Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

a- Letter in Old Edgefield Dist. Archives Surname File, 3/20/92:

dated 9/29/37, from E.Howard Drake, 3214 R Street, Lincoln, Neb. to Mrs. Hill

My Matthew & Eliz.() BROOKS had children Thomas & Mary, among others, and Thomas & Mary WARREN were parents to Eliz.

Thomas WARREN bequeathed to his dau., Eliz.BROOK, "my negro girl named Nanne." Ten yrs. later, in Frederick Co., my Elizabeth Brooks died, and in her will, bequeathed "my negro girl named Nancy to my dau. Mary Thornbrough."

Nanne is of course a nickname for Nancy, and coupled with the similarity in the name of the slaves, I have the coincidence of finding a son named Thomas, next younger to the son named Matthew. The eldest son was Joel Brooks, the second was David, the third was William, then Matthew & Thomas, and then Jesse.

*Note: These are probably clerical errors on the part of the census taker. Moses was 31 or 2 in 1830 according to the other census records. In 1850 he was married to Mary Murray Y., not "Nancy." His daughter Nancy married in 1845. His wife's nickname was "Polly." Either the giver of information had a slip of the tongue or the census taker misunderstood. dhp.

"THE MOSES YARBROUGH FAMILY

Moses Yarbrough was the first Yarbrough to come to Winston County. He came from Abbeville, SC in 1837 with his wife, nine children and about 20 slaves. He settled two and one half miles southeast of Louisville on the DeKalb highway. Today, Ralph Hathorn, a great grandson, owns the land where the Yarbrough family lived.

Moses Yarbrough was born in GA in 1798. He was the son of William Yarbrough whose will is in the Probate Judges' Office in Abbeville, SC. He married Mary (Poly) Murrah (Murry) in 1821. She was the daughter of Titus Murrah. Three more children were born to them after they came to Winston County.

Their first child was Mary Elizabeth, born Nov. 22, 1822. She married Hiram Garner Woodruff September 15th, 1838. They had 15 children. Elizabeth lost her eyesight and the last 5 of her children she never saw. She died Oct. 20, 1878. Hiram died one week later. They are buried in the Woodruff-Robinson Cemetery seven miles southeast of Louisville on the Enon Road.

Nancy Seals was born in 1825. She was married to Joseph King July 7, 1845, by minister J.O. Bell. Joseph was born in 1813 in Bertie County in NC. They reared two sons, William and Thomas, and four daughters, Sarah Frances, Mary Adella, Nancy and Emma. Nancy Seals and Joseph and a number of their descendants are buried in the Woodruff-Robinson Cemetery.

Rebecca Frances was born May 7, 1826. She married William Henry Smyth Oct 1, 1846. He died in the confederate army and is buried in a soldier's grave in Richmond, VA. To them were born six children. Rebecca died Oct. 4, 1908 and is buried in the Woodruff-Robinson Cemetery.

Edward Moses (Ned) was born March 17, 1828. He married Ellen Suttle Nov. 13, 1856. They settled in the Liberty Community seven miles west of Noxapater, MS and reared 12 children. He died Apr. 20, 1917 and he and Ellen are buried in the Liberty Baptist Church Cemetery.

James L. Yarbrough was born in 1830. He married Susan J. Liddell and they had four children. He died in 1865 on his way home after the close of the Civil War. He is buried in the Old Baptist Cemetery in Louisville.

Lucinda died young. (Lucina? 16/1850? 1834)

Martha Caroline was born in 1833. She married Silas Whitten Oct. 20, 1851. They moved to TX and reared a family. Their daughter, Mary Amelia married Henry Holsomback and their son Geo. E. Holsomback came from TX to Meridian to make saddle for Threefoot Brothers, merchants. Martha Caroline has Holsomback descendants in Meridian today.

Murrah Yarbrough died in 1859. He was about 25 years old, and had just begun to practice law.

William Lafayette (Fate) was born April 4, 1837. He was wounded in service during the civil war. He married Arabella Hinton Bishop in AL. They reared 8 children. He died Nov. 25, 1912, and is buried in Rose Hill Cemetery in Meridian, MS. Arabella died Aug. 27, 1929, and is buried in Magnolia Cemetery in Meridian.

Titus was born in 1838. He married a widow, Jane Holder Loyd Hickman. They had 2 children, Lula Mae and William Moses.

Robert Emmett was born Feb. 28, 1841. He was married twice, (1st) to Ellen Graham and they had 2 sons, (2nd) to Mattie Lindsey and had 2 sons and 3 daughters. He died July 19, 1917, Ellen died July 8, 1871, Mattie died in 1900. They are buried in the Masonic Cemetery in Louisville.

Sarah J. (Sallie) was born May 24, 1842. She married James Lewis Taggart Nov. 8, 1864. They had 2 sons and 3 daughters. She died March 27, 1920, and she and Lewis are buried in the Old Baptist Cemetery in Louisville, MS.

In 1864 Moses Yarbrough went to AL on business. While there he was stricken with what was called cramp collic and died (acute appendicitis no doubt). His exact burial place is not known but it is thought to be Pleasant Ridge, AL. Mary (Polly) died about 1889, and is buried in the Old Baptist Cemetery in Louisville, MS.

"In 1859 or '60 two young lawyers who had just commenced the practice of law in Louisville by name of Lem Murrah YARBROUGH and Samuel F. FOSSETT, were employed on different sides of a case pending before a magistrate's court in Louisville. Through some misunderstanding they differed upon some point of law and after a few words of crimination and recrimination Yarbrough threw a law book at Fossett's head, when they both engaged in a fisticuff fight. The officers of the Court and other persons present separated thm and their mutual friends interposed in vain to bring about a reconciliation. They accidentally met one day on the courthouse steps, when they both attempted to draw their pistols, but Yarbrough's hung in his clothes, which gave Fossett the advantage of him. The latter fired several times at the former before he could disengage his pistol, killing him instantly. The case was never decided until after the close of the Confederate War, when it was proven to the satisfaction of the Court and jury that Yarbrough made the first attempt to draw his pistol and that Fossett shot him in self defense; consequently, no penalty was inflicted upon him."

"Last Will & Testament WM, YARBROUGH dec,d: State of SC, Abbeville Dist.

I WILLIAM YARBROUGH of the District & State aforesaid, being in a low state of health, but of sound and disposing mind, memory & understanding, do make and ordain this as and for my last will & Testament-

First- I order & direct that all my Just debts be paid by my Executors, as soon as possible after my decease.

Second-It is my Will and desire that after payment of all my Just debts, an equal distribution of my estate shall be made amongst all my children- and to effect this purpose it is my Will and desire that all the property which I have heretofore given to any of my children be brought into Hotchpot in the final division so that the several shares may be, as nearly as practicable, equalized.

Third- for this purpose I do hereby charge to /my children,/ in this clause named the following sums of money & articles of property, which I believe to be all I have heretofore given them (Viz) to my son MOSES YARBROUGH, I charge the sum of nine hundred & thirty five dollars- To my son JOHN YARBROUGH, I charge seven hundred and twenty six dollars, and the Negro boy Edmund and a Horse worth fifty dollars which I have heretofore given him- To my daughter FANNY MURRAY, I charge five hundred and ninety three dollars, and a Negro boy Joe whom I have heretofore given to her- To my son LITTLETON YARBROUGH, I charge the sum of three hundred dollars which I have already paid as the first installment of his land; and seven hundred dollars, that being the amount of the remaining installments, when they shall be paid by my executors, as is herein after directed; and also with a Negro boy Sam and a Gig worth one hundred and Twenty five dollars, a horse saddle & bridle, a feather bed and furniture & a Bedstead, all of which I have heretofore given him- To my daughter DRUSILLA TAGGART, I charge a negro woman Pat, & girl Charlotte, a horse, saddle & bridle, a feather bed and furniture and a bed stead all of which I have heretofore given her- To my daughter (Mary) MILLER I charge two Negroe girls, Ruttey & Frances, a horse, saddle & bridle a feather bed & furniture & a bedstead, all of which I have heretofore given to her- To my daughter SARAH NELSON, I charge a negro girl, Maria, and boy Henry a horse, saddle & bridle, a feather bed & furniture, ten dollars which I gave her to purchase a bedstead, and a Pianoforte worth three hundred and ten dollars, all of which I have heretofore given her.

Fourth- I give devise and bequeath to my daughter BETSEY YARBROUGH a negro woman Hannah & her two children Louisa & Eliza, which she has been heretofore permitted to claim, and also a horse, saddle & bridle, a feather bed & furniture & bedstead, to her & her heirs for ever.

Fifth- I give devises & bequeath to my son LITTLETON YARBROUGH, a negro girl Caroline, to him & his heirs forever, And I also hereby enjoin upon & direct my Executors herein after named, to discharge and pay off, out of my estate, the remaining instalments of his land, amounting as above stated, to seven hundred dollars.

Sixth- I give devise & bequeath to my son WILLIAM YARBROUGH, two negro boys Lee & Aaron & a girl Bella; and upon a final division of my Estate, I give him five hundred dollars over & above an equal share with my Seventh- The foregoing charges & legacies being taken into the estimate of my estate, it is my will & desire, and I do hereby order & direct that an equal division of my entire, estate, of whatever kind or description it may be, shall be made amongst all my children, with the exception of the preference herein before given to my son WILLIAM; the shares of each, when ascertained to be to each and every of them & their heirs for ever.

Eighth- For this purpose of better effecting the division, in the last clause mentioned, I do hereby authorize & empower my Executors to sell all or any part of my estate, as shall be deemed best, laying off my land in convenient tracts of two hundred or two hundred & fifty acres or more as shall best facilitate the sale thereof.

Ninth- As my son JOHN YARBROUGH has recently sold the tract of land on which I settled him, & I have made titles therefor to the purchaser, I do hereby charge him, in addition to the foregoing charges, with the sum of fourteen hundred dollars to be deducted out of his share of my estate as before directed.

Georgia employed a unique system of land distribution that used two distinct methods, separately as well as simultaneously. Variations of the old English system of land selection and tenure were used from 1733 until 1909. Known as the "headright" system, that method allowed a certain number of acres on the "right of a person's head" and used a random metes and bounds type of survey prior to the granting of the land.

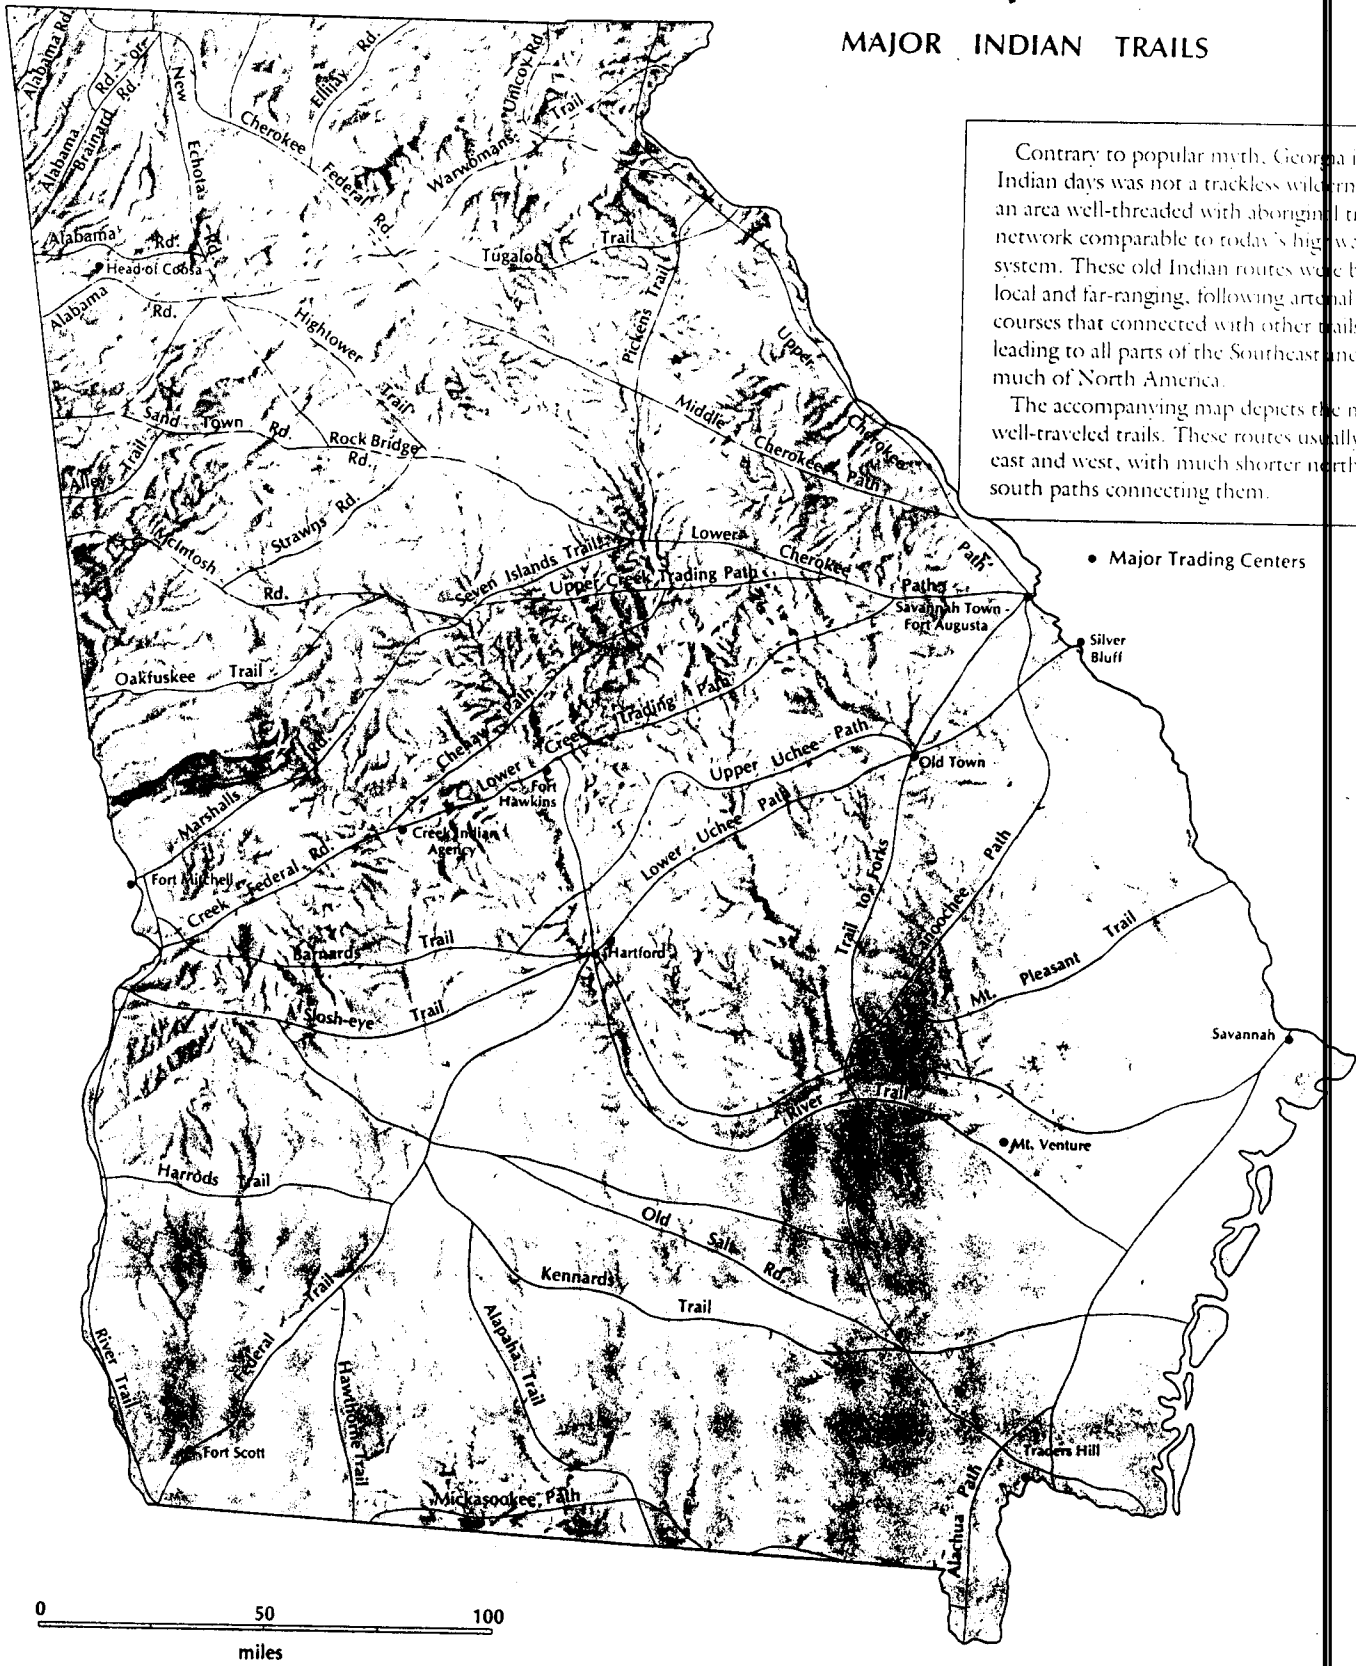

Though the headright method was being used in the state's settled areas, in 1803, Georgia's newer section was distributed by six different lotteries. The lottery method used a rectangular survey before actual distribution. The land lottery was a logical system that gave every qualified Georgian equal chance to obtain new land. Only Georgia distributed the public domain by lottery.

All Georgia surveys and grants were issued in the 44 original counties. Generally, headright lands were east of the Oconee River, and the lottery method distributed the remaining area of the state.

MAJOR INDIAN TRAILS

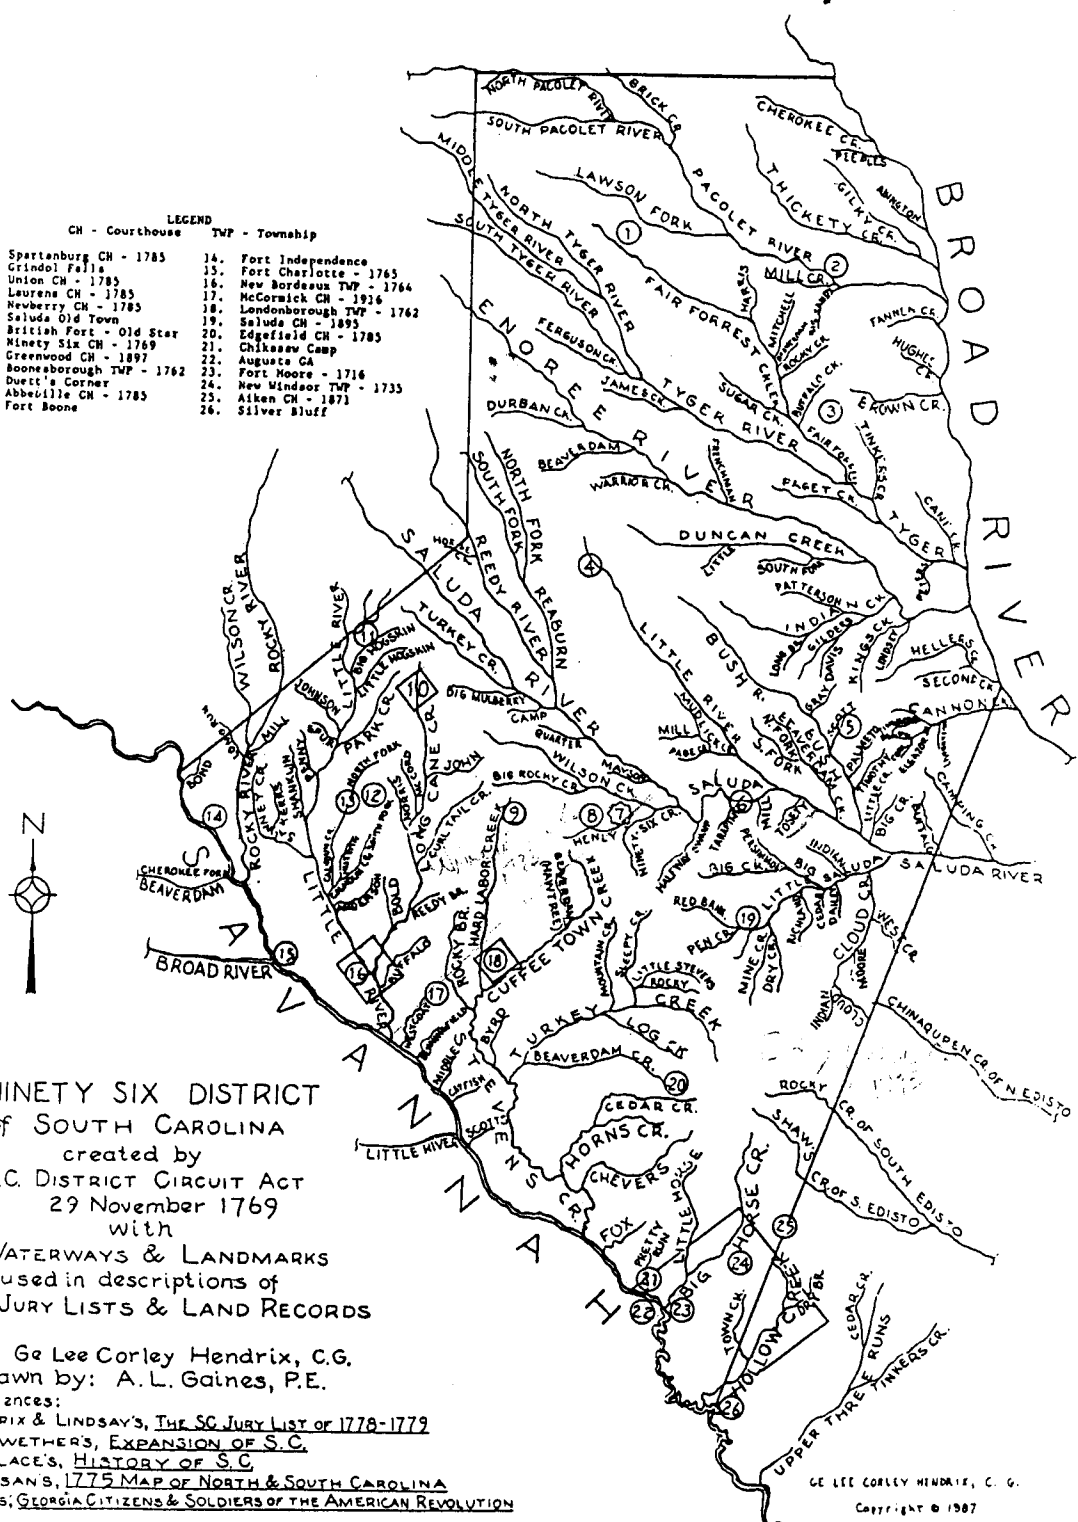

Contrary to popular myth, Georgia in Indian days was not a trackless wilderness but an area well-threaded with aboriginal trails, a network comparable to today's highway system. These old Indian routes were both local and far-ranging, following arterial courses that connected with other trails leading to all parts of the Southeast and much of North America.

The accompanying map depicts the most well-traveled trails. These routes usually ran east and west, with much shorter north-south paths connecting them.

A directory (folder) or even an entire hard drive may also be searched². First, high-light the selected folder or drive and then press SHIFT+CTRL+F to obtain a listing of all the files in which the search term appears. Next, select and open an individual file to find the first occurrence of the search term(s) in the file, as described in the preceding paragraph.

That is, post-scanning processing cannot overcome poor print quality of an original document. With this caveat, each volume has been made searchable by Adobe Acrobat, version 9 or later.
