Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

This volume is part of the family records of Marie Yarbrough Schaeffer, who has graciously provided them to the YNGHA. This and the other volumes of the Yarbrough Family Records are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

Those who are witnesses on Millstone Run for Joshua Y.'s land, above, are Menoah & James Yarbrough and Green Hill, p. 19. Notice that on p. 113 John Yarbrough is also seen, as land is sold to John Norwood. This is the closest connection to any adjacent Yarbrough-Norwood plantations that has yet been found for the family of George Yarbrough who married Miss Elizabeth Norwood.

It appears that George Yarbrough may have been on a land deed with John Yarbrough [as Geo.] but his name, as a witness has also been interpreted as [Tho.] As there is no will known connecting George Yarbrough with his own parents, it is interesting note some possibility of a close paternal link to the Yarbrough cousins listed above. When he married, George Yarbrough moved, with his wife, onto land next to the Norwood family and, at present, cannot be traced back to his own roots. This group of men inter-acting with the Norwoods makes it appear that he may have been born near Sycamore Creek between Millstone and Cedar Creek. [Map p. 7.]

Dear Mr. Yarbrough:

I was given your name by Mr. Barney Yarbrough in Clarksville when I inquired about Yarbrough Family information. He said he thought you helped organize a family reunion a few years ago.

My husband's maternal side is Lyle/Yarbrough, and we've finally located some Lyle information (Palmyra area, "James Robert Lyle, son of Gideon Bailey "Doc" Lyle), married Annilou or Lou (Lucy?) Yarbrough (born Jan 1866). They had seven living children:

Mary Golda b. No. 1886
Robert b. Feb. 1893
Adee b. Oct. 1895
Anna Lou b. May 1898
Florence b. 1900
Julian Gracey b. Jan 1904
Patrick H. b. Dec. 1906

of pnce, Fla.

The son of Patrick H., William H. "Bill" Lyle and his wife were in Clarksville in April, and like me, were referred to LtCol Paul B. Lyle who helped us sort out the Lyle side, but, of course, he doesn't know anything about the Yarbroughs.

Would you be able to provide the name(s) of a Yarbrough Family Assn. or someone working on that line? I've gone through all the census films and located many Yarbroughs, but can't identify which family our Annilou (if correct) was from.

Likewise, I've checked "Early Middle Tenn. Marriages" by Sistler to no avail.

Any information you could provide or a direction to follow would be most appreciated.

Thank you for your assistance. I've enclosed an SASE.

Sincerely,

Sue Lane

August 4 '97

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Schaeffer:

Was delighted to receive your July 30 letter and information on Louisa Yarbrough. You provided just what I needed to know! I'd come to the conclusion that Lou had to be the daughter of Francis Marion, but had only her birthdate to prove it. The family always referred to her as Lou, but in the 1910 census, she is referred to as Lucy.

Is your Marriage Book source the official county marriage book, or another one? I ask, only because over a year ago, the Clarksville Library supposedly could not find any marriage between a J.R. Lyle and Lou Yarbrough, which brought things to a halt for me.

Additionally, my mother in law thought her grandfather was John Robert Lyle, rather than James Robert Lyle. I was put on the right track with the help of William "Bill" and Martha Lyle of Pace, Fla and LCol. Paul B. Lyle of Clarksville.

Between the two of you, I'll be forced to get some genealogy software--would be interested in knowing what you use; ~~the~~ Family Group Records are very appealing. you

My initial foray into genealogy, some 20 years ago, was pre-computers, and was derailed when my third child was born in '81. I'm only now digging out my files and starting again.

Will happily share what meager information I have; on the Yarbrough family it is copies of census pages, and indices of Census records.

Copies info to follow.

I will close with enormous thanks, to go to the copy machine and post office. My apologies to each of the "Bills" for the rough condition of my notes. My impulse to "share" information right away is to blame! Thanks again, and best regards.

Sincerely,

Sue Lane France

Dear ~~S~~haeffers:

Thank you so much for your packet of pictures, maps and information, which I received on Friday. I'd just found the 1836 map in one small volume of Mont. Cty Gen Journals that the LDS had on file from 1971 and 1975 (only six copies); the copies of the 1880 map, districts 17-20 which you sent were the ones I really needed.

The pictures were quite a surprise. I did speak with one of Goldie Lyle's (James Robert & Lou Yarbrough's oldest child) daughters-- Imogene Frazer Lockhart who lives in Jackson, TN last weekend. She remembers as a child visiting John Robert Yarbrough & Mattie. So, the picture is especially meaningful. My mother-in-law probably visited them also and that is where the confusion with John Robert and James Robert (Lyle) probably came from.

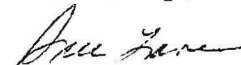

I do hope someone will have a picture of Lou Yarbrough. Ruth has two of her--one as a young (15) girl and one with her twin boys. Will check with Goldie's offspring--Frazers--who live in Jackson, to see if they have any others. Family has not been in contact, as often happens with cousins and their offspring.

Do you have any information on the death date and burial of Lou Yarbrough Lyle? It was obviously after 1914, since she and Ada are listed as Francis Marion's survivors. I understand from Mrs. Gordon Yarbrough that both Milton & Ada Mellon left Clarksville. Are you in contact with any of their offspring?

Thank you too, for the Marriage Certificate and the Index page. I am having trouble reading the two hand written documents (wills? court documents 1873), but I thank you for sending them.

I include family group sheets for Lou Yarbrough (James Robert) Lyle. I have get particulars, which I'm working on. I'm also ordering PAF; had obtained an order form from the LDS Family History Center. It looks like a good one. Martha Bankson Lyle in Pace, Fla uses Family Roots. Will close or this will never get in the mail. Have a good Labor Day Week-end if I don't talk to you before then. Thanks again, and our best to you both.

Sincerely,

Sue Lane France

The Lyle Family

It is speculated that Lyle is derived from the Norman invader's name for the native Celtic people they found on the islands around Northern Great Britain, "De L'isle" (French for "of the island") became "Lisle" then "l'isle" Then "Lysle" Then "Lyle". NOTE: was found as "Lyals" in the States.

Thomas Lyle came from Scotland to America in the 18th Century. He married Hannah Sims and one of their children was Joedan (pronounced Jordun) b. 1768. Jordan Lyle was married three times first to a Powell then a Yarbrough and finally to Annie Bumpass. b. 1777-d. 1861 by one of these marriages he had a son Jordan (I'll refer to him as "Jordan II for clarity's sake) Jordan II was born in 1800 in N.C. . About 1816—1817 Jordan I and family came over the Mountains to Montgomery County TN . (When our Grandfather Lyle was a little boy) Elizabeth Jackson wife of Jordan II , told him stories of the deep over night snow falls they experienced while crossing the Appalachians Jordan I bought 160 acres of land from Richard Whitehead in 1816 or 1817 located Bud's Creek in Montgomery County. At this time everyone had to help keep what roads there were in repair and soon after he had settled, Jordan I was called to work on the road from Robertson Ferry on the Cumberland River to Bud's Creek. Some time before 1830 Jordan II Married Elizabeth Jackson b. 1800 , And had at least 8 children. A girl who died before 1825, William b.1824, a boy who died 1825 Louisa b.1830 Arabella b.1832, Joseph Lewis b.1842 d.1924, Kitty b.1844, Nancy b.1840. Joseph Lewis was our Great- Grandfather. In 1843 Jordan I died at the age of 75 and in the 1850's Jordan II and family moved to Palmyra, TN

Approximately contemporary with Jordan II was Thomas Davis b.1810 in TN . Thomas Davis had a club foot and seems to have had a colorful personality by the tales that have come down to us. He may have moved around a great deal working at small jobs. Perhaps he came to Montgomery County to work for the Yellow Creek Furnace as many young men did then. On Dec. 26, 1840 Tom was married to Lucretia Vaughn b.1820 from AL. by A. M. Rogers, Justice of the Peace. They lived near the Gulenhorn Creek. They had at least 4 children, probably more: Oliver b.1842, John T. b.1844, Elizabeth (Bettie) b. 1847-d.1925, Catherine b. 1850. (Bettie Davis was our Great- Grand Mother).

Another contemporary of Jordan II and Tom Davis was John Yarbrough b.1803 N.C., John Yarbrough married a woman named Mary someone b.1806. and had at least 8 children: a boy born before 1830, William b.1830, Francis Marion b.1833, Milly b. 1835, Henry b. 1839, Elizabeth b. 1841, Elisa Jane b. 1844, Nelson b. 1846,.

Milly Yarbrough married Joseph Weldon Yarbrough (probably a distant cousin) on Nov. 26, 1850 in the presence of John Smith. This is the Milly Yarbrough for which the Milly Yarbrough Cemetery was named. (the plot was on her land). Interestingly, in the 1880 Census Elisa Jane and Elizabeth lied about their ages to make themselves about 10 years younger than they were. Eliza Jane married Isham Harris. Nelson, "Uncle Nels" sold mowing machines in Slayden and had a farm on Leatherwood Creek. Henry Yarbrough was our Great-Grandfather.

Contemporary with Jordan II was Tom Davis and Henry Yarbrough was Joseph Jackson. Joseph Jackson was born in TN in 1805. He married Tabitha Someone b.1812. They had at least 9 children. Jesse b. 1830, Andrew b.1832, John b. 1834, Joseph b. 1836 Elizabeth b. 1837, Martha b. 1838, Selina b.1841, Sarah b. 1842, Henry b. 1845. They lived near Gulenhorn Creek (Gulenhorn Means "cows horn " in Celtic) Selina Jackson married Henry Yarbrough and was our Great-Grandmother

Civil War: Dr. Aristotle Eldridge, Son of William Henry Eldridge was a country Doctor and store keeper for the Palmyra area from 1850 on. Dr. Eldridge's post war house is still standing in Palmyra although it is in ill-repair. Our Ancestors appear off and on through the records of Dr. Eldridge.

1860: Jesse Jackson is recorded in Dr. Eldridge's account book on Mar. 6, 1860 W. A. (William?) Yarbrough has an account in 1860 for 15 lbs. nails $1.00 , 4 lbs. Coffee 80 cents, 41 lbs. Beef $2.05.

1861: Bills receivable from Jesse Jackson in Jan. 1861 $87.00. There is also an account listed for Andrew Jackson.

In 1861 Joseph L. Lyle (our Great—Grandfather) and Henry Yarbrough entered the Confederate Army Infantry. Joe L. Lyle was a private in Co. E 49th Tenn. James B. Bailey was the company commander

1862: There was a medical visit by Dr. Eldridge to Jordan Lyle in Jun 1862

In Feb. 1862 Joseph L. Lyle and Henry Yarbrough Fought in the Battle of Fort Donelson near Dover TN Joe was hit with a bullet on his belt buckle and didn't hurt him Both Joe Lyle and Henry Yarbrough were captured by the Yankees and were sent as prisoners to Camp Douglas near Chicago. The contemporary accounts of the terrible filthy and crowded conditions on the prisoner's boats are horrible. Joe Lyle (probably Henry Yarbrough also) were released on Loyalty vows from Camp Douglas in the summer of 1862. The Union provided Transportation part of the way. The former prisoners had to complete their trip to their homes any way they could. Joe's feet were blistered after the long walk from where ever he was released. Some time later in 1862 or early 1863 Joe Lyle ignored his loyalty oath and joined Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest's Cavalry with Dr. Eldridge's help Dr. Eldridge provided him with a horse and equipment. He remained with Forrest's Cavalry for the remainder of the war.

1863: In the earl spring of 1863 a union gunboat Palmyra on the Cumberland river was fired upon. The Union Soldiers ordered Palmyra to give up the person or persons responsible, but the citizens of Palmyra remained quiet. So in retaliation the Unionist had the town of Palmyra burned to the ground on April 4, 1863 with the exception of one house which was owned by a Union Sympathizer. Dr. Eldridge lost his house, stables, cribs, smoke house, Kitchen and grocery store, valued at $2,000.00-----all furniture burned, store house valued at $1,000.00 plus goods on hand valued at $800.00 --- 2 houses --- 2 dwelling houses, Doctor's office, lot of medicine dwellings valued at $2,500.00, Library of medical books valued at $150.00, Medicine $300.00, Dr. Eldridge went out of the store business but continued to practice Medicine.

Some time during the Civil War some guerillas stopped at the Jackson homestead. Joseph Jackson had died a few years previously and there were no other men at home (they were probably serving in the War) but one boy and Henry who was about 17 or 18 years old Henry took the family's only remaining horse and hid it in one of the fields. The guerillas killed their chickens and made the women cook for them and finally found the horse and stole it but it was later recovered.

1864: On April 24, 1864 Dr. Eldridge filed claims in Clarksville TN against the U.S.Goverment for 5 Mules--$200.00, 3 horses--$350.00, 4 small mules-- $100.00. Jordan Lyle II Witnessed the affidavit. These animals had been taken from Dr. Eldridge by Col. Straight of the U.S.Army with the promise that the U.S.Goverment would pay for the animals. Col. Straight needed them to fight Forrest's Cavalry. Ironically Gen. Forrest badly defeated Col. Straight forces in Alabama or Georgia. (remember Joe Lyle was in Forrest's Cavalry at this time.)

Selina Jackson and Henry Yarbrough had probably been engaged since before the war. Selina had a picture of the young Henry that she kept by her side all her life and that she had it buried with her. They were probably married in 1863 or 1864. They were our great-grandparents. Some time after the war Joe L. Lyle married Bettie Davis. They were also our great-grandparents.

Other excerpts from Dr. Eldridge's appointment book and the account book of the George Nolan store at Palmyra: an account with John Yarbrough from March 1836 to Dec. 1837, Henry Jackson—Mar.23, 1870, a visit to Joe Lyle's wife July 22, 1872. This was probably the birth of our Grandfather Thomas Jordan Lyle. He also visited Joe Lyle's Mother Sep. 13, 1872. Nelse Yarbrough visit and medicine for wife Dec. 28, 1872, visited Selina Yarbrough Sep. 26, 1872 and Feb.16, 1871. There was also an account with Joe Lyle for 1880-1881.

When our Grandfather, Thomas Jordan Lyle was a little boy , he remembered his grandfather Jordan II who was 72 when Thomas Jordan was born. The old man lived next door to the family of his son, Joe L. Lyle and the son Joe built his father a wooden platform in the shade so the old man could lie on it during the day. It was Thomas Jordan's job as a small boy to fan the flies off his grandfather while he slept.

In 1877 at the age of 38, Henry Yarbrough died of what was then called "dropsy". He left a wife and four children (Nariah died young) the youngest of which, Tennessee or Tennie. Was only a few months old. Tennie was our grandmother. Once not long after his death, Selina loaned the family horse to one of brother's son-in-law in return for payment in corn. Selina had the horse returned but did not get the corn promised her, so she appealed To her brother. He said that there was nothing that he could do because his daughter and son-in-law had already left the neighborhood and moved across the Cumberland River. Then Selina appealed to one of her husband's Brothers, probably William Yarbrough and he wrote the wayward borrower a letter in which he threatened to have him arrested. So he then brought Selina the corn as promised. Selina sold the horse for a 10 acre plot and log cabin on it for a home on Gulenhorn Creek. The place was in a hollow through which Gulenhorn Creek flows. She lived there until 1898 or 1899.

Some times when Dr. Eldridge was passing by the hollow in the early morning on his way to visit a patient he would stop by Selina's . In the winter his mustache would be frozen stiff, and Selina would have him a hot cup of coffee which she would hand him through the window to thaw his beard. Later when young Dr. John Wickham began to practice in addition to Dr. Eldridge, he often warned Selina about leaving lights on at night. Selina made her family's living by farming their few acres, taking odd (such as cleaning for the Weavers) and especially by doing sewing. She would sew until late at night by the lamp light. But Dr. Wickham said that her light was too obvious from the road that ran along the top of the ridge and that it might attract some one "up to no good" passing that way. When Tennie was young she was courted by "Doc" Cunningham. Once he jumping strangely in little jerks. Tennie suspected her niece Lela Wickham (Sarah Yarbrough and Bob Wickham's girl) to be up to one of her practical jokes. She found that Lela had been twisting the hairs on Doc's leg around a stick that she had poked through the cat hole in the floor of the house. Selina and Tennie went to church at beech grove near their home. Thomas Jordan Lyle said that he could Tennie's voice singing hymns from the top of the hill above the church when he came courting on Sunday. Thomas Jordan Lyle and Tennie Yarbrough married in March 1897 and for about one year after they married they lived with Selina in the hollow. There on Feb.15, 1898 Hartwell Lyle was born. Soon after, They and Selina moved to a house on Bud's Creek near Hackberry.

In 1905 Thomas Jordan built a new house farther from the satble. For one reason because Tennie had persistent Malaria chills in the house so near the creek. Between 1905 and 1909 went totally blind from cataracts. Selina died in 1917. Around 1919 Thomas Jordan Lyle bought the "old Bud Henry place" on yellow creek in Houston County and moved there. (The Lyles had been in Montgomery County a Century) Tennie cried when she left her home near Hackberry and the Gulenhorn neighborhood.

Our Grandmother, Tennie Yarbrough Lyle, told her children and Grandchildren when they were bad to be good or "Ole Edinburgh" would come at night and eat them up. Ole Edinburgh must be a memory passed down through the centuries of some Duke or outlaw of the town of Edinburgh, Scotland. Who must have raided the town and villages about the time during Edinburgh's dark period in the late 17th or early 18th century. Yarbrough meaning belonging to the borough of Yar may have originally come from around Edinburgh, Scotland.

DANIEL CLEMENT LYLE

EARLY LYLE FAMILY HISTORY

Thomas Lyle emigrated from Scotland to North Carolina about the year 1740, bringing with him a brother, John Lyle. They were then aged 18 and 16 years respectively. In North Carolina, Thomas Lyle married Hanna Sims and to them were born six children. Children: Jordan, John, Richard, Nancy, Onie and Tabitha. The younger brother, John, was never married.

Jordan Lyle, oldest son of Thomas Lyle, came from North Carolina to Tennessee in 1806. He was married three times, all in North Carolina. First, to Lyla Powell; they had no children. Next to Mary Yarbrough, to whom was born one child, Elizabeth Nelson Lyle. And last to Ann Bailey Bumpas, to whom were born eight children. Children: Robert Mickleberry, Thomas, James, William H., Henry, Andrew Jordan, Gideon Bailey and Eliza Ann.

James Lyle, third son of Jordan Lyle, was born March 29, 1809; died September 28, 1885. James Lyle married Sallie Ann McCorkle (Born: March 14, 1814; died: November 12, 1888) on December 4, 1833. To them were born twelve children:

Henry Clay Lyle was a soldier in the Confederate Army, a private in Starnes' Escort. He was captured by Federal troops at the Battle of Ft. Donelson. (Source: Tennesseans in the Civil War, Part 2, Published by the Civil War Centennial Commission of 1965.) He died a few days thereafter in a Federal Prison in Nashville, TN. He was buried in the Federal Cemetery on Gallatin Road in Nashville. His grave is not numbered and consequently is unknown. Mr. William Lyle of Southside, TN, has a powder horn used by Henry Clay Lyle in the Civil War and inscribed "H. C. Lyle".

Abram Jordan Lyle and Daniel Clement Lyle were also Confederate soldiers. Daniel Clement Lyle was also in the Battle of Ft. Donelson. He had charge of the battery magazine and by his efficiency aided materially in the (initial) victory achieved over the Federal gunboats. (Source: US Dept. of Interior, National Park Service, Stone's River National Battlefield, Murfreesboro, TN.) He survived the war and went to Atlanta, GA.

Henry Clay Lyle and his twin brother Theodore Freylinghuysen Lyle were named for the Whig candidates for President and Vice-President in 1844.

Mr. Slayden Yarbrough
5242 Edmondson Pike, # 110
Nashville, TN 37211

Dear Slayden;

Your query about George Yarbrough in the March Yarbrough Quarterly was sent to me since I am working on the George Yarbrough line also. My mother was Addie Lee Yarbrough, bn Nov. 11, 1898 in Ark., the daughter of Francis Marvin Yarbrough, bn 1853 in Gibson Co, TN, the son of George Yarbrough, bn 1819 in Montgomery Co., TN, the son of James Yarbrough, bn 1779 in Halifax Co, NC, the son of George Yarbrough, Sr., bn 1743 in VA.

I am stuck on proving that my great grand father, George Yarbrough was the son of James Yarbrough, bn 1779. I have the will of George, Jr. bn 1777. My mother claimed that her great grand father was married to a Cherokee woman. This would have been Jentsey Channel.

My mothers oldest two brothers, George and James Yarbrough did not want to come to Texas from Ark. in 1900. So they went back to Memphis and married their sweethearts. Had big families and lived long lives in TN.

I would love to hear from you and would share anything I have. It looks as though you have more than I do already.

Your Cousin,

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schaeffer
500 Briarwood Drive
Clarksville, TN 37040

Dear Bill and Marie;

Slayden Yarbrough gave your names to me. I have been trying to prove that James Y. bn. 1779 in Halifax Co. NC was the father of George Y. born in Montgomery Co, TN in 1819. My grand father was a son of this Geo. Y. His name was Francis Marvin Y. born in Gibson Co., TN in 1853. My mother was the last child born to Francis and Cora Ann Gray Yarbrough, she was born Nov. 11, 1898 in Ark. Their family moved to Texas in 1920.

I have written to the court house in Clarksville and received some information. I have the will of James Y's.(bn. 1779) brother George Y. (Bn. 1775) But I can not find a list of the Children of James Y. My mother always said she was 1/8 Cherokee Indian. This would mean that James was married to a Cherokee lady when his son Geo. Y. was born in 1819. I am enclosing a print out of what I have. I knew a great number of Yarbroughs in Texas when I was growing up. There are still some of them around. But since my mother was the youngest and I was not born until she was 38 years old, my 1st cousins were all about 25 years older than I.

Thanks for your help. I will gladly pay for any costs you incur. Have a happy Thanksgiving.

Yours truly,

B. R. Smith

Dear Ronnie:

It was a pleasure to get your letter as we are always delighted to meet another Yarbrough "cousin."

I will first tell you a little about the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc., known more affectionately as "YNGHA". YNGHA is incorporated under the laws of Virginia. We have members in nearly every state, as well as England and Canada. Our members are primarily Yarbrough (all spellings of the name) family researchers. YNGHA's goal is to locate, identify and preserve the history of all the branches and lines of the Yarbrough family. Toward this goal, we share records already found and look for new records to share.

YNGHA's membership year runs from September 1st through August 31st of each year. Membership entitles you to the Yarbrough Family Quarterly ("YFQ"), published each September, December, March and June. A sample copy is enclosed. Membership also gives you access to thousands of Yarbrough records already located, as well as putting you in contact with other Y. researchers - some of whom may be working on the same Yarbrough line as you.

The earliest proven Yarbrough immigrant to date is Richard Yarbrough (Yerburgh), born 1615 in England. He left England between the years 1635-1640 and is found in the Virginia records as early as 1640. Richard Yarbrough died in 1702 at the age of 87 years and is buried in the Blandford Church Cemetery in Petersburg, Virginia. His is the earliest grave in that cemetery. Another immigrant, Ambrose Yarbrough, left England about 1710 and family tradition says that he went straight to family in Virginia and married a great granddaughter of Richard Yarbrough. Most of the researchers who prove ancestors back to the early 1700s descend from Richard. The earliest Yarbroughs are found in Virginia. Between the years 1750-1755, they began migrating to NC. From there the migration began to spread through the southern states, SC, GA, AL and on westward.

You requested information on Patsy Yarbrough who married Stephen Jackson. I have checked our files and find that the only definite record I have is their marriage record in Montgomery Co., TN. As "Patsy" was the common nickname for Martha, I've also checked for records on Martha Yarbrough. Please complete the enclosed family group sheet for Stephen and Patsy as completely as you can and return it to me. Perhaps the birth or death places of one of the other children will provide clues on other county records we can check.

You felt that Patsy was a daughter of either William and Permelia (Parker) Yarbrough or James and Jinty (Channel) Yarbrough. Using records from Montgomery Co., TN, the Charles W. Lewis day book (Mary Ann Seymour gave me a copy about 12 years ago), and notes from other researchers of this line, I have compiled a family group sheet for the known children of William Yarbrough and Permelia Parker. Please note that this is not intended to be a verified family -- there may have been other children.

If Patsy and Stephen married in 1839, she should have still been shown in her father's family on the 1830 census. I cannot locate William and Permelia on the 1830 census. The 1820 census shows that William had a daughter aged 16-26 (Maria); three daughters 10-16 (Elizabeth, Candis, Sarah) and 1 daughter under 5 (probably Mary).

I do not have the names of the family of James and Jinty (Channel). However, on the 1830 census, James has a daughter in the 10-15 age group who is not in his household on the 1840 census. James would appear to be a more likely candidate to be Patsy's father. It also appears that we need to locate the records of James' family. James appears on the 1800 Census as a male aged 26-45 with a wife aged 16-26 and 1 daughter under 10. As there is just one child, he probably had not been married long and was probably closer to 26 than 45. Using averages (man marrying age 21 to 25, woman 17-20, and first child being born within the first two years of marriage and following children born approximately every other year):

James Yarbrough	26-45	=	b.	1755 - 1774
Jinty Channell	16-26	=	b.	1774 - 1784
daughter	under 10	=	b.	1790 - 1800

As there was just one child, she was probably age 3 or younger, making the birth ca 1797 -- which would give an approximately marriage year of 1795-96. The NC marriage bonds should be checked for a marriage between James Yarbrough and Virginia (or Jinty - Jinty was the common nickname for Virginia) Channel between 1790 -1800. I did not find a Channel family living in Halifax Co., NC on the 1790 Census. However, the family could have been missed by the census taker or the Channel family could have moved into the area after 1790. A check of the land grants and deed records between 1790-1800 for Channel might be beneficial. If a Channel family can be found in the same vicinity as the Yarbroughs, a check of the will/estate records for the name might turn up something. If Jinty inherited from her father, the estate records just might show the name of her husband. Sometimes a will even leaves bequests to grandchildren.

Perhaps some of the other researchers of this line will have records that will assist you.

married Abraham Coon

Evelyn and her family published a book on the Coon family about three years ago. You will note that Abraham Coon married two Yarbrough sisters. As a bishop in the mormon church, Abraham Coon practiced plural marriages. (He also had a third wife). This book does contain some of the ancestry of the allied family lines.

Q query in the quarterly might put you in contact with other researchers of your line who have more records. There is a query form in the sample quarterly enclosed.

Regarding the Charles W. Lewis day book, it does not list any Jackson names. However, there seems to have been quite a close connection with the Jackson family. Pat Streeter's family group sheet shows that John and Mary (Vaughn) Yarbroughs son Henry C. married Selina G. Jackson in Montgomery Co. in 1864; their daughter Elizabeth married Selina's brother Jonathan Jackson in Montgomery Co., TN 23 Jun 1862. Also, John and Mary's daughter Milly married Joseph Weldon Yarbrough, the son of George and Rhoda (Suter) Yarbrough.

I am not acquainted with the Ed Ashby of Fenton, Missouri that you asked about. The post office does offer a forwarding address service. Check with your local post office for the current price. It used to be $1.00. If you send this fee to the Fenton, Missouri post office (zip 63026) and request the forwarding address of Ed Ashby, they will send it to you.

Please keep me posted on your research and let us know if we can assist you further.

Best wishes,

Karen Mazock

When the groom called for his bride he was horseback and led the horse equipped with side saddle and riding habit for the bride. Her wedding dress was purple henrietta cloth, trimmed with silver braid. The groom wore blue suit, new shoes, and hat that totaled the price of $27! They started housekeeping the next day in the Bumpus Mills vicinity.

Within the year of their marriage the farm, known as Gentry Place was bought. It was located in the neighborhood of the Jim Lee Sr., and Millard Brandon farms. On April 20, 1893 their first child John Calvin arrived, then Frances Christina who lived four months. Other children born at Gentry farm were Mary, Henry Louis, Irene and Eva.

Eleven years were spent on Gentry Place. Farm of 243 acres was bought on Dyers Creek and about three miles from the county seat of Dover. The family moved into what was later called the "old house" to await the building of the new. Bessie was born at the "Old house". When the new house was completed Katy Wilmoth was almost due.

The move to the new home was a big event, many new things were bought and planned for it. Picture taking of the new house with family took priority. John Louis was in rush to send the picture to sister Marie and other relatives in Germany as proof that he had made it well in America.

The Durrwachter children all married Stewart Countians except Katy. Her husband Newell Yarborough was reared in Montgomery County.

The correct pronunciation of the name Durrwachter was seldom heard by John Louis. Although he was self taught to read and avidly read the daily paper and farm magazines he had retained the German "brogue" (a remark that he disliked) he had difficulty in making the umlaut enunciation. The German unlaufs belong over the U and A in the name. Louis always used the umlauts in his signature. People in general, at early time used the pronunciation Dowester and the family accepted their version as the easy way for all. — Bess Drrwächter Carney

JAMES AND TABITHA EASLEY

James Easley was a prosperous farmer owning approximately 1000 acres of land on Moccasin and Guice's Creeks near Cumberland City. According to the 1850 U.S. Census Report, he was born in North Carolina in 1793. The names of his parents are unknown to the writer. In the above census report there was one other Easley family in Stewart County at that time. There were two members in this family, Road and Fanny Easley, and they were adjacent neighbors of James Easley. Road was born in North Carolina in 1775 and Fanny was born in 1790 in the same state. It seems likely that this family was closely related to James Easley.

James Easley married Tabitha who was born in 1790 in North Carolina. The young couple made the long journey west from their native state by horseback, bringing a few household items with them. The following children were born to this union.

Martha — born in Tennessee in 1822 and married Henry Harris

Elizabeth — born in Tennessee in 1825

Betsy — born in Tennessee in 1835, and married E. B. Majors

James and Tabitha established a diversified farming operation and made heavy investments in a young, viable slave force. In the 1850 U.S. Census Report, James indicated the value of real estate owned at $1050. In the 1860 report, he claimed real estate valued at $2,450 and personal property valued at $19,000. This latter amount was in major part the value he placed on his slaves. In 1860 he owned nine male and eleven female slaves that ranged in age from one to forty-five years of age. The median age was 17 and all were black. The slaves were housed in small, crude cabins above Mud Spring and close to the main house. All of the buildings were constructed of logs. The Easleys provided well for their slaves and treated them with respect and kindness. In return the slaves worked hard and were loyal until the end of the Civil War. James rarely resorted to physical punishment and even then it was used with cautious reserve. Quarrels and fights generally broke out at night in the quarters following the purchase of a new Negro. Establishing a place among the suspicious and jealous blacks was never a simple matter for a newcomer. Easley found his horse-whip to be an efficient instrument for normalizing these antisocial activities.

Approximately 175 acres of the farm were relatively fertile creekbottom land which was used primarily for the production of corn. Small quantities of corn could be sold locally but it was necessary to seek a more distant market for the major part of the crop. Once each year the Easleys loaded the corn crop on a log raft and floated it down the Cumberland and Ohio Rivers to Paducah, Kentucky, where it was sold.

After the first battle at Fort Donelson during the Civil War, Yankee troops were a frequent and unwelcome sight at the Easley farm. Foraging parties of both North and South were eager to confiscate anything that could be used to support their armies. After a few losses it was found that the cursing, tobacco chewing scavengers with their rattling wagons could be heard approaching at some distance. At the first sight or sound of these "visitors" the farm became a "beehive" of activity. Slaves and slave-owners alike swarmed across the farm to round-up livestock which was corralled in obscure, narrow hollows in the woods. Smokehouses were emptied of most of the cured pork meat and this was likewise concealed in scattered locations in the woods. When the "guests" finally arrived they were greeted by an exhausted but friendly assemblage of poor, innocent looking whites and blacks who apparently had already assisted in the war effort about all they were capable. These ingenious and devious actions enabled the Easleys to escape the misfortunes that befell many un-cooperative farmers in the county.

Tabitha died between 1850 and 1860. She was probably buried in the cemetery where James was later buried. James Easley died around 1880 and was buried in the family cemetery along with a number of other relatives and Negro slaves. This cemetery is located on the present north property line of the Gunson farm approximately one-fourth mile from Guice's Creek and uphill from Mud Spring. The spring is small and not well known even by local people. None of the graves is marked with stones but they can be easily located because of their sunken condition. — *Submitted by Thomas E. MONTGOMERY

COUNTY

1836 MAP OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY

On 3 December 1835 the Tennessee General Assembly passed an act to provide for the laying off of the several counties into civil districts of convenient size under which Justices of the Peace and Constables should be elected.

James Reasons, William Trotter and Armstead Rogers were appointed commissioners to accomplish the districting for Montgomery County. On March 8, 1836 they recorded the results of their labors in Will Book G, pages 258-263. A copy of their plat appears on the following page, together with annotations derived from the accompanying plat narrative.

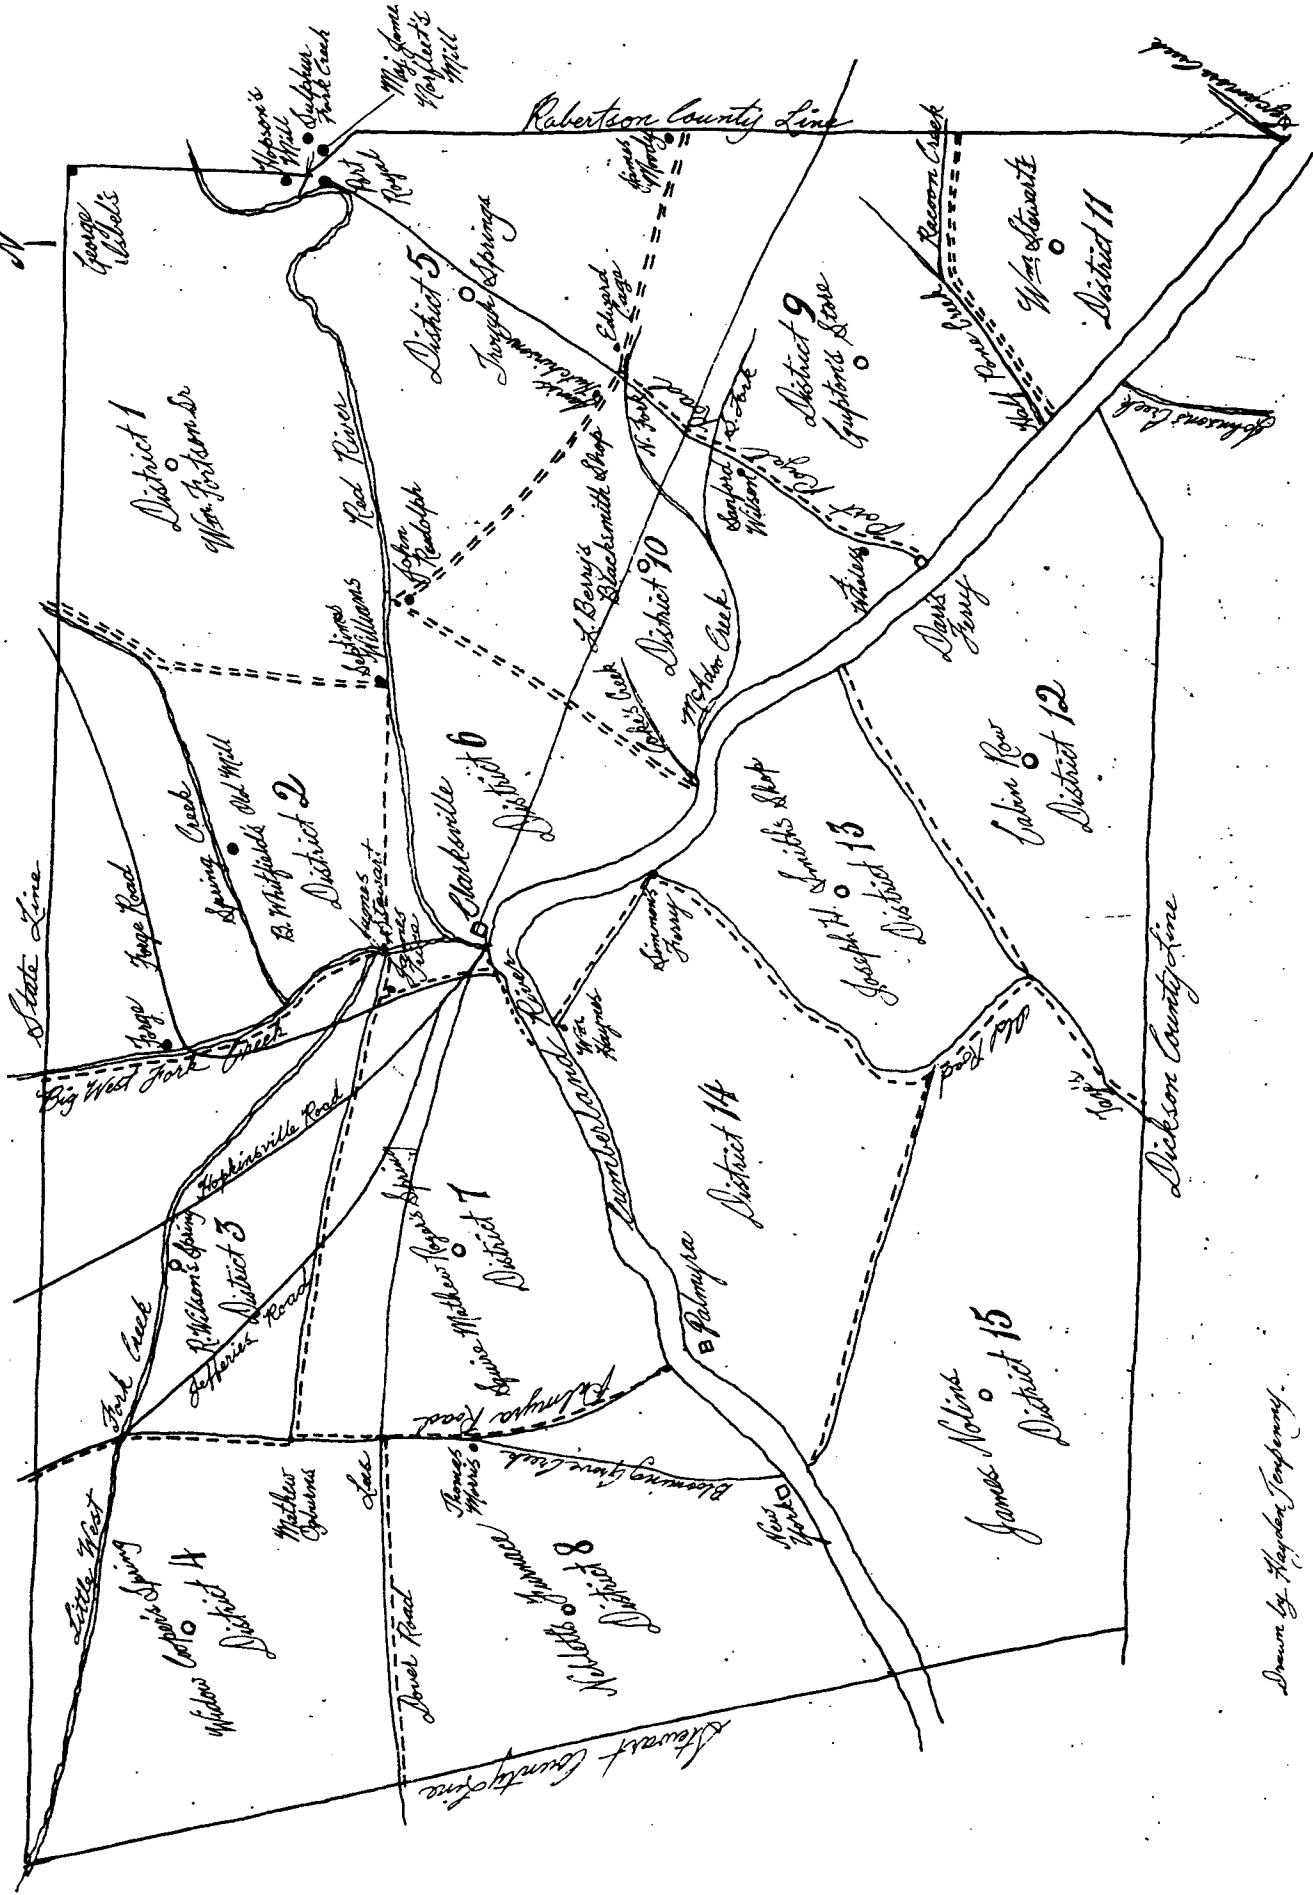

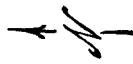

The district number and polling places are located, as well as the large water courses, roads, and towns. Residences named in the plat narrative are located.

District 11 and about one half of District 9 are now (1974) in Cheatham County.

The map was annotated by Cleo G. Hogan and prepared for publication by Hayedn Tenpenny. Copies suitable for framing are available on 9 x 12 green parchtex at $2.00 each from your editor.

ROBERTSON COUNTY

CIVIL WAR LETTER
HENRY YARBROUGH TO C. C. COCKE

The following letter is a copy of the original one written by Henry Yarbrough of Humphreys County, to his son-in-law, Christopher Corlew Cocke, of Montgomery County, in the year 1861. This letter is owned at the present time by his granddaughter, Mrs. L. H. Clinard, Springfield, Tennessee.

Copied by Mrs. Louise M. Herndon, Springfield, Tennessee - December 1, 1938.

Big Bottom, Tenn.

Paid 5¢.

Dec. 27.

C. C. Cocke
Pleasant Mount,
Tenn.

Dec. 27/61.

Chris.

Our family is tolerable well. The boys (our negroes) have had chills, but I have missed them.

I wrote you the day of our drawing, but have not received your answer.

Our soldiers are at Fort Donaldson. Mike Hunt died at Fort Donaldson on the 24th. and was buried today at E. S. M. Lewis. Esq. Patterson died at the fort the same day Mr. Hunt died.

Mrs. Reid Booker died Saturday before last, and today they buried Mrs. Jarrell. All died with pneumonia.

I expect Sally to come to Montgomery, so our place will be to let out.

I have just finished gathering corn, made the rise of 500 barrels by actual measurement.

I have not killed my hogs yet. Will kill next week if we have a spell to suit.

We have had a draft among the negroes here to go to Fort Donaldson to ditch. They made a call for 130 from this County, and when they were counted up, there was but 140 in the County. Esq. C. E. Harris detailed every negro in the County, leaving one at every place where they have negroes. So there was 3 of mine detailed to go. I was a little too sharp for them. I called in Dr. Wilkerson, gave them some physic, and then gave me a certificate. I enclosed it to Gen. Tillman and kept my sick negroes at home, so you understand how that trick was worked off. There are some that begrudged us our negroes and would be glad they were all taken to the fort to die.

I think it will be about 2 weeks before Horace and Pleas come up, on account of shoes and clothing. Bryant has been making boots all the fall for soldiers, and our family with the rest of the neighbors is barefooted.

(Henry Yarbrough to C. C. Cocks, p. 2)

Billy Boyner is expected to die at the fort. Brother Sam is there now waiting on him. Harriett is but very little better, if any. Josiah expects to come up in January. Hook is well, and got a bad case on hand, a woman in child-bed. She is so bad he has not been over this Christmas. He was to have been over on Christmas Day to go deer hunting. As it was, me and Billy drove the Gumpond drive and I went to the foot of Cyprus pond with my double barrell shot gun loaded with turkey shot, wadded with a rifle ball. He drove out 3, a 4 point buck, a doe, and a spy. They failed to run the gap, but came down the side next the design. I saw them coming and I was in the wrong place, and my horse also was in the wrong place. I ran to my horse, and they never discovered me or my horse, at this time they were cropping the end of the pond, going towards the by road. I was in about 50 or 60 yds. I cocked both barrells, leveled on the buck and fired both barrells at once. Nobody could distinguish but one gun at the crack. I turned him over, shot 1 rifle ball and 3 shots through the lights, one shot through the spine. The other ball broke the fore leg bone through the knee. Charles has killed one turkey with her and Bob Dickson his dog.

Write soon as this comes to hand.

H. Yarbrough

From Gary Matthews take Highway 48/13 2.6 miles to Highway 149. Turn right, go .9 mile to Palmyra Road. Turn left, go 1.7 mile to house #1004. Turn left in long driveway with white fence on each side.

We try to keep families grouped together. If someone's last name is listed, it means they have a separate headstone. If it is not listed, they are sharing a headstone with someone else. Sometimes children are on the same headstone as parents.

Since we do not personally know these families, if we aren't sure of a relationship we list who they are buried next to. Any help matching folks with their relatives will be greatly appreciated.

The information is exactly as it appears on the stones. If you know the person's full name, please let us know.

Graves are only marked by fieldstones, but Goldie Yarbrough Davidson stated her grandparents were buried here.

"Shiloh"

06 June 1930--Painful but not serious injuries were sustained Tuesday morning by Mr. John Baggett, 84, who resides with his son, J. B. Baggett, near Shiloh, when he fell from his horse he was riding to a blacksmith shop. He was much shaken by the fall and sustained a number of body bruises, but Thursday he was resting comfortable and his condition was considerably satisfactory. Mr. Baggett says he is unable to account for the manner in which he fell from his horse. His calls for help attracted a neighbor who conveyed him to his son's home.

(Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

"Southside"

05 Jul 1933--A reunion of the Davis family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis on July 2 to compliment their daughter Mrs. Clarence Proctor and her little daughter Mickey of Toledo, Ohio.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Davis and Irvin Davis of Nashville, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Justice and son, Tommie of Neptune, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Plummer and little son, Bobbie Joe of Southside, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Freeman and children, Sallie Belle, Dottie, and Davis Edward of Lone Oak, Louise & Jimmie Davis of Southside, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis and children, Earl, Eskew, Mable, Dorothy and Gene.

A splendid barbecue picnic was enjoyed at noon and in the afternoon pictures were taken and refreshments served.

(Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

"Cunningham"

07 Jul 1933--Billie and Jewell Batson went out hunting Tuesday afternoon. While Jewell had the good luck to kill 13 hawks, Billie killed 4 polecats. They were satisfied and came in with their game.

(Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

"Antioch"

15 Jul 1933--Thirty-two children are enrolled at the vacation bible school at Antioch Methodist Church which opened Monday.

Mrs. L R. Wyatt is in charge of the primary department and Mrs. Vernon Ussery and Miss Anna Bell Lyle are assisting. Mrs. Bailey Lyle is supervisor of the juniors with Miss Dorothy Sue Swift and Miss Gertrude Timmons assisting.

(Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

"Orgains CrossRoads"

07 Aug 1928--Dragged half a mile by a mule after being thrown from the animal's back and his foot became entangled in the harness, the badly mutilated body of Mr. Owen Yarbrough, 26 year old farmer and mechanic, was found by hands on the farm of Walter Minor, where Yarbrough was employed about dark Monday night, dangling from the mule's side in the horse lot.

Yarbrough had been plowing corn in a field about half a mile from the home and it is supposed that as he mounted the mule after unhitching from the plow, with a bucket in his hand in which he carried drinking water to the field, the mule became frightened at the bucket and made a lunge, throwing Yarbrough, with his foot hanging in the harness. The mashed up bucket near the plow and blood along the road to the stable indicated that the body had been dragged the entire distance from the field to the stable lot. His body was warm which indicated he had been dead only a short time when found.

Throughout the western section of Montgomery county where he is widely-known and had scores of friends, Mr. Yarbrough's tragic death causes a distinct shock. For nearly two years, he had been a mechanic and farm helper for Mr. Minor.

Mr. Yarbrough was born in 1902 in the 18th district, a son of James Henry and Mary Yarbrough. Two years ago, he married Miss Sarah Byrd, daughter of John Byrd, and his widow, a six months-old daughter, Mabel Louise, and his mother survive, together with four brothers, Clarence, Henry, Jesse, Horace; four sisters, Mrs. Lula Davis, Mrs. Pearl Rye, Mrs. Angie Baggett, and Mrs. Effie Smith; half brothers Walter and Robert; Half sisters, Emma and Lucy.

Funeral services and burial will be at Antioch Methodist Church.

(Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

"District 22"

26 Jun 1926--A forty gallon capacity copper still on the farm of C. B. Lyle, along with four barrels of mash were seized Thursday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Joe Stalls in a single-handed raid. The mash was almost fermented and would have been ready for the process of converting it into liquor by today, the deputy believed. No one was about the still, therefore, unable to suggest the possible owner.

RON JACKSON STORIES

Hackberry was first Vaughn's Mill then it was called Hunt's Mill later to become Hackberry. The Vaughns lived in the house across from the school house, He gave it to a Yarbrough Girl

The school was called Iron Wood, Center Point Church met in it for a time.
(believe it moved back up on the hill from the school)

Nannie Yarbrough (married Bob Yarbrough) gave land for the school, also land was given by Isham Davis (married Margaret Jackson) who had a Blacksmith shop at Palmyra.

Ron is the son of Robert and Augusta Jackson

Introduction

From the information we have at the current time it is believed we are all descendants of a William Jackson but to my knowledge little is known of him.

We are fairly certain that he had at least four children who were Joseph, Edmond, Mary and Stephen Jackson. I only recently learned of Mary and Stephen so we really don't have any information on them. We have a good deal on the other two but a lot of information is missing.

This information list what we know of the descendants of Joseph and Edmond Jackson. There were a lot of marriages between cousins in the early days so don't be alarmed when you see a name listed more than once.

Location: Southampton

Location Type: County

Salutation: To the Worshipful Court of Southampton County in Chancery siting (,)

Filing Date: circa 1792

General Petition Information

Abstract: Anne Penrice, the widow of Thomas Sutor, joins her husband Joseph in reporting that Thomas Sutor "was in his life time and at the time of his death seized and possessed of a considerable Estate in Slaves and other personal property" and that Anne is entitled to a dower in Sutor's estate. They explain that they "have applied themselves in a friendly manner and requested the Children of the said Thomas Sutor to lay off and set apart her Dower in the said Slaves and other personal Estate," but Edmund Sutor, the eldest son, "will not consent therto and the younger children pretending that they are infants and cannot consent therto." The petitioners pray that Sutor's children be summoned to answer their charges and that Anne's dower be assigned to her.
