Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

These records are the legacy of our Yarbrough family researchers, to whom much is owed. The known family researchers include Jean Baker, Ann Y. Broadbent, Mary Y. Daniel, Frances (Rea) Donohue, Betty Humrighouse, Pauline Gray, Evelyn Goble, Nelle Morris Jenkins, Ophelia Kessler, Frances Lockwood, Karen Mazock Renee Smelley, Dorothy Svec, Jeanette Wilson, Cleveland “Cy” Yarborough, Edna Yarbrough, George A. Yarbrough, and Robert Price Yarbrough.

The originals of these volumes are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. More information about the extended Yarbrough families can be found at our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamiv.org>. If you are a Yarbrough or a member of one of our allied families, we invite you to join our family association.

About this Volume

John Swanson Yarbrough is one of those Yarbrough ancestors who apparently arrived from outer space, as next to nothing is known of his origins. DNA evidence is so far scanty; the extant test results suggest a kinship to the Joshua Yarborough family group. However, more test data are required before that can be conclusively stated. We owe him thanks, as he was the inspiration for Ophelia Kessler and Rea Donohue to begin their extensive research odyssey into the Yarbrough families. Consequently, the majority of the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records were created by these sisters, who are still remembered at Courthouses across the southern and western states.

The indices for both the scanned and archived volumes were created by TExtract[®], a software package used by commercial book and document publishers. Among its many features is the ability to merge the individual chapter/volume indices into a composite master index. It is not, of course, an error-free software package, especially when the print quality of the original documents is poor. Nevertheless, the resulting indices are mostly error-free, with the exception of page numbering. The given page numbers in the indices refer to the actual “page count” number, not the number that may appear on a given page.

The source material’s page numbering has been unchanged, and the indices provided by the author match the content of those volumes as they are paginated. These volumes are all searchable, so the best procedure is to use the index to see on which page a particular ancestor may be located. To use the search feature, press CTRL + F and enter the search name/term.

Joe P. & Me

Joe P. and me meet in 43

With Joe P., me, twin brother was 3

We made it through 10 grades, but not everyone was pleased.

We began coon hunting & climbing tree.

We didn't know to much about birds & bees.

But we knew the girls were different you see.

We knew parts could turn to stone if we look to see.

We spend many hours on the river Joe P. and me.

Henry, Dale, Clyde, Jimmy, Joe P.
and me.

We walk from Belnap to Proffit Joe P. & me.

Now you wonder why I call him Joe P.

Because we had to stop so often for him to pea.

Now we went skunk hunting for the skin you see.

Henry, Clyde, Joe P. & me.

We milk the sknuk for fun you see.

We give the milk away
we thought to please.

But most of the time, we were told to hold our knee.

Now, we out grew the skunks
and hunting coon met our needs.

The girls were getting better to look at you see.

Now Anita join Joe P. and me.

We rode around, hunting, looking and have fun you see.

Some things we did are between Joe P. and me.

We have the biggest time on our senior trip you see,

there was Anita, LaMyrlas, Joe P.
and me.

Now Sherwood, Clyde, Joe P. and me had fun too.

We got thrown out of wrestling
matches, it was Joe P. fault

Joe P. & Me

you see, the rest of us
don't remember you see.
Now we are home hunting,
fishing, Clyde, Henry, Dale, Jimmy, Joe P.,
and me.
Now a smiling girl named Mary Lee join Joe P. and me.
Joe P. and Mary Lee got marry and I was best man you see,
for Joe P. means the world to me.
Now things have come full circle for Joe P. and me.
The Lord said come go with me Joe P.
Now all I have are the wonderful memories of Joe P. and me.
One of these days, They will say
'Look, they are together again!' Joe P. and me.

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want...

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters...

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over...

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Woodard

Sue Brooks, Rick Woodard are united on December 15

Sue Jo Brooks became the bride of Rick Woodard of Perryton, on December 15, 1978 at 8 p. m. in the Full Gospel Church.

Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks, 122 N. Kentucky, Perryton, and Rick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodard of Memphis.

Officiating minister for the double-ring ceremony was Elder T. J. Pittman of the Primitive Baptist Church.

The altar was decorated with two 15 branch spiral candelabras with blue ribbons and greenery. The memory candle was encircled with blue delphiniums, pale blue snapdragons, in a setting of deep blue baby's breath with two blue candles used to light the memory candle.

For the ceremony, Yvonne Cornell sang "Evergreen," Kelly Cullum sang "Our Love," and "We've Only Just Begun," was sung by David Brooks, brother of the bride. Accompanist for them was Joann Fletcher.

Serving as maid of honor was Sheri Woodard, sister of the bridegroom, with Pam Foley as bridesmaid. Best man for the groom was Audie Moore, and Bobby Brooks, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

Ring bearer for the wedding was Elizabeth Kirkham, and Kelly Cullum, Steve Hergert, Terry Peak, David Brooks, and Randy Brooks were ushers.

Vicki Tabor, sister of the bridegroom, registered the decoration with the bridal bouquet and covered with a white satin cloth. It held a four tiered cake with blue roses, and was made by the bride's mother. Rose mints, nuts, punch, and coffee from a silver service were also served to guests.

Assisting at the table were Ida Schneider pouring the punch, Shirley Kirkham, serving the wedding cake, and Yvonne Cornell pouring the coffee.

As her going away ensemble, the bride wore a three piece blue gabardine pant suit and a corsage of white roses and blue baby's breath, made by her mother.

After a honeymoon trip to Amarillo, the couple is at home at 816 SW 15th in Perryton.

A senior in Perryton High School, the bride plans to continue her education. She is vice-president of Future Homemakers of America, Vocational Office Education student who is employed as Equity.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Memphis High School Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo. He is presently employed as a mechanic Halliburton.

Out-of-town Guests

Attending the wedding out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Woodard and Sherrill's parents and sister of the groom, Memphis; Mrs. Joyce Noe, grandmother of the groom, Mesquite; Mrs. Barbara Reynolds and Natasha, and cousin of the groom, Dallas.

Also, Vicki Tabor, sister of the groom, Dodson; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirkham, Bismarck; James, and Elizabeth, Bismarck; and Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff, Kevin and Mel, Canadian.

Prenuptial Courtesies

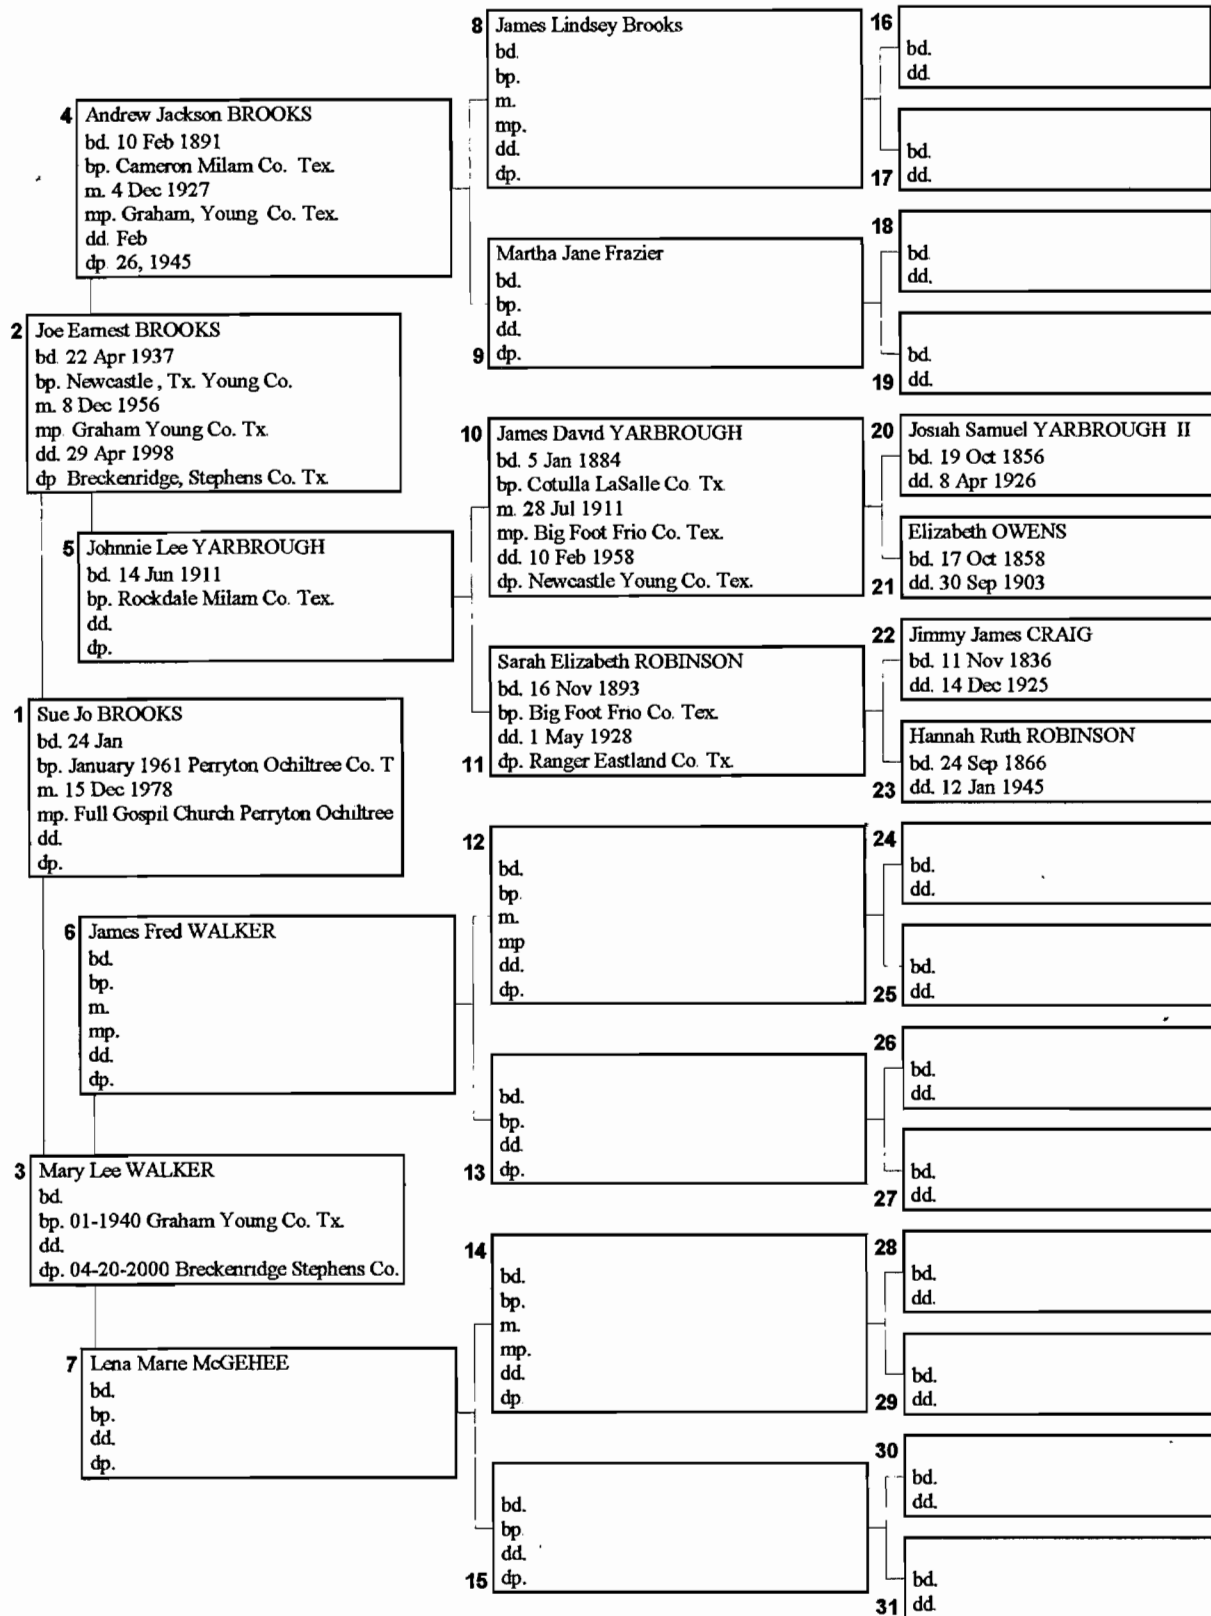

A surprise personal shower was given for Sue at the home just before the wedding rehearsal.

Hostesses for the occasion were Veva Flowers, Shirley Calliham, and Pam Foley.

Finger sandwiches, water cookies, and Cokes were served.

A number of friends attended the shower.

ATASCOSA and MEDINA COUNTYINDIANS and PIONEERS

Contributed by Mrs. Lillian Morris

This newspaper clipping was reprinted in the "Pleasanton News", was originally printed in the "San Antonio Herald" on Nov. 2, 1861.

The Norvill KENNARD mentioned in the clipping was the younger brother of my great grandfather, James N. KENNARD. They came to Texas from Hinds Co., Miss., about 1853 with their mother, Susan TOMLIN KENNARD CAVENDER, (she being the widow of Joseph King KENNARD and married to Isaac CAVENDER). They settled in Atascosa Co. There were 4 KENNARD and 6 CAVENDER children. Isaac died in 1860, leaving his estate to Susan and the CAVENDER children. Susan died in 1873 and she left the homestead to Norvill. In 1874, Norvill KENNARD and Isaac CAVENDER, JR., donated land to the Shiloh Baptist Church. The cemetery contains graves of many of the KENNARDS. On the 1880 census for Atascosa Co., Norvill is listed as 41 years old, married to Mary Ann (STOKES), age 40 with children Lillie E., age 4 and Etta J., age 1. In 1898, Lillie married James L. GATES and in 1895, Etta married C. A. CROUCH. I have not been able to contact descendants of these two girls. - Mrs. Lillian Morris

"TEXAS PIONEERS IN BATTLE WITH INDIAN HORSE THIEVES"

(Editor's note: This interesting account of an Indian fight which touched Atascosa County was published more than 100 years ago).

By

Capt. A. J. Sowell Ex-Ranger

In regard to the killing of James WINTERS by Indians I give the following particulars as told by Dr. SPEED in his account of the affair in the San Antonio Herald. Some years ago the writer had a copy of the Herald containing the account and copied it for future use. The paper bore the date of Nov. 2, 1861. The account was as follows:

"Frio County, Oct. 24, 1861.

"Messrs. Editors:

"Having partially recovered from my wounds received in an encounter with Indians on Saturday, the 19th instant, at about 1 o'clock, and thinking a few words from myself and my comrades in defeat may be of interest to your readers, I endeavor to give you some of the incidents of the fight.

"At about 8 o'clock on the morning of this fateful day Mr. N. KENNARD came to Mr. HOOD's near my ranch, and informed me that the Indians had passed near my house with a large caballado of horses and that some of the neighbors were on the trail in pursuit. I instantly mounted my mule, then almost exhausted, I having been on his back some eight or 10 days almost constantly, and for the last four days riding in deep sand. I started home for my gun.

"I then happened to fall in with Mr. T. L. WARD, James BISHOP, James CRAIG and N. KENNARD. We all started out on a long gallop to find the trail, which we came across near the divide between the south fork of Cesquandara and the waters of the San Maguel (sic). We followed it as rapidly as we could in a gallop nearly all the time until we reached a high eminence overlooking the San Maguel valley, at which place I loaded my gun, not having taken time to do so up to this time.

"We then started on and in a few jumps we saw Mr. James M. WINTERS and W. W. DAVIDSON about one mile across the San Maguel on high ground waiting for us. The boys broke off at a rapid rate, leaving me greatly in the rear, their horses being fleetier than my mule. Upon coming up with them they informed us that the Indians were not more than two miles ahead. We all immediately started in pursuit, but did not go but a short distance before Mr. DAVIDSON's horse gave out, being a two-year old colt, and he, with much regret, was compelled to turn back, which left but six.

"We did not delay. We had no organization or understanding and at this time I mentioned to the boys that we must stay together, but upon the run I cannot say whether they all heard me or not. We there struck the blackjack timber between the San Maguel and Black Creek in which Mr. WINTERS and I were thrown together, when I again said we must all stay together. His reply I did not distinctly understand, but thought he said, 'Certainly.' About four or five miles from where we overtook WINTERS and DAVIDSON, and just as we came out of the thick blackjacks to the valley of Black Creek, BISHOP said: 'Boys, there they are.'

"At this instant WINTERS and KENNARD changed horses, KENNARD's horse being the fleetest in the company. Again I said we must all stay together, and without anything else being said the boys pushed on as fast as their several horses could carry them without ascertaining the number of the Indians, and leaving me greatly to the rear, having to make a run of about a mile from where we first saw them.

"The Indians, on discovering us, began to assemble together and to string their bows. They stabbed a little negro boy that they had with him, belonging to Mr. Marcellus FRENCH, in two places and gave him some external bruises, none of which were fatal, and left him and also the horses in a large mott of timber and ran up a hill. When overtaken by the boys they were out in open ground covered with tall grass and scrubby mesquite bushes, and then the fight began.

"At this time they were all behind the live oak mott, I could not see them. I must have been 150 or 200 yards behind, pressing on as hard as my mule would carry me. When I rounded the point of the timber all the Indian warriors were on foot and their horses stampeding. Their number was about 25, and they were yelling "Charge" as I understood the meaning of the word in English. They had been at this for some time before I came in sight of them from behind the timber. I then saw our boys in a state of confusion and disorder. Mr. WINTERS was down on one knee and surrounded by Indians.

"At about this stage, WINTERS said to WARD, 'Come to me,' which WARD attempted to do until he had exhausted his shots and had to retreat. I, seeing, his condition made the charge to his relief, and when near enough fired a volley upon the Indians from a double-barreled shotgun that I had got from Mr. DAVIDSON when he turned back. Not being in the habit of shooting such a gun, I caught the wrong trigger and before I could touch the other one an Indian shot my mule in the neck, which caused him to wheel around and commence pitching. This he continued to do for some 20 or 30 steps. The Indians, seeing me come up, commenced their charge on me.

"At this time I didn't know where the other boys were, but when my mule stopped pitching I saw all four on the retreat together, two on horseback and two on foot. CRAIG and BISHOP were on horseback, going off the way we came. My mule again commenced pitching, turning to the right and an Indian shot me in the back with an arrow, a glancing shot three or four inches deep and I then went to the boys. WARD was wounded in the back. He had lost his gun and his pistol was empty. KENNARD had also lost his gun and was wounded in the shoulder. BISHOP and CRAIG were unhurt. BISHOP had no pistol and only a single-barreled gun. KENNARD's and CRAIG's pistols proved inefficient and were of no use. The four had but two guns and one pistol, all empty.

"When I came up I gave WARD my shotgun and BISHOP got him up behind him, and KENNARD mounted behind CRAIG. After traveling 150 or 200 yards to a clump of trees they got down to load their guns. I then discovered that WARD did not have the gun that I gave him. I asked him what he had done with it, and he said I did not hand it to him. Some of the boys now told him I had done so. His wound had so paralyzed him that he was not cognizant of what had transpired for a time. His wound, though painful, was not dangerous. KENNARD's wound was slight.

"The Indians having left the horses and stabbed the little negro, and leaving behind them the large mott of timber of which they had complete possession, proved to me that they were willing to make their escape, but seeing the confused state of our boys in the charge they dismounted and commenced themselves to charge, the horses all stampeding except a few on which were squaws. Their whole number must have been 25 to 30. By not attempting to pursue us in our unarmed and disabled condition proves to me that the boys did good service with their shots, and when they went back after WINTERS there were five or six different pools of blood near where WINTERS lay dead.

"WARD says he shot one who fell from his horse and his horse kicked him. Their wounded and dead was the cause of their not following us. Had I been up to the charge and missed my shots all would have been killed for they quit the other boys and come after me and came near cutting me off from the others, of which I was entirely unconscious until my mule stopped pitching. At this point I looked back to see if I could be of any service to WINTERS. He was falling over, having made his last effort.

"My comrades, no doubt did all in their power to save our unfortunate companion, but of no avail. None knew him but to admire him. He was in every sense of the word a gentleman, and as a neighbor, citizen and frontiersman was all that he should have been. His bereaved companion has lost a kind husband, and his small children a faithful father. This was the second time he had pursued and overtaken the Indians. The first time he and his comrades did not charge them, their number being too small for attack. After this he had been heard to say the next time he saw the Indians he would make the charge and get some of them anyhow, and now I have no doubt he kept his word, for he never looked back after he commenced the charge to see where the rest of us were.

"The Indians must have had 200 horses or more, as they covered a large space of ground. We could not see them all for the bushes in the valley. About the same time of day five of our neighbors - Major A. ALLEN, Nathaniel TERRY, D. YARBOE, J.W. BENNETT and R. CUDE - coming on after us over the same trail, discovered a band of Indians going up the Chicon near the mouth of the Francisco and near where our trail had crossed the Maguel. As soon as they could assemble they made the run after the Indians, who, when discovered, commenced to charge. The major and company dismounted, fastened their horses and made a stand. The Indians, before coming in range of the guns, turned off. The number of Indians was from 15 to 18, but they finally left and the major and his party went on westward, riding in the direction of where we had the engagement, distant about five miles. We learned at Mrs. TOMLIN's that about 12 men from the Hondo were close on the trail, not more than two or three hours after us, where we were in the battle with the Indians, so if we had all kept together and kept them off from the horses we had got all of the animals, or so engaged them until we had been reinforced by these 12 men. Monday morning 20 men started to pursue six miles beyond D'Hanis about eight or 10 hours behind them, intending to keep the trail until they found out where they went or overtook them.

"That they were Indians of small stature there is no mistake. The little negro boy said they were all indians except one. and he was a Mexican and had curly hair, and that there were three squaws with them. They also killed two grown negroes of Mr. FRENCH. They killed a man by the name of HERNDON, wounded O'BRIEN and ANDERSON, and pursued another man named TUCKER in sight of Pleasanton, all below here. This is the fourth time they have been in this season, always going out near where we had the fight with them. There must have been 50 Indians in a space of five miles at the time we fought them.

"Respectfully yours,
"TROS. SPEED.

"We the undersigned corroborate the foregoing statement.

" L.T. WARD,
" JAS. BISHOP,
" JAS. CRAIG,
" NORVILL KENNARD."

The writer knew James WINTERS, Lycurgus WARD, Norvill KENNARD, John BISHOP, Tucker and Wess DAVIDSON of those mentioned by Dr. SPEED, WINTERS, WARD and DAVIDSON were brothers-in-law, the two former having married the last's sisters, Mandy and Hannah DAVIDSON. The WINTERS were oldtime Texans, four of them being in the battle of San Jacinto and one of them, Sergeant William WINTERS, was badly wounded. They were all brave, fearless men and good citizens.

Dr. SPEED was well and favorably known in the community where he lived. His wound was not as slight as he seemed to think it was when he wrote the account of the fight, for he died about two years afterwards and some think from the effects of the arrow which the Indian had shot into him. KENNARD was also a long time recovering and WARD carried the iron spike in his back to Pleasanton, and it was with great difficulty withdrawn with a pair of pinchers. After this he was wounded in another Indian battle.

These same Indians on the way out killed "Mustang" MOORE, Pete KETCHUM and McMURRAY, tax assessor of Bandera county, but they were defeated in the mountains by "Bigfoot" WALLACE in command of about 30 settlers. About 190 head of horses were recovered and brought back.

(More information on the WINTERS-CUDE family can be found in OUR HERITAGE Vol. XX No. 1, pp 23, 24 and 25 - Editor) (Ed: typist has underlined surnames the first time they appear on a page. This is for both the convenience of readers and especially for the indexer, to index the name for that page.)
