Dedication

Whether we wish to admit it or not, we are the future of our ancestors, as our descendants are our future. We owe our descendants our dreams and bequeath to them the legacy of our collective accomplishments – nothing more and nothing less. To our descendants, we charge you with the honoring of your heritage. Your ancestors were hardy folk, god-fearing and plain spoken, and who recognized that nothing was due them except that which they themselves earned. They were not ashamed to profess their belief in God, their country and the American ideal. Of course, there were a few rascallions in our collective history, but neither more nor less than in any other family.

We too easily forget what it took to forge a life in a new world, one rife with peril and with little at hand but a steadfast determination to not only survive but to thrive. Our ancestors bequeathed us with their genes, aspirations and talents. It is therefore fitting that the Blandford Series of Yarbrough Family Records be dedicated to them for making it possible for us to be who we are.

To paraphrase Robert Kincaid¹, “The dreams they had were good ones. They didn’t all come true, but they were worth having, all the same.”

Acknowledgement

The Yarbrough Association is greatly indebted to the vision and efforts of Cathy Y. Walker and William A. (Bill) Yarbrough, the late president and vice-president of the YNGHA, respectively, for beginning the project to digitize the 150+ volumes of records accumulated over the life of the Association. Fulfilment of the project was through the efforts of a number of officers and members, including Bill’s son Mark, Rachel and Don Yarbrough, Hal Yarbrough, Jan and Jim Yarbrough, Ann and Al Bush, Elaine and Lyle Wolf, Joan Y. Singlaub, and Joanne and Bill Augspurger.

It was my privilege to be a part of this dedicated team.

Preface

This volume is part of the family records of Marie Yarbrough Schaeffer, who has graciously provided them to the YNGHA. This and the other volumes of the Yarbrough Family Records are being kept for the benefit of future generations by the Williamson County Library, Franklin, Tennessee.

No claims of accuracy or authentication of the material herein are made or may be assumed. Many of these records have been superseded by subsequent research. Hence, there are records which are erroneous and unreliable; it would have been a Herculean task to attempt to correct all of them. Fortunately, there are only a few critical genealogical facts that are involved, and which are correctly stated here:

- Richard (the Immigrant) Yarborough was never married to Frances Proctor;
- Ambrose Yarbrough did not immigrate from Yorkshire; he is now believed to be a descendant of Richard the Immigrant;
- There are so far only two proven sons of Old Richard – John and Richard II;
- There is so far no evidence proving Joshua Yarborough I to be a descendant of Old Richard.
- The “Old Country” referred to in old documents and letters is the Colony of Virginia, not England or the Old World.
- There were not seven brothers who immigrated from “the old country”; in fact, it now appears there were three brothers and four sons of the brothers. Which were the fathers and which were the sons are so far unknown.

In spite of these inaccuracies, these records comprise much of our history and some of our accomplishments. There are pages whose print quality is so poor that word recognition was not possible. In spite of that, at least partial capability for searching these volumes is provided, as well as an index to each volume. Nonetheless, the viewer is cautioned to perform his/her own due diligence in connection with any use of this material.

The various spellings of the Yarbrough surname have never been applied consistently, even within a given family. To the extent possible, the names in the index reflect the names used on the source pages; where it wasn't clear as to which might be the proper spelling, the spelling used is “Yarbrough”.

The material contained herein is subject to the copyright laws of the United States. Material may be freely used by Yarbrough family researchers so long as proper attribution to the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. is given. This material, in whole or in part, may not be used for any other purposes without the express written permission of the Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association.

We welcome the submission of any Yarbrough family information that can be added to our growing data base. DEATH SUMMONS

H. Y. YARBROUGH

Died = Oct 7, 1937

Funeral Services Will be
Sunday for Hackberry

Resident

Oct. 7, 1937

At 3:55 p. m., Friday, death came to Henry Y. Yarbrough, 63-year-old prominent farmer and live stock dealer of the Hackberry community, who has been seriously ill for three months.

Funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 1 p. m. Sunday by the Rev. A. T. Thomas, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and burial will be in the Yarbrough cemetery. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics will have charge at the grave.

Pallbearers will be his nephews, Clyde Karns, Alvin, Odis, Howard and John Yarbrough, Clay Baggett, Lem Smith and John Kelly. Honorary pallbearers will be officials of the Locust Grove church, Odd Fellows and Masons.

Mr. Yarbrough was a native and lifelong resident of the Hackberry community. He was the son of the late Weldon and Mrs. Millie Yarbrough. On February 22, 1891, he married Miss Adeline Baggett, who survives with five sons, C. H. Yarbrough of Cunningham community; Herman B. and Carney Yarbrough of Antioch community, and Newell and Jewell Yarbrough of Hackberry community, and three daughters, Mrs. Robert Rogers of Martha's Chapel community, Mrs. O. W. Smith of Hackberry and Mrs. M. W. Cunningham of this city. He also leaves three brothers, Weldon, Newt and L. J. Yarbrough of Hackberry community, and two sisters, Mrs. Zettle Baggett and Mrs. Ed Karns of Hackberry.

Mr. Yarbrough was a member of the Locust Grove Cumberland Presbyterian church, having been an elder of it for years, and also held membership in the Masonic chapter at McAlister's Crossroads and the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of Love Oak and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Palmyra.

He was for six years a member of the Montgomery county quarterly court, and served his district and his county well.

Mr. Yarbrough was a progressive farmer and traded extensively in livestock. Since 1911 he was in the mule business with James Broome of Hackberry. He was honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow man and numbered his friends by the score. His death, though not unexpected, comes as a shock to his family and friends and the community in which he spent his entire life feels that it has suffered an irreparable loss.

To: Deed

Hackberry Council No. 207 Jr. Order
United Am. Mechanics Trs.

Whereas, the undersigned H.Y. Yarbrough and James J. Broome, partners composing the firm of Yarbrough and Broome, are the owners of certain real estate in District No. 18 of Montgomery County, Tennessee, in the town of Hackberry, on which they are now constructing a two story frame store house 24 x 56 feet in size, the same being located and constructed on the farm bought by the said Yarbrough and Broome from M. Sanders, deed for which is recorded in the ROMC. Tennessee, the said real estate being located in the town of Hackberry on the C & M. Branch of the L & N Railroad; and,

Whereas, both the said H.Y. Yarbrough and James J. Broome are members of Hackberry Council No. 207 of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, which council is operating under charter from the state council of said order; and,

Whereas, the said Yarbrough and Broome hold for said order respect and reverence, and,

Whereas, the said Yarbrough and Broome in the process of the construction of said store house have partially constructed the same and have built the frame to the second floor thereof and the said Hackberry Council No. 207 desires to construct as an addition to said house a second story thereon to be used by it for its lodge purposes;

Therefore, the said H.Y. Yarbrough and James J. Broome hereby bargain and sell, transfer and convey unto T.J. Channell, J.H. Spry, Dotson Suiter, as trustees for Hackberry Council No. 207 Junior Order United American Mechanics, and to their successors that may be hereafter regularly selected by said Hackberry Council No. 207, the right to construct a second story upon said building to be used for the lodge purposes of said Hackberry Council No. 207 Junior Order United American Mechanics, the same to be constructed of the dimensions and material of the first story of said house now in process of construction by these grantors; and the said trustees herein named and their successors, shall be vested with the absolute title to the second story of said house subject to the conditions hereinafter recited. Said Hackberry Council No. 207 shall build and construct said second story, including the roof, at its own expense, and without expense to these grantors, and shall thereafter maintain the same at its expense and without expense to these grantors; and should the said Hackberry Council No. 207 at any time in the future neglect to maintain said second story, including the roof, in a reasonable state of repair, or should said Hackberry Council No. 207 discontinue the use of said second story as a meeting place for its lodge, and for its general lodge purposes, or should its charter as a council of said Junior Order United American Mechanics be at any time surrendered by it or taken from it by the state council, then, in any of said events, the title hereby conveyed to said trustees, and their successors, for the said Hackberry Council No. 207, shall at once revert to these grantors, or to their legal heirs should either of these grantors be then dead.

Grantors bind themselves to maintain the first story of said house in a reasonable condition and state of repair without expense to said Hackberry Council No. 207 and should grantors fail to do so then the absolute title to said entire house together with the real estate upon which it stands shall at once pass to and become the property of said three trustees, or their successors, for the use and benefit of said Hackberry Council No. 207 for the purposes hereinbefore set out and subject to the same terms and conditions as to use and maintenance already hereinbefore mentioned.

And the said trustees are granted the right to construct at the rear end of said store house an inside stairway for use in passing to and from said second story.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD unto the said trustees, and their successors in office.

We Covenant that we are lawfully seized and possessed of said property, have a good right to convey it, and that it is unencumbered.

And we bind ourselves to forever warrant and defend the title thereto against all lawful claims.

This August 29th, 1924.

"Hackberry"

19 Oct 1931--Damage estimated at between $800 and $1,000 was caused by fire Saturday afternoon in the destruction of a barn and approximately 2,700 sticks of tobacco in the Hackberry community. The tobacco, the yield from 6 acres was grown by Polk Davis, brother of Staton Davis of this city.

Insurance amounting to $500 was carried on the tobacco. The farm is owned by H. Y. Yarbrough and James J. Broome. (Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

12 Oct 1932--A large barn and 14 acres of tobacco belonging to W. G. Russell of Hackberry was completely destroyed by fire about 10 AM today. Mr. Russell had just left the barn and when the fire was discovered it was too late for it to be put out. The tobacco was almost cured.

A small amount of insurance was carried on the barn and tobacco. (Clarksville Leaf Chronicle)

OBITUARIES

Ora Cunningham

Ora Y. Cunningham, Old Ashland City Road, died Thursday, Aug. 31, 2000, at Clarksville Manor Nursing Home.

The funeral will be 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Sykes Funeral Home with the Rev. Doug Norfleet officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Visitation will be today from 4 to 8 p.m. and Sunday at noon until the hour of service at the funeral home.

She was born in Montgomery County, daughter of Henry Y. and Adeline Baggett Yarbrough. She was the widow of Maury Cunningham.

Mrs. Cunningham was a homemaker and a member of Madison Street United Methodist Church.

Survivors include nine nieces and seven nephews.

Pallbearers will be David Cheatham, Ross Jackson, Mike

Koban, Britt Norris, Warren Smith and Charles Yarbrough.

Aunt Ora was very vain about her age. She didn't want anyone to know she was 2 yrs older than her husband. Told Edwin & I not to put her age in the paper or on her tomb stone or she would come back an haunt us. I guess sin in for it. I have all dates in this book.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd. I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. . .

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days

STORIES BY AUNT ORA

(Marie & Aunt Ora Talking) I talked to Aunt Ora tonight to wish her a Happy Birthday, (_____), She told me not to tell anybody how old she was, so I told her that I wouldn't and that way we would " Jist keep `em guessing " . Aunt Ora laughed as she liked the idea of doing that. Now Aunt Ora Mentioned " Aunt Betty" from time to time so I asked her who Aunt Betty was and she replied that Aunt Betty was Uncle John (Guinea) Baggett's Wife, Uncle John was her Mother's Brother. They had children that Anut Ora and her brothers and sisters played with, Thier names were Cora, Clara, Louise, Sarah, Louie, Isham was the oldest and James Edgar was the youngest. Now Aunt Betty's favorite by word was, " and sech as that" This tickled Aunt Ora for it sounded so funny to her.

There was a colored family that lived near by that worked for her daddy, the man worked on the farm and his wife helped her mother, They had children who helped out from time to time. The man's name was Lawson Kilgore and his wife was called "Visey". One time some of the Yarbrough boys were sick and one of the Kilgore boys came over and kept the fires going all night and set up with the sick boys. Now "Visey" would gather the kids in and tell them Fairy Tales and Ghost Stories, All the kids loved it.

We took Aunt Ora down to Huntsville, Al. to visit her brother who was in the hospital (Uncle Newell) On this trip as on others we carried along a jug of water, thermos of coffee, sandwiches and homemade fried pies. aunt Ora was much taken with the way we travel as she expressed her dislike for eating in restaurants, This led to her telling the following stories, Aunt Ora's husband (Uncle Maury) worked for the Iglehart Milling Co. and when they went out of business he became a traveling salesman for the colorado milling co. of Atlanta, Ga. Aunt Ora went on a lot of his trips out of town so she had first hand experience with bad food.

On one of the trips Uncle Maury was driving a little to fast to suit Aunt Ora and she called his hand on it. Of course he denied it and said somthing to the effect that if she could do better he would let her, So she took over the driving with the intention of driving at a "safe speed" when the notion took her that he did not think she could drive fast, So she pushed the gas pedal down as far as she dared and when he got the car back he did not speed again.

Uncle Maury's health became such that he had to give up his traveling job and go to work for Garvin Furniture Co.on Franklin St.

Aunt Ora told of the time that Iron beds became popular though Daddy said they didn't need one Mother prevailed and after he swapped out the old one for the new one He took the old one out back and chopped it up for fire wood. (It was a real pretty Jenny Lynn bed.)

STORIES BY AUNT ORA

We are on the way back to Huntsville, Al. to Uncle Newell's funeral and Aunt Ora remembers how the Twins (Jewell and Newell) loved to pick on her, and tells of how they would throw rocks at the outhouse door to keep her from coming out, she would scream until her mother would come to her rescue. She played ball with them and loved them dearly. But when they got mad at her they would "sic" their dog on her.

Aunt Ora's nickname was "Sleepy" and thinks that her Daddy gave it to her, and relates the following story as the reason.

Aunt Ora said her daddy would come to her bed room every morning and call to her "Wake Up!, Wake Up!, Then he would go milk, when he came back to the house he would find her still in bed asleep. So he called her "Sleepy" for being such a sleepy head.

No matter where they traveled Uncle Maury would always introduce her as "Sleepy", Now one time when she was introduced as "Sleepy": "the man said that is the Darndest name I ever heard."

Uncle Maury never called her "Ora" for she was always his, "Sleepy"

STORIES BY AUNT ORA

Aunt Ora talking about old home place near Lone Oak

There was two big apple trees (Yellow pound apples) down in the bottom, down from their house. When the kids would come in from school they would have to pick up apples in the fall when they were ripe. When Grandpa (James) Baggett was over visiting he would help pick up apples. He would walk over the hill and stay several days at a time. When Henry Y. (Aunt Ora's Daddy) moved his family to Hackberry, Grandpa would walk down there and stay several days he lived with his son Zeddie Baggett and Parthinia Y. Baggett. Grandpa was a "little bity skinny man"

People told Aunt Ora she was just like her Mother, and everyone said Herman and Clara looked like her Daddy Henry Y.

Aunt Ora told of her Mama being sick in bed with a sick headache. It seems that year Christmas day fell on Sunday, Her Mama had cleaned and cooked cakes, pies, candies, hams and etc. for Christmas. They had all planned to go to church on Sunday morning (Christmas day) but her Mother got up with a sick headache and had to stay in bed all day. (She had overworked.)

Aunt Ora remembers her Mother telling about the times when she was a young girl, the young folks would go to their neighbors homes and have dances, her Mother told her that she would dance all night almost every Sat. night.

When Aunt Ora and Uncle Maury married she only weighted 87 lbs. and Uncle Maury only 175 lbs. They went to Niagara Falls on their Honeymoon, Went by train.

Uncle Maury had a Aunt Jesse Weaver that married John Davis from Hackberry No children by this marriage The John Davis place sat on a hill beside the Jim Broome place and Aunt Ora believed the house was moved down near Palmyra.

Hackberry was a booming place when Aunt Ora was a little (she's 97 now) girl. They had a school, two grocery stores, a Post Office, and a livery stable that was ran by her Daddy and Mr. Jim Broome. her Uncle Jones Yarbrough had a grist mill and blacksmith shop and a Train that ran thru Hackberry twice a day. The local church was Cumberland Presbyterian It was first Methodist in the late 1800's. the farmers were still using Mules to plow with at this time.

The Brother of Mrs. Timmons, (he was a Baggett) lived in the little house behind the livery stable. The brother moved out one night and set fire to the house. Aunt Ora and her Daddy Henry went out on the back porch that night and saw the smoke near his stable He ran into the house and told them his stable was on fire and he had to go help Jim get the Mules out, got into his car and left, when he got there it was the little house that was on fire and he was so relieved.

Sep. 18, 1998

Her Daddy saw Dr. Wickham shoot Mr. Baggett as he was getting on the Train at Hackberry. The Train had to stay there until the law got there. It seems the two men had been having words before this. Dr. Wickham served time for this don't know how much. (Mr. Baggett was the Daddy of Mrs. Julia Timmons) Her daddy told the family about it at supper.

STORIES BY AUNT ORA

Leonard Davis who married Aunt Susie (Lucinda Susan Baggett) was a drunk and would go to town and stay all day, On these days He would stop by their house late at night drunk, and stand out in the front yard hollowing Henry!,Henry!, until Her Daddy would get up and let him in and put him to bed. Nobody saw him, until the next morning he would come down for breakfast and look just fine.

Aug. 26, 1997

Aunt Ora told about her Mother (Adline) loosing her wide gold wedding band in the garden at the home place at lone oak. Said her daddy bought her Mama another just like it since they weren't able to find it. They moved to a house in Hackberry and Clarence and Julia (Their oldest son) moved into the home place at Lone Oak .

Clarence's Daughter Elizabeth was working in the garden and found the lost wedding band.

Told her mama always put a little red hot pepper in the cabbage when she cooked.

It made the cabbage so good. Aunt Ora said she puts it in her cabbage to.

Aug. 20, 1996

Aunt Ora said that when they lived at Lone Oak they went to Sunday school which was held in the School house, Mr. Orgain was Superintendent at that time Preaching was held once a Month at the Locust Grove Church in Hackberry. We rode to Church in a Surrey, a two seater with top, Later on her Dad bought a car.

Her Daddy and Mr. Broome was in business before they moved to Hackberry, every spring her daddy would go to St. Louis or Chicago and buy a box car load of Mules and have them shipped to Hackberry. All the Neighbors would gather to see the train unload the Mules. (a booming place back then)

AUNT ORA -STORIES

Marie talking to Aunt Ora, March of 1998

I asked her about my father Herman being in partners with a Biter man owning a grocery store at Lone Oak, She said "Oh Yes". Her daddy put up Herman's half and Ike Biter's Uncle put up his part. It was located across the railroad from the Morgan store They weren't in business long, they couldn't make a go of it. Rumor has it that the Biter man took all the profits and left Herman, Henry, and Biter's uncle holding the bag. It really upset the uncle too loose all that money. Her daddy hated losing money too but he was a business man and knew you could loose money as well as make money.

She told of having to give a report in her Sunday school class one time. She read the report over and over again from a book until she had it memorized. After she gave it in class, one of the ladies (a school teacher) commented on what a good job she had done. That "she hadn't had to look at her book one time while giving the report"

Said she had heard her Daddies people were of an Irish decent.

Her Grandma Milly Yarbrough lived in a big house with a big open hall way through it. It was near her Daddies place at Lone Oak on what is now called Vernon's creek, But believed it was called Bud's creek back then. At the back of Grandma's house ran a railroad, and she remembers seeing the train go by. It ran out in the morning and back in the evening, She didn't remember her Grandpa Yarbrough, After her Dad moved the family to Hackberry, Grandma Milly would come down and stay for weeks at a time with them. Said Grandma Milly was a fat woman.

Aunt Ora talking to Corliss Sep. 9, 1998

When Momma killed hogs, she gave the chitlins to the Black women who worked for her Momma cooked lunch for Daddy every day, Daddy would come home about 11:30 or 12:00 from his business with Mr. Broome, Momma never knew who was coming home with daddy. Daddy would stop his business and ask who ever was there if they would like to come home to lunch with him, those who had manners would say no.

One day Momma was away and had cooked lunch, daddy came home with this man and I had to make coffee, I had never made it before and it turned out weak. when I poured it for the man my daddy said it looked mighty weak. Dad never drank coffee in the day, only in the morning.

March 24, 1994

Told of her Father (Henry) building the big white house in Hackberry, It had 5 bed rooms, when he bought the place, it was a one room log house with a lean to for a kitchen. He tore the lean to down and built around the log house to create a 8 room house with 3 porches and a wide entrance hall.

Aug. 19, 1994

Bill asked Aunt Ora if " Ora" was all of her name, she said yes, she had asked her Mother one time and her Mother told her that her daddy named her after one of his old girl friends. (Do suppose this is why she was such a "Daddys girl") Her mother's name Theora

AUNT ORA --STORIES

March 8 1993

Aunt Ora said her Mother was real particular about her food and so was Jewell. Momma had a head of lettuce that had turned black. Aunt Ora after trimming off the black started cutting up the rest, but Aunt Gertrude stopped her and told her to throw it away for Mom would not eat any of that lettuce.

July 17, 1995

Told about visiting her Mamma's Sister Aunt Susan, Her Daddy (Henry) would take them to Aunt Susan's to spend the day and then come back for them. They weren't allowed to spend the night. she reckoned it was because Uncle Len drank a lot.. Aunt Susan had cold black hair and was a little woman, but a little taller than momma

Aunt Ora said her Mother had cold black as well as her self, When she was a young girl, she would sit on the front porch and swing, A Mr. Sidney Lyle would walk by and would always speak to her. He would always say "Hi Crow".

One time Mrs. Staton Davis was in Hackberry visiting Mrs Beulah Broome and saw Aunt Ora and her "black hair" and asked Mrs. Broome if Ora dyed her hair because it was so black.

June 27, 1993

Aunt Ora told of Her and Her friend Mz Alma Miller making sandwiches for the U.S.O. Club on College st. "For those soldier boys from Camp Campbell"

Aunt Ora is a long time member of the Progressive Study Club had to give reports on different subjects, one of her reports was on Rivers which was many pages long She is 98 and still a active member going to meetings when some one picks her up.

Corliss talking to Aunt Ora July 20, 1998

Aunt Ora Said , When her family lived at Hackberry, her daddy brought home a yellow pony and a yellow pony cart and a saddle to fit it. He showed them how to hook up the pony and how to unhook it. also how to saddle and unsaddle the pony. He told them that after learning to do this they could do this by themselves. Said she would saddle up the pony and ride around the neighborhood. told about her daddy playing the piano some.

He sent Aunt Ora to Clarksville by train to get piano lessons.
Her mother loved flowers, always had a flower garden.

Bill talking to Aunt Ora July 15, 1998

Anut Ora said, one time she went to Nashville shopping with some friends and when she got home (about 9:00 P.M.) there sat Maury and Herman Hicks at the table. He had invited Herman for supper and didn't tell Aunt Ora. She had to go into the kitchen and cook for them. She wasn't hungry one bit. She ate with the girls in Nashville before coming home.

The old typical country store as it has been known for years is about a thing of the past -- the kind where the customer does not necessarily rush in and buy something and leave, but rather sits around the old coal stove and whiles away the hours talking about various subjects.

But there's a few of them left. I had the pleasant experience of visiting one of these hospitable places Wednesday while out on an assignment in the Palmyra area with Lester Solomon of the Soil Conservation District office.

Mr. Solomon and I stopped and paid a visit with Mr. Buster Smith, otherwise known as mayor of Hackberry, the county seat of Goulahorn, at Mr. Smith's grocery. The owner and an acquaintance, E. C. McIntosh, who is otherwise known as the mayor of Boogersville, were chatting while sitting around the coal stove when we arrived.

The conversation drifted to the subject of Goulahorn, which is an area near what is now known as Hackberry. The Goulahorn was later termed Golden Horn, taken from the idea of land of plenty. I am told that at one time years ago this area was very rich in good mixed high-valued hardwood timber. When that was cleared out then the land was used as farm land and produced many very profitable crops -- this termed the Goulahorn or Golden Horn -- land of plenty.

This was my first trip to the Hackberry area, although I'd heard about it many times, and it brought back pleasant memories. I can remember when my father ran the same type of store when I was still at home. And there was always someone seated around the stove conversing on the activities of our small communities.

GOD hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

I forgot that thing about the Congressional award, which probably counts, so here is a revised bio:

Linda Kay Yarborough was born February 16, 1945, in Atlanta, Georgia, the only daughter of Newell Dudley Yarborough and Katie Wilmouth Durrwachter Yarborough of Montgomery County, Tennessee. Newell and Katie met in Hackberry, where Katie was the schoolteacher.

Kay (she went by Kay since the third grade, when there were 10 Lindas in the class) graduated in 1962 from Decatur High School with the highest grade point average in her class, and received a scholarship to the University of Chicago, where she graduated in 1965 with general honors (magna cum laude).

She worked as an editor for Science Research Associates in Chicago and then transferred to the company's College Division in Palo Alto, where she edited college textbooks and eventually became Editorial Manager.

In the Eighties she became a freelance editor and columnist for various high-tech publications such as Computer Life, DOS World, Home Office Computing, and many. She also worked as an editor for several publishing companies, and ultimately (in the Nineties) wrote about 36 books of her own on topics such as computer operating systems (DOS, Windows, Macintosh). These were quite popular (some made the New York Times' computer book bestseller list) and were translated into 19 different languages, including German, Japanese, Hebrew, and Polish. She is listed in Marquis Who's Who as well as Who's Who in the World.

She married Raymond Nelson in 1978. He was a theoretical physicist at SRI International (formerly known as the Stanford Research Institute). He was 20 years her senior and a Navy veteran of World War II.

Ray died of cancer in 2010. They had no children. Kay lives with her 8 cats on their 30-acre ranch near Pescadero, California (a town much like Hackberry on the coast south of San Francisco). She grows her own vegetables and volunteers at the local theater company (Coastal Repertory Theater of Half Moon Bay. She also volunteers at the local children's charity thrift shop in Pescadero. In 1998, Kay received a Congressional Citation for service to the local community. She sang for many years in the church choir of Pescadero Community Church and enjoys singing Sacred Harp music.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want:
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils:
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The TwentyThird Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils
for thou art with me: thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

50th anniversary

50th Anniversary Mr. & Mrs. William B. Schaeffer, Jr.

Mr. & Mrs. William B. Schaeffer, Jr. of Clarksville celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on January 7, 2000. Regina Anderson was hostess for a family dinner.

Relatives honored the couple with a luncheon held at Moss's Coach House near Guthrie, KY on Tuesday 11 January 2000, followed by an anniversary cake and ice cream reception at the home of a niece, Vivian Christman. Included in the group which enjoyed a display of items from the bride's original trousseau* were her sister Dorothy Jean Sinks and niece Brenda Vogle.

Children of the couple are Corliss, Sherry, Richard Schaeffer and Regina Anderson.

The couple were married on January 7, 1950 in Clarksville by the late Judge William B. Corlew. Attendants at the wedding were Helen Yarbrough, sister of the bride and "Bud" Ruckman.

Mr. Schaeffer is retired from Trane Company. She, the former Marie Yarbrough (daughter of Herman and Grace Davis Yarbrough) is retired from Sears.

Charter members of New Providence Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the couple have four grandchildren; Amanda and Melissa Anderson and Jason and Bethany Schaeffer.

* Vivian Christman purchased the black negligee at a yard sale that Marie held approximately twenty-five years ago - (after she had outgrown the item) before she moved to their present home on Briarwood Drive. The group encouraged Marie to model the item - NO Way !!! However, we did record the event with a picture! and threatened to use it in the newspaper. Interested participants not already mentioned were Jimmy Sinks, Lillian and Leroy Davis and grandson, Brandon, Dorothy (Broome) Darnell, Jean (Davis) Morgan, Rachel (Davis) Yarbrough, Polk, Jr. and Barbara (Ussery) Davis.

Stories related: Bill - "After getting a place to live, marriage license, (marriage recorded in Montgomery County TN Record Book 64 Page 500 (last page in book) and hand written by Foard Harris, County Clerk) getting married and going to Hopkinsville, KY for a hamburger and movie the couple were financially embarrassed". Marie and Bill spent their first married night in an upstairs room, with kitchen privileges (on first floor) located on College Street in Clarksville. Arising the next morning, with plans to go to work, they realized there was no food to cook for breakfast and Bill added "we only had enough change to stop at Red's and Ed's on Franklin Street and enjoy a cup of coffee each and a shared order of toast". Thankfully today was payday! Marie adds "cooking on a hot-plate and sharing a refrigerator she very soon realized an apartment would be much more desirable".

There is some concern as to this marriage. For years Marie and Bill celebrated (and it is in their Church records) on January 5th. On my genealogy sheet (supplied by Bill Schaeffer) the marriage date is January 9th. Recorded in the Montgomery County Clerk's Office the marriage date is January 7, 1950 (the year is the same in all cases!!). The License was returned and certificate issued on January 9th which creates some of the confusion!! This created a lot of fun at our get-together!

Local actor's star rising on screen

Vietnam War film in works at Fort Benning

On track to retire in just a few years from his job with the county, aspiring actor Richard Schaeffer of Lawrenceville isn't about to light out on the long road to film stardom in Hollywood or New York.

But with stars in his middle-aged eyes, Schaeffer's been keeping the highway hot between Gwinnett and Muscogee counties for the past week after landing his most promising role yet.

"I've got the bug," he said over the weekend, home from Columbus just long enough to help celebrate his son's 24th birthday. "I've got it so bad."

He was getting ready to return to Columbus, where filming has begun at Fort Benning on "We Were Soldiers Once . . . and Young," a Vietnam war movie starring Mel Gibson.

Schaeffer, who will turn 49 in August, portrays one of a handful of generals in the movie, based on a book by Harold Moore and Joseph L. Galloway.

Without an agent at the time, he showed up at a casting call with his brief résumé and a picture and got the part.

Schaeffer went to Columbus to be fitted for his uniform a week ago, then came back to his job as a traffic studies coordinator at the Gwinnett Department of Transportation, where he's worked for the past 17 years.

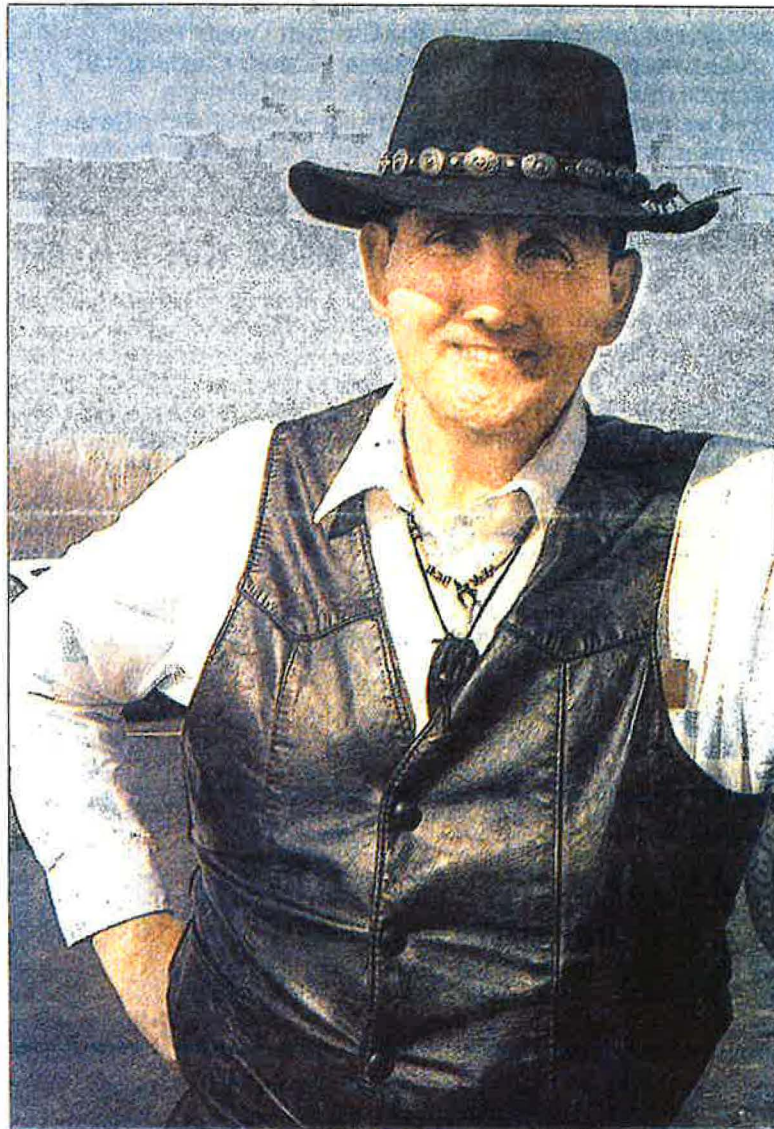

Three days later, he was back in Columbus.

"We shot all night," he said, "all the way up to 6 o'clock Saturday morning."

He's back on the Fort Benning set, wearing his one-star general's uniform for the filming of a parade scene today and Wednesday.

Taking time off for the travel and filming hasn't been a problem, he said.

"I haven't had a vacation in a long time," he said, noting that

Richard Schaeffer of Lawrenceville has worked several movie appearances into his time away from work at the Gwinnett DOT.

LARRY WILKERSON

Our Gwinnett columnist
e-mail: lwilkerson@ajc.com

Schaeffer's first filmed performance was in a Super Bowl TV commercial for Starter jackets in the early '90s.

Earlier, he'd taken his daughter, then 10, to a modeling audition and ended up with a deal himself.

Navy veteran, Schaeffer also dabbles in painting and music (he plays violin, guitar and harmonica) and has written a few songs.

"I've had the entertainment bug all my life," he said. "When I got married, I was made to stop."

His marriage ended (amicably, he said) about three years ago — just about the time he started pursuing movie roles.

He's been an extra in half a dozen films, including a couple of minor productions whose names even he doesn't remember.

But he's been in some well-known and successful ones, too.

When Schaeffer showed up in his '98 Firebird, he was hired for a bit part in "Road Trip." After a

MEL GIBSON STARS

The movie: "We Were Soldiers Once . . . and Young"

Anticipated release date: December

Cast includes: Mel Gibson (Lt. Col. Harold Moore), Sam Elliott, Greg Kinnear (Maj. Bruce Crandall), Madeleine Stowe, Faith Hill, Dylan Walsh

Based upon: The book, "We Were Soldiers Once . . . and Young: Ia Drang: The Battle That Changed the War in Vietnam," by Lt. Gen. Harold G. Moore (Ret.) and Joseph L. Galloway about the battle of Ia Drang, which lasted from Oct. 23 to Nov. 26, 1965.

Title note: When the film was first announced, it had the title "Lost Patrol," but it was changed to match the title of the book upon which it is based.

Denzel Washington.

"You can see me pretty good in that one, in the first 15 minutes," he said. "I'm in the upper left-hand corner of the screen — whoo-o-o!"

Schaeffer doesn't yet know whether his new role will become his first speaking part.

"It's kind of a Catch-22," he said. "You need to be a member of SAG [the Screen Actors Guild] to get a speaking role, and you need to have speaking roles to get in SAG — but I believe I'm going to get a lot more screen time."

Schaeffer said his acting is just for fun, for now, although plans to take acting lessons.

"The assistant director came up to me about 4 or 5 in the morning and was very inquisitive as to whether I wanted to do this for a living," he said.

Well?

"I'll stay at the DOT until I retire, in five to seven years,"

Hi Mom, Dad, Sherry, & Corliss,

It is great to hear how well Sherry is doing, I believe this is the year for our family to recover 10 fold what has been taken. I want you guys to know how thankful I am for everyones prayers and support for myself and my children. I just finished up another movie last weekend and there is another starting at the end of May and another in July. I will be having a free Web Site for my production Company soon. Its called Wildflower Productions and the three Actresses are working with me. We have a TV Pilot we are writing right now besides all the movie projects. This is fun,hehe. I was told by my Boss that I was ranked 10th in the nation for the position I hold. Man,God is good. Cindy is getting msrried on May 5th, thank God. I do wish her well inspite of all that happened. She is after all the childrens Mother.

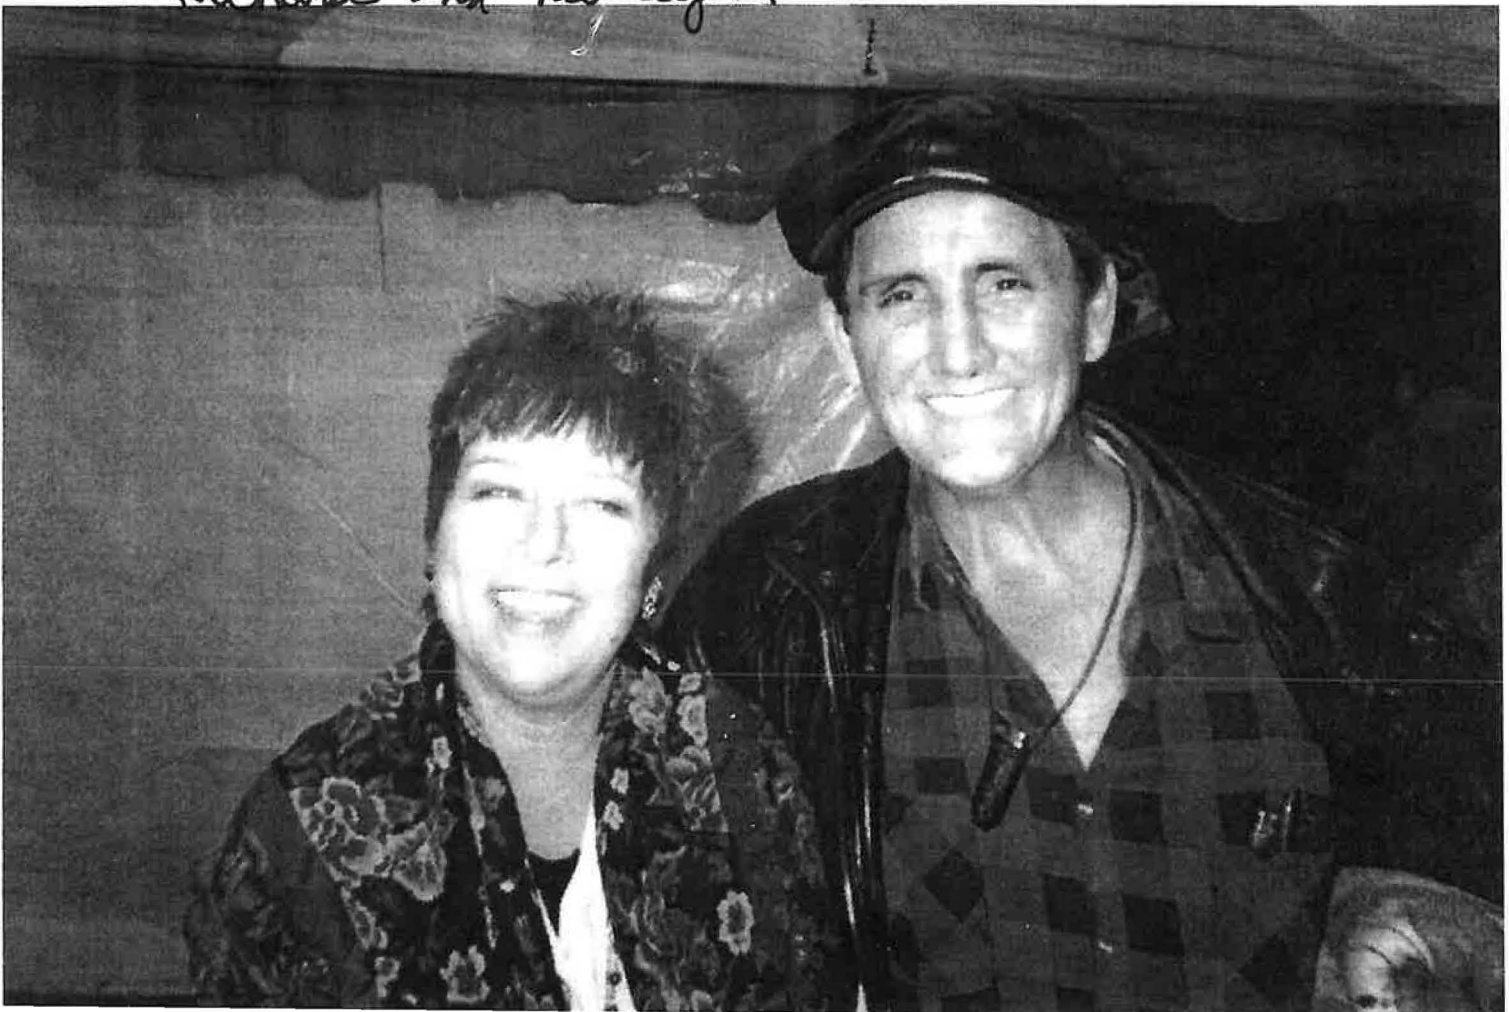

Jason & Missy, Bethany & Chris, Sterling (Grandbaby yet born) all send there love and best wishes.

May the lord Bless you and Keep You and make His face to shine upon you always.

Your loving Son/Brother

RICHARD BERNARD SCHAEFFER

BORN: AUG.28, 1952

The third child born to William B. and Marie Y., Richard was a very active baby and was born with a healthy set of lungs and would let you know loud and clear when he was unhappy (that boy didn't cry he bellowed) like the girls he was a good child and there by made raising kids fun. (Marie and I enjoyed our kids)

Richard graduated from Clarksville High in 1970 and joined the Navy that same year and after getting out of the Navy he went to Austin Peay College for two years. on Mar.20, 1976 Richard married Cindy Raines and on Mar.12, 1977 Jason Bernard was born. Richard quit his job with a construction co. and moved to the Atlanta area and worked around at various jobs and on Jan.5, 1980 Bethany Anne was born.

After going to electronics school Richard worked for a local cable co. repairing the black boxes then hired on with the Gwinett County DOT. when they started a traffic study on how to control traffic flow going into and out of Atlanta and has been with them ever since.

Richard has a fine voice (was a member of his High School Choir) A musician, (plays guitar and violin) a artist, and a woodcarver, Attends the Hebron Baptist Church in Lawrenceville, Ga.

Richard's life took a new turn, after going through a divorce resulting in a bankruptcy. He found time to pursue an acting career with some success in addition to holding his regular job. After losing a kidney to Cancer, then part of a lung it has settled into his blood, Now he waits for entrance into an research program that will help him fight it. Richard like his Sisters can do anything they set their minds to.(Will he go to Houston and become a Doctor ? stay tuned for the life and times of Richard, Just kidding but you have to admit they are some thing else), He also has a new title " Umpa" this is what his grandson calls him and does not want him out of his sight. Which will get real interesting when Camron the youngest gets old enough to give Sterling competition for Richards attention.

With Bethany married with two kids and Jason looking to becoming a Navy seal he will be able to concentrate on getting well.

THIS IS FOR YOU

I've known you since your birth, I should because I'm your Auntie.

Now I tell you this boy could cry, If he got hurt or punished, you could hear him all over the neighborhood, when the neighbor's kids heard him they would say " Oh boy ,Ole Richard is in trouble again. He was an only boy with three sisters and they spoiled him rotten. (So did his Mom & Dad)

Richard was a member of the High School Chorus and in his Senior year they took top honors in the State. Then went on to do a production of " CAMELOT " , It ran for three nights and was held over for one more night. (After the first night you couldn't get close to the parking lot.) After graduating he decided he would look good in Navy blues, so he joined up to see the world. (and watch the girls no doubt.) He heard that Sailors had a girl in every Port. So off he went in 1971 and served 2 years (1971-1973) on an oil tanker, didn't see many ports or girls. (Poor Richard, now all together--- AAAWWWW POOR RICHARD)

After he came home he decided to settle down, so he found the love of his life and they became one in 1976, later they were blessed by a son named Jason and last but not lest they had a baby girl named Bethany. They settle in Lawrenceville, Ga.

Several years later strife came into their and they parted ways.--Life rocked on as it always does in joy or in pain. But they got back together and remarried in 1995. They brought their children up in Church and taught them to Love God which will sustain them all their life.

When he divorced the second time, Nancy and I would get him to go dancing with us, You see he is a great dancer, We danced until he was one tired man.

He has fulfilled one of his desires by being in the movies, One of them with Mel Gibson the other with Danzil Washington. (Being with Mel Gibson would have made me happy too) He even had an article written about him in the Lawrenceville Newspaper. I hear he has been working on a set this past week with Rue Pallihan. Who knows what will happen on the big screen next.

God gave him another mountain to climb, as you know Richard has been battling cancer since 2000 So keep your prayers and moral support going every day for him.

I don't know his co-workers but I can tell you one thing they are a bunch of wonderful people Richard tells me of all the money, food, furniture, and fellowship you give to him. I want to thank you very much.

Richard has two grandchildren by Bethany (Sterling & Camron) that he is so proud of.

Well Richard this is more like " This is your life" than a Roast, this is from your William W. Hufford III, known to all as Bill, passed away at home in Odessa, TX, July 24, 2015. He was born in Nashville, TN. on March 12, 1951 to Marjorie and Wallace Hufford. He was raised in Kingsport, TN. where he had a beautiful life.

He so proudly served in the air force as an air traffic controller. Bill had a love for people, which served him well when he began his career as a salesman working his way up to management in the auto industry. Bill spent most of those years at Broncho Chevrolet in Odessa. He gained many friends and acquaintances while in the car business, who loved and admired him and whom he loved in return. His passion for selling cars was magnified when he witnessed the joy in a customer's face as he handed them the keys to their new car. That is what made him the best at what he loved doing.

Family and friends affectionately called him BBQ Bill because of his generosity in preparing wonderful food with great hospitality for those he loved.

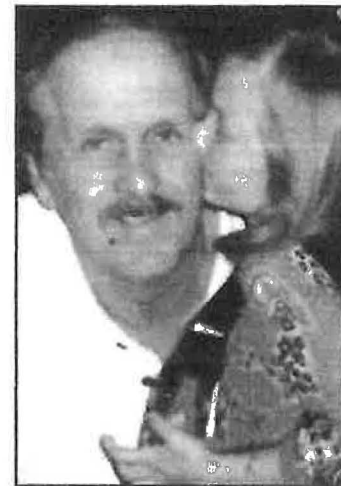

Among those most beloved are his wife Elizabeth (Beth), his daughter Crystal Kiker, son-in law, Toby Kiker, daughter, Jenna Phelps, and one precious grandchild, Trista Kiker. He has five wonderful siblings, John Hufford and wife Pam of Midland, TX, Pam Estes, Mike Hollingsworth, Tony Hollingsworth, Terry Hollingsworth and wife Kim of Gainesville, Georgia. He will be greatly remembered by many many nieces and nephews whom he loved and adored.

Memorial services will be Wednesday, July 29, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. at Sunset Memorial Gardens.

In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made to the Fallen Heroes Memorial fund.
