Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. Mr Charles H. Yarbro
Route #1, Box 188
Tiptonville TN 38079

August 31, 1989

Dear Cousin,
Thank you for your letter, your newsletters and for the invitation to the Yarbro convention. It was very kind and thoughtful and I appreciate it.

I hope that the convention was a great success and that a lot of families were able to get some valuable information from the renowned Mormon's library. Unfortunately we were unable to attend it. I did not attend last year's convention in Memphis because I was unaware of it; I found out by accident too late!

As I said in my first letter we do not know anything about the family. Charles is not interested in the genealogy of his name, we have a son Philippe born in 1964. Since I think it is important to know as much as possible for the descendants, we'll try to go to Duka, Miss. next year.

Charles's grand-father born in Duka Miss. around 1885 told him that his ancestors came from Ireland. One possible explanation is that, at one time, some Englishmen were sent to Ireland as policemen. I would like to know if other Yarbro were told that they came from Ireland by their ancestors.

I wonder if you were able to trace the first Yarbro ever recorded in Lincolnshire, his first name, the date of the first record and the name of the place, if it is different from Yarburgh.

Thank you again for what you sent and also for forwarding my first letter to Karen Magock.

I am wishing you the Best.

Love from Jacqueline, Philippe and Charls

FOR INFORMATION FROM EVERY FAMILY MEMBER, RELATED FAMILY MEMBER, SHEET DISTRIBUTION, REMEMBER 'YESTERDAY IS HISTORY'

Two many of us who think about genealogy research believe it involves only present research. However to remember "yesterday is history." We all become assistants and archivists.

With this purpose in mind Attorney Bill H. Yarbrough of Bedford, Texas, proposed and spearheaded a computer program for the National Yarbrough Conference. (Yarbrough, Bill) is an Honorary Director of NYC, and offers his invaluable advice and counsel to the board at the yearly conferences.

The sheet, printed below is to be copied, filled-in, and in many cases copies distributed to other family members. All this valuable information is to be channeled through Bill's office Charles H. Yarbrough in Tiptonville, TN, because of the familiarity and availability of the mailing address. If the space on the sheet is not enough, an additional plain sheet is advised and welcomed. The question of availability of the corrected information has not been determined, but knowledgeable computer people will know the wonderful possibilities. The rest of us will be assured our records are recorded, stored and available tomorrow or for future generations.

PROMINENT TENNESSEANS

ing is stalwart and self-reliant; and he has the appearance of one who has been exposed to all weathers, for which only scars to have attested his capacity for noble labors to come. Perfectly composed, of wondrously even temper, men feel in the look of a man who has never seen a storm, but who has calmly reduced. A person would be surprised that such a delicately formed man whose hands are capable of such varied exploits, and who, naturally, can perform these things with facility.

But one other such fact comes to the memory of the writer, and that is that of Robert B. Bell, of the well-known man who was, for a long time, a member of the firm of Bell & Co. He was a man of a high order of intelligence, and his study of the method of agriculture, considering the important position of the capital, was by McFerrin, who, after his death, he was one of the most accomplished of our countrymen. In Nashville, the firm that he had led by A. J. P. were well known, and he was both lived in to success. He was an energetic and not without an air of confidence. He has been noted for several things for his ability, as much as of undoubtedly would be his ability. He had a great deal of the ability to be in a way of the business state of the time, which had not been accepted. As he in 1860, he would have called him to fill this position, but for a meeting of the conference, he was engaged to a high rank in railroad, and his recovery was then very slow.

Not only Dr. McFerrin is a man of faith, but he is a man of the position of his strength. His plays are very simple. He first studied his subject carefully, then blocks it all in his mind, and he writes a rule to speak, even more than that. This perhaps is one of the secrets of his great success as a public orator. His manner is that of direct and serious earnestness; his discourse, near the stamp of his own individuality, and originality; and his powerful expression makes their way and judgment in the hearts of his hearers. His words in life have been of a business practicality, more strict, and in fact, to God and man.

Dr. McFerrin has been twice married. His first marriage occurred September 18, 1822, to Miss A. A. Probert, of Nashville, only child of William A. and Sarah Jane Probert, who became the mother of five children: Sarah Jane, James William, John A., Elizabeth, Johnston and Abner Probert and died near Nashville, in May, 1831.

He married the second time, November 12, 1855, Miss Gordon T. McGowan, daughter of John and Elizabeth McGowan, of Nashville. The present Mrs. McFerrin is the great granddaughter of boy, McDowell of Virginia. Her sister, Mary McGowan, was the wife of E. P. McClintock, formerly editor of the Nashville Blog.

Dr. McFerrin's early life, such as follows, is connected with the family of his grandfathers, the Trustees, from whom he inherited the name. Dr. McFerrin was born at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 15th of June, 1822. His father, James A. Probert, was born in 1782, and died in 1830. He was a member of the Tennessee Legislature, and was also a member of the Nashville Board of Education. He was a successful merchant and banker, and was one of the founders of the Nashville Bank.

The doctor's eldest child by the second wife, is Katie Jane McFerrin, who was born December 21, 1856, graduated at Ward Seminary, Nashville, married February 10, 1882, Robert W. Bryan, of the Nashville Transfer Company, has one child, Charlotte Nelson. Mary McFerrin, born March 1, 1859, and died in infancy. Elizabeth McGowan McFerrin, was born July 27, 1861, and married, June 15, 1881, J. H. Vardon, a real estate broker of Nashville.

Dr. McFerrin's great-grandfather, William McFerrin, was one of those brothers who came from Ireland about 1730 and resided for some time in York county, Pennsylvania. The doctor's grandfather, also named William McFerrin, was a pennin soldier in the Revolu-

Dear Tennessee Charlie,

Just received IHS for May 1990.
Again, thanks for keeping it live.
Enclosed is a little something to help keep it going. Don't hesitate to ask for help, as it serves as a reminder.

On page 286 is a newspaper clipping from The Fort Worth Star Telegram on Sunday March 25, 1990 with a picture of Henry and Inez Yarbrough celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

I would like to communicate with him. Do you have his mailing address or that of the person that sent the clipping to you?

Sincerely,

Howard E. Yarbrough

and his activity has brought him to the front... no man occupies a more enviable position in the lumber and financial circles of Memphis than does John W. McClure.

By Raymond W. Train

LOUIS WILKINS CULBREATH, M. D.

Stanton has every reason to be proud of Dr. Louis Wilkins Culbreath, a resident of this city since 1902, for in every relation of life his course has commended him to the confidence, trust and high regard of those with whom he has been brought into contact. He is regarded as one of the distinguished representatives of the medical profession in his section of the state. His birth occurred in Tipton county, Tennessee, on the 27th of February, 1869, his parents being William Jackson and Missouri Ann (Pinson) Culbreath, both of whom were descended from Scotch ancestry. The family is in possession of a coat of arms described as follows: "Arms—Gules a fesse chequy argent and azure, between three bears' heads, erased of the second, muzzled of the

James Galbraith

X

The first of the family in America was John Galbraith, who came with Rev. Thomas Wilson in 1681 to found a church at what is now called Princess Anne, Maryland. His son, John, followed in 1682, having sailed from Glasgow with the Rev. William Trail, a Presbyterian minister. One of the founders of the Presbyterian church at Derry, Pennsylvania, was James Galbraith, whose father had crossed the ocean, some say, as early as 1718. The younger James had fallen in love with Elizabeth Bertram, the daughter of a clergyman from Bango, County Down, who came to the church at Derry. James Galbraith settled at Swatara creek, where he conducted a farm and grist mill. He had three sons: Andrew, James and John and of these, James removed south into Virginia and his son, Joseph, is the progenitor of the Culbreaths of Tennessee. The court records of Augusta county, Virginia, contain a statement signed by Joseph Galbraith to the effect that "sixty head of beef cattle and fifty head of sheep bought by the contractors for the use of the forces under the command of Colonel George Washington were grazed upon the plantation of Colonel Thomas Cresop at Old Town." This Joseph Galbraith had a son, Thomas, who in turn was the father of Thomas William Lennin, Margaret, Kemp and James. The Augusta county, Virginia, court records state that Thomas Galbraith was a soldier in Captain Peter Hogg's Company of Rangers in the year 1758 and that "fifty acres of land each was granted to John McMahon and Thomas Kidbreath for services in the Rangers." James Culbreath, son of Thomas and brother of William Lennin and Kemp Culbreath, was a member of the Virginia militia that went into North Carolina and later was replaced by his brother, Kemp, from whom is descended the family in North Carolina today.

James Culbreath

Along another line Dr. Culbreath is descended from the Macgregors. "S rioghail mo dhream" (Royal is my race) is the motto of this ancient clan, which claims descent from Griogair, third son of King Alpin, who ascended the Celtic Scottish throne about 787. For various reasons the clan was proscribed after the "rising of the Earl of Ross" and they were forbidden to carry arms or bear the name. Being forced to assume names other than their true name they adopted many and various ones, including Campbell, Dougall, Drummond, Gordon, Graham, Grant, Murry, Ramsay, Stewart, etc. The branch that took the name of Ramsay was established in America about 1747, settling in Virginia. Family tradition has it that when this particular branch left Glasgow under the difficult conditions of the proscription then in force they overlooked one little girl, Peggy, or Pegelia Ramsay, and left her behind. Kind-hearted friends and members of the clan cared for her and when grown she married Aaron Pinson, who brought her to America and succeeded in finding her people. Their son, John, was born in Scotland, and in Virginia they became parents of twins, Archibald and Aaron. Archibald Pinson married Dicie, mother of Missouri Ann and Aaron Pinson, and following her death wedded again, his second wife bearing the name of Mary and they had two children: John and Laura, born in Tennessee.

William Lennin Culbreath married Temple Wyles and their children were: William E., James, Huel, Jack, Nancy and Henrietta, all of whom were born in or near Clarksville, Virginia. Their father died in 1840. He removed to western Tennessee in 1833, together with his son, William E., and the latter's son, William Jackson. All settled at Beaver Dam, where Mason now stands. William E. Culbreath was associated with B. F. Avery in his first plow factory at Clarksville, Virginia, and claimed to have made the pattern for the first iron plow manufactured. All of the family who were not Presbyterian ministers were artisans and farmers. William E. Culbreath married Elizabeth Hughes of Virginia and they had two sons: Henry, who died when a child; and William Jackson, who was born in 1830 and died in 1902. William Jackson Culbreath, the father of Dr. Culbreath of this review, married Missouri Ann Pinson and they became parents of six sons: William Henry, John, Jeff Davis, George Lee, Charles and Louis Wilkins.

Family tradition has it that Joseph Galbraith was with the Virginia militia at Braddock's defeat under Colonel George Washington and that he followed the wavering fortunes of the General to Valley Forge, where he was stricken with smallpox, whereupon his great commander told him to go home. Barefoot, ragged and sick he set out to reach his home but his dead body was found crouched against a tree stump by the roadside, his musket across his lap and a piece of beef tallow in his fingers. His powder gourd together with some of the hemp-tow with which he rammed the powder and ball into his gun are cherished relics in possession of his descendants. When Dr. L. W. Culbreath of Stanton offered his services to the war department the day after war was declared with Germany, he wrote: "No stately marble in Arlington proclaims the heroic deeds of these unconquered highlanders but the trench graves from Laargs and Culloden to Appomattox (and now to the Hindenburg line) inscribe the offerings that my people have made to the causes which they deemed right and just."

It was in the home of his grandfather, ~~William E. Culbreath~~, near Mason, Tipton county, that Dr. Louis Wilkins Culbreath was born February 27, 1869, being the youngest of a family of six sons. He was a year old when his parents removed to the Haywood county district No. 3, near Stanton, and there he spent his childhood on his father's farm, consisting of about three hundred and sixty-five acres of fine land. Although the family had suffered heavy losses during the Civil war, the father managed to recuperate his resources to such a degree that he was able to give his sons fairly good advantages until, meeting with financial disaster, he could not extend to the youngest son the opportunities that he had given the others. Dr. Culbreath, therefore, when fifteen years of age, started out in the world equipped for life by the training of wise Christian parents. He carefully considered what he wished to do with his future and at length decided that he would qualify for the medical profession. His educational advantages were only such as the common schools afforded. He went first to Memphis, Tennessee, where he arrived with a capital of fourteen dollars that had been loaned to him by a neighbor, an old blacksmith. Failing to find employment he proceeded down the Mississippi river to Bolivar county and thence to Shelby, Mississippi, and when refused work by a merchant to whom he had applied he nevertheless pulled off his coat and went to work and the merchant was too kind-hearted not to give him food and a place to sleep. After four years spent in that district malarial conditions compelled a change and he entered the University of Kentucky but owing to lack of funds did not take the academic degree. Later, however, he was graduated from the University of Tennessee Medical College, winning his degree in 1898. He read medicine and was tutored by Dr. P. T. Jones of Somerville, Tennessee, and later by Dr. C. W. Robertson. He accompanied the former to New York, where they both attended the New York Polyclinic and there Dr. Culbreath became closely associated with Dr. John A. Wyeth, an association which proved of great value to him in later years. With his return to Tennessee he located in Somerville, where he performed the first operation for appendicitis ever undertaken in Fayette county. After about a year, owing to the failing health of his aged parents, he returned to the old home in Haywood county, where he practiced until the death of his father, July 29, 1902. With his mother and brother, George Lee, he came to Stanton, Tennessee, where he has continued in the active practice of medicine and surgery and is now the deputy county physician of Haywood county.

On the 15th of June, 1904, Dr. Culbreath was married to Miss Willie Thomas Capell, a daughter of William Capell, who died while serving as sheriff of Haywood county. Mrs. Culbreath passed away November 16, 1904. On the 14th of August, 1907, Dr. Culbreath was married to Miss Louise Reid Rudd, a daughter of A. M. and Ella (Hancy) Rudd. They became parents of a son, Louis Wilkins, Jr., born January 7, 1911.

The day following America's declaration of war with Germany Dr. Culbreath offered his services to the government but because of physical conditions was placed in the V. M. S. Corps, where he examined recruits for the navy department and when the war closed was transferred to the public health service department. He was rewarded by a special act of congress for services rendered the government as a private citizen. He has always given his political allegiance to the democratic party, while fraternally he is a Scottish Rite Mason, having attained the thirty-second degree. He likewise belongs to the Knights Templar Commandery and is a past high priest of Burns Chapter, No. 171, R. A. M. He is also affiliated with the Order of the Eastern Star, the Scottish Society of America, the Woodmen of the World, the Modern

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
