Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarbrough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, http://www.yarbroughfamiy.org. Dear Senator Tarbrough:

Recently I have been doing genealogical research work on the Yarborough and Yarbrough Families. My uncle, Senator Halph W. Yarborough, and a Mrs. Svec of Houston, Texas, with whom I collaborate on this matter, have both mentioned you from time to time. They tell me that you are interested in Yarbrough genealogy, and that you had worked with Mrs. Nell Jenkins on it until the time of her death.

I have a few questions to ask yous Are you still in the Alabama Senate? From when did you serve? How far back can you trace your line of Yarbroughs? Can you give me a rundown on your family tree? Are you in any way related to the Dr. George W. Yarbrough who was a Georgia Methodist minister in the 1800's who was a feorgia Methodist minister in the 1800's who was a few. John W. Iarbrough, and his sons were Drs. John and Young Harris Yarbrough).

have that you need. I have done extensive research work on this subject at the Texas State Library and Archives, and have on file over 500 Yarboroughs and Yarbroughs.

Looking forward to your reply, I am,

Yours truly

Dear Senator Tarbreught

Viotor Driscoll and myself are very grateful for the hospitality you and Mrs. Yarbrough showed us on our recent trip to Alabama. We especially enjoyed that delicious meal which you served us.

Since seeing you I have undertaken some of the suggestions you made concerning William Yar-borough of Sunter County, Alabama. The Lauderdale County, Mississippi court house had no record of the marriage of Harvey Yarbrough and Margaret Ann Millar, as the records for thes certain year had either been destroyed or lost. However, I don't think that this record would have revealed anything which wasn't already known, as the Meords for years around the time did not give any information about parents or grandparents. I have also made several inquiries of Tennessee and Kentucky Counties in the area where William Yarborough was known to have been. Mone of them have had a record of his marriage. The only thing close was the marriage of William Yarborough to Jane Coffman on 16 Nov 1819 at Davidson County, Tennessee (ee. seat Mashville).

We spent a day in a fruitless search for William's grave. We were lucky enough to have the aid of an 85 year old old timer of Sunter County, but still no luck.

I plan to return to Sunter Gounty in about a week or so and continue my search. This time I'll be alone - no bearded cousin. I have acquired from the Alabama State Planning and Indust. Development Board a 1½° x 2° section map of Sunter County, which was drawn in 1950. It shows details, including the locations of about 22 cemeteries. This is very amusing to me because Mrs. Jenkins claimed that she had found a total of 23 cemeteries in the county, and during my search last month I was taken to 3 old cemeteries which aren't even on my map - thus I know the locations of 25 cemeteries - two more than Mrs. Jenkins said she knew.

Upon comparison of the Jenkins map I had useddwhile in Alabama and the map I just received I discovered that she had marked the section lines incorrectly. This leads me to believe that I could have been looking in the wrong place - ie. a different place than I had planned to look.

Could you go back thru your records and try to find the place, or perhaps I should say the reference, where it is stated that William Karborough is buried in Township 18. Do you recall whether or not there was a Bange given or a Section number? I would appreciate it if you could send me this information within a few days (to my Dallas address).

When I return to Sumter I plan to go to the court house and look up and mark on my map all the land which was owned by William Tarborough or any of his sons or in-laws in 1840-2. It seems to me that it is pretty sound to assume that if he has not buried in some public graveyard that he would have been buried in some of this property. My initial hunt will begin with public cameteries on this property, and then progress to cameteries choose to it, and then if still no result I'll get an old timer and make a ploser march of the land for old private cemeteries.

Hank Jenkins told me that a Clyde Miller (of the Dr. Charles Miller line) had an Uncle Bob (over 90 years old) who had told him that he knew where William Yarborough was buried. Clyde said that he didn't remember for sure, but could come within a couple of miles of the spot. Uncle Bob couldn't remember a thing. He had had's stroke a while back and told us that his mind was gone.

You may recall that I mentioned that I would like to come visit you again. I don't think it will be this trip. It looks that I'll be getting too involved in this search. I do hope that I can see you again sometime, the.

I have spoken with Uncle Balph several times since I saw you. I told him of you and he seems very anxious to meet you.

Tours truly,

X

Dear Senator Tarbrough:

I was delighted to find your letter waiting for me when I returned to Dallas. The information it contains is very interesting indeed, However, it raises several questions:

Is the Miss Toungblood still living? If so, where can she be reached? I'd like to call her or go visit her. I have been closely studying the Alfred Tarbrough line, but can't discover any of his ancestors or relatives (other than his children). I'm also interested in finding out how who knew that William Yarbrough's grave was in Township 18.

On page 2 of your letter you maid. "I am of the opinion that Johnathan's son William (Anson Co. N.C.) is a likely prospect." My question is how do you know that this Johnathan had a son William? Is there a record to this effect? Where may it be found?

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Yours truly.

As you suggested or the Anson County, N.C. court house and checked old records there. Just as you said, the will of Jonathan Yarbrough was there, and it mentions his son William. All also found several old deeds: Joel Richard, Jonathan, William, Humphrey, Assend Alice were some of the Yarbroughs who had owned property in the early settlement of the county.

I nexit visited the court house at Union
County, S.C., where I found the will of Ambrose Yarbrough
(Mrs. Newell of Fayette had already send me a copy of it, though). Finally I stopped by the court house at Abbethough). S.C., where I found the settlement of the esmte of ville, S.C., where I found the settlement of the esmte of one of the Littleton Yarbroughs, as well as that of has son William.

From looking at all these records I pretty well convinced myself that my William was not the son of Littleton, but was the son of Jonathan, as you had said. However, I seek you addice as to how I can document this fact.

Anson County by 1802 because at that time there was a sheriff's sale of his property. However, the sheriff's deed does not mention William's new residence, as deeds sometimes do. Humphrey Yarborough has several land transactions in the Anson County books, and by about 1806 he was being listed as Humphrey Yarborough of Stewart County, Tennessee. I know for sure the fact that my William Yarborough was in Stewart County, Tennessee at the time Humphrey was because of the deed for his St.Claire County land. But, is there definitely any way to prove County? Do you know of any record that says something to the effect of William Yarborough of Ansen County, N.C.", made by my William Yarborough in some other county? If so, I need to get a copy of it.

You have told me (and others) several times that Jonathan Tarbrough was the son of Ambrose Yarbrough of Union County, S.C. As you know, Jonathan is not mentioned in Ambrose will. You said that there is another way to prove that Jonathan is his son. How is it done? Can you give me specific references to the records?

You told me that Ambrose Yarbrough came to America to Amelia County, Virginia in 1750 from Yorkshire, England. Do know on what ship he came, and at what port he landed?

Do you know the exact relation of Ambrose and Richard, your American forebearer?

It seems that the more I discover, the more I feel I have to add to it. Your help will be appreciated as usual.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sen. Tarbroughs

A heavily crowded schedule has kept me from doing much work on family history lately, but the Christmas halidays have given me a little time for it.

As usual, I have a few questions for you.

The last time I visited you, I questioned you about the location of Ambron Tarbrough, Sr.'s grave. You told me, but I failed to write it down. As a result I have forgetten it. Please refresh my memory.

Do you know of any reference whatsoever that will prove that the William Varborough of Stewart Co., Tenn. moved there from Anson Co., N.C.?

I had the John W. Ward Company in Charleston, S.C. do a Yarborough coat of arms for me. They used "non est sine pulvere palma" as the motto. I got in a dispute with them, insisting that they made a mistake, and should have used "who dares wins" as the motto. They won't concede, but say that I am wrong. Please set me straight on it. Several other members of the family want to have them made, and I went to make surcethat they get the correst motte.

Is there any way I can get a copy of those Yarbrough studies which were made in the thirties? If I could just borrow them for a few days I could make Xerox copies for myself, and then send them back. I am especially interested in the North Carolina and Tennessee studies.

A few days ago I happened to get a copy of the Andrea compiled data on South Carolina. I noticed your name on the first sheet.

I hope that you are having a happy holiday.

Yours truly.

Dear Sen. Tarbrough:

Shortly after Christmas I sent you a letter. It concerned, as usual, questions and queries about Karbroughs. To this date I have not received a reply, and since it has not been like you to wait so long in answering my letters, I thought that I'd better write you and ask if you received the letter I sent.

If you did get my letter. I hope your delay has not been due to some accident or illness in the family.

Dear Senator Yarbrough:

Presently I am gathering references for the statements made in the essay I am writing on the Yarbrough family in the United States. Your help will aid me in my search for source material.

First, what is the source for the statement that you made in your letters to Mrs. Jenkins that Richard Yarbrough came to Amelia Co. Virginia in 1653 from Lincolnshire?

Second, what is the source for the statement you made in your letters to Mrs. Jenkins that Ambrose Yarbrough came to Amelia Co., Virginia in 1732 from Yarkshire?

Can their arrivals be proven by English passenger lists or any other records?

Also, I would appreciate it if you would sign and have notarized the enclosed affidavits, which pertain to the genealogical study you made for the A.I.G., and which contains statements which you have made to me in correspondence during the past year and a half, and at times when we conversed in person.

I am now in the process of publishing the first issue of a Yarbrough genealogical magazine, similiar to Mrs. Jenkins' Yarbrough Quarterly. In one respect my magazine will differ from Mrs. Jenkins' in that I shall give sources for all the statements I make. I plan to use the above mentioned essay as a preface. Therefore, I would appreciate it if you could get this material back to me within the next few days, so that I may use it in my first issue. Tentative publication date is August.

We are having a problem. Uncle Ralph contends that the Yerbys are a different family from the Yarboroughs altogether, while I have seen records which lead me to believe that it is either a split off the early American Yarborough or either a phonetic spelling of Yarbrough often used interchangably, similiar to other variations. However, after seeing the 1716 Yerby will and noticing the number of prominent Yerbys who were Virginia legislators, and also the prominent Yerbys who were graduates of the University of Alabama, and leaders in educational and religious fields, I wonder if possibly Uncle Ralph isn't correct. Can you shed some light on the "Yerby Problem?" Do you know any of them personally? What do they, provided they have studied their family history, say about it?

We are glad to learn that you have located your list of Yarboroughs in the Revolution. Is this your own compilation or is it a list which may be found elsewhere? If you compiled the list, could you spare us a copy?

Anytime you wish to donate an article to our effort, we'll gladly receive it. We'd especially like one on your family history(similiar to the one on our pp. 10&11), including pictures, or one on Yarboroughs in the American Revolution.

We've been requested by certain subscribers to publish your personal biography. Rather than asking you to write about yourself, we'll first attempt to get the one which I saw in the Alabama State Archives at Montgomery last year. We'll probably publish it in an issue next spring.

Oh, yes, another problem: The last time I visited you we discussed the record of this Christian Yarblow. [see our p.24] I mentioned that I had heard the theory that "Christian" was just another way to say "Junior." I had planned to make such a statement in a footnote, but after two days of research in the name section of the state library's genealogical section I was unable to find any authority for what I thought. Do you know of any authority for such a proposition? Also, please restate what you make of this reference to Christian Yarblow.

It may interest you to know that Lord Alvingham's son may have finally taken an interest in genealogy. He is listed in the most recent edition of Burke's as Lord Alvingham the Second, and his lineage from 1066 is given.

Yours truly,

Charles D. Yarborough

Sen. George W. Yarbrough P.O. Box 184 Wedowee, Alabama 36278

Dear Sen. Yarbrough,

At this time I have an answer pending to an inquiry I made to an officer of the National Huguenot Society concerning Mrs. Lott's descendants. Perhaps I can eventually locate her (and your) papers. I've already received replies from two of the organization's officers, but they were not in a capacity to furnish the information I needed. Both referred me to the other officer, whom I have written.

Our magazine has been sent to Mrs. Jenuin's entire mailing list plus about the same number of persons on my Yarborough mailing list. So far we have received about 50 subscriptions (from the first 100 complimentary copies sent out), but expect enough additional ones to reach our printing, copyright, and postage break even point for the year, and possibly enough to allow us to publish in one issue a six color plate of the Yarborough coat-of-arms.

Perhaps you have a few names you could add to our mailing lists. We'd appreciate them.

Enclosed is the return envelope from our mailing to a certain college professor Yarbrough of whom you once informed me. Do you have a more recent address? Is this the same Ralph Yarborough who now lives in Valley Stream, New York?

Sir, whenever you can get around to it could you send me an inventory of the 40 wills you have on hand? All I want is a list giving the name, county, date, and book and page numbers. As it would be burdensome on you to have these wills copied, etc., I would want your list to use as an index. I could use such an index in determining Yarborough wills on file in various counties when chosing ones to publish in our magazine. (It is our policy to publish a will in each issue--until we run out of them in about 10 years!) Do you have records of any Virginia Yarborough wills which are not listed on page 26 of our magazine?

Dear Ophelia:

Patty Walker had written to me about the John Yarbrough line (Virginia) in March. This is the same line as George W. Yarbrough's line. As you know, there are some big discrepancies in the line as he has it (or at least as it appears on the records given to me that were purportedly from him). I've written to Patty to get the information she has and have also contacted Rupert Yarbrough.

Somehow I think we have enough records to put this line together without a lot of work if we put what we all have together. I am enclosing a copy of the letter I sent Rupert. I decided to just get from him and Patty what information they have on these three generations and then will start on John Y. Sr.'s groupsheet. Meanwhile, I wanted to check and see what you had on this line.

I've had no news from anyone since I wrote to you last weekend and, as I am DETERMINED to get through a big stack of mail this weekend, I won't ramble on for pages and pages.

Best wishes,

Karen Mazock

Dear Rupert and Veda:

I THINK I have survived yet another annual "gathering of the clan" as Bob Yarbrough always called it. I have finished the Corporation work (minutes, reports, etc.) and have almost finished mailing all the things I promised people I would send to them.

Now I am trying to do a little Archive Committee work. I have been corresponding with Patty Walker (Wyoming) with whom I believe you have had some contact. In reviewing the papers I have from George W. Yarbrough's research, I've run into some questions about the earlier generations. I seem to have two lists of his ancestors, both purported from him, and they don't agree. One seems to be missing a generation somewhere between Richard (the immigrant) and the next couple of generations ... and the second list seems to have an extra generation.

One of the Archive Committee projects the last couple of years has been to take a Y line, combine our records on each generation and see how many generations back we can verify. We have been so successful with some that we have (I hope) inspired the researchers of those lines. With others we have run into brick walls where more records are needed.

We are presently doing work on John Yarbrough of Virginia. Our search into the original records of Amelia County (these are closed to the public and we have been able to see these only by receiving special permission from county officials) has provided some new information. At the moment, we seems to be working from both ends ... the present back as well as the early records forward.

The first discrepancy I run into is with John Y. Jr. and his father, John Y. Sr. Both sets of records I mentioned have John Y. Jr. married to Elizabeth Murray. One lists his second wife as Mary Havis. Our first goal is to add anything we can to each family as far back as John Y. Jr. Then we are going to try to untangle John Y. Sr.'s line and keep going back. You will see my discussion and questions following the records I have on John Jr. For the sake of brevity, I have not listed all the sources. When we type of the final report, however, all sources will be given.

If you can help, we would love your input. Here is what we have:

GWY says the wife of this John Yarbrough was Elizabeth Murray. I believe this to be an error. I believe that the John Yarbrough who married Elizabeth Murray was probably the father of this John Y.

John Yarbrough Jr.'s will is on file in Fairfield County, S.C. (Book 7, page 84). The will was signed 25 Feb 1816 and probated 22 Jun 1816, so John died somewhere between February and June of 1816. In his will he named: "my dear loving wife" (name not given); sons Jesse; Thomas and Arthur (Arthur to have the place where he lives now); daughter Martha. Executors were son-in-law Ferguson and Jesse Havis. Will was witnessed by John Graham; Obidiah Havis and Jonathan Havis. His will mentions his lands adjacent to the boundaries of the following: James McCan, James McCain, Reedy Creek, "My still house branch," Jesse Havis, James Stevenson, Jesse Wair.

From the will of John Havis (signed 4 March 1807 in Fairfield Co. SC, we know that the wife of John Yarbrough was the daughter of John Havis and her name was Mary.

The probate records show that the executor "son-in-law Ferguson" was James Ferguson, the husband of Martha.

I do not have a marriage date for John and Mary or a birth date for either. However, using averages -- the first child was usually born within two years of a marriage. Sarah was born 1777, which would give an approximate year of 1775 for the marriage. Most men married between the ages of 20-30. Using the average age of 25, that would give a possible time period of birth of around 1750.

The John Yarbrough who married Elizabeth Murray was b. ca 1731 in Virginia and married Elizabeth Murray 13 Aug 1757 in Prince George, Virginia. Elizabeth was b. ca 1735 and died between 1824-26 in Fairfield County, SC. For Elizabeth to have been the mother of the children listed above (to John and Mary), she would have not had her first child until 1777 - 20 years after they married? Also, the last child, Jesse, was born in 1795. Elizabeth would have been 60 years old at his birth.

Some researchers have said that Mary Havis was the second wife of John Y. Jr. But, Elizabeth died between 1824 and 1826 in Fairfield County, SC. When John Jr. wrote his will and when it was probated in 1816, his wife was Mary Havis. He was married to Mary Havis in 1807 as was proven by the will of John Havis that year.

I think it is much more likely that Elizabeth Murray was his mother -- not his wife. I think researchers have confused the two John Y's because they were both in Fairfield Co., SC, and they both used the same given names for their sons. The early Y's were maddening in that all the men seemed to have named their sons after their fathers, brothers and uncles, making a lot of men with the same names in the same areas in the same years. It gets frustrating sometimes trying to untangle the people.

As you can see, anything you can add will be appreciated and helpful.

Best wishes,

Karen Mazock

Again, this is all the information I have on this family. I would appreciate anything you could add to it. I would almost be willing to bet there was at least one children born between Lewis (b. 1803) and Nancy (b 1809) -- probably died either at birth or in infancy.

Re: Thomas Jefferson Yarbrough

Dear Peggy:

It is always a pleasure to hear from a fellow Yarbrough family researcher. I will try to answer your letter, though I am afraid I don't have much to help you in establishing the parentage of your Thomas J.

First, the Yarbrough Association. Yes, there is a national group - The Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association (YNGHA). We are incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia. We have an annual "conference" once a year. They are called conferences rather than reunions as the gathering is for all the various Y. lines. "Reunion" seemed to imply a gathering of one particular line. The site of the conference varies. By having it in different states, we feel that it makes it possible for more people to attend. The 1993 conference will be held in Huntsville, Alabama the last weekend of July. As your line was in Alabama, this conference may be of special interest to you. Many of the researchers take a few extra days in connection with the conferences and research on their way to and from the gathering.

There is always a Saturday workshop where researchers meet to share records on the lines. Many have found their lines from the shared records.

YNGHA has two types of membership. The first is a "regular voting membership". This is $25.00 per year. A voting membership enables you to vote for the directors/officers of the corporation. The second is an "associate membership". This is $15.00 per year. Both memberships enable you to receive the Yarbrough Family Quarterly. I am asking the editor of YFQ to send you a sample copy. I will also prepare a query on your Thomas Jefferson Y. which should appear in the December YFQ.

To join, you need only fill out an application form and send your dues to our treasurer, Rea Donohue. I will include a membership application with this letter for you.

As to your Thomas J. -- I have records on several TJY's, but none of them are in the right area to be yours. You note that Thomas and Nancy were both born in Georgia. I have a large collection of Georgia records on the Y. line. They are separated into counties. Do you have any clue at all as to what county in Georgia?

There is one possibility for finding the county in Georgia and the name of TJY's father. The Handy Book says that Alabama began keeping birth and death records in 1908. As your TJY died in 1908, there may be a death certificate for him on file. The death certificates usually give the birthplace of the deceased, along with the name of the father and maiden name of the mother. It depends on who gave the information for the death certificate. A wife would probably have known the name of her husband's father. Also, a child would have probably know his grandfather's name at least.

If you have not tried this source, it may be worthwhile. I do not know what Alabama charges for a copy of a death certificate, but the address to inquire is:

Bureau of Vital Statistics Department of Public Health Montgomery, Alabama 36104

When you write, ask if they have a death certificate on file for Thomas Jefferson Yarbrough, died August 8, 1908 in Cleburne/Randolph Co., Alabama. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope. If they have a record, tney will send you the charge to have it copied. I usually ask for just a copy rather than a certified copy. The cost of certified copies varies from state to state -- from $5 to $25 - depending on the state.

The Handy Books says that Cleburne County, Alabama, was formed in 1866 from parts of Calhoun, Randolph and Talladega Counties. If James P., b. ca 1854, was the first born child, then TJY and Nancy were probably married ca 1852. I do not see a Thomas J. Y. as a head of household on the 1850 Alabama census index which may indicate that he and Nancy were not yet married in 1850. The first child was usually born within the first two years of marriage. The marriage bond is probably on file in one of the three counties from which Cleburne was formed. You noted Randolph Co along with Cleburne — I assume that TJY may have lived in the part of Randolph County from which Cleburne was formed. Randolph County is right across the line from Heard County, Georgia and I do have some records of Yas in that part of Georgia.

If you have not already ordered a death certificate, I would certainly try that next. Meanwhile, we will print your query and perhaps it will be seen by researcher who can help.

I am enclosing a couple of family groupsheets filled out as far as I could with the information you sent. If you can add any information at all, please do so and return it to me. Also, keep me posted on your progress. The next record you find may match up with something in the Y. archives and open a new door.

I wish I could be of more help to you! But maybe the query will bring some help.

Best wishes,

Dear Ophelia:

I have just heard from a new researcher and I haven't been able to help her much beyond suggesting that she try to get a death certificate for her great grandfather, Thomas Jefferson Yarbrough. Alabama began keeping death certificates in 1908 and, as he died that year, there just might be one on file for him. I do not have any records at all for Cleburne Co., Alabama. Do you?

Anyway, here is the information she sent me:

Thomas Jefferson Yarbrough:

1831 Georgia, Aug 1908 Randolph/Cleburne b. ca married:

Nancy J. Roberts - b. ca 1834 GA, d 28 Mar 1887 Cleburne Co., AL

Children:

James P. b. ca 1854 AL b. ca 1856 AL M.A.M. b. ca 1858 AL Wm. W. Amanda Eveline b. 16 Dec 1860 AL John T. b. ca 1866 AL

Thomas J. married second Lizzie Johnson. She died 13 Feb 1918. Thomas J. Y. was a justice of the peace in 1891 - his name appears on several papers in the Cleburne Co. Courthouse.

Amanda Eveline Yarbrough married Rev. William Lee Brown in 1874. These are the great grandparents of the researcher making the inquiry: Peggy J. Fisher. 53120 Crestview Drive, South Bend; IN 46695 If you have anything at all to help her. you can send it directly to her, but copy me as I'd like to add the information to my file on this Thomas J. Y.

I am getting a lot of letters asking about the September 1992 YFQ. Last time I talked to Leonard (at least 3 weeks ago), he indicated that he had it ready to print. Have you heard anything?

I have been trying to catch up on genealogical mail ... I am so far behind! Hope all is well with you.

SENATOR GEORGE W. YARBROUGH

After thirty years' service in Alabama public education, GEORGE WASHINGTON YARBROUGH of Randolph County, Alabama, ran for and was elected to the Alabama State Senate for the 1955-59 term, and was elected to the Alabama State Senate Education Committee. where he served as Chairman of the Senate Education Committee.

Having been educated in the public schools of Randolph County, he received in 1924, as Valedictorian, his A.B. degree from Howard College, where he was President of the Student Body. Later, in 1940, he received an H.A. degree, in School Administration, from the University of Alabana.

Senator Yarbrough was horn in Randolph County, Alabama, the county in which he lived many years, on November 22, 1892, at Lanar. He was the son of John Thomas Yarbrough and Lucinda Chaffin Yarbrough.

This line of Yarbroughs connects with English Yarbrough line of Richard Yarbrough, who immigrated to America in 1653. Senator Yarbrough has personally done genealogical research which connects his immedite predecessors with Richard Yarbrough.

Prom his grandfather, William Yarbrough of Henry County, Georgia, who married Eleanor Gentry, George W. Yarbrough's line goes back as follows:

William Yarbrough of Henry Co., Georgia

Thomas Yarbrough of Fairfield Co., South Carolina
John Yarbrough, Jr. of Fairfield Co., South Carolina
John Yarbrough, Sr. of Amelia Co., Virginia
Thomas Yarbrough of Amelia Co., Virginia
John Yarbrough of King William Co., Virginia
Richard Yarbrough, Immigrant, King & Queen Co., Virginia
Prior to his entry into politics, Senator Yarbrough's life work was school administration and college teaching. He worked as an administrator in schools at Berry and Wedowee, Alabama, as well as teaching in Howard College. Also, he served his country in 1917-19 in Worl War I. Following his term in the Alabama State Senate, he retired to his home in Wedowee, Alabama

George W. Yarbrough married Thelma Stacy on May 27th, 1924. They have one daughter, Emilu. Senator Yarbrough, a Democrat, is a Baptist Deacon and Bible class teacher, a Mason, W.O.W. and K. of P.

The Senator was a Fellow of the American Institute of Genealogy from 1930-42, and was a researcher for the Institute on a survey of the Yarbrough family in America which was made with a $30,000.00 endowment during the 1930's. His research on the family has been extensive, and he is probably the foremost authority on Yarborough family history in America today.

As of the date of this publication Sen. Yarborough was retired and residing in Mobile, Alabama.

picture from newspaper clipping, furnished by the Alabama
Department of Archives and History

This biography was written by Charles D. Yarborough, with the aid of Sen. George W. Yarbrough and "Kemoranda for Biographical Sketch of Georg Washington Yarbrough," which is on file with the Alabama Department of Archives and History at Montgomery, Alabama.

In a book entitled "History of Alabama and Her People", Volume III, page 525 (call #976.1 - Moore; Ga. State Archives) is an article about a James Jasper Yarbrough. We know that he is related to our Yarbroughs because in an old box of family pictures is a picture card with a man's picture and the name J. J. Yarbrough, and a line underneath stating he was principal of Gaylesville Academy. This fits in with the biography of the above mentioned James Jasper Yarbrough in the book. I believe that he probably was her nephew, the son of one of her brothers.

This would mean that our first American ancestor would be Captain Edward Yarbrough, who settled in Virginia and later moved to the Carolinas. According to the article he was a signer of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence at the beginning of the American Revolution. (This is a much disputed document, as to authenticity, etc. I have not been able to prove he signed it.) The Yarbroughs were described as being an English family. Edward also is described as being a charter member and one of the founders of the Order of the Cincinnati.

The Order of the Cincinnati is described as being "a hereditary organization with headquarters at Washington, D.C., founded by American and foreign officers of the Continental Army in May, 1783. (The New Funk & Wagnalls Encyclopedia, 1952, page 2693.)

The article goes on to say that the grandfather of James Jasper was William Yarbrough, born January 1, 1800, in York, South Carolina and in 1832 moved to Clayton Co. Georgia and about 1861 to Randolph Co., Ala. where he established what was long known as the Yarbrough plantation 25 miles north of Roanoke. He farmed there and died in 1897 at age of 97. He married a Miss Gentry (some of my relatives had mentioned there was a Gentry somewhere along the way) who was born in South Carolina in 1800 and died in 1883.

Their son, John T. Yarbrough, was the father of James Jasper Yarbrough. John T. Yarbrough was born 1850, Clayton Co., Ga. and was about 10 years old when his family moved to Alabama. He married Miss Lucindia Chaffin, born Henry Co., Ga., 1849. They had nine children.

Apparently when this article was published in 1927 John T. was still living, as it says he "still occupies the old homestead of his father-in-law, Nathan Chaffin, about twenty miles north of Roanoke in Randolph County."

YARBROUGH

8/4/81

The following information came from a telephone conversation with Sharon Beall, who got the information from a letter written to her by her mother, Katie Lee Yarbrough, daughter of Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough; Jefferson Jackson was the brother of William Yarbrough, and they were the sons of Sarah E. Yarbrough. (Katie is presently 62 years of age.)

Jefferson Jackson Yarbrough married Lizzie Ida Tyree. They had 13 children, one of whom died young. Katie is the youngest and is now 62; 1 son (John) is still living (he has a son named Bill.). Katie now lives in the Miami, Florida area.

According to Katie Lee Yarbrough, Jeff and William's mother, Sarah E. Yarbrough, was never married. When she carried Jeff she was "taken advantage of". The father was an organ tuner from Germany named Sankey.

Jeff and William had different fathers. Sarah's family had money, and when she had Jeff her father gave her some land and a horse and put her out. There was a married farmer living nearby who was good to Sarah and helped her with the farm and so forth. Eleven years later William was born. (Apparently this married farmer was his father.)

Lizzie Ida, Jeff's wife, said that "Granny" (Sarah) was a fine woman, good-looking, educated, and did very well with

Jeff was a country school teacher when he married, then after the children started coming along he moved and became overseer of a big farm in south Georgia.

(end of Sharon's information)

My mother, Mary Ethel Yarbrough Stone, had told me several years ago that once when she was growing up she found a book in the house with the name William Ely in it. She asked her father about it and he just said that it was his middle name (which no one ever knew him to have a middle name) and that he never liked it and so he never used it.

Because of this, when I was researching census records for Randolph Co., Ala. for the year 1880 (the year and county where William was born) my eye happened to catch the following listing:

Ely, Wm. White Male 51 yrs. Farmer Mary "Fmale 47 years Wife

He was born in Ga., his father in N.C., his mother in Ga. She was born in SC and both her parents in SC.

This would all fit in very well with Katie's story, and I feel it is highly possible that this William Ely was William Yarbrough's father

On December 27, 1894, at Rockford, Coosa County, Mr. Holley was united in marriage with Miss Martha Jane Lawson, daughter of M. L. and Martha Lawson, the former of whom died in 1921 and the latter when Mrs. Holley was seven years old. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson had the following children: Clara, who married W. T. Speigner and has five children; Stelle, who married J. S. Bentley and has one child; Martha Jane, who is Mrs. Holley; David, who married Minnie Baldwin and has two children; Barnett, who married Maude Stephens and has two children; Lizzie, who married A. B. Bentley and has four children; and Mary Lyle. Mr. Lawson was the owner and operator of a sawmill, a grist mill, a feed and cotton gin, and was one of the substantial and greatly respected men of his community. He was only sixteen years of age when he enlisted for service in the Confederate army and for a time saw action as a member of the Light Horse Artillery. He was a member of the Old Lawson family which traces its history back to Revolutionary war heroes. To Mr. and Mrs. Holley there have been born six children: Miss Thelma, who is unmarried and resides with her parents; Joseph Kyle, who in September, 1924, married Winifred Morris; Janie Lou, who in October, 1924, married S. B. Martin; James Monroe, Jr., who on June 18, 1925, married Miss Mildred Dowling; Rayburn D. and Matt Lawson. Mr. Holley and his family are members of the Baptist Church. He is a fourteenth degree Mason, and a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, the Improved Order of Red Men, and of the State and County Bar Associations, of the latter of which he is secretary.

Prof. James Jasper Yarbrough. The work of the modern educator is not only very important, but to carry it on according to present-day regulations a most thorough training, covering years of study, is necessary, and continued reading and post-graduate courses must be continued. What was once a somewhat makeshift occupation bridging an interval between the lower and higher courses for a proposed entrant into one or other of the learned callings has been developed into a profession just as exacting as that of medicine, the law or the ministry. It is right and proper that this should be, for into the hands of the educator is given the minds of the rising generation, and the lives of future Americans, of the very continuance of the country itself are largely dependent upon what impression is made upon these plastic natures by those placed over them in the schoolroom. After many years in different schools, and now, as principal of the Henry County High School, Prof. James Jasper Yarbrough of Headland is demonstrating his fitness for his profession and the thoroughness of his training.

Professor Yarbrough was born near Graham, Randolph County, Alabama, December 13, 1875. The Yarbroughs are an English family. His first American ancestor was Captain Edward Yarbrough, who settled in Yirginia and Jater in the Carotinas. He was a signer of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence at the beginning of the Revolution and served in the Colonial armies. He was a charter member and one of the founders of the Order of the Cincinnati. The grandfather of James Jasper Yarbrough was William Yarbrough who was born on January I, 1800, in York, South Carolina, and in 1832 removed to Clayton County, Georgia, and about 1861 to Randolph County, Alabama, where he established what was long known as the Yarbrough plantation twenty-five miles north of Roanoke. He engaged in farming there on an extensive scale and engaged in larming there on an extensive scale and died in 1897 at the venerable age of ninety-seven. He married a Miss Gentry, who was born in South Carolina in 1800 and died in 1883. Their son, John T. Yarbrough, the father of James Jasper Yarbrough, still occupies the old homestead of his father-in-law, Northern Chaffin about tiwenty miles north of Popular Nathan Chaffin, about twenty miles north of Roanoke in Randolph County. John T. Yarhrough was born in Clayton County, Georgia, in 1850, and was about ten years of age when his parents came to Alabama. In after years he bought the old homestead from his father's and mother's estate, and later, as stated above, that of his father-in-law, and the fruit of his toil and good management has provided him and his family with ample prosperity. He is a Democrat and has held local offices in his community and is a memberof the Missionary Baptist Church. John T. Yar-brough married Miss Lucindia Chaffin, who was born in Henry County, Georgia, in 1849. They had a family of nine children: William L, chief commissioner of internal revenue, income tax division, of the State of Texas, with home at San Antonio: James J.; John T. Jr., a resident of Crossville, Alabama, and acknowledged as the most progressive farmer in De Kalb County; Caesar Augustus, a doctor of dental surgery at Macon, Georgia, and author of a series of books on Roman Catholicism; Arrie, wife of William H. Crouch, a rancher at Shawnee, Oklahoma; Patrick Henry, postmaster and general merchant of Lamar in Randolph County; Robert Toombs, collector of internal revenue at Athens, Tennessee, entered the World war as a private, September 4, 1917, saw service on British fronts, Argonne Forest, Toul and other places, wounded once, received his honorable discharge as second lieutenant, February 14, 1919; Dona Mary, wife of John L. McCarley, a farmer near Lamar, Alabama; and George W., the youngest of the family, superintendent of schools at Berry in Fayette County.

Professor Yarbrough attended the public schools of his native county and received a high school education. He later was a student of the Roanoke, Alabama Normal College, from which he was graduated in 1900, with a degree of Bachelor of Science. For a year he was first assistant of Wedowee Normal College, Wedowee, Alabama, after which he engaged in the mercantile business at Lamar, Alabama, and continued in it for four years. However, it had always been his intention to enter permanently the educational field and, going to Beesan Academy of Pisgah, Jackson County, Alabama, he was its principal for a year, after which for the next four years he was principal of Galesville Academy at Galesville Charoline County Alabama. For four Galesville, Cherokee County, Alabama. For four years more he was principal of the Elmore County High School at Eclectic, Alabama. His next school was the Coffee County High School at Enterprise, Alabama, of which he continued principal for two years, going from there to the Newton Baptist Collegiate Institute at Newton, Dale County, Alabama, as principal for a year. In 1918, upon leaving Newton, he came to Headland as principal of the Henry County High School, which position he still holds. Under his supervision are 186 pupils and eight teachers. He is a democratic political content. ers. He is a democrat in politics. The Missionary Baptist Church of Headland holds his membership, and it is a really unusual thing that he his parents and the other eight children all belong to this denomination, and all of them are democrats. fessor Yarbrough belongs to the Educational Association of Alabama. He resides on Church Street, Headland.

On May 25, 1900, Professor Yarbrough married at Wedowee, Alahama, Miss Alice Bell Willoughby, a daughter of Robert and Mary (McKee) Willoughby, a daughter of Robert and Mary (McKee) Willoughby, a farmer at Newell, Randolph County, for many years, became a inan of prominence, and served as sheriff of his county for one term, in which office he gained a well sustained reputation for faithfulness and high personal courage. Professor and Mrs. Yarbrough have had seven children born to their marriage as follows: Mary Jim, who is a student in the Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tennessee; Ralph Harold, who is a student of Mercer University, Macon, Georgia; Helen Carol, who is a student of the Junior High School, Headland; Horace Spurgeon, who is a student in the Headland Grammar School; and John Robert, who died at the age of two and one-half years, and two who died in infancy. The years that Professor Yarbrough has devoted to the work he loves have ripened him, given him a broader understanding of human nature and made him a more helpful teacher and sympathetic friend. His success with his students, has become proverbial, and his school ranks with the best of its kind in this part of the state because of the effort he is constantly putting forth on its behalf.

CHURVIS VAN BUREN CAPPS. Honors and public confidence can not be won lightly in any line of endeavor. To achieve even a small measure of success necessitates intelligently directed labor and good management, as well as a knowledge of the business undertaken. Luck is a word frequently used in conjunction with the life of a successful man of a community, but when his prosperity is traced back to its source it will be found that his own personality has been the dominating factor. Another, given the very same opportunities might not have been able to make the same use of them, so that instead of luck misfortune would seem to dog his footsteps. Had he possessed the same characteristics as the first man, worked as hard, and looked about him for other openings he, too, would be ranked among the successful men instead of the failure he is, and yet he is the one who is most likely to prate of luck, and to wonder why some have more than their share of that advantage. Churvis Van Buren Capps, cashier, vice president and executive head of the First Na-tional Bank of Newville, is oftentimes called a lucky man. He, and those close to him, know that he has accomplished what seems like a most remarkable advance in life because of his unremitting industry, his thrift and his wise investments, which have enabled him to pass others in the race of life.

Churvis Van Buren Capps was born at Capps, Henry County, Alabama, in 1838, a son of Daniel W. Capps, and grandson of Martin Van Buren Capps, born in Georgia in 1839, and died at Abbeville April 4, 1921. When still a young man he came to Henry County, and not only became an extensive planter, but was also president, at the time of his death, of the First National Bank of Abbeville, to which little city he had gone in 1900, and which continued his home the remainder of his life. When war broke out between the North and the South he cast his lot with the Confederacy, and served in the Army of the South throughout the war, and then, the cause lost, returned home and worked patriotically to bring things back to normal once more. He married Sarah Hicks, a native of Henry County, whose death occurred near Abbeville.

State of the state

Daniel W. Capps was born in Henry County, February 24, 1861, and died at Albuquerque, New Mexico. Reared and married in Henry County, he was one of the outstanding figures in his home county, and Capps Station was named in his honor, he having been a farmer and pioneer merchant of the settlement. His farming interests were large and important, and he was also interested in banking. On account of a breakdown he went to New Mexico in 1920, hoping the change would do him. good, but he passed away after a few months at Albuquerque. While public life did not attract him, he was a strong supporter of the democratic party. The Missionary Baptist Church held his membership, and he was the main pillar of the home church. He married Susie Murphy, who was born in Henry County, in 1865. She survives him and makes her home on the old homestead at Capps, Alabama. Seven children were born to the parents, namely: Lee Webster, who is a farmer of Capps; Mittie, who resides near Newville, the wife of James J. Sanders, a farmer; Churvis Van Buren, whose name heads this review; Henry Grady, who operated the homestead at Capps, is also a merchant, and a veteran of the World war, having seen service in France; Lonie, who resides at Capps, the wife of W. Jefferson Smith, a farmer; Oren, who resides at Capps with his mother; and Ruby, who also resides with her mother.

Churvis Van Buren Capps attended the rural schools of Henry County, and was graduated from the Third District Agricultural School, Abbeville, in 1909. For a year more he continued on the homestead, after which he began farming for himself. His small beginnings have been expanded until today he owns farms in Henry County aggregating 1,750 acres. In 1910 he left his farm and moved to Newville, but his connection with the First National Bank of this city did not commence until February 1, 1922, when he became its cashier. In January, 1924, he was also made vice president of the bank. This bank was opened for business in 1910. Its present officers are: J. T. Capps, president; C. V. Capps, vice president and cashier; and Joseph D. Griffin, assistant cashier. The bank is capitalized at $25,000, has surplus and profits of $7,000, and deposits of $75,000, and is accepted as one of the sound and reliable financial institutions of Henry County.

Mr. Capps has always been one of the active democrats of this section, and is now a member of the City Council, serving in his second year, and he is also a member of the Board of Education of Newville. Reared in the faith of the Missionary Baptist Church, he early united with this church, and is now its clerk. A Mason, he belongs to Newville Lodge No. 710, A. F. and A. M.; Abbeville Chapter No. 147, R. A. M.; Dotham Commandery No. 25, K. T., and Alcazar Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., of Montgomery. He also belongs to Newville Camp No. 332, W. O. W., of which he is a past consul commander; to the Modern Order of Praetorians and to the Columbian Mutual Life Assurance Society. During the late war Mr. Capps was one of the Four Minute Speakers of the county, and his flaming sincerity and forceful presentation of facts brought forth notably generous responses from the audiences he addressed in behalf of all of the drives. He owns a nice comfortable residence on Railroad Street, Newville.

On August 28, 1910, Mr. Capps married, near Newville, Miss Eunice Jones, a daughter of James G. and Carrie (Whidden) Jones. Mrs. Jones resides at Dothan, Alabama, where Mr. Jones died April J,

SENATOR GEORGE W. YARBROUGH

After thirty years' service in Alabama public education, GEORGE WASHINGTON YARBROUGH of Pandolph County, Alabama, ran for and was elected to the Alabama State Senate for the 1955-59 term, where he served as Chairman of the Senate Education Committee.

Having been educated in the public schools of Randolph County, he received in 1924, as Valedictorian, his A.B. degree from Howard College, where he was President of the Student Body. Later, in 1940, he received an M.A. degree, in School Administration, from the University of Alabama.

Senator Yarbrough was born in Randolph County, Alabama, the county in which he lived many years, on November 22, 1892, at Lamar. He was the son of John Thomas Yarbrough and Lucinda Chatfin Yarbrough.

This line of Yarbroughs connects with English Yarbrough line of Richard Yarbrough, who immigrated to America in 1653. Senator Yarbrough has personally done genealogical research which connects his immedite predecessors with Richard Yarbrough.

From his grandfather, William Yarbrough of Henry County, Georgia, who married Fleanor Gentry, George W. Yarbrough's line noes back as follows:

goes back as follows:

William Yarbrough of Henry Co., Georgia Fieanof Contary

Thomas Yarbrough of Fairfield Co., South Carolina Martha

John Yarbrough, Jr. of Fairfield Co., South Carolina Mary Dixo

John Yarbrough, Sr. of Amelia Co., Virginia Bersheba Hannis

Thomas Yarbrough of Amelia Co., Virginia Mary Granlock A

John Yarbrough of King William Co., Virginia Abisail Thicks Fr

Richard Yarbrough, Immigrant, King & Oueen Co., Virginia T. nCes Fr

Prior to his entry into politics, Senator Yarbrough's life work was school administration and college teaching. He worked as an administrator in schools at Berry and Wedowee, Alabama, as well as teaching in Howard College. Also, he served his country in 1917-19 in Worl War I. Following his term in the Alabama State Senate, he retired to his home in Wedowee, Alabama.

The Senator was a Fellow of the American Institute of Genealogy from 1930-42, and was a researcher for the Institute on a survey of the Yarbrough family in America which was made with a $30,000.00 endowment during the 1930's. His research on the family has been extensive, and he is probably the foremost authority on Yarborough family history in America today.

As of the date of this publication Sen. Yarborough was retired and residing in Mobile, Alabama.

contacted the Commission, and offered to publish a list of all the Yarbrough marriage licenses in their files, in the event any of YFM's readers are descendants. Further, I offered to accept any unclaimed Yarbrough licenses in trust. Rather than sending me a list, the committee instead sent me every Yarbrough license which has so far been located, and I now have the originals in my possession. I received 4, and am reproducing two of them in in this issue and the other two in the next issue of YFM. These original licenses will be distributed by me to descendants on a first request basis. Any undistributed licenses will be retained by me in YFM archives.

Births

From a local newspaper I learned of the February 5, 1982 birth of Jeremy Keith Aldert, daughter of Phyllis Aldert, a YFM subcriber from Hurst, Tarrant County, Texas, and descendant of the 1836 Texas Battle of San Jacinto's John Swanson Yarborough. Congratulations, Phyllis.

Generations of American Yarbroughs

Mention in the November, 1981 newsletter (YFM 4/105) of the birth an 11th generation American Yarborough brought an interesting response from Rupert H. Yarbrough of Tuscaloosa (a nephew of Sen. George W. Yarbrough). Rupert states that he believes that the latest generation in his family is the 11th American Yarbrough generation, which matches that in Kay Yarborough's family:

A poortion of this same lineage appears at YFM 4/95.

Rupert has an older sister, Janie Jacoway, who has a great grandson, who, of course, does not carry the Y. name, but who represents the 12th, generation, and his older brother, Rex Rudolph (1909-1969) is survived by a great grandson of the Y. name who is in the 12th American born generation.

Included in this issue is correspondence I am pleased to present showing the conclusion of the Petersburg, Virginia Blandford Church Cemetery Richard Yarbrough headstone corrective inscription, which I think speaks for all of us.

Mrs S. A. Brown Box 140, Palmetto, Georgia

Dear Phyllis,

Again I have delayed my reply until I am ashamed. Vernelle and I went to Randolph county about four weeks ago and visite d the cemetaries I knew about and was interested in. Almost everything seems to be located on Ala #48 which is a continuation of Georgia 5 southwest from Bowden. The first thing you hit (about 1 mi from Ga line) is Graham where my parents were married. Before you get out of Graham there is Shiloh church and cemetery on your right. Three or four miles further down is old Shiloh cemetery on your left. There our great grandmother Eleanor Gentry Yarbrough is buried -- but apparently in an unmarked grave. We could not find anything we could identify with in either of the Shilohs.

Four or five miles further brings you to an intersection with Randolph 60. #103. Left on it three or four hundred yards brings you to Providence church and cemetery. We did not carry a camera. Vernelle made notes. We found a big Yarbrough headstone and three smaller markers William Y. 1800 -- 1896

John Thomas Y. 1850 - 1937 Lucinda Chaffin Y. 1849-1940.

I have a feeling that the stones were put up after John Thomas Y died. The dates for William Yarbrough could have been erronneous. I think Papa told me that William lived to be 97, and your source says he died in 1897. That information of course was provided by Uncle Jim, John's second son. Both he and Papa, the third son, would likely remember better than Uncle George or Uncle Robert, the 7th and 6th sons, who barely knew their grandfather. Uncle Robert probably took care of all funeral arrangements and related things. Mistakes are frequently made on tomd stones, and in obituaries as well.

It is my opinion that all the Yarbroughs/this and nearby cemeteries were decendants of William Yarbriugh of 1800. If not then surely of one of his brothers.

Don't guess I had told you, but Papa had another fatherless cousin -- apparently Mary, born 1831. When I was a small child we stopped by a large house with a porch all around it when returning to north Alabama from a visit in Randolph Co. owners name was Sewell (sp) a big fat man who served us watermelons. I asked Mama what relation he was to us and she was rather uncommunicative -- said "Some of your papers kinfolks." Many years later I was visiting Papa's oldest brother in San Antonio and made some remark about one of grand Pap's sisters taking up with "Old man Sewell" and bearing him a child. Immediately I remembered the watermeloms and the big house with an all-around porch. I mentioned to Uncle George once over the phone and he said "I am familiar with the house." Three Four weeks ago I asked one of my cousins on Mama's side about it. She said the house was still standing and is #48, between Old Shiloh Cemetery and Providence. Think we saw it but it didn't look like my Childhood memory of it. Courin said The Sewells did not live there any more but have a business somewhere --Graham possibly.

I'ved rambled on a long time. Will just quit!

Brs S. A. Brown

Dear Mrs Brown,

I am happy to report that you have indeed found a living connection with one set of your cousins, but saddened by the knowledge that when you were first studying this. Uncle George could have almost surely answered your questions. I don't know anyome living now that would have personal knowledge of what you want to clarify and verify. I will go down your letter and try to help.

Was surprised to see the picture of Uncle Jim. I have one like it. He was principal of Henry County High School, Headland, Alabama fo more than 30 years. He died and was buried there June 10, 1966.

William Yarbrough of 1800 did indeed have a daughter named "SARAH, BORN 1944. SHE DIED 1934. SHE WAS UNMARRIED.", quoting from Uncle George's report prepared for each of his siblings.

His wife and daughter are still living. Suggest you go thru the daughter if you try to contact them. She is Emilu Yarbrough Gray --- Mrs. Rex Grav 4212 N. Carmel Drive 36608. Aunt Thelma has never been interested in Genealogy. Emilu on the other hand has used Uncle Georges research files to further research into her husbands family.

I do not know about about the "Yarbrough Plantation". Was pleased to learn from the material you sent me that Grand Pap raised his family on land formerly owned by his father-in-law. I think the house he built there in the early 1880's is still standing.

Great Grand Pap Billy is buried in the cemetery of Providence Church-(-mentioned Missionary Baptist Church, Woodland, Alabama. His son John Thomas and daughter in law, Lucindia Chafin Yarbringh are buried by his side. (about 20 miles north of Roanoke.)

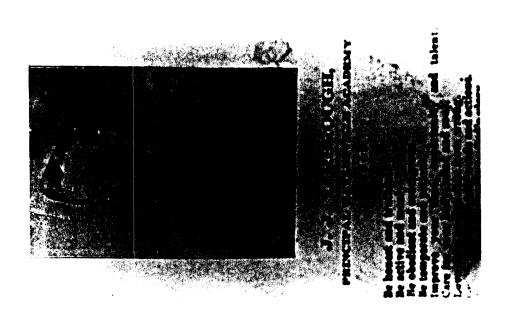

I can't give much directions. All I know is go east from Wedowee and ask some one. I have kinfolks there on my mother's side, but don't even know where they live. My wife and I are planning an extend ed vacation shortly and may not return before the first of July. I don't want to get involved in anything else before then. I want to v isit the cemetery myself. It is possible that we could meet you and your husband down there somewhere and check it out together. A better bet would be to ask directions from Mobile. Aunt Thelma surely could tell you how to go just about anywhere you would want to. She lived there with Uncle George until about 1971.

I don't hold much hope of your going from your Edward Yarbrough to Richard the emigrant. A note to the YFM might get something. I think it will eventually be ravelled thru the concentrated research the family is doing now. Wkkk

Will enclose a few papers, and possibly, a picture. -- Not trying to start a romance -- am 75 and happily married:

Your cousin,

Rupert H. Yarbrough

Mrs. S.A. Brown P.O. Box 150 Palmetto, GA. 30268

Lt. Col. Rupert H. Yarbrough 40 University Circle Tuscaloosa, ALA. 35401

Dear Lt. Col. Yarbrough:

Recently I read the information you sent to the Yarbrough Family Magazine regarding Senator George Washington Yarbrough, who apparently was your uncle. In comparing this information to some of the research I did several years ago on my Yarbrough ancestors, it would appear that you and I are some sort of "cousins". This is the first time I have come across anyone that I could connect my Yarbrough relations with and I am very sorry that I was not aware of it until after Senator Yarbrough died, especially since anyone who lived to the age of 96 may have personally known some of my relatives in the distant past. I have enclosed information regarding my Yarbrough line, which has been something of a mystery in certain aspects as you will see from reading it.

In an old box of family pictures we have a card-type photograph with the name J. J. Yarbrough and a line stating that he was principal of Gaylesville Academy. I believe this to be a son of John T. Yarbrough and Lucindia Abigail Chaffin, and therefore apparently the brother of Senator George Washington Yarbrough. I believe that my great-grandmother, Sarah E. Yarbrough, was the aunt of these two men. If you or any of your family members know anything at all about Sarah E. Yarbrough I would greatly appreciate any information. I noted in the YFM that Senator Yarbrough's wife is still living and his daughter; do you think they would be able to help me?

I would also be interested in knowing where any of the Yarbrough family homeplaces were, such as the "Yarbrough Plantation" 25 miles north of Roanoke which is mentioned in the excerpt I have enclosed from a book about Alabama. I would like to be able to get good directions so that my husband and I could visit any homesites and/or cemeteries. Does anyone know where William Yarbrough who was born in 1800 and moved to Randolph Co., Ala. around 1861 is buried? I would be more than happy to share any information I have, and actually most of what I have is probably attached with this letter. I will try to send you a copy of the photograph of J. J. Yarbrough, and I would be more than happy to pay for copies (even if they are only Xeroxed) of any photographs you may have of any of my direct line of ancestors. By the way, I had my first American ancestor listed as Captain Edward Yarbrough; how do I get back to Richard Yarborough the emigrant to Virginia in the 1600's? you aware of any research or writings by Senator Yarbrough I might be able to obtain a copy of from anyone? I am certainly looking forward to hearing from you, and as mentioned above, I will be happy to pay for any copies and postage. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Mrs. S. A. Brown

Mrs. S. A. (Phyllis) Brown P.O. Box 150 Palmetto, GA. 30268

Mr. R. H. Yarbrough 40 University Circle Tuscaloosa, Ala. 35401

Dear Mr. Yarbrough:

You will never know how much I appreciate your reply to my letter and all the information you sent to me. I first started my Yarbrough research about 12 years ago and this is the first time I have ever been able to definitely tie in to another set of Yarbroughs. I hope to visit the Providence Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery in Woodland, Alabama the first chance I get, although it may have to wait until fall since I am not too fond of the summer heat.

You show my great-grandmother, Sarah Yarbrough, as being born in 1844 and died in 1934. I know this is not correct because she died before my mother was born and mother was born 1921. She was born in 1840, which does fit in with the census records I have found and is on her tombstone, and the tombstone shows that she died in 1918.

I apologize for the fact that I forgot to send a self-addressed, stamped envelope when I wrote to you previously; I had intended to but forgot, so I am enclosing some stamps with this letter (if I remember).

I am planning to send Emilu a copy of the letter I originally sent to you and see if she can shed any further light on the family tree, but I feel like I really received more than I ever hoped with your letter. It gave me several leads on cemeteries and records to check into. At some point I will try to send you a picture of Sarah Yarbrough. It would be interesting to know if you see any family resemblance, although she looks quite old in the picture that I have.

In looking over the information you sent, I see a few other little discrepancies in dates. Your info shows that Eleanor Gentry Y. died in 1881, and the book I sent you copies from shows she died in 1883. I suppose the best way to verify that would be to check the cemetery.

I really must sign off for now, but I do want you to know how very much I appreciate your letter and information. My grandfather, William Yarbrough, was married to Lee Ethel Eugene McLendon. We will be going to the annual McLendon Reunion in Carroll Co. GA. on June 26th and you would be more than welcome to come. I have enclosed an information sheet. Perhaps we could meet each other there, although it usually is extremely hot at this reunion and I could understand if that keeps you away, but you would certainly be most welcome! Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Thyllis Brown

THE MCLENDON FAMILY REUNION 1988 !!

To all descendants of: Isaac Newton McLendon of Meriwether and Carroll County, Georgia.

-Willis and William McLendon of Meriwether County, Georgia.

-Jacob McLendon of Wilkes County, Georgia.

We extent to you a cordial invitation to attend the Annual McLendon Family Reunion, held every year on the 4th Sunday in June. Listed below are the details;

Date: June 26th, Sunday, 1988

Time: Lunch at 12:00 Noon (Georgia Time). Please come earlier and fellowship with the kinfolks and lend a helping hand in set-up for the meal.

Where: John Tanner State Park, 354 Tanner Beach Road, Carrollton, Georgia 30179. Phone; 404-832-7545. Located 6 miles West of Carrollton on Ga. Road #16. There are a limited number of cottages available and you should make reservations as soon as possible if you would like to stay overnight in the Park. For additional park info. feel free to contact the reservations office at the above number.

Location within the Park: Main Covered Pavilion (seats 300 easy!) directly across the walk-way from the Reservations Office.

Food: Bring your favorite dish or dishes! Be sure to bring your own serving spoons. Please bring your tea (labeled as to sweet or un-sweet) or other favorite cold drinks! This is a reunion you know, and all dishes will be categorized by meat, vegetable, salad, dessert etc. so don't be shy! Some of our best times are GOOD FOOD, GOOD FRIENDS AND GOOD DRINK!

We wish to acknowledge the following items which are being donated for the reunion: Earl and Jan McLendon- Plates, Cups, Napkins, Forks and Spoons, Tablecloths.

Dennis and Monica Young- Ice for drinks (anyone needing ice for keeping their food dish cool should make provisions). It would be very helpful if those living near the Park would bring ice also as we tend to run low on some of the hotter weather reunions. Dennis and Monica have also (again this year) reserved the pavilion for us. This must be a labor of love, as one of them has to be in line at the park at 5:30 or 6:00 AM on the date the park reservations are accepted for the coming year. They have done this for the past several years. So! let's make a special effort to thank them!

If anyone has photos or memorabilia that they would like to share please feel free to bring them, as these items really add to the spirit of the event. Also. if there are some of you who play (non-amplified) instruments and would like to share a folk ballad or song please bring your instrument and show us your talent!

This can be the biggest and best reunion yet if everyone will pass the word around and bring the family, and remember Family History and Genealogy abound at this reunion, you may find the answer of a lifetime at this one!

Mrs. S. A. Brown

Dear Mrs. Brown,

Sorry to be little tardy with this reply. At 75, 'tardy' becomes easy to be. We returned from our vacation in late June and by the time I had caught up with things I needed another vacation:

I have ordered a map of Randolph county from Montgomery. Bon't when it will arrive. If you have already visited Randolph I guess it won't make much difference, but if not we might possibly go at the same time. Vernelle (my wife) and I drive around quite a bit. She seems to enjoy it. Sorta reminds her of our honeymoon, I guess, When I drove her from Sylacauga, Alabama to Brownwood, Texas at thirty-five miles an hour during World War II.

I knew there were errors in the papers Uncle George gave me. He gave them to me in 1967 when I carried Vernelle to see him (in Wedowee) and Uncle Robert (in woodland). Told me he was preparing a set for each of his brothers and would give me Ranks Papa's since he had died. I think he typed the papers himself. The copy of the will of John Yarbrough Jr. is erroneously titled the will John Yarbrough Sr. He was 75 years at the time and his mind was clear, but if he typed with two fingers like I do, some mistakes were obliged to creep in.

I argued with him the last time I saw him about the date of Great Grand Pap Billy's death. Papa told me he lived 97 years. I had seen it on his gravestone (I think) 1800 - 1897. Although Uncle Geore was under heavy medication at the time for Parkinson's disease, he was sure the death date was 1896 -- said he knew that was what was on his tomb stone because he was the one who put it there:

I have taken a page and that is enough. Tried to call you but the operator could not find S. A. Brown listed in Palmetto.

Dear Mr. Yarbrough:

Don't ever apologize for being slow in answering my letters, because I am always slow to reply, too. It's hard for me to keep up with everything I'm supposed to do every day.

We have not been to Alabama since I first corresponded with you and we would like to try and get together some time and see what we can find. Our daughter is involved in cheerleading at the present time, which ties up every Saturday through November 5th. Most of our Sundays for the next few weeks are taken also. Perhaps if the weather is not too cold we could try to make plans for the weekend of Nov. 12th?

As far as trying to get our phone number from information, although we have a post office box in Palmetto, we actually live in Tyrone, Ga. PHONE: 404/487-4596.

We have not even managed to make it over to Henry County, GA. since I wrote to you to try and find the cemetery mentioned there, although we only live about 45 min. from Henry Co., GA. We do have a map of Henry Co., GA., which we need to dig out and research. If and when we ever go over there we will send you pictures of any Yarbrough graves we may find.

If I did not have to work for a living and take care of my husband's bookkeeping, supervise my daughter's homework, clean the house, etc., etc., etc., I would make this a full-time project, but it simply is not possible at this point in life. Since you are more familiar with what there is to see in Alabama, perhaps you could plan a place for us to meet and a list of places to go to and then we can try to set a date. Thanks for your interest and assistance!

Sincerely,

Phyllis Brown

Dear Cousin Judy,

Thank you for your letter of April 9. How lucky you are to be in England, the land of our Yarbrough forefathers! Todate the National Yarbrough Conference, meeting in annual session this year at Swingfield, IL, considers Richard Yarborough, a London merchant, the first immigrant to America in about 1640. He died in 1702 and is busied at Petersburg, VA. He and members of his family are believed to be ancestors of all Yarbroughs in the United States, thus all are akin, despite the many variations in spellings.

Deterimining Richard's ancestors is an unending search of American Yarbroughs. Tracing one's heritage back to Richard and family is an unending effort of American Yarbroughs. I'll send a copy of your letter to conference members who great accumulations of family records and to those with on-going studies of family lineage. I hope some or all can be of help in your family line search.

The Interim News Sheet for "Yarborough Family Magazine" is the family news letter for the NYC. It is supposed to be published nine months of the year, Sept. thru May, contributions permitting. The magazine is by contribution and I'll place your name on the mailing list. Of course next month's issue, Nay, will bethe last in this series.

In March of 1989, seventeen Varbrough and related family members made a genealogy tour of England and Scotland, trying to visit all the places related to family history. Of course Lincolnshire and Yorkshire are the most imprtant, including Yarburgh Village, but that's another whole book. Hopefully, we can be of more help during your three year stay in the UK.

I have Mrs. Evelyn Spall of Grimsby, England, whose mother was a Yarborough in a seafaring family, on our mailing list. Mrs. Spall lives at 120 Torrington St. Grimbsy, Enland, S. Humberside DN 32 9QL. I he 'rely recommend Yarborough Hotel and Yarbrough Vault Pub in Grimbsy. In troduce yourself as a Yarbrough at the pub to the owner on is wife and they will set you up to a 'p at." Yarburgh Village is arby and the town group purchased a simple gate for the church of John the Baptist, the family church. I'm also enclosing a copy a recent letter from a Ruth Yarbrough of Nottinghamshire. I haven't communicated with her, but the sin James Yarbrough of Atlanta who has visited the area on several occasion did send her a copy of INS-YFM. News of any findings, connections, photographs, anything related to the family will be appreciated. Please keep in touch.
