Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid<sup>1</sup>, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. These Books are Dedicated to our Ancesters who paved the way for us, and to the Decendents who will follow us.

When we began our research a few years ago
we were looking for Swanson or John Swanson, which we have found very little before 1810.
Our name is spelled Yarbrough. In copying family sheets most have been copied Yarbrough, but the records may be spelled some other way.
Keep this in mind when using these books.

We are not responsible for errors, which are probably numerous. All we intend to do is give leads to help find your Ancesters

We would ask that if you copy any of this material that you help by giving us a copy of ypur records and family sheets.

All of these records have been copied for the Archives at Ft. Belknap and placed there. Also all have been copied and placed in the Yarbrough Archives.

Happy Hunting.

Newcastle, Texas celebrated its 75th Anniversary.

During the first 75 years of ministry here in Newcastle there have been many family names that need to be mentioned. These are some families who were early leaders in the church. They include: Ames, Averett, Beahl, Coffield, Cox, Dent, Fields, Hearne, Johnson, Mason, Moore, Patton, Pevehouse, Potts, Profitt, Robinson, Smith, Swain, Thomas, Walters, Webb and Wilson.

Our Sunday School highs were recorded in 1953 with 173 members in 12 classes and in 1935 with 136 members in 18 classes.

Ministers licensed, ordained, or serving with this church in positions other than pastor through the years include: R. Cliffton, Jack Redford, Brooks Robertson, James Swedlund, Larry Dodson, Mike Marko, Marvin Averett, Gilbert Webb, James Robert Ward, Billy Gathings, F.E. Woolery.

As we look back over the past 75 years, we see a church which started with 21 members. Every member had importance then, and every member has importance now. Each teacher, each deacon, each Sunday School Director, each janitor, each usher, each clerk, each treasurer, each pianist, each song leader, and each member has helped to make these 75 years possible.

In Christ's name we began 75 years ago and in His name we continue on.

Special thanks to Charles Ward whose research made this church history possible.

CHURCH HISTORY
NEWCASTLE, TEXAS

Dear Friends,

Today is a very special day in the life of our church as we celebrate seventy-five years of proclaiming Christ as Saviour.

We are happy you are here to share in our worship of the Lord. We give thanks for each member through the years. The contribution of each member, past and present, is important to the future of our church and community.

God has blessed us through the years and continues to show His love toward us.

As we gather today in love, fellowship, and joy, let us thank God for the Christ-like influence and precious memories of those who have gone on to be with the Lord. Let us ask His special blessing on those unable to attend. Most of all, let us thank Him for allowing us to gather with our family of God.

"Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before His presence with singing." Psalms 100:2

In Christian Love,

The Homecoming Committee

On September 15, 1908, a group of brothers and sisters met in Newcastle, Texas. They selected Bro. Joe R. Mayes as moderator and organized "The First Missionary Baptist Church of Newcastle." Bro. J. L. McLeord was chosen as subsequent moderator.

The first baptism was recorded on September 22, 1908--one week later. The first pastor called was N.W. Hallcomb, on January 17, 1909, and he accepted the call on March 20, 1909 for one year. On March 21, 1909 the first revival was set; the first mission offering was taken, and the first building fund was started. On February 12, 1910, that first revival scheduled earlier was held.

On August 24, 1910, the church called Bro. A.S. Wilson as pastor for one year. This call was renewed twice. By 1911, in the minutes, the church was referred to as "The First Baptist Church."

In 1912, the church voted its first disciplinary motion. The response to this motion was given March 24, 1912. In September of 1912, the first motion to withdraw fellowship from a member was made and passed.

Rev. R.L. English was called as pastor on November 3, 1913 and he served until May of 1915. On September 1, 1915, Bro. Pirl Ross was voted as pastor, but he asked to be released on October 24, 1915. The record does not show whether he served as pastor or not.

On February 27, 1916, Rev. Sebe Thomas was called as pastor and he accepted. Bro. Thomas served until he resigned on November 7, 1920. On November 16, 1921, Rev. A.E. Bradbury was called as pastor and served one year. It was the policy or tradition of the church at this time to call the pastor one year at a time.

Rev. W.L. Masegel received a unanimous call on September 27, 1925. Problems began to occur at this time. They included: 1) The building (brick) was considered unsafe; 2) Fellowship was withdrawn from two members; 3) Difficulties over finances and the church budget occurred; 4) The congregation eventually moved to the old wood building; 5) Several members left and asked for their letters of membership; 6) Finally a motion was passed which disapproved of the attitude of Dr. J. Frank Norris and his followers. As a result of these problems, the church split up! Two separate factions existed; and although meetings for reconciliation

Woodson cheerleaders attend

1986-87 Woodson cheerleaders left last Monday to attend cheerleading camp at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

Cheerleaders attending the camp were Melinda Burns, senior; Michelle Whitfield, junior; and Tina Peaceck, freshman.

Also attending were Mary Mathis, senior, who will be mascot during the upcoming year.

The girls attended the camp to better prepare themselves to lead and promote cowboy pride and spirit during the year at Woodson High School.

Sisters participate in dedication ceremony

Rea Donohue of Breckenridge and her sister, Ophelia Kessler of New Castle traveled to Crockett in Houston County, June 12 to participate in a special dedication ceremony for one of their earlier ancestors.

John Swanson Yarbrough Sr. and his two older sons, Joseph Randolph Yarbrough and John Swanson Yarbrough Jr. fought in the battle of San Jacinto in 1836. As a sesquicentennial celebration, Houston County honored their forefathers by erecting historical markers and the two ladies were sent a special invitation to attend and participate in these ceremonies as fifth generation delegates.

John Swanson Yarbrough was the women's great-great-great-grandfather.

The women also attended a special birthday celebration for Houston County for their 149th year. They were extended special invitations to return next June 12 and participate in the 150th birthday celebration and dedication.

The women said, "It was quite a thrill to stand where our ancestors had stood 150 years ago."

The women also reported very beautiful countryside on their trip and reported they had traced their family back to 1652. At the present time the women are working with the date 1065 A.D. and report, "We haven't completely tied all the ends together as yet, but we plan to."

They are making plans to attend the birthday celebration next year.

BISD agrees to study what is expected from

Members of the board of trustees of Breckenridge Independent School District (BISD) heard a report Tuesday night from representatives of Breckenridge Families In Action (BFIA), a group recently formed by local parents to provide activities for youth to participate in throughout the year.

BFIA is made up of representatives of parents, as well as members of law enforcement, ministerial alliance, and one school board member—Mike Thornton—who abstained from any action taken by the school board Tuesday in reference to the program. Group members who addressed trustees included Bob Sims, Shelley Carstens, and Ronnie Pendleton.

One of the things being planned by BFIA, described as a community action program, is a presentation of the "New Focus" program in Breckenridge. Members of BFIA addressed school board trustees and explained the purpose of their organization, as well as the program planned to begin in November.

The New Focus program is a training program conducted by professionals, to teach parents and students how to react to peer pressures of youth and how to become leaders instead of followers. The program is designed to "change and

Letters to the Editor

Editor,

Please print this letter to show our gratitude to the fine people of Stephens County. The Wayland 4-H fund raiser chili supper was a huge success thanks to generous local support.

Thanks goes to Breckenridge American, KSTB Radio, Texas American Bank, Citizens National Bank, Olney Savings and Loan, Wal-Mart, Winn Dixie, Breckenridge Affiliated, Pioneer Packing, Bill Killion, Billy Sam Fambro, Mac Machen, and many others who helped and donated.

Thanks to all the ladies who donated baked goods and also to all the members and parents that helped pull this off.

A special thanks to the band members who donated their time and talents: Bill Montgomery, E. W. (Bud) Lowrance, Henry Gillentine, Rea Donahue, and David Robertson. They did a fantastic job entertaining.

Thanks also to each one who supported us by attending. Hope you had a big time.

Billie Jacobson (shown) and Rebecca McLerran attended a reception at the Governor's Mansion in Austin December 12. The governor's Christmas tree is decorated with handpainted ornaments from 141 counties, including this one depicting the painted rocks which Jacobson painted. # Judge Harry D. Williams Buried On Prairie

By BARBARA LEDBETTER

A soldier of three wars and his wife, a true pioneer woman lie buried within a stones throw of Newcastle's east city limits and in what has heretofore been unrecorded, the Williams cemetery. The site is located south of highway 24 and on part of the old Williams ranch property. The graves are those of Harry Daniels Williams who was Young county's first county judge after the 1874 re-organization of the county, and his wife Sally Jane (Alexander) Williams.

Judge Harry D. Williams saw the land of Texas long before his 1859 arrival in Young county where he lived until his death on March 4, 1900.

The Williams and Alexander families were natives of Clark County (formed in 1792 out of Virginia), Kentucky, the famous bluegrass country. Harry and Sally's parents settled in Clark county where the first settlers found some cornfields that had been cultivated by the Indians many years before.

Williams was born in Kentucky in 1822. The people of Clark county with that chivalrous spirit of pioneers turned out 900 soldiers in the War of 1812; in the Mexican War it furnished one company, that of Gen. John S. "Cerro Gordo" Williams; the civil war saw three Confederate companies and one Federal company of men from Clark county.

It was in the "Cerro Gordo" Williams' company that twenty-five year old Harry D. Williams and his brother William soldiered. Williams often talked of experiences of the Mexican war and the hardships of U. S. troops while foraging for themselves deep in Mexican territory.

After the war he returned to Kentucky where in 1848 he married Sarah "Sally" Jane Alexander. They soon returned to Texas, settled in Kaufman county for five years before coming to Young. He did some prospecting and was primarily a cattleman. He had no sooner arrived in Young county and found himself involved in another kind of war, that of coping with the trouble some maurauding Indian.

The infamous Elm creek raid of 1864 caught him away from home and at Weatherford on business. It was his wife, Sally Jane, who was talked about as the real heroine of that day. It was she who took rapid leave from home and successfully hid in the briar and plum thickets some of the Bragg children, the Johnson children, and also Mrs. John Stanley and children who were visiting the Williams home. To keep that many women and children hidden and quiet all day long was heroic enough but she accomplished more.

Her children and grandchildren often heard the story of how Mrs. Stanley's long braids of hair (always looped together with leather strings from buckskin) got caught between two limbs of a tree as she literally went sliding down the bank of Elm creek. The heavy long hair braids kept her captive until Sally Jane scampered back up the bank, with Indians yelping in the distance, and released Mrs. Stanley from her misery. Like Daniel Boone and his rifle Tick-Licker, Sally Jane always carried a pocket knife in the pocket of her ballooned skirts. This knife came handy and she wielded it to good cause on more than the one occasion of cutting Mrs. Stanley's braids loose from the tree limbs. Her reputation was that she never shrank from difficulty but went forth with unflinching purpose. She will be remembered as having as strong a character as any woman on the Texas frontier and for this reason she never became a casualty of the Indian wars and she lived to see the glimmer of the twentieth century.

It was Harry and Sally's fifteen year old son, Samuel D., who found the silver medallion at the site of the October 13, 1864 Elm Creek battle. The medallion was an adornment hanging from the neck of Chief Little Buffalo or one of his Kiowa-Commanche warriors. The medallion has the likeness of President James Monroe and is dated 1817. (It is now the possession of Mrs. Blanche Bogan, Fort Worth, a great grand daughter of Harry D. Williams.)

Harry D. Williams, at the age of 40 and still a zealous friend of American liberty, was riding as first sergeant in Charlie Neuhaus' company of the famed frontier regiment. It was while in this regiment and toward the end of the civil war that he was mustered into Confederate ranks along with other members of the frontier regiment.

Williams served as justice of the peace, commissioner, sheriff, and county judge of Young county. He was one of those who proposed that Belknap remain the seat of county government and he participated thrice in the hotly contested Graham vs Belknap county seat issue. His son became county sheriff as did his grand son, the late Henry C. Williams, Jr.

Williams "fenced" land and later leased grazing land at 1¢ per acre from the T. E. & L. Co. He helped the surveyors and took his pay in land. It was his two sons, Henry C. Williams and Roger Q. who were at the turn of the century digging, hauling, and selling coal from the shallow veins of coal along Whiskey creek and near what later became Newcastle. The land where Newcastle is located today was sold by Williams' sons to J. J. Perkins and it became known as Perkins townsite. Williams' wish was to be buried on his own land. The Williams burial ground is part of his original holdings. The land is now owned by the J. C. Chappells; the cemetery is located near the west edge of the

★ It is an historical fact that on a spring day in 1879 the real Lottie Deno, who later became the legendary "One-Eyed-Lottie" in story and song, passed through Graham on a stage coach without so much as a mention in the news or a ripple of recorded gossip among the townsmen.

She was a fabulous lady in a plumed hat and a brocaded dress bound for Fort Worth when she boarded the stage in front of the wooden Occidental Hotel in Fort Griffin. With her trunk and bags safely atop the stage, she sat on a seat between two drummers. The cool, always sober, poker playing dame rode the dusty, narrow, rough road through the Belknap hills, down by the Jeffry Saloon in Graham, in front of the old stone courthouse in Jacksboro all the while in possession of a cache of money. Only the night before she had "scooped in the money" at the poker tables in Fort Griffin.

Where Lottie Deno came from or where she went or who she "really" was has never been known.

★ It's an historical fact that during the first dry, dusty, windy week of May, 1878 Judge R. Fleming and S. C. Buck left Graham in a buggy (they were leading a horse). While traveling the 1st class milepost-studded Graham-Jacksboro road, they passed a wagon loaded with buffalo hides which was also traveling east on the road. The lead horse on the wagon became frightened at the buggy's passing and it began kicking, and jumping sidewise. In doing so, it broke spokes from the hind wheel of the buggy. The commotion in turn excited the horses pulling the buggy and they, too, were running sidewise. The wheel on the buggy gave way. The obese judge (240 pounds) fell head first from the buggy. Badly cut and bruised with a dislocated right shoulder, the judge continued in court the following week.

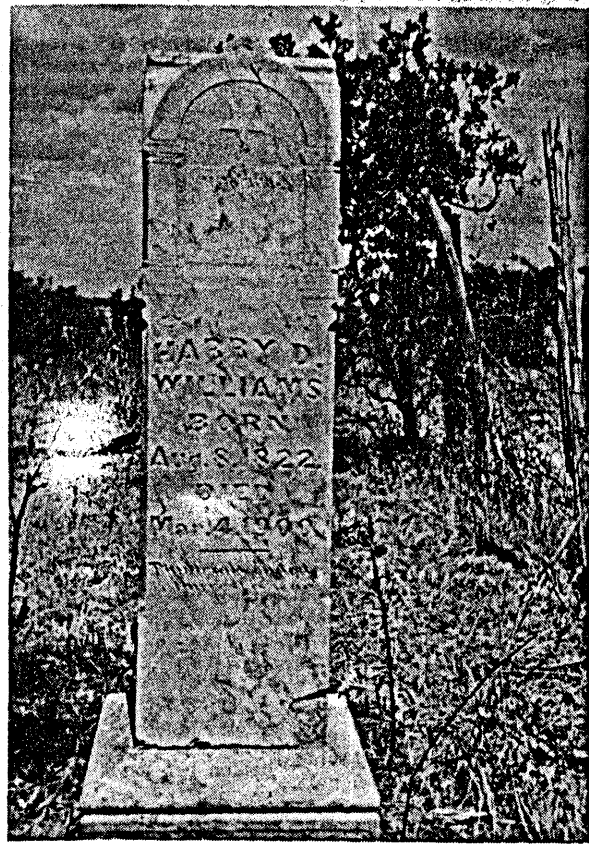

★ It is an historical fact that a party of Pawnee Indians passed through or near Graham in June, 1878 on their way from Jacksboro to Fort Griffin to the west. They were paying a friendly visit to the Tonkawas who were then living at Fort Griffin.

★ It's an historical fact that on August 6, 1879 Horse Thieves and Moonshiners were in the news in Graham. It was on this date that "Deputy U. S. Marshal Walter Johnson arrived here with twelve prisoners." He captured a sixty-gallon still and the proprietor on Muck Creek in Palo Pinto County on the 4th. In Palo Pinto on the same date "the sheriff and his posse attempted to arrest the Jones outfit of horse thieves. A fight ensued. Larkin Jones was killed, John Jones was wounded and the old man Jones, Enoch Jones and two others were captured. The posse left one of their number, Jack Morris, to guard the wounded Jones. Morris assisted Jones to escape and was then arrested himself. At one o'clock in the morning on August 6, 1879, 25 masked men overpowered the guard, the mob struck matches and by their light shot Morris in his cell." Consequently the U. S. Marshall delivered twelve prisoners to the Graham jail while they were yet "alive."

★ The often exaggerated romance of the early pioneers' life in this prairie country sometimes overshadowed the troublesome every day problems of life. The struggling town dwellers had to contend with streets littered with boots, oyster cans, bottles, paper, etc. Swine were allowed to run free and were a constant bother; the best seller on the shelves of the general store was liquid for exterminating bedbugs—and liquid blueing for the daily wash was a prized possession. Netting (when it could be found) was spread over the bedsteads to keep away the pesky mosquitoes; asafetida was sold to wear around the neck to ward off colds and licorice was a popular medicine—or candy whichever was needed.

★ It is an historical fact that the "first" election to "determine whether the village of Graham shall be incorporated" was called for in 1878 when Judge E. T. Hilliard set the election to be held on Feb. 30th (sic) 1878. Appointed as election judge was W. P. Beckham. "The said town if it be incorporated—to be known as the Town of Graham."

property and can be seen about 3/8th mile from the road.

A. D. Chandler (a Civil war veteran who died in 1881) and H. M. Chandler were buried in the Williams plot but were re-interred at Newcastle cemetery. Albert Sydney Johnston Williams and a Williams infant are buried at the site.

Harry and Sally (see photo) like many pioneers, took into their humble home many individuals and families who had not yet established themselves with a home. Sally took several children (one of which was her sister's baby—David "Dink" Allen) to rear. This old time custom practice by the real humanitarians was carried on another generation by their sons.

They were parents of eleven children: Samuel D. William; Albert S. J.; Horace Greeley; Hiram; John; Blanche, (m. Dr. Wm. Benoit Pope); James "Jim" Randolph (m. Florence Alexander); Bee (m. Alice Woods); Henry C., Sr. (m. Martha Jane Johnson, daughter of S. P. Johnson); and Roger Q., Sr. (m. Mary Elizabeth Johnston, daughter of Professor J. N. Johnston).

Harry D. was a Universalist and for as long as he was able, he made an annual trip to Hico, Texas where the Texas convention was held.

Son Roger had children: James, Georgia Alice, Laura Jewel, Zuna Lucille, William, Roger Q. and Virgil; Son Henry had children: S. P. J. "John," Bee, Henry C., Jr., Roland, Martha Lou, and Sally Jane.

Williams elected to Young Soil, Water Conservation Board

Horace (Pooch) Williams of Newcastle was recently elected to the Young Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors. Williams represents Zone 5 of the district.

Williams

The purpose of the Young SWCD, with headquarters in Graham is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranchlands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters.

The board of directors coordinate the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with these governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

As one of five individuals serving on the district board of directors, Williams will be responsible for district policies and procedures for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas Soil Conservation district law.

Williams and his wife Beverly have one daughter, Teresa Williams Jones. Williams previously served as a director for 14 years on the Ft. Belknap Water Supply Corporation.

In Texas there are 210 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have the power of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the district are of a voluntary nature to the landowners of operator.

The Young SWCD is made up of five different zones within the county. Each zone is represented by a director elected by agricultural landowners. The current board members are: Jerold Jeske - Zone 1; John Hatler - Zone 2; George Birdwell - Zone 3; Mary Jane Byerly - Zone 4; Horace Williams - Zone 5.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

BLESSINGS

What a joy to watch the Lord work in our presence in the past days! What a wonderful service it was when we baptized SIX into our church family, shared the Lord's Supper, and had a dessert fellowship afterwards...Did you notice that there were almost seventy people here on a Sunday night?! Perhaps you have not taken notice of all the ways God is working...Look at the one-on-one soul-winning being done through our members, the increased Sunday school attendance, and VISITORS AND NEW MEMBERS, notice the increased interest in the church activities, such as the associational meeting, the youth and adult trips to Witchita Falls, the spirit of PRAYER AND UNITY, sense the vision for what God can do here when we are obedient! How can YOU help this continue?

- 1) Continue to PRAY for a spirit of humility obedience, love, and evangelism.
- 2) Continue to grow in obedience to God's Word.
- 3) Search your life and confess and repent of sin...pray that God would reveal your sins to you.
- 4) Be faithful to your church, its opportunities, its needs, and its ministries.
- 5) BRAG ON GOD!! He is the One working in our midst...give Him the glory and praise... He is the "One God and Father of all, Who is above all, and through all, and in you all." (Eph. 4:6).

"Call on Me, and I will answer you, and show you mighty things which you do not know."

Jeremiah 33:3

Searching for Indexed Terms<sup>1</sup>

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched<sup>2</sup>. First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
