Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid[1], "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States*. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, http://www.yarbroughfamiy.org. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

Dear Pauline,

I own a printout of the 1850 Benton Co. Census copied on a photo copier. Last night I was looking at it and saw a name that I think belongs some where in you group. It is a new twist on Yarbrough. They are in Osage Township and the top of the sheet says including Bentonville. Whatever that means. The name is Jeptha Irba.

Just south of Osage County Twp in Washington Co. is a John Yeary. All this is in Arkansas.

Jeptha arrived in Ark by 1840. I have ordered a printout of Washington Co. Maybe some more will be on it.

I have been buying all the books I can on the Indians or part Indians because I feel that our Yarbroughs moved with them for one reason or another.

You may not agree with me that ~~that~~ this is a "Yarbrough". I think it is because Jeptha is a very uncommon name. I think it is because Yarbrough is pronounced so strangely in the South. I think it is because the names Jeptha and Benjamin both appear there.

Forwhat it is or might be--I am sending it anyway.

CHAPTER XXIV

METHODISTS IN WILKES AFTER 1800

THE FIRST Methodist preaching, beginning with the time of John Major and Thomas Humphries, created a revival spirit which lasted some years and caused Methodism to take firm root. But about 1794, this zeal began to cool and a decline followed. The spirit of speculation, employed in projects for acquiring land, began to be rife in 1794, and indeed commenced earlier. It of course culminated with the act of the legislature in 1796 which our indignant ancestors called the "Yazoo Fraud." A strong party spirit was roused by the discussion of the Yazoo bill, and thus men's minds were taken from religion. There was an actual decline in the number of Methodist church members. Towards the close of the century, the revival spirit roused again. All the writers, Baptist and Methodist, speak of the great revivals of 1802 and 1803 and the following years. We read of it in the Life of Mercer, and Gov. Gilmer also tells us of the effect on the Broad river people of the great revival of 1809.

In 1802, Washington was visited by Lorenzo Dow, who came again in 1803 and 1805. He was an eccentric old Methodist preacher born in Connecticut, who had been converted by the preaching of Rev. Hope Hull when Hull traveled a circuit at the North before coming to Georgia. Lorenzo Dow was at first connected with the Connecticut conference, but finally began to travel independently, and largely on foot, and in this way he went over a large part of the then settled States. His published Journal shows that he was much influenced by dreams and mental impressions which he considered sent by God for his guidance. He was however, a good man and did some good work and where known gained respect and confidence. In 1802, he came to Savannah by sea, and then in obedience to the mental impressions which he obeyed, he started on foot to Washington to see Hope Hull. He walked up to Augusta and then through Columbia, stopping to preach wherever he had an opportunity. Good brother Haynes in Columbia, heard and entertained him. Then he came to Captain Thornton's on Upton Creek, and from there he got up and walked nine miles before sunrise to Hope Hull's house. Early as it was, Hope Hull was up and in his corn crib. Hope Hull's treatment of him shows the sturdy good sense of this early Methodist, to whom religion in Wilkes county is so much indebted. Mr. Hull advised him to give up this traveling in obedience to supposed impressions by which he might be deceived, and strongly urged him to take a circuit. In his journal, Dow reports Hope Hull as saying, "that he did not know when traveling that he ever felt it impressed on his mind to go to one place more than another, but said he, if I heard of a place opened, or a house vacant of a minister, or a wicked neighborhood, my reason said I should go." This is worth a good deal as an illustration of Hope Hull's character, whose refreshing common sense cannot be fully appreciated except by a person of Lorenzo Dow's narrative of his presentments and dreams and how he wandered about in obedience to them. But Hope Hull's sound advice to look to his reason and not to imaginary revelations for guidance, had little effect on Lorenzo Dow who tells us in his journal that after he heard it he got to thinking about "Alexander's Life" and a dream he had "about the pit and a spring of water."

Nevertheless, Hope Hull appreciated the genuine piety and disinterestedness of Lorenzo Dow, and got him a hearing in our Court House, where he preached at night Feb. 16, 1802. He preached there twice, and he tells us "a young clergyman from Connecticut as I had done, voluntarily made a flowery prayer in which he gave me a broadside." Lorenzo Dow went to Lexington, Petersburg, and many other places, and one of his converts was Major John Oliver, who was probably a kinsman of Mrs. Pharr.

Rev. Micajah Lane, grandfather of the Lane's living here now, who died two years ago at the great age of ninety two years, used to tell that when a boy he came to Washington on an errand. He said there were many people out and they told him that Lorenzo Dow was to preach. After a while he said, Lorenzo Dow came walking down the Lexington road. Without saying a word to anybody on the right or on the left, he marched directly to the Court house, preached a sermon, and then walked out of Washington in the same silence in which he had entered the place.

Early in this century, camp meetings began to be a great institution for promoting religion. Bishop Asbury speaks of them in his Journal. Camp meetings are now rare, but when I first knew Washington well, in the forties and fifties, it was one of the summer pleasures for young folks to go to Independence camp meeting. Young people went for the pleasure of the trip and the company. Parties would be formed and young men would take young ladies out in their buggies in the morning, to return in the evening. On Sundays, the rattle of the passing vehicles could be heard in the morning before we left our room, and in the evening the air was filled with the dust of the returning caravan, and vocal with the lively talk of the young folks getting home from their day's excursion. Wheat's camp ground in Lincoln county was near enough to draw some visitors, while others who had friends camping at the great camp ground of White oak in Columbia county, would go down to stay all night on the camp ground. Last summer (1889) people from this place went down to Fountain camp ground in Warren, which has been frequented through this century by Wilkes people. I suppose it takes its name from Thomas Fountain an early Methodist with whom Bishop Asbury stopped in his journeys, as recorded in his journal.

Of course some people who went to these camp meetings were attracted by the company and not the religious services, just as the Christmas festival of other Christians is celebrated without regard to its significance, and in fact in a way wholly inconsistent with the religious object. These lively companies of young persons very often behaved badly, laughed and talked and disturbed services and perhaps were very sharply reproved by uncle Jimmy Danelly, or some other preacher. Any religious body would have this trouble very nearly in proportion to the extent of people whom it affected. But those who came from mere pleasure seeking were very often benefitted.

Tradition says that the first church built in Washington was the old Methodist church which in 1881 we saw moved and turned into Mr. Floyd's opera house. It must therefore have been built before 1825, when the present Presbyterian church was begun. The Methodists have no records whatever to tell of it, but Dr. Willis said it was built about 1821. With no more than this to guide me, I went to the records of deeds, or 'indentures,' in the office of Mr. Dyson clerk of the Court for Wilkes county, to look for the deed to the land on which the church stands. When I say that the deed is put in the index as "Alfriend to Grant," my readers can imagine what a job I had to find it, and I do not believe there is a Methodist in the county who would have taken the trouble that I did. I gave it up once, but I found a good deal in the old books to interest me, and in looking them over, I found a clue which after a good many searches led me to the actual deed. It is dated Dec. 16, 1819, but was recorded Dec. 19. I will give it, just as it was written, leaving out the mere legal verbiage. "Indenture between Edw. D. Alfriend and Nancy W. Alfriend his wife, of the county of Greene, of the one part, and Wm. Jones, John B. Lennard, William Grant, James Bradley, Arthur M. Charlton, Trustees of the M. E. church of the other part, witnesseth that for $1800 for that part of the lot hereafter described for use as a parsonage, and $200 for that appropriated to a church, to them in hand paid, they have sold, &c., unto said William Jones, &c., trustees, a lot, beginning on what was formerly Mrs. Griffin's, now the Female Academy line, running south along this line to the Female Academy lot, and bounded by said lot on the north east, and south to Liberty street, thence along said street, to the corner of William Rorie's lot, thence north in direct line with Rorie's lot to Main street, thence along said street to the beginning on formerly Mrs. Griffins, now the Female Academy lot, in trust for a parsonage house and church as above described, for the benefit of the presiding elder's family who may from time to time be appointed to travel on the Ogeechee District; &c, &c. Be it understood that all that part of the lot fronting Main street and running to the lower end of the female academy including all the houses on the same is for, and will belong to the parsonage for that purpose, and all the balance from the lower end of the female academy, running a straight line across the said lot from the lower end of the academy to Wm. Rorie's lot or line, will be and is for the church, on payment of the above $200."

The lot of Wm. Rorie is now part of the Academy lot. It is the part on Liberty Street nearest to the church lot.

The parsonage lot here spoken of is evidently that now occupied by Mr. Jesse and his sister Miss Clara Jesse. In one of the books in Mr. Dyson's office, there is another deed, made in 1830 by the trustees of the church conveying this parsonage lot to Mrs. Ann Anthony. She was the widow of Bolling Anthony. The deed states that she paid for it $730, which is a decline of more than one half on the $1800 which it cost them. I will mention that Mrs. Anthony lived there but a few years. The school boys at the academy gave her so much trouble running to her lot for water, and throwing balls over her fence and jumping over to get them, that it caused Mrs. Anthony to sell the place.

The church was completed, Dr. Willis says, about 1821. Rev. Geo. G. Smith the historian of Georgia Methodism, says that the town of Washington which had been on the Little River circuit, became a station in 1822. He thinks that the church was not built until 1824. I think that the deed in the clerk's office and the evidence of Dr. Willis show that the true date is 1821. Mr. Smith tells us that Thos. Darley was sent to Washington in 1822. He records a revival about 1828, and he says that Dr. Lovick Pierce, and Dr. Olin came to help the preacher in charge, John Howard. There was a great deal of skepticism here among the intelligent men who lived here in the early part of the century, but Mr. Smith says that a great sermon from Dr. Olin put it to flight. There were 14 members when the church was built, but this revival brought in 100. All the traditions in this place tell of a great revival here about that time, under the preaching of Rev. Alexander Webster the first pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Washington. The revival probably was in both churches. Mrs. Vickers, who came in 1836, tells me that people were still talking of it when she came, and also of the conference which met in 1834.

I shall write with some fullness that part of the history of the Washington church which follows the coming of Mrs. Vickers. I have regretted much that Methodists have preserved so little of their interesting history. I can write this much at least from authentic information and I will do so, hoping that I may inspire some one else to continue the record. Mrs. Vickers says that when she came, the principal members of the Washington church were Mr. William Jones and his wife, Miss Betsy Waddy, Mrs. Thomas Jones and her sons, Captain Pelot, Miss Mary Minton, Mrs. John Lennard and Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. Lewis Brown, Mrs. Willie, Mr. and Mrs. John Green, the families of Mr. Stephen Pettus and Mr. Garland Wingfield, the Berrys, Mrs. John Hay, Mr. Alex. Pope, Sr., and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Micaijah Anthony. Mrs. Vickers(1) says that when she arrived, the windows of the church were glazed only in the upper half, the lower half being closed by a heavy wooden shutter. There were no stoves in the church until 1839. In 1839 there was another great revival, in which about 100 persons joined the church. Rev. Alfred Mann was the preacher, and Rev. Samuel Anthony the presiding elder. After Mann married Miss Julia Pierce a daughter of Rev. Lovick Pierce and sister of Bishop Pierce, and brought her here as a bride, when he came to fulfill his appointment. I myself well remember the marriage of Alfred Mann and Julia Pierce. I was a little child living in Augusta, and my father and mother were neighbors of the Manns, and I used to play with Alfred Mann's sister, afterwards Mrs. J. O. A. Clark. They were not married in Augusta of course, but I remember the roast turkey which his mother old Mrs. Mann, basted in the old way before the open fire when she was expecting her son's wife, and the iced pound cake she made and ornamented thickly with little prickles of icing. When conference met here in 1857, and I dined with Dr. and Mrs. Mann and Bishop Paine, I told the party of the cooking of that turkey. Alfred Mann and I lived to be the last survivors of the two families who had been neighbors, and the old recollections were a strong tie between us. I afterwards knew his wife Julia Pierce well. She was one of the most superior of a remarkable family, all of whom I knew well. I consider her one of the most superior women this state ever produced. She had sound judgment, and much of that womanly quality, tact and she was fond of the best reading. Dr. Mann's easy circumstances (until he was old alas?) and the fact that she had no children, and so went with her husband to all the conferences, state and general, gave her many opportunities and broad knowledge of the world, and with her keen sense of humor, made Julia Pierce Mann one of the most charming and entertaining persons I ever knew. I never knew a woman with so much humor, so keen a sense of the ludicrous, who so perfectly kept it under the control of good feeling and discretion. I have always considered it a great misfortune that she did not live to write down her father's recollections from his lips, and to add to them her own.

The year 1839 was noted for the great drought in the summer and fall. The Savannah river dried up until it could be crossed on foot, and there was yellow fever in Augusta, of which my father died. A religious meeting was begun here in the fall, and Mrs. Vickers remembers that at the beginning of it, there was a meeting one night to pray for rain. At that time, there lived here on the lot east of Gen. Heard's property on Court St., a saddler by the name of Bradford Merry, generally called Brad Merry. His wife was a good pious Methodist, but he was an unbeliever. When he heard of the prayer meeting for rain, he said "Well if it rains, I will believe in the prayers of the righteous, and it will make me believe in religion." They had a day of fasting, and they had a prayer meeting in the evening for rain. Mrs. Alfred Mann, whom I have heard tell the story, said there were no signs of rain, when they went to church, the skies were unclouded, and there had been a drought for months. While they were praying, the clouds came and soon there was a sound of rain, and there was a good deal of trouble in getting home through it. Then, it is said that Brad Merry became a Christian. Now I tell this story as history simply, without expressing opinions, but I must be careful and not lead the reader to suppose that this prayer meeting and its result caused the revival which followed. I have never heard any of those who told the story, say that this particular prayer meeting caused the revival. They attributed it to all the prayers. Among the persons then brought into the church, were Mr. and Mrs. Vickers, Mrs. Julia Toombs, Alex. Pope Jun., and his wife who had been Sarah Willie, Mr. and Mrs. Hester and others.

Rev. Samuel Anthony was the presiding elder of the district, and he was here for about three weeks. After the meeting the citizens wished him to live here so they bought the house now occupied by Mr. Kendrick, north west corner of Alexander Ave., and Water Street, and asked him to occupy it. He was here for three years, and after that it was for some years used as a parsonage for the preacher in charge of the church. The house had belonged to Mrs. Andrew Semmes then a widow living in the house now belonging to Mr. Jordan. Mrs. Cotting told me that the house bought for a parsonage was one which had been moved into Washington from the plantation of Mrs. Semmes' father in the country. It is therefore one of the oldest houses in the town, though not on its present site, and may give us some idea how the early settlers built. It cost the church $700.

When Mrs. Vickers came, a preacher named Johnson was in charge of the church. Wesley P. Arnold followed him, then came Alfred Mann. Next came a Mr. Wright, and then in 1841, Thomas Benning was here. There was another revival in 1841, that gathered in some of the best members that the church has known. Among these, were Isaiah T. Irvin, one of the best citizens who ever lived in town, county or state, and whose wife was already a member of the church, and Lewis Brown whose conversion was a very remarkable one. He had been a very dissipated man until middle life - or indeed a little past it. Mrs. Brown's niece married my uncle with whom I lived, and in the family, I have heard much talk of the drunken frolics on which "Uncle Brown" would go, and in which he was a terror to his devoted wife. After his conversion, he was perfectly and entirely reformed. He lived more than twenty years afterwards, and never had the smallest relapse. His wife had already been a Christian and he was a liberal and useful church member. Dr. George Palmer was converted in 1841 and proved a useful and honored member of the Methodist church. Dr. Fielding Ficklen the ancestor of the Wilkes Ficklens, who married a Wingfield, was also converted in the revival of 1841. Mrs. Vickers says either Rev. Sam Anthony or Rev. James E. Evans, who was his successor, was presiding elder then. She says James Evans, who was a Lincoln county man, used to tell her that he was converted when a very young fellow clerking in Washington and that people used to doubt the permanence of the work, but said he, "Blessed be God it has lasted yet."

Mr. Benning was afterwards expelled from conference for bad conduct and became a worthless man. I can remember hearing people speculate as to the genuineness of the revival on that account. I know nothing of the man or his agency in it, but the conversion of uncle Brown and of others proved itself. The parents of Miss Ann Kendrick were converted in 1841. Mr. Benning was succeeded in Washington by Rev. James Wiggins. When here, Mr. Wiggins was a man of the most austere and rigid old fashioned Methodist notions. He had afterwards a good deal of domestic trouble, and it made him cease to preach, and people used to say he was a backslider. I knew him well during this declension. It was merely a cloud of personal faith, no disbelief in God, and he was not guilty of immorality. He afterwards joined the Florida conference. While out of conference, I have often heard him play the violin on which he was a good performer. It looked odd, for old fashioned Methodists considered a violin to be the devil's own instrument and he had been so austere. But there was no wrong in it, and music was a great pleasure to him in great trouble. Mrs. Vickers says that

Washington was not a station when she came, but was made one 1842, the year that Mr. James Wiggins preached here. She is very positive in her recollections of this matter. G.G. Smith says the town was made a station in 1822. I do not myself know enough of Methodist ways to tell about it, but she thinks that it must have been put back into the circuit, if as Mr. Smith says, it was made a station in 1822, and then again made a station in 1842. I will continue from Mrs. Vickers lips, a list of the preachers since she came. After Mr. Wiggins, came W. J. Sassnett, E. H. Myers, who did not complete the year, being sent to the female college in Macon, while a man named Jackson came to fill his place, John P. Duncan, W. B. Bound, Josiah Lewis, Wm. Evans, Rev. Foote, Caleb Key, Daniel Kelsey, Samuel Anthony, J.O.A. Clark, Thomas Pierce, John Norris, George Grogan. This brought the church up to 1860, when the Civil War began. In a previous article, I stated that the conference came in 1858. I have been corrected, and am told that it was in 1857, by Mrs. Lucy Simpson, who was married to a Washington Methodist, Wiley DuBose, in that year, an event she is not likely to have misdated.

When Rev. J.O.A. Clark was coming in 1857, he influenced the church to sell the old parsonage and buy the present lot, south west corner of Water St. and Alexander Ave. Mrs. Vickers thinks it cost $2000. Mr. Clark was here two years, and during that time, his wife's mother Mrs. John H. Mann of Augusta, came to see her, and fell sick and died. She was one of the early Methodists of old St. Johns church, Augusta, a saintly woman. I had known her from my childhood. I had seen several persons die, and used to say that I should like to see some one die a triumphant death. I had that privilege in Mrs. Mann's case. I shall never forget it, nor the song by Mr. Robert Smith at her request. I do not mean that Mrs. Mann shouted or exulted loudly, but she was conscious to the last, and expressed her perfect confidence and readiness to go. I suppose I was the more impressed, because I had known that old lady's goodness from my very childhood. One of my Schoolmates was a girl who was left motherless when a baby, and there was no one to take her, and old Mrs. Mann sent for the child and reared it with her own. She was Mary Helen Walton, one of the first graduating class of Wesleyan Female College. She afterwards inherited a large property for those days.

During the war, Mr. Grogan was succeeded by Rev. Habersham Adams and he by W. M. Fulton, who proved to be a hypocrite. Mr. Fulton's story is a strange one. He was a native of Ireland, and I think professed conversion in Savannah, and then became a preacher. He married a widow, a most excellent Methodist lady with some property. He attracted great attention as a preacher when here and drew hearers from other churches.

Mr. A. L. Alexander, I think, detected that he preached a sermon of Melville, but had not spoken of it. Among the wounded Confederate soldiers, was a man from Missouri who was sent to the interior to recover. He saw Mr. Fulton in Augusta, and recognized him as an impostor who had married several women in succession and deserted them. I have not space to go into details, but it was when the fortunes of war had cut us off from communication with the outside world and the conflict was about to end, that Mr. Fulton found the toils were closing round him and he would be discovered.

From Augusta he returned to Washington and making some excuse left the town again. After going to Milledgeville, he walked through the lines into the Federal camp and represented himself as having been forced to leave on account of his union sentiments. The Federal officers received such an honorable martyr with an effusive welcome, and so helped him to go to the north and marry one or two northern women, for whom in the white heat of indignation that we then felt, we did not feel so sorry as we ought to have done. But he was found out, and after a while was identified as the culprit here. He had a peculiar bodily defect which rendered identification easy. One arm was longer than the other. When last heard from, he was under sentence of death.

I remember the remark of Mr. Alexander, who was noted for his wit when he heard of Fulton's representations to the Federal officers. "Yes," said he, "Fulton's union sentiments were exactly what we objected to." The poor woman who married him suffered terribly. The strange thing was that they had been married several years, and he had never done or said the smallest thing which had seemed inconsistent with the exalted religious character which she attributed to him. She said that he was a very quiet sleeper, and she had often thought of that verse. "The Lord giveth his beloved sleep."

After the trouble with Mr. Fulton, conference sent to Wilkes, Morgan Callaway, who is a native of the county, and therefore could command great confidence. Mr. Callaway too has married a Wilkes county woman Miss Georgia Ficklen, a noble woman who has made her mark in the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church. Her goodness and energy does not surprise us, but that it should find a field among Methodists, since she was reared a Baptist of the Baptists. The list of preachers, continued up to 1890 is as follows: J.W. Yarborough, Dr. Eustace Speer, Alfred Mann, W. R. Branham, Peter Ryburn, Jesse Boring, W. P. Pledger, George Gardner, L. J. Davies, W.H. LaPrade, J. S. Bryan, Dr. Mixon. In 1881 Rev. George Gardner being preacher in charge, a new church was built costing $5300. It was dedicated by Bishop Pierce April 9, 1882. As I write this the Methodist are raising a subscription to enlarge and beautify the building for the expected conference of 1890.

After writing my account of the Methodist church in Wilkes county, an additional fact about them was gained from the study of Presbyterian records. The old church building which is now Mr. Floyd's opera House, was certainly completed by May 1823, for Rev. Alexander Webster the Presbyterian minister whose tombstone is in the vestibule of the Presbyterian church, was ordained in that old Methodist church in the month of May 1823.

This statement is found in the old book of minutes of the Presbyterian church session. To this fact, I will add that the old Methodist church was built by a carpenter who then or afterwards was a Baptist preacher, Rev. Wyche Jackson. He was a great oddity. When he preached, he would select some one in the audience and address them by name. On one occasion, he preached in this old Methodist church, and in the course of his remarks told the audience that he had built the church and said he, "it was a good piece of work, was it not brother....." The brother thus addressed agreed that Mr. Jackson had done his work very well.

I will add to what I said about the Methodist church that Rev. G. G. Smith writes me that the first 70 converts made in 1785 were not due to Beverly Allen who did not fulfill his whole appointment. Mr. Smith tells me that he learned this after his book was printed. Some preacher from Carolina came and gathered in this 70 as he thinks.

and as no objections were made, he became a soldier for the four years of bloody warfare. They after drilling through the summer, went to the front at Bowling Green Ky. When Fort Donelson fell, Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, retreated through Tenn. to Corinth, Miss. From which point he advanded on Gen. Grant and the Battle of Shiloh was fought. Johnston was killed and the Confederates on the 2nd. day under Gen. Beauregard were defeated.

Because of the wide spread criticism, Johnston exposed himself needlessly in the effort to win. "Capt. Moore" had either been promoted or else he was acting Colonel in battle. His horse was killed and afterwards he himself was shot and killed. The sentimental and beautiful circumstances lay in this fact. He had of his own initiation taken young Pierce and seen that he was made a soldier, and in the battle, Pierce was severely wounded and lay with a shattered arm. Col. Moore was killed and fell across his legs. Then these men, so devotedly attached, mingled their blood on the battlefield of Shiloh. Col. Nixon who first commanded the 48th in the reorganization, was followed by Moore. Afterwards Nixon raised the 48th Cavalry. When Pierce, who had been carried by relatives of Col. Moore, to Amite, La., had gotten well, he joined Nixon's 48th Cavalry, serving twice under Nixon. As he had been a special favorite with Moore, so this brave little soldier was also the same with Nixon. He entrusted the boy with important and dangerous tasks. One time he crawled, perhaps a mile through the weeds on his hands and knees to discover the position of the Federals. A remarkable incident was that Mr. Pierce served in two regiments, one infantry and the other Cavalry and both under Col. Geo. H. Nixon."

"In Nashville last week at the office of the "Confederate Veteran", I found what has a tender interest in it to Laurence Countians of 1861. The following were killed in battle:

W. L. Drake – At Shiloh
Robert T. Glover – At Shiloh
E. Kelly – At Shiloh
Jesse Tucker – At Shiloh
Col. Moore – At Shiloh
Lt. Geo. T. Blakemoore – At Chickamauga
J. V. Reed – At Chickamauga
J. R. Pollock – At Chickamauga
W. D. Bauf – At Perryville, Ky.
J. W. Roach – At Drury's Bluff
Etaoinet Roach – At Drury's Bluff
W. J. Massey – At Drury's Bluff
A. J. Stewart – At Drury's Bluff
John Hardwick – Place and battle not given

The following died –
James P. Hale – September 8, 1862
W. C. Blair – December 28, 1863
James P. Hardin – February 26, 1864
J. H. Andrews – In prison

And I remember well that our neighbor, T. J. Kincaid, who volunteered in Capt. Moore's Co., and who afterwards was discharged on account of broken health, later volunteered in a cavalry company, was captured and died in prison near Chicago . . .

BLAIR CEMETERY

Location: This cemetery is located about 1½ miles South and West of West Point. It is one of the oldest cemeteries in Lawrence County still in use, and is well kept by the people who have relatives buried there. Some of the earliest settlers of Lawrence County lived in this general area, and many people who were prominent in the organization of the County were buried in this graveyard, although most of them do not have tombstones marking their graves. The back section of the cemetery was reserved for slaves and it appears that there are at least 75 or 100 graves in this area, none with tombstones.

"MAN'S GRAVE"

following paper was given us by the Hardwick family, and was probably ten about 1937. This grave is located near the Lawrence-Wayne County grave of JOHN WOOLBRIGHT, Confederate soldier, near Railroad Church, County, Tenn., on the old Chisolm Rd., has recently been marked with ment furnished by the U.S. Govt.

WOOLBRIGHT was killed in a skirmish between small groups of Northern outhern armies in the year 1862. The battle took place near night- and the body of this man who was the only one killed was not found the next morning. Residents gathered and wrapped the man in his t and buried him where he fell.

grave has for these 50 yrs. been beautifully kept. The road hands working the road always cleaned the grounds around the grave, and the Chisolm Rd. has been moved, the people in the community have inued to keep the plot in order.
few people remembered the name of JOHN WOOLBRIGHT, the grave has to be known as "The Man's Grave".

only living witnesses of the funeral is Mr. J. C. Olive of Iron City, who was 12 yrs. old. It was at his request and that of his sister, M. S. Dalton, and the late Mrs. John Hayes, that Dalton Davis, daughter of Mrs. Dalton, obtained the monument from Washington.

after 75 yrs., it is fitting that this Confederate Soldier has thus honored. A beautiful poem was written by Miss Betty Hardwick soon the event, has been kept in the memories of many since childhood as quoted at the grave by Mrs. Dalton." Contributed by Miss n Davis.

Youngblood, I.D.; Company unknown.

NOTE: IT is understandable why so many Panola County men were P O W's in Louisiana. Remember that a large army was stationed in the Shreveport area when the War ended, and some efforts were made to hold them together and carry on the War even after Lee's surrender. Finally, General Kirby-Smith had to surrender his command and the men were paroled from Shreveport.

Researching the thousands of names on those P O W Rolls was a very tedious task, and it is likely that some names were overlooked. (L.B.LG.)

tuition attended school. The first appropriation by the State was made in 1854, and amounted to 62 cents per child." Mr. Sharp also explained the requirements by which teachers were eligible to receive these funds, "Furthermore, only those districts could avail themselves of the State Apportionment which had provided a good substantial school house with the necessary seats and other fixtures." Mr. Sharp quoted this requirement from Gammel's LAWS OF TEXAS, p. 1462.

Whatever the State law, it is obvious that Panola County teachers did not receive the money on that basis; and at the August, 1858, term of court the three men named in July: DeBerry, Chatham and Moore, appeared before the Court and resigned as the committee. "Thereupon, the Court appointed J. Hadley Anderson, H. McKay and C.D. Moore as the School Examiners' Committee." Evidently, C.D. Moore reconsidered.

It was the November, 1858, Court that gave an order for the School Fund now in the Treasury of the County be apportioned as follows: "The following teachers of schools in said county who have complied with the law, be paid the sum of 10 cents per day out of the fund for all Indigent Scholars, or those who are unable to pay their tuition for the full number of days." The teachers receiving funds for such students were not listed with the pupil-days as they had been before. Only the amount paid to them was given as follows:

J.W. Chatham . . . $32.55; P.L. Johnson . . . $35.80; (?) Bostick . . . $41.30; W.B. Yerger . . . $31.50; T.L. McPherson . . . $35.70; G.W. Hartsfield . . . $37.25; E.J. Dodson . . . $65.10; A.S. The money left in the fund, $990.10, was ordered to be paid at 4½ cents per day for each scholar returned in the Tabular Statements of teachers of schools in this county. The sums paid to the following receivers were to be returned to patrons of schools and the trustee receivers were named:

This list of teachers in the county who made reports had dropped off since the year before. The same November Court ordered that the Treasurer of the State of Texas pay to Panola County Treasurer $1524.40 from State School Funds due for August, 1858. E. Williams was allowed $15.00 for bringing the school fund from Austin to Panola County.

In August, 1859, C.D. Moore resigned as "Teacher Examiner"; whereupon J.J. Wilson was appointed in his stead. A year before he had been appointed to serve with J. Hadley Anderson and H. McKay. At that time they were just called School Examiners with no mention of what they were to examine.

S.B. Darnall, County Treasurer, gave an interesting report November 21, 1859;

School Fund on hand, beginning of quarter . . . . . $ 2.00
School Fund received since last quarter 1524.40
Leans on $1524.40 School Fund @ 5% 76.22
School Fund on Hand 1450.18
School Fund for 1859 yet in Austin 1657.60

The Court instructed that the apportionment of Texas School Fund for the year ending August 31, 1859, be requested of the State Treasurer to be paid to the County Treasurer, S.B. Darnell. (Note: About this time in the County records the spelling of the name of the County Treasurer was changed from Darnall to Darnell.)

It was ordered November 22, 1859, that the School Appropriation to this County be paid to the County Treasurer by the State Treasurer and be apportioned as follows: "The following teachers of schools in said county having compiled with the law be paid the sum of 10 cents per day out of said fund for all Indigent Scholars or those that are unable to pay

An interesting paper in the Court Records is addressed to "The Chief Justice of the County Court of Panola County"; and it gives the first mention of Youngblood School in the Court Records: "Please pay to P.H. Hoskins and Grisham Herrin, patrons of the School taught at Youngblood's School House, in the years 1858 and 1859, by Dr. Daniels, the amount due to the patrons of that school for the time aforesaid of the Public School Funds in the Treasury of Panola County, September, 1859. Signed by Willis Singletary, Ira Dorter, West Hoskins, G.W. Dillard, and James Crawford."

Perhaps this was the usual notice given to the Court before the apportionment was paid, as seen by the list of patrons named the following November, 1859; the Court had $682.88 remaining in the fund after deductions for Indigent Children. "It is therefore ordered that out of same there be paid the sum of 1½ cents per day to each scholar returned in the County Tabular Reports . . . the same to be paid to the following named persons as receivers to be paid to the several scholars . . . " The list that follows shows both the teacher and the patrons who received the apportionment. This list helps to locate early families in this county: Thomas Farrow's School . . . G. The above table has some interesting observations in it. W.B. Metcalf taught three different schools in different communities and had different paying patrons represented. One can understand this, if he remembers that schools were not longer than three months; usually they ran only about two months.

The number of teachers in the County suddenly grew until the list in 1860 was more than twice that of 1858. In November, 1860, public school teachers were allowed 8 cents per day for tuition of Indigent Scholars, if the teacher complied with the law by reporting pupil-days attended. From the money left in the fund, three-fourths of a cent per day was allowed patrons for other scholars. The 1860 apportionment from the State for Panola County was $1657.60. To save space and avoid confusion, the list of payments for 1860 may be listed in one chart:

This November, 1860, Term of Court ordered that the State Treasurer pay to Panola County Treasurer $1657.60, as the county apportionment of the State School Fund for the year ending August 31, 1860. A further order was that the State Treasurer pay to S.B. Darnell, Panola County Treasurer, $164.47, the amount due from the State Treasurer, "as per letter of advice of Comptroller, September 10, 1860." This was the tax due on the Public School Lands.

Sidney Stephen's Teacher's Tabular Statement was presented to the March, 1861 Court and he was allowed $30.86 from the Indigent Fund; and $3.12 was allowed to paying patrons of Stephens's School. At the same Court, B.F. Morris and J.J. Kirkland were appointed Examiners of the Indigent School Fund.

The May, 1861, Court allowed J.C. Wilson, teacher, 8 cents per day for 96 days he taught Indigent Children, or a total of $7.68. S.S. Lewis was allowed $44.88 for tuition of Indigents attending the school taught by him. The Court also allowed John M. Vawter and C.F. Lewis $11.26, as patrons for the school taught by S.S. Lewis.

In the fall of 1861 the Court again ordered that the "School Fund in the treasury be distributed to the following named teachers who have completed . . . at the rate of 10¢ per day for all Indigent Scholars that attended their several schools." The list of teachers followed; but the same Court also ordered that several paying patrons of these same teachers receive 3/4¢ per day that they had actually sent their children to school and was reported by the teachers' Tabular Reports. The table of those who shared in that apportionment is important for the War had actually begun by this time.

War. A Mr. Gandy, who resided in the community, was the first white man buried in the cemetery.

The small, Williams Cemetery, which had its beginning as a family burying plot more than 100 years ago, is located some two miles beyond Harris Chapel Cemetery on FM 959.

The Edgar Redmon home, which Mrs. Redmon had renovated several years ago, was originally her maternal grandparents' home. The one-piece sills for the front porch, which runs the entire width of the house, were hand hewn from one tree, perhaps by slave labor.

Tabernacle Cemetery is about 104 years old and is located several miles off the main road on the eastern boundry of the community. The story is told that the colored people moved their burying place to Tabernacle when a public road was established beside Harris Chapel Cemetery (this was the beginning of Tabernacle).

The E.R. Yarborough General Store is 100 years old and still stands beside FM 1794, although its not in operation at the present time. Materials from the old original store were used in this present building. At one time there was a Post Office, called Mayhon, which was located beside the Yarborough Store.

The town of Beckville has had a post office since 1857.

Signed: T.M. Horton, December 13, 1886."

The records are somewhat confusing as to the District number; it was first called District #1, and in 1905 was so estabiished; but Horton was later known as District #38.

Another deed was made by J.T. Elliott and wife M.J. Elliott, in 1903, for a school at Walnut Springs. This was evidently the colored school.

At any rate, the County Board classified Horton as a one-year high school in June, 1912. Then, in 1913, the Board re-classified it as a two-year high school.

Supt. A.J. Holmes said, in 1912, "Tacoma carved out of the original #1, built and Rural High School District; but later dissolved that district and consolidated with Carthage.

JUMBO SCHOOL

Jumbo Common School District #22 was created December 6, 1907. In 1912, the boundaries were corrected and the County Board of Education rated it an Intermediate School.

Later in the year of 1912, it was reclassified as a one-year high school.

In June, 1913, the County Board of Education re-classified the school to a two-year high school.

Mr. Holmes reported in 1912, "Jumbo, District #22, has a fifty cent tax, a new 2-story building and good furniture."

This school, like others in the county, operated at a local level until the consolidation pressures became obvious in the 1940's and Jumbo consolidated with Gary.

LIBERTY CHAPEL (Formerly, Frogpond)

The first school for Liberty Chapel was donated by Mr. Respess who was also its teacher for several years. Some of his pupils were his own grandchildren.

On the same location as the Respess School, Liberty Chapel was established and defined as Common School District #20 on December 6, 1907.

In 1912, the County Board of Education rated the school as Intermediate (seven grades). The 1913 Board Rating was the same.

Mr. Holmes reported in 1912, "Liberty Chapel, District #20, has the house repaired and furniture has been added. This school is very small and will not succeed 'till its patrons are more enthused over the subject of education."

Liberty Chapel did become an enthusiastic elementary school before the consolidation movement came. In the 1940's this district consolidated with Carthage.

LILES — MURRAY — WALDROP SCHOOL

An interesting experience is to follow the story of a one-room school from pioneer times to modern days. Such a story is the one about a school that changed its name to that of the family land where it was located.

In the 1870's through the 1890's, a school was taught by Mr. Liles and it was called LILES SCHOOL. It was taught in a house on the road between Fairplay and Brooks, near Buckner's Creek. Known teachers of MURRAY SCHOOL were: Sudie Lowrie, Amanda Davenport, Minnie Donovan, Hurst Chadwick and Lena Moseley.

Essie Waldrop Belew remembers attending Murray School in 1903, when she was about seven years old. Minnie Donovan, the teacher, came to Carthage for Christmas. When she returned riding horseback, she had icicles in her hair. This impressed the children who also had to ride horseback or walk long distances to school.

She describes the furnishings of that school room. Students sat on benches, with only one long table-desk at the front of the room. This was for all students to sit around (again on benches) to recite or for writing lessons. The lid to this desk raised and held a chest-like cavity which held all students' books there. Students had to furnish their own books, so there were very few. They took turns in groups or classes, while others studied at their seats. All grades were taught in the same room.

Essie remembers sixteen pupils of Minnie Donovan in 1903: six Taylor children — William, Jewel, John, Cecil, Onyce and Marvin; two Brownings — Douglas and Richmond; two Waldrops — Essie and David; three Akins children — Horace, Corbitt and Orra; two Raleys — John and Nannie; and Carrie Weaver. One of the Taylor boys became a lawyer at Marshall.

After recess on Friday afternoons, each child who had been studious received an award. He or she drew for a small colored picture card. This was a coveted prize for all ages.

David (F.D.) Waldrop remembers some of the mischevious stunts pulled by older boys. The floor planks had wide cracks between; and neighbors' pigs and chickens wandered around and under the house at will. In the spring, the boys would bring fish-hooks and string to fix traps for the chickens and/or pigs. When the teacher was busy with other students, these boys baited the hooks with bread or corn and dropped them through the cracks. The opposite end of each string was held firmly by a bare foot until the noise and commotion under the floor had disturbed the school. The foot would release the string and no one knew who was responsible.

In 1908, a wave of school improvement swept over the County under the leadership of the first County School Superintendent, Prof. A.J. Holmes. This school was moved from Murray to the Dud Waldrop Place, in the Sugar Hill Area. This was about the same time that Brooks School was moved one mile East on the road toward Murray School.

The new school was created and defined, January 14, 1908, as WALDROP SCHOOL, jamin H. and Eliza Greer Baker of Russell County, Alabama. He married Elizabeth Beck, born in 1849 and died in 1922. Both are buried in Carthage Cemetery. Their children were:

Ola Baker, born 1880 (?), died October 10, 7, married James ("Jim") G. Woolworth who was born 1874 and died in 1936. He was a lawyer, and a brother to Dr. Joe Woolworth of Shreveport. Judge and Mrs. Jim Woolworth are buried in Carthage Cemetery.

Benjamin Moberly ("B") Baker, born in 1883 and died in 1935, was a lawyer; and he married Ollie May Forrest. Their only child was Melba Baker, born in 1909 and died in 1940.

Ruth Baker, born January 15, 1885, married Shelby George Turner, who was born in 1878 and died in 1940. His parents were George and Hettie Turner of Arkansas. Shelby Turner was an early teacher in Panola County schools. Their only child was Sid Baker Turner, born in 1908 and died in 1961. He was buried in Carthage Cemetery. He married Norma Weatherby and their only child is Teressa Turner, born around 1948. Sid Baker Turner served for several years on Carthage Independent Schools School Board.

S.S. ("Sid") Baker was a brother of Benjamin Moberly Baker, husband of Emily Ann Hull-Baker, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. in Sealey Hull. He was a Book-keeper for the Alsup and Thompson Store in Carthage for several years. He was a Texas State Representative for ten years, and Panola County Clerk for eighteen years. When he died, he was representing Governor Ferguson in New Orleans, Louisiana, and died in his hotel room.

CAPTAIN ROBERT WILLIS WEIR

Robert Willis ("Bob") Weir, son of Andrew and Sarah George Strickland-Weir, was born September 6, 1835, at Columbus, Mississippi. He came to Panola County, Texas, with his family in 1846, and they settled at Grand Bluff.

The Andrew Weir, Sr., family came to Grand Bluff in the spring of 1846, coming via. Little Rock, Arkansas. They crossed Red River at Shreveport, Louisiana when it was a very small village. — "only two little stores d a few families; — Mr. Shreve was living re and the town took its name from him." The mother, Sarah, had died in Mississippi in 1842 and was buried there.

Andrew Weir, Sr., accumulated quite a fortune while living in Columbus, Mississippi; Grand Bluff was a thriving village and the busiest River Ferry Crossing in the area; and the sons of this Weir family became prominent business men. Andrew W. Weir, Jr., became a Mercantile Merchant; Dr. George S. Weir practiced medicine in different parts of Panola County, including Fairplay; Bob was a Steamboat Pilot before the Civil War; and Martha Ann became the wife of Alexander Lewis Vawter, merchant at Grand Bluff.

Robert Willis (Bob) Weir married Eliza M. Barbee after he returned from the Civil War. They had eight children, six of which survived to become adults:

Sarah Elizabeth, born 1868; Mary Frances, born 1869, married W.F. Smith; Charlie H. born 1870, married Nancy Trulock; Martha Clementine, born 1872 — died 1873; William Robert, born 1874, married Margaret Yarboro; Laura Jane, born 1876, married John Reuben Dunn; Effie Lou, born 1879, married Joe C. Harris; Andrew King, born 1882 — died 1885.

Bob Weir and five brothers served in the Civil War. Bob and Richard, his youngest brother, enlisted December 26, 1861, as Cavalrymen in Company C, 14th Regiment, Texas Cavalry. They went to Little Rock, Arkansas, and were dismounted there; and their horses were sent home. They then took a Mississippi River Steamboat to Memphis, Tennessee, where they got railroad transportation to Corinth, Mississippi.

Capt. Bob's own words explain their experiences from Cornith: "There our troubles began. Our Company C was in the 14th Texas, Ector's Brigade, which was in many hard-fought battles. We had hard battles in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee. We went out with 117 men in our Company and only sixteen ever got back home."

Four other brothers of Capt. Bob Weir were in the War, too. Andrew W. Weir and his brother Henry were in R.N. Cumby's Company which was organized at Henderson, May 7, 1861, several months before Bob's Company. Charles was in a different company, but the title of that company is not known. Dr. G.S. Weir, another brother; was a surgeon in the Virginia Army.

Mr. Weir made several references to his Civil War experiences in letters and newspaper articles of his day.

Searching for Indexed Terms[1]

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select "Edit", and then "Find" or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched[2]. First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
