Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, http://www.yarbroughfamiy.org. The birth and death dates of Thomas and Jemima (Merrill) Yarborough were taken from their tombstones. They were buried on what was called the old Yarbrough cemetery. This old cemetery was destroyed in the 1930's to make way for a housing development. Tombstones were removed and used for sidewalks, foundations, etc. In the 1920's Alda Rarick visited NC and took a snapshot of the tombstones of Thomas and Jemima. I have this snapshot in my collection. Karen Mazock - 1988 Jemima Yarborough is named in the 1803 will of her father, Samuel Merrill (Rowan Co. NC Wills) Rowan Co. NC Deeds: Bk 14, p. 692, 20 Oct 1795 - Joab Yarbrough to Thomas Yarbrough. Wits: Alexander Yarbrough & Henry Yarbrough Book 14, p. 695, 16 May 1796: Deed from John Buis to Thomas Yarbrough, Land adj Zachariah Yarbrough. Bk 20, p. 410, Dec 1813, Jacob Fisher to Thomas Yarbrough, land adj. Henry Ratz. Book 23, p. 295, Jan 1814 - Thomas Yarbrough and wife Jemima sell land to Peter Owen, Jr., land was inherited from Samuel Merrill. Will of Thomas Yarbrough, dated 11 June 1833, Bk 1, p. 231, Davidson Co. NC: Widow of deceased son Samuel - $1.00 Joseph Hilliard and a girl whose name he didn't know - children of deceased son Samuel. (Samuel died in Tennessee. There are guardianship papers on file for Joseph H, but no mention of a daughter - see Tipton Co. Tn court minutes) Names children on reverse in will EXCEPT: Doesn't name Martha, Rachel, John or Pleasant. Doesn't name his wife. Susannah Ratts: Information obtained from Berniece Aldrich, ggrandaughter #1 of Susannah & Rhienhardt Ratts. She provided census records of Indiana, Will of Rhienhardt and cemetery information. See file. #2 Zachariah. Information provided by his daughter, Abigail Irish -- her papers in my files. Zachariah & Hannah eloped - her father didn't approve of Zachariah. See files for this story. When Z died, Hannah married Joseph Hill. It was a very tragic marriage .. he left one of her children on the trail when they migrated to Iowa. They were not reunited until 4 years later. Other verifying p.) Census records; records: Will of Zachariah (Rowan Co. Bk m. records, Rowan Co & Johnson Co. Iowa. Went to Tipton Co., TN. burnied Indian Creek Cemetery. 1850 #3 David census lists his children. Went to Tipton Co., TN. Is on 1830 census there. #4 Samuel Went to Tipton Co., TN. #5 Thomas See Tipton Co deed records where his land is sold by the children and they are residents of Arkansas at the time. Dates from Tombstone in City Cemetery, Lexington, NC. and #6 Elizabeth family records. My gg grandfather. See his groupsheet. Records verifying: #7 Charles

- #7 Charles con't. Bible records of Charles Y; Davidson Co. m. records, Deed records Rowan/Davidson Co., letters written by Charles & Polly; Papers of James K. Y (his son) now in my possession; Will of Charles;
- #8 Jemima married Patrick Fowler, a native of Ireland. He was a tailor by trade. They are on 1850 Census of Davidson Co. with 7
- c hildren. Also 1860 Census of Davidson Co. She does not appear on the 1870 census. Son David F. died 1857 and is buried Bethany Church Cem.
- #9 Aaron His wife, Elizabeth Womack was sister to Mary Womack who married Charlies (No. 7 above. See his groupsheets and records for verifications.
- #10 Martha M. John Minor (b. 29 Apr 1813) son of Pascal Minor and Mary Helmstetler. They lived in Davie Co. See his groupsheet for verification.
- #11 Rachel died at age 10. Some records show that she survived and married Willia Ward. This is an error - it was Rachel Stout, daughter of William and Rachel Stout, who married Willis Ward. See Stout records for verification.
- #12 Mary See family records for verification. She lived to an cld age, had no children. I have a picture of her in files.
- #13. Pleasant Drowned in river (Abbotts Creek) trying to swim it while it was flooded.
- #14 John Bible notation says only that he died in infancy.
- #15 Barbara Went to Missouri with her husband. Her will is on file in Lawrence Co. See her file for her children, and verifying records.
- #16.Washington Green died in the Civil War. See his file for his children.

Sons Isaac, Jacob, and John Wiseman to have lands now in their possession. Son Jonathan to have $150 extra and $100 for a piece of land and my cooper tools. Daus: Mary Green, Martha Willis, Elender Line, and Jane Line. Exrs: wf Elizabeth and son Josiah Wiseman. Wit: Robert Wilson, John Wilson, Andrew Wilson.

> [Ed. Note: Rowan County Marriage Bonds show Eleanor Wiseman to William Line 13 Dec. 1787 with Isaac Wiseman as bondsman and Jean Wiseman to Joab Line 31 Oct. 1791 with Isaac Wiseman as bondsman, also Jeremiah Green to Mary Wiseman 21 Oct. 1775 with John Ford bondsman. Family tradition has it that Jacob Wiseman, the testator, married Elizabeth Henderson who was born in Currituck Co., NC. Jacob Wiseman appears on 1768 tax list in Rowan County and had a McCulloh grant in 1772 for 200 Å on Swearing Creek, as recorded in Rowan County Deed Book 8:262. DAR has accepted the lineage of Jacob Wiseman, a private from NC, and wife Elizabeth Henderson although no North Carolina marriage bond is extant.]

27 Feb. 1841. Prob. May 1841. JACOB STONER. 1:364. My estate is to remain in the full possession of my wife BARBARA as long as she remains my widow to support & raise my minor children. At the death or marriage of my widow it is all to be sold and equally divided so as with my accounts to make them all equal. The lands are to be divided into four shares by any two freeholders, that any one of them can buy if they should see cause & for my book accounts to remain in the care of my executors. I authorize my widow to give to each of my children at their marriage as has been given those that are married & to book their accounts as heretofore has been Son ALEXANDER $20.00 to be paid to him at the death of done. my widow - that is $20.00 more than any of the rest of my Exec: Wife BARBARA & two sons HENRY STONER & ALEXANheirs. DER STONER. Wit: LEVI GALLIMORE & SAML. WARFORD.

JOHN BURKHART. 25 April 1841. Prob. Aug. 1841. 1:365. Wife CATHARINE BURKHART the 1/2 of my tract of land including the mansion whereon I now live with all the out buildings & 1/2 of all my meadow, also my two negroes JON & MARY. She is also to have her choice of my waggons & gears for 2 horses, 2 horses, 2 cows, 2 yearlings, as many hogs as she may choose, as many farming tools as she may need, all the grain of every description, all the hay & other provisions which is now on hand, also as much of my household & kitchen furniture as she may choose to keep during her natural life or widowhood. I give to the 4 children of my son SOLOMAN, deceased, the sum of $50.00 each to be paid into the hands of their guardian, hereafter to be appointed by the court at the death of my wife. Son JOHN BURKHART $50.00 to be paid to him after the death of my wife. Daughter ELIZABETH YOUNTS, wife of BENJ. YOUNTS $30.00 to be paid to her after the death of my wife. Daughter BARBARA, wife of JOHN FRANK $10.00 to be paid to her after the decease of my wife. Grandaughter ELIZABETH BURKHART, daughter of my son ANDREW, dec. the sum of $75.00 to be paid to her after the death of my wife. After the death of my wife, my executors may sell all the lands whereon I now live, & my two negroes JIM & MARY together with all my personal property which I have willed to my wife during her life as well as the personal property which is not willed. After paying my debts & the special legacies above named the balance is to be equally divided among my daughters: ELIZABETH YOUNTS, MARGARET - living with THOMAS YARBROUGH, SARAH - wife of THOMAS YARBROUGH, BARBARA - wife of JOHN FRANK and NANCY, wife of JESSE GOSS. My executors may rent out the 1/2 of my fields during the lifetime of my wife & apply the money to the purposes above mentioned. Exec: JOHN FRANK & A. F. SMITH. Wit: PETER OWEN & JAMES WISEMAN.

1:367. JOHN DAVIS. 31 May 1841. Prob. May 1841. To my two youngest children MAGY & WADE all the tract of land whereon I now live, containing 128 acres and for my wife SARAH to have the use & benefit of same while she remains in my name. If she changes her name or moves off the land, it is to be no more hers, but is to go to MAGY & WADE in lieu of their part of my real estate. Other children RAINY, JENNY, POLLY, WILLIAM, PATSY, LUCY & WILSON COOPER all the tract of land lying on the YADKIN RIVER known as the SHIPTON TRACT, containing 380 acres to be sold & the money equally divided among them, besides what they have heretofore had. Son HUBBARD $1.00 besides what he has heretofore had - that is to say a tract of land of 126 acres which I deeded to him & 1 good horse beast. Thomas Yarborough, by 05 May 1807. 1830 Census of Davidson Co., NC shows Themas Yarborough Jr. (1 male 20-30, 1 female 20-30). They live next to David Yarborough who lives next to Thomas Yarborough Sr. David and Thomas Jr. are both sons of Thomas Y. Sr. Another brother, Samuel Y., was in Tipton Co., TN and is on the 1830 Tipton Co., TH census.

Sarah Burkhart, b. ca 1810/11, was the doughter of John and Catharine Burkhart. See Will of John Burkhart (Hill Book 1, p. 365, Davidson Co., NC) dated 24 Apr 1841, proven Aug. 1841 Court. Names: Wife, Catharine; sons: Soloman, dec'd (baquest to his 4 children); John and Andrew, deceased; Daughters: Elizabeth Younts, wife of Benjamin Younts; Barbara, wife of John Frank; Margaret (living with Themas Yarbrough); Sarah, wife of Thomas Yarbrough; Nency, wife of Jesse Goss; Granddaughter Elizabeth Burkhart, daughter of son Andrew, deceased. Executors: John Frank and A. F. Smith. Witnesses: Peter Owan and James Wiseman.

1850 Census for Tipton Co., TN shows that Washington Green Y (#5 child) was 5 ca 1836/37 in HC and Margaret Ann (#6 child) was 5. in TN ca 1838/39. In January 1837, Thomas Y is buying lend from William H. Edwards in Tipton Co., TN. From this we can assume that Thomas probably went to TN about 1836. Perhaps he went first to get settled and his wife and family followed after the birth of Washington Green Y.

- 31. John S. 19 on 1850 census. Deeds Erom Tipton Co, TN in 1861 state Thomas is a resident of Ark. John would have been 30. It is possible he did not go to Ark with the family. I do not find him in Tipton Co., TN in 1860.
- #2. Thomas Jefferson. 17 on 1850 census. On the 1860 Census of Jackson Co., Ark, he is shown as age 25 with a wife Susan age 20 and day Emma age 3. He married Virginia Ann Penn in 1866. Did his first wife die? What became of the daughter?
- #3 James Franklin. 15 on 1850 census, 22 on 1860 census. He appears to have his brothers and sisters living with him. Why? Father Thomas is making deeds in 1861 in TN. Was Thomas just in TN to settle up matters before returning to Arkansas?
- #4 Safronia E. 14 on 1850 census, 21 on 1860 census. On 1869 Deed she is listed as S. E. Draffin. Marriage isn't in Tipton Co., Th records?⁶ One of the neighbors in Tipton Co., Th was named Draffin. A little research would probably show that the Y girls married brothers from this neighboring family.
- #5 Washington Srgen. 13 on 1850 census, 19 on 1860 census. Married Emmin Huglett 8 Jun 1867 in Tipton Co. A Washington Y is in the Tipton Co., TN records, but more research needs to be done to see if this is the same man.
- #6. Margaret Ann. 11 on 1850 census; She married William N. Draffin 14 May 1856 in Tipton Co., TN. According to the 1869 deed, she was a resident of Woodruff Co., Ark.
- #7 Martha J. 10 years on 1850 census, 20 on 1860 census. On 1869 Deed she is shown as Martha Duke. On the 1872 Power of Attorney her husbands initials are given as E. T. Duke. There is no marriage record in Tipton Co., TN and marriage probably was in Arkansas.
- #8 Andrew Jackson. 7 on 1850 census, 18 on 1860 census. No further information.
- #9 Isaac Newton. 6 on 1850 c, 16 on 1860 census. No further information. He is not listed on the deed where the hairs of Thomas are selling land in 1869. Perhaps he had died between 1860 and 1869?

* Records show she married in Woodruff Co, Arkansas.

#10 William A. 4 on 1850 census, 14 on 1860 census. He is listed as a resident of Woodruff Co., Ark on 1869 Dead. There are several deads in Tipton Co., TH for a William A. Yarbrough. As Anderson C. Yarbrough (seen of Henry who was the Uncle to Thomas, subject of this groupsheet) need his eldest seen William A., more study is necessary to see which William A. the deads refer to.

#11 Sarah Elizabeth. 2 on 1850 census, 13 on 1860 census. On 1869 Deed she is shown as Sarah E. Yarbrough.

The birth and death dates of Thomas and Jemima (Merrill) Yarborough were taken from their tombstones. They were buried on what was called the old Yarbrough cemetery. This old cemetery was destroyed in the 1930's to make way for a housing development. Tombstones were removed and used for sidewalks, foundations, etc. In the 1920's Alda Rarick visited NC and took a snapshot of the tombstones of Thomas and Jemima. I have this snapshot in my collection. Karen Mazock - 1988 Jemima Yarborough is named in the 1803 will of her father, Samuel Merrill (Rowan Co. NC Wills) Rowan Co. NC Deeds: Bk 14, p. 692, 20 Oct 1795 - Joab Yarbrough to Thomas Yarbrough. Wits: Alexander Yarbrough & Henry Yarbrough Book 14, p. 695, 16 May 1796: Deed from John Buis to Thomas Yarbrough, Land ac Zachariah Yarbrough. Bk 20, p. 410, Dec 1813, Jacob Fisher to Thomas Yarbrough, land adj. Henry Ratz. Book 23, p. 295, Jan 1814 - Thomas Yarbrough and wife Jemima sell land to Peter Owen, Jr., land was inherited from Samuel Merrill. Will of Thomas Yarbrough, dated 11 June 1833, Bk 1, p. 231, Davidson Co. NC: Widow of deceased son Samuel - $1.00 Joseph Hilliard and a girl whose name he didn't know - children of deceased son Samuel. (Samuel died in Tennessee. There are guardianship papers on file for Joseph H, but no mention of a daughter - see Tipton Co. Tn court minutes) Names children on reverse in will EXCEPT: Doesn't name Martha, Rachel, John or Pleasant. Doesn't name his wife. Susannah Ratts: Information obtained from Berniece Aldrich, ggrandaughter #1 of Susannah & Rhienhardt Ratts. She provided census records of Indiana, Will of Rhienhardt and cemetery informatic See file. #2 Zachariah. Information provided by his daughter, Abigail Irish -- her papers in my files. Zachariah & Hannah eloped - her father didn't approve of Zachariah. See files for this story. When Z died, Hannah married Joseph Hill. It was a very tragic marriage .. he left one of her children on the trail when they migrated to Iowa. They were not reunited until 4 years later. Other verifying records: Will of Zachariah (Rowan Co. Bk p.) Census records; m. records, Rowan Co & Johnson Co. Iowa. Went to Tipton Co., TN. burnied Indian Creek Cemetery. 1850 #3 David census lists his children. Went to Tipton Co., TN. Is on 1830 census there. #4 Samuel Went to Tipton Co., TN. #5 Thomas See Tipton Co deed records where his land is sold by the children and they are residents of Arkansas at the time. Dates from Tombstone in City Cemetery, Lexington, NC. and #6 Elizabeth family records. My gg grandfather. See his groupsheet. Records verifying: #7 Charles

#7 Charles con't. Bible records of Charles Y; Bavidson Co. m. records. Deed records Rowan/Davidson Co., letters written by Charles & Polly; Papers of James K. Y (his son) now in my possession; Will of Charles;

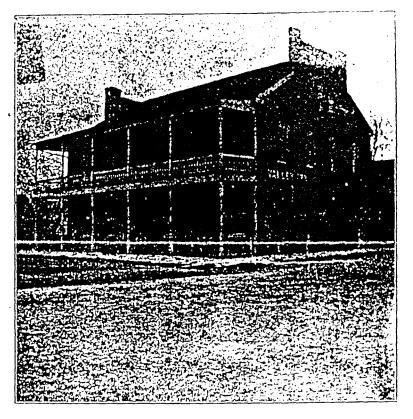

#8 Jemima married Patrick Fowler, a native of Ireland. He was a tailor by trade. They are on 1850 Census of Davidson Co. with 7 c hildren. Also 1860 Census of Davidson Co. She does not appear on the 1870

c nildren. Also loco census of Davidson bot under Bethany Church Com. census. Son David F. died 1857 and is buried Bethany Church Com.

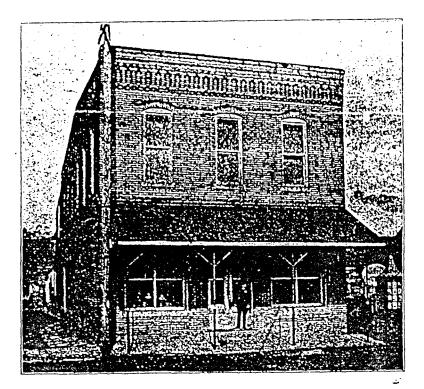

- #9 Aaron His wife, Elizabeth Womack was dister to Many Womack who married Charlies (No. 7 above. See his groupsheets and records for verifications.
- #10 Martha M. John Minor (b. 29 Apr 1813) son of Pascal Minor and Mary Helmstetler. They lived in Davie Co. See his groupsheet for verification.
- #11 Rachel died at age 10. Some records show that she survived and married Willia Ward. This is an error - it was Rachel Stout, daughter of William and Rachel Stout, who married Willis Ward. See Stout records for verification.
- #12 Mary See family records for verification. She lived to an cld age, had no children. I have a picture of her in files.
- #13. Pleasant Drowned in river (Abbotts Creek) trying to swim it while it was flooded.
- #14 John Bible notation says only that he died in infancy.
- #15 Barbara Went to Missouri with her husband. Her will is on file in Lawrence Co. See her file for her children, and verifying records.

#16.Washington Green - died in the Civil War. See his file for his children.

A large two story brick structure, on Main, the most prominent business street in the city. Is the home or an old established business in Golconda, the drug store of J. H. Benham.

Mr. Benham has been in the drug business for the past thirty years and no one could ever councrate the creditable business enterprises of the city without naming this one. The new store building was crected five years ago. The lower story is litted with every modern convenience for an up-to-date drug store and on the second floor is located the Masonic and Odd Fellows nails of Golconda. This structure is a credit to the city, being one of the best business houses in Golconda.

Mr. Benham of course carries a full and complete line of drugs, toilet articles and similar necessities. He enjoys a good trade and merits it. His past life, honest dealings and public spirit have made him one of the city's most respected and substantial citizens.

CAPT. J. H. BENHAM

Julius Henry Benham became a druggist about 1873 and in 1898 erected the building on Main Street last occupied by Sternwheeler Antiques. Benham Drug Co. occupied the lower floor, the Masonic and 100F lodges used the second story. The business was purchased by Tom and Theo Cullum in 1915:

The Benham home is now the Methodist parsonage. A location in nothern Pope County, Benham Hill, also commemorates the family.

George F. Mize and wife, Edna, Mary (Kyle) Sink, and sister, Druzilla Mize Everhart walked with me to this cemetery. We parked at the home of Richard Hedrick, 213 Sidney Street; walked a dirt road behind the Hedrick house, bearing to the right. The cemetery is 40 x 60 feet area about 1000 feet from the street. It is in woods left of the dirt road. There are a few rocks, grave depressions, one excavated grave site and periwinkle growing in abundance.

American Telephone and Telegraph right-of-way to the west of the cemetery and City of Lexington sewer right-of-way to the west and south of this cemetery.

On our way home we stopped and talked with Mr. Will Pickett, now in his late 80's. He said this was the Tussey Slave Cemetery.

THE OLD YARBOROUGH FAMILY CEMETERY

The Old Yarborough Family Cemetery, no longer in existence, was located on Hoover Drive about 1/2 block off Raeford Avenue.

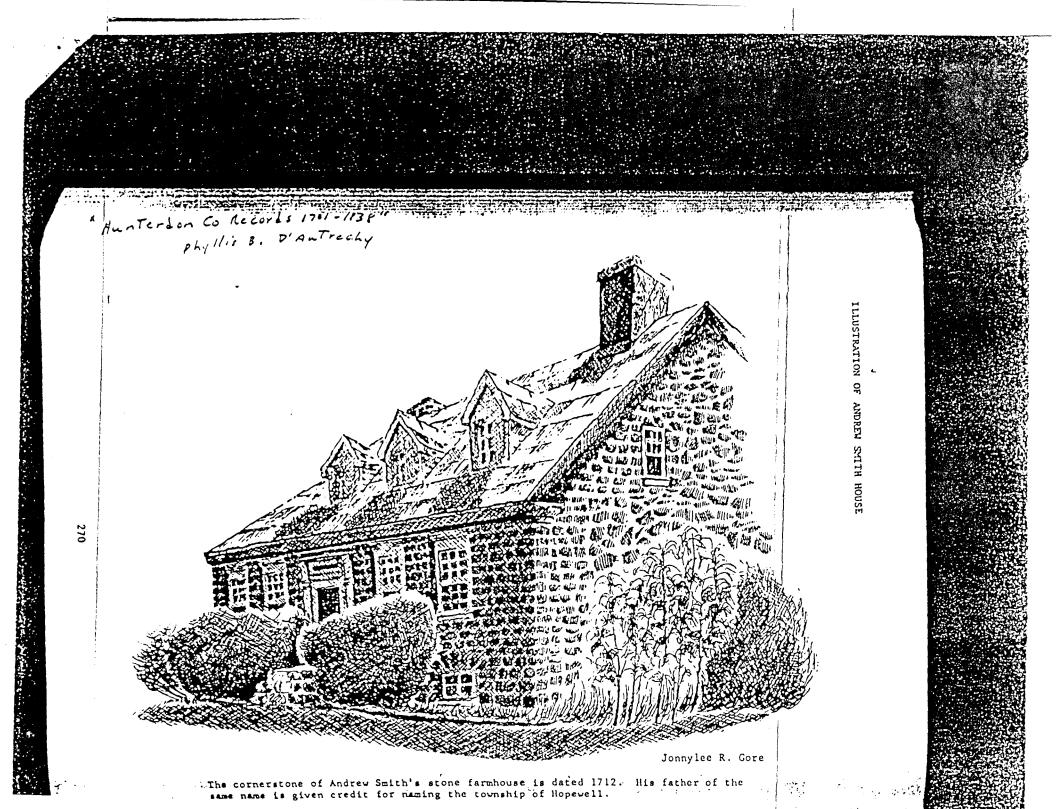

According to the late Henry Reeves, there were many Yarborough graves here until the late 1930's when the property was sold, the tombstones removed, and houses built on the property. The only known graves were of Thomas Yarborough, b. 1780, d. 1833, his wife Jemima Merrill (granddaughter of Capt. Benjamin Merrill) b. 6 Oct. 1782, d. 1827 & children of Thomas & Jemima were: 1) Rachel, b. 20 Jan 1812 d. pre 1822; 2) Pleasant, b. ca 1819 (drowned) d. ca 1830; 3) John b. ca 1821 d. in infancy; and three unnamed babies. Also known to be buried here were Thomas' parents, Zachariah Yarborough and Elizabeth Dowd Yarborough.

Daughter of Zachariah and Hannah (Stout) Yarbrough.

Known to the family as "Aunt Abby", Abigail have a strong love for family from her earliest years. She traveled to gather family records and information before the Civil War and it is largely because of her that there are so many records existing of my own line.

Abigail kept diaries for almost every year of her adult life. These diaries are now housed at a University in Iowa and are full of the historical happenings of the day. She also recorded her visits to family members which has given us a rare insight to the looks and personalities of our earlier ancestors. Abigail never lost her love of her birthplace in NC. Until her death in 1925, she received the Lexington Dispatch and kept up with the news of her home.

The Editor of the newspaper asked a question in one issue to which Abigail responded. The Editor was so pleased with her response that he asked her to write some of her memories for the paper. The following is one of the articles she had published.

Lexington Dispatch Vol. XXIV, No. 3, Lexington, N.C. January 17, (year is missing from my copy): "IN OTHER DAYS" Column:

REMINISCENSE OF YE OLDEN TIME by Mrs. S. Abigail Irish.

Editor Dispatch: In response to your request, I will relate more of my memories of the times in Davidson County prior to antebellum days, hoping thereby to interest many another old settler in giving his or her recollections to the public and thus save to the present and coming generations the most toothsome bits of history.

The old flint-lock musket in its rack above the pioneer's door brought terror often to the hearts of the defender, but to the family sheltered within, it gave at all times a feeling of peace and security as well as providing them often with toothsome game. Small wonder was it that this old flint-lock seemed, at least to us youngsters, something to be almost reverenced and there was no day in the calendar - not even Christmas at that time that could so rouse all the finer feelings of the young Americans in the Sunny South as "Suster Day." 'Twas then these very "gods of Protection, Peace and Plenty" were taken from their racks above our doors and after a thorough cleaning and polishing were carried forth by the householders, who, as members of the home militia, went regularly "To the wail of the fife and the snarl of the drum," to the drill which kept their hands skillful and their hearts inspired with patriotism. The old musket's day is over, but its important place in our history has been established and its place above our doors shall be held sacred to our memory and "the shot heard 'round the world." The placing of the musket above the door came about, no doubt, by a desire to have it in a convenient place in case of emergency, and dates back"perhaps to the time of the Regulators and earliest settlers.

Mother often told us children of expected attacks from enemies and once of the excitement that prevailed when a general uprising of slaves had been reported. The night the attack was expected, ail the white folks were armed, their weapons being not only muskets but every available instrument upon the plantation which could be used in striking a deadly blow. Nany slaves remained true to their masters. Grandfather Stout's did, and they, like the whites, were armed in self-defense. The night came with its pall of darkness and weight of fears. As the weary hours dragged by, anxiety became intense, but the foe, where were they? They came not, but the merciful glorious dawn did, bringing rest to tired watchers and cheer to frightened women and children. I cannot now recall the year in which this general uprising of slaves through the South was expected. Perhaps some reader of the Dispatch can throw light on the subject.

AND

Early Settlers of New Jersey and their Descendants

JOHN E. STILLWELL, M.D.

VOL. IV-

MONMOUTH COUNTY*

1 RICHARD STOUT, an early settler in this country and the founder of the large family bearing his name, was reputed the son of John Stout, of Nottinghamshire, England. Tradition has it that he left England because of friction with his father, who interfered with his love affairs, which drove him to engage on a man-of-war for seven years, at the end of which time he received his discharge at New Amsterdam. The tradition may be truthful, but if the printed statement is correct that he was forty years of age when he married Penelope Van Princis, afterallowing seven years for ship service and three additional years between his discharge and marriage, he would still have been about thirty years old when this rupture occurred, an age when parental intrusion and discipline in love affairs is hardly likely, but if so, might have been resented in the manner accredited to him. The assertion that Richard Stout was of "good family," which implies social caste, and that the cause of the disturbance between father and son was a threatened misalliance also may be true, but we have no proof of the social position of John Stout, and as an argument against it there is the fact that Richard Stout, his son, was not an educated man, when education was common. The answer to this is the presumption that Richard Stout was probably a headstrong character, not likely to be coerced into scholarly attainments. These statements, and more, are set forth in certain published articles concerning the Stout family, in which Penelope, the wife of Richard, is a conspicuous figure. The first of these to appear was the account printed in Samuel Smith's History of New Jersey, published at Burlington, N. J., in 1765. A second version appeared in print in Morgan Edwards' Materials Towards A History Of The Baptists in Jersey, published in 1792. These two versions have much in common, but are still so dissimilar that it is evident that their sources of or gin were totally different. Edwards projected A History of the American Baptists, in a series of twelve state Baptist church histories. The first of these was published in 1770, on Pennsylvania. Then came a long gap, doubtless largely occasioned by the War, and then appeared, in 1792, the volume on New Jersey. None followed, as it was a losing venture to the author, though the price was put at one-fourth of one dollar each and the issue limited to five hundred copies. His complaint about neglect was well founded, when the modest charge and the labor were considered, but he had entered a field, then as now, unappreciated except by the few historical and genealogical students. While his second volume was published in 1792, the preface shows that the work was finished by the writer May 1, 1790, and no doubt its compilation took some years. Exactly how long can only be surmised, but as the article on the Stouts, (under the church at Hopewell), was contributed by the Rev. Oliver Hart to Mr. Edwards, and as his incumbency as pastor of the Hopewell church dates from Dec. 16, 1780, it could not have antedated this year 1780, but probably was written between 1785 and 1789.

*Occasional efforts have been made to compile a genealogy of the Stout family, but in nearly all instances it has been restricted to a single branch. The greatness of the undertaking will probably continue to deter all but an enthusiastic genealogist from ever undertaking such a work, which must grow more difficult with time. Such incomplete data as I have brought together will, however, be of some assistance if one is ever undertaken. I cannot vouch for the accuracy of ail the names, dates and statements, but believe in the main that they are correct.

It is from these two sources that later historians, writers and genealogists largely derive their information. Benedict, in his History of the Baptists, edition of 1813, (Vol. I, pp. 573-574); draws entirely from Morgan Edwards, as does Barber's Historical Collections of New Jersey, edition of 1868, pp. 259-260. Raum too, in his History of Trenton, N. J., 1871, pp. 58-59, follows the Edwards text, but misleads in stating that he gives the narrative verbatim. This he does not do, for a superficial comparison shows an embellished text, which, with the erroneous statement that the book was published in 1790, when it was really printed in 1792, leads one to seek another publication when one does not really exist.

The Smith and Edwards publications are reproduced here verbatim, being necessary for a proper appreciation of the dates involved. That the tradition concerning Penelope Stout's experience with the Indians is true is, to my mind, as certain as that man now exists. Her hardiness to have outlived, for eighty-four years, her mutilation at the hands of the Indians, her extraordinary longevity reaching one hundred and ten years, and her normous progeny, would tend to make her a much-talked-of individual, and Smith, who wrote concerning her, less than thirty-three years after her death, must have met many who knew her in life, and Edwards was not far behind him in chronicling the same tale from other sources. Then, we have the remarkable verification of her scars by her descendants, as given by Mrs. Seabrook. Surely there is no room for doubt, and though some seemingly fanciful accretions may have accumulated around the story in time, they are more likely to be facts with misplaced dates, such as the episode of the Indian aiding her escape in the threatened uprising, rather than actual errors.

CAIE OF A ITRANGER, REMARKABLY IAVED AMONG THE INDIANS.

While New York was in poffeffion of the Dutch, about the time of the Indian war in New-England, a Dutch fhip coming from Amíterdam, was itranded on Sandy Hook, - but the paifengers got on fhore; among them was a young Dutchman who had been fick moit of the voyage; he was taken to bad after landing, that he could not travel; and the other passengers being afraid of the Indians, would not stay till he recovered, but made what hafte they could to New Amíterdam; his wife however would not leave him, the reft promifed to fend as foon as they arrived: They had not been long gone, before a company of Indians coming down to the water fide, difcovered them on the beach, and haftening to the fpot, foon killed the man, and cut and mangied the woman in fuch a manner that they left her for dead. She had strength enough to crawl up to some old logs not far diftant, and getting into a hollow one, lived mostly in it for feveral days, subfifting in part by the excrefcences that grew from it; the Indians had left fome fire on the fhore, which fhe kept together for warmth: having remained in this manner for fome time, an old Indian and a young one coming down to the beach found her; they were foon in high words, which the afterwards underftood was a difpute; the former being for keeping her alive, the other for difpatching: After they had debated the point a while, the first hastily took her up, and toffing her upon his fhoulder, carried her to a place near where Middletown now stands, where he dreffed her wounds and foon cured her: After fome time the Dutch in New-Amíterdam hearing of a white woman among the Indians, concluded who it must be and fome of them came to her relief; the old man her preferver, gave her the choice either to go or ftay; fhe choie the first: A while after marrying to one Stout, they lived together at Middletown among other Dutch inhabitants; the old Indian who faved her life, used frequently to visit her; at one of his visits she observed him to be more pensive than common, and sitting down he gave three heavy fighs; after the laft fhe thought herfelf at liberty to afk him what was the matter? He told her he had fomething to tell her in friendfhip, tho' at the rifk of his own life, which was, that the Indians were that night to kill all the whites, and advifed her to go off for New-Amfterdam; fhe afked him how fhe could get off? he told her he had provided a canoe at a place which he named: Being gone from her, fhe fent for her huband out of the field, and difcovered the matter to him, who not believing it, fhe told him the old man never deceived her, and that fhe with her children would go; accordingly going to the place appointed, they found the canoe and paddled off. When they were gone, the huband began to confider the thing, and fending for five or fix of his neighbours, they fet upon their guard: About midnight they heard the difmal war-hoop; prefently came up a company of Indians; they hrit expointulated, and then told them, if they pertified in their bloody defign, they would fell their lives very dear: Their arguments prevailed, the Indians defifted, and entered into a league of peace, which was kept without violation. From this woman, thus remarkably faved, with her fcars visible, through a long life, is defcended a numerous posterity of the name of Stout, now inhabiting New-Jeriey: At that time there were supposed to be about fity families of white people, and five hundred Indians inhabiting those parts.

The family of the Stouts are so remarkable for their number, origin and character in both church and state that I cannot forbear bestowing a post-script upon them; and no place can be so proper as that of Hopewell, where the bulk of the family resides. We have already seen that Jonathan Stout and family were the seed of Hopewell church, and the beginning of Hopewell settlement: and that of the 15 which constituted the church, nine were Stouts: the church was constituted at the house of a Stout; and the meetings were held chiefly at the dwellings of the Stouts for 41 years, viz. from the beginning of the settlement to the building of the meetinghouse, before described. Mr. Hart is of the opinion "That from first to last, half the members have been and are of that name; for, in looking over the church book, (saith he), I find that near two hundred of the name have been added; besides about as many more of the blood of the Stouts, who had lost the name by marriages: the present two deacons and four elders, are Stouts: the late Zebulon and David Stout were two of its main pillars: the last lived to see his offspring multiplied into a hundred and 17 souls." The origin of this Baptist family is no less remarkable; for they all sprang from one woman, and she as good as dead: her history is in the mouths of her posterity, and is told as follows: "She was born at Amsterdam, about the year 1602: her father's name was Vanprincis: she and her first husband, (whose name is not known), sailed for New-York, (then New Amsterdam), about the year 1620: the vessel was stranded at Sandy Hook: the crew got eshore. and marched towards said New York: but Penelope's (for that was her name) husband being hurt in the wreck, could not march with them; therefore, he and the wife tarried in the woods: they had not been long in the place before the Indians killed them both, (as they tho't), and stripped them to the skin: however. Penelope came to, tho' her skull was fractured, and her left shoulder so hacked that she could never use that arm like the other: she was also cut across the abdomen so that her bowels appeared; these she kept in with her hand: she continued in this situation for seven days taking shelter in a hollow tree, and eating the excrescence of it: the seventh day she saw a deer passing by with arrows sticking in it; and soon after two Indians appeared, whom she was glad to see, in hope they would put her out of her misery; accordingly, one made towards her to knock her on the head; but the other (who was an elderly man) prevented him; and throwing his match-coat about her, carried her to his wigwam, and cured her of her wounds and bruises; after that he took her to New York, and made a present of her to her countrymen, viz. an Indian present, expecting ten times the value in return. It was in New York that one Richard Stout married her: he was a native of Old England, and of a good family: she was now in her 22d year; and he in his 40th: she bore him seven sons and three daughters, viz. Jonathan, (founder of Hopewell), John, Richard, James, Peter, David, Benjamin, Mary, Sarah, and Alice: the daughters married into the families of the Bounds, Pikes, Throgmortons and Skeltons, and so lost the name of Stout: the sons married into the families of Bullen, Crawford, Ashton, Truax; these had many children; but I could not come at the names of the families into which the other brothers married. The mother lived to the age of 110, and saw her offspring multiplied into 502 in about 88 years." Morgan Edwards' Materials Towards A History Of The Baptists in Jersey.

We may pass Bergen, (Early Settlers of King's County, pp. 286-287), who quotes Raum and cavils at the accuracy of the tradition, and Franklin Ellis, (History of Monmouth County, N. J., pp. 66-68), who follows Smith and Edwards, and, while properly taking exception to palpable errors in dates, is in error himself when he criticises the Indian attitude, which, at times, was intensely hostile. With Salter and Stockton following Smith and Edwards, we may now close the list. These printed histories are reinforced by manuscript histories and oral traditions. Of these, a manuscript history of the Stouts was made, in 1823, by Nathan Stout. It was from a copy of this work, made by Mr. Joseph D. Hoff, of Middletown, N. J., in 1885, that I made a copy in 1892, which so far as the genealogy goes, is incorporated, as far as possible, in corrected shape, in the following contributions to the Stout family history. The narrative concerning Penelope Stout, which was the introduction to this manuscript family history, is produced in its original language further on, and is practically the same as those that have appeared in print.

Of the oral traditions, those derived from the late Mrs. Henry Seabrook, of Keyport, née Therese Walling, are, doubtless, the most accurate, original and entertaining. Mrs. Scabrook was an intellectually gifted woman, steeped in local genealogical lore, derived from her great ancestors. Upon their laps she sat when young, or with the assembled elders at the nearby hearthside, to be entertained by their constant repetitions of tales of exposure, hardship, love and war. The old are garrulous, live in the past, delight in the young, and with contracted lives and thought they become the local historians of the past to young but willing ears, upon whose excited imagination the stories remain indelibly impressed. Thus it was that Mrs. Seabrook passed onward the tales of her childhood. Perhaps the most important of these was the following:

"My grandmother, Helena Huff, told me how her grandfather, John Stout, had felt the wounds of Penelope Stout, and that he blushed like a school boy. She wished the knowledge of the Indian assault transmitted to her posterity and it has been done, for there are but two hands between Penelope and me."

"Richard Stout having passed seven years on a man of war schooner, which he had entered when he forsook his father's house, after the failure of his first love speculation, married Penelope Van Prince. After a time the little Dutch woman prevailed in inducing her husband to consent to come to the future site of Middletown to settle. They were accompanied by four families, tradition states, by the name of Bowne, Lawrence, Grover and Whitlock about the year 1648. The Stouts were in Middletown and Pleasant Valley; the Bownes from Chigarora Creek west and north, owning what is now Union, East and West Keyport, Brown's Point, Cliffwood, etc. The Lawrence family settled at Colt's Neck, and extended north probably to Holmdel, but generally going further south, where they swarmed. The Whitlocks settled at the Bay Shore near the site of the present Port Monmouth, and later between Middletown and Holmdel."

"There was the best of understanding between Penelope Stout and her Indian 'father' as she called him, although all was not rose color between the settlers and Indians. A great-great-grand-daughter of hers used to relate to us grandchildren of her own, the following incident. Once the Indian father refused to cat with the family which he was always in the habit of doing when coming to see them, and Mrs. Stout followed him when he left the house and learned from him that his people had made arrangements to surprise and murder all the whites on the following night. She lost no time in gathering the white people together, and they made their way to the Bay Shore, and entering their canoes, lay all night in them off shore, it being too dark to go to any place across the water. The next day peace was made with them. Later in their history, the whites of Middletown and vicinity were several weeks in a Block house which stood on the ground now occupied by the Baptist Church of that village. In the Block house or fort, were born twin great grand-daughters of Penelope, one of whom was immediately named Hope Still, after a treaty of peace with the besiegers, the other was called Deliverance, the first name is still in the family, the last, we think was not repeated, owing perhaps to her dying unmarried, as our ancestors were sure to name the first children for their parents. There has never failed a Richard among the Hartshornes. a Richard and John among the Stouts-a Thomas, Joe or John among Wallings,-a Hendrick in the Hendrickson and Longstreet families-or a Wilhemus in Covenhoven." MRS. T. W. SEABROOK.

"Richard Stout, the first of the name in America, was born in Nottinghamshire, England; and his father's name was John. The said Richard when quite a young man paid his addresses to a young woman that his father thought was below his rank, upon which account some unpleasant conversation happened between the father and son, upon account of which the said Richard left his father's house and in a few days engaged on board a ship of war, where he served about seven years, at which time he got his discharge at New Amsterdam, now called New York. About the same time a ship from Amsterdam in Holland, on her way to the said New Amsterdam was drove on the shore that is now called Middletown in Monmouth County in the state of New Jersey, which ship was loaded with passengers who, with much difficulty got on shore. But the Indians not long after fell upon them and butchered and killed the whole crew as they thought, but soon after the Indians were gone a certain Penclope Van Prince, whose husband the Indians had killed, she found herself possessed with strength enough to creep in a hollow tree, where she remained some days with a number of severe wounds in her head and back. An Indian happening to come that way whose dog barking at the tree occasioned him to examine the inside of the tree, where he found the said Penelope in this forlorn and distressing condition which moved his compassion. He took her out of the tree and carried her to his residence, where he treated her kindly and healed her wounds, and in a short time conveyed her in his canoe to New Amsterdam where he sold her to the Dutch who then owned that city. The man and the woman from whom the whole race of Stouts have descended are now in the city of New Amsterdam where they became acquainted with each other and were married and notwithstanding it may be thought by some they conducted (themselves) with more fortitude than prudence, they immediately crossed the bay and settled in the aforesaid Middletown where Penelope had lost her first husband by the Indians and had been so severely wounded herself. There was at this time but six white families in the settlement, including their own which was in the year 1648. Here they continued until they became rich in property and rich in children."-From the manuscript written, in 1825, by Capt. Nathan Stout, and corrected by Joseph D. Hoff, of Middletown, N. J., in August, 1885. This manuscript contained many errors."

Setting aside, temporarily, his traditional history, we now come to Richard Stout's known history. This starts about 1643, when, in June of that year, Lady Deborah Moody, accompanied by her son, Sir Henry Moody, and a number of English families of good condition, arrived at the fort, at New Amsterdam, fresh from religious persecutions in New England, to seek and found an asylum under the Dutch. They were hospitably received and permitted to select such lands as they wished. At the date of their arrival, Richard Stout was probably among the English settlers, who, prior to that time, had located among the Dutch upon Manhattan Island, attracted thither from the religious intolerance of New England, or for purposes of trade, or in the spirit of adventure. These English speaking bodies soon joined to found the new settlement of Gravesend, upon Long Island, whither they probably at once commenced to remove. By 1645, with some intervening vicissitudes, they were well organized and the Director-General, Kieft, issued them a patent dated Dec. 19th, of that year. Among the thirty-nine patentees enumerated was Richard Stout.

An entry in the Town Book of the new settlement throws some light upon the life and times of Richard Stout. Unfortunately it is incomplete:

May 7, 1647. "Richard Stoute being sworn deposeth yt in the his being a soldiere at the flort with Penneare and other his fellow soldieres," etc.

Twice, in 1643, the English were employed as soldiers by the Dutch. The unparalleled stupidity and barbarity of the Dutch Director-General, Kieft, and certain of his followers, jeopardized the very existence of the Dutch settlements, by embroiling them with the Indians.

About the first of February, 1643, the warlike Mohawks descended upon the tribes inhabiting the shores of the lower Hudson, to enforce the tribute of dried clams and wampum which had been withheld at the instigation of some of the Long Island Indians. Fleeing like sheep before wolves, consumed with cold, hunger and fright, some four or five hundred fugitives sought the protection of the whites upon Manhattan Island, where, under the walls of the fort, these pitiable objects were fed and sheltered by the hospitable settlers for a fortnight.

Recovering confidence, they broke up into two parties, one of which ventured across the river to Pavonia, on the way to their friends, the Hackensacks, while the other removed to the vicinity of Corlear's Hook, where a number of Rockaway Indians had lately set up their wigwams.

At this juncture, the Director, when heated with wine, yielded to the appeals of his Secretary to revenge a murder committed, some time previously, at Hackensack, and the failure of the Westchester Indians to surrender the murderer of one of the settlers, Claes Schmidt, likewise an affair many months old. Volunteers and soldiers thereupon were led to the two Indian encampments, where, under cover of darkness, they fell upon the trusting savages and foully murdered eighty in one place and forty in the other, sparing neither infants, women nor the decrepid. Never was there fouler butchery. When they realized that it was not the Indians of Fort Orange, but the Dutch who had attacked them at Pavonia and Corlear's Hook, they joined the Long Island tribes, who had recently been plundered of their corn by Dutch farmers, made bold by recent events, and who had killed two of the savages while defending their property. These two factions now made an alliance with the River Indians, and eleven tribes, numbering two thousand warriors, burning to avenge the massacre of their people, rose in open war and every white man upon whom they could lay hands was killed. They laid waste the whole country from the Raritan River to the banks of the Connecticut. The fort became the sole refuge of the panic stricken inhabitants, who, huddled together, bewailed their utter ruin through the folly and criminality of Kieft, and they now threatened to abandon the colony in a body. In this emergency, the Director-General saw no resource to prevent a depopulation of New Amsterdam, but to take all the settlers into the service of the Company, for two months, until peace could be reestablished, "as he had not sufficient soldiers for public defense."

Life and Times of Nicholas Stillwell, p. 86.

This uprising was of short duration, for the savages, who had glutted their revenge, felt the need of planting their maize, and made overtures of peace, which were eagerly accepted by Kieft, and a treaty was concluded, first, with the Long Island Indians, on Mch. 25, 1643, and with the River Indians on Apr. 22, 1643.

The second uprising, in 1643, occurred some months later, and again was the result of Kieft's maladministration. Notwithstanding the fearful experience he had just passed through, his cupidity and dishonesty were such that he embezzled the gifts that were to ratify the late treaty with the River Indians, which occasioned such dissatisfaction and discontent that the outraged Indians seized several boats laden with peltries in retaliation and as an offset. In doing this, ten white men were killed. Then followed war in its most terrible shape. The settlements of Anne Hutchinson, John Throckmorton and the Rev. Francis Doughty were all destroyed, some of their settlers killed or taken into captivity, while the balance, amounting to over an hundred families, quickly made their way to the Fort at New Amsterdam. Lady Moody's settlement, at Gravesend, alone was able to withstand their assault. Here, the townsmen, many of whom had served during the two months in the Indian outbreak in the Spring, under Lieut. Nicholas Stillwell, Ensign George Baxter and Sergeant James Hubbard, well organized into a trained band, gave them so brisk and severe a reception that they were soon in full retreat. So great was the need of protection at the Fort that Kieft again found it necessary to take "into the public service all the able bodied English inhabitants of the neighboring villages; the Commonalty of New Amsterdam having agreed to provide for one-third of their pay: and a company of fifty was immediately enrolled from their number, armed and drilled."

About March, 1644, the Indians were vanquished, and on Apr. 6, and Apr. 16, 1644, Sachems from various tribes concluded a new peace at Fort Amsterdam. It was in one of these two enlistments that Richard Stout served with Robert Pennoyer and other fellow soldiers, and I am inclined to think it was in the first one.

At that time, Lady Moody and her party had not arrived and he was naturally free, but during the second enlistment, Gravesend having been settled and he, doubtless, one of its inhabitants, it was naturally incumbent upon him to remain with its defensive company.

The supposition that Richard Stout was employed at the Fort in the Spring uprising of 1643, rather than in the Fall and Winter of 1643 and 1644, and that he left New Amsterdam, with Lady Moody, in the Summer of 1643, to found Gravesend, is confirmed by the following record from the Calendar of New York Historical Manuscripts, which establishes a date for his residence at Gravesend:

"Octoberr 13th, 1643, Richard Aestin, Ambrose Love [?] and Richard Stout made declaration that the crew of the Seven Stars and of the privateer landed at the farm of Anthony Jansen, of Salee, in the Bay, and took of 200 pumpkins, and would have carried away a lot of hogs from Coney Island had they not learned that they belonged to Lady Moody."

Thus far we have ascertained that Richard Stout was a resident of New Amsterdam in the Spring of 1643, when he was employed by Governor Kieft as a soldier in the February uprising of that year; that he accompanied Lady Moody, with other settlers, to found Gravesend, between her arrival in June, and October of this same year.

How much earlier than February, 1643, Richard Stout may have been in New Amsterdam. it is idle to speculate upon.

In the first allotments of house lots and farms in Gravesend, Feb. 20, 1646, he received Plantation lot No. 16, upon which he evidently grew tobacco, for Oct. 26, 1649, John Thomas bought, for two hundred and ten guilders, Richard Stout's crop of tobacco.

Gravesend Town Records.

In 1657, of his twenty acre farm he had seventeen acres under cultivation.

1661, Apr. 5. He bought an adjoining farm of Edward Griffin.

1663, Oct. 8. Richard Stout was plaintiff in a slander suit in Gravesend, and won his case. Even with his double farm of forty acres, Richard Stout realized its insufficiency to maintain and settle a rapidly growing family, so that he, with other neighbors, similarly situated, turned to the adjacent and easily reached country, whose wooded hills could be seen towards the South, which was the spot where his wife had had her bitter experience among the Indians, and of whose attractions she had doubtless spoken, prompting him to scout its woods in search of game, and finally in search of land for a new home for himself and family. That this settlement occurred before 1664, I doubt, though the Stout manuscript, and Mrs. Seabrook, probably from the same source, say explicitly, that it was in the year 1648, and that Stout was associated with five additional settlers, among whom Mrs. Seabrook named Bowne, Lawrence, Grover and Whitlock. To this earlier settlement, Edwards makes no allusion, nor can it be said that Smith does, but to the contrary, he fixes the date of Stout's settlement practically about the time of 1665, or a little later, for he mentions the event, as does Edwards, of an uprising when Penelope's oldtime Indian friend saved her by a timely warning, which Smith says occurred, when there "were supposed to be about fifty families of white people, and five hundred Indians inhabiting these parts." Surely this must relate to a later date than 1648, for so many white families could only have been assembled in this district after the Monmouth Patent had been issued by Governor Nicolls; further, a study of the movements of the Stouts, Bownes, Lawrences, Grovers and Whitlocks does not encourage the belief that they were permanently settled on the Monmouth Tract much before 1665. At times members of these families may have been temporarily camped out in this district for hunting or prospecting, and it may have been on one of these occasions that Penelope Stout received the warning from her Indian friend of the threatened uprising, and the need of her immediate removal, and, indeed, this event, given by Smith. Edwards and the Stout manuscript, could only have occurred during such a temporary occupation, for, in 1665, or later, Penelope's Indian saviour would have been more than twenty-two years older than he was in 1643, the date of Penelope's supposed arrival, when he was already an old man. Add these years to this old man's age and he would have been pretty patriarchal. Again, Smith's account says Penelope took her children with her, which would probably refer to a late, rather than to an early event, as in 1665, her family was largely grown, yet some were young, being born after 1654.

Another statement in Smith's account contradicts the idea of a 1648 settlement, for he states that, "A while after marrying to one Stout, they lived together at Middletown among other Dutch inhabitants." As a matter of fact, the accredited associates of Stout, in his 1648 settlement, were English from Gravesend, and there is no knowledge of any Dutch in this locality till long after the Monmouth Patent was granted.

When the conclusion was reached that it was vital to abandon the crowded settlement of Gravesend, a number of the settlers from that village, and a few from adjacent towns, to the number of twenty, sailed in a sloop, in the early part of December, 1663, up the Raritan River, and began negotiations with the Sachems for the purchase of lands. These proceedings were interrupted by a company of Dutchmen, who, cruising about in one of the company's sloops. heard of the presence of the English, and suspecting their purpose, notified the Sachems, of the Raritans and the Navesinks, not to bargain with them, whereupon the English went to the shores at the mouth of the Navesink, where, again, for a second time, a sharp passage at words occurred between them. The Dutch, for some time, had realized the desire of the English to throw over their allegiance, and were alert to impress them with the need of fealty, so that no progress was apparently made by the English settlers in their negotiations for lands, at this time. It was, probably, however, in anticipation of the expected overthrow of the Dutch, that this expedition was undertaken, and the consummation of this event, in the year following, 1664, with the proclamation of Governor Stuyvesant's successor, Richard Nicolls, of certain concessions, promptly brought about organized effort to locate in the territory which they had so recently prospected. Among those who moved to avail themselves of this golden opportunity, was Richard Stout, who, with others, patentees and associates, bought the Sachems' rights to the land embraced in the future Monmouth Patent, Apr. 8, 1665, which was confirmed to twelve of them, of whom he was one.

When ready to remove to this new tract, Richard Stout disposed of his Gravesend property to Mr. Thomas Delaval, a prosperous merchant of New York, who seems to have meditated making his residence at Gravesend, and perhaps actually did so, as he is named as a Patentee in at least one of the patents of the town.

After the death of Thomas Delaval, this property became vested in his son, John Delaval, whose widow, Hannah, sold it to John Lake, and thence on it became part of the Lake estate.

The date of Richard Stout's arrival, and permanent settlement on the Monmouth Tract, was 1664, as established by his claims for lands under the Grants and Concessions. These set forth the rights of the settlers:

GRANTS AND CONCESSIONS.

Before January, 1665, i. e., between 1664 and 1665, To every freeman (he or she) and for his able bodied man servants, if equipped, going from the port with the Governer, properly equipped, each 150 acres; and for weaker servants or slaves, exceeding fourteen years, each 75 acres, and the Christian servant, at the expiration of his service, 75 acres.

To any master or mistress going before January. 1665, 120 acres. and to every able bodied servant taken with them, 120 acres; and for weaker servants, i. e. over fourteen years, each 60 acres; and to Christian servants, upon the expiration of their time, each 60 acres.

Between January, 1665, and January, 1666, To every free man or woman, 90 acres; and for every able bodied servant, 90 acres, and 45 acres for the weaker servants; and 45 acres to every Christian servant, upon the expiration of his time.

From January, 1666, to January, 1667, To every free man or woman, 60 acres, and to able bodied servants, 60 acres; to weaker servants, 30 acres, and to Christian servants, upon the expiration of their time, 30 acres. Learning and Spicer.

1675. Here begins the Rights of Lands due, according to Concessions.

Richard Stout brings for his rights, for the year 1665, for his wife, two sons, John and Richard, 120 acres each; total 480 acres.

Lib. 3, East Jersey Deeds, A. side, p. r.

As already stated a careful study of Richard Stout's claim proves that he and his wife, with their two sons, John and Richard, came to the new country in 1664, while the remainder of their children probably dwelt in Gravesend till about 1667, when they too came to the Monmouth Tract to join their parents in their newly made home. This is a reasonable deduction, as some root had to be erected to receive this large family, whose presence, in the absence of such an one, would be a hindrance rather than a help to their parents, especially as some of the children were still young. It is easy to conceive that the Gravesend house was presided over by one of the daughters and one of the sons, aided by frequent visits from the parents, till their removal took place in 1667.

Richard Stout's application for land was recorded in 1675, in which he lays claim, in right of himself, wife and children for 780 acres, i. e., 120 acres, each, for himself, wife, son John and son Richard, who were master, mistress and able-bodied servants, [not necessarily twenty-one years of age however], settling on the land before January, 1665, and 60 acres, each, for his children, James, Peter, Mary, Alice and Sarah, who voyged thither, about 1667, and who were classified as free men and women, arriving between January, 1666 and 1667. If they had settled on the Monmouth Tract with their father, prior to 1665, they too would have received this same amount of land, 60 acres, each, as weaker servants being over fourteen years of age, but the record expressly states from 1667, and the matter of their birth is not involved if the word voyge is read as travel, rather than age, as has been done heretofore. The younger, known but unmentioned, children were evidently under the age of fourteen in 1675, as they had not reached the period of being classified as "weaker servants," which had they been, would have entitled their father, Richard Stout, to additional lands at thirty acres per head, and for proof of which he put in no claim.

The influx of settlers was rapid and large, for in the astonishingly short time of about five years, from 1664 to July, 1669, further settlement was restricted especially of transients, "considering the towne to be now wholly compleated beeing full acording to their number."

Upon the settlement of the Monmouth Tract, the settlers grouped themselves in three bodies, one settling at Portland Point, now the Navesink Highlands, one at Shrewsbury, on Narumsunk Neck, and one at Middletown, on Newasink Neck, so named because of lying between the first two settlements. Before and after town organization was complete the Patentees met, with Deputies elected from their associates, in an Assembly, at various times in these towns, and made laws for the government of the towns, by the erection of a Constable's Court, the distribution of town lands, the election of officers, laying out of roads, etc.; and in this Assembly Richard Stout frequently sat, as one of the Patentees, during 1669, 1670 and 1671.

Shortly after this, the local Assembly was abolished and the direction of the town's affairs were left largely to themselves, while matters of large import were directed by General Assemblies and the Proprietary Governor which had been the order of things for some years.

The settlers, as we have seen, had assigned to them, by the village commonalty, under the direction of the Local Assembly, town lots and farms adjacent to the village, and it was only 'after some years, when the whole tract became better peopled, that they applied for and received large grants from the Proprietors, in conformity with their rights under the Grants and Concessions.

At the first division of the town lots, Dec. 30, 1667, Richard Stout drew lot No. 6, which, would correspond closely to the present site of Squire Henry Taylor's house, on the South side of the Middletown highway, and beyond him, at the Eastern end of the town, probably on the North side, his son. John Stout, drew lot No. 19. The next day, Dec. 31, 1667, he was chosen, with James Ashton, to assist James Grover in laying out, in lots, the Poplar and the Mountainy fields, No. 12 falling to him, and No. 5 falling to his son, John Stout.

1668, Jan. 4. He recorded his cattle-mark, which passed, Aug. 25, 1710, to his son, Benjamin Stout, and, in 1721, to John Burrows, as Benjamin Stout and his family had moved away.

Richard Stout enjoyed the confidence and respect of his fellow townsmen and was frequently elected to fill responsible positions in the conduct of the town's public business. He was one of the six who were to give answer to the Governor's men in the town's behalf, in their resistance to Proprietary aggression; he was commonly Overseer, and thus a member of the Constables Court.

In 1669, "the equality of the division of the meadows is putt to the Judgement of Richard Stoutte" and two others.

In 1678, he was chosen one of the Overseers of the Highways, and this is seemingly his last public office, for age had overtaken him, and his children had come to the fore, especially his son, John Stout.

Richard Stout received various grants of lands from the Proprietors, upon which he was compelled to pay taxes. These Middletown lands are variously alluded to in warrants, surveys and tax lists, and while, perhaps, they are in some instances here duplicated, were apparently as follows:

1675, Nov. 2. Richard Stout had seven hundred and eighty acres, at Middletown.

1676, Feb. 24. Richard Stout had four hundred acres, he having purchased the same from ye Indians in the Lord Proprietor's name.

1676, May 31. Richard Stout had five hundred acres, and meadow, as being one of the first purchasers.

1676, June 23. Richard Stout had four hundred and sixty acres.

1676, June 28. Richard Stout had four hundred and sixty acres.

1676, June 30. Richard Stout had one hundred and eighty-four acres, in Middletown, which he sold later to William Leeds, Sr., of Burlington.

1677, May 7. Richard Stout had two hundred and eighty-five acres.

1686, July 20. Richard Stout had four hundred and sixty acres.

In the Quit Rent Roll, for the year 1686, he received an abatement of his tax, as "the man is very old." This brings us to a discussion of the probable year of Richard Stout's birth and death. The Rev. Mr. Hart, of Hopewell, drawing his information from the descendants of Jonathan Stout, and supplying it to Morgan Edwards, gave a series of dates which are wrong

Witnesses: Richard Hartshorne, John Weekham [Meekham?]^{*} and Peter Vandevandeter. . He signed with his mark.

1705, 8^{ber}, 23th. Oath of executors, John and Jonathan Stout, before Edward, Viscount Cornbury, Ferth Amboy.

Richard Stout, as has been deduced, probably married in 1643 or 1644, and had by his wife, Penelope, issue, most, if not all of whom, were born in Gravesend, Long Island. If no account is taken of any deceased children, or the exact order of succession, the dates of birth of the known children would be about as follows:

Issue

2 John Stout. born about 1644-5.

3 Richard Stout, born about 1646.

4 Mary Stout, born about 1648.

5 James Stout, born about 1650.

6 Alice Stout, born about 1652.

7 Peter Stout, born about 1654; died between 1702 and 1703.

8 Sarah Stout, born about 1656.

9 Jonathan Stout, born about 16—; 1646, says James Hervey Stout.

10 Benjamin Stout, born about 1660?

11 David Stout, born about 1667 or 1669.

That these children are given with some semblance of proper succession is likely, as their arrangement here conforms to their order in the Grants and Concessions, as well as in Richard Stout's will.

LINE OF JOHN STOUT

2 JOHN STOUT, son of Richard Stout, 1, was born, by deduction, at Gravesend, Long Island, about 1644-45. He was married, at Middletown, N. J., by John Bowne, Justice of the Peace, Jan. 12, 1671-72, to ElizabethGravit: whose surname is omitted in the record.

He was probably the first born, and his birth can be fixed by the deduced date of marriage of his parents, by the fact he is first enumerated in his father's claim for lands under the Grants and Concessions, and that he was an able-bodied man, though not necessarily of age, at the date of the settlement of Middletown in 1664-65.

In the first division of lands, in Middletown, Dec. 30, 1667, he drew lot No. 19, on the main street, and the following day, in the distribution of the outlying Poplar and Mountainy fields, he drew lot No. 5. He erected a house upon his town-lot, stocked his farm with cattle, some of which were allowed to herd, in common with others, and to designate which, he recorded his cattle-mark Sept. 4, 1672.

John Stout remained at Middletown, and died some time prior to 1740, as at this date, his cattle-mark was assumed by his grandson, John Stout, the newly-elected Town Clerk; and, July 23, 1742, Richard Stout, son and heir-at-law to John Stout, late of Middletown, is alluded to in a deed, with Zephaniah White, as a witness. Freehold Deeds, Lib. H., p. 317.

If it were he who died prior to 1740, he must have attained a very advanced age and sustained the family's reputation for longevity.

John Stout acquired a considerable estate.

LINE OF JAMES STOUT

5 JAMES STOUT, son of Richard Stout, 1, was born, by deduction, at Gravesend, Long Island, about 1650.

1675, Nov. 2. As a settler on the Monmouth Patent, about 1667, he received sixty acres of land in Middletown.

1685, Feb. 16. He recorded his cattle-mark, at Middletown, but no further reference is found concerning it.

In 1686, he paid quit-rent on one hundred and forty-two and one-half acres of land, at Middletown.

1690, June 29. Richard Stout, of Middletown, gave land to his son, James Stout, cf same place, that was situated at Romanis or Hope River; and he also gave him five acres meadow at Conescunk, described as "adjoining Dan. Stout." This is, undoubtedly an error and should have read David, in lieu of Dan, for I have no knowledge of the existence of any such an individual as Daniel Stout at this early date. And an analysis of the lands, deeded by Richard Stout, Sr., to his sons of this date, sustains the conclusion. This error is to be found on page 288, of Volume XXI, of the New Jersey Archives.

1705, Mch. 18. James Stout bought land of George Willocks.

1706, Apr. 6. James and Elizabeth Stout were of Middletown, and, Aug. 11, 1707, of Freehold. Both James and Elizabeth Stout made their marks.

• 1711, May 8. James and Elizabeth Stout, of Freehold, sold land.

1714, Jan. 29. James Stout, of Freehold, yeoman, and Elizabeth, his wife, for £250, conveyed to Thomas Williams, of Freehold, yeoman, land, in Freehold, "where James Stout now lives," bounded by David Clayton, Jno. Warford, etc., reserving one-half of an acre of land where John Clayton and his wife are buried, which land the said James Stout bought from George Willocks, Mch. 18, 1705. James Stout and his wife, Elizabeth, both signed by their marks.

1714, Jan. 29. James Stout, of Freehold, yeôman, and Elizabeth, his wife, for £40, sold to John Warford, yeoman, of Freehold, land in said town. James and Elizabeth Stout both signed by their marks.

He married Elizabeth, who may have been the Elizabeth Stout, of Freehold, who was a member of the Baptist Church, at Middletown, in 1712.

There was another Euzabeth Stout, of Middletown, also a church member, at this date. ese two individuals were the wives of James and John Stout.

LINE OF JONATHAN STOUT

9 JONATHAN STOUT, son of Richard Stout, 1, was one of the younger children. He married, Aug. 27, 1685, Anna, daughter of James Bollen, Secretary of the Province, who died, at Woodbridge, N. J., in 1682. James Bollen's daughter, Anna, and son, James, in May, 1683, selected Samuel Moore and Nathaniel Fitzrandolph as guardians.

1685, Feb. 16. He recorded his cattle-mark, of which no later transfer is recorded. 1686. He paid quit-rent on one hundred and forty-two and one-half acres, at Middletown, N. J.

1698-9. He was Overseer of the Poor of Middletown, N. J.

1703, Jan. 26. John Chapman, yeoman, of Chesterfield, in Burlington County, N. J., sold to Jonathan Stout, yeoman, of Middletown, three hundred acres of land, lying above the Falls of the Delaware, for £65.

1704, Jan. 1. Jonathan Stout and Anna, his wife, of Middletown, sold to James Hubbard, of the same place, two hundred and fifty acres of land, in Middletown, and Meadow at Conasconck, for £328.

The preceding sales and the following purchase were, apparently, made with the intention of moving to the Hopewell district, where, with two other families, he was about to found a settlement in the wilderness.

1705, July 20. William Crouch, of London, and William Bills [Biles], of Bucks County, sold to Johathan Stout, of Burlington County, one sixteenth of one one-hundredth part of the Province of West Jersey.

1714, Mch. 12. He and his wife, Anna, acknowledged a deed.

Jonathan Stout and his family were a devout set of people. The first Baptist Church in Columbia village, Township of Hopewell, was organized, Apr. 23, 1715, with Mr. Stout and his family representing eight or nine of the fifteen constituent members. The church was constituted at his house, the meetings were chiefly held at the dwelling of the Stouts, from the foundation of the settlement till the erection of a meeting house, a period of forty-one years, and it was estimated that the total membership of the church, from first to last, contained, up to 1790, nearly two hundred of the Stout name, besides as many more of the blood of the Stouts, who had lost their name by intermarriage with others.

In 1790, two deacons and four elders of the church were Stouts, and the late Zebulon and David Stout had been main pillars of the church. The last lived to see his descendants number one hundred and seventeen souls.

In the early career of the Hopewell Church Edwards says that Joseph, Sarah, Benjamin, Hannah, David and Zebulon Stout were reputed to have gone to Pennsylvania for baptism, while the other children of Benjamin Stout, viz., Samuel, Jonathan and Ann Stout were baptized in Hopewell, although the church books do not give the names.

1722, Nov. 24. Jonathan Stout made his will, which was proved Mch. 25, 1723, and mentioned:

arah Burkhart, b. ca 1810/11, was the doughter of John and Catharine Burkhart. See Will f John Burkhart (Will Book), p. 365, Davidson Co., NC) dated 24 Apr 1841, proven Aug. 1841 burt. Names: Wife, Catharine; sons: Soloman, dec'd (bequest to his 4 children); John and Andrew, deceased; Daughters: Elizabeth Younts, wife of Benjamin Younts; Barbara, wife f John Frank; Margaret (living with Themas Yarbrough); Sarah, wife of Thomas Yarbrough; ancy, wife of Jesse Goss; Granddaughter Elizabeth Burkhart, daughter of son Andrew, deceased. kecutors: John Frank and A. F. Smith. Witnesses: Peter Owen and Jemes Wisemon.

BSO Census for Tipton Co., TN shows that Washington Green Y (#5 child) was b ca 1836/37 in NC and Margaret Ann (#6 child) was b. in TN ca 1838/39. In January 1837, Thomas Y is uying land from William H. Edwards in Tipton Co., TN. From this we can assume that nomas probably went to TN about 1836. Perhaps he went first to get settled and his ife and family followed after the birth of Washington Green Y.

- i. John S. 19 on 1850 census. Deeds from Tipton Co, TN in 1861 state Thomas is a resident of Ark. John would have been 30. It is possible he did not go to Ark with the family. I do not find him in Tipton Co., TN in 1860.
- 2. Thomas Jefferson. 17 on 1850 census. On the 1860 Census of Jackson Co., Ark, he is shown as age 25 with a wife Susan age 20 and dau Emma age 3. He married Virginia Ann Penn in 1866. Did his first wife die? What became of the daughter?
- James Franklin. 15 on 1850 census, 22 on 1860 census. He appears to have his brothers and sisters living with him. Why? Father Thomas is making deeds in 1861 in TN. Was Thomas just in TN to settle up matters before returning to Arkansas?

Safronia E. 14 on 1850 census, 21 on 1860 census. On 1869 Deed she is listed as S. E. Praffin. Marriage isn't in Tipton Co., Th records?" One of the neighbors in Tipton Co., TN was named Draffin. A little research would probably show that the Y girls married brothers from this neighboring family.

Washington Sreen. 13 on 1850 census, 19 on 1860 census. Married Emmin Huglett 8 Jun 1867 in Tipton Co. A Washington Y is in the Tipton Co., TN records, but more research needs to be done to see if this is the same man.

Margaret Ann. 11 on 1850 census; She married William N. Draffin 14 May 1856 in Tipton Co., TN. According to the 1869 deed, she was a resident of Woodruff Co., Ark.

Martha J. 10 years on 1850 census, 20 on 1860 census. On 1869 Deed she is shown as Martha Duke. On the 1872 Power of Attorney her husbands initials are given as E. T. Duke. There is no marriage record in Tipton Co., TN and marriage probably was in Arkansas.

Indrew Jackson. 7 on 1850 census, 18 on 1860 census. No further information.

saac Newton. 6 on 1850 c, 16 on 1860 census. No further information. He s not listed on the deed where the heirs of Thomas are selling land in 1869. Prhaps he had died between 1860 and 1869?

Records show she married in Woodruff Co, Arkansas.

HISTORY OF CARDWELL BAPTIST CHURCH

The first Missionary Baptist Church of Cardwell was organized on September 26, 1899, by Rev. J.A. Yarbrough. Seven members constituted the organization. They were: C.M. Ashley, J.J. Glenny and wife, Susie Hodge, Emily Suthers, M.L. Thomas, and E.A. Harris. Rev. Yarbrough was the first pastor, Rev. A.B. Church, the first permanent pastor of the church, and J.J. Glenny was the first church clerk. They met three Sundays of each month. For four years they met for worship at private homes and in an old shed located in the southeast part of town. From 1903 to 1905, they worshipped in the Methodist Church building. In 1905, they built their first house of worship and it was located where the present Cardwell Church of Christ now stands. In 1909 while McCanus was pastor of the church. another Baptist Church was started. This church was located in the northern part of town where Eulas Vaughn home is now located. Mr. E.C. Frie, Mr. J.J. Glenney, W.H. Lockard, and R. Williams, trustees of the First Baptist Church of Cardwell bought the lot from Mr. Glenney for $325.00 on December 24, 1910. The storm blew the building down in 1914. Many of the members of the other Baptist Church were going to this church at the time it was discontinued. The Baptist met in the old First National Bank Building for years, and in 1952, their present church on Long Street was built. Bonds were sold to help finance the building.

The following pastors have served the church since organization: J.A. Yarbrough, S.B. Church, C.A. Merideth, R.D. McKinsley, C.F. Carpenter, E.P. Minton, W.G. Matthews, F.R. Allen, J.W. Seev, G.A. Crocker, Deammon, T.E. Williams, L.W. Lemmonds, N.E. McCoy, Pulliam, J.L. Newson, Rev. Vaughn, G.D. Faulkner, Ernest Blackford, Dr. W. Belton, E.T. Coon, O.C. Wilcoxson, Hovey Williams, George Graham, M.N. Monday, E. Robertson, A.G. Whitworth, Waif Hamilton, Seibert Halley, Jack Wasdrop, Jimmy D. Harness, Louis C. Manner, and in 1972, Rev. Lawrence Ray is pastor. Rev. Ray has been an inspiration to all the citizens of Buffalo Township. He is an old native of Cardwell. His father worked in the sawmills in Cardwell in 1911 and 1912.

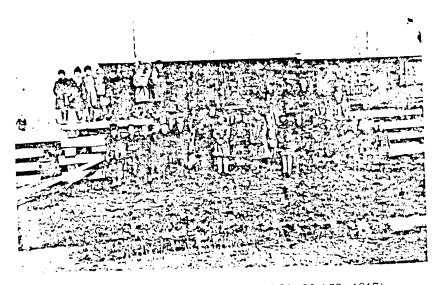

The present church has an enrollment of 280 members and some of the active members of the church are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hart. Mrs. George Sissom, Mr. and Mrs. Randal Sissom family, Mabrey family, Brewer family, Jessy Archer, Killion family, Huggins family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burgess family. the (-) Washingtons, J.B. Hoesman family, Jane Grady family, Luna Halmark, Marvin Wells family, and other faithful members.

Mrs. Chester Mack Washington is the organist and Mrs. Vernon Hartsoe is pianist.

The church holds services on Sunday morning and night and is a church warm with love. "The Project Day" is the day to see this love and devotion illustrated. All the farmers, businessmen, and families of the church bring in the savings of their prospective money-making projects, and present the money to the church. This money is used to improve the church and parsonage.

Mrs. Lottie Malone of Senath organized the first "ladies aid society" of the Baptist Church (Page 172, Vol I., History of Dunklin County Historical Society). The Cardwell ladies that were active in the first organization of the Baptist Missionary Society in 1926 were: president, Mrs. John Warren: Mrs. Gist, Mrs. Seaborn, Mrs. Frie, Mrs. Estes, and others. Miss Grace Johnson served twelve years as association president.

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select "Edit", and then "Find" or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
