Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want...

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters...

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over...

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Newcastle bank robbed of $12,

By CHERYL SMITH
Leader News Staff

A Graham man and a woman from Fort Worth were arraigned Tuesday afternoon and charged with aggravated robbery following their arrest shortly after the pair allegedly robbed the Farmers National Bank in Newcastle of more than $12,000.

Randy Balderson, Young County Justice of the Peace, set bond at $250,000 each on John Robert Hawthorne, 36, of Graham and Alta Faye Teague, 46, of Fort Worth.

The pair was arrested by Olney Police Chief Cliff Blackstock only minutes after the robbery was reported to the Young County Sheriff's Department.

The pair allegedly entered the Newcastle bank at approximately 7:10 a.m., banishing two blue steel pistols and wearing bandana masks.

The bank, which normally opens at 7:30 a.m., was open at the time of the robbery as the bank president, Dutch Morgan, kept an early morning appointment with a customer. The pair entered the banking institution and took more than $12,000 in cash from the front teller counter as well as the vault.

After locking Morgan and the customer in the vault, the duo fled the scene. As the suspects left the bank, a female bank employee arrived at work and saw the pair leaving. She immediately released Morgan and the customer from the vault and notified law enforcement officials of the incident.

Young County Sheriff's Department officers were able to obtain a description of the vehicle shortly after arriving at the scene and the description was broadcast to law enforcement officers in the surrounding area.

Blackstock, who was traveling down Highway 3329, saw the

Judge Harry D. Williams Buried On Prairie

By BARBARA LEDBETTER

A soldier of three wars and his wife, a true pioneer woman lie buried within a stones throw of Newcastle's east city limits and in what has heretofore been unrecorded, the Williams cemetery. The site is located south of highway 24 and on part of the old Williams ranch property. The graves are those of Harry Daniels Williams who was Young county's first county judge after the 1874 re-organization of the county, and his wife Sally Jane (Alexander) Williams.

Judge Harry D. Williams saw the land of Texas long before his 1859 arrival in Young county where he lived until his death on March 4, 1900.

The Williams and Alexander families were natives of Clark County (formed in 1792 out of Virginia), Kentucky, the famous bluegrass country. Harry and Sally's parents settled in Clark county where the first settlers found some cornfields that had been cultivated by the Indians many years before.

Williams was born in Kentucky in 1822. The people of Clark county with that chivalrous spirit of pioneers turned out 900 soldiers in the War of 1812; in the Mexican War it furnished one company, that of Gen. John S. "Cerro Gordo" Williams; the civil war saw three Confederate companies and one Federal company of men from Clark county.

It was in the "Cerro Gordo" Williams' company that twenty-five year old Harry D. Williams and his brother William soldiered. Williams often talked of experiences of the Mexican war and the hardships of U. S. troops while foraging for themselves deep in Mexican territory.

After the war he returned to Kentucky where in 1848 he married Sarah "Sally" Jane Alexander. They soon returned to Texas, settled in Kaufman county for five years before coming to Young. He did some prospecting and was primarily a cattleman. He had no sooner arrived in Young county and found himself involved in another kind of war, that of coping with the trouble some marauding Indian.

The infamous Elm creek raid of 1864 caught him away from home and at Weatherford on business. It was his wife, Sally Jane, who was talked about as the real heroine of that day. It was she who took rapid leave from home and successfully hid in the briar and plum thickets some of the Bragg children, the Williams children, the Johnson children, and also Mrs. John Stanley and children who were visiting the Williams home. To keep that many women and children hidden and quiet all day long was heroic enough but she accomplished more.

Her children and grandchildren often heard the story of how Mrs. Stanley's long braids of hair (always looped together with leather strings from buckskin) got caught between two limbs of a tree as she literally went sliding down the bank of Elm creek. The heavy long hair braids kept her captive until Sally Jane scampered back up the bank, with Indians yelping in the distance, and released Mrs. Stanley from her misery. Like Daniel Boone and his rifle Tick-Licker, Sally Jane always carried a pocket knife in the pocket of her ballooned skirts. This knife came handy and she wielded it to good cause on more than the one occasion of cutting Mrs. Stanley's braids loose from the tree limbs. Her reputation was that she never shrank from difficulty but went forth with unflinching purpose. She will be remembered as having as strong a character as any woman on the Texas frontier and for this reason she never became a casualty of the Indian wars and she lived to see the glimmer of the twentieth century.

It was Harry and Sally's fifteen year old son, Samuel D., who found the silver medallion at the site of the October 13, 1864 Elm Creek battle. The medallion was an adornment hanging from the neck of Chief Little Buffalo or one of his Kiowa-Commanche warriors. The medallion has the likeness of President James Monroe and is dated 1817. (It is now the possession of Mrs. Blanche Bogan, Fort Worth, a great grand daughter of Harry D. Williams.)

Harry D. Williams, at the age of 40 and still a zealous friend of American liberty, was riding as first sergeant in Charlie Neuhaus' company of the famed frontier regiment. It was while in this regiment and toward the end of the civil war that he was mustered into Confederate ranks along with other members of the frontier regiment.

Williams served as justice of the peace, commissioner, sheriff, and county judge of Young county. He was one of those who proposed that Belknap remain the seat of county government and he participated thrice in the hotly contested Graham vs Belknap county seat issue. His son became county sheriff as did his grand son, the late Henry C. Williams, Jr.

Williams "fenced" land and later leased grazing land at 1¢ per acre from the T. E. & L. Co. He helped the surveyors and took his pay in land. It was his two sons, Henry C. and Roger Q. who were at the turn of the century digging, hauling, and selling coal from the shallow veins of coal along Whiskey creek and near what later became Newcastle. The land where Newcastle is located today was sold by Williams' sons to J. J. Perkins and it became known as Perkins town-site.

Williams' wish was to be buried on his own land. The Williams burial ground is part of his original holdings. The land is now owned by the J. C. Chappels; the cemetery is located near the west edge of the

★ It is an historical fact that on a spring day, in 1879 the real Lottie Deno, who later became the legendary "One-Eyed-Lottie" in story and song, passed through Graham on a stage coach without so much as a mention in the news or a ripple of recorded gossip among the townsmen.

She was a fabulous lady in a plumed hat and a brocaded dress bound for Fort Worth when she boarded the stage in front of the wooden Occidental Hotel in Fort Griffin. With her trunk and bags safely atop the stage, she sat on a seat between two drummers. The cool, always sober, poker playing dame rode the dusty, narrow, rough road through the Belknap hills, down by the Jeffry Saloon in Graham, in front of the old stone courthouse in Jacksboro all the while in possession of a cache of money. Only the night before she had "scooped in the money" at the poker tables in Fort Griffin.

Where Lottie Deno came from or where she went or who she "really" was has never been known.

★ It's an historical fact that during the first dry, dusty, windy week of May, 1878 Judge J. R. Fleming and S. C. Buck left Graham in a buggy (they were leading a horse). While traveling the 1st class milepost-studded Graham-Jacksboro road, they passed a wagon loaded with buffalo hides which was also traveling east on the road. The lead horse on the wagon became frightened at the buggy's passing and it began kicking, and jumping sidewise. In doing so, it broke spokes from the hind wheel of the buggy. The commotion in turn excited the horses pulling the buggy and they, too, were running sidewise. The wheel on the buggy gave way. The obese judge (240 pounds) fell head first from the buggy. Badly cut and bruised with a dislocated right shoulder, the judge continued in court the following week.

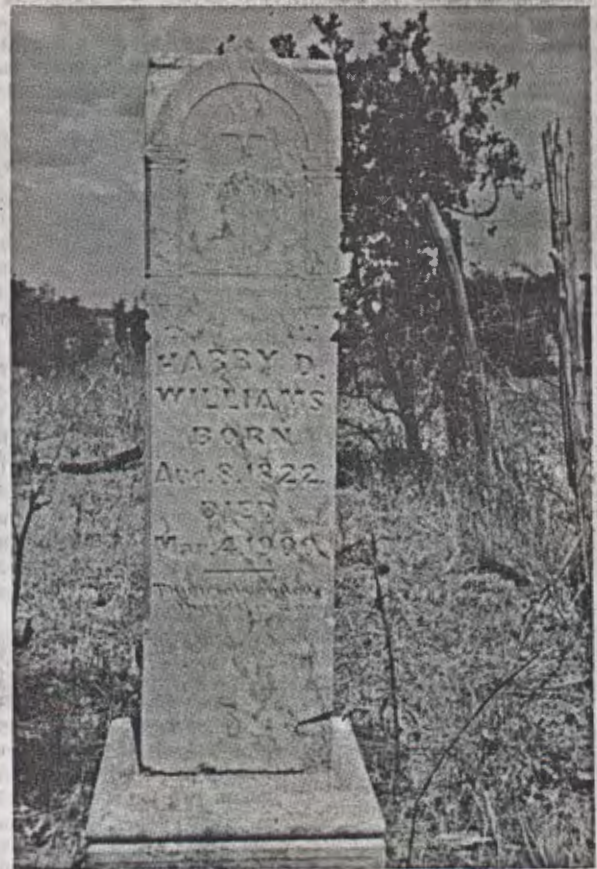

★ It is an historical fact that a party of Pawnee Indians passed through or near Graham in June, 1878 on their way from Jacksboro to Fort Griffin to the west. They were paying a friendly visit to the Tonkawas who were then living at Fort Griffin.

★ It's an historical fact that on August 6, 1879 Horse Thieves and Moonshiners were in the news in Graham. It was on this date that "Deputy U. S. Marshal Walter Johnson arrived here with twelve prisoners." He captured a sixty-gallon still and the proprietor on Muck Creek in Palo Pinto County on the 4th. In Palo Pinto on the same date "the sheriff and his posse attempted to arrest the Jones outfit of horse thieves. A fight ensued. Larkin Jones was killed, John Jones was wounded and the old man Jones, Enoch Jones and two others were captured. The posse left one of their number, Jack Morris, to guard the wounded Jones. Morris assisted Jones to escape and was then arrested himself. At one o'clock in the morning on August 6, 1879, 25 masked men overpowered the guard, the mob struck matches and by their light shot Morris in his cell." Consequently the U. S. Marshall delivered twelve prisoners to the Graham jail while they were yet "alive."

★ The often exaggerated romance of the early pioneers' life in this prairie country sometimes overshadowed the troublesome every day problems of life. The struggling town dwellers had to contend with streets littered with boots, oyster cans, bottles, paper, etc. Swine were allowed to run free and were a constant bother; the best seller on the shelves of the general store was liquid for exterminating bedbugs—and liquid blueing for the daily wash was a prized possession. Netting (when it could be found) was spread over the bedsteads to keep away the pesky mosquitoes; asafetida was sold to ward off colds and licorice was a popular medicine—or candy whichever was needed.

★ It is an historical fact that the "first" election to "determine whether the village of Graham shall be incorporated" was called for in 1878 when Judge E. T. Hilliard set the election to be held on Feb. 30th (sic) 1878. Appointed as election judge was W. P. Beckham. "The said town if it be incorporated—to be known as the Town of Graham."

property and can be seen about 3/8th mile from the road.

A. D. Chandler (a Civil war veteran who died in 1881) and H. M. Chandler were buried in the Williams plot but were re-interred at Newcastle cemetery. Albert Sydney Johnston Williams and a Williams infant are buried at the site.

Harry and Sally (see photo) like many pioneers, took into their humble home many individuals and families who had not yet established themselves with a home. Sally took several children (one of which was her sister's baby—David "Dink" Allen) to rear. This old time custom practice by the real humanitarians was carried on another generation by their sons.

They were parents of eleven children; Samuel D. Wil-lain; Albert S. J.; Horace Greeley; Hiram; John; Blanche, (m. Dr. Wm. Benoit Pope); James "Jim" Randolph (m. Florence Alexander); Bee (m. Alice Woods); Henry C., Sr. (m. Martha Jane Johnson, daughter of S. P. Johnson); and Roger Q., Sr. (m. Mary Elizabeth Johnston, daughter of Professor J. N. Johnston).

Harry D. was a Universalist and for as long as he was able, he made an annual trip to Hico, Texas where the Texas convention was held.

Son Roger had children: James, Georgia Alice, Laura Jewel, Zuna Lucille, William, Roger Q. and Virgil; Son Henry had children: S. P. J. "John," Bee, Henry C., Jr., Roland, Martha Lou, and Sally Jane.

THE SHEAF OF WHEAT . . .

SYMBOL OF CHRISTIAN FAITH

The seeds of faith are sown in the human personality and grow into the mature faith of the Christian man or woman. The sown seed must lose its life in order that it may develop and grow and multiply. . . . So, symbolically, a sheaf of wheat is used by Christians to mark the passing of a fellow Christian.

Death is not the end but the beginning of life eternal. The mature grain in the sheaf is the direct symbol of the Resurrection - - - the life beyond the grave, the fulfillment of the Promises of Jesus Christ.

LOCAL BOY RECOMMENDED FOR EDISON MEDAL

James Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, who is now employed by the Community Public Service Co. as a lineman at Perryton, Texas, has been recommended for an Edison Medal, given to members of the electrical industry who save another's life at the risk of their own.

Brooks was cited for his prompt action in saving Bob Wilcox, another lineman, who came in contact with a 33,000 volt line while working on the line between Perryton and Spearman Nov. 3.

Brooks had just completed the changeover of insulators from a lower wire and was working on an insulator above when the electricity "arced" to Wilcox's body, sending the 33,000 volts coursing through his body.

Brooks grabbed a "hot stick", managed to free Wilcox from the electrical charge, then lowered him on the pole until he could apply respiration. Wilcox's clothing was burning and Brooks received minor burns while getting him down.

James was raised in this community and his many friends will be glad to learn of the good deed he done in this incident, which was heroic, to say the least, and all hope he gets the medal he so richly deserves.

JUL 54

Wedding vows for Miss Gloretta Lusk and James Evans were read Friday, October 21, in the sanctuary of the Trinity Presbyterian Church at Perryton, with the Reverend Tommy Brower officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Brooks, and the bridegroom is the son of Lineman and Mrs. Cecil Evans of Perryton.

Mrs. A. P. McCelvey, organist, played traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional. Miss Mary Ann Collins attended the bride as maid of honor and Gene Giles served as best man.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored at a reception held in the Collins home at 902 South Colgate.

The bride attended Perryton High School and the bridegroom attended school at Carrollton, Texas. The young couple are at home at 921 1/2 South Eton in Perryton.

GUY BROOKS JR.

Guy Brooks Jr. To Be Buried

Funeral services for Guy Hayes Brooks Jr., 14, who died Sunday of injuries from a July 24 auto accident, will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at River Oaks Baptist Church with burial in Greenwood.

The youth, son of T/Sgt. and Mrs. Guy H. Brooks of 213 Dayless in River Oaks, was a student at Irma Marsh Middle School.

Other survivors include a brother, Gergory H. Brooks; a sister, Peggy Lynne Brooks; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams of New Castle, and grandmother, Mrs. Elva Mitchell of Fort Worth, and friends, M/Sgt. and Mrs. Eldon Skaggs.

PASTOR TELLS OF TWO WHO DIED ON MISSIONS TRIP

'They Were the Most Dedicated, the Most Radiant'

By ROGER SUMMERS

FORT WORTH

It was three-quarters of an hour past noon and the rain was peppering the autos on Interstate 35 in Burleson, just south of Fort Worth.

Inside one of the cars were some men and some youths who were among 86 who had taken vacation time and paid their own expenses to go to Carrizo Springs to do some mission work.

One was Lowell Gilbreath, an employee of General Dynamics in Fort Worth, who had been active in missions projects for a long time.

One was Guy Brooks Jr., 14, who had worked at odd jobs and saved his money faithfully so he could pay his way to Carrizo Springs to do for others.

Time and again — like many of the other 86 who were returning from Carrizo Springs — Gilbreath, at 53 still young at heart and young in mind, and Brooks had gone on their mission.

Helping others was so much a part of them. Then it happened.

The car went out of control, police said, on the wet pavement, hit a guard rail and slid along the railing. As it struck a concrete abutment at the end of the bridge, it flipped end-over-end, the twisted wreckage coming to rest in a creek bed.

Gilbreath was dead on arrival at a hospital. Young Brooks later died of his injuries. Three others were injured. They recovered.

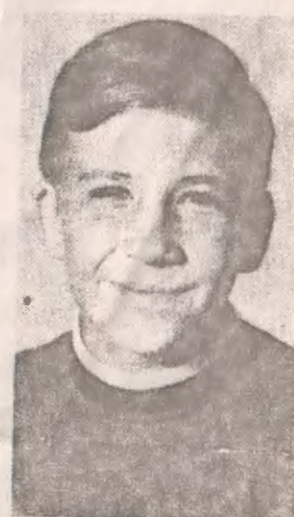

The 86 who made the missionary trip were from River Oaks Baptist Church, pastored by the Rev. Hubert Long, whose son, Ken, 18, was one of the three injured and who later recovered.

Afterwards, Long said of the two who died:

"Guy Brooks Jr. always told his friends God had a special plan for his life. He never told what the plan was. He never told anyone if he knew what His plan was. He earned his own money to make the trips. We set up a coffeehouse ministry in River Oaks. Guy worked more than any of the others. He painted the interior of the coffeehouse by himself. Guy had given his whole heart to the Lord."

LOWELL GILBREATH

GUY BROOKS JR.

"Lowell Gilbreath and his wife, Frankie, were tremendous in the youth programs and with adults in their work. These two were dearly loved by young people and adults alike. The young people always wanted the Gilbreaths to be their sponsors. They were truly young at heart. Missionary work was just his life."

Of Gilbreath and young Brooks, he said, "They were the most dedicated, the most radiant."

Long said the group had been to Carrizo Springs to put a roof on an auditorium at the Gethsemani Mission of First Baptist Church in Carrizo Springs and to conduct Bible Schools. He said Gilbreath had led a Negro teenager to the Lord the day before he died.

Long said the auditorium will now be named as a memorial to Gilbreath and Brooks.

Elmin Howell, River Ministry co-ordinator for Texas Baptists (the river mission covers an 889-mile stretch of the U.S. and Mexico sides of the Rio Grande), praised the dedication and sincerity of Gilbreath and Brooks, who became the second and third persons to die in River Ministry activity.

The first occurred a couple of years ago when a young man was killed when a truck and trailer overturned while poles were being hauled to build a fence.

Long said the River Oaks Church has had an exceptionally strong mission program for about three years, an endeavor which is involving young people and adults in growing numbers.

The church's mission workers have assisted in building a tabernacle and cafeteria at a Baptist encampment in Harlingen, conducted Vacation Bible School in a ghetto area in San Antonio (a mission which required that mission workers be inoculated because of a diphtheria outbreak), performed the Carrizo Springs work and other projects.

"This mission endeavor has caused a spirit in the River Oaks Church which is unbelievable," he said. "There is spirit, enthusiasm, joy. Young couples and others come from other areas to our church because of our mission thrust."

The church pays for some materials used in the mission work, he continued, but participants pay their own expenses and take vacations from their regular jobs to take part in the mission work.

"Some 50 per cent of our income last year went to mission work," he said. "This does not include 86 people giving a week of their time and effort."

While working on the Carrizo Springs roof, Gilbreath missed being injured when some trusses collapsed. Two men were injured but recovered. At that time, Gilbreath told others, "I'd rather die working for the Lord than any other way."

Then came the trip toward home and the rain slick road and the tragedy.

But, as Long said later, "People have been saved and lives have been changed because of Guy Brooks Jr. and Lowell Gilbreath."

The work they participated in will be completed and will be named in their honor — a perpetual reminder of two young men, one young at heart and one young at age, and their commitment of missions to others — Roger Summers is a contributing editor for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

men are as one,
When Jesus is loved and exalted, In all lands where shineth the sun;
Then may I rest from my labors, For MISSIONS their course shall have run."

History Of Newcastle

On September 15, 1908, a group of brothers and sisters met in Newcastle, Texas: Selected Bro. Joe R. Mayes as moderator and organized, "The First Missionary Baptist Church of Newcastle." Bro. J.L. McLeod was chosen as subsequent moderator.

The first baptism was recorded on September 22, 1908 (one week later).

The first pastor called was N.W. Hallcomb, on January 17, 1909, and he accepted on March 20, 1909, for one year.

On March 21, 1909, first revival was set, the first mission offering taken and the first building fund was started.

On February 12, 1910, that first revival was held.

On August 24, 1910, the church called for pastor, Bro. A.S. Wilson for one year. This call was renewed twice.

By 1911, in the minutes, the church was referred to as "The First Baptist Church."

In 1912, the church voted its first discipline motion. The response to this motion was given March 24, 1912. Also in September, 1912, the first motion to withdraw fellowship from a member was made and passed.

Rev. R.L. English was called November 3, 1913, and he served until May, 1915.

On September 1, 1915, Bro. Piri Ross was voted as pastor, but asked to be released October 24, 1915. The record does not show whether he served as pastor or not.

On February 27, 1916, Rev. Sebe Thomas was called as pastor and he accepted. Bro. Thomas served until he resigned November 7, 1920.

On November 16, 1921, Rev. A.E. Bradbury was called as pastor and served one year. It was policy or tradition of the church at this time to call the pastor a year at a time.

Rev. Joe Wilson served as pastor 1924 and until July, 1925.

Rev. W.L. Massegee received an unanimous call on Sept. 27, 1925. Problems began to occur, among these:

(1) The building was considered unsafe.

(2) Fellowship withdrawn from two members.

(4) Eventually moving to the old wood building.

(5) Several members leaving or asking for their letters of membership.

(6) Finally a motion of disapproval of the attitude of Dr. J. Frank Norriss and his followers.

The church split up! Two factions existed; meetings for reconciliation were called, but the church remained split.

Repairs were made and the brick building was moved back into. Rev. H.M. Weldon was called on June 27, 1926.

Then on July 13, 1927, with Bro. Weldon as pastor of one group and Rev. J.C. Crutchfield as pastor of the other group, a reconciliation was made and the church came together again and called as a body Rev. H.M. Weldon as their pastor.

Bro. Weldon resigned on Dec. 1, 1927.

On Jan. 3, 1928, Charles R. Streetman was called as pastor. Problems over the brick building were still evident. A building committee was appointed. Three plans were submitted, but nothing was agreed upon. Bro. Streetman resigned Nov. 11, 1928.

Rev. I.W. Lawrence was called in Nov., 1928.

In March, 1929, church voted to reconsider building plans and started a building fund but finally decided on repairs until later.

On Aug. 18, 1931, the church was behind with Bro. Lawrence's salary by thirteen (13) months. He voluntarily deducted $15.00 per month from his back salary leaving a debt of $145 to him, which the church still did not pay. He was called for another year at $50.00 per month salary. Eventually the record shows two years later, the church gave him two (2) rolls of building paper on the $145.00 back salary on Aug. 21, 1932, he was the first pastor to receive call for an indefinite period.

In 1932, the church tried to start a separate Sunday School for the Mexican population of the community.

In 1933, a block and stone walk was donated to the church by a local service

Sept. 9, 1936, a building committee was approved by the church. On this committee was J.E. Bengé, L.L. Robertson and O.C. Miles.

On Nov. 11, 1936, general dimensions and shape of building was approved only to be rescinded on Dec. 12, 1936.

On Jan. 8, 1937, the building fund showed $135.69 cash and $680.00 pledges.

Feb. 10, 1937, new plans were submitted with estimated cost of materials to be $1,100.00 and were approved. Work started thereafter. Services were held in the First Christian Church while building progressed.

Dedication services was on the third Sunday in January, 1938.

On Sept. 18, 1938, Bro. and Mrs. Lawrence asked and were granted their letters of dismissal.

Rev. Claude Martin was called on Nov. 9, 1938 as pastor.

Jack Redford and Marvin Averett was licensed to preach May 26, 1940.

Bro. Martin resigned May 31, 1942.

Rev. Harrison McQuery called as pastor and served on a part time basis beginning July 19, 1942.

On Oct. 18, 1942, Rev. J.B. Swindell became pastor and resigned on July 18, 1943.

Rev. E.L. Bowman called as pastor August 29, 1943 and served until April 16, 1944.

Rev. Johnny Barrett preached here August 27, 1944 and was called as full time pastor Sept. 10, 1944.

A fund was started for a parsonage on Nov. 12, 1944. A house was purchased, moved in on donated lots and repairs were made. The church had a parsonage.

Bro. Barrett resigned on July 6, 1949.

Rev. J. Carl Wright was called as pastor August 21, 1949.

On August 4, 1954, church building expansion approved. Work started and was finished, which added 2,220 sq. ft. divided among 12 classrooms, a new baptistry, choir spare, kitchen and assembly area. Some of these dual purpose.

Bro. Wright resigned Feb. 16, 1957.

pastor June 12, 1957 and served until Oct. 18, 1959.

Rev. Bill Cathey accepted a call Nov. 29, 1959. James Robert Ward was ordained Aug. 13, 1961. Bro. Cathey served until May 6, 1962.

Rev. R.D. Williams was called by the church Sept. 4, 1962. On Oct. 6, 1963, the church voted to build a new parsonage. This work was completed in early 1964. Bro. Williams served until December 8, 1965.

Rev. Harp was called and became our pastor on Jan. 1966 and he resigned August 10, 1966.

Rev. Don Reed accepted call to the church in Sept. 1966 until July 1968.

Rev. Glen Granger started as pastor here on August 14, 1968 and resigned March 15, 1970.

Rev. Roy Daniels was called as pastor May 17, 1970. Auditorium remodeled. Bro.

Baptist Church

Daniels served until Jan. 2, 1972.

Rev. Paul Hampton was called on March 5, 1972 and served until Sept. 30, 1973.

Rev. Glenn M. Bridges was called as our pastor Nov. 11, 1973.

Now as I went through the minutes I found the following family names that need mentioning also. These are in addition to any I have mentioned and are early leaders in this church.

Several members often served of each family. These include: Adams, Ames, Cox, Johnson, Pevehouse, Smith, Webb, Averett, Beahl, Coffield, Dent, Fields, Hearne, Mason, Moore, Patton, Potts, Profitt, Robinson, Swain, Thomas, Walters, Wilson.

The Sunday School Highs were in 1953 with 173 members in 12 classes and 1935 with 136 members in 18 classes.

Ministers licensed, ordained, or serving with this church in positions other than pastor through the years includes: R. Clifton, Jack Redford, Brooks Robinson, James Swedund, Larry Dodson, Mike Marko, Marvin Averett, Gilbert Webb, James Robert Ward, Billy Gathings F.E. Woolery. All but three of the above were baptized in our church.*

As we look back we find the church started with 21 members. All members had importance! I am sorry that each family cannot be recognized. But we do have a special bit of gratitude to all whether they or you have been mentioned or not. To each teacher, each deacon, each Sunday School director, each janitor, each usher, each clerk, each treasurer, each pianist, each song leader, or any other position.

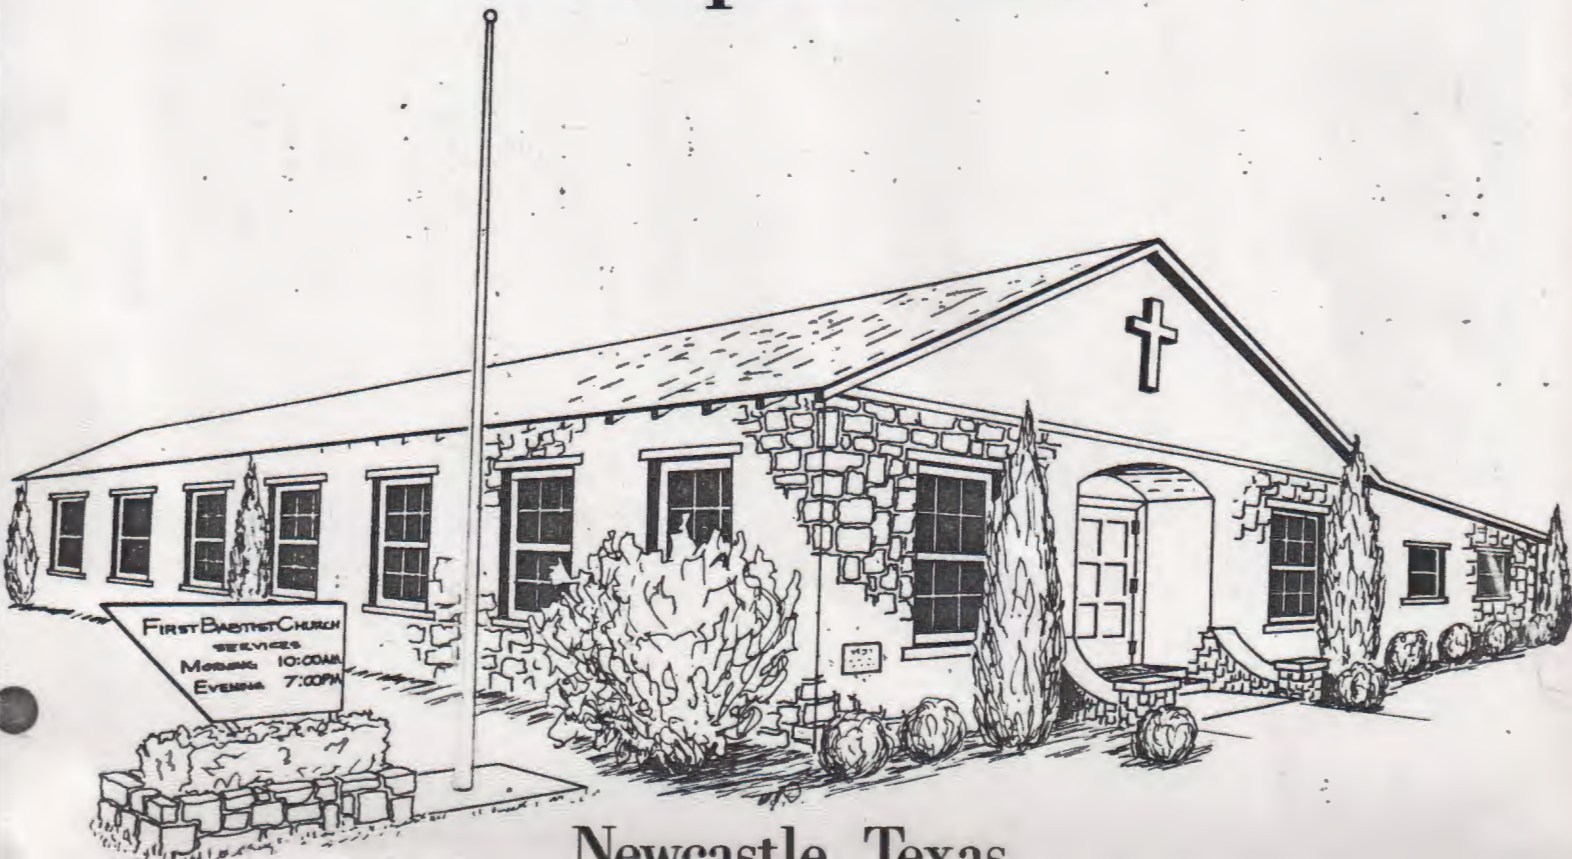

We can only add a thank you. Where does the church history end not yet, but this does bring us to this day

August 4, 1974.

In Christ name we began and may it ever be.

Coat of Arms

Brooks

Historiography

The Brooks Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Brooks Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

"Sable, three escallops or."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

"A beaver passant."

When translated the blazon also describes the original colors of the Brooks Arms and Crest as it appeared centuries ago.

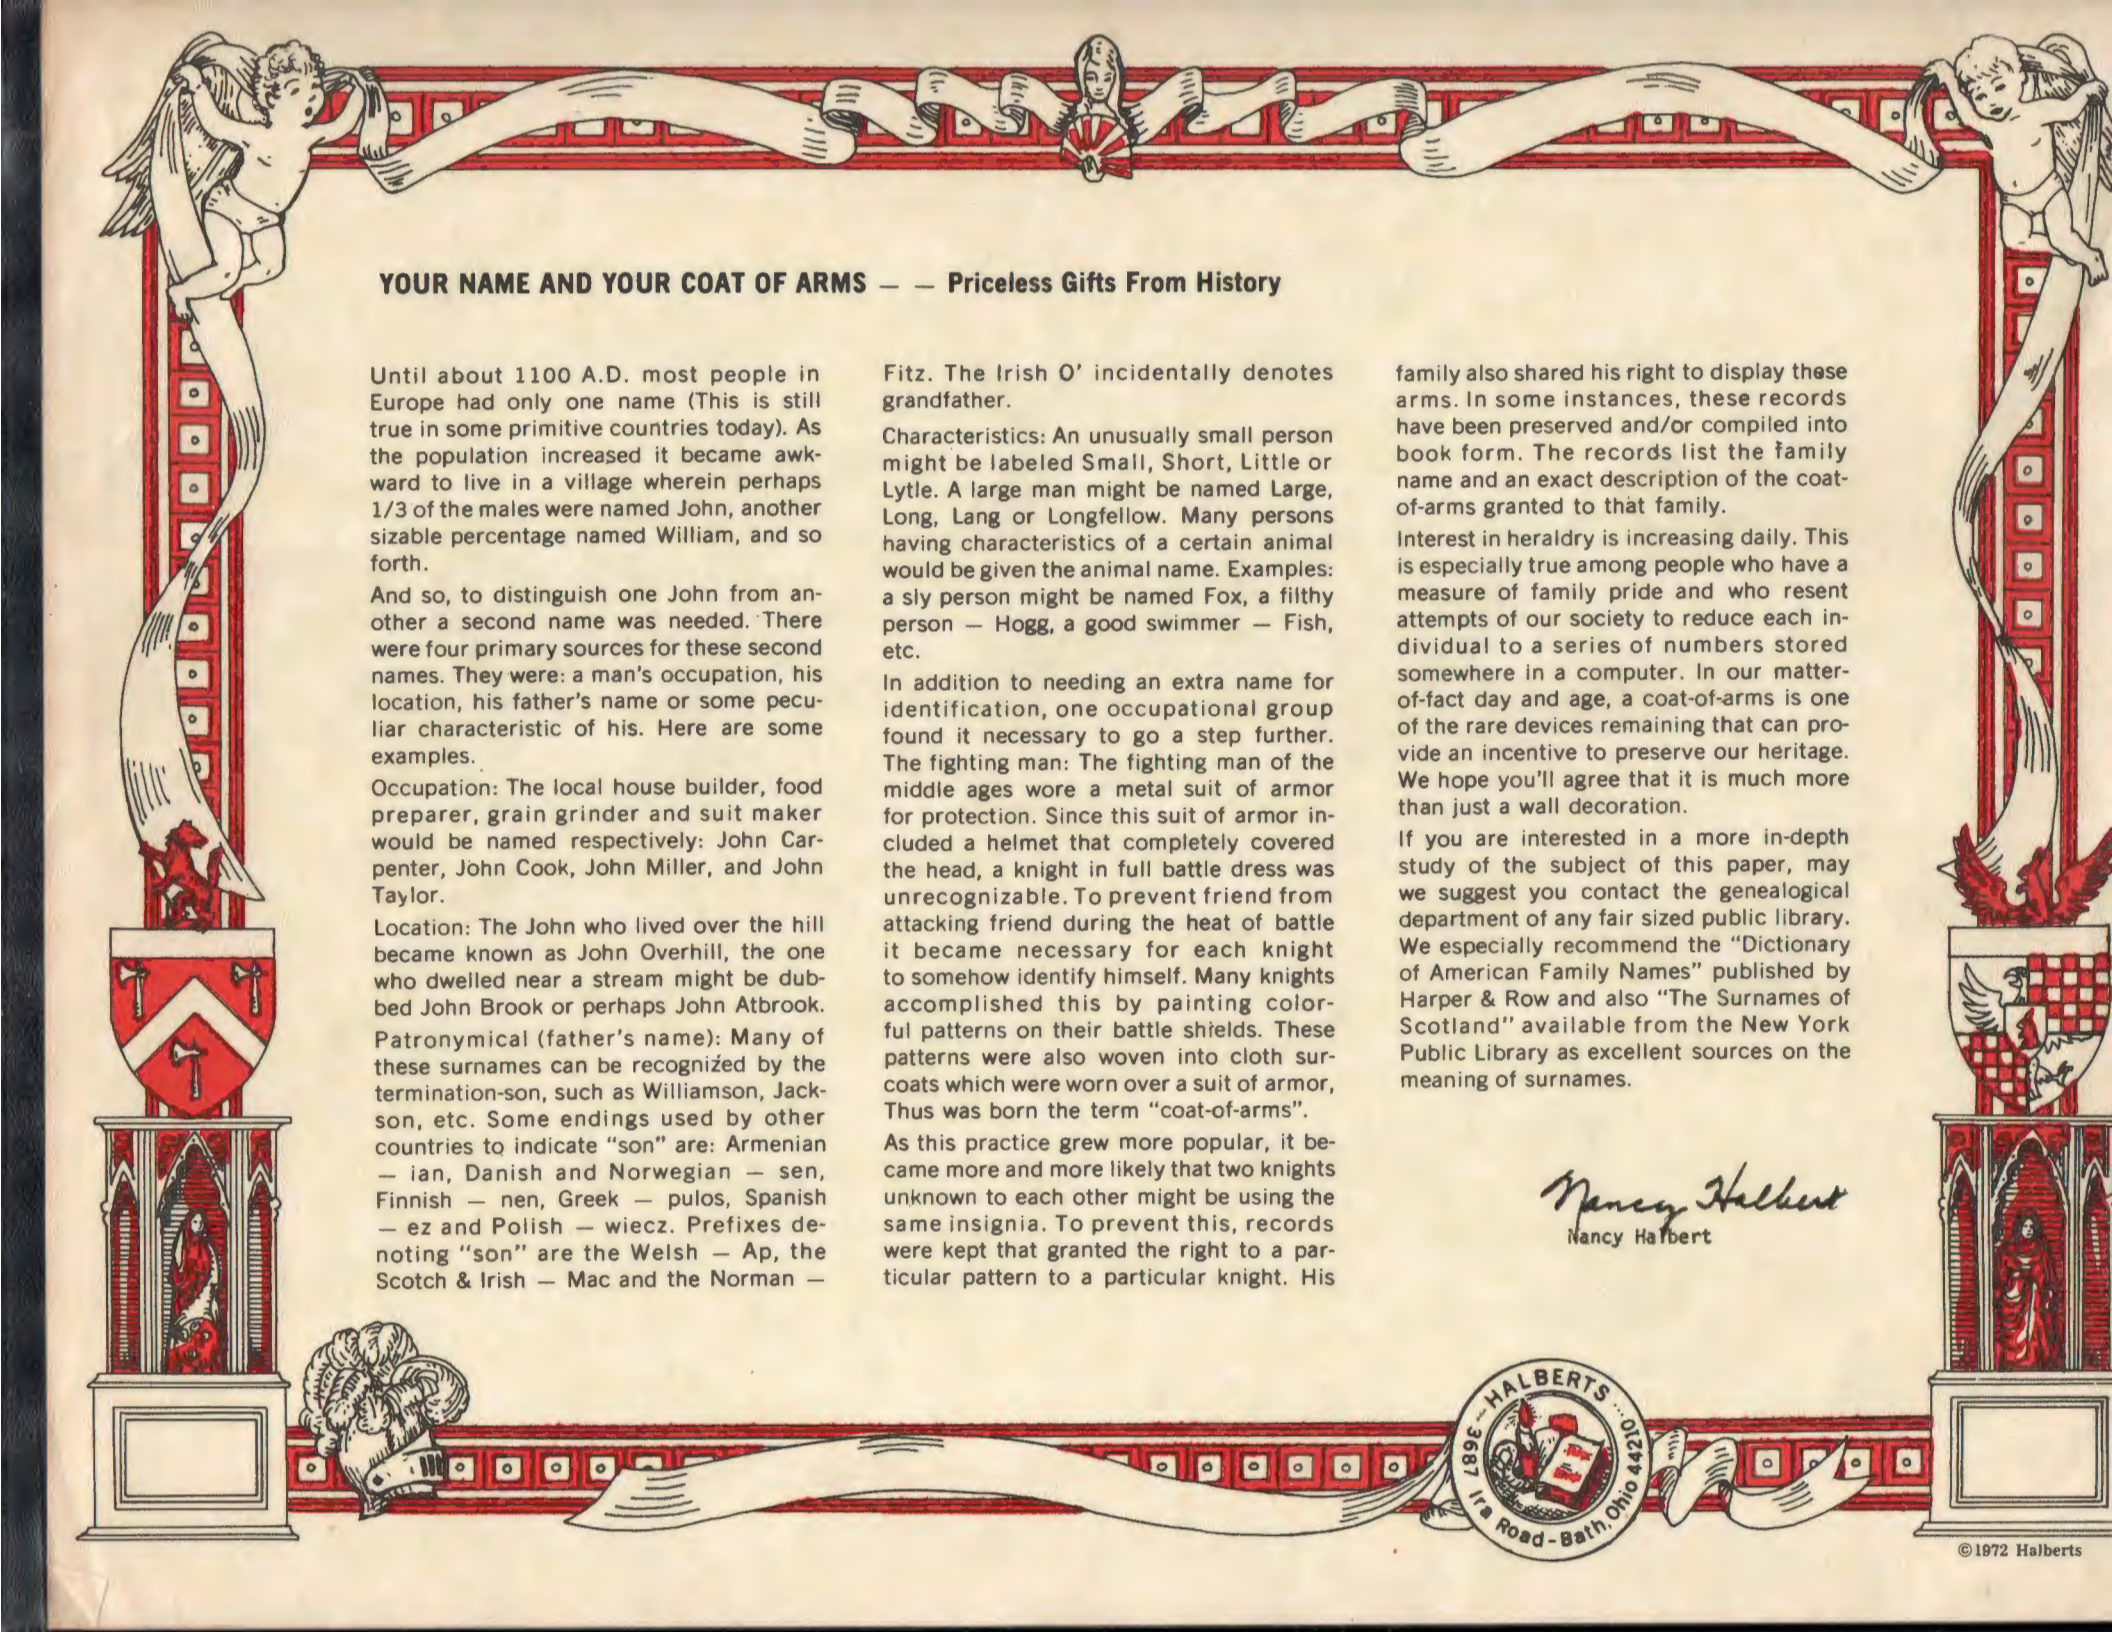

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times.

A Motto was recorded with this Brooks Coat of Arms:

"PERSEVERANDO"

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name, or personal characteristics. The surname Brooks appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to mean, "dweller in a cottage on the banks of a small brook." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Brooks to be Brook, and Bruke. Although bearers of the old and distinguished Brooks name comprise a small fraction of the population there are a number who have established for it a significant place in history. They include: THOMAS BROOKS (1608-1660) wrote, "London's Lamentation." Printed for J. Hancock and N. Ponder in London. GEORGE BROOKS, of Flitwick Manor, was High Sheriff in 1796, and married the first Mary, daughter of R. Kirton. Father of MAJOR JOHN HATFIELD BROOKS, of Flitwick. Monk of Bedford in 1880, and Major of the 19th. Hussars, in 1824. JOHN BROOKS (1752-1825) American politician and officer of the Revolutionary War. Between 1817 and 1823, he was the Governor of Massachusetts. PETER CHARDON BROOKS (1767-1848) Boston merchant and insurance broker. Was reported as the wealthiest man in New England. PHILLIPS BROOKS (1835-1893) American Episcopal Bishop and pulpit orator. Composer of "O Little Town of Bethlehem." WILLIAM ROBERT BROOKS (1844-1921) American astronomer and Professor of Hobart College. Discoverer of 27 comets. Was in charge of William Smith Observatory in Geneva, New York. BYRON ALDEN BROOKS (1845-1911) Teacher and inventor who improved the typewriter in 1878, by putting both capital and small letters on the same striking lever with a key to shift position. No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or family tree.

YOUR NAME AND YOUR COAT OF ARMS — — Priceless Gifts From History

Until about 1100 A.D. most people in Europe had only one name (This is still true in some primitive countries today). As the population increased it became awkward to live in a village wherein perhaps 1/3 of the males were named John, another sizable percentage named William, and so forth.

And so, to distinguish one John from another a second name was needed. There were four primary sources for these second names. They were: a man's occupation, his location, his father's name or some peculiar characteristic of his. Here are some examples.

Occupation: The local house builder, food preparer, grain grinder and suit maker would be named respectively: John Carpenter, John Cook, John Miller, and John Taylor.

Location: The John who lived over the hill became known as John Overhill, the one who dwelled near a stream might be dubbed John Brook or perhaps John Atbrook.

Patronymical (father's name): Many of these surnames can be recognized by the termination-son, such as Williamson, Jackson, etc. Some endings used by other countries to indicate "son" are: Armenian — ian, Danish and Norwegian — sen, Finnish — nen, Greek — pulos, Spanish — ez and Polish — wicz. Prefixes denoting "son" are the Welsh — Ap, the Scotch & Irish — Mac and the Norman —

Fitz. The Irish O' incidentally denotes grandfather.

Characteristics: An unusually small person might be labeled Small, Short, Little or Lytle. A large man might be named Large, Long, Lang or Longfellow. Many persons having characteristics of a certain animal would be given the animal name. Examples: a sly person might be named Fox, a filthy person — Hogg, a good swimmer — Fish, etc.

In addition to needing an extra name for identification, one occupational group found it necessary to go a step further. The fighting man: The fighting man of the middle ages wore a metal suit of armor for protection. Since this suit of armor included a helmet that completely covered the head, a knight in full battle dress was unrecognizable. To prevent friend from attacking friend during the heat of battle it became necessary for each knight to somehow identify himself. Many knights accomplished this by painting colorful patterns on their battle shields. These patterns were also woven into cloth surcoats which were worn over a suit of armor. Thus was born the term "coat-of-arms".

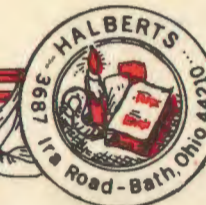

As this practice grew more popular, it became more and more likely that two knights unknown to each other might be using the same insignia. To prevent this, records were kept that granted the right to a particular pattern to a particular knight. His family also shared his right to display these arms. In some instances, these records have been preserved and/or compiled into book form. The records list the family name and an exact description of the coat-of-arms granted to that family.

Interest in heraldry is increasing daily. This is especially true among people who have a measure of family pride and who resent attempts of our society to reduce each individual to a series of numbers stored somewhere in a computer. In our matter-of-fact day and age, a coat-of-arms is one of the rare devices remaining that can provide an incentive to preserve our heritage. We hope you'll agree that it is much more than just a wall decoration.

If you are interested in a more in-depth study of the subject of this paper, may we suggest you contact the genealogical department of any fair sized public library. We especially recommend the "Dictionary of American Family Names" published by Harper & Row and also "The Surnames of Scotland" available from the New York Public Library as excellent sources on the meaning of surnames.

Searching for Indexed Terms¹

First, find the name or phrase (search term) in the index. Then, from the menu bar, select “Edit”, and then “Find” or press CTRL+F. A search field will appear in the upper right corner of the page. Enter the search term into this field and press ENTER. If the search term is not found, nothing will happen; otherwise, the search term will be displayed on the first page in which it occurs. Repeated pressing of the ENTER key will high-light other occurrences within the file. Use the left and right arrow buttons to the right of the search field to look ahead or to look backwards for other occurrences of the term in the document

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.

² This may take quite some time, depending on the size of files contained therein.
