Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid[1], "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States*. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, http://www.yarbroughfamiy.org. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

To forget one's ancestors is to be a brook without a source, a tree without a root.
—Chinese proverb

These Books are Dedicated to our Ancesters who paved the way for us, and to the Decendents who will follow us.

When we began our research a few years ago we were looking for Swanson or John Swanson, which we have found very little before 1810. Our name is spelled Yarbrough. In copying family sheets most have been copied Yarbrough, but the records may be spelled some other way. Keep this in mind when using these books.

We are not responsible for errors, which are probably numerous. All we intend to do is give leads to help find your Ancesters

We would ask that if you copy any of this material that you help by giving us a copy of ypur records and family sheets.

All of these records have been copied for the Archives at Ft. Belknap and placed there. Also all have been copied and placed in the Yarbrough Archives.

Happy Hunting.

THE YARBROUGH FAMILY

Its Origin

The Yarbrough family is regarded as one of the oldest families in England, going back to as early as 853 A.D. when authenticated historic references are made to Germund, who owned land in Fermethorpe, County Lincoln. He is the first of the line recorded. In the old Monastary records which were unearthed in World War II bombings, the English Yarburgh family can be traced in an unbroken chain to this Germund.[1]

The family was of Danish origin and it is assumed they came into England (then known as Angle-land) during the Danish Viking invasions which began about 800 A.D. The patriarch of the Yarbrough family, along with hundreds of his fellow Danes settled in the area now known as Lincolnshire, and they continued to war with the West Saxons for many years. Finally Alfred the Great became king in 871 and after several defeats, he won a great military victory, the conquest of London in 886. The Danes withdrew to the eastern third of England called Danelaw where Danish laws, customs, and language prevailed.[2]

In 1066 William of Normandy invaded England, and the Danes, being enemies of the Anglo-Saxons, sided with William and helped him destroy the Anglo-Saxon army in the battle of Hastings on Christmas Day, 1066 A.D. The war was won and William, now known as William the Conquerer, became King of England and in the same year knighted Eustacius, who was a descendant of Germund.[3] This was before surnames were used.

King William, the Conquerer, had an extensive survey made of the land, listing the principal landholders, the farm population, and the material and financial resources of his realm which is now contained in the DOMEDAY BOOK.[5] This book gives the name "Gereburg" and early documents mention the name Yerdsburg or Jerdsburg. The present pronunciation of Yarbrough comes from the Danish "Jard" and "Jerda" and the Norse word "Jardborg".[5] The English meaning of the word is "earth fortification."

King William ordered the territory be taken from the nobility and large landowners and divided among his followers. Eustacius was made Lord of Yarburgh and became known as Eustacius de Yarburgh. (Yarburgh was the name of a place in Lincolnshire.) At present two places called Yarburgh are there, one a parish in the union of Louth, and the other a hamlet in the parish of Croxton.[6]

The Yarburgh estate received a charter from the king and was allowed a representative in Parliament. Eustacius de Yarburgh, Lord of Yarburgh, had a son named Robert de Yarburgh. He in turn named his son Lambert de Yarburgh; however after the fifth generation the de was dropped and Yarburgh became a surname.[7]

Burke in his HISTORY OF THE COMMONERS, Vol. III, page 661, states: "The family of Yarburgh can be traced in authenticated male succession from the time of the Norman Conquest at which time Eustacius de Yarburgh was Lord of Yarburgh, in the County of Lincoln, which manor, together with the patronage of the living, still remain vested in his lineal representation, the present Major Yarburgh of Heslington. For many centuries they were chiefly settled in various parts of Lincolnshire, but more than two hundred years ago they removed their residence to Snaith Hall in the West Riding of the County of York and subsequently, Snaith Hall being destroyed to Helsington Hall, near York."

The spelling "Yarburgh" continued unchanged in England for almost five hundred years. The first appearance of the spelling "Yarbrough" on the family chart prepared by F. S. Andrus of the College of Arms was the entry concerning Sir Nicholas Yarburgh, Snaith Hall, Yorkshire, a knight. Two of his sons, Sir Thomas and Richard, adopted the spelling "Yarbrough" while other sons continued with the old spelling.

Several researchers have spent considerable time trying to connect the colonial Yarbroughs to the English line, and a few are convinced that Richard, son of Sir Nicholas, mentioned above, is the same Richard found in the Virginia Colony in 1642; however, parish records show Nicholas Yarburgh was born in 1612 and his son Richard was baptized 1 Oct. 1640. So he is a generation too late to be Richard, the Immigrant. Richard, the Immigrant was born in 1615 according to his tombstone inscription.

EARLY YARBROUGHS IN AMERICA

In early American records, as well as in old English documents, the Yarbrough name occurs with various spelling such as: Yerbury, Yarburgh, Yarboro, Yerborow, Yarbrow, Yarberry, Yarberough, Yarborough, Yarbrough, and others. Even today in current telephone directories the name may be spelled Yarber, Yarbro, Yarboro, Yarberry, Yarbough, Yarborough, and Yarbrough.

Genealogists agree all spellings are of the same original family. The varied spellings came about because most pioneers were unable to read or write. They signed their documents with an "X" and the clerk spelled the name as it sounded to him, and since distinct dialects were spoken in different parts of the country, names had various pronunciations. Later descendants who learned to read and write adopted the spelling they found on family documents or the way their teachers spelled the name for them. In my own line of Yarbroughs, I have found the name spelled seven different ways in county records. Sometimes it is spelled two or three ways in the same instrument, so evidently the recorders were, also, unsure of the spelling.

Until recently I along with other Yarbrough researchers believed there were only two early Yarbrough immigrants to America--Richard, who came to the Virginia Colony from Lincolnshire, Eng., before 1642, and Ambrose, who came to the same area from Yorkshire, England, in 1732--and that anyone who could trace his line to a time before 1732 could be assured he had descended from Richard the Immigrant. However a couple years ago while doing research on my Gibbons line in the records of York Co., VA, I happened on proof there was an Edward Yarbrough in York Co, VA, before 1645. The records are as follows:

EDWARD YARBROUGH OF YORK COUNTY, VA.

From Microfilm Reel No. 1A, Record 2, Deeds, Wills, Orders, Etc., 1645-1649, page 132, was extracted this deed of gift.

Be it knowne unto all men by ye s^{d} presents that I Richard Pasmuch for and in consideration of ye naturall love and affection which I doe bear unto Edward Yarborrough sone of Edward Yarborrough late of York I doe give unto Edw: Yarborrough, Jun. and his heires and assignes, one pide black and white Cowe Calfe being marked as followes Viz Cross on ye Right Eare, a hole in ye right & soe slit out and ye fore part of ye left eare cut out to have & to hold ye Cawe Calfe with all her female increase unto ye s^{d} Edward Yarborrough jun or his heires or assignes forever from and against all men shall and will warrant and forever defend by ye s^{d} presents ye male increase decending backe unto me ye s^{d} Richard Pasmuch or my heires or assignes. /s/ Rich R Pasmuch his seal

From page 95 of the same record is found a bill of sale whereby Richard Lee sold Edward Yarrow, son of Edward Yarrow, dec'd a brown cow and calf in Jan. 1645. The mutilated record was next to impossible to read, but it was evident that it had a provision that if Edward died before becoming twenty-one, something (I couldn't make out what) should take place. This proves Edward was a young boy.

Another record found on Reel 1A, Record 3, Wills, Orders, Deeds, Etc., 1657-1662, p. 28, was a court order dated 25 June 1658, stating:

> It is ordered that the sherrif convey Edward Yarbrough, soine of Edward Yarbrough, dec'd, to the next court to be delivered to the constable and from that constable to another constable until he be delivered to Col. Robert Abrall, who is desired by this Court to dispose of him to his Mother or other ways which are fitting. Next Court to be 24 Aug. 1658.

A thorough search of other records of York County turned up nothing else on this Edward or any other Yarbrough. Perhaps Edward was taken to another county to live with his mother. Evidently he had been serving an apprenticeship as was customary in those days to teach children a trade.

CHRISTIAN YARBLOW, AN IMMIGRANT TO YORK CO., VIRGINIA

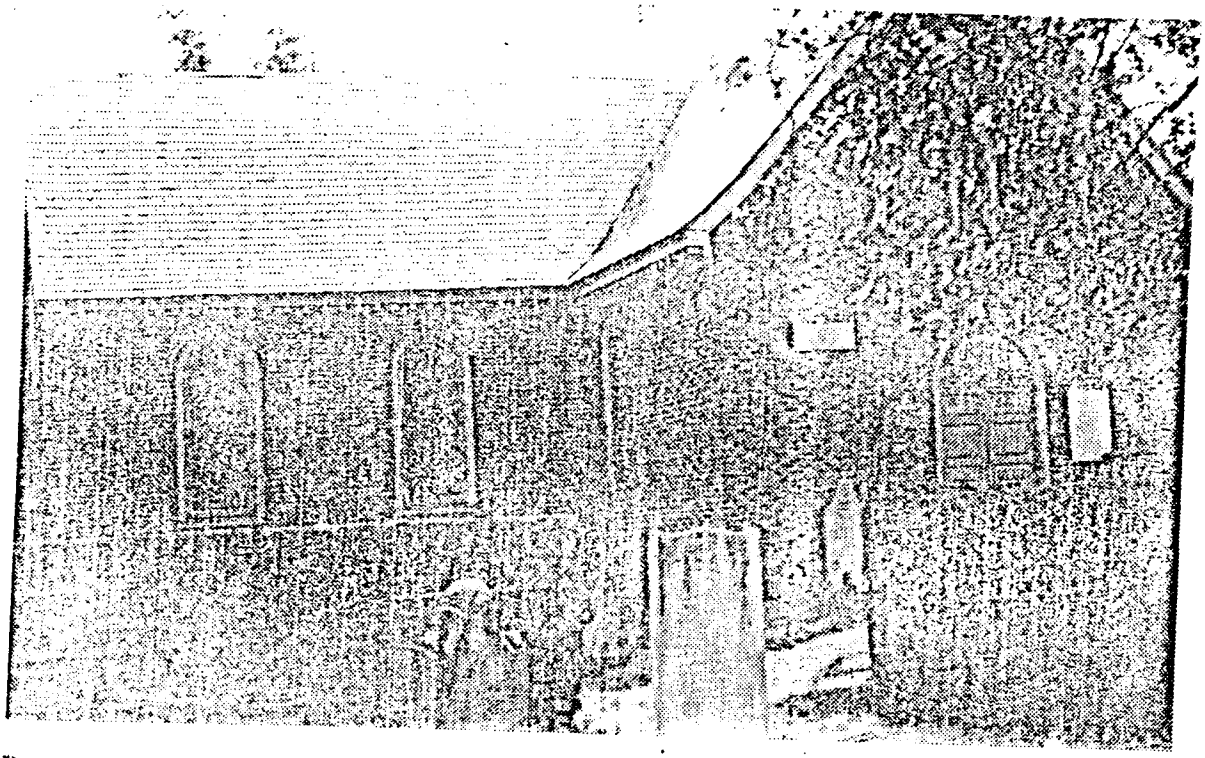
To confuse matters worse there seems to be another Yarbrough immigrant to York Co., VA. In Greer's EARLY VIRGINIA IMMIGRANTS 1623-1666, page 374, we find: In 1653 Christian Yarblow immigrated to York Co., Virginia. Thomas Willis was the patentee or party bringing him over.

For a time I completely ignored him because of the spelling of his surname. In fact when I first started my research, I ignored all spellings except two--Yarbrough and Yarborough--until I found my own Yarbrough ancestors spelled Yarbrow and Yarber.

Nell Morris Jenkins in her Yarbrough Quarterly stated that she believed this Christian to be Richard Yarbrough, Jr., son of Richard the Immigrant, his middle name being used to distinguish him from his father. When you examine the facts, however, this doesn't seem likely, for according to a New Kent County Court record, which will be quoted later, Richard Yarbrough, Jr., was born about 1652. A year old child wouldn't likely be coming to America without his mother or father, unless, of course, the mother had died in England and Mr. Willis was bringing him to his father. While searching the York County records, I found no mention of Christian, and I've not seen his name in any other county records.

AMBROSE YARBROUGH, AN IMMIGRANT TO VIRGINIA COLONY

Ambrose Yarbrough was born into the Yarbrough - de Bateson family of Yorkshire, England, in the year 1710. At age 22 he immigrated to the Virginia Colony. He went to Prince George County, VA, and joined his cousins, the descendants of Richard Yarbrough, in 1732. He later went to Culpepper County, Virginia, where a 68 acre tract of land was granted him in 1758. In 1776 Ambrose and wife Mary sold their 68 acres and moved to South Carolina. He died in Union County, South Carolina, in 1788. Known children of Ambrose and Mary are: Jonathan, Ambrose, Jr., Humphrey, Ann, Jeremiah, Mary, and John.[8]



Above: The Old Blandford Church built in 1735 on what was then known as Wells Hill in the town of Blandford. Today it is on U. S. Routes 301 & 460; Crater Road, Petersburg, Virginia.

Richard Yarbrough's grave is inside the walls of the churchyard some 15 or 20 feet from the second window from the left. His is the oldest grave in the cemetery. He was buried there over 30 years before the church was built. During the Civil War Confederate soldiers were buried on the gentle slopes just outside the churchyard so it has become a memorial chapel and Confederate Shrine.

RICHARD YARBROUGH, THE IMMIGRANT TO VIRGINIA COLONY

Richard Yarbrough, the Immigrant, has been left until last because more information is available on this line, and because I feel he is the immigrant from which our line descended.

A number of Yarbrough researchers have traced their lines to Richard Yarbrough, very few with documented proof. Most, like me, have arrived at their conclusions because of proximity and close association of their Yarbroughs and the previous assumption that all Yarbroughs found in the records before 1732 were from the immigrant Richard.

According to his tombstone inscription, Richard Yarbrough was born in 1615. He came to America as a young man. Researchers do not agree on the time nor the place of his arrival; however, since records show he was one of the founders of Bristol Parish in 1642, we can assume he came to that area sometime before that date.

Some researchers say Richard the Immigrant was married to Frances Proctor, to Elizabeth Williams, and perhaps to others. George W. Yarbrough, a former senator of Alabama who did years of Yarbrough research stated in one of his papers that Richard Yarbrough, Jr., swore in court that his mother was Frances Yarbrough; however, I have not been able to find this court record.

A record of marriage for a Richard Yarbrough and Frances Proctor has been found in the English records dated 1635, but there is, also, a record of the death of a Frances Yarbrough in the same parish dated 1680, which seems to indicate that this Richard and Frances remained in England and were not our immigrant ancestors.[9]

Richard, the Immigrant, died in 1702, at age 87, and was buried on Wells Hill inside the original enclosure of the old Blandford Churchyard. The church is presently located inside the city limits of Petersburg, Virginia, on Carter Road.

On my first visit to Petersburg, I was disturbed to find the tombstone read "Richard Scarbrough, 1702, aged 87." I wondered if the notation I had read in the William and Mary Quarterly about Richard Yarbrough being buried in Blandford Churchyard was an error. However at the Blandford Church Interpretation Center I was informed that the sandstone marker had slowly worn away over the 275 years, requiring repairs to be made and in doing so the engraver mistakenly etched an "SC" instead of a "Y". They assured me they knew of the error. Later when I heard their audio-visual presentation relate how Richard Yarbrough and a few other settlers had ventured up the James River into the wilderness, I was satisfied.

Not long after this, Bob Yarbrough led Yarbrough descendants in raising money to have a corrective slab marker placed direcly in front of the original tombstone, which by then was too crumbly to be reengraved. When I returned to Petersburg in 1985 and revisited the grave, I experienced a deep feeling of pride when the guide at Blandford church pointed out Richard Yarbrough's grave as the oldest in the cemetery and explained how the Yarbrough descendants had placed the second marker to correct the error. I was glad I'd had a small part in having it done.

According to the guide, the original church had been a wooden frame structure and for a time the cemetery had been confined to the churchyard; however, when that filled, graves were placed outside the walls as well. Then during the Civil War, heroic men who died in defense of the city of Petersburg against the Union army were buried on the gentle slopes back of the church.

The present brick church building, which was built in 1735, is now used as a memorial chapel and Confederate shrine in memory of these 30,000 Confederate soldiers buried there.

Children of Richard, according to the late Nelle Jenkins, were: William W., whose wife was Ellinor; Edmund; Henry; James; Charles; John, who married Abigail Whitehead in Gloucester Co., VA, 2 Feb. 1695; Richard, Jr., who was said to have married Elizabeth Mason and also a Miss Whitehead; and three girls. Some researchers, however, believe some of these are his grandchildren instead of his children.

A deed dated 20 May 1704 and recorded in both King William Co. and King and Queen Co., VA, proves that at least Richard and John were his sons. Extracts of the deed follow:

> John Yarbrough of King William Co., planter, to William Aylett for 20 lbs. sterling and 5000 lb. tobacco, 200 acres in King William Co. Said land part of land formerly sold by the Chickahominy Indians to Arnold and by said Arnold then of King and Queen Co. to John Hurt, and by John Hurt sold to Richard Yarbrough, father of the said John, as by deed acknowledged in King and Queen County court 12 Feb. 1695 and is now in the possession of the said John Yarbrough, one half by virtue of a deed from his brother, Richard Yarbrough, and the other half as an heir to his father. Abigail Yarbrough relinquished her right of Dower in King William Court.

I, in cooperation with a group of Yarbrough researchers, have searched the early records of Virginia in an unsuccessful attempt to prove the parentage of these other Yarbroughs--William W., Edmund, Henry, James and Charles.

From SKETCHES OF VIRGINIA by Foote and from ENGLISH DUPLICATES OF LOST VIRGINIA RECORDS by Louis Cognets, Jr., we find the following early records for Richard Yarbrough and his sons, Richard, Jr., and John: (Note the spelling of Yarbrough.)

> . . .And whereas severall parcells of Land were by the Pamunkey Indians for good and valuable consideration leased for 99 yeares to these severall persons hereafter named which Lands by the Order of Assembly at James City the 25th of April 1679 was granted to be confirmed unto them and that they should have the priority and first grant thereof when the same came to the King's hands. . .

Either this land was in the area which became New Kent Co., VA, or Richard Yarbrough, Jr., moved to New Kent Co. for in the records of the House of Burgesses, the first representative body in America, we find the following on Richard Yarbrough of New Kent Co., VA.

At a Grand Assembly began at Green Spring, the 20th of Feb. 1676, these following Orders of Public charge were made and allowed viz. . .To Richard Yarberry 6,000 pounds of Tobacco. . .

In "Jacobitism in Virginia" taken from the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. VI, No. 4 (1899) pp. 389-96, is found a court action held in New Kent Co. Court, 9 Oct. 1690, in which Richard Yarbrough, Jr., and wife Elizabeth were witnesses against Capt. Jacob Lumpkin who had been reported by Ben Arnold for "expressing and publickly declaring divers Seditious turbulent and unlawfull words in contempt of their majties and their present Governour. . ."

According to the testimony of Ben Arnold, Lumpkin had not only refused to drink to their Majesties' health but had swore "God dam him if he were here I would fight him." Richard and his wife's testimonies were as follows:

Richard Yarbrough, Aged 38 years or thereabouts, Sworne, Saith: That your Depon^{t} being att ye house of Benjamin Arnold about ye beginning of September last, in company with Severall p'sons of ye neighbourhood & drinking their maj^{ties} health, King William and Queen Mary, ye said Capt. Pamunkey Neck, Mattapony River, Pamunkey River and Reedy Swamp are common landmarks regarding property of the early Yarbroughs. These land marks were in that part of New Kent County that was used to form King and Queen County, VA, in 1691. Following are some land grants in King and Queen Co., which bear this out:[12]

On 29 Oct. 1695, Edward Jennings, Esq. 570 acres in King and Queen Co. on south side Mattapony River on the line of Peter White and Rich'd Yarbrough. (Patent Book 9, p. 76.)

Andrew MacCallester 86 acres King and Queen Co. in Pamunkey Neck beginning on Mattapony River--corner of old Richard Yarbrough's whole tract leased of Pamunkey Indians.

Morris Floyd 100 acres King and Queen Co. in Pamunkey Neck; 1 April 1702. . .to Peter Whites corner and Rich'd Yarbrough's new ground. (Patent Book 9, p. 452.)

In 1702 part of King and Queen County was used to form King William County, VA, and the Mattapony River became the boundary between the two counties. A number of land grants and tax records show that the Yarbrough land lay in this area and that the Yarbroughs operated a ferry on the Mattapony River.

On Oct. 28, 1702, M. Rawlins, 933 acres in King William Co., St. John's Parish in Pamunkey Neck, adjacent Yarbrough's line. (Patent Book 9, page 505.)

In 1702, William Bird, 1200 acres from Yarbrough-Arnold Ferry up the Mattapony River.

From Smith's QUIT RENTS OF VIRGINIA 1704, we have the following Yarbroughs paying quit rents on land in King William Co., Virginia.

John Yarbrough, 150 acres.
Richard Yarbrough, 300 acres.

Other King William records involving Yarbroughs:

May 30, 1704, John Yarbrough sold 200 acres in King William Co., to William Aylett. (Deed Book 1, p. 170.)

Nov. 8, 1704, Richard & Sarah his wife, sold to Robert Abbott 80 acres of land in King William Co. (Deed Book 1; page 231.)

May 2, 1705, Samuel Williams and William Lee received 400 acres in King William Co. on the south side run of Herring Creek. . .a little below the mouth of a branch that heads at Edward Yarbrough's plantation. (Patent Book 9, p. 649.)

May 2, 1706, John Hurt was granted 546 acres in King William Co., in Pamunkey Neck. . .down the Mattapony River by Rich'd Yarbrough's tobacco ground. (Patent Book 9, p. 733.)

A record which has puzzled me is a land grant to James Terry for 400 acres in King William County on the north side of Pamunkey River. . .16 June 1714 for the importation of eight persons including a Richard Yarbrough. (Patent Book 10) Is this another immigrant or did Richard Yarbrough, Jr., make a trip back to England?

During the 1720's we find the following Yarbroughs obtaining land grants in King William County, Virginia:

William Yarbrough, 400 acres of New Land in St. John's Parish on branches of Reedy Swamp of Mattapony River and the North Anna River adjacent Rober Baber, his own, Edward and William Yarbrough, Thomas Evans and land of Mr. English, 9 July 1724 for 40 shillings. (Patent Book 12, p. 56.) Also 250 acres new land in King William Co. in St. Margaret's Parish on north side of South Fork of South River on Frances Durrat's line, 31 Apr. 1726 for 25 shillings. (Patent Book 13, p. 27)

Edward and William, 400 acres new land in St. John's Parish on west side of Long Branch on Robert Baber and Cocecham's line, 20 Feb. 1723 for 40 shillings. (Patent Book 11, p. 330.)

Richard Yarbrough, 400 acres on north side of North Creek and on north side of South River in Richard Maulin's line in St. Margaret's Parish, 9 July 1724. (Patent Book 12, p. 57.) Also 400 acres on branch of Reedy Swamp issueing out of the Mattapony River and the branches of the North Anna in St. John's Parish adjacent to Edward Claybrook, Charles Evans, and William and Edward Yarbrough's line, 3 October 1727, 40 shillings. (Patent Book 13,, page 283.)

Charles Yarbrough, 400 acres new land in St. Margaret's Parish on south side South River adjacent Richard Malden, 17 Aug. 1725, 40 shillings. (Patent Book 12, page 257.)

John Yarbrough, 400 acres new land in King William Co., in St. John's Parish, on north side of Reedy Swamp. . .adjacent John Sutton's line and Capt. Christopher Smith. . .17 Aug. 1725. (Patent Book 12, p. 259.)

Caroline County, VA, was formed from parts of King William, King and Queen, and Essex Counties in 1727/28. (1727 by the old style calendar in which the new year started in March and 1728 by the more modern calendar whereby the year began in January.) As a result the Reedy Swamp and the North Anna and South Rivers where part of the above mentioned Yarbrough land grants were located were now in Caroline County. The following grant for Edward Yarbrough proves this:

September 27, 1729, Edward Yarbrough, 200 acres new land in Caroline Co. between the south fork and middle fork of Reedy Swamp in St. Margaret's Parish. (Patent Book 13, page 300.)

Early records of New Kent, King and Queen, King William and Caroline Counties have been destroyed except the land grants, which are in the State Archives, and a few other records including the Caroline Co. Court Order Books. This loss of records makes it virtually impossible to prove Yarbrough lineages.

From one of the court records of Caroline Co., it is learned that a Richard Yarbrough of Caroline Co., VA, married Sarah Weller, widow of William Weller about 1747.[13] However it hasn't been proven which Richard Yarbrough this is. Another obstacle to overcome is the fact that almost every Yarbrough line has a Richard, John, Edward, Henry, William, Thomas, etc. With so many Yarbroughs with the same given name, it is difficult to sort them out.

Other Yarbroughs found in the Caroline Co., Virginia, Court Order Books from 1728 to 1752 were: Richard, Jr., John, William and wife Diana, Charles, Edward and wife Eliza, Griggs, Thomas Griggs, Abraham, Thomas, Henry, James, Lazarius, Jeremiah, and Joshua Yarbrough. The last of these, Joshua Yarbrough, is the earliest Yarbrough ancestor of which I am reasonably sure.

In spite of the fact I have spent more time and effort on the Yarbrough line than all my other lines and have gathered a wealth of information, I have found no documentation or even convincing evidence determining the relationship of Joshua to the other Yarbroughs found with him in Caroline County, Virginia; however, researchers tend to agree they are all descendants of Richard I. All the previous information has been given to show that these Yarbroughs living in Caroline county are living in the same area as John, Richard, Jr., and other early Yarbroughs, the counties have just changed names. We have proof that both John and Richard, Jr. are sons of Richard I, so we feel sure our Joshua was a descendant of this line of Yarbroughs.

JOSHUA AND SARAH YARBROUGH

The earliest record found for Joshua Yarbrough is in the Order Books of Caroline Co., VA, dated 15 Jan. 1736/7. Two entries are found for him on that day. In one Joshua, Abraham Yarbrough, and several other men were ordered to assist Henry Isabell in keeping the road repaired. In the other action, James Yarbrough was ordered to pay Joshua Yarbrough, Thomas Burch, and William Cockerham each 50 pounds of tobacco for two days attendance as a witness for him in his case against Barber and Mr. Butler.

Joshua was, no doubt, a grown man at that time, probably at least 20 years of age which would mean he was born by 1716. In March 1737 he is found on the list of tithers of Orange Co., Virginia. Orange County had been created three years before from the county of Spotsylvania which had originally been part of King William, King and Queen, and Essex Counties, so Joshua hadn't moved far from Caroline County, Virginia.

Originally the colony of Virginia was divided into eight shires--Charles City, Elizabeth City, Henrico, Isle of Wright, James City, Northampton, York, and Old Rappahannock (which was changed to Essex in 1692). As the populated areas expanded and the settlers found themselves too far from the county seat, they petitioned for a new county. It was carved out of one county or made from parts of several adjoining counties.

The only other Yarbrough found in Orange County during the time our Joshua was there was Richard Yarbrough whose wife was Rachel. He was in the 1737 Tithe List with Joshua, and on 22 Mar. 1737, he sold Joshua 213 acres of land on the south side of Robinson River in Orange County for 21.5 pounds. Richard's wife Rachel signed to relinquish her right of dower.[14] This land was part of a 600 acre tract which Richard had bought from Richard Mauldin of St. Mark's Parish, Caroline Co., VA, for 60 pounds.[15]

On 28 May 1741 Joshua Yarbrough of Orange Co., a planter, sold to Ambrose Powell for 40 pounds the 213 acres on the south side of Robinson River, which he had purchased from Richard Yarbrough. Joshua's wife Sarah signed relinquishing her right of dower.[16] Though no marriage record has been found, this proves they married before 1741.

In March 1742 Richard Yarbrough and Rachel, his wife, sold Joshua 100 acres more land on Robinson River adjoining Joshua Fry and Ambrose Powell.[17] On 5 Nov. 1743 Joshua sold the same 100 acres, described as being "the plantation on which Joshua lives" to Goodrich Lightfoot. Richard Yarbrough was one of the witnesses to the deed.[18]

Orange County Court Order Books show Joshua appearing in court 13 times from March 1738 to May 1746. At times he was the plaintiff; other times he was being sued for a debt. Once he was reporting on a road which he and two other men had laid out to be built.

Richard Yarbrough was in court even more than Joshua; once he was a witness for Joshua; however, no other Yarbrough appeared in these early court records with them. The last entry for Joshua Yarbrough in these records proves that he had moved from Orange County before 1746.

Thursday 22 May 1746: Wm Waller, Gent., having obtained an attachment against the estate of Joshua Yarbrough who hath privately removed himself out of this county or so absconded so that process cannot be served on him for three pounds current money due from said Joshua to the said William Waller. This day came the plaintiff who proved his demand to be just by his own oath; therefore, it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the said sum of three pounds and his costs. . .and Edward Spenser, Gent., appeared and being sworn saith that he is endebted to Joshua Yarbrough in the amount of three pounds seven shillings and three pence half penny which he is ordered to pay to the plaintiff in discharge of this judgment and to restore the residue if any to the defendant.[19]

Since Joshua had sold his last tract of land in 1743 and the last entry for him in the order books prior to the one above was, also, in 1743, Joshua appears to have simply moved rather than absconded to avoid a debt as implied in the entry above.

With Joshua and Richard so closely connected and the only Yarbroughs mentioned in Orange Co., VA, records until 1750, I naturally felt that perhaps Richard was Joshua's father and tried unsuccessfully to find the proof. I still feel it is a possibility; at least they were close kin.

From Orange Co., VA, Joshua moved to Amelia Co., VA. Amelia Co. was created from Brunswick and Prince George Counties in 1732. Prince George was the county in which Richard, the immigrant, had lived and died.

On 12 Jan. 1747 Joshua received a land grant of 400 acres which "lay on the head of Whetstone Creek in the fork of Nottoway River in Amelia County bordering the land of Thomas Yarbrough, Sr., and Thomas Yarbrough, Jr.[20] Several other Yarbroughs, also, received land grants in Amelia Co., VA, during this period: William, 1739, 1740, and 1755; Henry and Thomas (a partnership) 1740; Samuel, Moses, William, and Hezekiah, 1746; Henry, 1745; and Thomas, 1745. All these tracts lay on Nottoway River.

Other Yarbroughs found in Amelia Co. deeds and court records for these years were: Charles, Ellinor wife of William, Richard, Richard, Jr., Sarah wife of Samuel, John and wife Betty, Joseph, Jordon, and Priscilla. Through wills and court records of Amelia County we are able to identify a number of these Yarbroughs.

William Yarbrough left a will which was recorded 16 Dec. 1748 in Amelia County Will Book I, p. 50. In it he names his wife Elliner and his children, Samuel Yarbrough, Ann Higgons, Carymhaporah Anderson, William Yarbrough, Hezekiah Yarbrough, Moses Yarbrough, Micajah Yarbrough, and Priscilla Yarbrough. Richard Yarbrough and Richard Yarbrough, Jr., witnessed the will.

We have no proof that either of these Richard Yarbroughs is the same as Richard Yarbrough of Orange Co., VA; however, we know William, Sr., is the same one found in King William Co., VA, earlier because in 1752 William Yarbrough sold Martin Chandler land in King William Co., and Elliner his wife relinquished her right to dower.[21] Hezekiah, named as son in William's will, also, left a will in Amelia Co., recorded for probate 27 June 1754, leaving everything to his sister

Priscilla and his brother Moses Yarbrough; however, Moses died leaving a will recorded 22 Apr. 1756, Amelia Co., VA, giving all his estate to his sister Priscilla Yarbrough, so evidently these two brothers were unmarried when they died. Henry Yarbrough witnessed both these wills.[22]

Samuel, another son of William, moved to Orange Co., NC, where he left a will probated 5 Nov. 1770, naming his wife, Sarah; children: William, Samuel, John, Elizabeth, Sarah, and Lewcey Yarbrough. Another son, William, Jr., remained in Amelia Co. and later lived in Prince Edward County which was formed from Amelia County in 1754. His will, recorded there in 1771, names sons: James Smith, Oswell, Joseph, Richard, and William; and daughter, Elizabeth Yarbrough. No wife is named, but from Bristol Parish register and Caroline Co., VA, Order Books we learn his wife was Diana Smith and that she died 18 May 1767.

The last son of William Yarbrough, Sr., Micajah, is a mystery. A few researchers have suggested that he was probably father of my Joshua because Joshua named a son Micajah. During this time children were named for their parents, grandparents, and other relatives; however, I have abandoned this theory after thoroughly searching Amelia County records for this period without finding his name mentioned except in his father's will by which he inherited 400 acres. No record was found where he disposed of the land which is a puzzle for Amelia County records are well preserved.

Another will found in Amelia County, Virginia, is for Thomas Yarbrough recorded 23 Mar. 1769, naming his wife Hannah; children: Jordon, Archibald, Hannah, Mary, Jane, and Catherine Yarbrough and grandson Thomas Yarbrough. The son Jordon left a will recorded 25 Oct. 1770 in Amelia County, leaving all his property to his brothers and sisters, so he, too, died unmarried. (WB 2, p. 332) Thomas's other son Archibald lived on in Amelia and Prince Edward Counties with his wife Ann.

From Amelia County court records we learn that the father of Thomas's wife, Hannah, was Samuel Jordon and the father of Thomas Yarbrough was another Thomas Yarbrough. From Amelia County tax records we learn that Thomas Yarbrough, Sr., also, had sons, John and Zachariah. They were listed as his titheables in the tax lists of 1747 and 1749. Our Joshua Yarbrough was, also, listed in these same tax lists as head of a household, and since he earlier received land grants lying next to Thomas, Sr., and Thomas, Jr.'s, land, I am inclined to believe Joshua is an older son of Thomas Yarbrough, Sr., which would possibly make him a great grandson of Richard, the immigrant, because most researchers believe that Thomas, Sr., was son of Richard Yarbrough, Jr., and grandson of Richard Yarbrough, the immigrant. No proof, however, has been found.

On 20 Oct. 1749 Joshua sold the 400 acres he had received as a land grant in Amelia County to Richard Stone for the sum of 20 pounds current money of Virginia. Joshua's wife Sarah "being examined privately relinquished her right of dower. (Deed Book 3, p. 295)

The next record found for Joshua Yarbrough was in 1754 when he was listed in Captain Surgar Jones's Company of Granville Co., NC, Militia. A year later both Joshua and John Yarbrough are listed on the Granville Co. tax list. In 1758 Joshua is again listed on the tax list and paid tithes on his sons, Joshua, Jr., and Micajah. In 1766 he lists James as his son on the tax list. Tithes had to be paid on sons beginning at age 16. We know from the tax lists that Joshua had at least three sons.

Joshua, Sr., received two land grants in Granville County in 1761. Grant #116 was issued 29 July 1761 for 700 acres on the south side of Shocco Creek. (Book 14, p. 109) Grant #156 was issued 5 Dec. 1761 for 700 acres on both sides of Mill Stone run. (Book 14, p. 109) Samuel Yarbrough, also, received a land grant for 260 acres in 1760. John, Manoah, and Henry Yarbrough bought land in Granville Co. before 1760. Manoah was, also, listed in the tax list as son of Thomas Yarbrough.

Soon after getting his grants, Joshua began selling tracts of land from it. Sept. 5, 1761, he sold Thomas Davis 379 acres on Shocco Creek. March 28, 1763, he sold Joshua Nelms 250 acres on Millstone River. On 23 Jan. 1764 he sold his son Micajah Yarbrough 150 acres on Sliding Rock Branch on John Yarbrough's line. Joshua, Jr., witnessed this deed.[23]

In 1764 Bute Co. was formed from that part of Granville County where the Yarbroughs lived and in 1766 Joshua sold 280 acres more of his land to Eley Eley with Green Hill, Manoah Yarbrough and James Yarbrough as witnesses. Then on 3 Aug. 1766 he sold 120 acres where he lived to Green Hill. Eley Eley and Micajah Yarbrough were witnesses.[24] I feel that these to whom he sold land were his sons-in-law or grandsons.

In the 1771 tax list of Bute Co., NC, the following were listed: James Yarbrough, 1 poll; Henry Yarbrough, Jr., 1; Richard Yarbrough, 1; Henry Yarbrough, 6; Micajah Yarbrough, 1; James Yarbrough, 1; Joshua, 2; Zachariah, 1. Yarbroughs found in other records of Granville and Bute Counties which haven't been mentioned were: Littleton Yarbrough, John and wife Elizabeth, Martha wife of Henry Yarbrough, Thomas and Charles.

Except for the three children already mentioned--Joshua, Jr., James, and Micajah--we aren't sure how Joshua is related to the others. Some may, also, be his children; others may be brothers; at least, they must all be closely related, so we've tried to learn something about each of them.

An article on the Yarbrough family, printed in the Lexington, NC, Dispatch, January 5, 1898 states: "Between the years 1729 and 1775, seven brothers of Yarbroughs (from Amelia Co., VA) moved to Louisburg, Franklin Co., North Carolina. Their names were Zachariah, Archibald, Manoah, Alexander, Thomas, Henry, and John." Since over a hundred years had passed between the migration of Yarbroughs and the publication of the article, we must view the story as family legend and probably not completely accurate.

True we have convincing evidence that Zachariah, Manoah, John and Thomas are brothers and all four names are found in Granville and Bute County records; however, the Thomas found in Granville Co. wasn't the brother Thomas. As mentioned before their brother Thomas left a will in Amelia County. Furthermore tax records list Thomas Yarbrough of Granville County as father of Manoah, so that proves an error. Also ther Alexander nor Archibald have been found in the early records of these counties, but Joshua was there and I can't help believing he was one of the brothers.

The last record found for Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., was 1780 in Franklin Co., NC, which was formed from part of Bute Co. in 1778. Joshua was living by his son Micajah. He probably lived on there until his death which must have been before 1790 as he isn't in the 1790 Franklin Co., NC, census. Information on other Yarbroughs living with Joshua in Granville and Bute Counties follows:

Henry Yarbrough, Sr., and wife Martha Robinson, found in Amelia County, VA, by 1739; bought land in Granville Co., NC, in 1760 while still living in Virginia. He died intestate in Franklin Co., NC, between 1790 and 1800. He is said to have children: James, Henry, Charles, Edward, Thomas, Clement and two daughters.

Henry Yarbrough, Jr., and wife Elizabeth Murray, Henry, son of Henry, Sr., and Martha Yarbrough, left a will in Franklin Co., NC, probated June 1794. (WB A, p. 123) Children: Archibald, Charles, David, Henry, James, Thomas, Nancy, Frances, and Martha.

James Yarbrough, son of Henry Yarbrough, Sr. in Franklin Co. until 1800.

Manoah Yarbrough, was in Granville Co., NC, by July 1756; moved to Georgia in 1769 according to a petition he filed requesting a land grant in St. George's Parish in May 1770. Littleton and Thomas were in the same parish by 1790. They are possibly his sons.

Zachariah Yarbrough, listed in Amelia Co. tax list in 1747 and 1749 as a titheable of Thomas Yarbrough, Sr.; came to Bute Co. before 1771; then to Rowan Co. and finally to Randolph Co., NC, where he made entry for a land grant in 1795 which he received in 1802. He is said to have married Elizabeth Dowd and had children: Zachariah, Jr., Henry, Thomas, Alexander, Manoah, Julia, Elizabeth, Archibald, and John.

John and wife Elizabeth Yarbrough, moved from Amelia Co., VA, before 1755. John was son of Thomas Yarbrough, Sr. According to George W. Yarbrough, a descendant, they moved to Fairfield Co., SC, where he died in 1816. Children: Jesse, Moses, Arthur, Thomas, Martha, Joseph, Richard and Nancy.

Micajah Yarbrough, son of Joshua and Sarah, received a warrant for 100 acres by improvement on branches of Mill Stone in Bute Co., NC, adjacent to his own line and his father Joshua Yarbrough's line on 24 Jan. 1778. On 10 Oct. 1783 he received a grant for 100 acres in Franklin Co., NC, on the waters of Sandy Creek. (Grant Book 52, p. 179) He was found in Franklin Co. as late as 1810. He had sons: Micajah, Jr., Joshua, Shadrick and perhaps others.

James Yarbrough, son of Joshua and Sarah, was last found in Bute Co. records in 1770. Evidence leads me to believe he is the James Yarbrough who in 1784 received a grant of 287½ acres in Franklin Co., Georgia, for Revolutionary War services. This James and his eldest son were killed by Indians not long after settling in Georgia. Heirs to his land, which we assume are his children, were: Groves, Joshua, Susanna, Mary, John, Jeremiah, Elizabeth and the wives of Anderson Berry and Jesse Bowden. The fact that one of his sons was named Joshua and that three Yarbroughs thought to be James's brother, Joshua, Jrs.'s sons--Gideon, Jeptha, and Benjamin joined the family in Franklin Co., GA, by 1804 convinces me that this James is indeed James, son of Joshua and Sarah.

JOSHUA YARBROUGH II

Joshua Yarbrough, Jr., the son of Joshua, Sr., and Sarah Yarbrough, was born by 1741 we are sure because he was listed as a tithable of his father in 1758 and he had to be over 16 to be taxable.

Joshua, Jr., was last found in Granville Co., NC, when he witnessed a deed for his father in 1764. He was next found witnessing a deed for Harvey Hargett 11 Oct. 1774 in Anson Co., NC. In 1778 he made entry for a land grant in Mecklenburg Co., NC, which lies next to Anson Co. Joshua ended up receiving the following grants in Mecklenburg Co., NC.

Grant 521, Book 53, p. 287, F 3426, 100 acres on the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek. Entry was made in 1779 and the grant issued 2 Nov. 1784. Chain bearers for the surveyor was Thomas Vinson and Benjamin Yarbrough.

Grant 891, Book 76, p. 218, F 3790, 150 acres on both sides of Onion Branch, a branch of Richardson Creek; entered 1778 and received 17 Nov. 1790. Chain bearers were James Nelms and Joshua Yarbrough.

Grant 123, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 400 acres lying on both sides of the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek; received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 75, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 200 acres on both sides of Phillips Spring Branch of Richardson Creek joining the place on which the said Joshua Yarbrough lives. Received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 1292 for 300 acres on the waters of Richardson Creek adjoining land of Edward Richardson, May Odom and Reubin Yarbrough; entered 1791 and issued 28 Aug. 1795 and surveyed 5 Dec. 1794 with H. Vinson and Reubin Yarbrough as chain bearers.

Grant 2133, Book 126, p. 38, 150 acres lying on the waters of Richardson Creek, including the plantation where Shem Yarbrough now lives; entered 21 Sept. 1810, issued 4 Dec. 1811.

Although there were thirty Yarbrough families in North Carolina in the 1790 census, Joshua Yarbrough was the only one listed as head of a household in Mecklenburg County. Besides himself, there were two boys over sixteen years of age, three under sixteen and one woman in the household. The woman is undoubtedly his wife whose name we haven't learned. Since very few North Carolina marriage records before 1800 are in existence, it is not surprising that Joshua's hasn't been found.

Nine Yarbrough families were found with Joshua in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census. He is now listed as Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., as he has a son Joshua, Jr. He is in the age group 45 and above. His wife was in the same age group and with them were two boys below 10, one in the age group 16-26, and two girls under 10. Other Yarbroughs listed as heads of households were: Charles, John, Joshua, Jr., Benjamin, Edmond, Gideon, Aptha, Rubin, and William. All were in the age group 26-45 except Joshua, Jr., and Gideon. They were between 16-26.

No proof has been found as to which of these Yarbroughs are sons of this Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., who will be referred to as Joshua II from now on to distinguish him from his father and son; however, since Joshua Yarbrough II's land all lay on Richardson Creek, and Reuben, Benjamin, Gideon, Jeptha, and Joshua III lived on the same creek and witnessed each other's deeds, it seems almost certain that at least they are his sons, although it is possible some of them may be his younger brothers.

By 1820 all of these Yarbroughs listed in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census had moved on to other newer lands. To aid future researchers, each will be discussed briefly.

Jeptha Yarbrough, born about 1763 in Granville Co., NC. His name was first found in the 1798 Tax List of Mecklenburg Co. North Carolina, which shows him with one white poll, no blacks and no land; futhermore, the land records don't show him receiving a land grant or buying any land. He did witness a deed in 1798 whereby Joshua, Sr., sold Gideon Yarbrough 200 acres on the north side of Onion Fork of Richardson Creek, and then in 1799 he witnessed the deed whereby Gideon sold the same 200 acres to Joshua Yarbrough, Jr.[25]

Jeptha moved from Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina, to Franklin Co., Georgia, soon after 1800. A deed dated 9 Apr. 1804 shows Jeptha Yarbour of Franklin Co., Georgia, buying 143 acres from Moses Allred. The land was located on Little Nails Creek of Hudson River in Franklin Co., GA, and was described as "land on which Jeptha Yarber now lives and adjoining his brother Gideon Yarber's land." (Deed Book PP, pages 23 and 33)

There were several other deeds for Jeptha in Franklin Co., Georgia. The last one dated 15 Apr. 1813 shows he had moved to Randolph Co., GA, and was selling the remainder of his Franklin Co., GA., land. This land is described as being adjacent Benjamin Yarbrough, so evidently Benjamin, Jeptha, and Gideon all moved to Franklin Co., Georgia, where James Yarbrough's family lived.

Later Jeptha was found in Jasper Co., Georgia, but by 1840 he had moved to Chambers Co., Alabama. In 1850 both he and his wife Nancy Ann were listed in the Chambers County census as being 78 years old. Jeptha was born in North Carolina and his wife was born in Georgia.

According to the family Bible of Franklin Yarbrough, Jeptha died 12 Nov. 1853 and Nancy Ann died 3 Apr. 1857. No proof of the names of their children has been found, but since their deaths were recorded in Franklin's Bible and they were listed together in the Chambers County, Alabama, census we assume Franklin is a son. Jeptha Yarbrough, Jr., and William Yarbrough were, also, listed in the same census and are probably sons too. Census records show Jeptha had at least 12 children, 8 sons and 4 daughters. Some researchers think Reuben Yarbrough listed in the 1850 Coosa Co., Alabama, census is, also, his son.

Gedion Yarbrough, born about 1780, NC (probably Mecklenburg Co.); had a wife and son in the 1800 census. He married second Nancy Scarbrough 20 Sept. 1810 in Burke Co., GA. A deed proves Gedion was in Franklin Co., GA, by 1804. By 1820 he was in St. Tammany Parish, LA, and was found in Washington Parish by 1830. Gideon fought in the War of 1812, being discharged in Mar. 1815 at New Orleans. On 6 June 1833 Gideon, at age 73, applied in Orleans Parish, LA, for bounty land. He died between then and 18 Sept. 1856, for on that date his wife Nancy of Washington Parish, LA, aged 66 years, applied for bounty land under the Act of 14 May 1856, as the widow of Gideon Yarbrough for his service in the war. In her application we learn the date of their marriage and that her maiden name was Nancy Scarbrough.

Benjamin Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co., NC, in 1794 when he made entry for a land grant for 50 acres which he received in 1802. He received another grant for 230 acres in 1799. Both tracts of land lay on the waters of Richardson Creek. (Bk. 100, p. 407)

As mentioned before Benjamin Yarbrough was in Franklin Co., GA, with Jeptha and Gideon. He was found in Washington Co., GA, in the 1820 census, and in 1830 he was listed as between 70 and 80 in Telfair Co., GA. This means he was born before 1760, so he may be the son of Joshua I and a brother to Joshua II. Evidently Benjamin married a daughter of William Vinson before 1797, for in his will Vinson named Benjamin Yarbrough's three children, Vinson Yarbrough, Susannah Yarbrough, and Eliza Mary Yarbrough. The will was dated 26 Sept. 1797. On 3 Oct. 1797 Benjamin married Miss Hartgrave (first name not given) in Mecklenburg Co.

Edmond Yarbrough made entry for a land grant of 188 acres on Adder branch of Waxhaw Creek, Mecklenburg Co., NC, in Aug. 1789. He received it 22 Nov. 1792. (Grant 991, Book 14, p. 342) He received another grant 8 May 1823. (Grant 2352, Book 17, P. 349) He moved to Perry Co., TN, before 1830. Later he was found in Decatur Co. which was made from Perry Co. His known children were: Aquila, Henry, James, William, Nancy, Joseph, and John H. Yarbrough. Wife was Sophia Goswick.

William Yarbrough witnessed two deeds for Joshua II--one when Joshua sold land to Reuben Yarbrough, and then when he sold land to Thomas Vincent. According to a descendant, the late Ida Walling, William was born about 1766 and married Rachael Shelby 1793, Mecklenburg Co. (No record found in the courthouse) and moved first to White Co., TN, and then to Hardeman Co., TN. Their known children: Sarah, Benjamin, Hampton, Jeptha, William, George, Hulda, John, Susanna, and Reuben.

Joshua III was found in the 1797 and 1798 Mecklenburg Co. Tax List. On 5 Dec. 1799 he purchased 200 acres of land "lying at the head of Joshua Yarborough, Seniors, Spring Branch and Meeting House Spring Branch which includes the plantation on which said Gedion Yarborough now lives." In the 1800 census Joshua, Jr. is listed as between 16 and 26, and his wife is in the same age group. Their son is under 10 years of age.

Joshua III left Mecklenburg Co., NC, and is found buying land in Chester Co., SC, in 1811. A deed dated Feb. 1812 proves his wife's name was Elizabeth. In 1824 Joshua sold the remainder of his land to his son Uriah and moved to Georgia. On 25 Jan. 1825 he bought land in Fayette Co., GA. Jepthah Yarbrough, J.P., was one of the witnesses. We know this is the same Joshua for it says Joshua Yarbrough of Chester Co., SC. (Fayette Co., GA, Deed Book A, page 316).

Joshua III died 1844 in Campbell Co., GA. By then he had married again for he names his wife Nancy Yarborough; sons: James, Joshua T., Thomas J., Uriah, Greenberry, George, Charles. Daughters: Elizabeth, Sarah, Elender, and ___?___ (illegible).

It is not known if Joshua II remained in Mecklenburg until his death or if he went with Joshua III to Chester Co., SC. In the 1810 census of Chester Co. a Jos. Yarbrough, Sr., and Jos. Yarbrough, Jr., were listed. The age groups were right to be Joshua II and Joshua III, but Jos. usually stands for Joseph; however, on checking the deed index I found no Joseph buying or selling land. Only one Joshua was listed in the 1820 Chester Co. Census, so what happened to Joshua II is a mystery.

Shadrack Yarbrough was not in the 1800 census, but he appeared on the 1799 Tax List. Since Joshua, Sr., had a boy at home between 16 and 26 in 1800 and also two boys and two girls below 10, it could be that Shadrack had lost his wife and was living with his parents. However he could have been a bachelor.

Shadrack made entry for land in Mecklenburg Co. 22 Feb. 1792 and received 200 acres on 12 Apr. 1798. (Grant Book 98, p. 68) The land was located on the waters of Richardsons Creek. He made another entry 2 Jan. 1793 and received 72 acres on waters of Cain Creek on 9 Mar. 1799. He received a third grant from the state for 200 acres on Richardson Creek on Dec. 22, 1800. On June 21, 1802 Shadrack sold 72 acres on Waxhaw Creek to Peter Presly.

Shadrack remained in Mecklenburg until after 1840. He undoubtedly died there, for the court records show Ezekiel and Micogen were appointed administrators of his estate in Mecklenburg Co.

Shem Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co. in 1798 when he witnessed a deed for Joshua, Sr., when he sold land to Gideon Yarbrough. For some reason Shem was also left off the 1800 census, but in 1810 he was listed as between 26 and 45 with one son and three daughters below ten years old. His wife was also between 26 and 45.

In 1810 Joshua Yarbrough made entry for 150 acres on Richardson Creek and received it 4 Dec. 1811. The land was described as "lying on the south side of Beaverdam Creek where Shem Yarborow now lives.

This is the last entry for Joshua Yarbrough and we wonder if this land was given to Shem, for Shem lived on in Mecklenburg County until after 1840. In 1850 he is listed in the Washington Co., TN, census with a wife Nelly. She is 76 and Shem is 75. Children listed are Eulin, 15; Polly, 12; Clinton, 11; Dicy, 8. Perhaps they are grandchildren since they are too old to have such young children. Listed next door is a Jeptha Yarborough, age 52, who was listed with Shem in the 1840 Mecklenburg Co. census. He has wife Elizabeth, 36; children, Alonza, 18; Francis M. 16; Talbot C., 14; Lucinda, 11; Middleton M., 6; Burt R., 3. Also listed with him is a William Yarbrough, 39, who was also in the 1840 Mecklenburg census.

REUBEN YARBROUGH, our ancestor, will be discussed in the next part.

REUBEN AND REBECCA YARBROUGH

The earliest record found so far for Reuben Yarbrough, our great great grandfather, was July 1788 when he witnessed a deed by which Joshua Yarbrough sold Thomas Vinson land in Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina.

In 1791 Reuben made an entry at the land office for a state land grant in Mecklenburg County. Two grants were issued--#1406 issued 12 April 1798 for 250 acres on both sides of Beaver Dam Fork of Richardson Creek. (Book 98, page 76.) The second grant was #1404 issued 12 April 1798 for 100 acres on the waters of Richardson Creek. (Book 98, page 74.)

A note dated 25 July 1797 was with the grant. It states, "Joshua Yarbrough and James Doster appeared in open court and made oath that they paid the purchase money for 350 acres of land into the Entry Takers office on behalf of Reuben Yarbrough." This convinced me that Joshua is indeed Reuben's father. Perhaps James Doster is his father-in-law.

Besides the 350 acres Reuben received in land grants, he purchased 250 acres from Joshua Yarbrough and 250 acres from John Hodges. All this land lay on Richardson Creek in Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina.

From deeds we know Reuben's wife was Rebecca, but since no marriage record has been found, her last name is unknown. Reuben wasn't listed in the 1790 census which is a puzzle because he was undoubtedly married before then, for the 1800 census shows him with two daughters over 10; three daughters under 10 and three sons under 10. Both Reuben and wife, Rebecca were listed as being between 26 and 45.

On 21 June 1802 both Reuben and Rebecca Yarbrough signed a deed selling Jacob Broom the 250 acres on Beaver Dam Fork of Richardson Creek which he had gotten as a land grant. Rebecca must have died sometime between the date of this deed and the 1810 census because there is not a female listed in her age group. Since there were five children under 10, we can assume she died of child birth as many women of those days did. The fact she didn't sign two other deeds Reuben made selling land in Mecklenburg Co. bears out the fact that she died. With the five children born between 1800 and 1810 added to the eight shown in the 1800 census makes thirteen children born to Reuben and wife.

In 1820 Rubin Yarber is found in Maury Co., TN, census. Either he had remarried or some of his married children or a housekeeper with children was living in the household for now there is a female over 45, three females 26-45, three females 16-25, one female 10-16, one male over 45, one male 26-45, two males 18-25, one male 16-18, two males 10-16, and one male under 10--a total of 16 in the household. That same year Reuben bought two tracts of land in Bedford Co., TN, where he was living when he sold the rest of his land in Mecklenburg Co., NC. Both deeds refer to him as Reuben Yarbrough of Bedford Co., TN, proving it is the same Reuben Yarbrough who formerly lived in Mecklenburg Co., NC.

It hasn't been determined the time nor mode of transportation Reuben used in moving from Mecklenburg Co., NC, to Maury Co., TN; however, according to FISHER SCRAPBOOK, Jacob Fisher who married Charlotte Yarbrough in Mecklenburg Co. came to Maury Co., TN, on a flat boat down the French Broad River in 1814. Evidence indicates Charlotte was a daughter of our Reuben instead of Joshua as suggested by the author of FISHER SCRAPBOOK. He gave her birth date as 1785, making her 15 in 1800. Reuben had a daughter in that age group in the 1800 census of Mecklenburg Co., while Joshua didn't. He had two females under 10 and one over 45 years of age.

Perhaps Reuben and family came to Tennessee on the flat boat with the Fisher family. On the other hand they may have come by ox-cart. In the Marysville, Kansas, Advocate, dated 11 June 1908, we find the obituary of Williamson F. Boyakin, whose mother was Millie Yarbrough. It states that the 100-year-old Boyakin had moved, at age one, with his parents from Anson Co., NC, to Maury Co., TN, in a caravan consisting of "100 two-wheeled carts of primitive construction, not a pound of iron being used in the whole outfit." The trip was made in 1807, so since Reuben was still in Mecklenburg County (which lies next to Anson Co.) until after 1810, he couldn't have gone on that trip, but perhaps there were other ox-cart caravans which made the same trip later.

Reuben Yarber was the only Yarbrough in the 1820 Maury Co., TN, census, but in 1830 he was listed in Bedford Co. census along with Joel, Sampson, and Jacob Yarbrough. In 1836 Marshall Co. was formed, taking in that part of Bedford County where the Yarbroughs lived, so in that county's first census of 1840, D. H. Yarboro, George Yarboro, Joel Yarboro, Ruben Yarboro and Sampson Yarboro were listed. This Ruben, however, wasn't Reuben, Sr. This Ruben was listed in the 20-30 age group. Reuben, Sr., is not listed. He is thought to be living in the household of D. H. Yarbrough for he has an elderly man living in his household. All the above mentioned Yarbroughs are thought to be sons of Reuben, Sr. By the census we know he had at least seven sons.

In the 1850 census (the first one in which wives and children are named) we find the families of George, Joel, Rheuben, Jr., and Doctor H. In this census the spelling was Yarbrow. Reuben, Sr., is living with the George Yarbrough family and is listed as age 83 and born in North Carolina. George, Joel, Rheuben, Jr., and Doctor H. were, also born in North Carolina.

Reuben, Sr., wasn't found in the 1860 census, so evidently he died between 1850 and 1860. No will or estate records have been found, probably because he had already disposed of all his property; therefore, we have no proof of the names of his children; however, in the biography of George Yarbrough's son, Jasper, found in Goodspeed's HISTORY OF MARSHALL COUNTY, TENNESSEE, we learn George's father had 14 children. Since census records show Reuben had at least 13 children (in 1820 there were 14, but he had a new wife so some of them may have been hers) and is the only Yarbrough living in the area who had that many children and the fact he was living in the household of George Yarbrough seems to be adequate proof he is the father of George Yarbrough, our great grandfather, and, also, the others listed with him in the census. Children of Reuben and Rebecca of which we are reasonably sure are:

I. CHARLOTTE YARBROUGH, born 1785 in North Carolina; married to Jacob Fisher about 1805, Mecklenburg Co., NC. They moved to Tennessee in 1814 and lived neighbors to Reuben Yarbrough in Maury and Bedford Counties. She died in 1822 in childbirth. Their children were:

A. John Fisher, born 17 Sept. 1806.
B. Rebecca Fisher, born 1808; married Moses Helm 1828; died 1887.
C. Fredrick Fisher, born 1810, died in Missouri.
D. George Washington Fisher, born 1812; married three times; lived in Verona, Marshall Co., TN.

I. Baby born and died in 1822. Charlotte also died giving birth to this baby.

Jacob Fisher remarried to Nancy Helms and they had eleven children, making a total of twenty children for Jacob.

II. SAMPSON YARBROUGH, born about 1794 in NC. His wife Rebecca was born 1804 in NC. Four children were listed with them in the 1850 census, but earlier census records show they had other children who had left home by 1850. The four children are:
A. Michael, born about 1832.
B. John, born about 1834.
C. Solomon, born about 1836.
D. Sarah R., born about 1839.

III. JACOB YARBROUGH, born between 1796 and 1799. He was living as neighbor to Reuben in the 1830 Bedford Co. census. He had a wife and four sons under 10. He wasn't in the 1840 TN census records.

IV. D. H. (DACTOR/DOCTOR) YARBROUGH, born about 1800, Mecklenburg Co., NC; married Tabitha Gibbons around 1830 probably in Bedford Co., TN. She was born about 1812 in TN. She is believed to be a daughter of Thomas Gibbons. (See Gibbons Section) Their known children are:

A. Franklin Yarbrough, born about 1833, Bedford Co., TN; married Nancy R. Preslor, 11 Mar. 1858. She died about 1877. They had two children: Nancy Rosanna and William Yarbrough.

They had a daughter Sadie Lee Dunlap, born 30 Aug. 1913, who married William Alma Wright, born 13 Dec. 1911. They had a son, Willie Lee Wright, born 14 Dec. 1938. It was he who helped me with the D. H. Yarbrough family.
4. John Marshall Houston, born 28 Feb. 1872.
C. Harry C. Yarbrough, born about 1836; married Elizabeth J. Houston, 25 Aug. 1857. He died during the Civil War. Children according to census records:
1. William H. Yarbrough, born about 1859.
2. Viola Yarbrough, born about 1861.
3. Thomas Yarbrough, born 1863.

Mrs. Annie Mai Yarbrough Kelley, a cousin of Harry Yarbrough, said he went to war when his son, Thomas, was three weeks old and never returned. His name (H. C. Yarbrough) is listed on the Marshall County, Tennessee, Honor Roll of the Civil War.

D. George T. Yarbrough, born in Marshall County, Tennessee, about 1840.

E. Joseph Smith Yarbrough, born 15 Aug. 1842, Marshall Co., Tennessee; married his first cousin, Eliza Ann Yarbrough, daughter of Joel and Nancy Yarbrough, 22 June 1871, Marshall Co., Tennessee. H.) married a second time to Elizabeth L. Epps, 29 Nov. 1857, Marshall Co., TN. She is listed as Louisa in the 1860 census. We assume Tabitha, Dactor's first wife, died between 1850 and 1857 for she was listed in the 1850 census.

V. JOEL YARBROUGH, born about 1802, Mecklenburg Co., NC; married Nancy Carter, daughter of Charles and Rachael Carter. Nancy was born about 1805 in NC. It is thought that both families moved to Maury Co., TN, before they married. Children born to Joel and Nancy Yarbrough are:

D. Joan P. Yarbrough, born 2 July 1832, Maury County, TN; married Daniel Y. McWhirter, 4 January 1849, Marshall County, Tennessee. Daniel, son of R. W. McWhirter and Sarah Fisher, was born 11 Jan. 1825, Maury Co., Tennessee. The family moved to Green County, Arkansas, between 1850 and 1860, then moved to Texas where he died 15 Dec. 1895 in Van Zandt County, Texas, and was buried in or near Wills Point, Van Zandt County. Daniel was a Methodist minister, and he was, also, a farmer and merchant. After the death of her husband, Joan went to be with some of her children in the Choctaw Nation, later Oklahoma. She died 13 Dec. 1899 in Rocky Point in what is now Latimer Co., Oklahoma. She was buried by her husband in or near Wills Point, Van Zandt County, Texas. Children born to this couple:

E. Elizabeth Yarbrough, born about 1835 in Tennessee

F. Fountain Yarbrough, born 17 June 1836; married 20 June 1854, William F. Lavender, Marshall County, Tennessee; died 3 July 1869 in childbirth; buried in old Lebanon Cemetery, Marshall County, Tennessee. William was born 1829; died 1879. He is buried by his wife in the Lebanon Cemetery. The only known child of the couple was a daughter Margaret who married a Chatman. She is also buried in the old Lebanon Cemetery with only a field stone as a marker. According to a relative, the couple, Fountain and William Lavender had a grandson named Dennis Lavender buried in the same cemetery, so apparently they had a son but his name is not known.

G. Demarius Yarbrough, born about 1838; married N. W. Farrar on 15 Nov. 1855. Children listed in the 1860 census of Marshall County, Tennessee were:
1. Sarah, born about 1857 in Marshall Co., TN.
2. Nancy Farrar, born about 1859 in Marshall Co., TN.

H. Joseph M. Yarbrough, born Mar. 1843; buried in old Lebanon Cemetery with a field stone as a marker. He never married.

I. Eliza Ann Yarbrough, born about 1845; married Joseph (J. S.) Yarbrough, a cousin, 22 June 1871, Marshall County, Tennessee. Joseph S., son of D. H. and Tabitha Gibbons Yarbrough, was born 15 Aug. 1842, Marshall Co., TN. Their descendants are listed with the Dactor Yarbrough family.

J. Rebecca E. Yarbrough, married Z. Spencer, 20 Oct. 1859 in Marshall Co., TN. She married second Thomas Wright. She is buried in old Lebanon Cemetery with a field stone as a marker.

R. M. McWhirter, 842 Wood River Rd, Dallas, Texas, was very helpful in that he furnished much of the information on the Joel Yarbrough family, especially the Daniel McWhirter and Joan Yarbrough family. Joe Meeks of Tulsa, also, helped.

*VI. GEORGE W. YARBROUGH, born 15 Feb. 1807, probably Mecklenburg County, North Carolina; married Nancy E. Gibbons, daughter of Thomas Gibbons, 24 July 1828; died 1878 in Marshall County, Tennessee. (Our great grandparents; details of their family in the next part.)

VII. REUBEN YARBROUGH, born 1810, North Carolina; married Jonah. Children listed in the 1850 Marshall County, Tennessee, census:
A. John Yarbrough, born about 1832 in Tennessee.
B. Martha D. Yarbrough, born about 1837 in Tennessee.

It should be re-emphasized that no actual proof has been found that the above are Reuben Yarbrough's children; however, there is enough evidence to convince me they are. The following may, also, be his children, but there is less evidence to support that theory.

VIII. James Yarbrough, married Elizabeth Fisher 9 June 1833. During the settlement of Fredrick Fisher's estate in 1934, James Yarbrough and wife received one bed and furniture valued at $20.00; one saddle at 17 dollars; and $10 cash. No further information.

IX. Polly Yarbrough, married Henry Thompson, 6 July 1820, Maury Co., TN. No further information found on this couple.

X. Rebecca Yarbrough, married Josiah Luallen, 24 Mar. 1813, Maury Co., TN. No further information.

XI. Chloe Yarbrough, married Benjamin Wright, 2 Dec. 1830. The fact that these last four Yarbroughs married in Maury County during the period that Reuben Yarbrough was living in that area is the only reason to think they might be his children; also, the fact that he had several grown daughters and sons in the 1820 census who were gone in 1830.

Below is the biography of Jasper Yarbrough found on page 1232 of the Goodspeed History of Marshall County, Tennessee, which is one of the reasons I feel sure that Reuben is the father of George Yarbrough.

JASPER A. YARBROUGH, register of Marshall County, is a son of George and Nancy E. (Gibbons) Yarbrough. The father was born in North Carolina and the mother in Tennessee. They were married in Tennessee, and their family consisted of ten children. Jasper's maternal grandparents had twenty-six children and his paternal had fourteen. Both our subject's parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The father was a well-to-do farmer and had the honor of furnishing three brave boys for the war, one of whom was killed. The father lived to be about seventy-six and the mother about seventy-four. Our subject, who was born November 7, 1839, in Marshall County, is a man three feet and nine and a half inches in height. He was reared on the farm and received a practical education in the common schools. Having picked up the shoe-maker's trade he worked at it for about eight years, besides teaching school. He was always a very handy workman and could make a suit of clothes, knit a pair of socks, or almost anything he turned his hand to. In 1874 he was elected register, and has held that position ever since with ability and to the satisfaction of the people. In 1881 he wedded Lizzie McKee. The fruits of this union were three children, two of whom are living. Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He has been a citizen of Marshall County for forty-six years. In politics he is a warm Democrat.

GEORGE W. YARBROUGH AND NANCY E. GIBBONS

George Yarbrough, born 15 Feb. 1807, NC; married Nancy E. Gibbons, daughter of Thomas Gibbons, 24 July 1828; died 1878, at age 71, Marshall County, Tennessee. Nancy was born 20 Apr. 1808, TN; died 1880, at age 72. (See Gibbons section.) They are both buried in the Ligget-Andrews Cemetery, Franklin Road, near Lewisburg, Marshall Co., TN.

The first time George's name appears in county records was when he witnessed a deed for his brother in 1826. Joel Yarbrough of Bedford Co., TN, was buying 50 acres from Fredrick Fisher of Maury Co. The land was described as being on the Sinking Branch of Rock Creek, on the south side of Duck River in Bedford County, Tennessee. (Book Y, page 253)

Two years later George and Nancy were married probably in Bedford County where the Yarbroughs lived or White County where the Gibbons lived at that time. Since both county's early marriage records have been destroyed, the only record found of their marriage was the family Bible records. Because of the loss of records it is difficult to document much of the Yarbrough information. No actual proof has been found that George was son of Reuben, but there seems little doubt for the following reasons:

The biography of George's son Jasper which appears in Goodspeed's HISTORY OF MARSHALL COUNTY, TENNESSEE states that Jasper's father was one of 14 children, and as stated previously, census records show Reuben as the only Yarbrough in the area with that many children. Then, too, a son was shown in Reuben's household in the age group in which George would be in every census until the time of George's marriage, then he was gone, but was listed as head of his own household in the same census with Reuben. The fact that Reuben was living with George's family in 1850, and both men were born in North Carolina seems to be conclusive evidence.

The first record we have of George buying land was in Marshall Co. when he bought 95 acres from his father-in-law, Thomas Gibbons, 18 Aug 1838. Both men were of Marshall Co., and the land was described as being on Rich Creek in Marshall County. D. H. Yarbrough was one of the witnesses. (Book B, page 301

From that date until his death in 1878, George had 15 land transactions in Marshall County. He was engaged in farming all his life; however, in the 1860 Marshall Co. census he was listed as a "common school teacher," so evidently he taught school some too. The Yarbrough family was a close neighbor to the Devin family, and James (Jimmy) Devin, when just a young boy, worked on the farm for George Yarbrough.

Three of George and Nancy's boys--John Fletcher, Rufus, and George W., Jr.--fought for the Confederacy. Rufus died in the conflict; yet if it caused the family to feel any bitterness toward the North, it wasn't passed on to their descendants. Perhaps it was because George and Nancy were devout Christians. They belonged to the Methodist Church. It is said that George wouldn't own slaves. He always said a person couldn't make any money on them if they were treated as they should be treated, and he wasn't about to treat them any other way.

In 1891 John, his wife, and eight children moved to Madison Co., AR, by covered wagons. Elvira's mother, brothers and sister came along with them in their own wagon. John's sister Martha Howell and husband were already living in Arkansas, so the Yarbrough family stayed with them until they could get settled in a home of their own. They traded the Howells a team for some land on which a log house was built and the two families lived neighbors for a number of years. Since both the Yarbroughs and Howells were good singers, they spent many hours singing gospel songs together.

John died 29 Dec. 1893 leaving his wife Elvira with several small children; however some of the boys were old enough to farm the land. Elvira died 4 Mar. 1914 with tuberculosis. Both she and John were buried in Big Sandy Cemetery, Madison Co., AR: Children born to John and Elvira:

TO THE READERS

Although much more research needs to be done, I feel that after ten years of using all the bits and pieces of time left over from working and living, it is time to insure the fruits of my labor do not mold away in some stored files should something unforeseen happen to me. Then, too, my older brothers and sisters have been urging me to get the history completed while they are still around to enjoy it. Three have already passed on since I began the project.

I have found genealogy very interesting and rewarding, similar to prospecting for gold. You know what you are looking for, but know only in a general way where to look. An obscure book in a library, a worn-out family Bible, a yellowed letter, or a query in a genealogical magazine may give the clue that leads to the genealogist's bonanza--a real break through. But again, like the prospector, the genealogist has more disappointments than happy surprises.

The search was made more difficult by the errors in records. Census records, given by persons who happened to be home when the census taker came, are full of inconsistencies. One year's census may give the person's birthplace as Tennessee, and the next one will give his place of birth and age completely different. Also the names were spelled in different ways. Then finding so much material without documentation was so frustrating, I have gone to great lengths to document as much of my information as was possible and reasonable by placing footnotes, not at the bottom of each page, but at the end of each part. The worst problem I encountered, however, was finding that the documents I needed had been lost by careless office workers or destroyed in a courthouse fire or by the Union soldiers when they took over the courthouses during the Civil War.

When I began this research, my mother had been dead nearly 20 years and my father 40. How I've regretted I wasn't interested in genealogy while they lived. They could have been so much help and would have enjoyed learning of their heritage. I never knew my grandparents, only one was living when I was born, and she died before I reached the age of two.

The research has been fun, especially making trips to the court houses, cemeteries, archives, and finding the home places. Reading reel after reel of microfilm was sometimes tedious and tiring, but even that was more enjoyable than trying to put the material compiled into acceptable book form--rewording and retyping page after page. I have tried to eliminate errors, but I'm sure some will be found. Please know that they were unintentional. If your family's records are not included, I'm sorry. I did my best. I had trouble locating some relatives and others failed to respond.

Since I'm not a very creative person, I have found wording the material so that you, the readers, will get a mental picture of these ancestors as they lived their lives to be the most difficult job of all. How much easier it would have been just to have given the bare essentials--names, dates, and the places--but then they would have been mere names on printed pages. I wanted you to see them as real people who lived and to get a glimpse of the times in which they lived. If I've succeeded in a small degree, I will be satisfied.

TO OUR ANCESTORS

This family history has been done as a tribute to you, our ancestors, for the part you played in shaping the destiny of our great country and the influence you have had and will continue to have on the lives of your descendants.

I found no royalty or men of fame among you. Wealth was not the heritage you left us--most of you were poor dirt farmers--yet you were the salt of the earth. You did your part in rolling back the frontiers and civilizing the wilderness.

Some of you gave your lives in defense of the country you loved; others gave up precious sons in the conflicts. You made sure our nation was founded on Christian, as well as democratic principles.

I wasn't privileged to know any of you personally except my mother and father, Martha Epps (Effie) Howell and James (Jimmy) Brown Devin, but their lives and teachings were a reflection of you, their ancestors. It was your training and example that molded them into honest upright citizens who became parents worthy of our love and respect.

The rest of you I have come to love as I traced your steps through the pages of time. At first you were merely a name on a pedigree chart, but then as I found through research the places you lived, the land you bought and sold, the battles in which you fought, and the children you bore, you came alive to me, and I had such a yearning to know more about you--to see the homes in which you lived, to walk on the soil you had tilled, and to find your final resting places.

My desire was realized with many of you. What an awesome feeling to stand by graves where you were laid to rest two hundred years ago, and viewing one ancestral home, still standing after nearly three hundred years, was a sacred time for me.

There were disappointments, however, for some cemeteries had been leveled for the advancement of civilization. Forgive us for not holding your final resting places so sacred this couldn't have ever happened.

You are not going to be portrayed as perfect. You were human, making mistakes as we do today; however, not a single incident has been found which caused me to hang my head in shame. I am proud to claim all of you as my own and to present you through the pages of this book to your other present and future descendants. May they come to know that you are more than names on printed pages. May they come to love and respect you as I have.

Arlene M. Weidinger of St. Louis, NYC director, writes: "the last issue of the newsletter was the best ever. I know it had to cost a fortune to have it printed and mailed. I hope the donations come pouring in. I paid for (NYC Family Tour to England) in full last August. I hope they pick up some more family members, because it will be a once in a lifetime trip."

Thanks so much for the Query Edition. I found a cousin with whom I share a ggg gf. She lived just 70 blocks from me! You're doing a super job! Thank you. Mary L. Durant, Portland, OR. (She included a generous check for INS-YFM. CHY)

JOSHUA YARBROUGH II

Joshua Yarbrough, Jr., the son of Joshua, Sr., and Sarah Yarbrough, was born by 1741 we are sure because he was listed as a tithable of his father in 1758 and he had to be over 16 to be taxable.

Joshua, Jr., was last found in Granville Co., NC, when he witnessed a deed for his father in 1764. He was next found witnessing a deed for Harvey Hargett 11 Oct. 1774 in Anson Co., NC. In 1778 he made entry for a land grant in Mecklenburg Co., NC, which lies next to Anson Co. Joshua ended up receiving the following grants in Mecklenburg Co., NC.

Grant 521, Book 53, p. 287, F 3426, 100 acres on the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek. Entry was made in 1779 and the grant issued 2 Nov. 1784. Chain bearers for the surveyor was Thomas Vinson and Benjamin Yarbrough.

Grant 891, Book 76, p. 218, F 3790, 150 acres on both sides of Onion Branch, a branch of Richardson Creek; entered 1778 and received 17 Nov. 1790. Chain bearers were James Nelms and Joshua Yarbrough.

Grant 123, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 400 acres lying on both sides of the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek; received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 75, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 200 acres on both sides of Phillips Spring Branch of Richardson Creek joining the place on which the said Joshua Yarbrough lives. Received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 1292 for 300 acres on the waters of Richardson Creek adjoining land of Edward Richardson, May Odom and Reubin Yarbrough; entered 1791 and issued 28 Aug. 1795 and surveyed 5 Dec. 1794 with H. Vinson and Reubin Yarbrough as chain bearers.

Grant 2133, Book 126, p. 38, 150 acres lying on the waters of Richardson Creek, including the plantation where Shem Yarbrough now lives; entered 21 Sept. 1810, issued 4 Dec. 1811.

Although there were thirty Yarbrough families in North Carolina in the 1790 census, Joshua Yarbrough was the only one listed as head of a household in Mecklenburg County. Besides himself, there were two boys over sixteen years of age, three under sixteen and one woman in the household. The woman is undoubtedly his wife whose name we haven't learned. Since very few North Carolina marriage records before 1800 are in existence, it is not surprising that Joshua's hasn't been found.

Nine Yarbrough families were found with Joshua in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census. He is now listed as Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., as he has a son Joshua, Jr. He is in the age group 45 and above. His wife was in the same age group and with them were two boys below 10, one in the age group 16-26, and two girls under 10. Other Yarbroughs listed as heads of households were: Charles, John, Joshua, Jr., Benjamin, Edmond, Gideon, Jeptha, Rubin, and William. All were in the age group 26-45 except Joshua, Jr., and Gideon. They were between 16-26.

Notice--meeting next sabbath at NEBO CHURCH, Prayer meeting at this church every second Sun. in each month.

Saturday, March 1848;
Bro. Isaac Muse, administrating; divine services commenced by singing a Hymn #117 of Millers Selection--"Mourning sinners now, etc. etc.--Prayer by Bro. Meuse. Text 3rd chapt. Jonah--2nd verse, "Arise and go into Ninevah that great city and preach etc, etc;--when concluded, opened the door of the church for any and all who might wish to enter, either by relating their experience, Restoration, etc, etc; whilst singing a Hymn page 397, of Millers selections, "And can my soul aspire so high, etc etc"--NANCY COX, presented a letter from the Church of Christ at SOCIETY HILL, Lawrence County, State of Miss; dated 24th Octr. 1846. The opportunity for mourners or otherwise was prolonged, during singing, another hymn of MILLERS SELECTIONS, page 597--no more presenting themselves the opportunity closed for the day--the right hand of fellowship was given SISTER COX, and all the priviledges of the church.
The church went into conference--Bro THOMAS MAPES who had been waited upon by a committee, for the purpose of enquiring if his previous non-attendance was occasioned by anything the church, unwaringly by its members might have done, so as to hurt his feelings, etc, etc; was himself present--who openly declared, That his absence was in no wise other than that business he was obliged to attend to had prevented him from being at church conferences; the times alluded to by the committee. The committee who upon Bro. MAPES had made no official report, as they were detained at home, by sickness in their families. BRO. MAPES, ingenious, frank avowal of the cause of his absence--was very satisfactory to the church---The case of BRO. JAMES OLIPHANT in reference from last conference--the committee having made no report; moved by BRO. ISAAC ENNIS, seconded by JOHN SCARLE, that this conference adjourn until tomorrow at 11 o'clock A.M. BRO. MAPES, enquired if the case of BRO OLIPHANT could not now be discussed, examined etc. etc.--The moderator explained that no report had been made--and a move to adjourn had been seconded--the church could now debate openly upon the propriety of examining the case now--or leaving it

Georgia Land Lottery of 1827 - Yarbrough

Contrary to an erroneus opinion held by many genealogist's all of Georgia's six land lotteries were NOT held for the purpose of granting land to Revolutionary veterans. The 1805, 1807, and 1821 Land Lotteries did not even mention military veterans. Only the 1820, 1827 and 1832 Lotteries gave any special consideration to veterans of wars.

R.S. or "Rev. Sol." are shown after the name of the Revolutionary veterans, and that notation is all that is shown in the grant to that person. "Sol." also means soldier but the Surveyor General Department does not have information to tell in which war the soldier served.

Persons who registered to draw in their county of residence had only to take an ORAL oath as to their eligibility. Thus, the Georgia Surveyor General Department has no applications or other written records as to what the registrant said about himself, his family, birthplace, age or his military service.

Dilcy, daughter of (illegible) Y. B. July 2, 1809.
Joseph, son of Benjamin Y. Born, April 3, 1799.

Milly Yarborough, then residing in Chatham County, N. C., made an affidavit in 1833 that she was a sister of Nathan Y. and his brother Benjamin, who also served in the Revolution, with Joseph Y., another brother. Jeremiah Yarborough, also testified in 1833 that he was then 73 and a younger brother of Nathan. No record of service for Joseph, Jeremiah or Benjamin.

John Yarborough (R 11925) wife Joanna, nee Chambers. Married to John in Wake Co. near the close of the Revolution. No documentary papers found to substantiate her claim (she was born about 1758 or '59) for a pension for the services of her husband. The following condensed facts were brought out in the affidavits of Henry H. Yarborough, John Spoon, Sarah McCaskill, John Mannison and others: That Henry was her son; that she was then residing in Montgomery Co. near the Wake Co. line and that she was born about 1758 or '59. The date of these affidavits was the 28th of Mar. 1856. She died in Montgomery Co., N. C. 29 Mar. 1850, being then nearly 100 years of age. John died in Chatham Co. in 1818. His wife at the time of her affidavits was supported by her children and a small appropriation made by Montgomery Co. Henry H. Yarborough deposed that his father John had told him that he, John, was in the Battle of Blackwater Bridge on the Cape Fear River not far from Fayetteville; that he fired many rounds in that battle and was not wounded though some of his comrades were wounded and others killed; that he also fought against the forces of Archibald Clark, a Tory leader and saw Clark fall shot through the body; that he saw Clark's sister, Sally, remove him from the field to their home where she nursed him back to health. The following children were born to John and his wife: William, Joel, Mary, Fannie, Henry H. and Betsy (all of these were living in 1856): John, who died prior to his mother; Larkin, Wilson, and Sally. These last 3 left the State years prior to 1856 and nothing has been heard from them since their departure. Her application for a pension denied, she died penniless, but recognized as the legal widow of a soldier who had marched barefoot, hungry and in rags, fighting to make free the land wherin some petty clerk maybe of foreign birth or parentage, marked the claim "Rejected' more proof needed."

Edward Yarborough, W — born in Va., place and date not shown. Entered military service in 1777. Commissioned Lt. on April 16 of that year. In Capt. Turner's Co., 3rd N. C. Infantry, Continental Line, commanded by Col. Jethro Summers. Promoted to Capt. 1779. Discharged Jan. 1, 1783. He was then in command of the Barracks in Salisbury. Removed to Salisbury soon after the close of the Revolution. His death occurred in 1803. He was most prominent in both war and peace and was a member of the "Society of Cincinnati," organized by Gen. George Washington. He was married to Sarah Marshall April 7, or 8, 1788. The marriage bond was signed by James McEwen and recorded in the Clerk's Office, Rowan County. Sarah Marshall Y. died in Salisbury, N. C., Jan. 11, 1839, aged 69 years. The children of this couple were:

Edward, residing in Salisbury in 1839. Removed to Feyetteville in 1840 and to Raleigh in 1842.

Nancy or Ann, wife of Wm. Beatty, residing in Yorkville, S. C. 1840.

Sarah Long. Died prior to 1838.

Mary L., wife of Richard Long, residing in Raleigh, N. C. in 1
She was then 35 years of age.

Some years after the death of their mother, the arrears of (pension) due Capt. Y., in the amount of $2,400, was paid to the s viving children, viz: Edward, Nancy Beatty and Mary L. Capt. Y. granted 300 acres of land (bounty) in 1790, but all papers relating the are missing. There are many interesting original documents in pension file of Capt. Yarborough. It appears that his brothers served in the Revolution, but there is no record of them other than mentioned.

Henry Yarborough, Sr., S 1607. Born in Butte (now Franklin) N. C. in 1761 or '62. He was the son of Zachariah Y. His mother's nam not known. Removed with his father to Randolph Co., N. C. about outbreak of the Revolution. Volunteers for service in 1778 or '79. Ser six months in a "company of horse," commanded by Capts. Fuller, Willia and Knight. His command spent several months in S. C. He particip ed in an engagement at Hugeley's Mill, S. C., where the Tories, unaware the strength of the Americans, were forced to surrender to the Americ being overawed by pine logs painted to resemble cannon. Was als participant in numerous skirmishes with the enemy, mostly Tories Indians, who infested the Back Country, which was the western bor of the two Carolinas. Life was very hard in those days. Henry rela that at times he had "to lay out in the woods," as the danger from Tories was too great for him to sleep at home. He removed fr Randolph County to Tipton County, Tennessee, in 1823. He was awa ed, in 1831, a pension of $25.00 per annum.

David Yarborough S—1606. Born in Anson County, N. C. ab 1760. Entered the services of volunteers from Randolph County ir regiment commanded by Col. Samuel Lytle. His Capt. was Wm. Ly His regiment rendezvoused at Hillsboro, where Capt. Lytle resigned was succeeded by Capt. Nilson. David's command marched from Hi boro to Charlotte, and then to Camden, S. C., and then to Ashley F about 10 miles from Charleston.

From this station he marched to Wilmington, N. C., where was furloughed and not again called into service. He was living Stewart Count, Tenn., in Sept. 1832. He at this time applied for a Fede pension which was granted to him in the amount of $20.00 per annum. appears to have been a brother of Nathan Yarborough whose record already been given.

JOSHUA YARBROUGH II

Joshua Yarbrough, Jr., the son of Joshua, Sr., and Sarah Yarbrough, was born by 1741 we are sure because he was listed as a tithable of his father in 1758 and he had to be over 16 to be taxable.

Joshua, Jr., was last found in Granville Co., NC, when he witnessed a deed for his father in 1764. He was next found witnessing a deed for Harvey Hargett 11 Oct. 1774 in Anson Co., NC. In 1778 he made entry for a land grant in Mecklenburg Co., NC, which lies next to Anson Co. Joshua ended up receiving the following grants in Mecklenburg Co., NC.

Grant 521, Book 53, p. 287, F 3426, 100 acres on the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek. Entry was made in 1779 and the grant issued 2 Nov. 1784. Chain bearers for the surveyor was Thomas Vinson and Benjamin Yarbrough.

Grant 891, Book 76, p. 218, F 3790, 150 acres on both sides of Onion Branch, a branch of Richardson Creek; entered 1778 and received 17 Nov. 1790. Chain bearers were James Nelms and Joshua Yarbrough.

Grant 123, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 400 acres lying on both sides of the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek; received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 75, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 200 acres on both sides of Phillips Spring Branch of Richardson Creek joining the place on which the said Joshua Yarbrough lives. Received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 1292 for 300 acres on the waters of Richardson Creek adjoining land of Edward Richardson, May Odom and Reubin Yarbrough; entered 1791 and issued 28 Aug. 1795 and surveyed 5 Dec. 1794 with H. Vinson and Reubin Yarbrough as chain bearers.

Grant 2133, Book 126, p. 38, 150 acres lying on the waters of Richardson Creek, including the plantation where Shem Yarbrough now lives; entered 21 Sept. 1810, issued 4 Dec. 1811.

Although there were thirty Yarbrough families in North Carolina in the 1790 census, Joshua Yarbrough was the only one listed as head of a household in Mecklenburg County. Besides himself, there were two boys over sixteen years of age, three under sixteen and one woman in the household. The woman is undoubtedly his wife whose name we haven't learned. Since very few North Carolina marriage records before 1800 are in existence, it is not surprising that Joshua's hasn't been found.

Nine Yarbrough families were found with Joshua in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census. He is now listed as Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., as he has a son Joshua, Jr. He is in the age group 45 and above. His wife was in the same age group and with them were two boys below 10, one in the age group 16-26, and two girls under 10. Other Yarbroughs listed as heads of households were: Charles, John, Joshua, Jr., Benjamin, Edmond, Gideon, Jeptha, Rubin, and William. All were in the age group 26-45 except Joshua, Jr., and Gideon. They were between 16-26.

tithes on his sons, Joshua, Jr., and Micajah. In 1766 he lists James as his son on the tax list. Tithes had to be paid on sons beginning at age 16. We know from the tax lists that Joshua had at least three sons.

Joshua, Sr., received two land grants in Granville County in 1761. Grant #116 was issued 29 July 1761 for 700 acres on the south side of Shocco Creek. (Book 14, p. 109) Grant #156 was issued 5 Dec. 1761 for 700 acres on both sides of Mill Stone run. (Book 14, p. 109) Samuel Yarbrough, also, received a land grant for 260 acres in 1760. John, Manoah, and Henry Yarbrough bought land in Granville Co. before 1760. Manoah was, also, listed in the tax list as son of Thomas Yarbrough.

Soon after getting his grants, Joshua began selling tracts of land from it. Sept. 5, 1761, he sold Thomas Davis 379 acres on Shocco Creek. March 28, 1763, he sold Joshua Nelms 250 acres on Millstone River. On 23 Jan. 1764 he sold his son Micajah Yarbrough 150 acres on Sliding Rock Branch on John Yarbrough's line. Joshua, Jr., witnessed this deed.[23]

In 1764 Bute Co. was formed from that part of Granville County where the Yarbroughs lived and in 1766 Joshua sold 280 acres more of his land to Eley Eley with Green Hill, Manoah Yarbrough and James Yarbrough as witnesses. Then on 3 Aug. 1766 he sold 120 acres where he lived to Green Hill. Eley Eley and Micajah Yarbrough were witnesses.[24] I feel that these to whom he sold land were his sons-in-law or grandsons.

In the 1771 tax list of Bute Co., NC, the following were listed: James Yarbrough, 1 poll; Henry Yarbrough, Jr., 1; Richard Yarbrough, 1; Henry Yarbrough, 6; Micajah Yarbrough, 1; James Yarbrough, 1; Joshua, 2; Zachariah, 1. Yarbroughs found in other records of Granville and Bute Counties which haven't been mentioned were: Littleton Yarbrough, John and wife Elizabeth, Martha wife of Henry Yarbrough, Thomas and Charles.

Except for the three children already mentioned--Joshua, Jr., James, and Micajah--we aren't sure how Joshua is related to the others. Some may, also, be his children; others may be brothers; at least, they must all be closely related, so we've tried to learn something about each of them.

An article on the Yarbrough family, printed in the Lexington, NC, Dispatch, January 5, 1898 states: "Between the years 1729 and 1775, seven brothers of Yarbroughs (from Amelia Co., VA) moved to Louisburg, Franklin Co., North Carolina. Their names were Zachariah, Archibald, Manoah, Alexander, Thomas, Henry, and John." Since over a hundred years had passed between the migration of Yarbroughs and the publication of the article, we must view the story as family legend and probably not completely accurate.

True we have convincing evidence that Zachariah, Manoah, John and Thomas are brothers and all four names are found in Granville and Bute County records; however, the Thomas found in Granville Co. wasn't the brother Thomas. As mentioned before their brother Thomas left a will in Amelia County. Furthermore tax records list Thomas Yarbrough of Granville County as father of Manoah, so that proves an error. Also neither Alexander nor Archibald have been found in the early records of these counties, but Joshua was there and I can't help believing he was one of the brothers.

and was found in Washington Parish by 1830. Gideon fought in the War of 1812, being discharged in Mar. 1815 at New Orleans. On 6 June 1833 Gideon, at age 73, applied in Orleans Parish, LA, for bounty land. He died between then and 18 Sept. 1856, for on that date his wife Nancy of Washington Parish, LA, aged 66 years, applied for bounty land under the Act of 14 May 1856, as the widow of Gideon Yarbrough for his service in the war. In her application we learn the date of their marriage and that her maiden name was Nancy Scarbrough.

Benjamin Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co., NC, in 1794 when he made entry for a land grant for 50 acres which he received in 1802. He received another grant for 230 acres in 1799. Both tracts of land lay on the waters of Richardson Creek. (Bk. 100, p. 407)

As mentioned before Benjamin Yarbrough was in Franklin Co., GA, with Jeptha and Gideon. He was found in Washington Co., GA, in the 1820 census, and in 1830 he was listed as between 70 and 80 in Telfair Co., GA. This means he was born before 1760, so he may be the son of Joshua I and a brother to Joshua II. Evidently Benjamin married a daughter of William Vinson before 1797, for in his will Vinson named Benjamin Yarbrough's three children, Vinson Yarbrough, Susannah Yarbrough, and Eliza Mary Yarbrough. The will was dated 26 Sept. 1797. On 3 Oct. 1797 Benjamin married Miss Hartgrave (first name not given) in Mecklenburg Co.

Edmond Yarbrough made entry for a land grant of 188 acres on Adder branch of Waxhaw Creek, Mecklenburg Co., NC, in Aug. 1789. He received it 22 Nov. 1792. (Grant 991, Book 14, p. 342) He received another grant 8 May 1823. (Grant 2352, Book 17, P. 349) He moved to Perry Co., TN, before 1830. Later he was found in Decatur Co. which was made from Perry Co. His known children were: Aquila, Henry, James, William, Nancy, Joseph, and John H. Yarbrough. Wife was Sophia Goswick.

William Yarbrough witnessed two deeds for Joshua II--one when Joshua sold land to Reuben Yarbrough, and then when he sold land to Thomas Vincent. According to a descendant, the late Ida Walling, William was born about 1766 and married Rachael Shelby 1793, Mecklenburg Co. (No record found in the courthouse) and moved first to White Co., TN, and then to Hardeman Co., TN. Their known children: Sarah, Benjamin, Hampton, Jeptha, William, George, Hulda, John, Susanna, and Reuben.

Joshua III was found in the 1797 and 1798 Mecklenburg Co. Tax List. On 5 Dec. 1799 he purchased 200 acres of land "lying at the head of Joshua Yarborough, Seniors, Spring Branch and Meeting House Spring Branch which includes the plantation on which said Gedion Yarborough now lives." In the 1800 census Joshua, Jr. is listed as between 16 and 26, and his wife is in the same age group. Their son is under 10 years of age.

Joshua III left Mecklenburg Co., NC, and is found buying land in Chester Co., SC, in 1811. A deed dated Feb. 1812 proves his wife's name was Elizabeth. In 1824 Joshua sold the remainder of his land to his son Uriah and moved to Georgia. On 25 Jan. 1825 he bought land in Fayette Co., GA. Jepthah Yarbrough, J.P., was one of the witnesses. We know this is the same Joshua for it says Joshua Yarbrough of Chester Co., SC. (Fayette Co., GA, Deed Book A, page 316).

The witness to the deed Peter Harris died, the widow Harris nee Susannah Hartgrove married Samuel Kuykendall on 12 Feb 1791 in Lincoln County, N.C. Her second husband, Samuel Kuykendall died 16 Nov 1810 in York County, S.C.

These records in various places yet Yarborough and Kuykendall, each married to a Hartgrove woman, may have lived as neighbors and continuous owners of acreage in the area known as old Tryon County, N.C. Boundaries were changed, new counties formed, but the location may have remained the same.

The Georgia State archives supplies information on Yarborough marriages. Stephen Yarborough married Miss Elizabeth Phelps in Eaton, Georgia, on march 15, 1810; James Yarborough married Miss Mary Dixon at the same location in the same year, and these couples secured land grants(headright grants) in the Felicianas in Louisiana in 1812.

Lewis Yarborough, who married Miss Elizabeth Garrett of South Carolina, was 1,000 acres by the Spanish Governor C. de Grandpre on December 31, 1806. His grant was surveyed by JC. Kneeland and certified by V.S.

Georgia State archives and history, atlanta, georgia.
American state papers, Vol. 3,p.64

Pintado as correct. Abstract of certificates entered with the registrar of the land office , west of pearl river, was based on british ans spanish patents. the c### claims were recognized as valid and finally confirmed by the U.S. government on March 3, 1819.

Lewis Yarborough, who also received a revolutionary land grant in district 96 South Carolina #### along the Savannah River, evidently left South Carolina and made his home in Tennessee. His widow, Elizabeth Garrett Yarborough, filed application in 1851 for revolutionary grant from the state of Tennessee.

Other interesting facts reflected in georgia state archives were the following marriage records listed in the Jackson County, Georgia files: Milly Yarboroggh married Joel Culpepper on Dec. 25, 1823; Jonathan Yarborough married Delilah Abner on Dec. 27, 1830; Mary Yarborough married Coleman Watkins in Oct. 1831; Hardy Yarborough married Rachel Yarboroogh (a cousin) on Nov. 17, 1831.

Marriages listed above are ones for children of Joseph and Elizabeth Yarborough, Jackson County , Georgia.

Like many other pioneeers of their day, William and Rebecca Yarborough with with their three small sons left Georgia and followed a westward courese into Mississippi. There in a lovely section known as China Grove, they established their new home. Into that house were born the remaninder of their fourteen children. ..... In 1859 it was from this home at china Grove,Miss. that William Yarborough was buried. His grave was marked as directed that it be in the will of Nancy Yarboroough. It is believed that his body was placed to rest beside those of his parents, William Yarborough and charlotte Burnes Yarborough. .....

The several generations of Yarboroughs who are descendents of the orginal William Yarborough who died in virginia in 1748, are:

William Yarborough (? -1748)
Eleanor

William Yarborough ?m - 11/18/1771
Janney

William Yarborough 1753-1831
Charlotte Burnes

William Yarborough 1788-1853
Rebecca Clarke 1797-1875

Generally serious mined, quiet, and intelligent, the American Yarboroughs have been prominient in professional and agricultural #### pursuits. ...

Members of the Yarborough family whose names appear in the records of the Colonial forces during the revolutionary war are Capt#ain Edmund Yarborough of North Carolina, William and Lewis Yarborough of South Carolina, Leitenanat charles Yarborough; Elisha Yarborough; Joel Yarborough; John Yarborough; Sargeant Joseph Yarborough; Richard Yarborough; and Captain Thomas Yarborough.

According to family tradition:
Vincent (? Joseph) Yarborough was born in South Carolina (? Chester Co.) and died there in 1844. His widow (? Prudence Elder (Grier) Robinson) two sons (William Mansfield and "Jim" (?James Robinson) and one daughter started west in 1853. One of the sons got pneumonia, so the family stopped in Atlanta, Ga. There the mother also got pneumonia and died. The son survived. The two brothers and sister continued west. William Mansfield settled in Miss., one person went to Arkansas and the other went on to Texas.

There is listed at the Recorder's office, in Delphi, Ind., where Samuel W. Allen paid $5,000 for some land from Josiah Ball and Mary Ann Ball (his wife's parents) in 1878. This is in Book 16, Page 340.
Also at the Recorder's office in Delphi it is recorded that Samuel W. Allen and Josephine Allen sold property. This property was the East half of SE¼ of Section 18, Township 24.

and was found in Washington Parish by 1830. Gideon fought in the War of 1812, being discharged in Mar. 1815 at New Orleans. On 6 June 1833 Gideon, at age 73, applied in Orleans Parish, LA, for bounty land. He died between then and 18 Sept. 1856, for on that date his wife Nancy of Washington Parish, LA, aged 66 years, applied for bounty land under the Act of 14 May 1856, as the widow of Gideon Yarbrough for his service in the war. In her application we learn the date of their marriage and that her maiden name was Nancy Scarbrough.

Benjamin Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co., NC, in 1794 when he made entry for a land grant for 50 acres which he received in 1802. He received another grant for 230 acres in 1799. Both tracts of land lay on the waters of Richardson Creek. (Bk. 100, p. 407)

As mentioned before Benjamin Yarbrough was in Franklin Co., GA, with Jeptha and Gideon. He was found in Washington Co., GA, in the 1820 census, and in 1830 he was listed as between 70 and 80 in Telfair Co., GA. This means he was born before 1760, so he may be the son of Joshua I and a brother to Joshua II. Evidently Benjamin married a daughter of William Vinson before 1797, for in his will Vinson named Benjamin Yarbrough's three children, Vinson Yarbrough, Susannah Yarbrough, and Eliza Mary Yarbrough. The will was dated 26 Sept. 1797. On 3 Oct. 1797 Benjamin married Miss Hartgrave (first name not given) in Mecklenburg Co.

Edmond Yarbrough made entry for a land grant of 188 acres on Adder branch of Waxhaw Creek, Mecklenburg Co., NC, in Aug. 1789. He received it 22 Nov. 1792. (Grant 991, Book 14, p. 342) He received another grant 8 May 1823. (Grant 2352, Book 17, P. 349) He moved to Perry Co., TN, before 1830. Later he was found in Decatur Co. which was made from Perry Co. His known children were: Aquila, Henry, James, William, Nancy, Joseph, and John H. Yarbrough. Wife was Sophia Goswick.

William Yarbrough witnessed two deeds for Joshua II--one when Joshua sold land to Reuben Yarbrough, and then when he sold land to Thomas Vincent. According to a descendant, the late Ida Walling, William was born about 1766 and married Rachael Shelby 1793, Mecklenburg Co. (No record found in the courthouse) and moved first to White Co., TN, and then to Hardeman Co., TN. Their known children: Sarah, Benjamin, Hampton, Jeptha, William, George, Hulda, John, Susanna, and Reuben.

Joshua III was found in the 1797 and 1798 Mecklenburg Co. Tax List. On 5 Dec. 1799 he purchased 200 acres of land "lying at the head of Joshua Yarborough, Seniors, Spring Branch and Meeting House Spring Branch which includes the plantation on which said Gedion Yarborough now lives." In the 1800 census Joshua, Jr. is listed as between 16 and 26, and his wife is in the same age group. Their son is under 10 years of age.

Joshua III left Mecklenburg Co., NC, and is found buying land in Chester Co., SC, in 1811. A deed dated Feb. 1812 proves his wife's name was Elizabeth. In 1824 Joshua sold the remainder of his land to his son Uriah and moved to Georgia. On 25 Jan. 1825 he bought land in Fayette Co., GA. Jepthah Yarbrough, J.P., was one of the witnesses. We know this is the same Joshua for it says Joshua Yarbrough of Chester Co., SC. (Fayette Co., GA, Deed Book A, page 316).

Joshua III died 1844 in Campbell Co., GA. By then he had married again for he names his wife Nancy Yarborough; sons: James, Joshua T., Thomas J., Uriah, Greenberry, George, Charles. Daughters: Elizabeth, Sarah, Elender, and ___?___ (illegible).

It is not known if Joshua II remained in Mecklenburg until his death or if he went with Joshua III to Chester Co., SC. In the 1810 census of Chester Co. a Jos. Yarbrough, Sr., and Jos. Yarbrough, Jr., were listed. The age groups were right to be Joshua II and Joshua III, but Jos. usually stands for Joseph; however, on checking the deed index I found no Joseph buying or selling land. Only one Joshua was listed in the 1820 Chester Co. Census, so what happened to Joshua II is a mystery.

Shadrack Yarbrough was not in the 1800 census, but he appeared on the 1799 Tax List. Since Joshua, Sr., had a boy at home between 16 and 26 in 1800 and also two boys and two girls below 10, it could be that Shadrack had lost his wife and was living with his parents. However he could have been a bachelor.

Shadrack made entry for land in Mecklenburg Co. 22 Feb. 1792 and received 200 acres on 12 Apr. 1798. (Grant Book 98, p. 68) The land was located on the waters of Richardsons Creek. He made another entry 2 Jan. 1793 and received 72 acres on waters of Cain Creek on 9 Mar. 1799. He received a third grant from the state for 200 acres on Richardson Creek on Dec. 22, 1800. On June 21, 1802 Shadrack sold 72 acres on Waxhaw Creek to Peter Presly.

Shadrack remained in Mecklenburg until after 1840. He undoubtedly died there, for the court records show Ezekiel and Micogen were appointed administrators of his estate in Mecklenburg Co.

Shem Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co. in 1798 when he witnessed a deed for Joshua, Sr., when he sold land to Gideon Yarbrough. For some reason Shem was also left off the 1800 census, but in 1810 he was listed as between 26 and 45 with one son and three daughters below ten years old. His wife was also between 26 and 45.

In 1810 Joshua Yarbrough made entry for 150 acres on Richardson Creek and received it 4 Dec. 1811. The land was described as "lying on the south side of Beaverdam Creek where Shem Yarborow now lives.

This is the last entry for Joshua Yarbrough and we wonder if this land was given to Shem, for Shem lived on in Mecklenburg County until after 1840. In 1850 he is listed in the Washington Co., TN, census with a wife Nelly. She is 76 and Shem is 75. Children listed are Eulin, 15; Polly, 12; Clinton, 11; Dicy, 8. Perhaps they are grandchildren since they are too old to have such young children. Listed next door is a Jeptha Yarborough, age 52, who was listed with Shem in the 1840 Mecklenburg Co. census. He has wife Elizabeth, 36; children, Alonza, 18; Francis M. 16; Talbot C., 14; Lucinda, 11; Middleton M., 6; Burt R., 3. Also listed with him is a William Yarbrough, 39, who was also in the 1840 Mecklenburg census.

REUBEN YARBROUGH, our ancestor, will be discussed in the next part.

Charles Stetson Pate was born in Jan., 1894 and died in Aug., 1894.

ALBERT PEACOCK

Albert Peacock, son of Patience Martin and Barney Peacock, was born in Wayne County, North Carolina, October, 1826. His nurse persisted in calling the baby "The Little Prince of Wales," so his name was Albert, for the Albert who was at that time the real Prince of Wales.

Albert married Virginia O'Berry in 1859 and they were the parents of three children, two of whom died in infancy. He was among the first of the "Tar-heels" to come to South Georgia into the "Piney-Woods" section, which was then considered a wilderness. It took indomitable courage. This was pioneer work, an experiment which was undertaken with limited means. He first went to a place called "Burnt Fort," near the present town of Folkston and operated what is thought to be the first turpentine still in the state. The trees were there in abundance, but he found that the river was often not navigable and he was not able to ship his product to Brunswick, as he had planned. There was nothing to do but abandon his project. When War between the States broke out, Albert at once joined the Confederate forces in Georgia. Virginia and her young son returned to her family in Suffolk, Virginia, where she died soon afterward. As Lee's army was in retreat in Virginia, Albert drove a wagon filled with supplies. His was the last wagon to try to cross the bridge, a bottle neck, with supplies. The bridge was on fire; the Union soldiers were firing on the retreating Confederates who were mercilessly exposed to their fire; Albert whipped his horses into the river, then threw himself into the underbrush. When night fell, he swam the river to safety. He said this was one battle he won with no gun in his hand.

In 1865, after the war was over and Reconstruction days began, he undertook the arduous task of reclaiming rosin that had previously been dumped into Cape Fear and Dee Gee rivers.

On March 8, 1866, Albert married Eliza Jane Wooten, a lovely

EXCURSUS

This is intended to be an explanation of why this author is certain that this first source: Robert A. Ivey, "A History of The First Baptist Church of Woodruff, South Carolina", published 20 June 1962, p. 12-13,(1268) is correct when it states that: "In July, 1823, Miles Rainwater was called to serve the church. Miles Rainwater was ordained to the gospel ministry by the Cedar Shoal Baptist Church May 24, 1817. Born in 1787, Rainwater married Nancy Miles, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Farrow Miles. Nancy's grandmother was Rosanna Waters Farrow, Revolutionary Heroine. To Miles and Nancy Rainwater were born the following children: Mary, Miles, Milly, Vashti, Mariah, Silas Mercer, and Jane Amanda." and the second source: "The History of Cedar Shoals Church", Enoree, South Carolina, p. 9,(1269) is incorrect when it states that "Following the pastorate of Rev. Miles Rainwater, Rev. James Rainwater, a near relative of Miles Rainwater, was called to serve Cedar Shoal, also Philadelphia. Rev. James Rainwater was closely related by marriage to the Miles and Farrow families of Cedar Shoal section. He married Nancy Miles, daughter of Sarah Farrow and Thomas Miles. Nancy Miles Rainwater was a sister of Daniel Miles I, ancestor of the Cedar Shoals's Miles family. James Rainwater was ordained at Philadelphia Church, January 1826, by Revs. Thomas Bomar, Gabriel Phillips, Nathan Langston, Howard and Miles Rainwater. Rev. James Rainwater served as pastor of Cedar Shoal for 11 years, 1826 to 1836, when he resigned and went west."(1270)

The 1820 U.S. Census, Spartanburg Dist., S.C., records in the family of Miles Rainwater one male 0-10 years of age, one 18-26 years of age, one male 26-45 years of age, 2 females 0-10, 2 females 10-16, 1 female 26-45. Since three of Miles Rainwater's children were born after 1920, this family exactly conforms to that listed in the first source. James Rainwater's family consisted of one male 18-26, one female 0-10, 1 female 16-26, in the same 1820 U.S. Census.

It is further noted that no additional children were born after 1926 when Amanda Jane Rainwater was born, 14 July 1824, nine days after the death of her father, Miles Rainwater.

This author made an exhaustive search for court records for minors but failed to locate same. It is the conclusion of this author that the children listed in the first source credited to Miles and Nancy (Miles) Rainwater are correct. There is, however, a possibility that James Rainwater, "near relative" of Miles Rainwater, married the widow, Nancy Rainwater, and assumed the guardianship of the children of Miles Rainwater.

FORMATION OF COUNTY AND LOCATION OF COUNTY SEAT

1. LAURENS, SUMPTERVILLE, AND DUBLIN

At the close of the Revolutionary War all Georgia was divided into eight counties, but a movement was soon on foot in this section, as in other sections, to create a new county in order to centralize business which was increasing each year. In this part of the State farmers were owners of vast estates which could easily be divided and sold for profit to immigrants who were eagerly looking for fertile lands along waterways.

On December 10, 1807, the General Assembly of Georgia passed an Act to lay out and identify new counties out of the counties of Baldwin and Wilkinson. One of these new counties was to be called and known by the name of Laurens in honor of John Laurens of Revolutionary fame. John Laurens, a native of South Carolina, was of Huguenot ancestry, and had the honor of being aide to General Washington. He was held in high esteem by the people of this section. The new county of Laurens was to consist of "all that part of Wilkinson County lying between the Oconee and the Ocmulgee Rivers, beginning at the mouth of Big Sandy Creek on the Oconee River running thence sixty degrees west to the Ocmulgee, thence down the course of the same to the upper corner of the Fourteenth District on said river, then up the same to the point of beginning." The population of the county at the time of its formation was 1795, of this number 485 being slaves. On December 13, 1808, by an Act of the General Assembly of Georgia about one-half of its original territory was taken from Laurens and formed into Pulaski County. This left Laurens County comparatively small and the people were dissatisfied, so in 1811 portions of Washington and Montgomery Counties on the west side of the Oconee River were added to Laurens. In this form it remained until 1858 when an Act was approved giving a strip of the eastern portion of Laurens County to Johnson County. This strip was two miles wide and nine miles long, extending from the present Dublin and Wrightsville public road, in an easterly direction, to the Emanuel County line and parallel with the original eastern boundary of Laurens. A minor change was made in 1906, but only to settle a matter of disputed territory.

Sumpterville, was the first county seat of Laurens County. It was located on the west side of the Oconee River, on Turkey Creek, where at that time the home of Major Peter Thomas was situated.

This site was eight miles west from the present site of the city of Dublin. The General Assembly of 1807 passed an Act contained in these words: "The site for the public buildings in and for the county of Laurens shall be in the town called and known by the name of Sumpterville. Between Rocky and Turkey Creeks the forest growth was largely oak and hickory and early settlers soon discovered that where there was such timbered land the soil was unusually fertile. This section thus became the most populous part of the county.

For the location of the county seat a beautiful spot was chosen near where the clear waters of Turkey Creek flowed between its banks shaded with lofty trees. The first court was held in the home of Major Thomas, the first grand jury was:

Benjamin Adams, Benjamin Brown, William Boykin, Robert Daniel, Joseph Denson, Benjamin Dorsey, Simon Fowler, Henry Fulgham, John Gilbert, Thomas Gilbert, Leonard Green, Edward Hagan, Andrew Hampton, Charles Higdon, Mark May, Gideon Mays, George Martin, William McCall, Charles Stringer, John Speight, James Sartin, Jesse Stephens, Samuel Stanley, Samuel Sparks, George Tarvin, Joseph Vickers, Jesse Wigins, Nathan Weaver, David Watson, Joseph Yarborough, William Yarbrough. (Taken from G. C. Smith's "The Story of Georgia and the Georgia People").

On December 10, 1811, when the above mentioned portions of Washington and Montgomery Counties were added to Laurens, taking in a considerable territory on the east side of the Oconee River, it became necessary to change the county seat from Sumpterville to a location nearer the center of the county. Consequently, the county authorities purchased from Joseph L. Hill the present site for the city of Dublin; it lay west of the river adjacent to what was known as the Sand Bar on the eastern side. The deed to this land was dated March 11, 1811, and recorded September 23, 1812, in Book of Deeds "B" on page 174, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Laurens County. It was made to John G. Underwood, William H. Mathers, Jethro B. Spivey, Benjamin Adams, and John Thomas, as Commissioners of the County of Laurens. The consideration expressed therein is one hundred dollars cash in hand paid, and the deed conveys "one hundred acres of the southeastwardly side of Lot No. 232 and adjoining Lot 233 in the first land district." An Act of the General Assembly was passed on December 13, 1811, authorizing the public buildings for the new county to be located on this tract of land.

The town of Dublin was incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of Georgia, approved December 9, 1812 (Lamar's Compilations, page 951). It was perhaps the smallest town ever created by the Legislature of a sovereign state, for the Act provided that "The said incorporation shall extend to and include all the inhabitants living within 250 yards of Broad Street and within 400 yards of the Court House in the said town of Dublin." Jonathan Sawyer, a pioneer citizen of the county, was granted the privilege of naming the new county seat of Laurens and he called it Dublin in honor of the capital of his native land, Ireland.

The site chosen, was directly on the west bank of the Oconee River, giving it a good location in South Central Georgia, where its commercial interests could be carried on by river transportation until a railroad could be built. Then both would make it an ideal place for business. Time has proved that its location has many advantages for its growth and general development.

Some historians say that Jonathan Sawyer presented the land for the county seat, but there is no record of such a gift. Sawyer married the daughter of David McCormick and beause she had been born in Dublin, Ireland, Sawyer asked that the town might be named Dublin in her honor.* There is a record that Jonathan Sawyer, who was made a County Commissioner in 1812, sold in the name of the county one acre of land to Eli S. Shorter.

2. JOHN LAURENS HERO OF THE REVOLUTION

"Lieutenant Colonel John Laurens, whose name the county bears, was the son of Honorable Henry Laurens. The Laurens family was descended from an old Huguenot family that had come to America in the earlier part of the 18th century. John Laurens was born in Charleston, S. C., in 1755. He received his early education in his native city, but as was the case with most of the more wealthy families of the day, Henry Laurens sent his son to London to be educated, and at the outbreak of the Revolution John Laurens was a law student at the Temple. When it became evident that a rupture between the colonies and the mother country was inevitable, the young student begged his father for permission to return to America that he might cast his lot with his countrymen in their struggle; but the elder Laurens was one of those who held tenaciously to the belief that all differences should be settled without bloodshed, and he refused his son the desired permission. But when a few months more had destroyed all hope of peaceable settlement, and soon after the guns of Lexington had sent their echoes reverberating into the remotest corners of the British empire, John Laurens waited no longer for his father's consent, but taking his fate in his own hands, stole away from England and on neutral vessels worked his way from France to America. He at once enlisted in the patriot army, and was soon after attached to Washington's personal staff.

"He showed the most undaunted courage in various engagements

*In a correspondence between H. M. Stanley and a descendant of Jonathan Sawyer, living at Hutchinson, Kansas, the latter stated that David McCormick was the ancestor of the McCormicks who established the McCormick Reaper Company.

of the war, from Brandywine to Yorktown. He was at Germantown, where he was severely wounded; he was at Monmouth; he fought gallantly in the attack on Savannah and was one of the brave defenders of Charleston where he was included in the surrender and subsequent exchange. At Yorktown he was among the first to enter the British lines and was one of the commissioners to receive the surrender of Cornwallis.

"In 1781 he was sent by Congress on a special mission to France to ask for a loan of money, and to procure military stores. For his part in this business he was honored with the thanks of Congress. Upon his return, he immediately rejoined the American army, which was then commencing the seige of Yorktown. The terms of the capitulation were arranged by him, and he received with his own hand the presented sword of Cornwallis. After this he repaired to South Carolina, a portion of which was still in the possession of the enemy; and while leading a detachment against a foraging party of the British army near Combahee in South Carolina, the 27th of August, 1782, he received a wound which terminated his life. His character was thus given by Allan: 'Colonel Laurens uniting the talents of a great officer with the knowledge of the scholar and engaging manners of a gentleman, was the glory of the army and the idol of his country'."

Laurens County is proud of the fact that it bears the name of so noble a patriot who gave his life for his country. "Such a name and such deeds should live and ever be honored."

NOTE—The above article was taken from an account of John Laurens written by G. O. Mudge in Bob Taylor's Magazine and published in the Laurens Centennial Edition of the Dublin Courier-Dispatch, December, 1907; and from an account written by George White in 1848.

3. BLACKSHEAR'S FERRY

In the history of Georgia, and possibly of the entire Southland, it is probable that no landmark is more fascinating, more romantic, than that of an old river ferry known as "Blackshear's Ferry." Located four and one-half miles north of the city of Dublin, in Laurens County, this flat boat still plies its way across the muddy waters of the Oconee River, carrying its human, mechanical and animal cargoes as it did a century ago. Many generations and many races have stood on its deck and watched the waters ripple in its wake; red man, white man and black man have depended upon it.

In fact, the history of Blackshear's Ferry will never be known in its entirety, for no man knows who first built it. It may be safely stated, however, that it was serving the red man under a white master before Oglethorpe settled at Savannah. Who that master was, nobody knows, for there are no records, but in history there is recorded the story of the "lost colony" that wandered south from

CHAPTER IV

PIONEER PERIOD

1. PIONEERS

The outstanding figure in Laurens County history in the first decades of the 19th century was General David Blackshear, born in North Carolina. He was only twelve years old when the Declaration of Independence was signed but he was present at two battles. His educational advantages were confined to a few months in crude pioneer schools. He learned the art of surveying and this occupation led him to Georgia. In 1790 with some of his relatives he moved from Carolina to the Georgia frontier.

In the oak and hickory woods of what later became Laurens County he made a settlement near the banks of the Oconee and named it Springfield. He became a leader in the Oconee Wars and through the dangers of Indian attack and massacres he maintained a home for himself and relatives. He became a man of honor in Georgia and was held in high esteem by the Governors. He held appointments under Jared Irwin and James Jackson. When there was a prospect of war with France in Washington's administration he was ordered by the Adjutant General of Georgia to raise a body of soldiers.

So busy had his life been in fighting Indians and establishing civilization that he did not marry till he reached his 38th year. In 1802 he married Miss Fannie Hamilton of Hancock County. She possessed six stalwart brothers who became well known as warriors and statesmen.

David Blackshear was active in exposing the Yazoo frauds and stood by the Governor when fire was brought down from heaven to destroy the iniquitous papers in front of the capitol at Louisville. During the War of 1812 he was appointed Brigadier-General by Governor Mitchell. He served as war correspondent during the war.

In 1816 he was elected to the Senate, a position he held until 1825 when he voluntarily gave up public office. Early the next year he resigned his commission as a general of the state militia. On July 4, 1837, he died, a man of wealth, of honor, and of high esteem, and was buried on the land on which so long he had lived.

General Blackshear and Governor Troup were close personal friends, and the official esteem in which he was held by the Governor is but all were loyal to the principle and resented any opposition to slave owning. But the disrupting work of the Abolitionists was poisoning friendly relations between North and South as early as the third decade. In the latter part of 1840 the Laurens County Baptist churches drew up resolutions and entered on their minutes a scathing rebuke of a Northern periodical, "The Christian Reflector," which expressed "sentiment abhorrent to our views and certain threats against the holders of slaves." The speech of the president of American Baptist Convention, who was one of the Vice-Presidents of the Board of American Baptist Foreign Missions, was so objectionable that southern churches refused to co-operate further in the foreign mission program.

By 1845 the county had a population of 3,258 whites and 2,760 blacks. Although there was such a large black population there were few large slave owners; these were the great cotton plantation operators.

Dublin at this time had "a good courthouse, several stores, 65 houses, and 180 inhabitants." (White's "Statistics of the State of Georgia.")

By the fourth decade lumbering was the principal industry and some half dozen sawmills were operating in the County. (White)

The first record of organized aid for the poor of the County is found on the minutes of the Inferior Court under the date of March 4, 1817: "Ordered that Burton H. Pitts, Joseph Yarbrough, Lewis Linder, Needham Cook, and William Mason be and are hereby appointed overseers of the poor in and for this county, and they, or a majority of them, are authorized to transact the business of their appointment."

Concerning a Poor House, the following is recorded under date of June, 1854: "It is ordered that Francis Thomas, T. N. Guyton, and Andrew Fuqua be appointed commissioners to select some suitable location for the erection of a poorhouse for the accommodation of the paupers of this county, and that they make an estimate of the cost for the purchase of land, construction of building and report upon the same at the next term of court." The houses were built a few miles from Dublin and maintained till about 1934.

4. THE FIFTIES

By 1850 Dublin had become the market of a splendid agricultural section, cotton being the main article of sale. Sheep raising was also an important industry and wool was a staple of commerce. In the upper part of the county Thomas N. Guyton's large sheep herds necessitated the employment of trained shepherds. In 1860 agricultural statistics showed there were 6,379 sheep and 16,553 pounds of wool produced.

Throughout the county there were large planters in the front ranks of the State's agricultural life. Through many years the Guytons, Kellams, O'Neals, Coats, Stanleys, and others, in the northern part of the county, had expanded their plantation area.

In the eastern part Frank and Laurence Ballard, the Smiths, the Hightowers, C. L. Holmes, Dr. Jacob Linder, and the Kinchen family were large landowners.

In the southern part Wright Noles and Alfred Burch had vast ranges of cattle.

In the western part of the county Hayden Hughes (grandfather of Dudley Hughes) owned a plantation of such extensive acreage that it required hundreds of slaves for its cultivation. Other families owning large plantations and many slaves were: the Brazaels; the Hamptons; the Ashley Vickers, near the present site of Montrose; the Harvards and Walkers of Laurens Hill; the Daniel Combs and David Ware, on Rocky Creek.

The largest planter, Ex-Governor Troup, though old, kept active supervision over four plantations. In the first half of the Fifties he was a familiar figure on the road through Dublin, passing from his Valdosta to his Vallambrosa plantations, with a menage of several slaves, horses and wagons carrying even household furnishings, dogs, and other equipment. He rode on horseback in the van, or in later years in his carriage with a driver of long years of service. Had he not been distinguished by his personality, he would have been by his dress—an odd figure wearing a blue coat with metal buttons and buff vest and a fur cap.

Two other large plantations lay between Governor Troup's Valdosta place and Dublin: the Fuqua place, now known as the Fuller place, and the plantation of Thomas M. Yopp, now known as the Hightower place.

In the Fifties Laurens County had nearly a half-slave population, for the preceding census showed 3,468 whites and 2,974 slaves. The slave owner regarded his slaves as his most valuable property. The following tax list returned by a Laurens County farmer shows how greatly the slave property exceeded land, household goods and other possessions.

In the South slaves were regarded as more valuable than land or houses, as this tax list shows.

It was during Judge Duncan's administration that fifteen thousand dollars worth of bonds were issued for the building of a bridge over the Oconeee River.

We pass next to a consideration of the County Court. This Court was created in 1866. having as its first judge, Hon. M. L. Burch, who was succeeded by Mercer Haynes, the latter holding office until 1890, when this court was abolished by an Act of the Legislature. Five years intervened before the formation of the City Court of Laurens, which held its first session with Ira S. Chappell as judge. Under the authority vested in him at that time, Judge Chappell appointed E. J. Blackshear clerk, and F. G. Corker solicitor. Judge John S. Adams. who was appointed by Governor Candler to succeed Judge Chappell. served one year when this court was abolished and the City Court of Dublin was established by an Act of the Legislature in 1900. Judge Adams by appointment, became the first judge of the new court and continued in that capacity until 1904, when he resigned. Others who have been judges of the City Court of Dublin are:

J. E. Burch, 1904 to 1908; G. H. Williams, Solicitor; D. L. Emerson, Clerk.

(Note: At this time, the office of the Sheriff of the City Court was consolidated with that of the Superior Court).

Clerks of the City Court:

E. J. Blackshear, 1895 to 1899.
Freeman Moore, 1899 to 1903.

L. F. Watson, 1933 to 1935.
Joe Chappell, 1936 (resigned).
R. I. Stephens, 1937.
Stanley Reese, 1937.

It will be well to mention here that W. J. Joiner was the first sheriff of both the County Court and the City Court of Laurens. T. B. Hudson succeeded him as sheriff of the County Court and served until it was abolished in 1900.

As an intermediate court, the City Court has done much to alleviate the heavy burden of business which previously had been borne by the Superior Court. This court has both monthly and quarterly terms. Sidney Brown, former clerk, reported that on one occasion twenty mortgage foreclosures were filed in one day, another on which he issued twenty-two criminal warrants late one afternoon, and all the prisoners were in jail by the next morning.

Laurens County should consider herself quite fortunate in having secured for herself a division of the Federal Court. In May, 1926, Congress passed a bill creating the Dublin Division of the United States Court for the Southern District of Georgia. The first officers of this division of the Federal Court are:

Judge William H. Barrett, Judge, Augusta, Ga.
Hon. Walter W. Sheppard, Dist. Atty., Savannah, Ga.
Hon. Scott A. Edwards, Clerk, Savannah, Ga.
Hon. G. F. Flanders, Marshal, Swainsboro, Ga.
Hon. L. Q. Stubbs, Deputy Clerk, Dublin, Ga.
Hon. John S. Adams, Referee in Bankruptcy, Dublin, Ga.

Judge John S. Adams resigned as Referee to accept a position as attorney for the United States Treasury in the Department of insolvent National Banks. Stanley A. Reese. who was appointed to fill his unexpired term, is said to be the youngest Referee ever appointed to this position in the State. Reese resigned and Hardeman Blackshear was appointed in 1938.

At the death of L. Q. Stubbs, Miss Jessie Baldwin became deputy clerk, the first woman to hold this position.

NOTE: Most of the material of this article is from a paper prepared on Laurens County Court History by the late K. J. Hawkins, former Judge of the Superior Court, published in 1914. For additional information, the author is indebted to the court officials of this county.

4. COURT HOUSE AND JAIL.

The first reference to the building of a court house is found in the minutes of the Superior Court under date of February 8, 1808,

Rea Donohue
Rt. 2 Box 111
Breckenridge Tex 76024

when it was "ordered that Amos Love, Alexander Blackshear, Andrew Hampton, John Fullwood, Jethro B. Spivey, Simon Smith, Elisha Farnall, Wm. Yarborough, Leonard Stringer and Stephen Vickers be and they are hereby appointed to assist the Justices of the Inferior Court in pointing out and ascertaining the most convenient and eligible site for court house of said county.

"Ordered that the above named persons together with the Justices of the Inferior Court do meet at the house of Andrew Hampton, Esq., on first Monday in April next at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon to proceed on business aforesaid."

Whether this committee met and what they decided is not recorded, but if the place was chosen there was but little done about a building; the next record is found in the minutes under date of August, 1811, when it was "ordered that the Clerk do pay John Fullwood, Esq., the sum of $36.00 for the building of a temporary court house in Sumpterville, and making table and seats."

It seems that after the county seat was moved to Dublin this same contractor constructed a court house, for there occurs in the minutes of the Inferior Court the record that it was "ordered that the Clerk pay over to John Fullwood, Esq., the amount received for the general tax for the year 1828 on account of his demand against the County for building the court house."

In 1848 the third courthouse was ordered built; the next year the old courthouse was ordered to be sold and removed in two months after the sale; in June, 1849, this house was accepted after being built under contract with George Stephenson. This was a two-story building with court hall on first floor and county offices on the second. It was removed to Franklin Street, where the Bus Station is now located. It was used at different times as a wagon shop, a boarding house and hospital. This building was of wood but well built and of good material as certified by its long life of usefulness.

Under the first Board of County Commissioners the present brick structure was erected in 1895. It was built on a contract price of $22,480 with a levy of tax of $1.40. Marvelous to tell—there was no bond issue for its erection.

Jails

During the three years the county seat remained at Sumpterville there was no jail. There is a notation on the minutes of 1811 that a jail of great logs was built by Arter Sheffield. This was ordered built after the trial of Hansel Roberts who in October was ordered to be sent to the Washington County jail, "there being no jail in this county." This must not have been considered safe for we find other notations referring to criminals being sent to Washington County or Wilkinson County jails.

In 1829 the Inferior Court let to Charles Guyton a contract for the building of a jail. In 1832 the Court ordered "a ditch to be dug all around the building five foot sufficiently wide to take in two pieces of timber, 1 foot thick each." But even with this timbered palisade the jail was not long considered a safe place for prisoners for, in 1837, T. N. Guyton, Charles Guyton, Robert Robinson, and A. A. Fuqua were ordered to examine and report on the safety of the jail.

The committee reported the structure unsafe and recommended a new jail be built. The new one was constructed in 1838 by Robert Robinson.

In 1851 in June a tax levy was ordered for the building of a jail. The jail was built by A. A. Fuqua in 1852.

This old jail stood on the site of the present jail. It was burned in 1890. The present jail was built by the Court of Ordinary in 1891.

It would seem that as late as 1842 men in Laurens were imprisoned for debt. There occurs in the minutes of the Inferior Court under date of 1842 the following notation: "Ordered that the prison bounds alowed to persons arrested under and by virtue of Ca Sa for debt for the County of Laurens, commence at Mrs. Mary Cooper's on Gaines Street in Dublin, running said street to Guyton's Gin House, thence running along Jefferson Street till it intersects Jackson Street, thence up Jackson Street to Dr. A. T. Brown's house; including the Jail and all houses on said square back to the beginning."

This site was eight miles west from the present site of the city of Dublin. The General Assembly of 1807 passed an Act contained in these words: "The site for the public buildings in and for the county of Laurens shall be in the town called and known by the name of Sumpterville. Between Rocky and Turkey Creeks the forest growth was largely oak and hickory and early settlers soon discovered that where there was such timbered land the soil was unusually fertile. This section thus became the most populous part of the county.

For the location of the county seat a beautiful spot was chosen near where the clear waters of Turkey Creek flowed between its banks shaded with lofty trees. The first court was held in the home of Major Thomas, the first grand jury was:

Benjamin Adams, Benjamin Brown, William Boykin, Robert Daniel, Joseph Denson, Benjamin Dorsey, Simon Fowler, Henry Fulgham, John Gilbert, Thomas Gilbert, Leonard Green, Edward Hagan, Andrew Hampton, Charles Higdon, Mark May, Gideon Mays, George Martin, William McCall, Charles Stringer, John Speight, James Sartin, Jesse Stephens, Samuel Stanley, Samuel Sparks, George Tarvin, Joseph Vickers, Jesse Wigins, Nathan Weaver, David Watson, Joseph Yarborough, William Yarbrough. (Taken from G. C. Smith's "The Story of Georgia and the Georgia People").

On December 10, 1811, when the above mentioned portions of Washington and Montgomery Counties were added to Laurens, taking in a considerable territory on the east side of the Oconee River, it became necessary to change the county seat from Sumpterville to a location nearer the center of the county. Consequently, the county authorities purchased from Joseph L. Hill the present site for the city of Dublin; it lay west of the river adjacent to what was known as the Sand Bar on the eastern side. The deed to this land was dated March 11, 1811, and recorded September 23, 1812, in Book of Deeds "B" on page 174, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Laurens County. It was made to John G. Underwood, William H. Mathers, Jethro B. Spivey, Benjamin Adams, and John Thomas, as Commissioners of the County of Laurens. The consideration expressed therein is one hundred dollars cash in hand paid, and the deed conveys "one hundred acres of the southeastwardly side of Lot No. 232 and adjoining Lot 233 in the first land district." An Act of the General Assembly was passed on December 13, 1811, authorizing the public buildings for the new county to be located on this tract of land.

The town of Dublin was incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of Georgia, approved December 9, 1812 (Lamar's Compilations, page 951). It was perhaps the smallest town ever created by the Legislature of a sovereign state, for the Act provided that "The said incorporation shall extend to and include all the inhabitants living within 250 yards of Broad Street and within 400 yards of the but all were loyal to the principle and resented any opposition to slave owning. But the disrupting work of the Abolitionists was poisoning friendly relations between North and South as early as the third decade. In the latter part of 1840 the Laurens County Baptist churches drew up resolutions and entered on their minutes a scathing rebuke of a Northern periodical, "The Christian Reflector," which expressed "sentiment abhorrent to our views and certain threats against the holders of slaves." The speech of the president of American Baptist Convention, who was one of the Vice-Presidents of the Board of American Baptist Foreign Missions, was so objectionable that southern churches refused to co-operate further in the foreign mission program.

By 1845 the county had a population of 3,258 whites and 2,760 blacks. Although there was such a large black population there were few large slave owners; these were the great cotton plantation operators.

Dublin at this time had "a good courthouse, several stores, 65 houses, and 180 inhabitants." (White's "Statistics of the State of Georgia.")

By the fourth decade lumbering was the principal industry and some half dozen sawmills were operating in the County. (White)

The first record of organized aid for the poor of the County is found on the minutes of the Inferior Court under the date of March 4, 1817: "Ordered that Burton H. Pitts, Joseph Yarbrough, Lewis Linder, Needham Cook, and William Mason be and are hereby appointed overseers of the poor in and for this county, and they, or a majority of them, are authorized to transact the business of their appointment."

Concerning a Poor House, the following is recorded under date of June, 1854: "It is ordered that Francis Thomas, T. N. Guyton, and Andrew Fuqua be appointed commissioners to select some suitable location for the erection of a poorhouse for the accommodation of the paupers of this county, and that they make an estimate of the cost for the purchase of land, construction of building and report upon the same at the next term of court." The houses were built a few miles from Dublin and maintained till about 1934.

JOSHUA YARBROUGH II

Joshua Yarbrough, Jr., the son of Joshua, Sr., and Sarah Yarbrough, was born by 1741 we are sure because he was listed as a tithable of his father in 1758 and he had to be over 16 to be taxable.

Joshua, Jr., was last found in Granville Co., NC, when he witnessed a deed for his father in 1764. He was next found witnessing a deed for Harvey Hargett 11 Oct. 1774 in Anson Co., NC. In 1778 he made entry for a land grant in Mecklenburg Co., NC, which lies next to Anson Co. Joshua ended up receiving the following grants in Mecklenburg Co., NC.

Grant 521, Book 53, p. 287, F 3426, 100 acres on the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek. Entry was made in 1779 and the grant issued 2 Nov. 1784. Chain bearers for the surveyor was Thomas Vinson and Benjamin Yarbrough.

Grant 891, Book 76, p. 218, F 3790, 150 acres on both sides of Onion Branch, a branch of Richardson Creek; entered 1778 and received 17 Nov. 1790. Chain bearers were James Nelms and Joshua Yarbrough.

Grant 123, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 400 acres lying on both sides of the Onion Fork of Richardson Creek; received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 75, Book 42, p. 217, F 2967, 200 acres on both sides of Phillips Spring Branch of Richardson Creek joining the place on which the said Joshua Yarbrough lives. Received 1 Mar. 1780.

Grant 1292 for 300 acres on the waters of Richardson Creek adjoining land of Edward Richardson, May Odom and Reubin Yarbrough; entered 1791 and issued 28 Aug. 1795 and surveyed 5 Dec. 1794 with H. Vinson and Reubin Yarbrough as chain bearers.

Grant 2133, Book 126, p. 38, 150 acres lying on the waters of Richardson Creek, including the plantation where Shem Yarbrough now lives; entered 21 Sept. 1810, issued 4 Dec. 1811.

Although there were thirty Yarbrough families in North Carolina in the 1790 census, Joshua Yarbrough was the only one listed as head of a household in Mecklenburg County. Besides himself, there were two boys over sixteen years of age, three under sixteen and one woman in the household. The woman is undoubtedly his wife whose name we haven't learned. Since very few North Carolina marriage records before 1800 are in existence, it is not surprising that Joshua's hasn't been found.

Nine Yarbrough families were found with Joshua in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census. He is now listed as Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., as he has a son Joshua, Jr. He is in the age group 45 and above. His wife was in the same age group and with them were two boys below 10, one in the age group 16-26, and two girls under 10. Other Yarbroughs listed as heads of households were: Charles, John, Joshua, Jr., Benjamin, Edmond, Gideon, Jeptha, Rubin, and William. All were in the age group 26-45 except Joshua, Jr., and Gideon. They were between 16-26.

No proof has been found as to which of these Yarbroughs are sons of this Joshua Yarbrough, Sr., who will be referred to as Joshua II from now on to distinguish him from his father and son; however, since Joshua Yarbrough II's land all lay on Richardson Creek, and Reuben, Benjamin, Gideon, Jeptha, and Joshua III lived on the same creek and witnessed each other's deeds, it seems almost certain that at least they are his sons, although it is possible some of them may be his younger brothers.

By 1820 all of these Yarbroughs listed in the 1800 Mecklenburg Co. census had moved on to other newer lands. To aid future researchers, each will be discussed briefly.

Jeptha Yarbrough, born about 1763 in Granville Co., NC. His name was first found in the 1798 Tax List of Mecklenburg Co. North Carolina, which shows him with one white poll, no blacks and no land; futhermore, the land records don't show him receiving a land grant or buying any land. He did witness a deed in 1798 whereby Joshua, Sr., sold Gideon Yarbrough 200 acres on the north side of Onion Fork of Richardson Creek, and then in 1799 he witnessed the deed whereby Gideon sold the same 200 acres to Joshua Yarbrough, Jr.[25]

Jeptha moved from Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina, to Franklin Co., Georgia, soon after 1800. A deed dated 9 Apr. 1804 shows Jeptha Yarbour of Franklin Co., Georgia, buying 143 acres from Moses Allred. The land was located on Little Nails Creek of Hudson River in Franklin Co., GA, and was described as "land on which Jeptha Yarber now lives and adjoining his brother Gideon Yarber's land." (Deed Book PP, pages 23 and 33)

There were several other deeds for Jeptha in Franklin Co., Georgia. The last one dated 15 Apr. 1813 shows he had moved to Randolph Co., GA, and was selling the remainder of his Franklin Co., GA., land. This land is described as being adjacent Benjamin Yarbrough, so evidently Benjamin, Jeptha, and Gideon all moved to Franklin Co., Georgia, where James Yarbrough's family lived.

Later Jeptha was found in Jasper Co., Georgia, but by 1840 he had moved to Chambers Co., Alabama. In 1850 both he and his wife Nancy Ann were listed in the Chambers County census as being 78 years old. Jeptha was born in North Carolina and his wife was born in Georgia.

According to the family Bible of Franklin Yarbrough, Jeptha died 12 Nov. 1853 and Nancy Ann died 3 Apr. 1857. No proof of the names of their children has been found, but since their deaths were recorded in Franklin's Bible and they were listed together in the Chambers County, Alabama, census we assume Franklin is a son. Jeptha Yarbrough, Jr., and William Yarbrough were, also, listed in the same census and are probably sons too. Census records show Jeptha had at least 12 children, 8 sons and 4 daughters. Some researchers think Reuben Yarbrough listed in the 1850 Coosa Co., Alabama, census is, also, his son.

Gedion Yarbrough, born about 1780, NC (probably Mecklenburg Co.); had a wife and son in the 1800 census. He married second Nancy Scarbrough 20 Sept. 1810 in Burke Co., GA. A deed proves Gedion was in Franklin Co., GA, by 1804. By 1820 he was in St. Tammany Parish, LA,

GENERATIONS APPEARED IN COURT CASE!

Ms. Mildred Dangar, 710 Cox Road, Roswell, GA 30075 found genealogical answers among the depositions in a Mississippi Court Case (1851, Drawer 100, #6284) when NATHAN GRIFFIN, SR. et al sued THOMAS JONES et al, before Chancellor STEPHEN COCKE, of Jackson, Hinds Co., MS 6-9-1851.

THE BILL OF COMPLAINT was filed by Nathan Griffin, Sr. In this document he traced the Stovall family. Because of the length of the abstract, Ms. Danger copied only the Stovall portion, and will submit the Griffin portion later.

I. GEORGE STOVALL and his wife Joan were living in England in June 1665. They were Quakers, and the meeting record includes the birth of their son Bartholomew.

II. BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL, born Guilford, Surry, England June 24, 1665, migrated to VA as a single man. There he m. ANN BURTON 8-8-1693 in Henrico Co., VA. SAMUEL KELSO OR KELSEY, 1720-1796
REVOLUTIONARY PATRIOT OF CHESTER CO., SC

Hardback, 683 pages, full name index. Available from the authors, Dr. Mavis Parrott Kelsey and his wife Mary Wilson Kelsey, 2 Longbow Lane, Houston, TX 77024 - $75.00 postpaid. This is the history of a Scotch-Irish immigrant and his descendants. Allied families include MILLS, GILL, PAGAN, WYLIE, MORROW, JONES, SEALY, JAGGERS, REEVES, MAULDIN, MOORE, STEVENSON, and McALEXANDER.

The medieval history of Kelso families of the British Isles is presented in the opening chapter though no claim is made to a family connection. Lineages of several other colonial families named Kelsey and Kelso are briefly reviewed.

Immigrants SAMUEL KELSO and his wife SUSANNAH MILLS arrived at Charleston on the EARL OF DONEGAL in December 1767. They received land in the Long Canes area of 96 District, SC, later moving into former Indian lands in Chester County. They were active members of the Fishing Creek Presbyterian Church nearby, where they were buried. Their children who

Archive Committee
825-202 Waterview Place

November 30, 1991

Dear Jean:

The Thanksgiving holiday finally gave me a chance to look through my records on your behalf. Attached is the only information I have on your Mahalia Yarbrough. I got this information from Ray Isbell and I am sure that he had also given it to you.

I did put your query in the September issue of Yarbrough Family Quarterly, so maybe some help will come to you from another researcher.

By copy of this letter and its attachment, I am sending your request for information to Ophelia Kessler, a member of the Archive Committee. She has a substantial collection of Yarbrough records and, should she have anything additional, I am sure you will hear from her directly.

Keep us posted on what you find, and we will forward anything we receive that might help you in your search. I think it is great that you want to prepare a history for your grandchildren. It is a priceless gift. It was my grandmother who made my own history live for me and instilled in me the desire to learn more about our line.

Happy hunting!

Best wishes,

Karen S. Mazock

Attached is a letter I received from Jean Smith. Also attached is the only information I had to send her. As far as I know, no one has proven the parents of Mahalia.

If you have anything that does, send it directly to her and copy me. I have copied the information from her letter and do not need it back.

Dear Ms. Mazock:

Mr Ray Isabell of Opelika, Alabama gave me your name and address Concerning information on the "Yarbrough" family.

My great grandmother was "Mahala Yarbrough" - she married John Maor Pitts

I will be happy to pay any Cost it may incur to obtain copies on this family history as I have grandchildren of my own now and it is high time I put all I can gather about our folks!

Thank you,

Mrs. Jean Reid Smith

Dear Ms Heidinger:

Some few months back I received a membership application on the "Yarbrough" National Genealogical & Historical Assn. Inc. And I am just now getting around to inquiring about my "YARBROUGH" Connection. I am not sure if we are on the same Clan. My great grandmother's name was Makala Yarbrough - she married John Moor Pitts somewhere in Georgia or South Carolina. We have very little on them. They were my Mother's grandparents on her father's side - (Rubie Richmond Pitts).

Do you know or could you ascertain for me if ever Yarbroughs are in your line. I hope it works out that it is our connection —

I am sending you a S.A.S.E. and I surely would appreciate this information before I decide to come to Atlanta to the Yarbrough Conference —

Thank you,

Mrs. Jean Reid Smith

Searching for Indexed Terms[1]

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select "Edit", and then "Find" or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched[2]. First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
