Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

James Yarbrough b. 22 Jul 1785 in Abbeville S.C.
Elizabeth P. Harris b. 8 Aug 1790 (his wife)
Married 20 Nov 1805 (in Clarke Co, Ga as "Eliza" Harris)

Their chn:

- Thomas Y. Yarbrough b. 14 Nov 1807 in Ga
 - b. 10 May 1810 in Ga
 - Reubin S. Yarbrough b. 14 Nov 1812
 - Jemima Yarbrough b. 24 Aug 1815
 - b. 2 Dec 1817
 - William T. Yarbrough b. 27 Mar 1820
 - Martha A. Yarbrough b. 29 Jul 1822
 - James Walton Yarbrough b. 4 Sep 1824 in Henry Co, Ga
 - Silas J.L. Yarbrough b. 25 Nov 1826
 - Levi J. Yarbrough b. 13 Nov 1828
 - Joseph M. Yarbrough b. 6 Dec 1836
- (I think Elizabeth b. 1833 should be on this list)

For marriages of the above children of James & Elizabeth:

- Reubin S. Yarbrough & Amelia Waldroup - 11 Sep 1834, Henry Co, Ga
- Jemima Yarbrough & John Wesley Mitchell - 11 Jan 1843, De Kalb Co, Ga
- James Walton Yarbrough & Harriett A.M. L. West 26 Dec 1844
- Silas J.L. or R? Yarbrough & Rhody Womack - 23 Dec 1844

The bible record goes on with the children of James Walton Yarbrough and his wife Harriett - none named Green or Greenberry. Yet your Greenberry Yarbrough was a resident? of the same county as this family of Yarbrough's from Abbeville District, S.C.

Sorry, but I think you have better records than I do. There may be a relationship - cousin's or some such thing. For the Abbeville District, S.C. Yarbrough's see YSA Vol 3, pg 32, who are said to descend from Moses of Craven County, S.C. I am of the belief that Moses of Craven County had more children than named in his will. Surely, he named a son Moses? There's a Moses, John F. and an Obediace was m. Royal H. Lipford all living in Abbeville District in 1800-1810 who are too old to be chn. of William of Abbeville.

Mr. Wood also sent the following information:

The Yarbrough family begins with a James Yarbrough, born July 22, 1785, where and when he died nobody knows, but I believe he died in Benton (later Calhoun) Co., Ala. since he wife, Elizabeth P. Harris, born Aug. 8, 1790 and according to the Mt. Zion Primitive Baptist Church records she died in 1868. James Walton and wife, Harriett M. West Yarbrough joined the church in 1868 and the church was constituted Dec. 21, 1867 by Elders Kinchen Rambo, Robert T. Speight and John W. Ward, and Thomas A. Duke was ordained a deacon. A. H. Yarbrough was received by experience. Other members of the church were William Duke, Thomas A. Duke and wife Tinsey Welcome Duke, N. A. Hamrick, John P. A. Wall, Richard T. Wall, James Duke, W. W. Sparks, W. T. Duke, William T. Duke, Jr., Ransom T. Chambers, Elizabeth Duke, Jane Duke, Henry E. Winfree and wife Sophronia E., Robert Hambrick and wife Martha Jane, from Mars Hill Church in Ala.

Mt. Zion was originally over in Polk Co., Ga., but around 1900 was moved over into Hartlason Co., Ga. The present church is on Hwy. 100 and the clerk is Elder H. J. Garnett who lives on Route 1, Felton, Ga. The original church was located on the old Cedartown road over in Polk Co., Ga., near Lime Branch Missionary Church.)

Dear Dick:

I was pleased to get your letter and wish that I could add something to your search. While I have a variety of Georgia records, I have none at all from either Fulton or Campbell County.

Check first the 1880 census as it shows the birthplace of the parents of all the residents in each household. Charles and/or Margaret may or may not be shown on the 1880 census. You show Charles W. ("CW") born 1857. If CW was the first born of Charles and Margaret, and if Charles was between 20-30 years of age when CW was born, by 1880 he would be between 43-53 years of age. If CW was one of the last children born, you can just about add 20 years to the age, making Charles 63-73 years of age in 1880.

You show William Enoch born August 1882. Again, if he was the first born, then CW and Louella may have married around 1880. In that case, CW might be shown as the head of a household in 1880. Or, if he was not yet married, he may be shown living in the home of his father Charles in 1880.

If William Enoch was at least the second child (or later), then CW and Louella should be shown in their own household in 1880.

If Charles is shown, you should get from the 1880 census not only his place of birth, but also the place of birth of his parents.

From CW's listing, you should be able to get his place of birth as well as where his father and mother were born.

Work backwards through the census records. The 1870 census should show Charles and Margaret with a son Charles or CW about age 12-13. You should also find some of his siblings on this listing.

The 1860 census should show Charles and Margaret with a son Charles or CW 2-3 years old.

C. Richard Yarbrough

The first child usually arrived within the first two years of marriage. If CW was the first born in 1857, then Charles and Margaret probably married about 1855. If he had older siblings, they should be listed on the 1860 census. If he was one of the last children born, then you should find Charles and Margaret listed on the 1850 census with their children.

The 1850 census is the first that listed all the members of the household. Until 1840, the census shows only the name of the head of the household with the sex and age groups of the other members of the family. You will see that when you look at it.

I have copies of the Georgia census index for 1850 and 1860 and it puzzles me that I see no Charles listed on either. In fact, there is no Fulton Co. Y. listed on the 1850 index. There could be a variety of reasons for this: the family was living elsewhere at the time of the census; was missed by the census taker; the transcriber misread the name and it may be listed under "Tarbrough" or possibly even "Zarbrough" or some other variation of the name. (I finally found my gg grandfather, Charles Yarbrough, listed under Zarbrough on the 1850 Davidson County, NC census index - the transcriber misread the Y for a Z -- the original census says Yarbrough.) Or, since father and son were both named Charles, perhaps they are shown under other names. Personally, I never depend on indexes. They are seldom complete.

The 1860 index shows in Fulton County:

Yarborough, H.	census page	883	(Old style "C" is often misread "H")
Yarborough, Larkin	"	"	867
Yarbrough, Henry W.	"	"	955
Yarbrough, Silas	"	"	954

It may be that you will have to read every page of the original Fulton County census to find your family.

Marriages usually took place in the bride's county of residence. The death certificate shows Margaret Nolan born in Campbell Co., Georgia. Once you look at the census records and see the ages of the children, you should have an approximate date of marriage which will make searching the marriage records easier.

As you look at the census records, watch for the names of other Y. families living nearby. It was a common practice for a man to give his son a tract of land when the son married. If you find two Y. families living near each other, they are usually related. If, however, they are living side by side and one is a generation older than the other, you can almost bet they were father and son. Deed records may prove the relationship.

Especially on the 1850 census, watch for a Nolan family living in the same area as the Y. family. If Charles and Margaret were married after 1850, you should find a Margaret near marriagable age in the household of her father.

As you know, the earliest Yarbroughs were in Virginia. In the 1750s they began to migrate to NC. From NC, they started the south and westward migrations. My ggggg uncle Manoah left the Granville County area of NC in the early 1760's and settled in Georgia. Several of the lines went to SC and then to Georgia.

You are fortunate to live in Atlanta where the state archives are located. As you know, many of the old county records are housed in the state archives which will make your search easier.

If you have already searched the census records, I'll be embarrassed that I sent you advice you didn't need. However, I'll try to suggest other records for you to look at. If you have not searched the census records, then it is possible you will find the information necessary to turn to other records. Check the indexes - if your men are not shown in Campbell or Fulton Counties, they may be listed elsewhere in Georgia.

If you have searched the census records, I'd next try the probate records for Fulton County. If Charles owned land, he may have left a will. If he didn't leave a will, then there should be an estate settlement which may name his children and give some information. At that time, men left their property to their wives for the wife's lifetime or widowhood. The final estate settlement may have occured when the wife died ... if Margaret outlived Charles by a number of years, the settlement could be quite a while after Charles died.

While you probably do not need this advice, I always give it to every researcher. Be sure to cite your references (location, book and page number) and record all the information found. The top of each census page gives the County, township or district and the date the census was taken. So many researchers have written down only the names and ages from the census records. The other information is important. The value of real estate, for example, is a clue. If the man owned land, then there will probably be deed records as well as an estate settlement. If the man could read and write, somewhere someone in the line may have a bible record.

As I mentioned, I have no records at all from the counties you will be searching. I would be very grateful for any Y. information you find that you will share with me. What I have to share with others is primarily what others have shared with me. What you find that does not help your own search may be the key that will open a door for another researcher. Someone out there may be holding the key to your research.

C. Richard Yarbrough

Looking at your pedigree chart, CW was born 1857. If Charles was between 21 and 45 years of age when CW was born, that will put his birth somewhere between 1812-1832. Charles may have been born in another state and migrated to Georgia as an adult. If Charles was born in Georgia and it was his father who migrated to Georgia, you will probably find yourself researching other Georgia counties. Campbell County was formed in 1828 from Carroll and Coweta Counties. Carroll and Coweta Counties were both formed in 1826 from Indian lands. Before 1826, the family would definitely have been in another county.

At any rate, let me know what you find. I do have records from other Georgia Counties and, if we can get a "fix" on your line, I'll be glad to check anything I have for you.

I hope you have a great holiday season.

Best wishes,

Karen S. Mazock

Joshua III died 1844 in Campbell Co., GA. By then he had married again for he names his wife Nancy Yarborough; sons: James, Joshua T., Thomas J., Uriah, Greenberry, George, Charles. Daughters: Elizabeth, Sarah, Elender, and ? (illegible).

It is not known if Joshua II remained in Mecklenburg until his death or if he went with Joshua III to Chester Co., SC. In the 1810 census of Chester Co. a Jos. Yarbrough, Sr., and Jos. Yarbrough, Jr., were listed. The age groups were right to be Joshua II and Joshua III, but Jos. usually stands for Joseph; however, on checking the deed index I found no Joseph buying or selling land. Only one Joshua was listed in the 1820 Chester Co. Census, so what happened to Joshua II is a mystery.

Shadrack Yarbrough was not in the 1800 census, but he appeared on the 1799 Tax List. Since Joshua, Sr., had a boy at home between 16 and 26 in 1800 and also two boys and two girls below 10, it could be that Shadrack had lost his wife and was living with his parents. However he could have been a bachelor.

Shadrack made entry for land in Mecklenburg Co. 22 Feb. 1792 and received 200 acres on 12 Apr. 1798. (Grant Book 98, p. 68) The land was located on the waters of Richardsons Creek. He made another entry 2 Jan. 1793 and received 72 acres on waters of Cain Creek on 9 Mar. 1799. He received a third grant from the state for 200 acres on Richardson Creek on Dec. 22, 1800. On June 21, 1802 Shadrack sold 72 acres on Waxhaw Creek to Peter Presly.

Shadrack remained in Mecklenburg until after 1840. He undoubtedly died there, for the court records show Ezekiel and Micogen were appointed administrators of his estate in Mecklenburg Co.

Shem Yarbrough was first found in Mecklenburg Co. in 1798 when he witnessed a deed for Joshua, Sr., when he sold land to Gideon Yarbrough. For some reason Shem was also left off the 1800 census, but in 1810 he was listed as between 26 and 45 with one son and three daughters below ten years old. His wife was also between 26 and 45.

In 1810 Joshua Yarbrough made entry for 150 acres on Richardson Creek and received it 4 Dec. 1811. The land was described as "lying on the south side of Beaverdam Creek where Shem Yarborow now lives.

This is the last entry for Joshua Yarbrough and we wonder if this land was given to Shem, for Shem lived on in Mecklenburg County until after 1840. In 1850 he is listed in the Washington Co., TN, census with a wife Nelly. She is 76 and Shem is 75. Children listed are Eulin, 15; Polly, 12; Clinton, 11; Dicy, 8. Perhaps they are grandchildren since they are too old to have such young children. Listed next door is a Jephtha Yarborough, age 52, who was listed with Shem in the 1840 Mecklenburg Co. census. He has wife Elizabeth, 36; children, Alonza, 18; Francis M. 16; Talbot C., 14; Lucinda, 11; Middleton M., 6; Burt R., 3. Also listed with him is a William Yarbrough, 39, who was also in the 1840 Mecklenburg census.

REUBEN YARBROUGH, our ancestor, will be discussed in the next part.

July 6, 1872 Testimony of Sophia Lane - states she is over 62, that claimant's daughter.

Aug. 9, 1873. Widow's testimony - they had 10 children. Sarah Lane

Dear Ophelia:

I have been in contact with Karen Mazock to try to prove who my great-grandfather is. My Grandfather died when I was 17 years old and never mentioned his father as far I remember. The problem was that I did not think to ask my Grandfather anything about his family.

On another sheet of this letter I have listed all the information that I know as of now. Would you please search through your files to see if you may have any information that may be of interest to me. Some of this information has not been proven. In fact the only proven information is the copy of the 1880 Census Record for Calhoun County, Alabama, listing my Great-Grandmother's family. I have no birth certificates to prove that. I have been in contact with several older neices of Mary Ann Ray and found out the names of Mary Ann's parents and sisters and brothers.

I am at a loss for any information on my great-grand father Yarbrough. I have enclosed a copy of the only marriage license for a Mary Ann Ray and a John Yarbrough in the 1880's. I do know my Great-Grandparents' names from my own Grandfather's death certificate. The aunt that was listed as the informant on my Grandfather's death certificate swore to me, before I received a copy of the certificate, that she did not know the names of my Great-grandparents. Now that she knows that I know their names, she says that she knows nothing else.

I have been in contact with Mr. Harold Yarbrough of Lacey, Washington, by phone. I found his name and address through a query published in The Yarbrough Family Magazine, volume 1, no.6, the Oct-Nov issue. I am enclosing a copy of his query for you to use as a reference. I could not be of any assistance to Mr. Yarbrough with his query. He was very nice and asked me to send any information that I have, proven and unproven. He said that the name Roden sounded very familiar to him. I have prepared a package of information to send to him. After he receives my information, he will search his files for any information that may be of interest to me.

Mr. Yarbrough said that the copy of the 1880 census record for Calhoun County that I sent to you is referring to the James Walton Yarbrough in his query. Mr. Yarbrough stated that the James he inquired about is the same age as the one listed on the census record. Mr. Yarbrough also stated that the father of James Walton Yarbrough was also named James. The father, James, was located in Calhoun County, Alabama in the 1850's, and then moved to Rome, Georgia, then back to Calhoun County, Alabama. I hoping that Mr. Harold Yarbrough can give me some useful information. Even though I have been searching for a short two years, I have learned not to let my hopes get too high.

I have located records of my Grandfather's membership by experience at the Oak Bowery Baptist Church in Ohatchee, Alabama. That occurred 3-Sept-1899. I also have been told where the Ray family went to church when they lived in Rome, Georgia. I have written to that church in hopes of find out facts on membership of any Ray or Yarbrough and where their letters were sent to in Alabama.

I am planning a trip to the Calhoun Courthouse in Anniston, Alabama to research for deeds, marriage bond, wills, letters of administrations. If you think of any other souces of information that I should check, please let me know.

I am becoming a member of the Yarbrough NGHHA and hope to receive so maybe I can receive some help through that source also.

Thanks so much for your time and help.

Sincerely,

Tressa Riddle

Dear Ophelia,

Thanks so much for all the good stuff you sent. I'm copying what I want and sending on to Beulah. I got a good picture of you and Rea at Rockdale. I had 2 prints made and sent Beulah one, but can't find the other one right now.

I'm sending a check for $3 to cover postage at least.
This is a good picture I'm returning.

Your fellow genealogy nut,

Lenorah Ivy Yarbree's Quilt

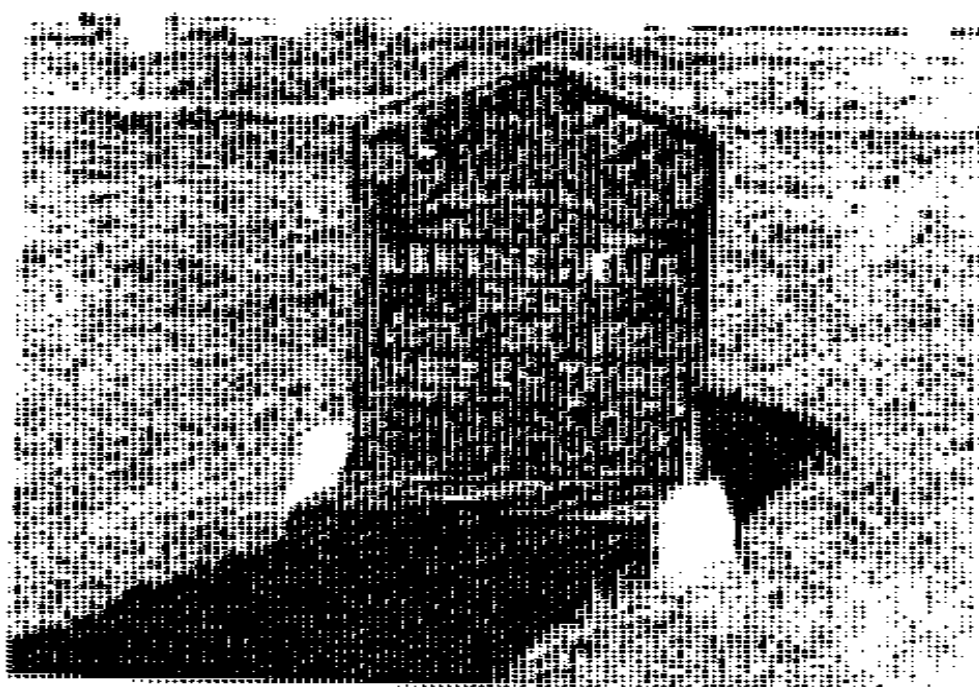

In 1987, a flabbergasted great-granddaughter, Beulah Grummet was told by an aunt, her father's sister Bertie Palmer, that she had an old quilt in her attic quilt box that was made by Lenorah Yarbree.

Lenorah (1826-1910) was the second wife of Greenberry Yarbree (Yarborough, Yarbrough). She was the mother of Lenorah Fairlee Becker (1863-1951), Lenorah Seabell Hall (1865-1914) and Frances Lenorah Black Dennis (1868-1917). She had married March 26, 1861.

The tattered quilt was lovingly made into priceless treasures for the oldest daughters of her oldest daughter, Fairlee Becker, and their oldest daughters. What a joy to have a part of her and her life to go with her picture.

The quilt was possibly made between 1861, at the age of 35 and 1880 age 54. She was 84 at her death in 1910. She is buried in "Old City Cemetery", Madisonville, (Madison County) Texas. Buried but long and lovingly remembered.

Lemora Guy Yarborough Wells

She was the daughter of Garret Guy and Rose Ann Cain. She was born 1826; married Green Perry Yarborough (1820-1870) on March 26, 1861. She was the sister of Susan Guy who married John Becker. Her daughters were Fannie, Isabelle "Lill", and Frances "Fannie".

After death of B B G, she married Harrison Wells (1823-1891). She is buried in the Madisonville City Cemetery, Madison County, Texas in the Becker plot by her son John Caleb Becker and his wife Lemora Belle Yarborough (Barbee).

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.
