Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rapscallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid[1], "The dreams they had were good ones. They didn't all come true, but they were worth having, all the same."

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill's son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrant from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

During Christmas, while putting the finishing touches on the December issue, I became convinced that I had finally found the key which would unlock the long closed door of my own Yarborough ancestory. Shortly I was on my way to the North Carolina State Archives, where I arrived on December 27th and spent two days of concentrated research. I must now admit that I am still just as baffled as ever, but while there I did come across some interesting records which I will be publishing in future issues.

The focal point of my research was the Halifax/Warren County Yarboroughs. I am particularily interested in Richard Y., who is found in the Halifax Co. 1786, 1790, 1800 and 1810 censuses. To my surprise, I could find no record whatsoever of his ownership of any real property in Halifax Co., although he was listed as a white poll on various tax lists. Nor did I find any probate records on him. The only record I came up with was apparently a mortgage, although written like a bill of sale, which transferred title to several items of household property to Mary Williams in 1786 (YFM 3/28). One of the witnesses to this transaction was James Yarborough, who I cannot place at this time. Apparently this Richard Y. was a sharecropper or tenant farmer or lived on someone else's property for some reason or another. It could be, on the other hand, that he owned land across the state line in Brunswick Co., Va. or over the county line, in either Northhampton, Warren, Nash or Edgecomb Counties, N.C., but actually resided on rented property in Halifax Co. So far I have not come across any other record of him in in any other county, but I am still looking.

There was a James Yarborough in Brunswick Co., Va. in the late 1700's, and I will publish his will in a later issue, and I wouldn't be surprised if there is some connection with the Richard Y. in Halifax Co.

More research is definitely needed on this Richard Y. of Halifax Co. Needless to say, I have found no information at all on any of his family or heirs. The only thing I have is the census records and the bill of sale to Mary Williams. If any of you has anything at all on this character, please send it to me. I am deeply interested in him.

Revisions

From time to time you may receive, without further explanation, extra pages, which will be similar in appearance

Wyatt (Tennessee Federal Census of 1850, household #17). As we know, many Yarborough families in North Carolina and Tennessee during this period had Williams, Samuels and Jameses, but probably there was just one family using Meredith, the name being unique. Therefore, I think that it is safe to conclude that the Meridith who turned up in Stewart Co. is a descendant of John Y. of Wake Co. So we can see that we have Yarboroughs in Montgomery and Stewart Counties from Halifax Co., N.C. (George, Moses, James & William); from Wake Co., N.C. (Meridith); and from Anson Co., N.C. (Joel & Davis). This brings us down to Richard, William, Samuel & James of Stewart Co.

Anson Co. had a Richard Y., who was deeded and deeded property there from 1757 to 1786 (YFM 3/12 & 13), and is associated in the Anson Co. deed records with Joel, Humphrey & William, who were apparently, as I will show later, members of the Ambrose Y. clan.

Halifax Co. had a Richard Y., who was listed in its 1790 federal census (YFM 3/6).

A Richard Y. is first found in Stewart Co. records in 1808 (YFM 2/91). No Richard is listed the Anson Co. Federal Census of 1800, although his contemporaries, Humphrey, Jonathan and Davis are listed, which indicates that the Richard of Anson Co. had passed on to his reward before that year. Assuming that Richard of Anson Co. was at least 21 years old when he first deeded property in 1757, then he would have been at least 50 years old as of 1786 (the year of his last recorded Anson Co. transaction), and if he was the Richard Y. who appears in the Stewart Co. records of 1808, he would have been at least 72 years old at that time. This leads me to believe that Richard Y. in Anson Co. and Richard Y. in Stewart Co. are different persons.

The Richard Y. in Halifax Co. is listed in the 1786 state census as being 21-60; is listed in the 1790 federal census as being over 16; is listed in the 1800 federal census as being 45 up; and is finally listed in the 1810 state census as being 45 up. If he was residing in Halifax Co. in 1808, would he have been involved in a lawsuit over a still in Stewart Co., Tennessee (YFM 2/91)? Perhaps. I suppose that we should try to get some additional details on this lawsuit. Maybe the court records give his residence. I might add that I did not find any Stewart Co. tax enumerations or land deed records on Richard in Stewart Co., which may be an indication that he did not actually live there.

Another interesting note: in the 1800 federal census of Halifax Co. we find a James Y., George's widow, Elizabeth, a William, Daniel, and John, Sr., along with Richard, while in the adjoining county, Warren Co., 3 Williams and a Jesse are listed.

In the next issue I will discuss the 3 1800 Warren Co. William Yarboroughs, and will identify each of the 4 1790 North Carolina federal census Williams and the 2 1790 South Carolina federal census Williams.

Sincerely,

Charles D. Yarborough

Heritage Schedules, 6816 Lois Drive, Springfield, VA 22150

escheated, he, himself, narrowly escaping imprisionment, and only by the intercession of Gov. Wm. Moultrie of South Carolina, was allowed his liberty.

He removed to the "High Hills of Santee," building there a home, which is known as "Rougemont", and there lived out his life. He married a Miss Heron, daughter of a British Naval Captain. The couple had no children, but adopted the daughter of Mrs. Hooper's sister. This daughter married a Dr. Anderson of Baltimore, Md., and became the mother of Lt. Gen. Richard Heron Anderson of the Confederate States Army.

The decade — 1850-1860 — saw the high tide of prosperity in North Carolina and the South. Though the last years of the 60's were filled with the machinations of the abolitionists, culminating in old John Brown's raid. There was also the underground railway between Kentucky and Ohio, the Kansas War, when Henry Ward Beecher, a brother of old Harriet Beecher Stowe of Uncle Tom's Cabin notoriety, sent John Brown arms in boxes marked "Bibles", and other troubles of a National Character, but in the main it was a period of gentility and prosperity.

The young men were brave and chivalrous; the old men and women were respected and revered, their counsel being sought after and followed. Womankind was ever on a pedestal; "every lass was a queen" — it was in truth a land where we lay dreaming!

Though somewhat out of regular sequence, the following letter may here be quoted:

Letter from E. S. Yarborough, Durham, North Carolina: A Fragment

pos[illegible] a certain time.) This soldier returned to Troop Headquarters Aug[illegible], 1847 and was returned to duty without trial. From Nov. 1847 to June 30, 1848, he was present for duty. Present at Dragoon Camp, Paint Rock and Grand Prairie. On July 17, 1848 was enroute to N. M. Re-enlisted at Donna Anna, N. M., Dec. 19, 1849. His Regiment saw no action in the Mexican War nor did it ever enter that country.

Richard was born in 1818 in Halifax Co., N. C. and in 1887 applied for a pension, which application was rejected. He was then in destitute circumstances and as his years increased became more and more disabled until some years before his death he was forced to enter the Halifax County Home for the Destitute. He was indeed a "Poor Richard."

THE NORTH CAROLINA YARBROUGHS ANSWER THE CALL OF STATES' RIGHTS

Ah, then the long hushed trumpets blew a war-like note! He who lies yonder — whose name is writ here, with countless thousands of his brothers from zone of pine and belt of palm, from hill and dale down to the sea, slung from his shoulder the sword of his fathers, knelt at the feet of her who gave him birth, received from him whose name he bore the accolade of the South, and marched forth the very flower of Southern Knighthood and Heir of all the Ages!

Because of a few comments regarding the small type size in Vol. 2, Nos. 5 and 6, I had the type increased to this size beginning with Vol. 3, No. 1. This is just about as big as I can use and leave a left margin adequate for binding. If this is still too small for comfortable reading, let me know, and I can try different spacing between the lines (as on pages 95 and 96, Vol. 2). However, if I use the wider spacing it will reduce the amount of material I can print by about one-third (40 lines per page, as opposed to 60 lines per page), meaning that it will take a third more pages to publish the same volume of material now being published.

When I went back into publication with Vol. 2, No. 5, I decided to omit a cover and publisher's page and use single spacing to be able to print and mail more materials on less paper, to offset increased printing and mailing costs which had occurred during the eleven year lapse. I know that the type is small, but it's no smaller than that of the average newspaper or the type in most Bibles, so I thought that it would be acceptable. However, if a substantial number of you want a change, I'll certainly make it.

NORTH CAROLINA YARBOROUGH WILLS

You may have noticed that in the last several issues only North Carolina wills have been given. I still have several N.C. wills in my file, and intend to use all of them (one per issue) before giving wills from other states. This will aid in the discussion of our elusive North Carolina and Tennessee ancestors.

WESTERN TENNESSEE AND NORTH CAROLINA YARBOROUGHS

In the last number I was discussing north-central North Carolina families (Orange, Caswell, Person, Granville, Warren, and Franklin Cos.). Wake Co. is in the same general area of the state. Notice that the 1785 Wake Co. will of John Y. (YFM 3/7) names son "Merady" (a phonetic spelling of Meredith), and that Meredith appears in the 1790 Wake Co. federal census (YFM 3/5). Of further interest is the appearance in Stewart Co., Tenn. of a 47 year old Meridith Y., born in N.C., in the household of Thomas

Due to mutilation of last pages of records the remaining part of the Stewart County Minute Book will be concluded with this issue. We are omitting the Docket List of Cases for the years 1806-1807 as the cases have been covered and would be repetitious. I sincerely hope many have been benefited by the context of this long lost Minute Book of Stewart County and the missing link of an ancestor brought to light.

land by Robert Stothart on August 2, 1812, witnesses, Nathan Yarbrough, Henry Gibson and Wm Travis (Book 4, p. 407). And Samuel was called for jury duty and became constable in 1817 or 1818 (1817-18 Minute Book, pp. ___ and 195). Samuel received deeds from the State of Tennessee thru assignees, recorded August 3, 1818 (Book 3, pp. 329 and 330), and in the probate records of Stewart Co. we find that he died without a will in about 1832, with Nathan Yarborough serving as the administrator of his estate (Circuit Ct. Book C, p. 189), with Francis, Samuel, Amon and Asa his children (Circuit Ct. Book C, pp. 162-64), and John Ferril their guardian with Joel Jones and William Webster as sureties.

Children of Samuel Jr.

Other Yarboroughs in the early records of Stewart Co. are Richard, Joel, Davis, William, Nathan, John, Edward and Humphrey. Joel Yarbrough thought to be father to Davis Y.

Richard Yarborough was involved in a lawsuit appeal against J.H. Russell in October, 1808 (1808 Minute Book, p. 276). Incidentally, from these early records I learned that court cases were continually postponed, just like on court dockets of today. Richard Yarbrough sued Thomas White in February, 1810 (1810 Minute Book, p. ___), and in August, 1810 Richard sold his still to Thomas White, witnesses Samuel Yarborough and Philip Hornberger (Deed Book 3, p. 293). I could not tell from the court records if the lawsuit and sale of the still were connected or not.

According to the 1804-07 Minute Book, on March 11, 1806 Joel Yarbrough was present at a meeting of the county court (p. dated); on June 9, 1806 a grand jury was appointed and Joel Yarborough served as its foreman (p. dated); on December 9, 1806 it was ordered that he, along with Caleb Williams, Daniel Young, Edward Williams and Alexander Trousdale, lay a road from North Cross Creek to the county line (p. dated); on January 4, 1807 he was ordered to serve as a grand and petit juror along with Davis Y. (p. dated); and in July, 1807 he again had jury duty (p. dated).

In 1808 Joel, Davis and George Yarborough made purchases from the estate of Lewis Elliott thru executor Philip Hornberger (1807-08 Minute Book, pp. 61-62). Ruben Elliot/ Frances Yarbrough

The names of Davis and David Yarborough appear numerous times. I am unable to determine whether these names were used interchangeably by the person transcribing the records or if two people were involved. From studying Stewart Co. census records I believe that there was just one person, "Davis," and that his name was frequently mis-transcribed or mis-copied (and has been mis-copied by researchers in recent years). References in this writing are given based on that assumption, and are all shown as "Davis," even tho the reference may have read "David."

Davis Yarborough was named as a juror on December 11, 1804 (1804-07 Minute Book, p. 12), and again on March 12, 1805 (p. 19), and again on June 12, 1805 (p. 29), served on the grand jury on September 9, 1805 (P. 31), and on petit juries again on September 9, 1805 (p. 34) and December 10, 1805 (p. 45). On March 11, 1806 Davis and Joel were present at a county court meeting mentioned above, and Davis was present at another county court meeting in July, 1807 (p. dated).

LETTER: LET'S GET DAVIS YARBROUGH A RWS MARKER

Mr. Charles H. Yarbro
Reelfoot Lake
Route 1, Box 158-A
Tiptonville, TN 38079

1816 East 85th Street
Kansas City, MO 64132
May 3, 1990

Dear Charles:

Since proving from scratch Davis Yarbrough for the Daughters of the American Revolution in February 1982 after years of research, I have lost count of cousins and distant cousins who have benefited from that research. I keep a complete record with all the data proof ready to xerox at the drop of the hat. I do not know how many Davis Yarbrough descendants know that they are eligible for the DAR through his wife Molly Morris. Her father and mother were William Morris and Pherabee Gurley. William Morris served in the North Carloina Continental Line from Anson County, NC.

My ancestor, Nathan Yarbrough, Davis' son served in the War of 1812-1814 in Col. Richard C. Napier's Reg't., West Tennessee Militia Infantry from Dover, Stewart Co. TN. Nathan's tombstone in Givens Cemetery, Indian Mound, TN shows dates - born 28 Nov 1790 died 18 May 1870. His wife Mary Carter for some reason is buried at Big Rock, TN. Her dates are b. 12-20-1795 and d. 5-10-1879.

Davis Yarbrough died in Hickman County, Kentucky, 04 Sep 1845. He went there apparently after Molly had died as she isn't mentioned in his will. I assume he is buried in Hickman Co. KY. If there are any Tennessee or Kentucky Yarbroughs out there who can do any research in Hickman County and can find some proof of his burial there, I would like to start an effort for the Daughters of the American Revolution to place a Revolutionary War Soldier marker on his grave.

Enclosed is a check to help keep the Yarbrough Society solvent. I would love to attend the Yarbrough Conference, but it is impossible.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Paul F. Morse

PS: I have not determined who were Davis Yarbrough's parents.. I have a feeling his mother was a Davis, possibly a daughter of Samuel Davis, of Anson County. They lived close, signed various papers, and Davis named a son Samuel. Hence, Davis Yarbrough, too.

LETTER: LET'S GET DAVIS YARBROUGH A RWS MARKER

Mr. Charles H. Yarbro
Reelfoot Lake
Route 1, Box 158-A
Tiptonville, TN 38079

1816 East 85th Street
Kansas City, MO 64132
May 3, 1990

Dear Charles:

Since proving from scratch Davis Yarbrough for the Daughters of the American Revolution in February 1982 after years of research, I have lost count of cousins and distant cousins who have benefited from that research. I keep a complete record with all the data proof ready to xerox at the drop of the hat. I do not know how many Davis Yarbrough descendants know that they are eligible for the DAR through his wife Molly Morris. Her father and mother were William Morris and Pherabee Curley. William Morris served in the North Carloina Continental Line from Anson County, NC.

My ancestor, Nathan Yarbrough, Davis' son served in the War of 1812-1814 in Col. Richard C. Napier's Reg't., West Tennessee Militia Infantry from Dover, Stewart Co. TN. Nathan's tombstone in Givens Cemetery, Indian Mound, TN shows dates - born 28 Nov 1790 died 18 May 1870. His wife Mary Carter for some reason is buried at Big Rock, TN. Her dates are b. 12-20-1795 and d. 5-10-1879.

Davis Yarbrough died in Hickman County, Kentucky, 04 Sep 1845. He went there apparently after Molly had died as she isn't mentioned in his will. I assume he is buried in Hickman Co. KY. If there are any Tennessee or Kentucky Yarbroughs out there who can do any research in Hickman County and can find some proof of his burial there, I would like to start an effort for the Daughters of the American Revolution to place a Revolutionary War Soldier marker on his grave.

Enclosed is a check to help keep the Yarbrough Society solvent. I would love to attend the Yarbrough Conference, but it is impossible.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Paul F. Morse

PS: I have not determined who were Davis Yarbrough's parents.. I have a feeling his mother was a Davis, possibly a daughter of Samuel Davis, of Anson County. They lived close, signed various papers, and Davis named a son Samuel. Hence, Davis Yarbrough, too.

E.S.M.

Dear Sybella,

I appreciated your letter. I cannot help you much as I only started on the genealogy in August. Dr. Amon M. Yarbro was my 3rd grandfather. My maiden name was Smith. The 1st Presbyterian Church came to Lexington, Tennessee 1822 — My great grandfather George Rankin Smith married Penelope Elizabeth Yarbro. She was my grandfather (George Ernest Smith) mother. She died at 34 in childbirth — Her only sister Sapronia married a James Fryer — She died ca 1880 — Sapronia & James lost one child at 2 and the other was alive in 1880 — 12 yrs — I cannot find her —

Dr Amon M Yarbro & his brother Samuel H — are in the 1840 Census of Overton Co., TN also in the 1850 Census — They lived young and so did Samuel H — They are buried in Lexington, TN.

I do not have Samuel's father's Census documentation — I found the information about Samuel and Barbara in the Bill Barrett papers - I am counting on the Government Bureau keeping their letters. Samuel - the Records will be in Parkersburg, Virginia I think - That is a long way from here - I cannot find them in the Mormon church yet -

Charles Barney thought that Rachel, Jacob Jr. & his sons were the sons of Jacob Sr - from Greenbrier Co W. Va. (Then, Monroe, Summers County, WV on both) Cannot I haven't researched this - to help us upon this line - Samuel & Barbara were from Greenbrier Co - I have no idea - I just wondered what proof you have - So many had the same name - that it is really hard - I saw two Barbara in Charles Barney papers who were not Barbara and yet the two called Ward also -

I am sorry I can't help you more. I hope it comes a crawl a Christmas -

We are trying to help Mary & Phil, & to go to the [illegible] meeting at the Hilton. They [illegible]

Sincerely,
Nancy -

Dear Ophelia,

I really appreciate the information on Davis. Your Swanson had to be a Cousin or brother.

You may be right about Richard being Davis' father. I am sending the copy of Col. Saldens of the South because there was a Richard in Rowan Co in 1760. Now Davis said in his pension papers (Rev.) that he was born in Anson Co. in 1760 I am also enclosing the material on Rowan - since Rowan came out of Anson he might have said Anson because it had been Anson and became Rowan - Davis joined the Army in Gilford Co - I believe in 1772. I have searched and searched for him. I believe I'm been on the wrong track. I found that I usually am looking in the wrong place when I have such trouble.

Also the piece by Nelle Jenkins - There is nothing that I know of that shows or proves exactly where the Immigrant Richard left from in England. He must not have left from London - I have found too many records on other lineages of mine who left in the early 1600's from London. Also do you have the copy of the deed she referred to that says he stated in 1702, he was 87. I thought he was buried in 1702. She stated he died in 1704! Also have you considered that the Immigrant Edward might be our ancestor. He came, its in the records - Also Davis was Davis E. If you remember I found the bond in Nashville that says Davis E. Yarbrough - from Stewart Co. - I surely can figure out problems to worry about! I haven't had time to do much researching for awhile. Charlie was re-elected General Sessions Judge. We were so busy trying to help him from Feb till August. His wife is worse but she can still walk - as such! Bennie Yarbro won, also I found out a few months ago - I saw Judge England's niece at a DAR luncheon here. She is from Parsons, Tenn.

It was sad about Allen Yarbrough dying. I feel sorry for Helen. It must have been a terrible shock.

I did find the book Lewis, of Warner Hall here at the library. Through my great Grandmother Penelope Yarbro I have run into a lineage or heritage I can hardly believe - Penelope's mother was Amanda Jane Haley - Her mother was Emily Kennon Alston - She was a child of Elizabeth Kennon & John Alston - I have documented my Alston lineage - Also bought a book on the Alston & Allstons of North & South Carolina It takes me back to Alfred the Great.

Anyway Elizabeth Kennon's parents were Mary Howell Lewis and Charles Lewis Kennon. (1st cousins - My cousin & I think we have now found our problem - Mental that is!) The Lewis go back forever and the Warners married into the Lewis family. Augustine Warner came in the Early 1600's and is buried with his wife at Warner Hall in Gloucester Co, Va.

All this sounds like it isn't true or I think so; but it is. The Warner line goes back to Alfred the Great - and I am descended from John of Gaunt that Sen Yarbrough always talked about.

The reason so much information is available is that George Washington, Robert E Lee the present Queen Elizabeth & her mother are all descended from Augustine Warner I. & have so many new Grandmas & Grand pas I can't believe it. I never saw so much stuff. I read a joke not long ago. It said when Noah stepped off the Ark, he had a trunk in his arms that said "Lewis Papers." The Lewis family goes so far back I guess people get tired of hearing it. Look at - Lewis, Meriwether & Related families some time - Now I can join whatever as far as historical organizations and can you believe I am still struggling along on John Smith's lineage. I only have it to 1820. Such is life!

I am going to try to find more on the yarboroughs in Rowan Co if possible. I'll send you anything I find.

You are sweet to think of me and I appreciate it -

I want to mail this now. Know you've probably heard we're supposed to have a strong earthquake Monday. Everyone is in a panic and the News media has gone crazy, I believe -

Hope you are well -

Love

Nancy

Ps. We really hated to miss the meeting!

FROM A LETTER OF WILLIAM D. KIZZIAH, GENEALOGICAL RESEARCHER OF SALISBURY, NORTH CAROLINA, DATED OCTOBER 24, 1957

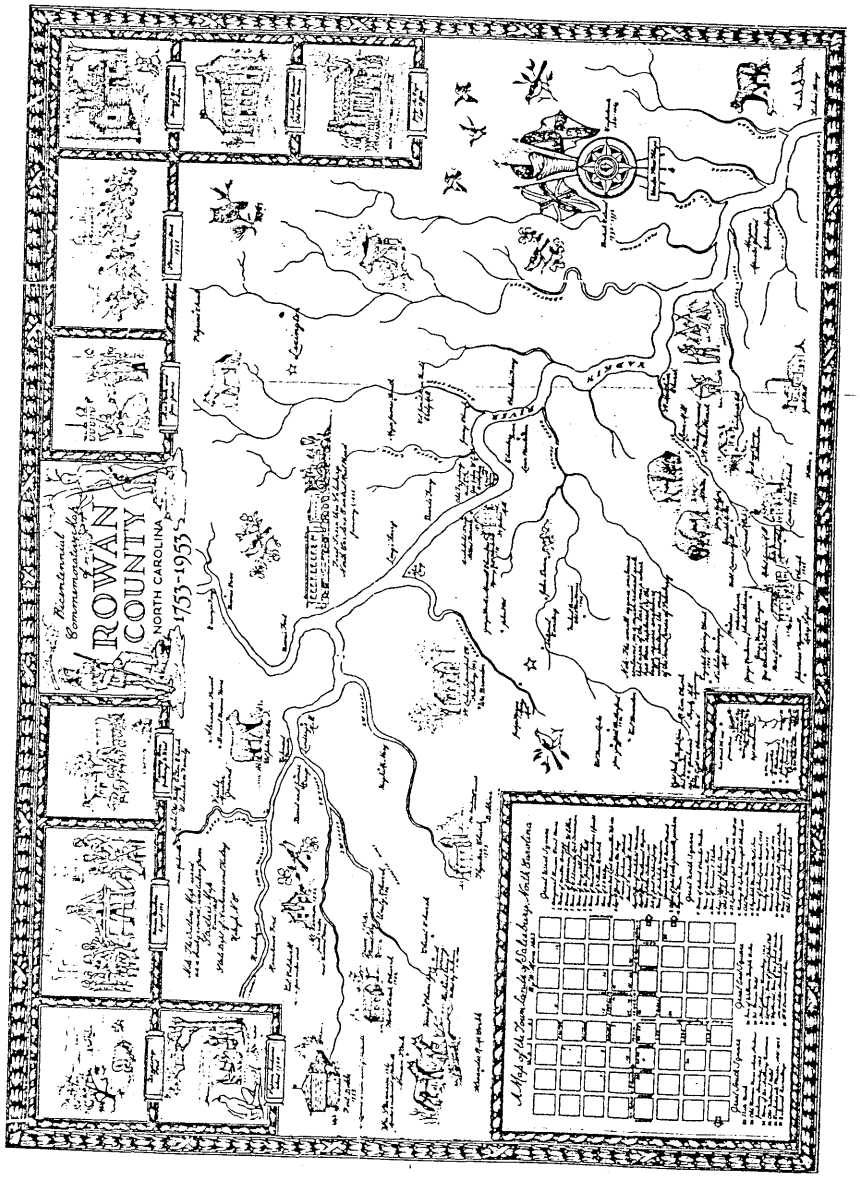
"The Yarbroughs were very prominent here, having large land holdings in the county as well as here in Salisbury where as you mention, President Washington stopped. The site of his old home is marked on a HISTORICAL MAP OF ROWAN COUNTY that I helped to design for our Bicentennial of 1953, as well as many other historic names and places."

FROM A LETTER OF MRS. NELLE JENKINS, OF ECELLE, ALABAMA, MAY 2, 1957

"---Mr. Wagner, the Herald of the College of Arms in England, is getting up the authentic line. Mrs. Reeves corresponded with Captain Guy Yarbrough, Lord Alvingham, Earl of Yorkshire, about the line. But C. W. Yarbrough met him and visited in his home and they together had Mr. Wagner work on the line. I have the Yarbrough genealogy back to 1066 as prepared for the Earl for seating of King George's Coronation and the same was used in Queen Elizabeth's Coronation. Mr. Wagner says that Richard Yarbrough the immigrant, married Frances Proctor in London in 1635 and applied for emigration in 1643. In a court proceeding in Virginia, Richard stated he was born in Lincolnshire, England. He lived in Big Reedy Creek area in Virginia from 1643 to 1649. He probably married several times - tradition says once to Elizabeth Williams. Richard was in the vicinity of the present day Petersburg, Virginia at the age of 85 and died there in 1704. He gave his age as 87 on a deed in 1702. It is known that he had sons Thomas, John, Henry, Richard, Jr., James, Charles and three daughters. In a court record in which Richard was a witness he stated that Thomas had children Edmund, Elizabeth, Nancy, John, Richard, Patsy, Abraham, Hezekiah, a child who died in infancy and Eleanor. We are descended from the first Henry, son of Richard. All this from G. W. Yarbrough who did a 20 year research on the line and for the American Genealogical Society and for which he was made a "Fellon".

The College of Arms can't furnish anything on Christopher Yarbrough but he is supposed to be a son of Richard, Sr. or he might have been a younger brother who came along as a member of Richard's family in 1643.

In King William County on 20 May 1704, John Yarbrough to William Aylett 22 A -- Deed acknowledged 12 Nov. 1691 -- Conveyed to Richard Yarbrough, father of John (this deed acknowledged 12 Feb. 1695) with Abigail, wife of John giving consent.



A bicentennial commemorative map of Rowan County was prepared by Mr. James Brawley in 1953.

ROWAN COUNTY: A BRIEF HISTORY

Moreover, Rowan County was made accessible by a network of two great thoroughfares, one running east and west and the other north and south. The Trading Path stretched from Fort Henry (Petersburg, Virginia) westward into Rowan County where it crossed the Yadkin at Trading Ford and continued on to the overhill Indian camps in South Carolina and Georgia. The other highway extended from Pennsylvania south through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia into Carolina as far as the Trading Path, which it joined just east of the Yadkin River. Where these roads crossed the river at Trading Ford, Indians had made their homes long before the white man penetrated this wilderness.

The photograph of Trading Ford depicts the exact place where the old Trading Path left the south bank of the Yadkin River passing by the eastern, or lower, end of the "Big Island" in the middle of the river channel. Photograph by William D. Kizziah.

On his expedition into Carolina in 1672, Dr. John Lederer encountered a tribe of Saura Indians camping there. John Lawson also spent several days there in 1702 with a tribe of Sapona Indians who befriended him. To the west of the ford were the Catawba Indians and farther toward the mountains lived the Cherokees. Artifacts found in and around the Yadkin River basin prove conclusively that even more ancient tribes inhabited that area before the discovery of the new world.

Except for traders and hunters few white men penetrated this vast Piedmont area before 1747. In that year a handful of intrepid adventurers entered this country. That they were few in number is indicated by the fact that the commissioners engaged in running the boundary line between the king's land and Earl Granville's proprietary discontinued their task in 1746 because the country was so thinly populated that they were unable to secure corn for their horses or provisions for themselves.

John Carteret, Baron Carteret of Hawnes (subsequently Earl Granville), owned one of the original eight shares of Carolina. When the crown canceled the Charter in 1729, Carteret declined to sell. Consequently, after much negotiation a new charter was prepared in 1744 which granted to Carteret an area equivalent to one eighth of the total original territory of Carolina. This area, known as the Granville proprietary, was laid out in a contiguous tract in North Carolina. The Granville proprietary included the tier of counties from the town of Bath northward to the Virginia boundary; its eastern boundary was the Atlantic Ocean and its western boundary was never fixed.

Rowan County comprised approximately the western half of the Granville proprietary with its unfixed western boundary. Though land was neither free nor particularly cheap in the proprietary, the availability of virgin land in a sparsely settled territory such as Rowan County attracted colonists from the older established settlements in the northern colonies. From New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, and Pennsylvania, settlers moved into the Rowan County area in increasing numbers after the land office of the Granville proprietary opened in 1745. One historian has identified at least 812 families living between the Yadkin and Catawba rivers by the end of 1751. These families were clustered in three different settlements--the Bryan settlement at Shallow Ford on Yadkin River, the Irish settlement near present-day China Grove, and the Davidson settlement at Center Church near present-day Mooresville.

The fact that the Scotch-Irish occupied the section of Rowan where the best soil is found is reason enough to assume they preceded the German migration by several years. Cecil clay, a type of soil derived from metamorphic and igneous rocks, is especially suitable for the production of small grain; this type of soil is abundant in the western region of the county where the Scotch-Irish settled. On the other hand, land in southeastern Rowan consists largely of Appling loam, a clayey soil which is less productive than Cecil clay. It is inconceivable that the Germans, renowned for their agricultural expertise, would have settled in the southeastern section had they been the first arrivals in the area. Although a few Germans were among the first settlers, the general Teutonic immigration did not begin until after 1752, whereas the Scotch-Irish began arriving in considerable numbers in 1747.

In 1752 the Moravians came into the Granville proprietary searching for a tract upon which to establish a permanent settlement. The following year Earl Granville conveyed almost 100,000 acres to the Moravians in the area around Muddy Creek in present-day Forsyth County. In 1755 a separate parish called Dobbs Parish was set off from St. Luke's Parish to conform to the Moravian tract.

Creation of Rowan County

On March 13, 1753, a petition bearing the signatures of 348 of the inhabitants of the upper and frontier portions of Anson County was read in the lower house of the colonial Assembly. The petitioners noted the great hardship they had to undergo in traveling the vast distance to the courthouse in Anson and requested that a new county be designated. On April 4 a bill was introduced for "erecting a County, and Parish, on the Head of Anson County." Both houses of the Assembly passed the bill and on April 12 the acting governor, Matthew Rowan, signed it into law, thus creating Rowan County and St. Luke's Parish.

The new county included the entire northwestern part of present North Carolina. The eastern boundary was a line running north and south along the eastern boundaries of the present counties of Randolph, Guilford, and Rockingham. The southern boundary line, beginning at the southeast corner of Randolph, ran due west along Earl Granville's line, on the south side of Randolph, Davidson, Rowan, and Iredell as they now exist, to the Catawba River a short distance above Beattie's Ford, thence due west to the farthest European settlements.

Rowan County remained the same in size for almost twenty years until 1770 when Guilford and Surry counties were cut off from Rowan. It was not until 1836 that Rowan was reduced to its present boundaries, so for eighty-seven years Rowan was the largest and most populous county in the province.

Shortly after Rowan was created justices were appointed by the crown, and they set in motion machinery for administering the county. One of the first justices was Squire Boone, father of Daniel Boone, the great wilderness pathfinder. Justices of the first court represented various sections of the county stretching from the Orange line and Dan River to the king's line and as far west as present Lincolnton.

The first Rowan County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions met in June, 1753, but the site

Dear Cynthia,

I appreciated your letter and after Mary talked to you, she brought me the doll. She was so cute and I was glad to get it.

Just keep the papers and Dan will look at them when I see him. I cannot find anything about him and at this time I have no real clues and to write his foster parents I have no idea that I may never find anymore on him because I was so long ago when he was born and the records all burned in Avon County. I went to Raleigh, N.C. on August and found nothing - so needless to say I am working on another line -

My son wants one of the dolls for his wife like mine. Raggedy Ann - Dan enclosing his check for $35. Send it to my address Mrs Nancy Ludington

Can you take any more orders before Christmas for Mary Kay Ann?

In your collection of papers on the yarboroughs has anyone come up with my grandfather's connection to England? I still wonder who Richard Yarborough (first one) belonged to.

My daughter-in law was in the hospital for six weeks but has been home three weeks. She was so seriously ill with M.S. that I was afraid she might not live. I am so thankful as she is so much better and can talk real plain and is walking with a walker.

Hope your family is well.

Sincerely

Nancy

Land Records

Military Warrants

In 1777 the western portion of Fincastle County, Virginia was set aside by the General Assembly of Virginia as Kentucky County. Later, in 1780, this territory was divided into three parts, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Fayette Counties, entered upon, surveyed, and granted under the Virginia land laws of 1779. These laws provided that every soldier, sailor or marine at the end of the war was entitled to a grant of unappropriated land. Of these grants, the following was one:[2]

Military Warrant No. 1730:
Warrantee: Charles Yarbrough, 8 September 1783 for three years as Lieutenant in the Virginia Line.
Area: 2,666-2/3 acres.

Grants

Following statehood in 1792, acting under its own soverign authority, Kentucky began the allocation of its lands in 1793. The grants given up to 1856 were recorded in one group of record books which have come to be known as the Old Kentucky Grants, an example of which follows:[3]

Old Kentucky Grant Book 10, p. 259:
Warrantee: Jno. Yarbrough
Location: Military Warrant, Survey of 25 December 1785.
Watercourse: None.
Area: 666-1/2 acres.

The most extensive group of Kentucky land records has become known as the County Court Orders. Under an act of the Kentucky General Assembly of 28 February 1835 each Kentucky county was given all the vacant and unappropriated land within its boundary lying east and north of the Tennessee River. MARRIAGE RECORDS of STEWART CO., TENN.

1865-1881

This is the third volume of marriages for Stewart County, Tenn. It covers books 3 & 4 of the originals. Anyone who has checked these records knows they are all mixed up in the first four books. It appears there were two and sometimes three books in use during 1865 and 1866. I did not attempt to line them in order, but merely copied as in the books. A complete index in available in the back of each printed volume. This book was copied from a photocopy of the priginals provided by teh then County Court Clerk, Eddie Earhart. Without this, they could not have been printed by me.

As these books were 100 years old, the writing is faded, blurred, and difficult to read. The style of handwriting leaves much to be desired. When checking the index, just use your imagination for any possible variations of names as I have listed them as best as I could as they appeared to me.

Information shown in this book is as follows:
Surname of groom, given name, marriage license date, surname of bride, and her given name. In the index, the names of brides appear on the number that are underlined.

As Stewart County is on the southern border of Ky., there is a chance that some of the Ky. residents who married there may also appear in the Vital Statistics of their resident county. This is usually for 1874 to 1878 and sometimes 1879. In the second volume, 1849 to 1866, this same applied to the period of 1852 to 1859 and sometimes 1861. This record would give much more info, such as, birthplace, age, number of marriage, etc.

As I often get inquiries on familes , let me say I am not at all familiar with Stewart county families. I have done very little research there. I was primarily interested in getting these marriages copied and indexed as many people of the Jackson Purchase may have married there.

Volume One contains marriages for 1838 to 1848. These are no longer in the Court House, but were copied from W.P.A. records. To my knowledge, there are no earlier marriage records for Stewart county. Apparently there was no state law requiring that they be kept, but in 1838 there was a fee attached to each marriage license, so records had to be kept. Some counties kept the records earlier and some did not.

DAVIS Y./YO.

b. ca 1760,Anson Co, NC, d 4 Sep 1845, Hickman Co., KY; His son Samuel b ___?___, d Stewart Co, TN ca 1819-20. Recent discovery of loose court records in Hickman Co KY lists all 8 children living & deceased in settling Estate of Davis Y. Need more information on Davis Y.'s wife and their parents. Also need any clues on Samuel Y.'s life. He married Penelope Luton and left her a young widow with 7 young children.
Faye Claiborne, 3864 Wyse Square, Lexington, KY 40510

b. 1760 Anson Co, NC, m. Molly Morris, d/o William Morris of Anson Co, NC, d 4 Sep 1845 Hickman Co, KY. Rev. Sol. All above proved and accepted by the DAR. My DAR No is 621480 - Y. Supplement. Was Davis Y.'s mother a d/o Samuel Davis of Anson Co NC? Was Davis Y. a s/o Joel Y. of Anson Co, NC?

b. 1760, d 4 Sep 1845, Hickman Co. KY, a widower; m. Molly Morris ca ___?___; both b. NC and came to Stewart Co, TN from Anson Co NC ca 1804-6. Davis YO. served in Rev. War in NC and drew a pension, File S 1606. Bur site of Davis Yo? (probably somewhere in Hickman Co, KY); need dates of b, m, date & place of bur of wife Molly who preceded Davis in death. A d/o Davis, Naomi Yo., married James Lowry (my g gf & gm). Need dates of b, d, and m for Naomi and James (both probably b in Anson Co, NC, to Stewart Co, TN ca 1804-6 and d there). Stewart Co census-1840 shows them to be 40-50 age group; 1850 census shows Naomi, age 55 & 2 daus living in household of her son Almon Lowry (my gf). James not listed & probably deceased.
George B. Lowry, 118 Keith drive, Clarksville, TN 27043.

I am happy to tell you that I have traced and have proof that my Dr. Amon Yarbro was the son of Samuel of Stewart Co, TN and that Samuel was the son of Davis Y. I have papers for Davis Y who fought in the Rev. War. Now my problem -- who were the parents of Davis? Amon's mother was Penelope Luton. After Samuel d in 1830, she married John Ferrell. I found cemetery records where she is bur with him.

Her gr grandmother Polly (Penelope) married John Ferrell after Samuels death. Mrs. Claiborne found their son, ASA, living in Hickman Co. Ky. at the time of Davis' death.

DAVIS YARBROUGH

Davis Yarbrough was born in 1760 in Randolph County, North Carolina. He lived there until the Revolutionary War began. He served as a private under General Greene and Colonel Samuel Lytle. He later was granted 640 acres in Stewart County, Tennessee and was awarded a pension of $26.66 per year for his services during the war.

After the war Davis moved to Anson County, North Carolina. There he owned a farm that adjoined other Yarbroughs' farms. He left Anson County in the early 1800's and arrived in Stewart County around 1802 or 1803.

Davis had seven children; Nathan, Seth, Sara Y. Jackson, Naomi Y. Lowry, Milly Y. Baker, Polly Y. Hornberger, Frances Y. Elliott.

Davis moved to Hickman County, Kentucky around 1840. He died there September 4, 1845 at the age of eighty-five. Nathan, Davis' oldest son remained in Stewart County. He served in both the Creek Indian War and the War of 1812. He and his wife, Mary Carter, born 12-20-1795, had eleven children. Some of their names were Silas, Edwin, Miles, Martha, and Nathan J. Nathan died May 7, 1870 and is buried in the Tippit-Rorie Cemetery in Stewart County. Mary died 5-10-1879 and is buried in Yarbrough Cemetery in Big Rock, Tennessee.

Edwin was born in 1829. He married Harriet Legate and they had three children. Their names were Louise, Edwin Jr. and Elbert Wilson. Edwin was a private in the 14th Infantry during the Civil War. He was killed during the Battle of Chicamauga.

Elbert Wilson, Edwin's youngest son, was born 2-1-1861. He married Mattie Whitehurst, born 2-21-1861, in 1887. They had four children; Ora, Mattie, Clarence, and Arnold. Elbert Wilson died 6-9-1924 and Mattie died on her birthday in 1941. They are both buried in the Cherry Cemetery in Big Rock, Tennessee.

Arnold was born in the year of 1888. He married Maranda Joiner, born 1887. They had five children; Frances Smith, Elmer, Arnold Jr., Hazel Dye, Wilton Yarbrough. Arnold was a farmer, he owned a farm on Dyers Creek about seven miles from Dover. One of Arnold's favorite pastimes was hunting. He was particularly fond of coon hunting. He loved animals, especially dogs. He died in 1960 after an extended illness following a stroke.

Maranda lived five years after Arnold died. During this time her youngest son, Wilton, and his family lived with her on the family farm. She died in 1964.

DAVIS YARBROUGH FAMILIES

Davis Yarbrough was born in Anson County, North Carolina about 1760. He served in the Revolutionary War under General Greene and Colonel Lytle, enlisting from Randolph County, North Carolina in 1782. For this service he received a grant of land in District #1 of Stewart County, Tennessee. He was living on Cross Creek by 1803. Davis and his son, Nathan, appear many times in various court records of the county. Two of the earliest marriages recorded in the county are of Davis' daughters, Fannie (Frances) to Reuben Elliot July 24, 1804 and Polly to William Hornberger November 12, 1804.

Davis Yarbrough was married to Molly Morris, daughter of William Morris of Virginia and Anson County, North Carolina. He, too, was a Revolutionary soldier. Besides Frances and Polly, Davis and Molly had at least eight other children. The final settlement of his Revolutionary War Pension papers lists Nathan, Naomi Lowry, Sarah Jackson, Nielly Baker and Seth as living heirs. Samuel Yarbrough, who lived in Stewart County and who died in 1819 leaving wife Polly (Luton) and minor children Sarah, Asa, Amon and possibly others, could be a son of Davis. Samuel lived near Davis and Nathan and court records show they frequently witnessed documents for each other. Nathan was Administrator of Samuel's estate. Davis Yarbrough died September 4, 1845 in Hickman County, Kentucky, where his son Seth lived and was Adminstrator of his estate.

Davis' son, Nathan Yarbrough, was born 28 November 1790 in Anson County, North Carolina, also the birth place of his wife, Mary Carter about 1796. Nathan died May 18, 1870 and is buried in the Old Yarbrough Graveyard (Givens Cemetery), south of Indian Mound, Tennessee. His wife, Mary Carter, died in 1878. He served in the War of 1812-14, going to Louisiana with Andrew Jackson. Nathan and Mary had eleven children. Nine of them were: Sarah (Sallie), 1821-1896 Lucinda, 1824, married J.M. Bowers; Silas, 1827; Edwin, 1829 married Harriet Legate, died in the Civil War; Miles, 1831 died after 1904. He served three years in the Confederate Army. His wife and daughter preceded him in death. Martha 1833, married William J. Hargrove; Nathan E., age 38, was living with his sister Mrs. Sarah Parker in 1880; Wesley Yarbrough, a school teacher never married and Elams, who married Lucy McGregor.

Silas Yarbrough, born 1827, was married June 5, 1858 to Julia E. Landrum in Stewart County. They were Baptists and Democrats. Three of their six children were Mary E., Julia I. and Massey Graves Yarbrough. Massey was born September 29, 1871 in Big Rock. He married Addie Eloise Parker, his first cousin, once removed and the daughter of Emmett Orville and Susan Emily (Reynolds) Parker. Massey was a merchant in Big Rock for a time, but after a fire, they went to Enid, Oklahoma and finally settled in Wichita, Kansas where he worked for the MK and T Railroad. Both Massey and Addie are buried in Wichita. Five of their seven children who reached maturity are: Wilbur Gordon, San Antonio, Texas; James Morton (named Morton Jennings at birth), Wichita and Denver, Colorado; Pauline Mae Sweet, Wichita; Sammie Pearl Peterson, Denver. These older children were born in Big Rock. Enid Katherine Bates was born in Enid, Oklahoma and grew up in Wichita. Malcolm Ward Yarbrough was born in Wichita and lives in Omaha, Nebraska.

Sarah (Sallie) Yarbrough, born August 18, 1821, daughter of Nathan and Mary (Carter) married Henderson Hulin Parker and had the following four children: James Darius, a bachelor; Octavo A. married Thomas Cross; Emma, died in infancy and Emmett Orville, Emma's twin. Emmett married Susan Emily (Emma) Reynolds, daughter of Thomas Mack and Durinda (Slayden) Reynolds. Emmett's eight children were Shannon Darius, Bertha Pearl, Addie Eloise, Wesley Kendall, Thomas Nathan, Bill Benton, and Carter Alvin. The genealogy of Sallie's son Emmett's family is given in detail in the history of the Parker family of Stewart County, Tennessee. Sallie Yarbrough Parker died March 8, 1896 and is buried in the Parker Graveyard, Big Rock. — Edith Simpson Morse

WILTON and ANNIE YARBROUGH

Wilton is the son of Arnold and Maranda Yarbrough. He was born 9-16-1924. He was the last child born to his parents. He has two brothers and two sisters. He is a direct descendant of Davis Yarbrough.

Wilton served in the Army during WWII. After the Army he farmed with his father. In 1950 he married Annie Mathis.

Annie is the daughter of Jimmy and Cynthia Mathis. She was born January 22, 1931. She was the second child in a family of seven children. She has one sister and five brothers. She was born and spent all of her childhood living in Potneck, where Blue Creek Boat Dock is now located. Annie attended Center Point Grade School and Dover High School three years. She graduated from W.T. Thomas High School after her family bought a farm and moved between Bear Spring and Carlisle.

Annie and Wilton moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1952. There they both worked at Chrysler Corporation. Annie quit before the birth of her first child.

Two children were born to this union; Cheryll Ann, born 11-7-1954, and Linda Louise, born 4-7-1958.

In 1961 Annie and Wilton Yarbrough moved back to Stewart County. They built a home in the Big Rock Community.

Both their daughters are married; Cheryll to Mike Ezell and Linda to John Patrick. They have one grandchild, Elton Chadwick Ezell.

There was also a daughter Lucinda –
1850 Census – Lucinda 26
1860 Census – Lucinda 33

Note: On 1860 Census –
Nathan aged only 8 years from 1850
Mary aged 13 years
Lucinda aged only 7 years –
Miles & Nathan seem to have aged 10 years.

Maybe it was something in the water? Tee hee

1790 Marriage date can't be right. His age on 1850 census is 59 = b. ca 1790-91.
Her age on census is 54 = b. ca 1793-94
Tombstone gives his birth as 28 Nov 1790
Hers gives her age at death in 1878 as 82 = b. ca 1796.
Sarah was b. 1821 – probably first child.
First child was usually born ca. 2 years after marriage (using average. Closer guess for marriage date is probably 1819-1820 Mary would have still been a very young bride – 15-16 years old.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

JASPER A. YARBROUGH.

"JASPER A. YARBROUGH, register of Marshall County [Tennessee], is a son of George and Nancy E. (Gibbons) Yarbrough. The father was born in North Carolina and the mother in Tennessee. They were married in Tennessee, and their family consisted of ten children. Jasper's maternal grandparents had twenty-six children and his paternal had fourteen. Both our subject's parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The father was a well-to-do farmer and had the honor of furnishing three brave boys for the war, one of whom was killed. The father lived to be about seventy-six and the mother about seventy-four. Our subject, who was born November 7, 1839, in Marshall County, is a man three feet and nine and a half inches in height. He was reared on the farm and received a practical education in the common schools. Having picked up the shoemaker's trade he worked at it for about eight years, besides teaching school. He was always a very handy workman and could make a suit of clothes, knit a pair of socks, or almost anything he turned his hand to. In 1874 he was elected register, and has held that position ever since with ability and to the satisfaction of the people. In 1881 he wedded Lizzie McKee. The fruits of this union were three children, two of whom are living. Mr. & Mrs. Yarbrough are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He has been a citizen of Marshall County for forty-six years. In politics he is a warm Democrat."[1]

FRANCIS M. YARBROUGH

"Francis M. Yarbrough was born in this county and State [Montgomery County, Tennessee] November 5, 1832. He is the fourth of ten children born to John and Mary (Vaughn) Yarbrough. His parents were natives of Virginia and Tennessee, and died in 1856 and 1857, respectively. Our subject was united in marriage to Miss C. Davis, [illegible] 1856. She was a native of Tennessee, born February 13, 1838. She is the youngest of fourteen children born to Joseph and Elizabeth (Martin) Davis, who were natives of this county and State. Mrs. Yarbrough died in 1882. To our subject and wife were born eight children: David L., Josiah, John R., William H., Bailey, Louisa, Milton M., and Ada. Bailey died in 1869. Josiah died in 1882. Mr. Yarbrough is of English descent, and was educated in the common schools of the county. He is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and a staunch Democrat. His boys manage the home farm, while he is principally engaged in working at his trade, blacksmithing and wagon-making. He is also a prominent contractor on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad."[2]

SILAS YARBROUGH

"Silas Yarbrough, a farmer of Stewart County [Tennessee], was born in this county, in 1827. He is one of eleven children born to the union of Nathan and Mary (Carter) Yarbrough. His parents were natives of North Carolina and about 1806 came to this county, and after marriage, spent their lives on the farm. The father was a soldier under Jackson on his campaign against the Creeks, of Georgia. Politically he was a Democrat and religiously a Missionary Baptist, as was also his wife. With long life they were especially blessed--he being seventy-seven when he died and she eighty-two. Silas' ancestors on both sides came from England. The immediate subject of this sketch grew up a farmer boy, received almost no schooling--not having attended more than eight months all told. After reaching manhood he picked up the carpenter's trade and worked thereat some fourteen years, being one of the first workmen of the county. In 1858 he married Julia Landrum, who bore him six children. Both he and his wife are zealous workers in the Missionary Baptist Church. Mr. Yarbrough is a stanch Democrat. He has met with good success, having started with nothing he has worked out a farm of 235 acres."[3]

Parker that he may take care of us as one or two of his family furnishing us with cloths, food, and medical attention as long as we may live and at our death he is to see that we are decently and respectably burried. Now should it so happen that unavoidable circumstances may be such that the said E. O. Parker his heirs or assigns cannot fulfill the foregoing as long as we may live, it is agreed that three disinterested parties as referees put a cash value at or on the above described tract of land and the same referees to accertain the time and expenses of the said E. O. Parker in keeping us to the time of (reporting) Should it be necessary to take such steps and whatever said refferees may find that we are indebted to the said E. O. Parker the amount is to be deducted from the amount that the land may be valued at, the ballance if any remains to be paid to us or our order. However it is understood that the referees are not to value the land at less than seven hundred $700 dollars. But be it understood that we do not want to construe the idea that we have any fears of bad treatment or inattention on the part of the assignee and the provisions herein set out are to guard against providential and unavoidable circumstances this Mar the 26th 1902.

three sons, William, John Jr. and James. If this tax list is accurate, we see that these Yarboroughs were still in North Carolina at the same time another William, Samuel, James and John Yarborough were in Stewart Co., Tennessee. Therefore, we will consider other northeastern North Carolina families.

Warren and Franklin Cos., North Carolina were formed in 1779 from Bute Co., a discontinued county formed in 1764. In 1793 William Y. of Warren Co. died, survived by sons William and Joel and daughters Rebecca and Huldah (Will Book 7, p. 5), and in 1803 another William Y. of Warren Co. died, leaving widow Patsy and a son, John C. (Will Book 12, p. 65; YFM 2/94). In Franklin Co. Henry Yarborough, Jr. died in about 1794, leaving widow Elizabeth, sons Archibald, Charles, David, Henry, Thomas and James, daughters Nancy Murray, Frances Cook and Martha House, and brother Charles (Will Book A, p.122).

Granville Co., North Carolina, is situated between Franklin and Person Cos. It was formed in 1746 from Edgecombe Co. The 1784-86 North Carolina State Census lists Richard, Charles and Samuel Y. in Granville Co., William Y. in Warren Co., and William and George Y. in Halifax Co. (YFM 3/5). Halifax Co. joins Warren Co. and was formed in 1758 from Edgecombe Co.

Copies of twenty-six Yarborough deeds from Anson Co., North Carolina, dating from 1756 to 1838, have just been received. I will abstract them in the next issue, and continue this discussion of North Carolina Yarboroughs.

Back to Stewart Co., Tennessee:

Another early Yarborough of Stewart Co. was Nathan, who was a son of Davis, according to Revolutionary War pension records (YFM 2/93 and 3/3). It is interesting that a Nathan Yarborough administered the estate of Samuel Y. in Stewart Co. in 1832 and had witnessed a will for him in 1812 (YFM 2/91). Also, Nathan witnessed James' Stewart Co. deed in 1811 (YFM 2/90). Does this indicate that Nathan, Samuel and James were related, or was there more than one Nathan, Samuel and James?

Samuel Y died 1819, had a son Samuel Jr.

How were all these Yarboroughs connected? Samuel witnessed Richard's bill of sale in 1810 (YFM 2/91). Why? Richard last appears in Stewart Co. records in 1810, while the names of the other Yarboroughs are found for many years following.

Samuel died 1819/20

At this time I cannot place Richard, William, Davis, James, Samuel and Joel of Stewart Co., but it seems likely that they were related to each other and to George Y. of Montgomery Co., Tennessee, which was located just across the Cumberland River. More discussion of this in following issues.

Sincerely,

ments as a linguist, a scientist, a profound scholar in every department of knowledge.

In his school, Prof. Tutwiler ruled by moral suasion and personal influence alone. No rod, no form of corporal punishment, was ever used there. So soon as he found a boy incurably bad and obstinate, he quietly and kindly sent him home, or advised his parents, when the term ended, not to send him back. His large patronage enabled him to do this independently. He could readily fill their places. His long experience proved that these methods suffice for the strictest discipline in a boarding school like his. Frequently was he offered professorships and presidencies in various institutions, notably the presidency of the University of Alabama, but to all these he preferred his independent work at Greene Springs.

The degree of LL.D., was conferred upon him by several colleges. In 1853 he was appointed, by President Pierce, on the Board of Examiners for West Point. In 1882 he delivered the Alumni Address at the University of Virginia—fifty-three years after graduation—giving valuable reminiscences of its early history.

Deeply versed as he was in the sciences and classical lore, he always made astronomy a favorite study and pastime; and few scientists have more fully mastered its mysterious and sublime truths. His profound knowledge of the stars was clearly evinced, when, on the evening of May 12, 1866, he became one of the first discoverers—if not, indeed, the very first—of the "New Star," as it is now described in text-books on astronomy.

This interesting discovery by Professor Tutwiler was at once communicated to Prof. Joseph Henry of the Smithsonian Institute, Prof. Stephen Alexander of Princeton, and other Northern scientists, and it soon became known that this "New Star" had been seen the same night by an observer in a Northern State, and by two in Europe. It was then a mere question of a few hours whether it was first seen by Professor Tutwiler or by one of its three other discoverers.

Though to Professor Tutwiler, and through him to Alabama, belongs the credit of being one of the first discoverers of this great phenomenon of the heavens, he never received in the permanent records, controlled by Northern scientists, proper recognition for this interesting discovery. This omission probably arose from feelings that remained, even in the pure fields of science, immediately after the close of our civil war.

In personal appearance Professor Tutwiler was slightly above medium height, and possessed of a remarkably pleasing presence and address. Few men have had such an iron constitution as his. Intimate friends often remarked a striking resemblance in his shaggy eyebrows and full, overhanging brow, and in the general contour of his features, to Massachusetts' distinguished son—Daniel Webster.

Vast as was the good done by Professor Tutwiler, proud as Alabama may well be of his record in his long and useful life, the world can never know his many and constant acts of quiet and unostentatious benevolence. All the grand work which the Good Father allotted him to do, he did in the pure spirit of Gospel truth.

A life-long friend in Philadelphia, whose father was professor in the University of Virginia while Professor Tutwiler was a student, wrote of him at his death: "So passes away a man as perfect in his generation as it is permitted to man to be. In all my experience, I can not recall his superior in all that exalts humanity—the mind and the heart both great, inspiring admiration and love in all who were brought near him."

WILLIAM E. W. YERBY, Editor and Proprietor of the Greensboro Watchman, and author of the history of Greensboro published in this volume, may be safely written as one of the coming young men of the State. He was born at Greensboro on October 10, 1862, and is a son of Prof. Miles H. Yerby, who for thirty years was a teacher in the schools of this place. He received his first instructions under the tutelage of his father, and subsequently took a primary course at the Southern University. He was only fourteen years of age when he entered the office of the paper he now owns and edits, for the purpose of learning to be a printer. From office boy, or "devil," he steadily worked his way up to proprietor and editor.

Mr. Yerby is a careful, painstaking and interesting writer. His paper is one of the most popular of the State provincial press, and his history of Greensboro, as published in this volume, is one of the most thorough and readable chapters in the book. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity and an official member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Due to mutilation of last pages of records the remaining part of the Stewart County Minute Book will be concluded with this issue. We are omitting the Docket List of Cases for the years 1806-1807 as the cases have been covered and would be repetitious. I sincerely hope many have been benefited by the context of this long lost Minute Book of Stewart County and the missing link of an ancestor brought to light.

Ophelia,

I have been trying to make some sense out of the Seth Y family. I've typed off some of the more difficult to read minutes of Hickman Co. Ky that you sent me. From the minutes on Henry, it refers to his one-seventh part of the estate. His brother Samuel is dead without heirs by this time and it mentions that he has a 1/7th remainder interest after the death of his mother. So, he must have had 6 brothers/sisters living in 1855. Do you have this family? Does Nancy Gallagher? I don't have the 1850 census of Hickman County which should give us the family. Do you?

Court Minutes, 1849:

A writ lunatica inquirendi had been issued to inquire into the state of the mind of Edward Yarbrough and to inquire whether he had any estate.

"We of the jury find that Edward Yarbrough now in Court aged about 17 years is a lunatic and has been such for the last two or three months; that he has no estate for his support; that he has not been brought to this state to make a charge on the treasury; none of his ancestors were subject to insanity. In the opinion of the Jury, he is insane on the subject religion. He is not dangerous nor subject to periodical sane intervals, but is inclined to melencholy and to remorse. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said Edward Yarbrough is a lunatic and that he be taken to and confined in the lunatic assylum at Lexington there to remain until discharged therefrom."

We go now tc the court minutes of Thursday, September 30, 1852

A writ of de iodiota inquirendi issued to inquire into the state of mind of Henry Yarbrough and whether he has any estate:

"We of the jury find Henry Yarbrough to be an idiot and has been ever since his birth. He was born in the County and has ever since resided in it. He has an undivided one seventh interest in a tract of land in remainder after the death of his mother worth forty dollars. His father is dead, his mother alive and resides in this County; she has not estate to support him; he is not capable of labouring for any part of his support."

John Pennybaker was made Committee for said Idiot H. Yarbrough. He sold Henry's share of the estate and when those funds ran out, the Commonwealth of Kentucky paid $50 a year for the Henry's upkeep.

According to the early law books, the difference between an idiot and a lunatic was that there was no hope of recovery for an idiot, the situation was permanent. A lunatic, on the other hand, could recover..

What this record tells us is that there was a poor, young widow with some real problems to cope with. Note that in the court record it said that Henry had an undivided one seventh interest in a tract of land after the death of his mother. His brother Samuel was already dead, so this record tells us that Henry had six living brothers and/or sisters. It is also in the court records that none of the ancestors of this line were subject to insanity!

On motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth who represent that he has been informed that Edward Yarbrough of this County is a person of unsound mind it is ordred that a writ de lunatico inquirendo issue for the purpose of inquiring into the state of the mind of the said Edward Yarbrough and whether he has any estate, and if any, its nature and extent. Whereupon, and by Lloyd Bry Esq his appointed Counsel for the said Edward Yarbrough. Whereupon the said Edward Yarbrough was brought into Court and there came a jury to wit, B Jarvis, W Bugg, W Mar Nathan Adkins, J G Sage, Wm Gregory, R B Bond, C Sam C Ray L W Lee, Joseph Hilard, Isaac Bullard, W Hendrix who were sworn and charged to enquire &c and having heard the evidence returned the following verdict viz We of the Jury find that Edward Yarbrough now in Court aged about 17 years is a lunatic and has been such for last two or three months that he has no estate for his support. That his father is dead, his mother is living but has no estate for his support. That has not been brought to this state to make a charge on the treasury. None of his ancestors were subject to insanity. In the opinion of the Jury he is insane on the subject religion. He is not dangerous nor subject to suicidal & homicidal intentions, but is inclined to melancholy and [illegible]

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said Edward Yarbrough is a lunatic and that he be taken to and confined in the lunatic asylum at Lexington there to remain until discharged therefrom. And that John Pennebaker or Tyand Pennebaker be and they are hereby appointed to take charge of said Lunatic and deliver him to the officers of the same subject now resides. Milton S. Wiman and three of his sons were Missionary Baptist preachers, and of this church subject and wife and six of his children are members. Milton S., a pioneer preacher preached in every community of the Purchase, and died December 10, 1863, at the age of fifty-five years. William T. has been a deacon and clerk of the church and is now a lettered member. He owns 132 acres of land and is highly respected in the community.

DR. JOHN R. WINSTON, physician and druggist, was born in Dresden, Tenn., in January, 1840. His parents were George and Hixie D. (White) Winston, both natives of North Carolina. The father was a hatter by trade, and served as a private a short time in the war of 1812. His death occurred in 1866, at about the age of ninety-seven years. He and wife were life-long members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was one of the charter members of the Washingtonian movement in Dresden, and was a great temperance worker all his life. His extreme old age gave conclusive proof of a sober and virtuous life. The mother died with measles in 1844, at the age of fifty years. These parents had four children —James M. and the doctor are the only ones now living. Our subject began for himself at the age of sixteen years. He worked on the farm as a hand, and soon began teaching. He left the school-room at the breaking out of the civil war to enter the Confederate States Army service, and in that service continued until his time, one year, was completed. He next enlisted in the Union Army as private for three years, or during the war. After serving three months he was promoted to first lieutenant and adjutant of the regiment. This position he held twelve months, when his health failed, and he was honorably discharged July 25, 1863. He then went to Ann Arbor, Mich., and took treatment while attending the medical department of that institution. He next went to Pryorsburg, Ky., practiced his profession a short time, then joined the Capitol Guard Regiment, under the call of Gov. Bramlette. In this regiment he performed the duties of assistant surgeon in the State Hospital, and was there when the war closed. He then returned to west Tennessee, and practiced two years, then came to Wingo, where he has resided ever since. He was a practicing physician nearly fourteen years when he opened the present drug store, in which he is doing quite a successful business. He does an extensive prescription business, and gives special attention to chronic diseases. The doctor is an outspoken temperance man. He was married October 6, 1867, to Miss Mary J. Baucom, of Tennessee. Minnie C., Martha A., Nellie S., John S. and George are his children. Mrs. Winston is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; the doctor is a member of the Swedenborgen Church, and is also a member of the Masonic order and I.O.O.F.

W. A. YARBROUGH was born December 30, 1826, in Stewart County, Tenn. He is a son of George and Lucretia (Stokes) Yarbrough. The father was born in North Carolina. He came to Graves County in 1832, engaged in merchandising, a few years later in farming. This he continued till his death, which occurred in July, 1848, at the age of fifty-five. The mother was born in North Carolina; she died February 13, 1884, aged eighty-seven years. W. A. Yarbrough was brought up on his father's farm, and has always followed the business of farming. In August, 1878, he was elected sheriff and re-elected in 1880. He was married May 3, 1848, to Elizabeth Leech of Graves County. She died January 28, 1881, leaving three sons and two daughters. His second marriage was in April 3, 1884, to Miss M. E. Purdy of this county. Mr. Yarbrough is a member of the Masonic fraternity.

A cotton-gin was erected in 1867, and in 1882 he added steam machinery, and now annually gins some 200 bales, raising about 20 bales himself. He was married in 1865 to Mrs. Sarah A. Mr. Yarbrough is a man who takes quite an active part in churches and schools, and is a liberal patron of worthy enterprises."[1]

ABNER YARBROUGH

"Abner Yarbrough was born in Hopkins County, Ky., March 26, 1844, and enlisted, October 5, 1861, in Company A, of the 8th Kentucky Infantry, serving under Capt. I.B. Jones. He went through the war and was wounded three times in battle; was mounted in March 1861, and became an attache of Forrest's Cavalry; was paroled May 16, 1865, and returned home, married, and removed to Paragould, Ark., where he died on November 25, 1927, and was laid to rest in Linwood Cemetery at Paragould. Karen do you have anything on Zacharia O'neil in Stewart Co., Tn. A Besheba O'neil married in Marango Co., Ala. She was too young to be Williams Betsheba. I wonder if Zacarians wife could have been. Besheba and a second wife of William. This William was also in St. Clair Co., Ala for a short while.

Searching for Indexed Terms[1]

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select "Edit", and then "Find" or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched[2]. First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
