic of Texas in Captain Hayden Arnold's Nacogdoches Company at the Battle of San Jacinto made some of the documentation easy, but much there were two John Swanson Yarbroughs, son Joseph Randolph Yarbrough, and Swanson, Jr. all received land grants for having arrived in Texas in 1832 and for serving in the Army of the Republic of Texas. Swanson, Jr. was killed in the Battle of San Jacinto.

From the two surviving pages from the Family Bible and other research sources, we have established that John Swanson Yarbrough, Sr. had the following children by his first and/or second wives whose names are unknown to us: (1.) Joseph Randolph Yarbrough (1-31-1817 - 3-26-1867); (2.) John Swanson, Jr. (b. 3-27-1819 to Apr. 1836); (3.) Lucinda Yarbrough b. 1821 in Arkansas md. John Andrew Box; (4.) Joseph S. Yarbrough d. Feb. 2, 1849; (5.) James D. Yarbrough died 31 Oct. 1863; (6.) Mariah Yarbrough md. Clayton D. Skidmore; (7.) Alfred L. Yarbrough b. 1828 md. Caroline Ethyl Dodd; (8.) Lorenzo Dow Yarbrough b. 1839 md. Nancy Parilee White b. 8-26-1846 in Leon Co., daughter of Henry and Lidia Wright White.

In 1845 or 6, John Swanson Yarbrough, Sr. married Mrs. Frances Coker Moore Tope, a widow left with small children. John was 36 years older than she but he also had small children at home. John Moore, Frances' son by her first marriage, married Ellen Winters, daughter of Benjamin Franklin and Sylvania Cude Winters. James Tope, Frances' only child by her second husband, was born 22 Feb. 1840 and married Dorcas Salina Winters, sister of Ellen Winters. John Swanson and Frances were married 17 years and had only one child, a daughter, Amanda Armida, born 20 Oct. 1846 in Crockett. She married Joseph Walker (b. 30 June 1818) in Pleasanton, Atascosa Co., Texas. Joseph was born in Chester Co., S.C., son of James and Martha Telford Walker who had lived in Houston County for a short time during the early days and had two other sons, Philip and James, and a daughter, Rebecca. Armida Walker died on 20 December 1929. They had children whose story is told in another article.

On March 27, 1837, Swanson was living in Nacogdoches County when he sold his rights to two-thirds of a league and labor of land. On April 22, 1837, John Swanson and his son Joseph Randolph were in Nacogdoches County and signed the petition to form Houston County.

Swanson was listed on the 1840 Houston County Census and tax list. In October of 1842, in Houston County, he appointed Isaac Parker to locate his headright. In December, 1850, he sold his San Jacinto Donation Certificate in Harris County to C. Ennis. In 1858, he received a headright grant in Washington County and in that settled on the Frio River. The town named Yarbrough Bend for him and a Texas Historical Marker has been erected "Site of County's first settlement, YARBROUGH BEND, (5 miles N.E. on Frio River) founded 1858. Named for John Swanson Yarbrough, an original settler, town contained about 30 log picket houses. Settlers were often harassed by Indians, cattle thieves, and wild animals. Other original settlers were Dr. George Dilworth, John Moore, James Tope, N.H. Walker, Joe Walker, and Benjamin Franklin Winters."

John Swanson died 20 October 1862 and Frances died in 1868 at age 55. They are buried in the cemetery at Yarbrough Bend in McMullen County.

From: Telephone conversation - CDY at Austin with Mrs. J.J. Carpenter at Fort Worth on 21 April 1966.

Mrs. J.J. Carpenter, nee Loye Yarbrough, is one of the daughters of the late Scott M. Yarbrough of Grapeland, Texas. She gave the following information about the Yarbrough family:

Scott M. Yarbrough was married twice. His first wife was Mattie E. Neel, and his second wife was Mattie Jane Simpson. Mattie Jane had two daughters, Loye and Audrey. (She was Mrs. Carpenter's mother.) Both of Scott M. Yarbrough's wives are buried at the Davis Cemetery near Grapeland. To the right of Mattie Neel Yarbrough's grave is an unmarked grave in which is buried her infant son. There are two unmarked graves on the left, but Yarbroughs are not buried in them.

Joseph Randolph Yarbrough, Scott Yarbrough's father, who fought in the Battle of San Jacinto, is buried in the front yard of the old Yarbrough home place west of Grapeland, out towards Dealey. Contrary to what Lou Kemp said, JRY is not buried in an unmarked grave at the Grapeland City Cemetery in an unmarked grave. In fact, Scott Yarbrough, when his daughter Loye was about 13 years old, went out to the old home place and made an unsuccessful attempt to locate his father's grave.

JRY's father came to America from England with 6 brothers. Mrs. Carpenter doesn't know his given names.

JRY's father moved to Texas after the Revolution. He built the first hotel in Crockett. He was married twice. His second wife was an Indian. They moved from Crockett to west Texas, where he raised his second family, which was very large. He lived to be 95 years old.

When JRY came to Texas, the name was spelled "Yarborough", but it got changed somehow after the Texas Revolution. The current Yarbrough family was unaware of this until historians began working on the Battle of San Jacinto.

The only family Bible which Mrs. Carpenter knows of is in the possession of her cousin, Mr. John R. Owens of Greenville, Texas.

Mr. Owens is the cousin of Mrs. J.J. Carpenter (nee Loya Yarbrough) and Miss Audrey Yarbrough, daughters of Scott M. Yarbrough.

He has an old Yarbrough family Bible (presumably the Joseph Randolph Yarbrough Bible), but he wasn't able to find any data in it other than an old paper which reads identically with the Lou Kemp paper on Joseph Randolph Yarbrough.

Mrs. W. P. Snee.

Dear Mrs. Snee:

My cousin Swanson Yarbrough passed your letter on to his sister and she passed it on to me. They were unable to answer your questions. I will try to give you all I know about our grandfather Joseph Randolph Yarbrough and his brother Swanson who came to Texas, from Tennessee in 1832. He joined Captain Arnold - Haydens, company, under General Sam Houston, in the war for Texas independence. He was in the battle of San Jacinto in which his brother Swanson lost his life. He married Clementine Crawford and they were the parents of eleven children, one of whom was Scott Yarbrough who will be 98 next month and the last survivor of the eleven children of the family, all of them lived to a ripe old age except two. I think grand father had some relatives, in north Texas, but I do not know their names.

I am a daughter of Lucinda Harbrough, a sister of the father of Swanson of Tyler. I should like to know if this letter is of any help to you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. J. E. Hart.

P.S.

My grand parents spent their married life in Anderson and Houston Counties.

Dear Aphelia:

Hav'n't written you all as Aileen said she had written.
We have been in such a whirl after our long trip that we are having a hard time to catch up.

Am enclosing two things:

1. What I found in the Houston
Co. History about Sam Houston. I haven't had time to run down to SLC for a look at the records there to confirm, but will find opportunity.

2. A letter from John R. Burns, Sr.
to my aunt and Louise McCall Stearns.
I think they are both dead now. The letters are buried right back of the Yarbroughs in the Grapeland Cemetery.

DEBOLT
Dear Annie Laurie and Gene: (J. E. STEARNS) P.O. Box 742, JACKSONVILLE, TX

We were happy to receive your nice long letter, and about two or three days after receiving it, I came down with "Cellulosis" of the left foot--inflammation and swelling ## were the effects, so been on my back and sitting with foot elevated all these days--after taking a lot of Doctor prescribed Anti-Biotics. It is better, but still sore on top of foot and the leader is still drawn some. No severe pain, just infection that looked like a "twin brother" to blood poison.

Well to begin with, regarding Grandpa and Grandma Yarbrough-- His name was Joseph Randolph and Swanson, was his brother. #### Both were at San Jacinto when they took Santa Anna and both names were on the scroll. Swanson was not killed in the battle--and later settled in East Texas some distance from where Nacogdoches now is. Then he and Grandpa both swapped for some land in Louisiana and I don't know whether Swanson came back to Texas or not. Grandpa did and settled west of Grapeland about three miles. After he died, in his fifties, Grandma pre-empted and secured 160 acres of land near the Old Leaverton place, on the two mile branch, west of Grapeland and reared ten children--nine to be grown and have families (all but Aunt Kittie). Grandma's given name was Clementine (only first name I ever heard her called.) She later traded the farm for the little old house that burned on the acre where the other and present house stands, and got $300 in cash, which she used a part of, to help Uncle Sam finish up his course in dentistry.

1 - Oldest child: Aunt Georgianna (your grandma). Guess you know all of your aunts and uncles by her.

2 - Next was Aunt Melissa who married Tom Herod: Her children were: Aurie, who died and left the three Warner children that Aunt Melissa reared: They are Luther Warner who lives 3 miles west of Grapeland and is big farm operator and land owner; Elma Warner who married a Pennington, who died before we left Grapeland, about 1937 or 38; Lena Belle Warner, who married Hill Huff and is now about 67. (Hill died in July of this year and she resides on a big farm he left her about 7 miles west of Grapeland.) Then you remember Mollie Story who died in Grapeland while we lived in Troup. Her sister, Eugenia (Gene) died - 4 less than a year later. She married Monroe Carson and he is 64 and still lives in Grapeland. The only son Aunt Melissa had was Mack Herod who moved to West Texas near Snyder, when his children were small and he died about the time the two girls died. All had several children scattered everywhere, except Mollie and Charlie Story who had just one girl (Edna Mae), who died in her early 20's.

3 - Then Aunt Mary Morris. She married Rufus Morris: Their children were Charlie, William, Hamilton, Lewis and John. (John lives on old home place near Grapeland--age about 76.

daughters of Aunt Mary were: Dura, who married a Gordon left one girl (Lillie). Don't know what became of her.
I gave her a home while when she was about 16 when ## mama first got all but helpless. She lived on awhile at Aunt Mary's while Billie Morris and his wife were taking care of Uncle Roof and Aunt Mary. Then there was Ada, who married a Garner, but know very little about them except what you wrote about seeing a grand-daughter of Aunt Mary. All the boys had children but who they are and where, I do not know, as it's been more than 25 years since having contacted them.

Aunt Lucinda married a Whitescarver; had two or three boys and two girls. The Girls are Jewel and Maggie and live together in the lately fast developed Rhinehardt area, west of Garland about 9 miles and their street is Hartline Drive--don't know the number.

Then your Aunt Belle ^{WENS} my mother and you know too much already about her "Blone rooster".

Uncle Joe was oldest boy. He married Mollie Hollingsworth and they had one daughter--Lura Marsh whose home is on Sherry Lane in Dallas. She is 76 and has one daughter (only child) Dorothy who is with her. Oldest son of Uncle Joe was Eugene, who died at 50 (30 years ago) while in mercantile business down near Liberty, Texas, at Devers.
He left one daughter and one son, both of whom I have heard are dead. The boy was killed in Car wreck and don't know about the daughter of Eugene. His wife married again.

Then John Welch, Swanson, Seth Wright and Lewis Riall Yarbrough. John
Uncle Scott who lived to be nearly 101--died in Ft. Worth. ^{John Welch & Seth living others dead}
He had 3 daughters by his first wife, a Miss Neel, whom he married before I was born. Three girls# by first marriage:
Clara, who married Charlie Watkins and they live in North Central Texas, not too far from Ft. Worth; Emma who married Clarence Spence, lives a widow with one unmarried son, near Crockett. She has another son somewhere in Massachusetts or Connecticut (don't remember). Then Martha Ellen, who married Ben Hancock and is a widow, living with different ones of her children. Then by the third wife: (Mattie Simpson), who he married in about 1902 or 03, he has Audrey Yarbrough, a nurse, unmarried, and has a home at 2238
College, Ft. Worth; then Loye, same age as Lillian, married Jesse Carpenter and they have a home and a nice one all paid for in the Benbrook area of Ft. Worth.

Uncle Sam Houston Yarbrough was the dentist lived at Trinity. Has one daughter, Mrs. Lillie Mae ### Carpenter, still there. She first married Edwin Sandhop and they had one boy, separated from Sandhop and married Geo. Carpenter, who died about 1955 or 56 and has two boys by Carpenter. One girl, Clementine about my age, married P. W. Baker and he died before we left Grapeland. Don't know how many children but think it was one set of twins and a girl. A son,
J. D. Yarbrough, I understand lives in the Ft. Worth area.
John Yarbrough, employed for over forty-five years at Palestine Herald--in Palestine. You should know him.
Then a boy, Billie, died unmarried when he was in his late twenties. And Loyd Yarbrough, down in Rio Grande Valley, been married twice. Have not seen him in 30 years. (over)

Here is an interesting story that I ran across recently in the "Houston County, Texas History" 1687-1979. Compiled and edited by History Book Committee of Houston County Historical Commission of Crockett, Texas. Published by the Heritage Publishing Company, Tulsa, OK. ppg 324-325.

Denson Family History:

Thomas C. Denson - Myrtle Lake property, East of Grapeland, TX.

b. 22 Feb 1793, NC. Father - Shadrack Denson, Anson County, NC

1. O'Connor Denson
2. John Denson. m. Mary Ann Crawford (Houston).
4. Joseph Denson m. Caroline L. Houston (stepdau of his brother John) Caroline was born 11 Nov 1836, Tenn.

(Mary Ann Crawford was born NC about 1817. Her parents were Mary Ann (Polly) Coble, b. about 1793-1799, and Joseph Crawford, b. 1770. Records indicate Polly Coble and Joseph Crawford moved from NC to Tenn where their daughter married Wilson Houston, who was lost some time after 1836 in Texas, while Mary Ann Crawford Houston was still in Tenn.

Mary Ann Crawford Houston came to Texas about 1839 to join her husband, who supposedly perished in the Indian Wars, and subsequently married Joseph Denson.

Lucille Mc Cutcheon of Houston, TX described visiting her Grandmother Caroline when she was about 6 or 7: "Grandmether smoked a corn cob pipe and made Irish lace with some kind of wooden needle. I have an old three legged iron pot which belonged to her and the family story is that, 'Sam Houston has eaten many a meal cooked in that pot.' I do not know how she was related to Sam Houston, but he visited her on many occasions and she called him 'Sam'. She married when she was only 13 or 14 years of age."

Wilson Houston was a brother of Sam Houston.

This may be the basis for the rumors I heard as a boy about some sort of a relationship in our family -- Crawford, Yarbrough, Whitley, DeBolt, and Sam Houston.

Told Appelia most of what I know.
 Did tell her if the wedding is held in SE in July that we hope it will be early July as we have an engagement the last week in July.

Otherwise, you all can stay at our house.

L.

"To give light to them that sit in darkness... to guide our feet into the way of peace."

Luke 1:79

We hope we can connect in July as we would love to visit with you two

May the Peace and Joy of Christmas abide with you
 throughout the coming year

The good people of Grapeland are about to complete their fine academy building, and a beautiful one it is too. Grapeland is the liveliest town for its size in East Texas, has more vim, energy, and Eliget-there about it than any little town in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McIntyre, of Palestine, came down Saturday night on a visit to Mrs. McIntyres parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fluker, and returned Monday evening, accompanied by Miss Loretta Fluker, who will spend a week or two with them.

MAY 6, 1892

We call attention of Courier readers to the announcement of John W. Saxon for sheriff.

J. M. Crook, our popular railroad agent, leaves for Palestine today to stand his examination for admission to the bar as a practicing attorney. Mr. Crook will hang out his shingle in Crockett where he hopes to do well.

Mode Barbee announces this week for sheriff.

There is talk of two more brick buildings going in town, one by A. LeGory and the other by M. Bromberg.

O. D. Faubion is shipping brick to Huntsville. This speaks well for Crockett brick, which are said to have no superior in the state.

Tom Foster has opened up an ice cream parlor.

Crockett continues to improve. The elegant new residence of Dr. W. C. Lipscomb is about completed and R. E. McConnell is just beginning one.

Mrs. Jno. A. McConnell, Grady McConnell, and Miss Cora Nations have gone to visit relatives in Mississippi.

Marriage licenses issued: C. G. McCullar and Mrs. Amandah Roberts and W. T. Foster and Miss W. N. McKiver.

Eli Watson, an old time colored man, and a very respected one, died Sunday night. Quite a number of his white friends, and he had many, went to his funeral.

THE K. P. RECEPTION

We haven't space for more than a brief write-up of the Knights of Pythias reception on New Year's Eve night. These entertainments are always looked forward to with more than usual interest, and each succeeding one eclipses the former one in point of brilliant surroundings and charming settings. The committees had all done their work well and there was not a hitch in the uniformly smooth consummation of every part of the program. The weather was bright and bracing, ideally perfect in every respect, as though ordered for the occasion. A large number of invitations had been issued and by 8 o'clock the guests of the evening began to arrive. The reception room of the K. P. Hall was thronged in a short while. The guests began then to file into the council hall which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. There an elegant luncheon was served and the tables kept spread and filled with every delicacy which the season furnished until midnight. From the luncheon room a bridge had been built over the roof of an adjoining building to the opera hall where the ball opened at 9 o'clock. A band for the occasion was on hand from Galveston. The scene here was one of inspiration and enchantment, irresistibly so, for we noted the presence of many of our people of staid habits and rather ascetic views touching the attractions of the ballroom. Excellent music, beautiful women, brilliant costumes, flashing diamonds, and the poetry of motion as shown in the graceful waltzing of pretty girls and gallant men, presented a spectacle which would have called forth applause from the most soured recluse and moved to admiration the most confirmed anchorite. There were present those representing almost every calling and profession except the ministry, and not a few were present who stood high in the councils of the church. But they were there as spectators merely, indulging in the harmless and innocent pastime of listening to the strains of sweet music, gazing with admiration on pretty women, or indulging in entertaining and elevating conversation, thinking no evil, and doing none, little dreaming that the scourge of excommunication would be brandished at them from one of the pulpits on the Sunday following.

And thus the evening sped on, courteous knights and those who were not of the order, striving to make the occasion memorable for its refined pleasures. Nothing occurred that the writer witnessed or heard of to disturb the enjoyment of those in attendance. All seemed to enjoy the festivities—not alone those who with spiritish skill could thread the mystic mazes of the most difficult figures as though they had been instructed in the school of Terpsichore herself, but those who for the first time in life or for the first time in half a score of years or who did not attempt it at all, got about as much pleasure out of the evening's entertainment as the more expert ones who swung or turned their partners with easy and exquisite grace.

Among the visitors present were quite a number from our sister city of Huntsville. There has always existed between Crockett and Huntsville a spirit of reciprocal cordiality and hospitality, and these relations, heretofore so pleasant, were never more so than on the occasion of which we write. The young ladies of Crockett, always and on all occasions, beautiful, engaging and charming, will not begrudge their accomplished sisters from Huntsville the merited compliment which we bestow upon them when we say that their presence lent to the occasion exceptional beauty and grace and a fascination that not a few of Crockett's cavaliers found it impossible to resist.

Those from Huntsville were Miss Fannie Daniel, niece of Senator Daniel of Virginia, Misses Ava Wynne, Robbie Bush, Eva Bush, Mrs. A. E. King, Mrs. L. B. Robinson, Mrs. L. P. Tanner, Mrs. D. Eastham, Mr. Luther Eastham, Mr. A. B. Foster, Mr. W. L. Hayden, Mr. T. W. Oliphant, Mr. H. Eastham, Colonel A. T. McKinney, Seth Gay, and the genial and able editor of the Huntsville Item, F. B. Robinson. We also noted as being present

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

For the first time in years, every one of the seventeen precincts responded to the call for a county convention and of the hundred and fifty or more delegates chosen to represent these precincts not as many as fifteen failed to attend. In numbers, in earnestness, in enthusiasm and in the personnel of its delegates, the convention has never been surpassed, if equalled. Men from the plow, from the workshop, from the counting room, and the profession—all walks of life were all there, fired with a common zeal and working to achieve a common end.

There have been differences in the party in this county, some of which were marked by extreme bitterness. For the first time in six or eight years, none of this cropped out. If there was a delegate in the convention who harbored a feeling of this nature, he guarded the secret closely. Those who had been politically estranged heretofore mingled together as brothers, fired by a common zeal and battling for a common cause.

Dear Ophelia,

Thank you for writing. I enjoy hearing from people on all my family lines. I am not familiar with your John Swanson Yarborough or John Henry Yarborough.

My Henry Yarborough was born in South Carolina ca 1785 according to 1850 Cass (Bartow) County Census. Family tradition says he was from the Edgefield District, S.C. In the 1850 Census he is listed as 65 yrs. old with wife Agnes, age 65 and the following in his household: George, age 34, b SC; John, age 27, b SC; Henry, age 25, b SC; Elizabeth, age 18, b SC; and a male named William Brown, age 19. George was my great grandfather.

You may know this but I will tell you anyway - There is or was a Yarborough Family Magazine published by Charles D. Yarborough, 1001 Bedford Road, Bedford, TX 76022. He has been publishing this magazine off and on for about 20 years, I believe. There is no charge; he asks only that you furnish a 6X9 manila envelope with 22¢ postage. He publishes the magazine when he has time, it is usually not regular. Anyway, you may want to write him if you don't know about it.

What I am sending you is from the Yarborough Family Magazine (YFM).

QUERY by the EDITORS

SWANSON YARBOROUGH - One reference says that Swanson Yarborough, brother of Joseph Randolph Yarborough, lived in Louisiana before coming to Texas. Texas land records show that he was granted land in Texas for services in the Battle of San Jacinto in 1836. While Joseph Randolph Yarborough appears in the 1850 Houston Co. Texas Federal Census, neither Swanson nor his family appear in any 1850 Texas census. Swanson's public debt paper was sold by his widow, Mary Yarborough, in Harris Co., Texas in 1851. Where was this family living in 1850? Assuming that they returned to Louisiana, has anyone found them there in a 1850 census?

TWO CONFEDERATE POSTMASTERS IN TEXAS

Parker's Mills, Houston County: J. Randolph Yarborough, appointed 17 March 1865.

Tyler, Smith County: George Yarbrough, appointed 12 October 1861.

YARBOROUGH, SWANSON - Came to Texas in 1835 as is shown in Headright Certificate No. 50 issued to him March 1, 1838 for one-third of a league of land by the Houston County Board of Land Commissioners. He was living in Houston County October 26, 1842 when he appointed Isaac Parker his agent to locate his headright. On the muster rolls at the General Land Office Mr. Yarbrough is shown as having enlisted in Captain Hayden Arnold's Nacogdoches Company March 6, 1836. He was a member of Captain Arnold's Company at San Jacinto and on November 26, 1850 received Donation Certificate No. 238 for 640 acres of land for having participated in the battle.

Mr. Yarbrough was living in Nacogdoches County March 27, 1837 when he sold his rights to two thirds of a league and labor of land, due him as a Headright to Isaac Parker. This is shown in Book A, page 19, Deed Records of Nacogdoches County. He could not write but affixed his mark to the deed. He was living in Harris County December 7, 1850 when he sold his San Jacinto Donation Certificate to C. Ennis.

A Rev. Swanson S. Yarbrough was a pastor of the Methodist Church at Waxahachie in 1858.

My dear Mrs. Ludeman and Mrs. Ritter:

It made me so very happy to receive your letter, Mrs. Ludeman, and as one always does when he receives a letter with new clues, I went dashing to my notebooks - - even though my house was full of houseguests who did not leave until today. I received your letter (dated Aug. 7) here on Saturday, August 12, since we retired and moved away from Artesia more than two years ago. We keep this summer place here in Ruidoso (New Mexico) and have a winter place at Wortham, Texas, Freestone County, about 80 miles south of Dallas

My husband's paternal grandmother was Melissa Ann Yarborough, daughter of Joseph Randolph Yarborough and Phoebe Clementine Crawford. Melissa Ann, b. 11-15-1843, d. 5-26-1938, m. James Thomas Herod, b. 5-8-1844, d. 10-28-1902. Melissa Ann Yarborough was the daughter of Joseph Randolph Yarborough, b. 1-31-1817, d. 3-26-1867, m. 2-9-1840, Phoebe Clementine Crawford b. 6-27-1823, d. January, 1907. From an article published in the Dallas Morning News on Sept. 20, 1935:

"Longevity Record is Boosted by Eight in Family, 73 to 93.
(Picture showing and listed)

Scott Yarborough
Joseph S. Yarborough
Miss Helen K. Yarborough
Mrs. Melissa Herod
Mrs. Belle Owens
Mrs. George Whitley

"Mrs. Mary Morris and Sam Houston Yarborough were not present when the picture was taken. The eight surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Randolph Yarborough, ranging from 73 to 93, form a record of longevity perhaps unequalled in this section of Texas.

"Yarborough, son of the operator of the first hotel at Crockett and one of the earliest settlers of the State, enlisted in the Texas forces when he was ~~22~~ 18 and fought in the Battle of San Jacinto. He was one of the guard that took Gen. Santa Anna to Gen. Sam Houston after his capture.

"He married Mrs. Phoebe Clementine Yarborough in 1840, and they lived in Anderson and Cherokee Counties, moved to Louisiana, and to Houston County, settling near Crockett. During the Civil War, the husband died at the age of 50, leaving a wife and eleven children. The eight survivors of the union are:

- Mrs. George Whitley, age 93, only 3 years ago donned a late style bathing suit and enjoyed a dip in the Gulf of Mexico while visiting a son at Corpus Christi.
- Mrs. Melissa Herod, 91, still is active, and in spite of poor eyesight takes daily walks.
- Mrs. Mary Morris, 89, does light chores and works in her flower garden despite her years.
- Joseph S. Yarborough, 87, looks after two farms, cultivated several acres of feedstuff this year and rides horseback regularly to round up his cattle.
- Mrs. Belle Owens, 81, lives at Grapeland with her son.
- Scott Yarborough, 79, lives at Fort Worth with his daughters. He celebrated his 75 birthday by walking the 12 miles from Crockett to Grapeland.
- Mrs. Helen K. Yarborough, 76, stays with her oldest sister, Mrs. Whitley.
- Sam Houston Yarborough, 73, practiced dentistry at Trinity until he retired a few years ago.

UNIT ONE

CHAPTER ONE

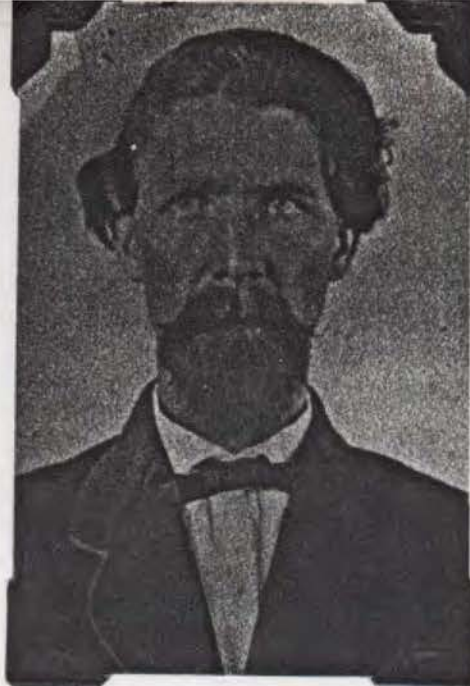

Introduction to the Box Family

The primary purpose of this book was to assemble all the information about my husband's BOX ancestors in printed form. When it became apparent that all the Boxes of the southeastern states were evidently kin, I expanded my research to grasp the connecting links of all of them. Where I have found a definite kinship I have included it in the context of the book. Otherwise, the ones I could not claim kin to at this time, I have published in Unit Four so that my research notes would aid others as they trekked through the same areas. Each of the Box family lines in this book could comprise a book all their own, and it is my hope that someday an energetic family researcher will do this for each family.

In general, the Box men were upright citizens of their community, most of the times they were the leaders. They held public office and several of them were preachers, thus putting them as leaders in their community. This fact is proven by the names of settlements that took their name. Some of them were Boxes Creek, Box Springs, Box's Creek, Box's Fort, Box family wagon train, Boxes Cove, Boxville, Boxes Chapel, Box Corner, Box Elder, Box Bridge, Box Fort, Box Ridge.

The spelling of the name basically is B-O-X. In some of the old handwriting it appears as BOSE, but this is because of the little curl put at the end of the name, thus making it look like an "e" was on the end. One family has changed their spelling to BOXX, this being only in recent years. Corrupt spellings of BOOX, BUX AND BOK have been found in the old records. One researcher tells me that BAX is a family all its own, not related to BOX. Attempts have been made to connect this BOX family to the BACH family of Germany, but thus far this has not been accomplished.

- The General Armory by Burke lists the following for BOX:
- BOX. Az. a lion pass. guard. ar. betw. three griffins' heads, erased or. Crest - A demi griffin or, winged ar. holding in the claw a fireball ppr.
 - BOX. (Oxford). Az. a lion pass. betw. three griffins' heads. erased or. Crest - An arm couped at the elbow, lying fesseways. habited gu. cuffed ar. holding erect in the hand ppr. a branch of box vert, at the elbow another branch of box erect, of the last.

The traditional family story that six or seven BOX brothers came from Kent England to America seems to be what all researchers working on Box lines are trying to prove. This seems to be a good clue, however it has never been explicitly proven.

It has been said that the first Box family to settle in Virginia was John and Mary Box. In Patent Book, Cavaliers and Pioneers 1623-1800 by Nell Nugent, pages 41-60 it lists Mary Box, June 1, 1636, Henrico Co. Va., widow of John Box, ancient planter.

Early Virginia Immigrants 1623 - 1666: lists these:

| | | | | |
|-------------------------------|------|----|--------------------|--------------------------|
| Thomas J. Box | 1638 | by | John Gookins | Upper New Norfolk County |
| Mary Box | 1636 | by | Mary Boxe | Henrico County |

| John Box | 1637 | by | Mary Box | Henrico County |
| Thomas Box | 1654 | by | Abraham Moore | ----- County |

The 1790 census of the United States only lists 22 families with the surname of BOX, with the average of five members per household. Of those twenty-two families, fifteen of them were in S.C. and ten of those fifteen were in Laurens County. The 1810 census of Virginia shows only one Box, this being Thomas Box. There are no Boxes listed in Virginia Wills and Administrations.

There was an Allen Land Grant, 1679 (Book 7 page 16) in Isle of Wight, Warrosquoyacke County, Virginia. Arthur Allen who was the son of Peter and Sue Allen (Allen born 6-1-1649) had a daughter Mary who married in 1709, Robert Box who was born 3 November 1691.

There was a Robert Box who had a land patent of 179 acres of land in Augusta Co., Virginia, patent No. 31 - 1751/1756, dated 22 August 1753. (Reel 29, page 411-412) obtained from the Archives Division, Virginia State Library, Richmond, Va. 23219.

It is not known if that Robert Box stayed in Virginia and died there, or if he left and went to South Carolina. There is a Robert Box found in the early records of South Carolina that could be him, but none of the records state that he was from Virginia. Perhaps other researchers in later years can prove this conjecture of mine.

Anyhow, Kegley's Virginia Frontier, pages 125 & 127 show Robert Box in 1750 had 179 acres of land on Little River, and later he sells this land to Ephriam Vance. Little River runs through Laurens Co., S.C. near Wattsville.

Robert Box has another grant of 150 acres on Raburn's Creek, South Carolina, dated 4 November 1762, as shown by the Royal Grants, Vol. 10, in the South Carolina Archives at Columbia.

As I stated on the foregoing page, exactly who that Robert (or those Roberts) was I cannot say at this time. But the following deeds found in Laurens Co. S.C. prove that there was a Robert Box who lived in Laurens County who was there before Robert Box, Sr. about whom Chapter II of this unit is designated.

Disposition of 150 acres of Robert Box's land is shown in the following two deeds. Book 1, page 41, dated 31 October 1807, recorded 18 March 1808, John Box, Sr. sold to the Rev. Zachariah Arnold for $400.00, 75 acres lying on the west side of Reedy River, originally granted to Robert Box. Signed: John Box and Rachel Box.

Deed Book 1, page 77, John Box sold to William Moore for $400 75 acres located on Reedy River, originally granted to Robert Box. Signed: John Box and Rachel Box. This deed indicates John Box was a son of Robert Box.

John and Rachel Box sold land on 1 August 1769, Deed Book C, page 172, Laurens Co., S.C., to Francis Moore, 100 acres for 200 pounds sterling, located between Saluda and Broad Rivers, all sides vacant at time of survey. Wit: MacNeas Goode, John Goodwin and Jesse Shriggs.

The will of John Box is on file in Laurens Co. S.C., Will book E, page 137, proven 5 February 1821, names wife Rachel; granddaughters Rachel and Louisa Box, daughters of my daughter Jemima Sneed; grandson Elisha Williamson; sons Shadrack, Robert, Abraham, Benjamin; daughters Molly South, Rachel Banks and Jemima Sneed.

The 1800, 1810 and 1820 census of Laurens County only list one John Box, so it is assumed that the John Box who left the will in 1821 is the same as the ones in the census. From a composite of those years, I find that he was born before 1755. His son Abraham is living next door to him in 1790 and he was born 1770-1774. This is the same John Box listed above as selling land in 1769. So apparently he was then born before 1748. This puts him in the right age bracket to be a brother of Robert Box, Sr.

Who then was the Robert Box to whom the land was originally granted that John Box was selling. At this point, I am now going to refer to him as Robert Box, the elder. This will avoid confusion.

The following deed provides evidence that the John Box family of Laurens Co. S.C. and the Robert Box family of Franklin County, TN were closely connected. Deed Book M, page 175, Laurens Co., S.C. - Rachel and Louisa Box, granddaughters of John Box, deceased, of Laurens Co. S.C., appoints James Walden their attorney to collect what was due them from the estate of John Box. Rachel and Louisa Box now of Franklin Co., Tenn., dated 28 December 1830.

Deed Book M, page 176, Rachel and Louisa Box by their attorney, James Walden, sold 100 acres on Reedy River to Elisha Williamson, 28 December 1830. Rachel Box had sold 150 acres for $150 to John Williamson, located on Reedy River, 5 May 1828, Deed Book M, page 40.

The father of Robert Box, Sr. who was born around 1734 has not firmly been established, but it is very, very possible he was this Robert Cox, the elder, that I have been explaining on the previous pages.

The following could be brothers of Robert Box, Sr. born 1734.

1. Michael Box, born 1751 died in Banks (formerly Franklin) Co., Ga. in 1820. He is buried near Homer, Georgia, but grave site bears no marker. He was a Revolutionary soldier from Virginia (Gwathney's, page 72) who came to Franklin Co., now Banks Co., Ga. His wife was supposedly Mary Bolton. Michael Box had a N. C. Land Grant, dated 11 July 1788, No. 656, Warrant No. 1268.

This Michael Box is listed in 1790 Laurens Co. S.C. with a wife and four sons and no slaves. Since this is the only Michael found in the old Georgia records, it seems evident that he was the same Michael Box who was in the War of 1812, a private in Alexander's Batt'n Riflemen, Georgia Militia. Yet he was quite old at that time.

The 1790 census Laurens Co. S.C. lists six daughters for Michael Box. One of those daughters was Rachel Box who md. 11 Oct 1808 in Franklin Co. Ga., Caleb Garrison. Goodspeed's HISTORY OF ARKANSAS for Conway County gives a history of this family. Rachel Box died in 1852 and had eleven children.

There is a Michael and Benjamin Box listed in the 1816 Territorial Census of Monroe Co. Ala. registered at Jackson, Miss. I believe this Michael Box is Michael Box, Jr. oldest son of Michael Box of Franklin Co. Ga. He was born 1770-1774. On the 25 May 1837 at Lowndes Co., Miss. he md. Mary A. Lawrence (bk 2 p 56). He was living in Fayette Co., Ala. in 1830 and in Tippah Co. Miss in 1840. He had sons Thomas, William (who left widow Elizabeth), John and Grief. All of these sons lived in Tippah County in 1840.

This Michael Box, Jr. died in 1844 in Tippah County and Grief Box was named administrator of the estate. He was in War of 1812 from Miss.

2. John Box, born around 1748, died 1821 in Laurens Co. S.C. and left will naming wife Rachel and sons Shadrack, Robert, Abraham and Benjamin. His son Abraham Box left S.C. and moved to Hickman Co. TN. His wife was Catherine and they are buying and selling land in Laurens S.C. until 1810 when they probably left S.C. and moved to Tenn. It looks as though he had a son named James Box, along with four other children.

There was a Benjamin Box and a Michael Box who are listed in the 1816 Territorial Census of Monroe Co. Ala. at Jackson, Miss. I explained the Michael Box in the foregoing write-up. This Benjamin Box appears to be the same Benjamin that was a son of John, Sr. who left the will in 1821. His wife was Mary and they had 400 acres of land in Washington Co. Tenn. on Grimes Creek, a branch of the Little Limestone Creek. Letters of administration on the estate of Benjamin Box, dec'd of Fayette Co., Ala. were granted to Lisle Box. Benjamin moved from New River, Tenn. to Ala. Jan. 9, 1839. Lisle Box was evidently his son and he lived in Fayette Co. Ala. all his life having a large family of thirteen children. They were Mary, Thomas J., Benjamin F., Talitha R., Martha, Eliza L., William L., Sarah J., Malinda Luretta, Abergale Orrella, Locke and Daniel W.

3. The father of Henry Box born 1770-1775 who married Cassandra, and the father of Seth Box who married Margaret who was born 1762. Henry and Cassandra went to St. Clair Co. Ala. between 1812-1820 as Henry was a J.P. there in 1820. A history of St. Clair Co. states that a group of men met at the home of Henry Box in 1818 to discuss the formation of St. Clair Co., before Ala. became a state. In 1830 Henry Box was living next door to Jacob Box. It was Henry Box and Jacob Box who witnessed the deed in Laurens S.C. in 1807 when William and Averilla Matthews sold some land to Edward Box.

25 Henry and Cassandra had three known sons. They were Henry, Allen and James. Allen Box moved to Sequatchie Valley, Tenn. from S.C. and then to St. Clair Co. Ala. before 1820. He was born in 1794 and died 27 June 1866. He married his second cousin, Mary "Polly" Box, born 1801 died after March 1884 and she was the daughter of Seth and Margaret Box. Averiller Mathews made her home with Allen and his wife Mary.

21 Allen Box was in the War of 1812, a private in Rowe's Regt of South Carolina Militia. Mary Box, his widow, made a pension application in which she stated that she married her cousin 9 Dec 1819 in Winchester, Tenn. In the War, he was alias Isaac Pansion, WO 43339 and served under Col. Austin's command. Allen and Mary had ten children, among them Judge Franklin Leroy Box born 9 Apr 1837.

21 James Box, the son of Henry and Cassandra Box was born 1787 in S.C. and also lived in St. Clair Co. Ala. He md. Cassandra and they had eight children. One of their daughters they named Averilla, nicknamed "Rilla", evidently named for Averilla Matthews. They also named a son Wiseman Box, a family name from Laurens Co. S.C.

21 The other son of Henry and Cassandra Box was Henry, Jr. born 1796 and he married Nancy Dunn 5 Aug 1832 in St. Clair Co. Ala. They had eleven children. Their son Wiseman born 1826 md. Sarah Orlenie Box, daughter of Allen and Mary, making for another Box cousin marriage.

Mrs. S. O. Box published a book in 1913 in which a sketch of Judge Franklin Leroy Box, lawyer and judge, was in it. This book tells that the judge was the grandson of Henry and Cassandra Box and of Seth and Margaret Box, and that the judge had an uncle Henry Box who fought in the War of 1812 and the Seminole War. Margaret Box, evidently the widow of Seth Box, is living in St. Clair Co. Ala. in 1850 (she is age 88 born in Va.). There is a Margaret Box in Laurens Co. S.C. in 1810 who apparently is the same Margaret. It appears that Seth Box died young.

Perhaps the father of Henry Box and Seth Box was also the father of Jacob Box. Henry and Jacob are found together in lots of the records. There was a Allen Box and a Jacob Box living in 1820 Franklin County, Tenn. along with Robert Box, Jr. and his sons Robert and John. There is no doubt but that this Box family is kin to Robert Box, Sr., and I have proven beyond a doubt that their roots are in Laurens Co. S.C.

Since the name Wiseman is used so many times in this line, I think it important to bring attention to the three records found on him. He is listed in the 1790 Laurens So. S.C. census with one female in the household (his wife?) and no children or slaves. In 1794 he buys 300 acres of land near Edward and Henry Box. In 1795 he sells 40 acres of a 300 acre tract laid out to James Williams. Jonathon Box is one of the witnesses of this transaction.

4. Edward Box, born 1754 in South Carolina; died 17 May 1857 in Decatur Co., Tenn. He resided in Laurens Co., S.C. during the Revolution and served as a private in Capt. Robert Manfield Co., enlisted at Reedy River, Laurens Co., S.C. He was in Col. Wortons S. C. Regiment (D.A.R. Paper No. 230225 - Lillie Roberts Schneitter).

He received his pension while living in Perry Co., Tenn. and he lived to be 103 years of age. Pension W 25268. BL wt 26455-160-1. He left S.C. between 1800 and 1810, selling most of his land before he left, with deeds recorded in Laurens County. In 1816, 1817 and 1828 he sold the rest of his land. His wife's name is recorded as Elizabeth in Deed Book M page 44.

The known children by his first wife Wada Missouri Box, born 1795, Edward Box, Jr. and John Box. Judgement Roll No. 133 in Laurens Co. names John Box, yeoman, as a son of Edward.

Edward married 2nd, Nancy ???, 7 March 1842 and Nancy died 4 September 1860. Edward is listed in the 1790 and 1800 Laurens Co. S.C. census and he had ten children born before 1800. Then he is listed in 1830 & 1840 Perry Co. Tenn. and 1850 Decatur Co. Tenn. (Decatur was formed from Perry).

5. Samuel Box, born 1745 in Orange District, S.C. later living in Jefferson County, Tennessee. At the age of 88 years, on the 12 July 1833 he made affidavit for a Revolutionary War Pension in which he told about his service. This is copy S 3015, obtained from the National Archives in Washington, D.C. He is listed in the 1800 and 1810 Orange Co. N.C. census, then in the 1830 Jefferson Co. Tenn. census. He had thirteen children, eight of them being boys. His descendants are scattered all over Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. The Samuel Box who left Jefferson County, Tennessee and moved to Polk County, Missouri was probably his son. Lawrence County, Ind. is full of Boxes who were probably his descendants.

1. Williams Robert Box (named for both grandparents) born October 17, 1827, Blount Co., Ala., died July 8, 1852, Crockett, Houston Co., Texas. He is named in Orphan's Court Records, Blount Co., Ala. 8-12-1837.
2. Nancy Box, born 1829 Blount Co., Ala., married Jesse T. Prewitt, born Tenn. 1824 and had issue of John H. Prewitt, age 3 years in 1850. See Houston Co., Texas 1850 census, Vol. R, 378/379. Nancy is named in Orphan's Court Records, Blount Co., Ala. 8-12-1837.
3. Keziah Box, born 1831 in Ala., married 1st Samuel Duren Gilbert and had issue of Joe Gilbert. Married James T. Heflin (2nd wife). Kesiah named in Orphan's Court Records, Blount Co., Ala. 8-12-1837.
4. Lina C. Box (male) born 1832 in Alabama. Named in Orphan's Court Records, Blount Co., Ala. 8-12-1837. See 1850 Census of Houston County, Texas.

Children of John Andrew Box and 2nd wife Lucinda (Yarborough) Box:

1. Texana Box born Houston Co., Texas September 2, 1838; married 1st Thomas John Taylor and had issue of Orrie Violet Taylor; married 2nd Charlie Hurt.
 2. STEPHEN WESLEY BOX, born Houston County, Texas 1840.
 3. Mary L./C. Box born Houston Co. TX 1842; md. Isa M. Williams.
 4. John Littleton Fowler Box, born Houston Co., Texas 1846; married M. E.
 5. Louisa Elizabeth, born Houston Co., Texas 1849; married John W. Saxton.
 6. Lewis Casey Box born Houston Co., Texas 1851, died 1935, age 84 years; married Nannie Louisa Wilke.
 8. Lucinda Rowena Box, born Houston Co., Texas 1857; died September 1925; married Reginald Davidson and had son Reginald Davidson, born 1881, died 1916 and buried in Floydada, Texas.
 9. Eugenia Adina Box born 5-16-1859 Houston Co., Texas; died 3-30-1946 in California; married Enoch Jefferson Loe, b. 5-22-1858; died 6-14-1941, buried Floydada, Texas.

STEPHEN F. BOX was born in Laurens County, South Carolina about 1770. Stephen Box married Keziah Helms (some say Keziah Albright, sister of William Albright of Tennessee). In 1799, Stephen Box was in Smith County, Tennessee, as shown in the County Court Minutes, the year the county was created. He was appointed overseer of the road "that leads down Long Creek to the forks of the road." Two years later, after the birth of his son James in 1801, he resigned as overseer. On July 13, 1807, a land grant to him, No. 125, is recorded, consisting of 200 acres on the waters of Elk River. This land was in the part of White County that became Franklin when it was set up in December of the same year.

Stephen Box sold land to JOHN KING on September 5, 1816 in Franklin County, Tenn. (Franklin County Deed Book) and possibly moved to Alabama. However, he returned to White County, Tenn. where he and his family are recorded in the census of 1820 for White County. He and his wife are over 45 years of age. His son, Stephen Box, Jr., was presumably born in Tennessee in 1821. At least it is known from records that he was 15 and under 17 years of age when the family moved to Texas.

In 1830, Stephen Box is shown in the Blount County census. He was Justice of the Peace and called "Judge Box" which was an honor. His son, Thomas Griffin Box had become a Methodist minister. Stephen applied for admission to the "State of Coahuila and Texas" and he and his five sons were admitted to the Vehlein Colony. Nelson and Stephen, Jr. were not married at that time. Dicy Box, daughter of Stephen wrote later: "We came to Texas in December 1834" and "We had a hard winter in Texas."

Children of Stephen and Keziah (Helms) Box:

I. James Box, born 1801, Smith County, Tenn.; married 1st Sarah Livingston; married 2nd Minerva Bell Smith and had children:

1. Stephen, born 1833. In the 1850 Tishomingo Co., Miss. census he is listed last among the children. Was he by a first wife? To make it more confusing he is also listed in the 1850 Tippah Co., Miss. census 2nd Dist. 563/563 in the household of W. R. H. Moseley a schoolteacher, and is then marked along with two other boys as attending school. I think this accounts for his being at the bottom of the 1st of the children, as they only listed him as an afterthought. He was born in Alabama.

2. Julia born 1842, Mississippi.

3. James, born 1847, Mississippi.

4. Virginia, born 1849.

II. JOHN ANDREW BOX, born Winchester, Franklin Co., Tenn., July 2, 1803; died 1874 Houston Co., Texas; married 1st Polly Bynum, Blount Co., Ala. 1825; married 2nd Lucinda Posey (or Yarborough), born June 1, 1821 in Arkansas, died Nov 7, 1892 in Lillian, Johnson Co., Texas and buried in Pleasant Point Cemetery. Children of John Andrew Box and his 1st wife Polly (Bynum) Box:

Breckenridge, TX 76424

Dear Ms. Donohue,

Your name was given to me by Karen Mazock and she seemed to think you might be able to help me.

I'm helping a prospective DAR member (Sally Skidmore Woodward) with her research. We have tried two lines -- the Yarbrough's and the Skidmore's and have come to a standstill at the following point:

John Swanson Yarbrough
b 25 Dec 1777 (NC?)
m (1) Elizabeth Galbreath
d 20 Oct 1862 Yarbrough Bend, McMullen Co., TX

Clayton ^{Daniel} David Skidmore
b prob 1817 Mt. Holly, Lincoln Co. NC?
m 27 Feb 1844 Ho. Co. Tx Ann Mariah Yarbrough
d 18 Apr 1879 Ho. Co. Tx

Do you by any chance have any additional information on John Swanson Yarbrough -- perhaps his father? And would you by any chance know anyone who may have gone into the DAR through him?

Or would you by any chance know anyone who might be researching the Skidmore line?

Any help would be so appreciated.

Sincerely,

Berta Ranft

Dear Ophelia

I was visiting with Beth Walker in San Antonio last Friday afternoon discussing the Yarbrough family of McMullen Co. TX.

I was hoping to find some information on the marriage of _____ Davis to Caroline E. Dodd.

I descend from

_____ Davis m. Caroline Dodd

Christopher Columbus Davis m.

① Martha Tucker

② Anna McDonald
(my ancestor)

his sister was
Mary Jane Davis
m.

① Wm. Perry Walker

② John Hillard

John Henry Davis m. Opal L. Rankin.

Betty Jo Davis m. Robert Jackson

Jeanette Jackson m. Jim Ross Davidson

I noticed on your family group sheets that you showed

"Columbus Perry Davis" m. Caroline E. Dadd

Do you have a record of this marriage or can you tell me where you found his name? We have always referred to him as "Columbus" just because of his son named Christopher Columbus Davis who went by the name of "Columbus".

I hope you can shed some light on this problem as it has been an enigma for me as we know absolutely nothing about him!

Thanks for your help.

Ophelia Kessler
Box 261
New Castle, TX 76372

Dear Ophelia:

Thanks so much for calling me today. I am enclosing my family group sheets. I know they won't help you much with this mystery as I know little more than my cousins who have been researching this family for years.

My great grandfather was Christopher Columbus Davis who married (1) Martha Turner in 1872 at the home of A. Yarbrough in Live Oak County. (2) He married Laura McDonald d/o James C. McDonald who was a very early Texas settler in Bexar and Atascosa Co., Tx.

Laura and Christopher had several children as you can see from the chart. Most of this family history was recorded while these children were still alive. I have pictures of this part of the family including several of Christopher.

Christopher had a sister named Mary Jane Davis. She also married in Live Oak County (1) William Perry Walker on 9 July 1868. (2) John Dillard in Live Oak Co. on 18 March 1870.

There are many descendants of this family. I have the above marriage licenses in my files. Therefore, I am certain of the names and places.

Christopher's mother as told my descendant's of his was most certainly Caroline E. Dodd. Some say that she had a brother named Jim Dodd. Others say that he was her father.

Christopher's birthdate is said to be 1851 and Mary Jones is said to be 1854. So at this time there father was probably alive. Caroline Dodd Davis married Alfred Yarbrough in 1857.

I cannot find Christopher on the 1850 census as he was not born yet. I tried for a long time to tie into the Davis family that was in Dewitt Co. I did find a Columbus Davis on the 1850 census there (He called himself Columbus not Christopher. Some people did call him C.C.). I thought this might be his father. There are no parents listed with them.

I also discovered another C.C. Davis in Red River County. There is a land transaction dated 9 December 1857. C.C. says that he had homesteaded the land since January of 1857.

The most interesting thing about the document is that there are several Davis men living on adjacent property. Our family story goes that there were three Davis men that came to Texas together. Here are C.C. Davis, William Davis and a John H. Davis.

My grandfather's name is John Henry Davis (son of C.C. Davis). Is this a coincidence or what? I have no proof of what C.C. Davis' father's name was. We have always called him Columbus thinking that maybe our C.C. was a Junior. But, if by chance this is my line, maybe William or John H. could be C.C.'s father.

I have placed a query with the Red River Genealogical Society to atleast prove that this isn't my Davis line.

Much of my family was in Dewitt County. That's why I always go back to the Davis' over there.

It's like grasping at straws.

I suppose that Caroline could have left him and his children and came to Live Oak County or maybe he left them and went to Red River?

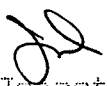

One family member had said that the Dadd's were from Oklahoma. This would certainly be a clue.

However, C.C. says his mother was born in Tennessee and that he was born in Alabama. I think he was born in Texas and that his father was born in Alabama.

I cannot find a birth record or death record on my C.C. I do have copies of both marriages and a picture of his grave in Big Wells, Tx. I have written to the county clerk in all the surrounding counties looking for probate records but have come up empty handed.

Where do I go from here?

Sincerely,

Jeanette Davidson

SINGLETON

F264

William Singleton Hinds is among the oldest settlers in Bandera County. He was born January 26, 1828 at Knoxville, Alabama. His parents were Benjamin and Mary Ann (Polly) Childress Hinds, whose ancestors trace back to Joseph Hinds, a delegate to the Provincial Congress, Guilford County, North Carolina.

The family line of Benjamin Hinds, through his mother Hulda Bryam and Levi Hinds is a 6th generation of John Alden and Priscilla Mullins. Levi Hinds was a veteran of the War of 1812.

William Singleton was adventurous. When he was about 21 years old, he headed west to California, caught up in the gold excitement of that day and where he stayed some nine years. He served in the Confederate Army and after his discharge he went to New Mexico where he was involved in ranching. He came to Texas first in 1845 and in the spring of 1859 he married Nancy Gentry Caveness at Fort Mason. She had come to Texas from Gainville, Arkansas where she was born March 25, 1844. Early in 1870 the family moved in an ox drawn wagon to Bandera County, settling first on the old McHaney place three miles above Medina. In 1876 he purchased land at 50 cents per acre at the junction of Rocky Creek now known as the Grant Seale place. The family home was a log cabin that stood near the road which was always open for those who passed by, not only feeding their horses, but hospitality was extended for meals and to stay over night.

The children of William Singleton Hinds include Robert Whitfield, whose wife was Jenny Loden; Lorena who married Early Copeland; George Gambel whose first wife was Addie Slaughter and who later married Fannie Lee Palmer; William (Bill) Solomon whose first wife was Emma Slaughter and after her death, he married Mrs. Fannie Yarborough Slaughter; Benjamin Hinds whose wife was Sallie Laurence; James Floyd who married Betty Palmer; Della Delroy who married Russell Stocking; John Perry whose wife was Rose Coose; Florence May, the wife of Robert Emmett Buckner; Levi who married Scottie Ingram; Helen wife of Robert Stacey and Edward Dee who married Etta Jeffers. There was another son, Wilburn, who died at age 21 and is buried at the Hinds Cemetery on Rocky Creek. Mrs. Hinds died November 15, 1893 and Mr. Hinds lived on to January 25, 1923, making his life, lacking one day, being 95 years old. They are buried in the Hinds Cemetery on Rocky Creek. The descendants down through history can always look back with pride on the line of this family as being those of true pioneer citizens of Bandera County.

HINDS, WILLIAM
SOLOMAN

F265

William Solomon Hinds was born in

William Solomon Hinds

Frances Arminda Yarborough Hinds

Bandera County in 1862. He was the third child of William Singleton Hinds and Nancy Caveness Hinds.

He married first wife, Emma Slaughter, and had five sons: Lee, James, Andrew, Lorenzo and Roy. Emma died and William moved back to Bandera where, in 1901, he married Mrs. Frances Yarborough Slaughter. She was the widow of Emma's brother Reuben Slaughter. She had six children by Reuben, four survived.

William Elijah married Julia May Wilson; George married Lethia Allsup; Cora married first husband, Preston Brooks and second, Andrew Davis, and Reuben, Jr. married Agnes.

Frances was the daughter of Alfred L. Yarborough and Caroline Dodd Yarborough, and the granddaughter of John Swanson Yarborough, the pioneer settler for whom Yarborough Bend in McMullen County was named and also pioneer settler of Houston County, Texas.

William and Frances had four children: Edward, Laura, Eugene and Bob.

William was a private in the Civil War, in the 112th Regt., Texas Cavalry, C.S.A. He died in 1938 in Burnet County, Texas. Frances died in 1943. They are buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Burnet, Texas.

William S. Hinds Mayflower Line: John Alden married Priscilla Mullins. Joseph Alden married Mary Simmons. Isaac Alden married Mehitabel Allen. Ebenezer Alden married Anna Keith. Abigale Alden married Capt. Ebenezer Byram. Ebenezer Byram married Lydia Geurin. Hulda Byram married Levi Hinds. Benjamin Hinds married Mary Ann Childress. Wm. Singleton Hinds married Nancy Gentry Caveness. Wm. Solomon Hinds married Frances Arminda Yarborough. Bob Hinds married (Daisey) Celeste Hahn. Larry Allen Hinds married Janice Lee Ritter. And number 13-A Brenda Lynn Hinds and 13-B Wayne Russell Hinds.

There is an unusual postscript to this story. When William married Frances they didn't think that 68 years later, their grandson would marry Frances's half first cousin's great granddaughter when Larry Hinds married Janice Ritter.

HOLMES, JANE
LEIGH MONTAGUE

F266

Jane Leigh Montague is the eldest child of Frank M. Montague, Jr. and Virginia Gowen Montague. She was born in Miami, Oklahoma on September 11, 1943 and was reared in Bandera, Texas. She graduated from Incarnate Word High School in 1960 and attended San Antonio College and St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Texas.

After her marriage to West Point graduate and Hungarian emigre, Count Nicolas Roskovanyi Vay, on January 20, 1962 in San Antonio, she spent the following 14 years of her life traveling and living in Europe and along the Eastern Seaboard of the United States.

Steeped in the ranch tradition, she took

This included many outside work jobs to maintain the family and included farming and raising sheep. The life style of self employment took lots of self discipline as there were no weekly pay checks coming in. There was always a garden and lots of canning and selling cream and eggs in between sheep shearing times. The shopping in Medina or Kerrville was a long drive by wagon and team. The catalogs filled needs in between and there was an occasional call by a Raleigh salesman with special spices and good Vanilla extract. A neighbor knew how to cook and make good molasses on shares and my grandfather was not afraid of bees, so there were bee hives that supplied lots of honey. Grandmother knew how and when to pick polk salad greens and to make hanging sacks of cottage cheese. The country grew wild grapes and Agarita berries that made delicious jams and jellies. There was a family recipe for making soap and lard was rendered at hog killing time for all the shortening the family needed along with lots of sausage, ham and bacon smoked and cured. The telephone on the wall was the crank system, but when it rang 3 longs, a short and a long, you knew it was your time to talk. The Bandera paper brought the news of the outside world along with neighborhood happenings. The children respected their parents' care and concern in many areas of life and made time for family gatherings three times a year, April, July and the Christmas Holidays. This allowed all family members, as they grew in number and lived in other areas, to return for the family ties to be strengthened by continually keeping in touch as they had opportunity to come home. These occasions were highlighted with plenty of barbecue and playing "Set Back 42" as well as visiting and enjoying the children.

He married Fannie Lee Palmer September 6, 1892. At the time of her death, November 7, 1943, this family had lived with no deaths with the exception of one daughter-in-law, my mother, Mrs. Dava Seale Hinds in April 1940. This included the George Hinds family growing during this period to 42 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren, giving him the privilege of enjoy 98 descendants. His death was March 17, 1947 making his life, lacking one month, being 87 years. Both grandparents are buried in a family plot of the Oak Rest Cemetery at Medina, Texas. There is a saying: "So live, that when you die, the rich, the poor, the young, and the old will mourn the passing of a friend." This to me, describes my life's association with my Grandparents, George Gambel and Fannie Lee Hinds.

HINDS, CLIFFORD GEORGE "DOC"

F261

Clifford George Hinds was the son of George G. and Fannie Hinds. He was born in Medina Texas, December 27, 1900 near Camel Bluff, Rockie Creek. His family sold the Camel Bluff place and bought another near Lima, Texas. All his childhood years were spent in these two places. Clifford was raised in a loving home, his family was very close, always supporting and encouraging each other. Because of this total acceptance he never met a stranger, and he made friends easily. He was never afraid of hard work or to try something new.

Clifford's nickname came from a Doctor in the community by the name of Johnson. The Doctor being up in age would lead the old grey horse he rode to the side of porches or stumps to mount him. Clifford had rheumatic fever when he was a young man and for a long time it left him weak and stiff. The only way he front porch and mount just like Doc. Johnson. His brothers and sisters started calling him "Doc." Most people called him Doc for the rest of his life.

Doc loved to play games, especially Pitch, Forty-Two and Dominoes. He was a very good dancer, and even after a hard days work, would swing the girls around the dance floor until the music stopped. His favorite dance was the Black-eyed Suzie.

He went to school at Lima and set behind the girl he would later take as his bride. After a long courtship Clifford married Thelma O. Miller, May 10, 1925 in Medina, Texas. Soon after his marriage he bought his first ranch on Rockie Creek. Thelma and Doc moved their cattle from the Frick's place they had leased and began to build a fine ranch. The depression came and while they had more than enough to eat, cash was hard to come by. Doc went to work on the highway just below Bandera for $2.50 a day. Since they were expecting their first and only child, they leased out the ranch, and Thelma moved to Bandera with him. After their child, Patricia Ann, was born they left Bandera County and moved to Corpus Christi.

When World War II began, the navel base in Corpus did not have adequate housing for the young sailors. The building contractors were almost begging for help. Doc went to work at the Navel base putting roofs on the new barracks. He sold the Rockie Creek Ranch and worked in Corpus Christi until the war was over. He then brought his family back to Medina and ranched on the Butcher Ranch out West Prong for several years.

He was offered a very good job with an oil company so he left Medina again. Doc worked all over middle and south Texas before his retirement and final return to Medina. He bought a small bunch of cattle and enjoyed his last few years doing what he liked best, ranching. Doc died January 4, 1965, and was buried in the soil of his youth with his friends and family he knew and loved. He was a kind and gentle hard working man. He was a true friend and will be loved and honored as long as they who knew him shall live.

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.

¹ In order for the search feature of Adobe Acrobat® Reader to be enabled, a certain level of document legibility is required. That is, post-scanning processing cannot overcome poor print quality of an original document. With this caveat, each volume has been made searchable by Adobe Acrobat, version 9 or later.

² This may take quite some time, depending on the size of files contained therein.
