Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarbrough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarbrough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarbrough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

NEWBERRY COUNTY,
SOUTH CAROLINA:

Historical and Genealogical Annals

Early pioneers who settled in the territory of what is now Newberry County were, mostly, Irish, Scotch-Irish and Germans, mingled with English and French in a smaller degree. The Irish and Scotch-Irish settled in the northern and western sections while the Germans and Dutch settled in the southern and southeastern sections. The Stoney Hill settlers were mostly Irish, and, like their German neighbors, received grants of lands from the English King; the number of acres to each depending on the size of the family or specific public services performed by him. They brought with them from the old country many old customs that were peculiar to their native lands. At a later period, another influence began to show in dances and songs, some of which were brought from Virginia by the slaves. Predominantly Christian peoples who fled their native countries on account of religious persecutions or to seek better economic advantages, the new country soon fell into the order of good government under the English laws, the parent of our American legal procedure and institutions.

There were two religious sects that were particularly opposed to slavery, the Friends and the Covenanters. The Friends, or Quakers, who had come from Pennsylvania and settled on Bush River, about three and one-half miles from Coats's Shop, (site of old church and the cemetery can yet be seen), many stopping in western North Carolina, were distinctly peculiar in their dress and habits; ceremonious in habits. (See another part of this book for sketch of the Quakers).

Anthony Park, an Indian trader, moved to the Alleghany mountains to ply his trade, then came back to Newberry or the section of what is now Newberry County. He was one of the first Indian traders in this section, and had traveled over wide areas.

John Lyles, another Indian trader, had come from what is now the territory of North Carolina, though from a Virginia family. He settled on Broad River, near a place afterwards known as Lyles Ford. His brothers, James and Williamson Lyles, followed him to this section. All of them, and also several of their sons, served as patriots in the Rev. War.

Adam Sumner came from Pennsylvania, and was said to have been the first settler in the upper Dutch Fork, though tradition is that John Lyles and John Adam Epling were in that area about the same time. (Sketch on Adam Sumner in another part of this book.)

John Duncan, a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, came to the northern section of what is now Newberry County, and settled on the creek which now bears his name. He died early, but left several sons. The section in which he located was known for its density of forests, with wild shrubbery and fruits that grew on the banks of the streams.

Other pioneers in the section between Duncan's Creek and Enoree River were, William Calmes, Benjamin Hampton, John Caldwell, Col. David Glenn, Peter Brazzleham, and others. Further east, near Tyger River, were William Gilliam (from Virginia), Jacob Geiger, John Henderson (from Virginia), and William Maybin, and others.

West of Little River the first family of Caldwells had settled, coming from Virginia. James, William and John Caldwell, who were active patriots in the Rev. War; and their younger brothers, Robert and David.

Southwest of the town of Prosperity were such pioneers as Archibald Boyd (from Pennsylvania), James Lester, Samuel McQuerns, Nathan Hunter, and others. There is now Black's Bridge. Philomen Waters lived. He was a native of Virginia. It was said of him that he served with General George Washington in the French and Indian Wars in Virginia, before coming to South Carolina.

Rev. Joseph Summers came from Maryland or Delaware, and settled within five miles of where is now the County Court House, just beyond the Hartford section. On the old "Belfast Road" leading to the Laurens County line, the old Griffin grave-yard is seen, where a Rev. War patriot is buried. On the way to that place, passing old Bush River Baptist Church cemetery, where are several graves of Rev. War patriots, are the sites of other settlers' homes.

Robert Gilliam, Sr., one of the first County Judges, and a Rev. War patriot and officer, is buried on Page's Creek, not far from where is now the town of Chappells. (See family sketches elsewhere in this book).

Comments by Andrea :

In the actual files of all wills in the various county seats will be found additional papers, receipts, appraisments, sale lists and other data that will help very much to define the genealogy better than the will alone...The copies in S.C. Archives are WPA copies and often are from 5% to 15% inaccurate.

CORRECTIONS OF "YARBOROUGH GENEALOGY" WHICH

by Marineal Yarborough Nickolaus

I regret that the Yarborough article from the January 23, 1953 St. Helena Echo was reprinted in the Yarborough Family Magazine (Vol. 3, No. 8, pp. 51-56), as it contains substantial errors, and each time an error is printed, more people accept it as fact. This article is to correct those errors.

William Yarborough, who settled in Marion County, Mississippi, was born April 19, 1788 in South Carolina. We of this family are not at all sure he was "William Jr." The Bible record which gives the date of birth and death names him as William Yarborough, Senr. (read as Junr. and the date as April 17 by the researcher who gave the information to the St. Helena Echo). If one is looking only for a William Yarborough as the ancestor, it is usually possible to find one in the right place, as there were many of that name. There was a William Yarborough, Rev. War Soldier, who had a son Lewis, also a Rev. War Soldier, and a son William Jr., who was the sixth child of William, Sr., as the following affidavit states. After reading the affidavit, I believe you will agree that William Yarborough of Marion Co., Mississippi could hardly be the same William who gave it.

William Yarborough (b. 1788, S.C.) appeared in the Marion Co., Mississippi 1820 Census and the following Marion Co. Censuses for '30, '40, and '50. Records of Marion Co. show that he died Jan. 2, 1859. The Census records show that he had one son born in Georgia before he arrived in Mississippi. There is no evidence that he was ever a resident of Tennessee and most certainly was not one in 1851 as stated in the affidavit.

As to the relationship of William (b. 1788, S.C.) to the Pulaski Co., Georgia family, there is really no way of proving it, and it is very doubtful if the Pulaski Co. family was that of William Yarborough, Sr., the Rev. War Soldier, as Pulaski Co. is not near the Oconee River where the family settled. There is no record of marriage in Pulaski Co. for William Yarborough and Rebecca Clark, as that is who William (b. 1788, S.C.) married. She was the daughter of James Clark. The Bible record says only that they were married, and does not give a date or place.

Putman Co., Georgia is near the Oconee River and in that county's records you can find the marriage of James Yarborough and Mary Dixon (Book A, 1808-10), and not in Eaton, Georgia, as the Echo article states. Stephen Yarborough and Elizabeth Phelps were married in Amite Co., Mississippi, and not in Eaton, Georgia, as the Echo article states.

Rebecca Clark, wife of William Yarborough, was born in South Carolina, December 30, 1797. I do not know who Rebecca Phearson might be, but the name is probably from tangled information, as there were several connections to the Pearson family.

William Yarborough, Jr., son of William Sr. (b. 1788, S.C.), married January 26, 1844 to Mary Ann Fornea (not Mary Holden) in Marion Co., Mississippi (Book C, p. 47) January 26, 1844.

CORRECTIONS OF "YARBOROUGH GENEALOGY" WHICH APPEARED IN ST. HELENA ECHO, January 23, 1953

by Marineal Yarborough Nickolaus

I regret that the Yarborough article from the January 23, 1953 St. Helena Echo was reprinted in the Yarborough Family Magazine (Vol. 3, No. 8, pp. 51-56), as it contains substantial errors, and each time an error is printed, more people accept it as fact. This article is to correct those errors.

William Yarborough, who settled in Marion County, Mississippi, was born April 19, 1788 in South Carolina. We of this family are not at all sure he was "William Jr." The Bible record which gives the date of birth and death names him as William Yarborough, Senr. (read as Junr. and the date as April 17 by the researcher who gave the information to the St. Helena Echo). If one is looking only for a William Yarborough as the ancestor, it is usually possible to find one in the right place, as there were many of that name. There was a William Yarborough, Rev. War Soldier, who had a son Lewis, also a Rev. War Soldier, and a son William Jr., who was the sixth child of William, Sr., as the following affidavit states. After reading the affidavit, I believe you will agree that William Yarborough of Marion Co., Mississippi could hardly be the same William who gave it.

William Yarborough (b. 1788, S.C.) appeared in the Marion Co., Mississippi 1820 Census and the following Marion Co. Censuses for '30, '40, and '50. Records of Marion Co. show that he died Jan. 2, 1859. The Census records show that he had one son born in Georgia before he arrived in Mississippi. There is no evidence that he was ever a resident of Tennessee and most certainly was not one in 1851 as stated in the affidavit.

As to the relationship of William (b. 1788, S.C.) to the Pulaski Co., Georgia family, there is really no way of proving it, and it is very doubtful if the Pulaski Co. family was that of William Yarborough, Sr., the Rev. War Soldier, as Pulaski Co. is not near the Oconee River where the family settled. There is no record of marriage in Pulaski Co. for William Yarborough and Rebecca Clark, as that is who William (b. 1788, S.C.) married. She was the daughter of James Clark. The Bible record says only that they were married, and does not give a date or place.

Putman Co., Georgia is near the Oconee River and in that county's records you can find the marriage of James Yarborough and Mary Dixon (Book A, 1808-10), and not in Eaton, Georgia, as the Echo article states. Stephen Yarborough and Elizabeth Phelps were married in Amite Co., Mississippi, and not in Eaton, Georgia, as the Echo article states.

Rebecca Clark, wife of William Yarborough, was born in South Carolina, December 30, 1797. I do not know who Rebecca Phearson might be, but the name is probably from tangled information, as there were several connections to the Pearson family.

William Yarborough, Jr., son of William Sr. (b. 1788, S.C.), married January 26, 1844 to Mary Ann Fornea (not Mary Holden) in Marion Co., Mississippi (Book C, p. 47) January 26, 1844.

Enrolled in the ranks of the Revolutionary forces of North Carolina was William Yarborough, who fought for the duration of the War. At its close he retired to private life. On June 24, 1784, he placed an application from the State of Georgia for a Revolutionary War land grant in which he listed his services as being rendered in North Carolina, and his home as Franklin City, Warren County. The United States Government granted his request and his "Bounty Grant" was received, recorded, and deed filed on February 14, 1785. The American States Papers, vol. 2 and 3, supply that information.

William Yarborough's son, William Yarborough Junior, was born April 17, 1788 in South Carolina.

With his father's family he moved into Georgia where records show him living during the years 1805 and 1806. Other members of the family continued their Westward movement during the year 1810 when many married into Mississippi and Parish, Louisiana, to li those who married at were James Yarbor married Mary Dixor Georgia in 1810; Step through who married Elizabeth Phelps on March 15, 1810 at Eaton Georgia; Louis Yarborough and William Yarborough who married Rebeca Phearson at Hawkinsville, Pulaski County, Georgia in 1818. The last named couple moved into Marion County, Mississippi in 1819. The pioneer families who went to St. Helena Parish, named their new home for their beloved community in South Carolina. These pioneer families are listed in the American State Papers as receiving U. S. land grants, known locally as "Headright Grants" All of the Yarborough pioneers received such "Headright Grants" as is true of the Southern Section of the United States, very little information is known of those living in this section during the early 1800 period. The census of the United States, the American State Papers, the Greensburg papers on file in the Louisiana Room of the Louisiana State University; Casey and Otken; Amite County, Mississippi; Ruth Blair; Early Digest of Georgia; with files of old newspapers and family documents, furnished the completed picture of the lives lived by the William Yarborough family who moved from their homes in Marion County, Mississippi, to St. Helena Parish, Louisiana and joined their relatives already living there. William Yarborough Junior married Rebecca Phearson, born December 30, 1797 and died 1875. Their children included John Yarborough who married Catherine Loe first, then after her death Sarah Ann Pearson; William Yarborough who married Mary Holden; Jabez Yarborough who married Susan Lewis; Elisha Yarborough who never married; Elijah Yarborough who married Miriam Pearson; Mary Yarborough who married the Rev. Samuel Scarborough, Methodist Minister; Charles Yarborough who married Margaret Miller of Texas.

Elijah Yarborough born January 23, 1833, married on January 30, 1861 Miram Cleopatria Pearson, daughter of Joel and Sarah Fournier Pearson. They were substantial citizens and land owners in St. Helena Parish. The couple reared a large family of children who did much to further the development of the civic and religious life of the community. They were patriotic and civic minded and participated in the advancement of the Parish and State. Center Methodist Church, one of the oldest established churches, St. Helena Louisiana, bears testimony to their faith and zeal in religious matters. In the Yard of that Church are buried a large number of the family members. Miriam Pearson died there after which the Elijah family again moved, this time into East Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, and settled near Midway on a spacious farm. The family became members of Salem Methodist Church in that community and continued their zeal in religious matters. The family became closely allied with Centenary College, Jackson, Louisiana, where some attended school and others were represented on the College Board of Directors. Members of the Yarborough family have held numerous government offices, both appointative and elective.

Elijah married again after the death of Miriam, his first wife, to Nancy Deborah Allen of St. Helena Parish, who survived him at his death at his East Feliciana Parish farm on July 5, 1901.

John Yarborough was born Dec. 20, 1817, married first Catherine Loe, who was born September 16, 1821. Of this union the following children were born; James F. Yarborough, born October 1, 1843, William G. Yarborough born August 14, 1844 John W. Yarborough born January 9, 1847 and Elijah E. Yarborough born May 18, 1849. CHINA GROVE CHURCHYARD CEMETERY

Cemetery - China Grove Churchyard

Location - Walthall County, Mississippi, near Marion County line, between Tylertown & Darbun. Sec. 2, T2, R11E

Copied by - Rosa Lynn Jones & John Jones

Address - 2004 East Drive, Jackson, Mississippi

Date copied - August 9, 1961

Address - Madison, Mississippi

Note: China Grove was one of the earliest settlements in the southern part of the state, and derived its name from a grove of china trees planted around the grounds of the little log school house, which later became the original church building. Mention is made of this settlement in Conerly's Pike County History, and the community existed during territorial days.

China Grove Methodist Church is located about 8 miles northeast of Tylertown in Walthall County, Mississippi.

About 10 years after the first Methodist Church in the Mississippi Territory was organized at Natchez, a group of Baptists built a little church in 1809 of peeled logs on the site now occupied by China Grove Methodist Church. The first China Grove Church was built when it was not uncommon to see Indians in their primitive attire in the area, and several years before the Mississippi Territory was organized into a state. The cotton gin was only fourteen years old at that time, and the church was organized over a hundred years before Walthall County was chartered. As a Baptist church it remained active for more than 20 years.

On October 4, 1836, a group of pioneer Methodists, probably attracted by the fine freshwater spring nearby, purchased three acres of land and the building from the original Baptist congregation. They paid $100 for the land, peeled log building, spring and all. The Rev. Neeham B. Raiford, a preacher and planter, was named pastor of the church the year it was bought from the Baptists, and he supervised the laying of the foundation of the new church. The building was constructed of pure heart pine which was hewed, sawed and planed by hand with the assistance of slave labor. (NB: Rev. Raiford is buried in the churchyard - see Cemetery record).

Concern for the spiritual welfare of the Negro people is attested by the construction of the balcony for Negro members. With the expansion of agriculture, and the success of the cotton gin, slave trade had increased to a point where Negro slaves outnumbered the whites in Mississippi as early as 1840. The Negro members were listed on the church rolls and attended services seated in a balcony overlooking the pulpit, and which had an opening from a side entrance to the church.

The building was completed in 1861 and the cash outlay was said to be less than $100. The one-piece sills underneath are of solid heart pine and measure between 80 and 90 feet in length. A parsonage was erected in 1876 under supervision of Rev. H. M. Youngblood and Rev. David Watson.

A camp meeting was planned in 1878, but yellow fever epidemic forced postponement. The first camp meeting was held in 1879. In 1880 there were 21 tents, 80 conversions, 30 accessions. In 1889, at the last camp meeting at the church, Mrs. J. M. Weems, sister of Bishop Galloway, organized Missionary Societies for China Grove and Tylertown. For nearly a century, China Grove was the center of Methodists for that section of the state.

Railroad expansion in 1906 caused a movement of members to other points, resulting in abandonment of services in 1930 and activities thereafter were confined to annual Homecomings until it was reorganized with regular services in 1944 by Rev. O. H. Scott.

The little church has stood and grown through five wars, as many depression eras, and even a change in religion, yet it stands today in modified form, more active than at any other time in its long and colorful history. The annual homecomings feature all day preaching and dinner on the ground.

The adjoining cemetery is spotted with graves 100 years old.

Yarborough's Coffee was a product of the Nueces Coffee Company of Corpus Christi, Texas in the 1940's and '50's. The company was owned and operated by four Yarborough brothers: Doctor Burleson, Walter Ottis, James Leonard, and John Stevenson Yarborough. Sold in the late 1950's, the company still operates today, now marketing its products under the name "Cain's Coffee."

TRIVIAL PURSUIT

A currently popular board game is Trivial Pursuit, which requires players to answer questions in various categories from randomly drawn cards. Here's one in the category of "Entertainment": Who played Sergeant Friday's partner, Ben Romero, on "Dragnet" (radio series)? [Hint: A Yarborough.]

This question and its answer (found at bottom of p. 119 of this issue) are from p. 24 of The Trivia Encyclopedia by Fred L. Worth (New York, Berkley Publishing Group, 1984).

MORE MOVIE INDUSTRY YARBROUGHS

Besides director Jean Yarbrough (more about him in a later issue) and stuntman Jonathan Yarbrough, I have recently come across another Y. who worked in the movie industry. He was script supervisor Jim Yarbrough, and a summary of his 1950 Samuel Goldwyn Productions film, "Edge of Doom," is on the following page.

CHOSEN DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATION
W.O. Yarborough

THIRTY years in the coffee business, in which he has visited every county in Texas, forms the background of W.O. Yarborough, president of the Nueces Coffee Company of Corpus Christi, and recently elected director of the Texas State Manufacturers Association.

Mr. Yarborough was reared on a farm and stock ranch in San Saba County and left the farm in 1911 to sell coffee on the road. In 1920 he quit the road to form the San Antonio Coffee Company and in 1928, when Corpus Christi became a deep sea port he purchased an interest in the Nueces Coffee Company in that city. Realizing the obvious advantages of shipping green coffees into the Port of Corpus Christi by water routes, in 1930, Mr. Yarborough disposed of his interests in San Antonio and bought out all remaining stockholders in the Nueces Coffee Company except his brothers D.B. and J.L. Yarborough. He has been president of the Corpus Christi concern since that time.

Under his direction the Nueces Coffee Company has expanded its distribution throughout about one-third of Texas and the coffees of the company carry the name of Corpus Christi over a wider area than do any other products. The first success of the company was built on the brand names of Nu-Port and Nueces Coffees, and in 1938 they originated the vacuum packed Yarborough's brand, a coffee which represents the sum of Mr. Yarborough's experiences with the coffee tastes of South and West Texas.

Mr. Yarborough is a member of the Corpus Christi Rotary Club and a past director of the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce. While he was a member of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission he caused the dredging of a pass between the Gulf and Laguna Madre which has been instrumental in saving thousands of fish for Gulf sportsmen. The pass was named Yarborough's Pass in his honor.²

Preservation of "Free Enterprise" Is Foremost Aim.

W.O. YARBOROUGH, coffee manufacturer, and who was installed as president of the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce at its recent annual meeting sounded the keynote of the coming year's activities when he said that "preservation of the American system, a system we are pleased to call free enterprise," would be in the first rank of the organization's program for 1944. "Free enterprise has made America great; free enterprise will win the war and free enterprise, as we have come to know it, will win the peace as well."

Organization Gives Full Support
To War Program

Mr. Yarborough, in a brief acceptance address, pointed out that the organization should continue to lend every degree of effort to the nation's war program, "and this we intend to do. Yet, like the citizens of every progressive community, we should and must give careful attention to the problems which will face us at the war's end.
