Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarbrough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarbrough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarbrough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

Excerpts from a letter to me from Russell written 17 Feb. 1962. I was visiting with Mother and Sarah and John came down with measles so we were away from home longer than usual and I did much visiting and researching. This letter was to "jog" my memory and give some information I had asked Russell about.

" The Bundy cemetery is on a farm now owned by Sheldon Humphries. He and his father have owned the Bundy Cemetery for 50 years. A Mr. Hooks used to live on the farm many years ago, the neighbors told us. It covers about 2 acres, but the cattle have broken over the sandstone markers so you can't tell that it is that big now.

To find the cemetery, the easiest way is like we went the second time--go east of Edgewood on Highway 80--pass an electric high line that crosses the highway, then turn right (actually it was not a full right turn, I believe, just half-right); go down this road, over a little bridge, then up a hill; a road turns right and that is the best way, just a little way on this right-hand road and stop when you come to a little shed or barn on the right side; get out of car and go left, inside the fence and to the trees on the top of the hill. The cemetery is in these trees.

On 11 Sept. 1959, Friday afternoon, Russell, Dorothy, Sarah and John visited with Uncle Dave (Dr. David Thomas Bundy, Jr.), County Health Officer, in his office. He told us the following:

Jordan Brown, son of Jordan Brown, brother of Mary Y. Brown, died about 1949. Buried in Oklahoma.

The Bundys, Browns, and Yarbroughs were all Methodists. Not related to the Yarbroughs at Chandler. (DBH's note--I think we'll find that somewhere back we are related but to date I have not done the necessary research to make the connection.)

James Bundy came to Van Zandt County about 1846, around Edgewood and moved to Harris Chapel after the Civil War. D. T. Bundy was 2 years older than his wife. James Bundy's first wife, Rebecca Williford, died in Tennessee. He came to Texas and married again. Rebecca's children were reared by this step mother. Uncle Dave did not remember her name or the names of her children.

D. T. Bundy, Sr. had 5 brothers--1 fell off wagon, moving into Texas, at Palestine and was killed--ferrying across Trinity River--ferry ran until about 1925.

Church To Honor Dr. D. T. Bundy

Dr. D. T. Bundy, who served as Smith County's health officer nearly 27 years, will be honored with an appreciation dinner at Pleasant Retreat Methodist Church Monday night.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. and is open to members of the church and Dr. Bundy's friends, a church spokesman said.

Dr. Bundy has been a member of Pleasant Retreat church over 50 years.

Master of ceremonies for the program will be Bill Davis, a neighbor of Dr. Bundy. Speaker for the occasion will be Jesse Breedlove.

Guests planning to attend are requested to bring a covered dish supper, a spokesman said.

Dr. Bundy will be cited for his service to humanity, the county and the Dixie community during the evening.

The veteran physician served Smith County from Jan. 12, 1936 until his retirement in February, 1963 as county health officer, with the exception of seven months in 1962. He resigned in June of 1962, but at the call of county officials returned to resume health officer duties seven months later.

Although exact records of the office have not been kept until recently on the number of people Dr. Bundy saw daily, the "guess" based on totals known indicate he saw about 24,000 persons during his health officer years.

Dr. Bundy began the practice of medicine in 1907. He is prob-

Dr. Bundy Rites Slated

AUSTIN — Funeral services for Dr. David T. Bundy, 99, of Austin are set for 10:30 a.m. at Pleasant Retreat Methodist Church in Tyler with the Rev. Ernest Duncan and the Rev. Ray P. Holt officiating.

Burial will be in Beaird Cemetery in Tyler under direction of Lloyd James Funeral Home.

Dr. Bundy died Friday afternoon in his Austin residence after a short illness. Dr. Bundy was Smith County's public health officer between 1936 and 1962. He was a Lindale native and graduated from the now defunct Texas Christian University School of Medicine in 1907. He practiced medicine in Smith County for 55 years, the first 30 as a private physician in western Smith County and Van Zandt County. The veteran physician resigned in 1962 and moved to Austin seven years later.

Dr. Bundy was a member of Pleasant Retreat Methodist Church, Woodmen of the World and the American Medical Association. He was recipient of several alumni awards from Texas Christian University.

Survivors include one son, Farland Bundy of Austin; one daughter, Mrs. Walter Jackson of Grand Prairie; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be R.M. "Doc" Eikner, Bill Davis, Doug Green, W.F. Rozzell Jr., Ray Breedlove and Henry Beaird.

CEMETERY BURNED OVER

The cemetery on the Jim Bundy place, one of the oldest burial places in this county, situated about two miles southeast of Edgewood was burned over on the 10th day of last month, and a house erected over the graves of deceased named below was destroyed in the conflagration: Jas. Middleton, infant born and died 1856; W. C. Middleton, b. 1840, d. in 1854; John Odell, born 1832, d. 1851; Jimm Gilliland, birth unknown, died 1856, at age of about 40 years. Gilliland Creek north of town was named after the latter deceased person. The fire is supposed to have caught from burning logs in an adjoining new ground.

AN OLD SETTLER

D. T. Bundy and daughter, Miss Rebecca, of Lindale, arrived in Edgewood last Thursday to visit Mr. Bundy's daughter, Miss May, who is attending the public school here. Miss Rebecca departed for Oklahoma Territory the following morning. Mr. Bundy also visited his sister, Mrs. S. C. Smith, residing about two miles south east of town, whom he had not formerly seen in 40 years--not since the morning he started to the civil war in April 1862.

Mr. Bundy was one of Van Zandt County's first settlers. He helped erect the first court house ever built in the county, an old log-structure at Canton which has long since been removed.

Nannie E. Yarbrough, daughter of Rev. Jonathan Luton, was born in Decatur County, Tenn., 10 Aug. 1855, converted in 1872; married Wm. E. Yarbrough, 7 Dec. 1876; died 9 July 1896. Sister Yarbrough was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence; had a strong mind, which had been well cultivated. She had been a great sufferer for eighteen years, but bore her affliction with marked patience and fortitude; died peacefully; left a husband, one girl and one boy. To her husband she said, "My only regret is that I did not do more for God and the Church. But Jesus is merciful. Help to train my children for the Lord." To her boy she said, "Do your duty. If you read your Bible and pray you will know what it is." To her girl, "Do all the spiritual good that you can, especially to your father; he will need your sympathy and help. The chief end of life is to be religious. Tell all my friends to meet me in heaven." May her prayers be answered in the ultimate salvation of her children and husband and we all meet her in heaven.--J. B. Gober, P.C.

The above was copied from an article cut out and pasted in a scrapbook which belonged to Nannie E. Yarbrough. In the scrapbook are poems written by Mrs. Yarbrough and selections found in newspapers and magazines which appealed to her. Nannie E. Yarbrough was the grandmother of Nannie Fleming.

The Miss May in the article AN OLD SETTLER was the mother of Nannie Fleming.

Senator Yarbrough suggests that "Edmund's father was William Yarbrough, a grandson of William Yarbrough of Amelia Co., Va. The Yarbroughs of N.C. prior to 1750 came to N.C. from Amelia Co., Va. The 1st Yarbrough in America (Richard Christian, Va., 1643) moved to Amelia shortly before his death in 1702. Two of his sons, John and Richard, Jr. raised large families in Amelia Co., Va., in the Nottaway River-Reedy Creek Area." Letter to DBH, 24 Jan. 1967.

I have hoped to do more research on this line and still hope to. DBH

Our Dead

W. R. FA. YARBROUGH was born in Charlotte, N. C., October 24, 1828; and died in the Confederate Soldiers' Home, near Nashville, June 21, 1907. When a young man Brother Yarbrough located at Montgomery, Ala.; and there remained until the opening of the War between the States, when he enlisted as a soldier in the service of the Confederacy. During the four years and more of that Titanic struggle he was faithful to his duty as he saw it, remaining in the ranks and enduring hardships and facing danger along with his comrades until honorably discharged at the close of the war. Returning to his home, in Montgomery, he engaged in business and prospered until failing health compelled him to seek a more favorable climate. About twenty years ago he moved to San Antonio, Texas and a few years later joined his only son, Mr. W. S. Yarbrough, in Nashville, Tenn., where he remained until his death. Before entering the army he was married to Miss Lydia Sweatt, a beautiful Christian woman, who was faithful to him through all the years of their pilgrimage together, caring for him as a child during the long illness that preceded his death. She still survives, making her home with their only son, Mr. Walter S. Yarbrough, of Nashville, Tenn. In his early manhood Brother Yarbrough was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in whose fellowship he lived until the end, serving for many years in various positions of official responsibility. He was an earnest and zealous Christian. It was the custom of his life to allow no opportunity to witness for his Lord to pass by unimproved. The writer was his pastor in three different Churches—an aggregate altogether of ten years—and can therefore bear personal testimony to the constancy of his devotion. During his three years' residence in the Confederate Soldiers' Home he used his utmost endeavor to induce his old comrades to give their hearts to the Master. His end was not only peaceful but triumphant. For months he looked forward with eager anticipation to the time when the Master should speak his welcome: "Well done." God still keeps his promises. "He that trusteth in the Lord, loving-kindness shall compass him about."

E. B. CHAPPELL.

and was found in Washington Parish by 1830. Gideon fought in the War of 1812, being discharged in Mar. 1815 at New Orleans. On 6 June 1833 Gideon, at age 73, applied in Orleans Parish, LA, for bounty land. He died between then and 18 Sept. 1856, for on that date his wife Nancy of Washington Parish, LA, aged 66 years, applied for bounty land under the Act of 14 May 1856, as the widow of Gideon Yarbrough for his service in the war. In her application we learn the date of their marriage and that her maiden name was Nancy Scarbrough.

Benjamin Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co., NC, in 1794 when he made entry for a land grant for 50 acres which he received in 1802. He received another grant for 230 acres in 1799. Both tracts of land lay on the waters of Richardson Creek. (Bk. 100, p. 407)

As mentioned before Benjamin Yarbrough was in Franklin Co., GA, with Jeptha and Gideon. He was found in Washington Co., GA, in the 1820 census, and in 1830 he was listed as between 70 and 80 in Telfair Co., GA. This means he was born before 1760, so he may be the son of Joshua I and a brother to Joshua II. Evidently Benjamin married a daughter of William Vinson before 1797, for in his will Vinson named Benjamin Yarbrough's three children, Vinson Yarbrough, Susannah Yarbrough, and Eliza Mary Yarbrough. The will was dated 26 Sept. 1797. On 3 Oct. 1797 Benjamin married Miss Hartgrave (first name not given) in Mecklenburg Co.

Edmond Yarbrough made entry for a land grant of 188 acres on Adder branch of Waxhaw Creek, Mecklenburg Co., NC, in Aug. 1789. He received it 22 Nov. 1792. (Grant 991, Book 14, p. 342) He received another grant 8 May 1823. (Grant 2352, Book 17, P. 349) He moved to Perry Co., TN, before 1830. Later he was found in Decatur Co. which was made from Perry Co. His known children were: Aquila, Henry, James, William, Nancy, Joseph, and John H. Yarbrough. Wife was Sophia Goswick.

William Yarbrough witnessed two deeds for Joshua II--one when Joshua sold land to Reuben Yarbrough, and then when he sold land to Thomas Vincent. According to a descendant, the late Ida Walling, William was born about 1766 and married Rachael Shelby 1793, Mecklenburg Co. (No record found in the courthouse) and moved first to White Co., TN, and then to Hardeman Co., TN. Their known children: Sarah, Benjamin, Hampton, Jeptha, William, George, Hulda, John, Susanna, and Reuben.

Joshua III was found in the 1797 and 1798 Mecklenburg Co. Tax List. On 5 Dec. 1799 he purchased 200 acres of land "lying at the head of Joshua Yarbrough, Seniors, Spring Branch and Meeting House Spring Branch which includes the plantation on which said Gedion Yarbrough now lives." In the 1800 census Joshua, Jr. is listed as between 16 and 26, and his wife is in the same age group. Their son is under 10 years of age.

Joshua III left Mecklenburg Co., NC, and is found buying land in Chester Co., SC, in 1811. A deed dated Feb. 1812 proves his wife's name was Elizabeth. In 1824 Joshua sold the remainder of his land to his son Uriah and moved to Georgia. On 25 Jan. 1825 he bought land in Fayette Co., GA. Jepthah Yarbrough, J.P., was one of the witnesses. We know this is the same Joshua for it says Joshua Yarbrough of Chester Co., SC. (Fayette Co., GA, Deed Book A, page 316).

Please let me hear from you

Dear Cousin Charlie,

We enjoy the NYC very much, enclosed you will find our check for the dues.

Here's some information that I hope will be of some help, or at least some you will enjoy reading.

Benjamin Franklin (know to many as Frank) Yarbrough the son of John H. and Martha Mancill Yarbrough. Frank married acousin Ann Mineroa Yarbrough Bowdoin Yarbrough in Smith Co., TX both are buried at Harris Chapel Cem.

We met a Granddaughter, Sara Grace Yarbrough Kennedy Harrmann, of Gilmer, TX. We were attening John Roy Yarbrough funeral. Roy was a cousin, I'm not sure what cousin he was to me. But I will say he was one of the nicest cousins, I have ever had. Only wish I could have met him sooner.

Back to Sara Grace, now, we were talking she said this¹⁵ where my grandfather is buried, Benjamin Franklin Yarbrough. Gordon Fisher walks up, "Yes, he was a brother to Ma, (Aunt Mary ~~his~~ Fisher) and Your Grandmother, my Aunt Susie." I was so delight ed to find him, for Edwin had told me he thought there was another brother, name Frank.

Then Gordon Fisher doesn't know anything about his Grandfather, Andrew B. Yarbrough, his mother's, Dora Yarbrough Fisher, father. Hewas a brother to Frank, Mary, and Susie (Margarette Susannah Yarbrough Johnson). too. All they know is this info. They got from Buckner's Orphan Home, Dallas, TX. I have enclosed a copy of that too.

Andrew B. Yarbrough Married Mary A. Welch where? could be Decatur Co., or maybe Madison Co., Tenn, or Mohouse Parnish, La.

Must clogcand do some reading for now.

Always,

Nell

Dear Charlie,

Here is the chart that I had not finished when I sent you the information on Benjamin Franklin (Frank) Yarbrough. One day I hope you make a ^{chart} so we can see what cousin you are to us.

If you should run across any information on Andrew ^{B.} and Mary A. Welch Yarbrough I would appreciate it. They may have married ca. 1875 in Decatur Co., TN. Think I have one more child to find of John H. Yarbrough and I will have his 14 children names. There's still lots of unanswered questions.

Had you noticed that the Yarbroughs, Yarbros, and Yarboroughs kept in touch with each other. It amazes me, and the families kept the letters. Wonderful Family, The Yarbroughs.

Your Truly,

Nell

Dear Sue -

January 14, 1998

Can you ever forgive me for being so late. I'm not unappreciative of all the work you have done, by all means, just the opposite. I don't know where the last year has gone, but it has gone.

I read very slowly, due to an eye problem and not illiteracy (thank goodness, I guess), so it has taken me awhile to get through your wonderful family history. Another delay has been to the purchasing of a second home in Lockport, 2 years. This took place in August of last year so we had lived up and down the road until November and then it was Christmas so the year is gone.

I hope the information I am sending you will make up, partly, for my tardiness.

I am returning the picture of the William C. Garbrough as I have no idea who they are. The only clue I could give you is, because of the strong resemblance to them as I remember seeing them as a child, the couple standing in the back may be Cecil and May Garbrough.

I am also sending a picture of Benjamin Franklin Garbrough and family. These were his children, born to the union of Benjamin Franklin Yarbrough and Anna

Virginia Yarbrough. They were Robert Franklin Yarbrough, Elmer Yarbrough (had 1 son - still born), Ernest Yarbrough (Wife Bess, born still born, 5 girls - Glenna Ann, Phyllis, Bess
Emily and Cora Ruth), Laura Ella (husband Virgil

MY DEAR SISTERS,

I SEAT MYSELF TO WRITE YOU A FEW LINES FOR THE FIRST TIME IN FIVE YEARS. I HAVE SEEN A HARD TIME DURING THAT TIME. I HARDLY KNOW HOW TO INTRODUCE MYSELF TO YOU. IT ALMOST SEEMS LIKE WRITING TO STRANGERS. THE FIRST IS I CAME THROUGH THE WAR SAFE AND SOUND. I SERVED IN THE REBEL ARMY THREE YEARS.

DURING THE TIME I WAS CAPTAIN OF A COMPANY OF CALVARY. I HAVE HEARD FROM YOU SINCE THE SURRENDER AND SAD TO ME TO KNOW THAT BROTHER THOMAS DIED SO FAR FROM HOME. I LEARN THIS FROM JIM. HE SAYS THAT HE LIVED WITH YOU LAST

YEAR _____ I _____ THAT HE _____. I WAS GLAD TO HEAR THAT YOU WERE DOING SO WELL. I HOPE YOU WILL CONTINUE TO DO. I AM WELL AND THE FAMILY ARE DOING AS WELL AS HEART COULD WISH SO FAR AS THIS WORLD CAN

Dear Mrs. Gray,

While in the Charlotte, NC library Saturday I chanced to get in touch with Mr. R. P. Yarbrough who stated you were searching for SC Yarbrough connections for a Joshua or a Reuben. I don't think I can help but share the following from what I have searched out.

Edwin T. Yarbrough b. 1931 in SC

Cuyler E. Yarbrough b. 1904 in SC

John Murray Yarbrough b. 1858 in SC: d. 1936

Thomas L. Yarbrough b. 1832(about) in SC d. 1865 in Elmira Yankee Prison

John H. Yarbrough b. 1805(about) in NC d. 1865 in Tenn.

John H, spelled his name Yarbrough in the 1830 Mecklenburg County, NC census. I have enclosed a copy of the names of his 11 children from the Darlington County 1850 census and also include a copy of the obituary of W. R. A. Yarbrough who was the oldest son. I also enclose a copy (sorry it is so poor) of a letter I recently acquired which was written in May, 1866 by Joseph T. Yarbrough from DEcatur County, Tenn. to my Great-Grandmother and Great-Great Aunt Nancy. The letter from Joseph is hard to read but the main facts helpful to me are:

1. Jim had told Joseph of the death of my Great Grandfather Thomas far away from home.
2. James and Elizabeth are in Alabama, also Hester.
3. PA moved to Tenn in November, 1865 and died 2 weeks later(Dec. 6, 1865).
4. Write to him at Yarbrough's Landing on the Tennessee River in DEcatur County.

Also my grandparents kept in touch with a Mary Fisher who lived in Mineola, Texas and was the Mary who was 5 years old in 1850. Mary had a sister somewhere in Texas who married a Walker. Family history has it that John H. left SC and went to Texas, leaving several of the older children behind.

We have a reunion each November of the descendents of Thomas Yarbrough and I am putting together facts for it. If this should be helpful to you, great! If you should have any information that could help me,,I would be grateful to receive it.

Sincerely,

Ed Yarbrough

Dear Mr. Yarbro,

Sivian Yarbrough sent me a copy of your letter and the material you sent on the Yarbrough family. I had most of it. Some of it from the Jenkins quarters and some from family sheets I copied at the Mormon library in Salt Lake City. I had only one day in the city to do research so didn't "scratch the surface" but I did find a partial genealogy which helped me connect my "Davin" line to the immigrant and had my great grandmother Nowlin's line complete even way back in Ireland.

I, like you, am stuck on my Yarbrough line. I was ~~was~~ glad to get in touch with a descendant of Edmond. I have researched him some thinking he might fit into my line because he was in Mecklenburg County, N.C. with my great great grandfather Reuben Yarbrough (sometimes spelled Yarbro and Yarbro^h 740-1860, Yarbrown and several other ways in

I was in Charlotte, N.C. earlier this summer and searched the land, marriage & probate records - the county court records for that period had been sent to Raleigh and I didn't get to go to Raleigh. (I was visiting my daughter in Charlotte, Georgia and we went up & spent a day and night.
I found land records for Reuben, Edmund, John,
Agatha, Joshua, Abner, Joseph & a number of others.
I never found any connection between Reuben & Edmund, Joshua, Benjamin, Abner, Joseph ^{Abner} all thought had from Joshua. He whom I have reason to believe is Reuben's father but no proof.
Reuben left Middlebury Co. before Edmund according to land records. Reuben was in the 1800 & 1810 Middlebury Census but was in Norway Co. then in 1820, Bedford Co in 1830 & Marshall Co. in 1850. But as you know he could have been in all three Counties without moving.

I have some additional information on the Edmond Spaulding line which I will enclose.

Edmond Spaulding's line which I will enclose will show you some clear matter. If you have any information on Reuben Spaulding I would appreciate your sending it to me. If it is any trouble to copy it just give me an idea as to what it is just as I might already have it.
Get me news from your Mother & Mary
Madeline & Mary

P.S. Do you have any information on Sampson
Zackrough who was in the 1850 Decatur Co.
Census along with some of Edmonds Children
He was listed as 56 born in N.C., wife Rebecca + Children Michael, John, Solomon + Sarah R.

I find him listed with my Reuben Zackrough and Joel (known son of Reuben) in the 1830 Bedford Co. Census and in 1840 he is listed in the Marshall County Census along with Reuben, George
Joel + Doctor H. The last 3 are ~~known~~ ^{known} sons of Reuben.
In 1841 he is on the Marshall Co. Tax papers listed in Dist 11 along with Reuben Zackrough.

Deeds have land records for Sampson in Bedford
Co. Tenn which is witnessed by Reuben and in one it mentions the land he is buying lies next to the land
one which Reuben Zackrough lives.

The fact that he must be another son of Reuben and that he later joined Edmonds family in Decatur Co. leads me to believe they are closely related and the fact that they all were from Mecklenburg Co seems to prove it further.

Our Dead

W. R. A. YARBROUGH was born in Charlotte, N. C., October 24, 1828; and died in the Confederate Soldiers' Home, near Nashville, June 21, 1907. When a young man Brother Yarbrough located at Montgomery, Ala.; and there remained until the opening of the War between the States, when he enlisted as a soldier in the service of the Confederacy. During the four years and more of that Titanic struggle he was faithful to his duty as he saw it, remaining in the ranks and enduring hardships and facing danger along with his comrades until honorably discharged at the close of the war. Returning to his home, in Montgomery, he engaged in business and prospered until failing health compelled him to seek a more favorable climate. About twenty years ago he moved to San Antonio, Tex.; and a few years later joined his only son, Mr. W. S. Yarbrough, in Nashville, Tenn., where he remained until his death. Before entering the army he was married to Miss Lydia Sweatt, a beautiful Christian woman, who was faithful to him through all the years of their pilgrimage together, caring for him as a child during the long illness that preceded his death. She still survives, making her home with their only son, Mr. Walter S. Yarbrough, of Nashville, Tenn. In his early manhood Brother Yarbrough was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in whose fellowship he lived until the end, serving for many years in various positions of official responsibility. He was an earnest and zealous Christian. It was the custom of his life to allow no opportunity to witness for his Lord to pass by unimproved. The writer was his pastor in three different Churches—an aggregate altogether of ten years—and can therefore bear personal testimony to the constancy of his devotion. During his three years' residence in the Confederate Soldiers' Home he used his utmost endeavor to induce his old comrades to give their hearts to the Master. His end was not only peaceful but triumphant. For months he looked forward with eager anticipation to the time when the Master should speak his welcome: "Well done." God still keeps his promises. "He that trusteth in the Lord, loving-kindness shall compass him about."

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
