Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland "Cy" Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The "Old Country" referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from "the old country"; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is "Yarbrough".

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

About this Volume

The indices for both the scanned and archived volumes were created by TExtract®, a software package used by commercial book and document publishers. Among its many features is the ability to merge the individual chapter/volume indices into a composite master index. It is not, of course, an error-free software package, especially when the print quality of the original documents is poor. Nevertheless, the resulting indices are mostly error-free, with the exception of page numbering. The given page numbers in the indices refer to the actual “page count” number, not the number that may appear on a given page.

The indexing results are in alphabetical order as follows. Each indexed term is followed by the term “Vol.” and an associated volume number. These two terms are followed by one or more page numbers, separated by a comma. If the term is found in more than one volume, the succeeding volumes will follow this syntax.

The source material’s page numbering has been unchanged, and the indices provided by the author match the content of those volumes as they are paginated. These volumes are all searchable, so the best procedure is to use the index to see on which page a particular ancestor may be located.

Although Ophelia Kessler and Rea Donohue are listed as compilers of these records, they may very well have been compiled by Dorothy Phifer. There simply is not enough evidence to provide clarity about this.

MOSES YARBOROUGH OF VIRGINIA AND SC FIRST IN SERIES, EXTENSIVE RESEARCH, MUCH THEORY, LOTS TO COME

FROM THE YARBROUGH ARCHIVES BY KAREN S. MAZOCK MOSES YARB(O)ROUGH

Recently I have heard from nearly all researchers of the Moses Yarb(o)rough of S.C. line. Some information below is from records and the sources are cited. Some, especially the excerpts from the letters of Mrs. Davis, are theory, memories and speculation and are printed here solely for the purpose of providing possible clues to research.

Some researchers believe that the S.C. Moses Y. was the son of William and Elliner Y of Amelia County, VA. (Will of William Y dated 19 Jul 1748, proven 16 Dec 1748, names: Wife, Elliner; sons: Samuel, William, Hezekiah, Moses and Micajah; Daus: Priscilla, Ann Higgins, Caryhapuch Anderson; Granddau: Priscilla Robertson. Exrs: Wife Elliner and sons William and Hezekiah. Amelia Co., VA Will Book 1, p. 50.) While there is perhaps a close relationship to this family, the records of Amelia County, VA seem to indicate that this Moses Y. did not leave Amelia County:

Will of Hezekiah Yarbrough, dated 4 Mar 1754, proven 27 Jun 1754. Names sister Priscilla Yarbrough; leaves brother Moses Yarbrough tract "I live on" and his right to a tract of land lying on the fork of the Nottoway. Exr. Moses Yarbrough, brother. Wits: John Smith, Henry Yarbrough and Richard Holt. Amelia Co. VA Will Book 1, p. 107.

23 May 1754. Indenture between Moses Yarbrough and Gabriel Fowlkes of Amelia Co. Va and John Fowlkes of Hanover Co., Va. ... 800 acres on Nottoway River ... part of a patent granted to Samuel, William, Hezekiah and Moses Yarbrough 5 Jun 1746. Amelia Co. Deed Book 5, p. 154.

27 Jun 1754 - Will of Hezekiah Yarbrough presented in Court by Moses Yarbrough, executor therein ... Amelia Co. Va Order Book 3, p. 179.

Feb. 1755 Court - William Tarborn v. Moses Yarbrough, Exr of Hezekiah Yarbrough, dec'd. Amelia Co. Va Order Book 3, p. 214.

June Court 1755. William Tarborn v. Moses Yarbrough, bxr of Hezekiah Yarbrough, dec'd. Amelia Co. Va Order Book 3, p. 241.

Will of Moses Yarbrough, dated 3 Mar 1756, proven 22 Apr 1756. "Very sick and weak", leaves sister Priscilla Yarbrough all his lands and estate. Names sister Priscilla executrix. Wits: Thomas Yarbrough, Richard Stone and Henry Yarbrough. Amelia Co. Va Will Book 1, p. 119.

NOTE: These are not all the records .. just a representative sample showing Moses was apparently a resident of Amelia Co., Va. until his death.

MOSES YARBOROUGH - SOUTH CAROLINA:

b. ca 1743, m. 1st ca 1764-65 to Ann (Littleton?). Children of this marriage: Elizabeth b. ca 1766; Ann b. 1767, and William b. 17 Oct 1760, d. 10 Sep 1835 Abbeville, SC, m. Mary Brooks, dau of Jacob and Mary Brooks, Jr. (See records below for sources of this information)

Moses m. 2nd before June 1771 to Frances (Foote) Moore, the widow of Capt. Francis Moore. Frances Yarbrough was b. ca 1742 in Fauquier Co., Va. and d. after 1807 in Edgefield SC. They had one son, Gilson Y. b. 16 Mar 1772, d. 10 Feb 1839, m. 16 Jan 1805 to Elizabeth Hogan. (See records below for sources)

Note: Will of Francis Moore of Little River of Saluda, dated 1 Nov 1770, proven 3 Jun 1771, names: Wife: Frances "use of my land purchased of John Box during her widowhood, then to son." Son: William. Mentions other children but they are not named; residue of estate to wife and "my three children." Exrs: wife and John Ford of Tiger River. Wits: John Robbins, James Harvey, Mack Goode. On 3 June qualified Frances Yarbrough. Will Book SS, p. 30. In November 1770 Frances was still married to Francis Moore. By June 1771 Francis was married to Moses Yarbrough. Their son Gilson was born March 1772, making his conception about June 1771.

Frances (Foote) Moore Yarbrough m. 3rd Samuel Savage. His will, written Jan 27, 1804, proven 12 Oct 1807 names: Wife: Frances, ch. Samuel Savage, Frances Heron, Elizabeth Lark and Gilson Yarbrough. Edgefield Co., SC. Continued on Page 186.

 Mary Yarbrough Stark b. ca 1886 m. Dr. T. Lyles Davis 29 Aug 1912
 Frances Evelyn Stark b. ca 1886 m. G. W. McKee 07 Dec 1927

Mary and Frances, known as the Stark Twins, were named for their grandmothers. Mary Davis was 70 years of age in 1956 when she was corresponding with researcher, Ruth (Yarbrough) Horne. Mrs. Davis' handwriting is bold, but very difficult to read. Below are excerpts from her letters. The date in () is the date of the letter. Please be aware that much of what she wrote was memories. These excerpts are provided, not as fact, but merely as possible clues a researcher may wish to pursue. At the time the letters were written, Mrs. Davis lived at Confederate Lodge, Abbeville, South Carolina.

(19 Oct 1956) "I'm too sorry to report all my family are dead. Just my twin sister and I left. We are 70 years young. ... My grandmother on my mother's side was Mary Yarbrough who married Col. Nicholas Miller. It was she who said always in referring to her food on her table as handed down through her French blood and to save me I can't find one ounce of France, name or blood. We even were told of a cookbook in French! She was noted for fine food served by servants etc. to her 16 children. All of my mother's people came into Abbeville County from Old Edgefield. There is a story told by these Edgefield (old families) Yarbrough folk that the first ancestor of ours came... because of a bacarro game being played with the kind of England. He (the Yarbrough) was accused of cheating and he came to SC. One of the men (I've forgotten his name) in the game died a short time after this old Yarbrough came. This man admitted on his death bed that it was he who cheated, so the king granted thousands of acres to the (Yarbrough) line. I've never found all this,

Martha was the daughter of GILSON and BETSY ANN ANDERSON YARBOROUGH. The Yarbroughs were married in Sevier Co. Arkansas the 28 Feb. 1850.

Jess Sr. and Doris Fredricksön
Caldwell

Jess , born 14 July 1934 at Richmountian, Polk Co. Ak. married Doris Jean Fredrickson, 4 Aug. 1956. Doris born 8 May 1940 at Perry, Dallas Co. Iowa is the daughter of Russell Peter Fredrickson and Myrtle Irene Jorgensen both of Iowa. Two sons born to this union, Jess Jr. and Lester Eugene both born in Oklahoma City. Jess born 29 Aug. 1959 married Ramona Kay Gracey, born 8 Feb. 1966 in Ok. City to Bill and Peggy Gracey. They married 10 June 1986. Lester born 6 Dec. 1960 married Tara Lynn Dye born 24 July 1968 in L.A. Calif., married 10 March 1986. Tara is the daughter of Joe Harrison Dye and Francis Gibson. To their union is one son: Lester Caseygene Caldwell born 25 Oct. 1986 in Ok. City Ok. So the year 1986 was a very big year for the Jess Caldwell family.

Jess Sr. was raised in the mountians of his birthplace. He spent two years in the Army, 21 months in Germany and mechaniced at a Ok. City cement Co. for 15 years and is now driving truck, putting up and taking down for a heavy hauler trucking firm at the City, working all over Ok. and surrounding states. Building America is their slogan.

I have truly enjoyed doing Jess' family history. I have found past 15 generations counting our grandson "Casey". Josephs wife Mary J. Hopson was the 7th gen. that of James Neville born 1612 in England was one of the founders of Maryland in 1634. James came over on the "Ark and the Dove" exped. Many were frontiers men and women to settle the wild West. Many were killed by Indians and some later married Indians.

The story of the panthers, bears and snakes that were passed down through the years was really something that really scared this City girl when she married her mountian raised husband. But the mountians are a second home when we now visit them.

I have these from Pickens Co.--Big Creek Church 1842. "GERSHAM KELLY and CATHERINE BROOKS joined by letter." They had transferred apparently from Elyton. CATHERINE was out and in this church again it seems 1854 and 1856. Have these references from Jefferson Co. and seem to be deeds:

JACOB W. BROOKS, JR. to JOHN BROWN June 12, 1825. Wit.: JOS. T. (TAYLOR) BROOKS, GERSHAM KELLY.

JACOB W. BROOKS, SR. of Blount Co. Ala. Oct. 10, 1825
1832--Charter members of church at Elyton: GERSHAM KELLY, JOHN and MARGARET BROWN, CATHERINE BROOKS. CATHERINE BROOKS was wife of JACOB W. BROOKS, JR. and daughter of EDWARD LACEY.

ELIZA BROOKS, only daughter of JACOB W. JR. and CATHARINE (LACEY) BROOKS married GERSHAM KELLY first and then COL. LEWIS M. STONE of Pickens.

Miss Kelly told me there was a good history of Pickens Co. by Nelson Foote Smith, published 1856. She also said there were STROTHERS in Marengo Co. JERRY STROTHER married ELIZABETH BROOKS, another daughter of MARY BROOKS CLARY. Am anxious to find death date of MARY BROOKS CLARY. I'd better tell you more about her. MARY (BROOKS) CLARY married JACOB BROOKS, JR. who d. intestate 1786. Children:

1. WILLIAM b. 1764 circa d? in Ala. (county?). Married ca. 1783 NANCY HUGDINS

a- Letter in Old Edgefield Dist. Archives Surname File, 3/20/92:

dated 9/29/37, from E.Howard Drake, 3214 R Street, Lincoln, Neb. to Mrs. Hill

My Matthew & Eliz.(____) BROOKS had children Thomas & Mary, among others, and Thomas & Mary WARREN were parents to Eliz.

Thomas WARREN bequeathed to his dau., Eliz.BROOK, "my negro girl named Nanne" Ten yrs later, in Frederick Co., my Elizabeth Brooks died, and in her will, bequeathed "my negro girl named Nancy to my dau. Mary Thornbrough."

Nanne is of course a nickname for Nancy, and coupled with the similarity in the name of the slaves, I have the coincidence of finding a son named Thomas, next younger to the son named Matthew. The eldest son was Joel Brooks, the second was David, the third was William, then Matthew & Thomas, and then Jesse.

YARBROUGH FAMILY

By; Motte Junius Yarbrough
Saluda, SC
July 28-August, 1978

For this, I am indebted to several sources, as follows:

- History of the Long Family, by our Cousin, Eytive Long Evans of Spartanburg;
- Chapman's History of Edgefield;
- Saluda County In Scene and Story; "picturing the home built in the early 1800's by Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., more recently lived in for many years by our Cousin, Wilbur Scurry, and now owned by his son, James W. Scurry;
- Original papers of great value given the writer by our Cousin Robert M. Tribble, of Seneca, a grandson of our Uncle, Dr. George M. Yarbrough. (Dr. George Yarbrough and his mother, Elizabeth, were Executor and Executrix of the Will and in same are original receipts, deeds and others with original signatures:)
- And in the last place,
- I am indebted to my parents: Francis Marion (Frank M.), and others for many family traditions.

History

We have most beginning with Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., whose will is referred to, but back of him let's go to his father, Moses Yarbrough, born in Virginia, around 1735, and died in South Carolina, a few hours after 3:A.M., October 2, 1772. Page 250 of the Long history gives his Nuncupative Will, recorded in Will Book 15, at Page 357, wherein he called in the required witnesses to his wishes and desires concerning his family and property, and these witnesses, within the required time, went to the Probate Judge's Office writing down his wishes and will in detail, wherein he provided for his wife, Frances, for her children by her former marriage, for his own children by his former marriage and for Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., only child of Gilson and Frances. That is what I call generosity and justice and fairness.

That date, 1772, was when we were under the King of England, with a Colonial Governor, and Charles Town or Charleston was the Capital of the Colony. All court papers and records for our section we live in were in Charleston. Later, came Orangeburg, Camden and Ninety Six with courthouse. Moses first wife was Ann, and by her his children were: William, ?, and Ann (Jr.). His second wife was Frances Foot (or Foote). Moore. Her husband, Captain Frances Moore, who soldiered with Washington in French and Indian War. Frances was a daughter of George Foot. Captain Moore and Frances had children: William, George, Thomas and Behethland; and William and Behethland are at Butler Methodist Church, Saluda County. Thus, both Moses and Frances had children by former marriages; and Moses and Frances married and had one child, Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., and the latter is at Butler Methodist Church, in the newer cemetery.

After the death of Moses Yarbrough, Frances married Samuel Savage and had the following children: Frances Herron and Elizabeth Lark. Gilson and Behethland are half brother and sister; and there are other halves in these marriages of Moses and Frances, as is seen.

Behethland, as a girl of fifteen, was a heroine of the Revolution. After a visit to relatives at Ninety Six, she had learned the military situation at Ninety Six. One day about dusk, she saw British red coats across the river. She knew that up the river was a force of American troops under the command of Captain Wallace. Behethland with her young brother and Miss Fannie Smith, evidently a daughter of Mt. Willing Jacob Smith, who was visiting her, rowed Big Saluda in the night time, up the river and across to warn Captain Wallace and Colonel Light Horse Harry Lee of the force of the British in time for them to escape. She often showed courage during the years of the Revolution. She and her mother nursed a young Lieutenant Wade of Virginia, who was wounded in fighting around Saluda Old Town when a small force of Americans from the Fort at Ninety Six, tried to stop the advance Guard of Lord Rawdon on their way to relieve Cruger at the Fort. The story is told, too, of a visit her future husband, William Butler, made by her home on his way to Ninety Six after the unsuccessful attempt by the Americans to take Savannah, Ga. from the British, in which effort he served under General Count Pulaski and his Legion of Cavalry. Pulaski and Sargent Jasper both were killed as the Americans and French fought side by side for the first time in history. Pulaski was Polish. She became the mother of seven sons and one daughter. One became Governor and years later was killed leading the Palmetto Regiment in the Mexican War (Pierce Mason B.); one became a Judge and U.S. Senator (A.P. Butler) and one son Dr. Wm. B., was a Surgeon in the U.S. Navy at the Battle of New Orleans, who married a sister of Commander Oliver Hazard Perry; and has three children in the older cemetery at Butler Church. The Butler home was where Butler Church is. The two Perry brothers, O.H. and Matthew Calbraith, were among the heroes in the Battle of Lake Erie. (See Battle of Lake Erie in Encyclopedia).

The first graves were put at the older cemetery at Butler in 1802, the first being graves of Elizabeth Brooks and infant in one grave. She was a sister of General William Butler, husband of Behethland. The church was built in 1855-1856. When the church was established, possibly more than one family removed their loved ones from family cemeteries to Butler. One of these cemeteries was on and wife, Elizabeth, and son, Julian, a boy; also Dr. Lewis Grant are there, and it is understood that all these were reburied there from the plantation cemetery. It is thought that there are two unremoved graves at the Yarbrough farm. We wonder if these could be Mr. and Mrs. Savage (as she was Gilson's Mother), or if it is Moses Yarbrough and someone else. There is a question as to whether Moses ever lived in Saluda County. He owned land on Little River in Laurens County. Also, a question is as to where he is buried. We never checked the records for all deeds to Moses, at Edgefield, to ascertain whether any covers land in Saluda area, but there is one from his son, William Yarbrough, of Fairfield, to one Burrus, of Edgefield, and it indicates that the land came to Moses Yarbrough by a grant, but the land is on Turkey Creek, not near here. Moses' Will says that he was of St. Mark's Parish, in Craven County. We have that much to go by for further research. One record does show that Moses owned land on Broad River, and that could be in Fairfield County, and where his son, William lived. Since we are sure he owned land in Laurens, Fairfield, and Edgefield Counties, some further checking is necessary, including a clue as to his burial place. Mr Savage's estate is at Edgefield. He lived at Old Town in Revolution.

Children of George Foote and his second wife, Mary: William, Richard, Gilson, Henry, George, Frances, Behethland, Elizabeth, or as some say, Mary Elizabeth, who some say was a widow Simpson when she married Captain James Butler, father of General Butler, and some say that the General and Behethland were first cousins, of the two sisters, Mary Elizabeth and Frances. I am sure some of the Butlers have this information.

Yarbrough-Scurry House: -

It is understood that there was a log house back of the present house. Possibly some, or most of the children of its builder, Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., were born in the log house. Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. died in 1839, and the writer's father, Frank M. Yarbrough was born in the present house, November 5, 1843. Maybe Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. lived with his father. The house has few frills, and is mostly utilitarian. However, Dr. Barney Slawson, of Archives, looked at it with Wilbur Scurry and me, and said that it was built mostly by an artisan, rather than mostly with slave labor. He noted that beneath the mantelpiece, the molding is not rounding toward the outside, but has a pointed edge toward the front or face. The bottom floor was added to it by Wilbur Scurry. Originally, it was like many Charleston homes, and others over the state, narrow and tall with wide porch fully across, entering with heavy paneled door, mortised, and with wooden pegs, as I recall, into a small hall from which ascended the staircase in two parts and a landing between. The original balusters were gone for many years, but more recently replaced. A story is told that once a visitor in the home fell to the bottom floor. At the right on entering from the hall is the bedroom-living room, combined, and small closet underneath the stair. Across the hall was the parlor of the same size. Upstairs was the girl's bedroom on one side of the upstairs hall and across the hall was the boys' bedroom. There were large chimneys at each end and four fireplaces. The house faces about North, toward the Charleston road opened up in this section about 1784; and Persimmon Creek; and South and Southeast, toward Big Creek. At the Southwest and barely touching the main house was the kitchen and porch combined. It is said that two reasons were given for putting the kitchen off to itself, either or both to keep the odor of the food from the living room, and to make it safer in case of fire. The far-away odor of the food may have kept the large families of boys and girls from getting too hungry; and thus effected a further saving to the large families.

The Charleston-Batesburg-Chappells-Ninety Six road opened up in this section about 1784 is about a half mile between the house and Persimmon Creek. The cotton ginhouse recently repaired is still there; also some oaks and some cedar trees that are about the same size now that they were when the writer first saw them. It reminds us of the lines of Joyce Kilmer, in effect:

"I think that I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree."
A chain saw can cut down in a few moments a tree that it has taken a hundred years to grow.

"Woodman spare that tree;
Touch not a single bough;
In youth it sheltered me;
And I'll protect it now";

The writer lived a scarce mile away and spent many happy nights and days around this place. In the early days, my affection for it was second only to my boyhood home. We ate together and played together and we boys swam together with other boys in Whittle branch running into Big Creek. I make special mention of our Scurry kin because they lived at the ancestral home, and were close by. If the house could speak, it could tell interesting stories; of the cries of new-born babes, of the smiles and laughter of children and grownups, of the farming and business activities of four or five generations of families, yea, of the weeping over departed ones. Before leaving this, remember that the place extended all the way from Big Creek at South of house to Persimmon Creek in front taking in the place now owned by Carey Hill, and evidently some of the Coleman land where the old gold mill was, as the description in deed from Beufort T.Y. to Arthur Yarbrough seems to indicate. A copy of this deed may be appended with this.

Speaking of the house reminds me of the lines, including:
"I remember, I remember, the House where I was born". Too, the apple tree "Ralph and I were in when Wilbur heard us talking about the girls, one of whom became my wife.

Mention of the gold mill reminds me of a story or two. Once upon a time, Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. was walking along the road leading from the Charleston road to the home when he saw a tiny nugget of gold in a rock. This gave everybody the gold fever and brought in men like Monroe Harris, Edge Betters, Mr. Peck and others. I am not sure whether any miner came from the West, likely a couple of these were, but I do remember typical miners caps with lights on them. Logs they cut to build a miners' shack were there as I went to school, but the miners decided to board with nearby people. Local men found work. Prospecting was done and trenches dug. There were two operations several years apart and the last one is the one I remember.

There was one large shallow hole back of the Duffie house and one large shallow one a few feet East of Harvey Scurry's Home, into which rabbits and dogs had to be retrieved. The deepest one was nearest Harvey's home and was a hundred or more feet deep and with tunnel underground. It had all the trappings of other mines with scaffolding with timbers all the way down, platform, buckets, ropes and windlass. They built a gold mill in the bottom on Persimmon Creek, and the millstones are there still. I remember the oxen and the carts, the ore running down the square metal troughs fed, as I understand, by water from Persimmon Creek. On a visit to the gold mill, I found a real dime, and I felt sure that this was proof of mining success. Some blocks of the ore about 1/6th the size of a human head lay around our smokehouse for years.

In the latter days of this second operation, the writer was going with Mr. Harris from the mine down to our home to sharpen his axe on our grindstone, which I turned for him in our farm shop. I asked Mr. Harris what he thought of the possibilities of the mine, to which he stated that what they found was genuine gold, but that the amount in the rocks was so small that he was not sure of success.

Another true story: My father had a good sense of humor, and he once put out a story that he found a pot of Gold. He kept it a profound secret that it was merely a story; and all the family were all excited, for my sisters, Leila and Doll, planning to go to college and you can imagine. He even had my mother fooled, as well as such neighbors as Mr. George Berry, who lived across the creek, that he and my father were crossing the creek on a log and my father, asked him if he could walk the log, to which he replied, "O, yes". I am told that my father's nephew, Bruce Weeks, turned the joke on my father. In the operation effort, my father was very serious about it and Bruce told him of a fictitious character, one "Sego", who was a mine expert, possibly from the West, who would be in Newberry on a certain day; and that my father was walking all about the business section of Newberry asking about a Mr. "Sego". His "Uncle Frank" was really buffaloed.

Our distant cousin, Robert M. Tribble, now deceased, mailed the writer from his home in Seneca, a large number of receipts, sales bills, original deeds, appraisal sheets, etc. On the state of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. Mr. Tribble is a grandson of Dr. George M. Yarbrough, by Dr. Yarbrough's daughter, Elizabeth, who he writes me, was, born at Mt. Willing evidently in the house now owned by Davenport Padgett, originally of two stories, and plastered walls and beautiful staircase. I rather think that this house was built by Dr. George Yarbrough. He and Mrs. Walter Kennerly's father, once practiced together, I am told. Dr. George Yarbrough married the widow of ED Coleman, who was Carolina Black Coleman Yarbrough. Mr. Ed Coleman owned lots of property. Dr. George M. Yarbrough was his Executor. The papers will explain the connections to a careful researcher.

Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. married Elizabeth Hogan, daughter of William and Nancy Hogan. Their children follow, and some of the receipts are on behalf of children of deceased children (grandchildren of Gilson Yarbrough); others by children: (See page 252 of the Long History, which list includes some small children)

(1) Caroline Dozier (Allen S. Dozier). I think that Allen was a doctor. I often heard my father speak of "Uncle Allen" Dozier. I think that the records show that he had a son Allen and one James. My "Cousin Allene" Dozier worked for many years in the library of the Supreme Court in the Capitol. My wife, Ethel, and I saw her often when she was there and I visited the law library when in law school. She was a very cultured lady. She was named for her father, Allen. Her sister married Judge James W. Devord. Another sister was Elizabeth, or "Liz" Charlton. My sister, Doll, spent much time as a girl with "Cousin Liz", in Edgefield. Caroline born 1807.

It will be interesting to visit the Dozier family cemetery back of Mr. J.L. Grigsby's. Mr. Grigsby took me there. It was a hundred yards or so on the right, from the road, now abandoned at that point, from Butler Schoolhouse to Mt. Willing across Dozier bridge on the Charleston road. Most of the graves have no lettering, but there are several graves and in the middle of the plot surrounded by pretty natural forest is a large central cenotaph kind of tombstone apparently between 15 and 20 feet high, and on it, language something like this; "Walk slowly, you are on holy (or sacred) ground. As I recall, it has only Allen S. Dozier.

(2) William Yarbrough - went to Georgia. I heard my father and Aunt Mary laugh about a funny thing Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. said to his son "Billy" when he was across in the parlor talking and putting on airs. My brother, Reverend W.P. Yarbrough told about when he was doing evangelistic work in Georgia when he ran across a Presiding Elder Yarbrough, in the Methodist Church. I think that this was at Milledgeville. I understand that he was a descendant of William, who was born in 1808. A Georgia man, who, I think is a relative of ours, was in Saluda and told me that on the campus of State Hospital at Milledgeville is a building, the Yarbrough Building named for former Chaplain there, named Yarbarough.

Some of you might check that and also see if you can find any by that name or connections, there.

I am told that this Yarbrough was very much a friend of the late United States Senator, Tom Watson.

(3) Francis Yarbrough, born 1809- died at age two.

(4) Nancy Grant (Gilson) - born 1811. She may be mother of Dr. Lewis Grant, at Butler. They lived at the Tom Rankin place near Zoar.

(5) Hariet Yarbrough Gilder, born 1812. Under the will Hariet's part went to her two daughters, Cornelia, who married W.E. "Short" Clary. And Julia, who married Getzen. Hariet died before her father. The Clary home is still standing, next to Saluda Old Town. As a boy I spent the day with "Cousin Neely" and saw my first life preserver of solid cork. It is of interest that my nephew, Rev. James Marion Copeland, has a son, James Scott Copeland, who married Diane, daughter of Huiet Clary and she is a granddaughter of Richard Clary. I find that they are descended in the same degree from Gilson Yarbrough, Sr.

(6) Dr. George M. Yarbrough. He first married a daughter of Bennett Perry of Perry's Crossroads and by her were two children, Mike and Burr. Chapman's history has two pages on Dr. George and Dr. Beaufort Yarbrough. Mr. R.M. Tribble said that there was hanging on the wall of his home a picture of a young boy in blue uniform. Mike attended the Cokesbury Conference School, and they may have used blue uniforms, or it is possible that the type picture did not give true color and it may have been a Confederate uniform. It is understood that Mike died of disease in the battlefields of Virginia; and Burr Johnston Yarbrough is buried at Butler. He was named for Dr. Burr Johnstone of Newberry, Dr. George's old friend. Burr died of disease near Corinth Mississippi. Tradition has it that Dr. George Yarbrough paid someone to bring both of his boys bodies home. He got Burr's, but likely Mike's rests somewhere on the fields of Virginia, and could not be identified. Dr. George Yarbrough later married Caroline Black Coleman, widow of Ed Coleman and daughter of Mark Black. By her he had one child, Elizabeth, who married the father of Robert M. Tribble. Elizabeth was born at Mt. Willing in the house still standing owned by Davenport Padgett. Tribble says Dr. George Yarbrough is buried near Main Street, Seneca, in old town cemetery. Some of you ought to visit it. Tribble sent me a report card of Mike dated 1857(?), with grades as follows: (being from Cokesbury Institute, a Methodist Conference School, with building, still standing with stucco much like Wofford's Old Main" Building. It is on National Register.) Greek-Very Good; Mathematics -Tolerable; English Gramma-good; Demerits-none; Geography-good; Elocution-very good. It has a hand pointing to: "Twenty Five demerits in one quarter will dismiss a student." Dr. George Yarbrough was one of the first Trustees of Butler Methodist Church.

(7) Gilson Yarbrough, Jr.- born 1815, died 1893- (more about him later)

(8) Elizabeth Yarbrough, born 1816, and died at age 15.

(9) Behethland Yarbrough, (William "Uncle Buck" Culbreath.) I understand that Uncle Buck and Aunt "Hethie", as my father called them lived at one time in the old William Butler house at what is now Butler Church, and later lived at the Culbreath place more recently known as the Cecil West place. There was a Culbreath Gold Mine there, too. A man came thru here a few years ago looking into the possibility of gold there, and I was told that he said the most likely place for setting up was where Mr. Cecil West house is; so we never heard more about this. My father said that he was overseer for a time for Uncle Buck and that he butchered forty hogs in one fall. As a boy, I went with my father and mother to spend the night at Cousin Jim's" and Cousin Abby's" in Newberry, and saw my first pomegranates there. Jim was a lawyer. My parents had bought a new mouth harp for me and I was out by the chimney early next morning trying it out and upstairs Cousin Abby's brother, Pat Merchant hollered out the upstairs window to me. Maybe I waked him up or maybe he was encouraging me. Behethland was born in 1818. Cousin Abby had a niece Abby Gaillard, and two nephews, Pierre and James. James rode a bicycle from Newberry and spent nearly a week with us.

(10) Julian Yarbrough, born 1820 and died at age 14, buried by parents or in same grave at Butler.

(11) Beaufort T.Yarbrough (Doctor) "Uncle Blufe". born 1821. He was the father of "Cousin Bett" Mitchell and she had one child to grow up, Mary, to whom I went to school, both at Hickory Grove and later at Zoar. At Hickory Grove, she would crack us on the head with a small, red lead pencil. Her parents had the first chicken incubator I ever saw; and grapes on back porch and bees and honey out front, a small paradise for a boy or girl. "Uncle Blufe" is buried at Butler.

I think that I have in my notes that Cousins Bett (Bessie) and Mary said that Dr. Beaufort T. had a son, Ned, who went away, never to return. This was when they lived and he practiced in Alabama. Beaufort is buried at Butler cemetery. My father and Aunt Mary said that Dr. George or Dr. Beaufort, one or both, attended medical school in Philadelphia. I found Dr. B.T. went to Philadelphia; and George in Charleston. Bett had a brother, for whom I was named. Cousin Motte J. Yarbrough, of Miami, Florida, who for a number of years sent us a box of oranges several Christmases. He had a family, his wife being Elizabeth Mathis, who had some connections with the Cullums of Batesburg. The first time I ever rode a train was from Chappels to Greenwood, with my father, and Cousin Motte and one of his sons, Wilbur or Burr, I believe, in a passenger coach hooked onto a "Through" freight train. Two of his daughters lived in Washington where he died. In World War II, there was an article in some large national magazine, which I have somewhere, about Miss---Yarbrough. "Goes to War". She worked in the Pentagon. We four were going to Greenwood to visit Leila and Dock Huiet, my sister, Leila.

(12) Arthur Yarbrough, born 1823, went to Texas, married Rosannah ?, no children and Rosannah later married a Smith. Under will of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., and under the law, Rosannah acquired half of Arthur's part and the other half went to Arthur's parents and brothers and sisters,. Receipts so show.

The fine print at page 251 of the Long history, quotes Carwile's Reminiscences of Newberry", (pages 240-241), saying that Mr. Francis Bernard Higgins boarded at General Butler's and attended Mr.Yarbrough's school, having a happy time at this home and school, in 1803. Likely, all or most of the children of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. were born in the log house. My father, Frank Yarbrough, was born November 5, 1843, in the new house, only four years after the death of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. Supposedly, Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. lived in the home with Gilson Yarbrough,Sr. The Long history mentions family Bibles of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. and Jr.

Reverting to Dr. George Yarbrough, last night, I talked on the phone with Rebecca Todd Tribble, of Seneca, Dr. George is buried there in the older cemetery right on or near Main Street. She and Robert M. had no children and Robert was the only child of Elizabeth, who was born in Mt. Willing house.

The pages with these receipts, sales, etc. may be given following the very last page of this writing and numbered additionally, and similarly.

Before leaving Moses Yarbrough, and Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., page 250 of the Long History in Will of Moses Yarbrough, and other records and references show that Moses Yarbrough owned land near Laurens, on Little River. That makes us wonder whether or not the Yarboroughs or Yarbroughs near Enoree about Yarbrough's Mill, on the river, are related to Moses. We were by Yarborough's Chapel, a Methodist Church near Laurens, Spartanburg line and my son Motte Jean Yarbrough and I looked over the cemetery. I often heard my father speak of Hiram Yarbrough, of that section, and am not sure whether he got his information from visits there, or from family traditions or from Mr. George Frey, of Fair Forest, who used to come down this way on the way to Orangeburg and Charleston, as I recall, in a covered wagon, selling leather. My father always bought a supply from him. Among the first graves we saw were at front, spelled "Yarborough", and we went across and at the far side, and with the tallest tomb or cenotaph was "Hiram Yarbrough". I have a letter somewhere from a Betty (as I recall her first name) Yarbrough around 90, of Clinton, and she said that she did not quite understand why the spelling was changed to Yarborough. At the time I wrote her and she wrote me, I had not learned as much about Moses Yarbrough, and did not ask her as much about Moses and whether any connection, or if she knew where he died.

I was in college with a boy whose brother of that section married a Yarborough girl and I may be able to get some information about Moses' burial place from this friend, Clyde DeShields, unless he was buried in the Edgefield area or Fairfield area.

GILSON YARBROUGH, JR. was married to MARTHA GRIFFITH daughter of William "Billy" Griffith and Mary "Polly" Abney. They lived and perhaps built the Ed Cromley house, still standing, on the hill next to Zoar Church. (Chapman's History tells about an occasion of a Methodist church conference at Zoar which the matter was brought up about abandoning Zoar. It is said that Mr. Griffith protested such plan saying that if it were abandoned, he would keep up the cemetery. The plans to abandon were abandoned, and Zoar became one of the strongest, if not the strongest church on the charge and it is still in business, and I think that it is the oldest church of any faith in Saluda County. May it ever remain! A marker to their graves says, "He saved Zoar from abandonment." Martha's membership was there as a girl and after her marriage in 1840, I think that the church records show that she and Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. were members there before Butler was founded in 1855.

I could tell you a right funny story my father and Aunt Mary related about what Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. said to Martha Griffith when she was telling something about being related to "Old Cousin Wells Clary". Their children follow: (The record on 251 of Long History is fairly complete.)

Francis Marion Yarbrough (Frank) married Eliza Peurifoy and after her death married Julia Peurifoy, sister of Eliza; Mary (Joe Ridlehoover); Belle Sovereign Weeks; Elizabeth (Charles Evans Plunkett); Amanda (William Ethelbert Long). The Long History indicates that Elizabeth and Amanda had a double wedding, as I understand, at the home, the ceremony being performed by Reverend Tillman Dixon Peurifoy (my grandfather); Julia Yarbrough, married Preston Brooks Scurry. (More about her family later). John Yarbrough, Sr. who is buried at Butler and was killed in the Civil War; John Yarbrough, Jr., named for the above John, and married Laura Edwards; Andrew Yarbrough, who before ever marrying, went away, and some time in later years, changed his name to Ed Coleman, and reared a family. Two of his granddaughters and one of his daughters was by Saluda a few years ago and saw Cousin Martha Long. They were looking for the family of his sister, Elizabeth Plunkett. I've been told of what a fine, fine man their grandfather was. Unfortunately, none of us seem to have their names, but they were from Georgia; perhaps, or Alabama. Maybe they will come again.

Captain Nathaniel Abbey, commander of Mil----- November 19-20, 1775. It was from this area of Saluda mostly.

Before leaving Gilson Yarbrough, Jr., it should be mentioned that "Little Hattie" Yarbrough's grave is right by the cotton house near the cedars and is well marked. She was around age 12 when she died. Add to the above mentioned two generations of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. and Gilson Yarbrough, Jr.,, the following two generations of Julia Yarbrough Scurry and her son, Wilbur Scurry and we see the large number of people who were born or grew up on this place. (I give Aunt Julia's and Wilbur's in more detail than the rest of us because they grew up in this house.)

JULIA YARBROUGH SCURRY. Cecil Whittle, (Ralph); Ora Lindsey (Henry); Rid M. (Single); George P. (Sue Coleman); Alma Coleman (Ed); F.Grant (Hallie Sineath); Wilbur E. (Annie Coleman); Ralph T. (Bennie Coleman); and Ella Etheredge (J. Curt);

Wilbur E. Scurry, (Julia's son, who reared a family in this house); Everett; James; Hubert; Mae Cromer; Nell Gardner; Wardell; Robert and Jerry.

John Yarbrough (the second); Martha (Single); Nannie Lee Stiles (Arthur N., East Windsor Hill Conn.); Clyde Conley (Ed of---Fla); Fred (Single); Joe (Moree Snelgrove); Sarah Mae Van Lone (Ralph); and Albera (Single);

Elizabeth Plunkett (Lizzie); Robert (Bob-Single); Dan S. (Annie Herlong); Gilson Yarbrough (Mary Herlong); Mary Edwards (Tom L.); Charity Sample (Ben F.);Martha Long (Charlie) and Sallie (Single).

(Gussie Able); Nannie Corley (Ed); Florence Coleman (John T.); and Elbert, Jr. (Minnie Lee McCarty) "Little Elbert" and I slept together the Christmas before his death. He went down with the U.S.S. Ticonderoga two days after I landed at Brest in World War I. Although his body rested beneath the Atlantic, he is represented at Arlington Cemetery by one of those, "Known but to God". There is a tomb to him at Pine Pleasant Baptist Church.

Francis Marion (Frank M) - Walter V. (Annie Coleman); Leila Huiet (Mrs. W.F. or Dock); Reverend Wm. Peurifoy (Will) (Rosa Etheredge);Pierce Butler V. (Evangeline Shealy); Martha Cornelia

(Doll) Copeland (Reverend James R.); Capers Bird Y. (Mattie McCarty); Motte Junius Yarbrough (Ethel Eugenia Shaw);

Frank M. Yarbrough and Eliza had "Little Eliza", who died very young; and Frank M. Yarbrough, and his second wife, Julia, had "Little Louise", who died at about five. Frank M. Yarbrough and Eliza had one son, Walter V. Yarbrough; and the other children of Frank M. Yarbrough are by his second wife, Julia. Walter had a large number of descendants and so do the children of Julia.

It should be noted that all the above children of Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., settled in what is now Saluda County. Only Belle Weeks married and lived in Aiken County and nearby; and spouses are not as well known.

Of Bell Weeks; Henry (Creola ?; Will (Nezzie ?; R. Bruce (Julia ?; Burr Weeks (wife?); Kella W. Bell (Mrs. Bartow Bell) I Think); Lizzie Eubanks (Husband ?); Eliza Weeks Poston (Husband ?); Jim; (Lula ?); Elias (Wife ?); Aunt Belle and Uncle "Suv" and children visited and kept fairly close touch with us and we with them. She had the largest family of all as is seen. When Aunt Mary Ridlehoover's intestate was settled and land sold, there were upwards of 175 heirs, just a few years ago. There were more of the Weeks heirs than of any other Branch.

Mary Yarbrough Ridlehoover (husband, "Uncle Joe") no children by this marriage, although Mr. Ridlehoover had three daughters by a former marriage: Sallie Black; Florence Rinehart and Virginia (Jennie) Tessier. Aunt Mary also lived mostly on her part of the land of her father, Gilson Yarbrough, Jr.

Lastly, one other son of Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. was one who never married. George Yarbrough. I often heard my father and Aunt Mary speak of "Brother George", as distinguished from their Uncle George (Dr.). He is not shown in the estate, as he died previously. He is buried at Butler Church.

GRIFFITH FAMILY

On the Martha Griffith Yarbrough side, we begin only with Joseph Griffith, our Grandfather (removed). He had a son Joseph, father of R.C. "Dick" and "Pat" Griffith and daughter Hattie Gaulden. He also had a son, William ("Billy", referred to before our grandfather. The first Joseph is buried in the George Rankin field near Highway 121. He was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. We begin this with him.

The following are children of William "Billy" Griffith:

Amanda Griffith: (married John Goodman). I remember her visiting us and sewing on my mother's "New Home" sewing machine. Her daughter, Mamie ("Manie") taught and my brother, Walter, and possibly Leila, went to her school. Manie married her first cousin, Ed Cromley, and they lived in the ancestral home at Zoar Church. (Note) Two of her children, Heber G. Cromley and Sybil C. Rankin are living. Ira, who broke me in at Wofford was Manie's son. I shall be in debt to him always. The Billy Griffith home is still standing.

Sophia Griffith, married Ira Cromley first and Dr. Sheppard later. Three of Sophia's sons were; Andrew, Edd and Matt, the latter being twins, who looked so much alike that it is said that once, one of them was in Newberry and in a store saw himself in a full length, double mirror, and said, "Why, hello----, I didn't know you were over here today.". Andrew and his wife, Lalla, were first cousins (Children of Sophia and Matt Griffith, respectively. They have a son, Ivin Cromley, living near Zoar Schoolhouse, Ira Cromley, Sr., also had another son, Will, by a former marriage. It is of interest that Will married a Cousin of ours, a daughter of Uncle Henry Griffith, and Will later married a Turner. Ira Cromley, Sr. is buried at Brooklet, Georgia. Will Cromley had two children by his Griffith marriage; Fannie G. Ramey and Henry Cromley; and he had a larger family by his second marriage. Aunt Sophia and Dr. Sehppard did not have any children. One time when Aunt Sophia must have been around 70, she came down home riding a horse. "Uncle Ira, Sr." commanded a military Company. (See Chapman History). Matt Cromley married Ella Smith; children; Ben F. Cromley and Ethel Derrick.

MARTHA GRIFFITH; Our Grandmother, married Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. Her family has been given.

Nancy Griffith: married Andrew T. Coleman, by this marriage, her children were Cousin Ella Coleman and Cousin Lee Coleman. "Uncle Andrew" Coleman later married Susan Weeks. Their children were Bob, Buck, and Sumpter Coleman and Emmie Vines.

Annie Griffith; married Henderson Abney and they went to Mississippi, and I regret that I do not know as to their family. I heard my father speak of "Uncle Henderson" Abney.

Matthew (Matt) Griffith; married Mary Lowery. It is interesting that Matt has the following grandchildren living: Raymond, W.L. and James Griffith and Martha (Heyward) Hawkins, by "Uncle Matt's son Lowry and wife, Elsie Duffie.

John Griffith; married Elizabeth Bladon. They have one grandson living, John S. Griffith, son of Abney Griffith and wife Kate. The latter couple visited in our home years ago. Abney also had a sister; Amanda, who married Samps Crouch, and the latter couple have a daughter living in Leesville, Annie C. Rose. John Griffith had another son, Tom Griffith. Cousin Tom told me of how well he liked to visit in the home of their Uncle Gilson and Aunt Martha Yarbrough.

Henry Griffith; married Bonita White and as indicated above, had a daughter who was the first wife of Will Cromley. I do not know as to whether there was any other child, of Uncle Henry's. Henry's Will had by this marriage ; Henry Cromley and Fannie Ray.(?)

Andrew Griffith: married Annie Neal. Their only children I know; Edd Griffith and Will Griffith. Both of these boys were in the company with my brother Will. (Rev. W.P. Yarbrough). during the Spanish American War, - Captain Smith Langford's Company. The company roster, containing a number of Saluda men, is on a tablet on wall of old hospital at Newberry, which building is in public use still. The following children of Ed are living: Madelyn G. (Rev) Kleckley; and John Andrew Griffith; Annie Lynn Dukes died recently also Agatha Adams, Deceased. The following children of Will Griffith are living: Andrew M. Griffith, and sisters; Willie Ruth Smith and Annie Laura Bouknight. (Children of Will G. and Alma Stone Griffith)* Joseph Marion Griffith (or "Jimmy"), who married a Perry. I understand that they had children, but I lack information on his family. He is not to be confused with his grandfather, Joseph (Captain) buried in Mr. Rankin's field; nor with his Uncle Joseph, who was the father of R.C. (Dick) Griffith, Patrick Henry (Pat) Griffith, and Hattie G. Gaulden. I went to school at Zoar with children of Cousin Dick and Cousin Pat. Dick lived right at Zoar School. There is a Griffith cemetery on his place. I went to school with to Pearl Dorn, wife of Professor T.E. Dorn. Our Grandfather, William (Billy) was a brother of Joseph, who was the father of R.C. and Pat Griffith, and Mrs. Gaulden.

Going back to Manie (Mamie) and Ed, Manie had a sister, Sophia, who married Will Ramey. Their children were Wallace Ramey and Sophia, Jr. who married James W. Hipp, with whom I was in the army. Ed and Manie largely reared little Sophia; and Sybil and Sophia, my classmates at Zoar, were almost like sisters. Andrew and Lalla were almost second parents to me. I always seemed to be welcome on a rainy night from Zoar School. It saved me much of my two and 1/2 miles (one-way) walk in a red muddy and wet road. My mother gave them a nice turkey every Christmas. I once stayed with them a week to practice for "Exhibition" at Zoar's two nights and a day or two commencements.

Being temporarily crippled, I shall never forget Professor ("Cousin Ebb") T.E. Dorn's kindness, in coming down with his black horse and top buggy. He found me needing a "bunch" through about an acre of cotton my father had given me for a task; and he and my mother and I finished the task and we took the buggy for "Cousin Andrew's" and school. He set me a good example for field work, as I never saw a professor hoe cotton like he did. I shall always be in debt to him and Cousin Pearl. I had been in school at Hickory Grove. Zoar had a term about six weeks longer; so one spring, he got my parents to pay a little tuition to Zoar and go those six weeks out. Also, he got my brother, Pierce to leave the store at Newberry and go back to school at Zoar, at age 28; and then go to Wofford College. Ebb and I both came from the Bird Family. Ona G. Wills, daughter of R.C. Griffith and Annie Mae Johnson and Clara Bowers (of "Pat") may be Captain Joseph Griffith's only living Great Grand-children. This was when I was on crutches from a cut foot. Julian and Bernard were my schoolmates and so nice to me.

Going back to Butler Methodist Church, if it had not been for Judge Andrew Pickens Butler, there is much doubt that there ever would have been a Butler Church, as he negotiated and followed closely the organization of the church; and his family gave the land. Without the acts and this vision of his, the first graves likely would be growing up in weeds like the grave of General William Moultrie, recently found and re-buried; and our grandfather, Gilson and wife might still be resting at the farm cemetery; his brother, Pierce M. Butler, likely still would be in cemetery at Trinity Cathedral, Columbia; Behethland might be near his last home at Edgefield; and his nephew, Col. Thomas Pickens Butler, resting somewhere in Virginia, with no church and only a few of the very earliest graves, neglected. Now everything is nice and neat.

It is wonderful, the good influence of one person. The opposite is also true, the evil influence of one person, and with all the evil we have today, and with everybody demanding their rights and thinking little of duties, how can America become or remain great, as it was in the past. There is no way unless there is a new Revolution and Revival in our way of life.

If we are asked, Who am I? Where did I come from, and Where am I going? The most important is where are we going to spend Eternity?

A Bible verse, my mother used to call a motto (which I hope it was) was hanging from the mantel. "My inheritance is incorruptible, and undefiled that faeth not away." Tennyson might say, "I, the heir of all the ages in the foremost files of time."

Since this is so long and since it is planned to place all the original papers in the Probate Judge's Office with the estate in Edgefield, I shall give copies of only a few, but I invite your careful study of them, (and you can see them all in Edgefield, later) especially the Will and deed and trembling signatures. You will note that the Will is of great length, and may reveal a teacher's planning, and he may have called in a lawyer. He may have written it in his own hand before his last illness and signed it only when he saw the inevitable coming.

It would be interesting to know the nature of his school; where it was, likely a private school at his home; what he taught and his salary. Large family, pretentious home built likely in late life. Maybe some of that school money was the secret.

There are many original papers I have which Mr. Tribble gave me. Only a few will be attached to this merely to illustrate. The ones attached explain themselves, but a full list follows; (and originals will be placed with Gilson Yarbrough, Sr., estate in Probate Judge's Office, in Edgefield:

Original relevant papers on Gilson Yarbrough and Ed Coleman estates will be offered to Probate Judge to file in Edgefield. Only a few Ed Coleman papers but does appraise bill and names of his slaves.

My understanding is that Gilson, Jr. left no will and his property was divided agreeably by the heirs. I do not have any of these papers. They are at Edgefield, but I have not taken the time to look it up.

We greatly appreciate the work Motte Yarbrough has done on the family history. Thank you very much. Vivian Quattlebaum Harris

Mrs. Gyl Dalrymple
114 Elias Street
West Monroe, LA 71291

Dear Gyl,

I will send you what I have on your Yarbrough lineage, which may add a few pieces to your puzzle.

First, Gilson Yarbrōugh, Sr., Gilson Yarbrough, Jr., and their respective wives are buried in what is now Saluda County, S.C. in the Butler Methodist Church Cemetery. Saluda County was formed after 1890 from Edgefield County.

The late Leonardo Andrea of S.C. did a considerable amount of research and I acquired the papers he did on the Yarb(o)rough family. He provided the following tombstone data:

Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. b. 16 Mar 1772, Laurens Co, S.C.
(the rest of the data you have)

Elizabeth Hogan, wife of Gilson, Sr., b. 17 Mar 1780
(the rest of the data you have, except to repeat that these two people, and their son Gilson, Jr and his wife Martha Ann are all buried in the above named cemetery, Saluda County)

Now, to Moses Yarbrough (c 1736-1772) as you know, his second wife was Frances Foote Moore, widow. She was a dau. of George Foote and Frances Berryman who were m. 31 Dec 1731 in Westmoreland County, Va. After Moses Yarbrough died the widow married yet a third time to Samuel Savage, Sr. whose will was probated 6 Jun 1805, Edgefield Co, S.C. Andrea speculated that the widow may have married a fourth time. This has not been proved.

I have: Gilson Yarbrough, Sr. bible-record; will probated 1839
Gilson Yarbrough, Jr. estate file dated 1893
Sam'l Savage, Sr. will naming Gilson as a step-son and who,
"is to have a suit of mourning."

I have begun to suspicion that Moses of Craven County, S.C. MAY HAVE had more children than were named in his will. An oral will given on his deathbed, he must have named the minor children to insure that they would be taken care of, but did not have strength or breath to name the older ones. Perhaps they had received their shares upon reaching 21 years of age, and in the case of a daughter, she received something from her father at marriage. With at least two wives it is hard to imagine that he did not have more children when families were large in those days.

Consider this: before the Revolution land grants from the Crown were headrights - 100 ac for head of household + 50 ac for wife + 50 ac for each child between 2 and 16 years. Moses Yarbrough is listed as having received the following land grants. (see page 2)

15 Jul 1768 - Moses Yarbrough 250 ac on Little River, Berkley Co
19 Sep 1770 - Moses Yarbrough 100 ac on Rocky Branch, Granville Co
16 May 1772 - Moses Yarbrough 200 ac on branch of Turkey Creek in Granville County
26 Aug 1774 - Moses Yarbrough 500 ac on Little River, Berkley Co

In memorial returns for Royal Land Grants, Moses Yarbrough had four returns for four grants. However, if he died Oct 1772 in Craven County, S.C., how is he getting land in Aug 1774 unless it is the widow or a son named Moses. Surely, he named a boy after himself. Also, if widow remarried, she would not be entitled.

Moses Yarbrough's 1772 will named Gilson by his wife Frances Foote Hause, and, three children by his first wife, one of whom was a son named William. William moved to Abbeville County, S.C. where he was listed in census' of 1810, 1820, 1830.

Also listed in Abbeville; 1820 Census was John F., Moses, Beauford Yarbrough. It is known that Moses and Beauford were son's of WILLIAM of Abbeville, but John F. appears to be a brother for he has eight children, and is listed as age 45 and up. If William, son of Moses was b. 17 Oct 1759, it is doubtful he fathered John F..

Also in Abbeville was Chadience Yarbrough Lipford, wife of Royal N. Lipford whose estate was probated 17 Mar 1818. There were nine Lipford children named to share in the est te. I am of the opinion that this Chadience Yarbrough Lipford was a sister to William, who served as one of the executors of the estate.

If these were not siblings, they were surely cousins and all from the same antecedent. It just looks too obvious. There were two Moses Yarbrough's in Abbeville County which also helps confuse the documentation. In 1830 Census a Moses aged 26/45, married with two children under ten years of age. In 1830 Census a Moses aged 20/30, married with six children.

In a family record of William of Abbeville County, S.C. the compiler does not list Moses or Beaufort as children, but Moses is named in his father's will as executor. County records show that Beaufort died a young man in 1835 unmarried. I have traced this family and found some of them in Georgia where two of them married.

I have done enough speculating on Moses of Craven County, S.C., so would not dare to make a guess as to who his parents were. All I have from Amelia County, Virginia is a list of Wills & Administrations for: Hezekiah Yarbrough 1754; Jordan Yarbrough 1770; MOSES Yarbrough-1756; Thomas Yarbrough 1769; Wm.-Yarbrough 1748. Write if you need clarification of this rambling letter, or want a copy of the records I do have.

Yours truly,

Mrs Frances Lockwood
